Steers win, advance into regional

By Roy Ivey

Robert Lee High School's Steer basketball team advanced to the Region I boys basketball tournament this weekend with two wins last week.

Tuesday, the Steers traveled to Imperial to meet Tornillo in the area game and buried the far West Texas team 51-35 to give the Steers a 25-4 record going into the regional tournament.

Robert Lee will open the tournament Friday night at Levelland's South Plains College when the Steers will battle Sundown at 8:30 p.m. If they win Friday, they will play Saturday against the winner of the Nazareth-Booker game. The championship game is set for Saturday night.

The Steers won last Thursday over Iraan 52-42 in the bidistrict game after taking the District 16-A championship. Runnerup in the district, Sterling City has also won both preliminary playoff games and will participate in the tourney beginning Friday. Sterling City defeated Marathon 51-48 Tuesday to reach the tournament.

The Steers were led by Bobby Boone Tuesday in the victory over Tornillo as he had 18 points. Jimmy Skinner, Eddie Hood and Kirby Rasco, all hit for 11 each in the game.

The Steers led at halftime

24-15 and went on to nab the victory.

Robert Lee had an easier time with Tornillo than with District 15-A runnerup Iraan.

The Steers kept Iraan at arms length in the first half. Greg Grim scored first with one-and-a-half minutes gone and Robert Lee kept that lead through the first half and into the third quarter when the Braves began an determined comeback.

Key to the Steers' early dominance was good defense as they held a 9-4 lead at the end of the first quarter.

In the second period, Robert Lee opened strong with steals by Skinner and Boone, but Iraan pulled to within one at the 5:40 mark. At that point, there were a number of missed shots and then Robert Lee put a little space between the Steers and Iraan.

There were more missed shots but Robert Lee added some cushion with some accurate shooting by Grim and Rasco and mistakes by Iraan. The Steers took a 19-12 score into the dressing room at halftime.

Robert Lee opened the second half as they had finished the first. But the Braves came on strong and wrenched the lead away from the Steers at the 4:21 mark of the third period with a 24-23 score. They didn't keep the lead long as Hood hit from the outside and then stole the ball on the following Iraan possession.

Iraan pulled to within one at the 3:37 mark of the fourth quarter, but hot hands by Grim, Rasco and Skinner gave the Steers a 46-40 cushion with 1:11 left in the game. The Steers began stalling and a frustrated Iraan squad fouled continuously allowing the Steers to pad their lead with charity shots. Skinner, Rasco and Hood all hit free throws in that stretch with the final point coming with seven seconds left in the game. Hood hit a free throw giving the Steers the winning 52-42 margin.

Grim was the leading scorer in the game with 21 points, Rasco hit 11, Hood added 10, Skinner shot for six and Boone added four.

Soil Compaction Can Reduce Crop Production

Soil compaction can act as an unseen enemy to farmers and reduce crop production.

Commonly called a "hardpan," compacted soil can literally "choke off" plant roots so that they're unable to get water or nutrients.

A shallow plant root system often indicates compacted soil. Plant roots may be unable to penetrate a severely compacted soil and may grow horizontally, resulting in what some farmers call "crow foot" in such crops as cotton that have a tap root.

Along with stunting plant roots, soil compaction may affect seed germination, seedling emergence and other phases of crop growth and production.

Poor stands, poor plant growth, discolored plant leaves and premature wilting may signal problems due to compacted soil. However, many of these same symptoms can also be due to dry weather, nutrient deficiencies and factors.

Excessive soil compaction also reduces water penetration and increases run-off and soil erosion. Water standing in a field may signal a soil compaction problem since water infiltration is slow in a hardpan area.

The best way to identify a hardpan is to dig a hole at least 3 feet deep and look for crop roots in the subsoil. If roots have penetrated the subsoil, then the next crop should also be able to move to that depth.

A farmer can also use a sharp rod or soil probe to check for hardpans. A person should be able to push the rod into the soil at a fairly constant rate until it hits compacted soil. The average person will have trouble pushing the rod through a hardpan.

What causes soil compaction?

Some soils are naturally compact, especially subsoil material. Excessive tillage, which reduces the size of soil granules, and tillage or other field operations when soil is wet are two major causes of soil compaction.

In fact, any machinery operation results in soil compaction, whether it's planting, cultivating, fertilizing or harvesting.

Farmers should limit the use of heavy equipment and the number of tillage operations to those required to keep soil productive. Avoid tillage if it does not improve soil physical conditions, promote water infiltration and aeration, help weed control, incorporate crop residues into the soil, prepare a seedbed, or help control wind and water erosion.

