

HASKELL, HASKELL COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1957

NUMBER 8

Plans Filed for Forming Water District for This Area

Haskell and six towns to form a water district in this area were announced by the Legislature Monday. Senator George Mofcotte and Representative Cloud of Rule.

The district would permit the city to buy surplus water from Lake Stamford, when the local group met with the Stamford City Council in that city last Friday. Attending the meeting were Mayor J. E. Walling and Aldermen Brooks Middleton, Jim Byrd, Hut Pitman and Chas. E. Smith. No action was taken by either group.

Prior to the meeting arranged with the Stamford Council, a group of interested citizens and the water resources committee of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, had endorsed organization of the North Central Texas Water Authority to develop a source of water for Haskell and six neighboring towns.

Stamford Mayor W. E. Harrison explained that Haskell would have to take the water raw from the lake, building its own pipeline, filter plant and pump station. The water would have to be piped a distance of 11 or 12 miles.

Harrison told the Haskell officials that Lake Stamford currently contains about 17,000 acre feet of water, and that it has a capacity of 60,000 acre feet. He did not make it clear as to what portion of the lake consumption would be made available to Haskell.

Haskell would pay a rate of 5 cents per 1,000 gallons for the raw water, it was understood, for a fixed minimum to be agreed upon. A maximum figure also would be set, and Haskell would be required to negotiate for any substantial increase should the need develop. Any contract executed would be for a period not exceeding 26 years, it was understood.

Should the need arise for any extensive repairs to the lake or dam, Haskell would also be liable for a proportionate part of the cost, Councilmen were told. The lake now supplies water for Stamford and Hamlin.

Second game of the series will be played tonight, in HES gymnasium. The third game, if needed, will be played Saturday.

Farmers Union to Send Delegate to Washington, D. C.

A permanent organization of the Haskell County Farmers Union will be formed and permanent officers elected at an early date, members voted at a meeting held Tuesday night in the district court room here.

Also at Tuesday night's meeting Allen Strickland, Haskell farmer and gin manager, was elected as the county's representative in a group of Farmers Union members who will go to Washington, D. C., this weekend. A special bus carrying the farm delegation will leave Wichita Falls Friday. At the nation's capitol they will discuss the farm situation and agricultural problems with congressional and government officials.

The local farm unit now has 102 members, more than enough to secure a charter to affiliate with the state and national Farmers Union organization, leaders of the group said.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Turner of Oklahoma City, Okla., visited this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. White.

Rains Bring Best Prospects For Normal Moisture in Years

February rains which have brought the brightest promise of a normal crop season moisture since 1949 soaked Haskell County farm and ranchlands with rainfall ranging from almost one-half inch upward this week.

Slow soaking drizzles and light rains from Sunday night through Tuesday had brought .43 inch of moisture here, Government weather observer Sam Herren reported Wednesday. Reports from surrounding areas ranged up to .61 inch in parts of the county. Herren reported total February precipitation to date now stands at 1.85 inch and for the year at 2.28 inches. Normal rainfall for January and February is 1.86 inches.

Additional moisture received this week has boosted prospects for the county's small grain crop and will go a long way toward reviving ranges and pastures. Livestock raisers are elated over the prospects for early grazing which will eliminate expensive feeding during the dry winter months.

Ideal moisture has been provided for the county's small grain, and will result in additional seeding of spring oats. Thousands of acres of oats were planted following the early February rains, and additional acreage will be seeded when farmers can get into the fields.

It is estimated that between 20,000 and 40,000 acres will be seeded in oats, about the average for a normal crop year, agricultural leaders said.

Seeded wheatland in the county is estimated at approximately 30,000 acres, with an additional 30,000 acres in the soil bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Gresham plan to leave Feb. 26 for Oklahoma City, Okla., where they will make their home. Mr. Gresham has accepted invitations to preach at several churches within driving distances of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Gresham will be in charge of the college cafeteria on the campus of Mid-West Christian College in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gresham came to the Haskell church from Fowler, Kans., in the early part of 1955. In addition to his ministry in the local church, Mr. Gresham has been active in various community and school affairs and is a member of the Haskell Lions Club.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend both morning and evening services Sunday.

