"Early" special election voting continues

Absentee voting (now called "early voting" by Secretary of State John Hannah, Jr.) began on Wednesday, October 16, and will continue through November 1. Any eligible voter may vote early in the office of County and District Clerk Ettie Hubbard in Robert Lee during this period, 8 am - 5 pm, Monday through Friday.

On the November 5 Special

Election ballot, Texans statewide will consider 13 proposed constitutional amendments.

Perhaps the major proposals are Proposition 4 which deals with bond issues for prisons and mental health/retardation facilities; Proposition 11 authorizes a state lottery; and Proposition 13, providing issuance of bonds for college student loans, an issue which was narrowly defeated in the August 10, 1991, election, possibly due to confusion in wording.

A number of the other proposals are significant and deal with points in changes of the law that bear study. Be an informed voter; read explanations of the proposed amendments by non-partisan voter groups.

Parade to kick off RL Homecoming

A parade in downtown Robert Lee at 2:30 pm will kick off the RLHS Homecoming on Friday, October 18, based on the chosen theme, "Wild, Wild West." One special float will feature the Robert Lee High School graduating class of 1941 who will have their 50th Reunion over the weekend. Also in the parade will be Miss RLHS Tracie Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blair and Mr. RLHS J. J. Tennison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Tennison.

Homecoming royalty to be recognized will be 1991 Homecoming Queen and King candidates which were chosen by secret ballot and will be revealed during half-time ceremonies at the Steer football game against Sterling City. To be presented in the parade will be Queen candidates, Seniors Carrie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butch Davis; Christie Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Payne; Nikki Tavarez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Tavarez, and Junior Lori Wink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wink.

King candidates include Seniors Scott Antilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Antilley; Michael Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hayes; Russ Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Horn; and Junior Dant Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hughes.

The now-famous Homecoming pep rally will begin in the gym when the parade reaches the school. Elaborate decorations and high spirits have always marked the event.

Two after-the-game activities will be sponsored by West Coke County Community Development. A reception, with plenty of refreshments, will be hosted in the Rec Hall and is free to the public. A concert and dance by Prairie Fire, made up of RLHS exes Buddy Wallace, Richard Long, Scot Long, Matt Wilson, and co-member Kirk Williamson. Clay Bloodworth will assist with the lighting, etc. Admission to this event, which will take place in the county show barn, will be $5 per person, children 12 and under, $1. Children under 12 must be accompanied by a parent. The band will play from 10 pm until 1 am.

Benefit nets EMS funds

State Representative Rob Junell once again turned a good idea into reality this past weekend, as the benefit team roping he sponsored Saturday at the Bronte Arena netted over $400 for each of the county's EMS units in Bronte and Robert Lee.

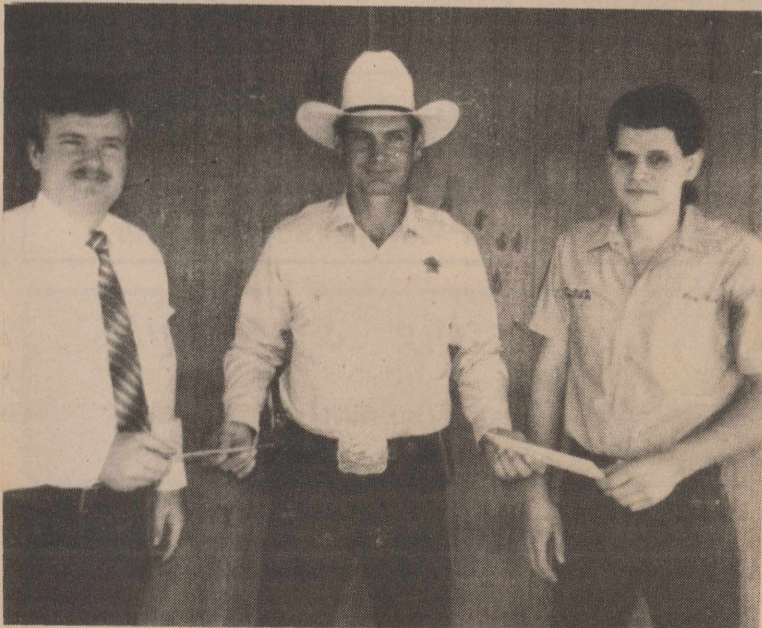

Coordinated by Sheriff Marshall Millican, the first-ever event hosted a good number of teams, with roping continuing til well after dark.

