Haskell Woman's Phone Call to Mother In East Germany Tapped by Communists

BY CHARLENE WHITE Disappointment was in store for Mis. Tom Paul Barnett even before the first story written con-cerning her mother's proposed trip to this country from East Germany, could reach print. Shortly after the interview printed elsewhere in this edition, Mrs. Barnett received a letter from her mother telling her that the phone call she received from her daughter May 14 had been tapped by the East German Communist officials.

As a result a member of the government came to visit Mrs. Ehrenhard under the guise of a friend. "Do you have a daughter in the U. S? Do you plan to vis-it her?" etc. Mrs. Ehrenhard stated that she would like to visit months boxer large enough to her daughter, whereupon she was reminded that this would be against the law of the country. Mrs. Barnett explained that in East Germany it is illegal for any citizen of the so-called German Democratic Republic to spend money in the West, whether it's West Germany or the United States, "That is why she had so much difficulty getting a visa to this country," she said. the $2 triumphantly.

We are losing 11 boys and girls in our Senior class, 12 graduated into high school from grade school, and there were 12 little folks who came to the pre-school clinic. Of course there will be more first graders than that Creek, Texas is, Gene gets his mail sometimes sent to "Paint Creek, Texas." Rudy's mailing address is Avoca, but he says he's from Paint Creek, which he > Isn't it funny how a name improves after it means something? can remember in 1938 when we were submitting names for our new school, and some of us made up some lovely Indian-sounding names of the letters in the names of five consolidating schools. Wayne Perry said Paint Creek wound all around in every part of this community and we should call it Paint Creek. I thought then it sounded so "back woodsy," and to call our beautiful new school by such a hick' name as Paint Creek was a shame. But the majority wanted it, and Paint Creek it was, and now Paint Creek is the nicest name for a school, and little old Paint Creek has become very famous by dumping its waters into our big lake. It always pays to listen to our elders. The Sophomore class and their

Recognized as one of Hollywood's all-time biggest films, Howard Hughes' $6,000,000 production, "The Conqueror," has been booked for the Texas Theatre, starting Sunday, June 3 and running through Tuesday, June 5. With John Wayne, Susan Hayward and Pedro Armendariz costarred, and a cast of thousands employed to tell this story of Temujin, "The Perfect Warrior," who was later to rule a great part of the globe as the mighty Genghis Khan, the RKO Radio picture is presented in CinemaScope and Technicolor.
The story of "The Conqueror" transpires in the late 12th Century, when the man whose con-tury, when the man whose con-quests were to change the face of the world first begins his rise to power. The exciting drama reveals the drives, the motives and the barbaric passions which en-abled him to inspire his people and to win the beautiful Tartar daughter of his most hated foe.

City Ordinance Complicates Life Of Lowly Cur

Normally, a dog's life offers nothing to be desired, according to an often heard saying. Now, with the new ordinance regulating running at large of dogs in Haskell, the deal becomes somewhat more complicated. Henceforth, to legally roam the streets and alleys, every canine must wear an official dog tag (no pun intended) and must submit to inoculation against rabies annually.

Not a bad deal, when you consider that every self-respecting dog welcomes protection against rabies. And the tag, with number and name in the city's canine social registry should make even lowest cur feel like "Mr.

But the law has other restrictions, too. A dog must watch his disposition carefully. Just indicate a desire to whet a tooth on a human shank, and Rover, you've had it! The new law empowers a police officer to destroy any dog manifesting a disposition to only man in Haskell ever to call a teepee home.

However, the law allows the canine one final privilege before he is destroyed. Reasonable notice of the intention to destroy dogs shall first be given publi-cation in a newspaper. A canine obituary, in a sense.

In 1894, Joe aged 12, was taken to the Indian Territory of Oklahoma by a German family named Gridleys. He left his native Arkansas when his widowed mother was unable to provide for her family of four boys.

When the Gridleys and Joe came into the Osage country the weather was cold. The Indians turned over two tepees to the travelers for the night and Joe was made a gift of a bright red Indian blanket, He slept in it that night and kept it for a long time. "Without it I'd probably frozen to death!" he declares.

When they came to Stillwater, Okla., Joe was put into the care of Chief Eagle and his two wives. All the Indians, according to Joe, had two wives. The Pawnee had no children of his own and was

When Joe and the Indian children were in the government school they were in "boarding school" in the strictest sense. All the students helped with the chores at the school farm. It was a relief to get back to the reservation where there were no such trials of civilization.

"Those Indians were awfully good to me. They were about the same as people everywhere. Whenever Indians got on the uprise, it was always the Creeks, nobody ever held a grudge against the Pawnees," he related.