Haskell Jaycees Will Sponsor "Donut Blockade" Saturday

Plans for the first major enterprise of Haskell Jaycees were completed at the organization's raising project Tuesday night in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe.

Jaycees will sponsor a "Donut Blockade" Saturday in the business section as their first fund-raising project. Traffic blockade stations will be set up at three points in the business section, where Jaycees will sell fresh-cooked donuts at 50 cents per dozen.

All members of the organization will take turns at manning the sales stations, which will be open from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 3 to 6 p. m. Saturday.

The Sweet Shop will provide the donuts for the selling event, and the delicacies will be freshly baked for that day.

Proceeds from Saturday's venture will be used by the Jaycees in their work on community projects which may be undertaken by the civic organization.

Also at Tuesday night's meeting, announcement was made that tickets for the Jaycees Charter Banquet were on sale. Gerald Smith is chairman of the ticket sales committee, and he announced that the tickets would be available from any member.

Lions Briefed on Scout Campaign; to Urge Polio Shots

Members of the Lions Club were given an outline of the Boy Scout Building Campaign of the Chisholm Trail Council Tuesday by Homer Bankhead of Dallas, representative of the campaign director.

Bankhead said that $175,000 is needed for the camp development program. He was introduced by John Crawford, local chairman of the campaign, who also explained that 15 workers will be needed to carry out the drive in Haskell.

Lions also discussed sponsoring a movement to provide Salk Polio vaccine for children of Haskell County who have not been immunized against the disease. The State Health Department will provide sufficient Salk vaccine for the first two shots for all children. Lions were told. A committee composed of Dr. T. W. Williams, W. O. Holden and Theron Cahill was named, and this group will meet with physicians at the Haskell Clinic to enlist their cooperation in giving the first two shots free to the children. The third and final immunization would be given later, with parents paying the small fee charged, it was explained.

Report of the annual financial audit of the club was given by Lion A. C. Pierson, who reported a balance of $189.31 on hand in the club treasury.

Guests at the meeting and luncheon were Dr. John Wesley Ford, preacher, and Charles Thompson, singer, who are conducting a revival this week at the First Methodist Church. Thompson is the son of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Haskell.

Spanish Supper Nets $300 For Curtain Fund

Students of Haskell High School and Junior High School report approximately $300 raised for the Curtain Fund at the Spanish Supper held Monday evening in the Elementary school cafeteria.

Despite the weather and light rain, attendance at the affair was well above expectations, sponsors jubilantly reported.

The students wish to thank the Borden Milk Company, the parents and teachers, and all people who supported the Curtain Fund. Especially do they desire to thank those who were so patient with the necessarily slow service due to the fact that the food could not be prepared ahead of time.

Members of the Spanish Class dressed in Spanish costumes for the occasion and members of the HHS Homemaking Department dressed in Squaw dresses served the tables. The meal was prepared by the parents and teachers. The Borden Milk Co. furnished a superb dessert.

Sponsors said Tuesday that net proceeds from the supper would amount to $300 or more. The Senior Class received special recognition for selling the most tickets. The Owl Club donated $31, which was made from a cake sale sponsored by the club last Saturday.

Watson urges all members of the local unit to report for the practice session. Those who have field glasses or binoculars are asked to bring them.

Members of the Haskell Cemetery Association express appreciation to owners of lots who promptly paid their annual dues for 1957, in January. These dues pay the expense for keeping the lots free from grass and weeds which the late rains have brought up.

At that meeting dealer recommendations on sales and advertising policies, merchandising programs and product design and improvement were discussed with top officials of Ford Motor Company.

'Develop Leaders,' Speaker Urges At Annual C of C Banquet

The small communities of the nation have the responsibility of training young men and women to take their places as leaders in solving the problems which threaten civilization in a nuclear age, Curtis Cook, managing editor of the Wichita Falls Record News, told an audience of almost 400 persons at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night.