Locals donating their time, talents, and funds included Beverly Burdett, Kristi Roe, and Sheri Millican doing an excellent job of keeping the books straight, Billy Jack Roe and Wayne McCutchen along with several others helping in the arena, and Rob Junell, who donated and hauled the cattle.

Cash donations were also accepted from Judge Royce Lee and Beverly Burdett.

Plans are to make the benefit an annual event.

Sheriff Marshall Millican (c) presents Larry Martin (r) and Randall Maxwell funds totalling $800 to be split between the two EMS units. These funds were a result of the Rob Junell sponsored team roping last Saturday at Bronte.

RL Seniors
decorate shirts

Robert Lee Senior Citizen Coordinator Kelly Millican reported a successful and entertaining afternoon on Tuesday when a large group of ladies participated in a sweat-shirt decorating class. Various beautiful designs emerged as they learned how to manage the paints and other supplies.

Attending the class were Verna McDorman, Faye Miller, Mary Hood, Bessie Brice, Mae Morris, Joyce Rives, Willie Gatlin, Marie Thomas, Lynn Doris Smith, Gertie Bloodworth, Zera Fields, Alene Key, and Kelly Millican.

Hayrick Lodge to sponsor workdays

The Cemetery Association and the Hayrick Masonic Lodge officers held a joint meeting October 7, 1991, to discuss maintenance of the cemetery. The county is no longer legally able to provide any help toward upkeep at the cemetery.

The Association recently advertised for bids for mowing and upkeep at the Cemetery. All of the bids received were far above the amount of donations received. That is not saying it was more than it should have been for the work that was requested in the bids.

After much thought and discussion, it was decided that the Hayrick Masonic Lodge would sponsor cemetery work days each quarter to help keep the cemetery. The hope is that the Cemetery Association will have enough money through donations to keep the mowing done outside and between the plots.

Individuals are encouraged to maintain their own lots. The work days will be advertised in the newspaper and through church bulletins. This is going to have to be a community affair. If we want our cemetery to look good, we are counting on all of the people who have friends or family buried in the cemetery to help on work days and to contribute to the mowing fund.

Pierce Farewell

An informal farewell party honored Teena Pierce in the Commissioners' Courtroom on Friday, October 11. Mrs. Pierce has resigned her position as Extension Service secretary which she had held for 5 years.

Cake and punch were served to courthouse personnel and one special guest, her mother, Betty Barrett of Robert Lee. The honoree was presented with hand-crafted gifts for her home under construction at Wall. Treasurer Phelan Wrinkle spoke a few words of appreciation and affection from the group to Mrs. Pierce.

Personal

Lee Richards of Robert Lee was transferred from West Coke County Nursing Home to Shannon Medical Center by ambulance Monday. Mrs. Richards, a leukemia patient, had been in the local nursing home since Wednesday, October 9, following a lengthy hospitalization in San Angelo.

WCCCD to host barbecue

The Hunters Appreciation BBQ, sponsored annually by West Coke County Community Development, is set for Saturday, November 2, at the Rec Hall in Robert Lee. Serving will begin at 6 pm and continue until 8:30 or 9 pm or until the food is served out. The event has met with unprecedented success; over 600 people have eaten with the group the last two years. Hunters in the area eat free when landowners or ranch managers donate to the BBQ fund in exchange for tickets to present at the door. In fact, any individual donating may get tickets to the meal prior to that night, but no money changes hands at the door. The food and supplies are bought from the fund. Donations for tickets may be made at Ace Hardware, Super H, Davis Grocery, Key Feed, and J & B Hardware.

This year, the WCCCD has taken on the job of building new BBQ pits near the county stock barn and hope to finish before the big event November 2. New pits have been needed for years. Those who can help with this project could come to the park on Saturday, October 19.

Anyone willing to help in any way on the night of the BBQ will be welcomed. It is a tremendous job to cook meat during the day, cut and serve it, and clean up afterward.