Fruit Trees Need Annual "Lube" Job

Have you given your fruit and nut trees their annual "lube"?

job? This refers, of course, to an application of dormant oil to control scale insects.

Why control scale insects?

The answer is simply to save the tree. If a scale insect such as the San Jose scale or white peach gets started, it could kill your tree.

Dormant oil can be purchased at many different stores where garden supplies are sold. Be sure to follow all label directions and apply the mixture when the temperature is between 40-70 degrees F. Do not apply if a freeze is likely within 48 hours after application, and do not apply after the tree has budded out.

Dormant oil is applied when the tree is dormant. Spraying flowers and leaves could cause leaf burn and flower drop.

Scale insects are difficult for more people to detect, so dormant oil should be applied once each year. Sooner or later your tree will probably be attacked by scale insects, so be ready by guarding against them with an application of dormant oil.

Rifle team competes in sectional

The Coke County 4-H Jr. Rifle team traveled to Tarleton College at Stephenville, Saturday, Feb. 25, to participate in a N.R.A. Junior indoor sectional championships and came home with the golf medals in the Intermediate Junior 4 persons team match. The team consists of coach Richard Johnson, Phil Stephens, Douglas Roberts, James Paul Skipworth, and John Hinnard.

Phil Stephens captured the gold medal, shooting the high individual score. James Paul Skipworth took the bronze medal for third high individual in the intermediate Jr. Class, 15 & 16 year old.

Richard Johnson, team coach, said he was pleased with the team effort, "even though we shot a little under our average, we did well for our first match of the year." The weather has not been good for very much practice. That is why we have to get our range covered, and made into an indoor range, since most of the matches we participate in are indoor ranges. Our shooting points are already covered so it wouldn't take much material or labor to make our range indoor."

The team will be working hard to try and win the Texas State Rifle Championships held in Austin March 17 and 18.

The San Angelo Social Security Office is trying a new appointment procedure to improve service to the public and to insure more timely and accurate handling of Social Security applications.

Anyone wanting to file for monthly benefits should call before visiting the San Angelo office. If an interview is needed, an appointment, either in-person or by telephone, will be scheduled at the caller's convenience. Alpha Kappa Phi holds meeting

Alpha Kappa Phi met on Feb. 8 in the home of Joann Runion. The program was given by Joann on "Interior Assessories". Thirteen members were present.

The next meeting was on Feb. 22 at O'Malley's Restaurant in San Angelo for "Ladies Night Out". There were 15 present.

Sorority gave the Feb. birthday party at the W.C.C. Nursing Home Saturday, Feb. 25. A nice evening and refreshments were enjoyed.

A MESSAGE FROM CITIZENS FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT. . .

Election time is near for two County Commissioners. We should not forget the closing of "Friendship Road" and the methods used to squeeze us off Lake Spence.

The first meeting we attended, the commissioners told us that they were not going to close the road, but as soon as we left the room they called a public hearing to close it.

When the hearing was held we presented a petition with 289 names objecting to the closing of the road.

Mr. Ivie of CRMWD asked them to close it. They ignored our petition and closed the road. Our attorney explained to the commissioners and county attorney that the road was not legally closed because they did not follow the correct procedure and did not have a required unanimous vote on the closing.

They refused to open the road and we were forced to sue the county and try to get it opened. Judge Hart held a pretrial hearing after we had presented our evidence. The judge asked if there were any questions. Bill Helwig, the county attorney said yes. He doubted that the road was a county road as he could not find where it was dedicated. This was a ridiculous question as we had proved that the road was established in 1914 and had been maintained by the county since that time.

The county attorney asked for another pretrial hearing, at a later date, which Judge Hart granted.

We found out later that this was just another stall to give the county time to try something else. They called another so called public hearing for Dec. 31, 1982 the last day that the out going commissioner could act.

This meeting was not published in any paper. We were not notified that it was going to be held. Our attorney was not notified. We were totally unprepared.

Our attorney was in San Antonio. The meeting was called under an old law where they were required to post notices in three public places. One was put on the bulletin board in the Courthouse where it was mixed with so many other papers that it could not be seen. The other two were put on the closed gates, miles past road closed signs. .

We do not consider these public places. The meeting was held and we again presented copies of the petition with 289 people objecting to the closing of any part of "Friendship road". Again the commissioners and county attorney ignored them and abandoned the county road inside Lake Spence property.

We believe we need Commissioners that we can trust who will be open and above board and let the people know what is going on and tell the truth. We earnestly request that the people who believe in a better county government vote for Finis Harmon and Robert Wink in the coming election. We would also like for all people who have moved here to Robert Lee to please register in time to vote. They can ignore our pleas. They can ignore our petition and even ignore the law, but they can not ignore our vote.