Guests at the affair, held in the elementary school auditorium, included 104 out-of-town visitors from 15 towns and cities. Attending were visitors from Haskell, Okla., Abilene, Wichita Falls, Seymour, Stamford, Rochester, Munday, Rule, Weinstert, Benjamin, Houston, Anson, Luaders, Graham and Knox City.

"During the past 50 years our technical and scientific progress has unlocked the secret of the atom and given man the power to destroy civilization. We have made a mess of this progress and turned the world into an armed camp," Cook declared. "Now we must train a new generation to solve the problems we have created."

"To do this, we must produce men and women of integrity and sincerity who can and will solve these problems," the speaker admonished.

He urged Haskell and similar communities to build these citizens through good homes, schools, churches, and an interest in politics which will maintain the needed air of complete and utter freedom.

"Do you want to wipe out civilization, or go to the moon?" the speaker queried in his closing remarks. "Man has solved the secret which will enable him to do either. It depends on the way we train our young men and women. If we train them right, then we have done our job as a community in preserving the peace and integrity of the world," he said.

The speaker was introduced by Jetty V. Clark, publisher of The Free Press.

Ira Hester, outgoing president, presided for the program. Following the invocation by the Rev. Roland Williams, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church, special recognition was given the delegation of more than 20 visitors from Haskell, Okla., led by I. E. Odom, "resident of that city's chamber of commerce."

John Luton of Muskogee, Okla., Haskell city attorney for Haskell, Okla., gave a brief talk on the city which he represents.

Luton mentioned the two candidate plans which furnished cases of speeches and papers presented at the banquet tables Friday night.

STORY NO. 3

Mexican Border Troubles of 1915-17 Hatched in Parr Capital, San Diego

By-FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, TEX.—Like his father, George Berham Parr is a small man as Texans go. In him there is a curious touch of Pancho Villa, or Robin Hood.

A psychologist could explain Parr much better than I can explain his sometimes baffling behavior.

Unlike his father, George Parr is trigger-tempered, often to the point of rashness. For example, there is the incident of a few weeks ago when a Duval County commissioner, Thomas H. Molina, angered him. Parr grabbed a rifle and raged out of his office and into the courthouse across the street, shouting for Molina. He was cornered in the basement by Ranger Walter Russel and disarmed.

Parr's white hair is dyed red, a mahogany red. In contrast to both the "Anglos" and the Latins, he always dresses neatly in a business suit. He is deep-tanned, soft spoken and there is much about him that is charming—and disarming.

I watched Parr on the night of the July 28 primaries. The polls were just about to close when I talked to him. He was a very busy man, issuing orders right and left in rapid Spanish, giving followers crisp green bills and sending them on errands. He seemed harassed, even wistful. The scene was the Mexican-style plaza in front of the church of San Pablo.

Parr's people, hundreds of them, milled around in the dusk under the trees. Across the street from the Parr forces was anti-Parr headquarters—and between the two groups armed Texas Rangers under Captain Alfred Allee moved quietly. The atmosphere was tense and electric.

The light of the Sun reaches the earth in 498.6 seconds, or slightly more than eight minutes.

The Koaie, a sea bird, nests in the cliffs of volcano walls in Hawaii.

The diameter of the planet Mars is 4,200 miles, about half that of the earth.

Enough power is required to stop a train running at 60 miles per hour to lift it vertically 120 feet.

Sound travels at the rate of 1,088 feet per second at sea level.

January 20, 1915, when George Berham Parr was in his teens, that a man named Basilio Ramos, age 24, was arrested in McAllen, Texas, with a copy of the utterly fantastic "El Plano de San Diego" on his person.

The plan was for revolution against the United States. In San Diego today they'll show you the sun-blasted building where the plan was hatched in August, 1914, and they'll tell you of the furtive comings and goings of mysterious Germans, supposedly agents of the Imperial General Staff in Berlin.