Haskell Woman Completes Telephone Char D. Thompson Goree Homecoming Will Be All-Day Call To Mother in Berlin's Russian Sector Takes Church Post Affair Sunday

Mrs. T. P. Barnett talked to Eastern sector of Berlin to the her mother in the Russian sector suburbs, in 1948 before the presof Germany May 14 for the first ent difficulty. She became ill and lime in five years. Mrs. Barnett, by the time she had recovered of Germany May 14 for the first time in five years. Mrs. Barnett, originally from Germany, has been in Haskell since April '58. Mrs. Barnett said the call was placed about 11 p. m. Saturday evening and connections were fi-nally made at 2:30 p. m. Monday. "They have such a long waiting line and on Sunday no private calls are placed," she explained. "There is a 7 hour time difference and I had hoped to get the call through at 2 a. m. which would be about 9 a. m. their time, but it didn't work out that way." she said. way." she said.

Besides her mother, Mrs. Erich Ehrenhard, Mrs. Barnett was able to talk with her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Linke. However, her younger sister Joanna, a telephone operator in a Berlin theatre was working at the time the call was put through. Mrs. Barnett stated that her mother is hoping to be able to come to Haskell some time this year. It will be the first time she has seen her grandchildren, Gail, 2½ years old and Joan, 10 months. Her daughter is particularly hopeful that she should be able to make the trip this year as tensions seemed to have eased in that section of the world. She stated that her mother had been trying to get a visa for two years, but has been unable. "The fact that I was able to get a telephone call through though, was an achievement in itself. A year ago I don't think even that would have been possible."

Navy Will Enlist Special Company Of Area Men

Chief Dan Loftin, USN, Abilene Navy Recruiter announced plans to recruit a complete company of Abilene and Haskell area men for service in the Navy. The company would enlist under the ban-ner "Mesquite." They will travel together, do recruit training together at San Diego, Calif, and return home on leave together after nine weeks of recruit train-

Every able-bodied young man faces a military responsibility upon reaching his 18th birthday. Chief Loftin explains that a voluntary enlistment for four years in the Navy will satisfy all of the active duty requirements and then two years in the in-active reserve, to satisfy his military responsibilities. If he desires to postpone his military service in order to coninue in school, deferment is possible in some cases. The local Navy Recruiter will be glad to explain this since all young men are encouraged to go on to college if possible. If a man is not eligible for deferment. Chief Loftin feels that nowhere are there greater opportunities to continue general and specialized training than in the Navy In fact, most of the men who will make up the "Mesquite" Company, will be high school graduates and thus be eligible for assignment to schools even before they are sworn into the Navy. Recruitment of special com panies from local areas is nothing new, and has proved to be an excellent policy. The "Texan" Company, composed of young men throughout Northeast Texas, and enlisted into the Navy a Dallas on April 24, augmented the Navy's strength by 96 men. These "Texans" will be back in Texas

She expressed the hore that at McMurry on May 28, was ap-pointed to the position by the Rev. John Wesley Ford, pastor of the Corsicana church. church, established in 1852, has about 1,700 members.

Thompson is the son of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Haskell. His father is pastor of the First Methodist Church in Haskell, and has also held pastorates in Albany, Stratford, Childress, Tulia, Texoma and other cities and communities.

A 1946 graduate of Albany High School, Thompson lettered two years there is basketball, and started interest in photography which has since become an avocation.

For the past 21 months he has been employed, while attending college, at the photography department of the Abilene Reporter-News. His work has included photo processsing, the Fairchild electronic engraver and picturetaking assignments.

Thompson said that his new position with the Corsicana church will permit him to continue to use his photography experience. The church has a dark-

Thompson first entered McMurry in 1947. His college training was interrupted by military service, and he spent five years in the U. S. Air Force, including 30 months in England.

It was there that he met and married his wife, the former Betty Smith of Nottingham, England. She was a member of the Women's Royal Air Force, stationed at the same air base where Thompson was on the outskirts of London.

The Thompsons' 3-year-old son, Mike, was born in England.

Cub'Scout Pack Picnic Held Monday

Night at City Park
Den 6 under the direction of Mrs. B. C. Chapman really had a treat for the Cub Scouts when they came dressed as typical ho-boes to the Cub Scout Pack Picnic in Rice Springs Park Monday night, May 28.

They were in real hobo style with their hats, shoes, clothes, knapsacks on their backs with their lunches and bed rolls. They all could have used a bath and a razor.

As they sat 'round the camp fire, smoking pipes and cigars and drinking coffee from tin cups they played and sang, "She'll Be Coming 'Round the Mountain When She Comes."

Den 3 under Mrs. Mack Faulkner's leadership, lead all the Cub Scouts in their games and the Pledge to the Flag as the closing exercise. — Reporter.