The BBQ was initiated to let the huge number of hunters who now come to West Coke County know how much they are appreciated. The industry (and that's what it amounts to) has been an economic boon to the community.

A spokesman for the WCCCD advised, "Only two weeks remain to acquire your and your hunters' tickets. The hunters and locals enjoy visiting and eating together, talk about their hunting luck, and just have a good time."

Notes from Bronte School Newspaper

Vocalists Compete In Vernon

By Tanya Kelly

Two Bronte students competed for the UIL District - Region Choir Saturday, October 5, in Vernon.

Senior Tanya Kelly and Junior Nathan Barnett competed for the limited number of positions that make up the District and Regional Choirs.

Out of 57 students competing for the soprano spots, Kelly lacked one place making the cut.

"Competition was tough, but it was a lot of fun just being able to compete," Kelly said.

Barnett competed against 47 other students for the bass spots and came away with second chair.

"I practiced hard and it paid off," Barnett said.

Ropers Perfect Roping Skills; Enjoy Notoriety

By Brandi Thomas

First there were drugstore cowboys and rhinestone cowboys, then came urban cowboys, and now parking lot cowboys.

Every school day at either 7:40 am or 12 noon, at least one young man will be in the school parking lot letting the ropes fly.

The roping ritual began the last semester of last year. Cory Thorn and senior Luke Robbins usually got to school early and had nothing else to do but play around with the rope. Each day, more and more potential cowboys came out to participate in the informal competition.

"It's something the non-athletes do that jocks don't, or aren't interested in," Robbins said. Jason Blaylock, a junior, added that roping was something for people to do and watch besides sports.

No roping is complete without Lynrd Skynrd blaring over the stereo and junior high girls gazing in wonder as the cowboys rope anything from toolboxes to students walking to their cars.

The kickers enjoy the attention they receive, espe-

Br. Homecoming

Bronte Senior Kristie Cooper was crowned this year's Homecoming Queen during halftime festivities at the football game between the Bronte Longhorns and the Sterling City Eagles Friday night, October 4. She was escorted by her brother, Sophomore Jason Cooper.

The crown bearer and flower girl for the Homecoming Court were third graders Jesse McClure and Michaela Arrott.

Homecoming Duchesses included Juniors Gina Chambliss and Misty Mackey.

Senior Shay Burwick was chosen Football Sweetheart by the 1991 Longhorns. She was escorted by Sophomore Gary Bilbrey. Crown bearer was Dalton Graves and Lacy Schoenfield was the flower girl. Dalton and Lacy are in the second grade.

Amy Allen is the 1991 Band Sweetheart and Band Beau is Nathan Barnett. They are both juniors and were chosen by the 1991 Longhorn Band. First graders Charlie Bettis and Ashley Denton attended the couple.

cially from the girls that flock around them as the cowboys rope.

"Whenever you do something different, people are going to watch," Robbins said.

So far the extent of their roping remains in the parking lot; occasionally, one of the guys will ride bulls on the weekend. However, as the interest in roping grows, the kickers will daily don their hats and continue to hone their skills everyday at high noon.

FCA Plans Busy Year

By Shay Burwick

It's going to be a busy year for the members and new officers of the Bronte chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

New officers are President Shayne Crumpler, Vice President Darla Scott, and Secretary Amie Parker.

Horns fall to Plowboys

By Shayne Crumpler

The Bronte Longhorns suffered a 42-14 loss to the Roscoe Plowboys last Friday night. The Horns had a tough night with personnel due to injuries. They gave up 28 points in the first half and only scored six points on a 38 yard pass from Freshman Quarterback Brent Taylor to Junior Receiver Lee Reyes. The Horns failed to convert their two point conversion attempt, leaving them short in the first half.

Great defensive efforts by Randy Bilbrey, Jason Cooper, Edwin Thomas, and Trevor Lowe were a bright spot. Also, Sophomore back Gary Bilbrey had a number of great offensive runs in the first half.

The Horns produced another touchdown in the third quarter when Taylor punched the ball in for six points and then added a two point conversion. The Plowboys scored twice in the third quarter on a 33 yard run and a 15 yard run to make the score 42-14.