The San Diego plot wasn't taken too seriously at the time, but in 1917 when the famous Zimmerman note, a document that helped put the United States into World War I, was intercepted and furnished officials in Washington suddenly realized that the plan was real and not the product of raving crackpots.

For example, the death of Border Patrolman Ed Wheeler was first listed as accidental. Wheeler was, to use his own words, "about to blow the lid off Duval" in a narcotics raid when his car went off the road and his body was found in the flaming wreck.

Just for the record here are a few of the cases officially on the books as homicides: Horacio Garza, knifed to death in San Diego; Jacinto Gutierrez, shot, San Diego; Ricardo Escobar, shot, Freer; Juan Elizondo, shot, Benavides; Rolando Ritz, shot, San Diego; John E. Gilbert, shotgun, Freer; Thomas Banks, shotgun, Freer; Rodolfo Munoz, shot, San Diego; Guy Hastings, shot, Freer; Frank Lott, shot, San Diego.

There is nothing on the record to show that these murders were political. Certainly the wanton slaying on September 9, 1952, of Jacob Floyd, Jr., was political. So were the killings of radio newsmen Bill Mason and Ed Edwin Wheeler.

Assistant Attorney General Sidney Chandler puts it this way: "Before Shepperd came here, if a man committed a crime in Duval, including murder, it depended on which side of the fence he was on whether he got punished or not. The evidence didn't matter. It was how the jury voted. If the machine wanted you acquitted, you were acquitted. If it worked another way, too. If a man killed another man, in a fit of temper or for any other reason, and he was acquitted, then the machine could count on his loyalty and the loyalty of his family from then on."

No matter how the figures for violent death in Duval are interpreted, one fact is grimly clear: they are far higher than the national average. The suicide rate, for example, is more than four times that for the United States as a whole—and Latins, being Catholic, do not commit suicide. The Mexican-American is intensely religious and to him suicide is a mortal sin, punishable by a eternity of damnation.

History and Test Results Given on Sorghum Alnum

By F. W. MARTIN
County Agent

Sorghum alnum was first described in literature from Argentina where according to available evidence, it originated as a hybrid between Johnson grass and a sorghum. In Argentina it is known as Sorgo Negro, Sudan Negro and Sorghum alnum as Columbus grass in South Africa.

The seed shatter when mature. They generally are larger than those of Johnson grass but seed coverings of both grasses are the same color and shape. Sorghum alnum does not appear to cross readily with Sudan grass and other cultivated sorghums but some types apparently cross freely with Johnson grass.

Egg Production Expected to Set Record in '57

National egg production in 1957 is likely to exceed the 1956 record output of 169 million cases by 2 percent, according to Texas A&M College Economists and Poultry Marketing Specialists.

Lower egg prices observed in late 1956 are expected to continue through the first quarter of the new year.

In the first half of 1957, output will come from about the same number of layers as a year earlier, but with a higher per-bird rate of lay. Present outlook indicates 1957 summer and fall prices will likely be near 1956 levels, since production after late summer and fall prices won't be up from the 1956 figures.

If enough producers reduce purchases for pullet replacements, the outlook for reasonable profits during the last quarter of 1957 will be much brighter. Prices received by producers in the first quarter of 1957, however, will probably govern the number of pullet replacements. Effects of a drop in pullet replacements could possibly be offset by higher rates of lay per bird.

With a reduction in early spring pullets replacements egg production could drop, especially since hens now on farms lay less in second year production than pullets in the first year lay.

Risk-sharing plans are not considered a major influence on 1957 egg production.

H. H. S. BAND NEWS

By SANDRA COBURN

Nancy Fancher, first chair clarinet player in the Haskell High School Band, was honored last week by being chosen for the All-State Band. Nancy was chosen because she ranked high in the All Region Band which was named at McMurry College last December.

The All-State Band, which assembled at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas Feb. 13-15, was composed of first chair players from all Region Bands. It is quite an honor to play in this exclusive music organization.

