Pageant opening set for tonight

OLE COKE COUNTY may not have "a cast of thousands" but a roster of approximately 90 in a small county of under 3000 folks is impressive. Those 90 characters are in full dress rehearsal this week in preparation for the opening of the historical musical pageant which opens Friday night, July 18. It will be replayed July 19, 25, and 26.

"Texas Singout" will begin at 8 p.m., followed by the flag rising ceremony, and the pageant opening at 8:30 p.m.

The production, written and directed by Lucile Bryan, is based in part on historical events and other scenes are fabricated. OLE COKE COUNTY is sponsored by patron memberships, ticket sales, and souvenir booths. It has no paid employees and members of the cast range from young children to older characters. Some members of the cast portray ancestors while others are relative newcomers to the county. Represented in the pageant are Robert Lee, Bronte, Sanco, Tennyson, and other surrounding communities.

There is room for all in the 900 seat amphitheatre on Mountain Creek in Robert Lee. It is located behind the baseball fields at the county park in the north part of town. It has been suggested that attendees bring cushions or stadium seats for the wooden benches. Ticket prices for the production are $4 for adults and $2 for children.

The 1986 version of the pageant will be the 10th annual presentation. Some cast members, as well as scenes, change from year to year so if you, your family, and guests have seen the musical before, it will still be fresh to you. Out of state residents and relatives of county folks have planned their vacations or visits around the production in the past. Those who are so convenient to OLE COKE COUNTY and have not taken advantage of this fun community achievement are missing out on four chances at a pleasurable evening's entertainment. This pageant does not come across as an amateur effort by the group.

Pageant promotion told

OLE COKE COUNTY PAGEANT supporters are devious-- they'll sneak in anywhere to promote the production. During Ballinger's recent 100th Birthday Parade, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bryan, Jeffie Roberts, Edna Havins, and Richard Bryan dressed Richard's sharp '57 Chevy with a sign on each side touting the musical pageant coming up July 18, 19, 25, and 26 in Robert Lee. The group entered and rode in the antique auto as entry #44 over the parade route.

The group also set up an information and advertising booth on the courthouse grounds along with craftsmen and food vendors. "Rabbit Twister" souvenirs were also sold to the public from the booth.

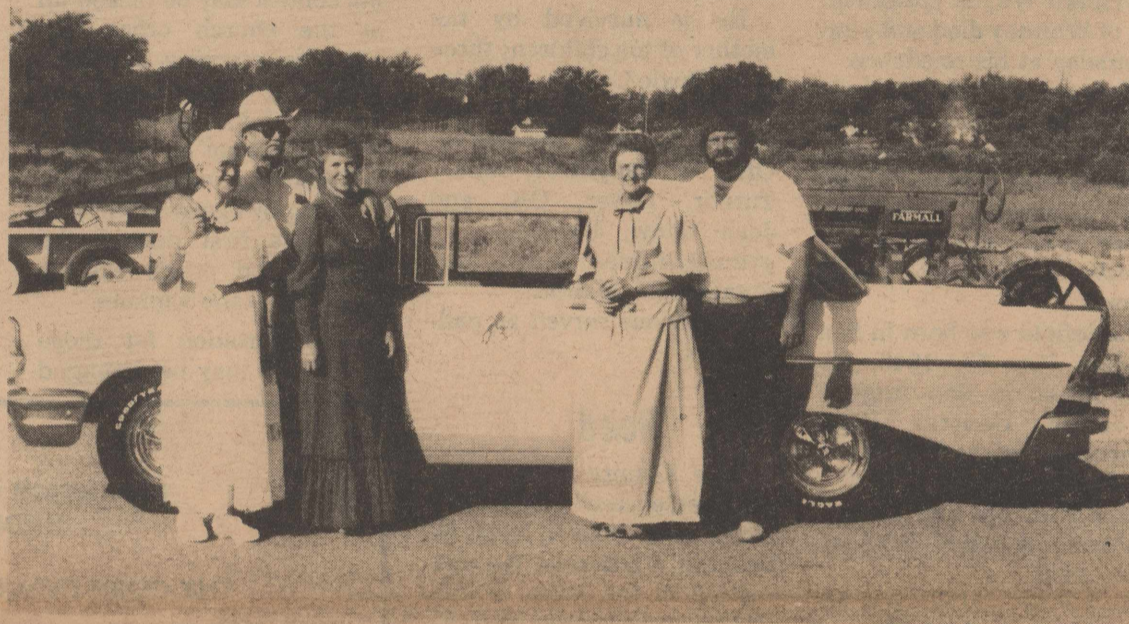

The trip to Ballinger was especially profitable for one member of the OLE COKE

COUNTY cast. Edna Havins registered for, and won, a food processor given away by the West Texas Utilities Company booth.

Death ruled self-inflicted

Everett Warren Haynes, 85, was pronounced dead at his home in Robert Lee on Tuesday at 4:45 p.m. by Peace Justice Opal Jacoby. Cause of death was ruled self-inflicted gunshot wound with death occurring about noon.

Mr. Haynes lived alone in a Robert Lee Housing Authority apartment where he had lived since moving from Alpine in March 1986. A longtime friend, Mrs. La Verne Earwood, of Robert Lee checked on him periodically and often cooked his meals. It was Mrs. Earwood who discovered the body.

4-H'ers to attend camp

Eight 4-H'ers from Coke County will head for New Mexico's Lincoln National Forest July 21-24 for a leadership training camp. The youths are among some 90 boys and girls from through Extension's West Central District participating in the leadership training activities at Camp Scott Able, near Cloudcroft, New Mexico.

Tommy Antilley, Coke County Extension Agent said the camp is designed to promote leadership among older 4-H members. "Work in such areas as public speaking, nature study, and recreational skills will be stressed during the camp," noted Antilley. "Skills and leadership techniques learned at the lab will be used by the delegates in training other 4-H club members in their respective counties."

Many recreational activities are also to be included in the camp, such as mountain climbing, volleyball, and baseball.

At the conclusion of the camp the group will return through Canyon, Texas, where they are scheduled to attend a special Texas Sesquicentennial presentation of the play "Texas".

Attending the lab from Coke County will be Melissa Bivins, Kelly Webb, Jennifer Robinson, Scott Antilley, Stevie Oleksiuk, Jeff Wilkes, Luke Robbins and Michael Lee.

Bronte gospel singing

The monthly old-fashioned gospel singing will be held at the Bronte First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall on Sunday, August 3 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. This is normally held at the Sr. Citizen's Center but the building was unavailable for the August singing. The September first Sunday singing will return to the Sr. Citizen Center. This is a senior citizen function, but a spokesman stresses it is NOT limited to senior citizens. Participants of all ages are invited and urged to attend.

Interested persons have been contributing to the rental of the Sr. Citizen's building and making these programs possible. James Miller, Sid Eubanks, Leonard Fletcher, Billy Joe Lucket and Verna Murphree have generously donated.

Persons liking to sing or just listen, make it a point to be part of these first Sunday-of-each month songfests.