With a record of 2-4, the Horns now prepare for Garden

City, the state-ranked #1 Class A team. That game will be played in Bronte tonight beginning at 7:30 pm.

Ladies defeat WV Lady Wildcats

The Lady Longhorns held off a second game surge by Water Valley to win their fourth straight district match.

Bronte took the match in two games, 15-7; 15-11, but it was never easy as the Wildcats made many scrappy defensive plays. Teresa Vaughn was leading server in Game 1 with 5 points and Amie Parker had 5 in the second game.

The varsity's record is 19-2, 4-0 in district.

Winning their match 15-8; 15-10, the JV raised their record to 10-2 and 2-2 in district. Misty Mackey and Tamera Richards both had good hitting games. Vanessa Halstead took serving honors with 8 points in Game 2.

The JV and Varsity will face Miles here Saturday at 2 pm for the last home game of the season.

Dogies continue winning ways

The Dogies continue their winning ways as they defeated the Roby Cubs last Thursday, 22-6.

Harley Wagner started off the scoring early in the first quarter with a 5 yard TD run. Eric Hood scored the two-point conversion.

Jeremy Burns had a fumble recovery and two quarterback sacks to lead the Dogie defense in a hard-fought victory. The Dogies continued to improve as a team and individually from week to week.

Their next game will be on the road against Sterling City, October 17. The Dogies would appreciate your support.

Third Quarter

Fourth Quarter

Roby scored quickly again this quarter with a 20 yard run.

Homecoming is set for the Friday night at 7:30 pm against the Sterling City Eagles.

Casey family reunion

The family of J. J. and Martha Casey came together for their annual reunion Saturday, October 12, 1991, at the Robert Lee recreational building. There were 68 family members and one guest present.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and picture taking. A covered dish meal was shared then a short business meeting was held. Bennie (Wart) and Barbara Casey were recognized as traveling the greatest distance and Irma Casey had the most family present. She had eighteen there and Ruth Williams ran a close second with thirteen.

It was decided to have another auction at the reunion next year to raise funds for the Valley View Cemetery upkeep.

The existing slate of officers were re-elected to serve another year: Nelson Coulter, President; Bill Casey, Vice President; and Barbara Davis, Secretary/Treasurer.

Messages were sent from Opal and Wayne McKee, California; Troy and Edna Casey, Goodrich, Texas; and Lib and Bill Rosenbaum, Oklahoma. Health-related problems kept them from attending much to their and their family's disappointment.

Gary Williams won the door prize of a Casey Family t-shirt.

Emily Hoover celebrated her 1st birthday with the family. She is the daughter of Pam and David Hoover and the granddaughter of Barbara Davis. The back section of the building was covered with balloons printed with birthday greetings and all the children present enjoyed kicking, chasing, and bursting them.

Personal

According to family members, J. L. "Spec" Roe of Robert Lee remains in Angelo Community Hospital where he has been a patient for five weeks. He first entered the hospital for vascular and heart tests following two heart attacks but developed critical kidney failure. He has been on dialysis therapy periodically since that time. He is in Room 252 at the facility.

The Robert Lee Child Development class visited the kindergarten and first grade classes at the end of their child development unit. The class visited the children to demonstrate how to be caregivers. They studied and put to practice what they learned. They wanted to see first-hand how the children respond to the activities planned for them. It was an exciting and enlightening experience for them. The students helped the children learn patterns, read and discuss stories about bears, gave out stickers for rewards, and other fun activities. This was a learning experience for both young students and older students.

Keist & Lackey speak to WCCCD

Jerry Lackey and Lanny Keist of San Angelo were guests of the West Coke County Community Development on general meeting night, October 7. Lackey is Account Executive and Keist is Advertising Executive for KLST-TV. Keist spoke to the group on television promotions available to spotlight your community, usually paid for by 4 or 5 businesses or organizations.

During the business meeting which followed a number of upcoming projects were discussed, including the sponsoring of the after-the-game reception and dance for Homecoming October 18.