Nancy reports that the band members who gathered in Dallas over the weekend were entertained royally with banquets, parties, and proms.

Thanks, Nancy, for representing our school in such a wonderful way.

Mr. Stephens, our band director, was also in Dallas last week for a Texas Music Educators Association meeting.

The Stage Band played a short concert at the Spanish Dinner Monday night.

The band has been practicing on music to be played at Sweetwater on March 16 at a band clinic. We are also working on music for a festival which we plan to attend in Jacksboro on March 29.

Golden Esso Extra GASOLINE

prevents the "knock you cannot hear!"

Engineers call it "trace knock," and only the trained ear can hear it.

But trace knock, like any knock, robs your engine of its power, forecasts engine damage.

If yours is a modern car in any price class—especially if it's a 1957 model—prevent trace knock with Golden Esso Extra, the gasoline with the highest octane rating ever.

Use Golden Esso Extra. Added value from full performance offsets the small extra cost. Stop at the golden pump under your neighbor's Humble sign.

If you answer yes to any one of these questions, you should try Golden Esso Extra—world's finest gasoline.

- Does your car knock on "premium" gasoline?
- Is your car air-conditioned? (On an average, the engine pulls a 3-ton air conditioner.)
- Does the engine have a compression ratio of 9 to 1, or higher?
- Does your car have more than one carburetor or a "Power-Pack"?
- Is the engine rated at 200 horsepower or higher?

(These points become even more important as you add miles to a new car; anti-knock requirements increase when you pass the break-in point.)

"Andrew Jackson" Is Program Subject Of Magazine Club

The Magazine Club continued the study of "American Heritage" at its meeting Friday, Feb. 15. Mrs. John Rike, the director, gave the major accomplishments during the administration of the preceding presidents, connecting this program with the previous one.

Miss Nettie McCollum told about "Andrew Jackson, the Man," beginning with his childhood and continuing with his life and career as a soldier. Mrs. W. A. Lyles contrasted the stern, upright Adams; and the assertive, self-made Jackson. "Old Hickory" introduced the "spoils system" in politics. He rewarded his friends, and punished his enemies.

The presidents, before Jackson, had considered themselves as "executives" to carry out the laws made by Congress. But Jackson had little regard for Congress, and no awe of the Supreme Court. He considered that his own will was the will of the people.

Mrs. Hugh Smith and Mrs. Hill Oates, hostesses for the occasion, had decorated the club room with arrangements of red roses, carrying out the Valentine theme.

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Texas — Gov. Price Daniel's proposed reorganization of the Insurance Department provides a brand new "big issue" for the Legislature.

Daniel asked the lawmakers to give emergency status to a plan to abolish the present commission and substitute a set-up similar to the Highway Commission, but full time. This would mean a three-man policy board appointed by the governor and an administrator of the entire operation by the board.

Present three-member Board of Insurance Commissioners is charged with both policy-making and administrative functions. Individually, each administrator of regulation for one segment of the industry—life, casualty and fire. Collectively, they act as over-all policy-makers.

It's an efficient operation, says Daniel. He said now is the appropriate time to change it before new commissioners become wedded to the old way. He asked Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to draw up a bill.

Only Fire Commissioner Mark Wentz has a "definite seat" at present. Casualty Commissioner Morris Brownlee's term expired Feb. 10, but he is being kept on temporarily until a successor is named. Life Commissioner John Osorio was appointed late last year by Gov. Shivers, but has not been confirmed by the Senate.

Daniel said he made his decision "long before" the recent insolvency proceedings against ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas.

Industry groups, nevertheless, were taken by surprise. Most were unable to decide immediately whether to oppose, endorse or take "hands off" attitude.

Allred Returned
Renne Allred is back on the job as attorney in the Insurance Department liquidation division.

Allred was fired as the division's chief attorney by the Insurance Commission in 1954. He protested at the time before legislative committees that he was responsible only to Travis County's district judge, who handle insurance litigation.

