Vandalism may prompt county curfew for youth

A rash of vandalism occurred in and around Robert Lee over the holidays. Involved were window glasses, tail lights, mail boxes and various other damages. According to a spokesman in the sheriff's office, local residents and parents need to be observant of nighttime activities. If criminal actions continue at the present rate, authorities ventured the opinion that a curfew might be beneficial to the county. It might be a program worth considering.

Counselor's Comments

by Vicky McCutchen
Homework serves an important function in a youngster's school life. It is a means for the student to review and reinforce the lessons taught in school. It is also a method by which a youngster can develop sound work and study habits that will assist him or her throughout the remaining school years.

As a parent, you are a vital link to the school in a homework/study program that includes helping your youngster develop routines to successfully handle assigned homework. Read the following tips, as you work with your youngster.

1. Always ask your child if he/she has homework on a given day. Homework is generally assigned Monday through Thursday, except for holiday periods. (Older children often have long-term assignments that require work on holidays or weekends.) Asking him/her every day will help the youngster develop a habit of self-inquiry.

2. Be interested in the homework. Seeing what he/she is doing helps in two ways: You can get a sense of the child's progress in various subject areas; your youngster will sense that homework is important and that you care about his/her efforts.

3. Homework is the child's work, not yours. Be sure that he/she does it himself or herself. If the youngster has difficulty, write a note to the teacher; the teacher can then make the proper adjustments, such as making the assignment more clear, providing more practice in class, explaining in a different manner, etc.

4. Set up a time for homework that is acceptable for your particular family routine, and teach your child to fulfill that commitment.

5. Make sure your child has a quiet place to study and is unhampered by other people and their activities.

Learning to work well at homework increases your youngster's self-esteem: He/she has a responsibility that when fulfilled means success!

ROBERT LEE SCHOOL NEWS

Sheree Burns and Mike Mullaney were married on December 23, 1993 in College Station, Texas. Both are students at Texas A & M University and will make their home in College Station.

Sheree's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burns of Robert Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris of San Angelo. Mike's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Mullaney of Pittsford, New York and Col. (retired) and Mrs. James Metelko of Southern Pines, North Carolina.

Wilkes Injured

Mrs. Debbie Wilkes is recuperating at her Silver home after sustaining a badly broken, dislocated ankle in an accident December 23. She went outside to start her car warming up to make the trip to Robert Lee and her job at Robert Lee State Bank. Light snow and freezing drizzle had coated her sidewalk and grass when she slipped and fell. Doug had already left for work and she managed to pull herself up the porch steps and into the house to call for help. She was taken to a San Angelo hospital by West Coke County EMS.

Extensive surgery was necessary to repair the ankle and she remained hospitalized until after Christmas. Doctors ordered elevation with no weight on the leg at home for a few more weeks.

WCCCD meets in 1st of year

West Coke County Community Development met in general session Monday night in the Robert Lee State Bank board room. Vice-President David Rawlings presided over the meeting in the absence of Debbie Wilkes, president of the organization.

Committees reported on the group's December projects - Santa's visit, the Lighting Contest, and the Food for the Needy boxes. Thirteen boxes were delivered to families and individuals from one to six person families on December 22. Local Lions Club members volunteered to deliver the food boxes for the WCCCD. Some discussion was held on checking on lighting to outline businesses during the 1994 Christmas season. Bob Wrinkle will check on prices, fasteners, and related expenses.

Other business included bills to be paid, the treasurer's report, and some questions to resolve on the Hunter's Appreciation BBQ.

The February general meeting will be held on the first Monday of the month, the 7th.

Rehab Telethon

Robert Lee residents will have a SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY between now and January 8 to truly make a difference in the lives of some very special people.

By making a gift to West Texas Rehabilitation Center's annual telethon, donors literally can help guarantee quality out-patient rehabilitation services for disabled children and adults who come for care...just like for the 95 Coke County residents who were served last year.

Participation is easy as the '64 Study Club will be conducting the local phone bank at Ivey Motor Company from 6 pm to 10 pm in conjunction with the Rehab Center's telethon. You can come by, bring your gift and visit with phone bank volunteers or you can make your commitment now by either leaving your advance donation at Ivey Motor Co. or calling Leta Caston, 453-2453.

Last year the local telethon raised $6,240 on the phone bank, and with everyone's help a new goal of $7,000 could be reached. Contributions will help make a difference to the Rehab Center, just as the Rehab Center makes a difference to all of us in Coke County.

Leta Caston and Winnie Pitcock are the coordinators for the Robert Lee Rehab '94 Phone Bank.

Advance donors for the telethon, posted at presstime Wednesday, are: E. C. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Brewer, Ms. Effie Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Davis, Mrs. Lee Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Finis Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Large, Waldon and Judy Millican, David and Kary Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bickley, Mrs. Alta Bilbo, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee, John and Maudie Conley, Sparks and Beverly Burdett, Kevin and Tammy Roe, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clendennen, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wojtek, and the American Legion.

ponent was Ballinger whom they defeated 50 to 47. Aaron Hood was high point earner with 23. Next in line scoring was Joe Blair with 14, Lee McCown 3, Jason Wyatt, Judd Pitcock, John Williams and Charles Hayes all scored 2 points each while Jerrid Vincent and Bart Goodman each scored one point apiece.

SHANNON

HEALTH NOTES

Panic Attacks

Chest pain, heart palpitations, shortness of breath, numbness, and nausea are classic symptoms of a heart attack. They are also symptoms of a panic attack and many people experiencing a panic attack get their initial treatment in an emergency room until a heart attack or gastrointestinal condition can be ruled out. Although a panic attack is a common psychiatric disorder, affecting one out of every seventy-five people, scientists believe it has a biological basis.

Professor Philip Ninan, of Emory University School of Medicine, says one theory is that an alarm center in the brain for detecting suffocation is too easily triggered, throwing the body into an emergency survival mode, even when it is perfectly safe. Panic disorder patients tend not to have highly charged, anxious type-A personalities, rather they tend to be shy or depressed. Dr. Ninan says much can be done to manage panic disorder, and new medications make it an easily treatable illness.