The committee reported on the November 2 Hunters Appreciation BBQ. Several members reported on plans for the downtown Christmas Party December 7, to be called "Christmas In Our Little Town." Two events in conjunction with this will be the annual lighting contest and a tour of homes.

Winner of the $25 "Robert Lee Bucks" door prize at the meeting was Phelan Wrinkle. Someone attending the meeting, held the 1st Monday of each month, wins the drawing, a $25 gift certificate to be spent for goods or services at a Robert Lee business. The business is reimbursed by the Community Development.

NHS is more than good grades

By DeAnn Flores

Being a member of the National Honor Society doesn't necessarily mean being at the top of your class. Other qualifications, such as character, leadership, and service, are just as important.

"Membership into NHS is not just academics, but the other qualifications come into consideration," sponsor Mary McMullan said.

Potential members must complete and submit an application form to a faculty selection committee. Once the selection process is completed, an induction ceremony is held in October to welcome the newest members.

This year's Honor Society includes Sonja Salser as President; Tina Smith as Vice President; Kristie Cooper as Secretary; Alisa Richards as Treasurer; and Amie Parker as Historian/Representative.

RL UMW qualifies as "Five-Star"

United Methodist Women of Robert Lee met in their Church's Fellowship Hall on October 9, with Lois Dunklin serving as hostess.

After the Call to Worship, refreshments were served, then a gift was presented to Janie Naizer. The gift was an infant car seat, which she will be needing soon and which surprised and pleased her.

In the business meeting, President Nina Brewer reported that she, Lois Dunklin, and Mary Bessent attended the UMW Annual District Meeting held in Sonora on September 21, where she and Mary had a part. They gave an overview of the book, "Living Values and Changing Times," which is one of several books which San Angelo District UMW groups will use as a study next year. While there, the unit made a contribution to "Undesignated Mission Funds" in honor of Nina Brewer and Joyce Rives during the Annual Candleburning Service.

Robert Lee UMW is recognized as a "Five-Star Organization." To qualify, a unit must meet five points:

1. Hold an annual pledge service at which each member plans and records with the treasurer the amount of money she will pay to local and world mission work, a portion of which will be sent to San Angelo District Headquarters to be dispensed with Conference mission work, world wide.

2. A "Gift to Missions" is given to recognize some person, group, or organization who has performed worthwhile activities. This year's donation was sent in honor of Lois Dunklin, retiring president.

3. A contribution is made "In memory of --" or "In honor of --." This year's honored person was Vivian Jacobs.

4. "World Thank Offering" is money collected by each member in her "Thank Offering Box." Any time something happens in her home, church, or community for which she rejoices or is grateful, she may put money into her box. At the end of the year, all boxes are taken to a meeting, and all of the money is sent to headquarters. Then a new pledge is due, hopefully a little larger than last year's.

5. "Special Mission Recognition" donation honors some person who has accomplished outstanding mission service during the year. Such recognition was given to a local UMW member at a recent Sunday morning service at First United Methodist Church.

Laura Herford, who made the Special Recognition presentation, stated that the person being named for this honor was a life-long member of another church until her husband brought her here to live and she became a Methodist. She told how the recipient has been active in her new church home, serving in many capacities. "She is our church delegate to our Annual Conference, Sunday School Superintendent, Children's Ministries Chairperson, Status and Role of Women Chairperson, and teacher of

The Women's Sunday School Class. By virtue of some of those duties, she is a member of the Administrative Council, Finance Committee, and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.

"She joined our local UMW in 1986 and has acted in various capacities. She has served as an officer, given programs and studies, and served as hostess. She assumed the job as treasurer in 1986, and she has done so well that we have continued to elect her to that position.

"In addition to her church work, she is active in community activities. In July, the Observer/Enterprise ran an article about her being chairman of the Cancer Drive for 13 years.

"Her most important activity is being a wife and the mother of two children. She and her husband maintain a Christian home and they, as a family, are regular in church attendance.

"In I Corinthians 12:25-26, we read, 'Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it... If one member is honored, all rejoice together.' And today, we do rejoice as we honor this most gracious person, - Dianne Simpson. Thank you, Dianne, for your Christian service. And, thank you, Bill and Will and Dixie, for supporting her in her service to our church."