His new appointment was made by Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts. Allred is a brother of former Gov. James V. Allred.

Water Program Goes Forward
Both House and Senate constitutional amendments committees have okayed the $200,000,000 Water Development Fund.

Under the plan a state bond issue would raise money to assist local governments to finance water conservation construction—up to $5,000,000 per project.

House committee made some changes which would require a special legislative appropriation to pay principal and interest when necessary. House Sponsor Leroy Saul of Kress protested that this would make the bonds a less attractive investment, resulting in a higher interest rate for the state.

Local Legislation Fought
Local vs. state control battles have assumed almost the proportions of the more usual state vs. federal government controversy.

At least a half-dozen bills now before the Texas Legislature are being opposed on the grounds that they represent unwarranted legislative interference in local matters.

House constitutional amendments committee voted down a proposal by Rep. John Crosthwait of Dallas to allow the Legislature to pass bills applying to specific counties. It would do away with local self-government, said opponents. Crosthwait said it would eliminate the present practice of passing laws applying to counties with a certain population.

Several bills by which firemen and policemen seek better hours and pay are being labeled "legislative dictation" by the League of Municipalities.

Two bills to give the State Highway Department greater powers to condemn land for right-of-way met similar protests. "That's much power," said Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. "They'll take your courthouse and anything they want." Senate Jurisprudence Committee approved them anyway.

Oil Imports Hit
President Eisenhower was asked to take "immediate steps to curb foreign oil imports" in a resolution passed by the State Senate.

Resolution was proposed by Senators Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo and William Fly of Victoria.

Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culberson quickly congratulated the Senate. "That's always been the fly in the butter," said Culberson, "those excessive imports."

Pay Bills Advance
Plans to give teachers and lawmakers better pay are moving forward in both Houses of the Legislature.

House members approved 115 to 29, a proposed constitutional amendment providing for annual sessions of the Legislature and $4,800 annual salaries for members. Original proposal was for $7,500 a year.

Boys Panels
Other Legislative committee action brought:

1. Protest against Sen. George Moffett's proposal for a study on diverting lease and bonus income from school lands from the permanent to available school fund. "A foot in the door" would be fatal, said opponents. Resolution went to probable subcommittee grave.

2. An appeal from National Democratic Committeeman Byron Ellison for Rep. Tony Kiorich's bill to require voters to register by party preference 30 days before each primary. Sent to subcommittee for one week.

3. Tentative plans by the House Committee on State Hospitals and Special Schools to visit the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation near Livingston the latter part of this week. Administration of the reservation has been in a state of confusion, resulting in resignations, audits, law-searching and to committee suggestion that they "give it back to the Indians."

4. Rejection by a Senate committee of a bill to strike the word "knowingly" from law forbidding sale of liquor to minors. Proprietors contended liquor sellers used it as a loophole. Opponents said it would make dealers liable for innocent mistakes.

Short Snorts—Sen. Abraham Kazen, Jr., of Laredo has introduced a bill to set up a Texas Council on Migrant Labor to improve conditions for "Texas citizens who are migrant laborers." Federal government has control of braceros in interstate commerce. County officials serving 4-year terms would be required to resign their post to run for another one under a bill proposed by Rep. L. Dewitt Hale of Corpus Christi.

MRS. GENE OVERTON

The Junior Basketball Tournament was such a nice one. Teams from Anson, Throckmorton, Knox City, Weirnet, Lueders, Rochester, Munday, Mattson, Albany and Paint Creek. The games started Thursday afternoon and continued Friday afternoon and night and all day Saturday. Winners were, for the girls, Anson first, Munday second and Paint Creek third; for the boys, Lueders first, Rochester second, and Knox City third. The seniors sold gallons of Coke and hundreds of sandwiches and brownies. It was a most profitable thing for them, and the juniors enjoyed having a tournament. Some of the games were as exciting as any senior basketball we have seen this year.

Our boys senior team have their playoff games for district title with Mattson in the Haskell gym on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights of this week. The girls play for district title with Old Glory at the Stamford gym on this coming Friday night Feb. 22, next Monday, Feb. 25 and Thursday Feb. 28.

The Homer Livengoods are planting fruit trees from the front of their home to the road, and planting pecan trees in the back. It will be such an attractive place when they get it landscaped.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Johnson and daughter Donice, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Elbert, and daughter Mrs. Kenneth Wright of Fort Worth were Friday and Saturday guests of Mr. & Mrs. L. Mfg. Co. under $20.00. Sizes 8-18.

The members of the senior class were entertained with a progressive dinner Thursday night, Valentine. Cocktails were at 6:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell. Then they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton for the salad course where Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kuenstler were co-hosts with the Overtons. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton were hosts for the main course and then the seniors went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton where Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery were co-hosts with them for the dessert. Each hostess carried out the Valentine theme in decorations and favors. Senior attending were Howard Scheets, Arvie Bergstrom, Eddie Lee Thane, Judy Earles, Roddy Kuenstler, Eddie M. Earles, Cynthia Russell, Wallar and Mike Overton attended the meeting of the Amateur Magicians Club in Abilene with Kenneth Lafferty and Johnny Brown the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mullins of Lubbock spent last weekend with Mrs. Mullin's sister, Mrs. John E. Kuenstler and Mr. Kuenstler. Gene Overton will bring my neck, when he reads this, but since I am just related to him by Barbara Peiser and Bobbie Druesdow.

Kenneth Howard was home last weekend from TCU at Ft. Worth. He attended the Peiser-Druesdow wedding and the basketball tournament Saturday night.

The community extends its deepest sympathy to Jesse Cook and his family in the loss of Mr. Cook's father, Wade Cook of Ponca City, Okla. Mr. Cook went Thursday on the bus, and after learning of his father's death, Mrs. Cook and the children went Saturday afternoon. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. The elder Cook had been quite ill since suffering a heart attack several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Earles had dinner Tuesday evening of last week with Mrs. Earles niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Maston and baby daughter of Rochester. After dinner they attended the Rochester-Paint Creek game.

William Overton and his mother, Mrs. Gene Overton attended the Shakespearean drama "Taming of the Shrew" presented by the ACC players in Abilene last Tuesday night. Wallar and Mike Overton attended the meeting of the Amateur Magicians Club in Abilene with Kenneth Lafferty and Johnny Brown the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mullins of Lubbock spent last weekend with Mrs. Mullin's sister, Mrs. John E. Kuenstler and Mr. Kuenstler. Gene Overton will bring my neck, when he reads this, but since I am just related to him by ger for the hospital. Right now, Mr. Fry, the Haskell representative closes his business while he attends meetings, and Shorty Almond, from Rule hires a man to run his station while he goes to Haskell to the board meetings. These men all give unselfishly of their time so we may have a good hospital in Haskell County.

So, Gene, this part of Paint Creek is grateful for all you have done in behalf of the hospital these ten years and I am sure glad of you, although I am sure glad you are through. Commissioner Louie Kuenstler has appointed Joe Patterson to represent Paint Creek on the board.

Eddie Mack Earles spent the night on the ACC campus last Friday night with Joe Bob Earles. The Scouters of Northern District Chisholm Trail Council had their monthly meeting at the home of the Gene Overtons Monday night. After dinner the men planned the annual Camporee to be held at Scott Park in March. Scouters attending were Connor Horton and J. C. Lewis from Rule; Fred Brown and H. V. Woodard and Don Roberts from Haskell; and Rae Eastland, Burr Russell, Kenneth Lafferty and Buddy Jones from Stamford; Ira Coleman and Gene Overton from Paint Creek. There will be a practice Camporee this week at Scott Memorial Park when the Scouts and Scouters will camp out. Parents of Scouts are invited to attend the Council Fire on Friday night, and on Friday night of the real Camporee.

Spearman Business Men Here to Study 'Dollar Day' Plan

The successful promotion of Dollar Day by Haskell merchants has attracted the interest of business men in several adjoining towns.

"Our organization has had frequent inquiries from neighboring towns about the plan used in promoting the monthly Dollar Day," C. of C. Manager Rex Felker said.

However, Felker was surprised Monday to learn that the fame of Haskell's Dollar Day had reached as far as the upper Texas Panhandle.

Shortly before noon Monday, four businessmen from Spearman, Texas, visited the C. of C. office. After introductions, the spokesmen for the group explained that they had flown to Haskell in a private plane expressly for the purpose of learning more about Haskell's Dollar Day promotion plan.

Felker and Don Roberts, of the C. of C. retail trade committee, accompanied the visitors to several stores cooperating in the Dollar Day plan, and explained methods used in promoting the event.

The Spearman merchants spent several hours in Haskell talking to local merchants and C. of C. officials on steps necessary to inaugurate a community Dollar Day campaign in their city.

Champion Better Government Bills

Rep. John Lee of Kermit and Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock, left to right above, were among the first of many Texas legislators to introduce one of the "Better Government" Bills sponsored by the Texas Press Association. TPA has prepared 15 Bills for legislative action. Each bill is designed to correct evils that exist in present Texas laws. "Had the TPA bills been in effect there would have been no veterans land or Duval County scandals," said Senator Smith. "Loopholes in present laws have made possible the scandalous events of the past few years, wherein public monies have been misappropriated," stated Representative Lee. The two Legislators are urging the public to back them in their determination to effect passage of the TPA Legislation. Lee's bill is HB-38. Smith's bill is SB-55. Both bills are known as The Mandatory Publication Act. They do not create any new publication requirements. But they do call for removal from office of any public official who refuses to publish financial reports called for under existing laws.

Poultry Raisers Organize Flock Owners Club

A flock owner's club, composed of poultry raisers interested in developing and encouraging the poultry industry in this section, was organized last week at a meeting held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer in the Paint Creek community. Nine families were present.

Paul Fischer was elected president and Mrs. Fischer was named as secretary of the organization.

An official name for the club will be selected at the next meeting, and additional members are expected to be enrolled in the meantime.

Those present decided to have the first meeting of the new club in March on a date to be selected. Regular meetings will be held every two months, under present plans.

California Creek S.C.D. Report Shows Steady Progress in Soil Conservation

Despite the long and severe drought that has prevailed in this section, the annual report of the California Creek Soil Conservation District shows considerable steady progress in water and soil conservation during the past year.

The district, which lies mostly in Haskell and Jones Counties in the drainage area of California Creek, has completed its 15th year of operation. Board of supervisors of the district is composed of Brooke Early, Haskell, chairman; Lambert Stenholm, Avoca, vice chairman; B. Kupat, Sagerton, Secretary; treasurer;

Revis Robertson of Hamlin and J. E. Nix of Anson, members.

The supervisors report that during the past year substantial progress has been made, both in securing additional cooperators, and in formulating and carrying out a district program. Also, there is an added awareness on the part of farmers and ranchers of the need of soil conservation.

Equipment, valued at approximately $8,963 is owned by the district. The report shows. This equipment is rented to cooperators through the Vocational Agriculture teachers and custodians in the district.

Equipment owned includes 5 combination legume - fertilizer drills, 7 two-row legume and grass seeders, 2 grass drills, 2 land levelers or land planes, 3 border ridgers, 2 Cline, Harbor type cultivators with attached fertilizers and seeders, one rock picker, 2 inter-row seeders.

Emphasized in the report is the fact that the large number of miles of terraces completed in 1956 show the farmers realize the necessity of impounding all available water that falls on their land.

Accomplishments in the district during 1956, as listed in the annual report, include: Crop rotation, 74 acres; contour farming, 18,872 acres; cover cropping, 882 acres; crop-residue utilization, 12,637 acres; rotation hay and pasture, 668 acres; stubble mulching, 1,102 acres; brush

Sponsor Better Government Legislation
