Elections set for Tuesday

Early voting for the Democratic and Republican primary run-off elections began Monday, April 4 and will continue through Friday, April 8 at 5 pm in the Coke County clerk's office. The elections will be held on Tuesday, April 12. Voter turnout is expected to be even lower than during the regular primaries.

Republican voters will cast ballots in two locations in Coke County. Bronte Elementary School will be the polling place for Precincts 2, 4, and 5 while Precincts 1, 3, 9 and 10 will vote in the Coke County courthouse. On the Republican ballot are Don Willig and Patricia Lykos to determine an Attorney General nominee for the General Election in November. Sam Bayless and Sharon Keller will vie for the Judge, Place 2, Court of Criminal Appeals.

Voters in the Democratic run-off will vote at four polling sites in the county. Precincts

3, 9, and 10 will vote at the Coke County courthouse and the Rec Hall will serve as the Precinct 1 polling place. Precinct 2 voters will vote at the Bronte City Hall and Precincts 4 and 5 will vote at the Old Depot. Democrats will decide whether Jim Mattox or Richard Fisher will challenge Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison in the November general election. Also on the run-off ballot for Justice, Supreme Court, Place 1, are Raul A. Gonzalez vs. Rene Haas. Betty Marshall and Gene Kelly will face-off for a nomination on the November ballot for Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2.

Coke County Clerk Ettie Hubbard advises voters that one regulation which exists in run-off elections is the requirement that voters must vote the same party ticket they voted in the primary. In the November general election, voters may cross party lines and vote a split ticket.

IVEY MOTOR COMPANY

1944 50 Years of Memories 1994

Cumbie Ivey, Jr. received a rather startling phone call early one morning in June of 1962. "What did you do with the safe?" came the query from Royce Smith, long-time Ivey employee. Not a fun way to awaken.

Sure enough the 600 pound safe which was mounted on rollers had been stolen.

The sheriff and other authorities were notified and brought in to investigate. Ollie Roe, long-time Robert Lee constable (or night watchman - as they were called), had not yet gone off duty and was also at the scene of the crime. During the course of the investigation some rather unusual tire tracks were noticed by Ollie. He immediately recognized the tracks as belonging to a vehicle he had noticed earlier the prior evening - not everyone mounts one wide tire and one standard tire on the back of their car.

A quick license check was run and an APB put out on the vehicle. Five minutes after the APB was put out, a San Angelo patrolman who had stopped a car because the inspection sticker was out, heard the call come in over his radio - lo and behold guess who needed an inspection sticker? The arrest was made and the burglars put behind bars.

The crooks quickly confessed to the crime and one was released to help officers locate the buried treasure.

It seems that the perps (to use modern police vernacular) owned a repair shop just down the street from Ivey's. Evidently, the repair shop was not doing a booming business and the burglars decided to supplement their income at Ivey Motor Company's expense. They loaded the safe into the trunk of their car and made an almost clean get away (remember the tire tracks). The dastardly criminals took the safe out of town and cut the bottom out with a torch - after all a safe poking out of

Correctional Facility Update

A group of Coke County officials and citizens were in meetings in Austin last week concerning the endeavor to locate a juvenile correctional facility in Coke County.

"The results of the meetings are encouraging. There is much work to be done in the county effort, and everyone's cooperation is solicited on this project if we are to be successful.

We will continue to keep the public informed as developments occur", said Judge Royce Lee.

During the course of the meetings, the group visited a correctional facility at Kyle and were impressed by its operation. Making the trip were: Royce Lee, James Tidwell, Billy Joe Luckett, Paul Burns, Jackie Walker, Beth Prather, Martin Lee, Stephen Myers, and Tuny Glenn.

Courthouse Closed

The Coke County courthouse will be closed on Tuesday, April 12, for the Democratic and Republican primary run-off elections since the facility will serve as a polling site. Business will resume at 8 am on Wednesday morning.

ASCS readies wool and mohair payments

The wool and mohair payments will be ready for producers on April 13. If you would like to come by the ASCS office on the 13th and pick up your payment you may. Checks which are not picked up will be mailed Friday, the 15th.

Producers eligible to receive wool or mohair price support payments: if the net sales price per pound for any individual sales document submitted for payment exceeds 4 times the national average price for wool or mohair, the price support payment will be computed only on the proceeds received that do not exceed the amount of 4 times the national average price.

The payment rates for 1993 marketings are: 300.00 percent of the net sale proceeds for shorn wool, $6.12 per hundred pounds liveweight for unshorn lambs, 477.8 percent of the net sale proceeds for mohair.

Coke-Sterling Farm Bureau County President, Bobby Roberts of Robert Lee, recently visited the Texas Farm Bureau state office in Waco, where TFB Executive Director Vernie R. Glasson explained state-of-the-art video production equipment. The Texas Farm Bureau produces periodic TV news stories for Texas stations as well as training and information videos for various TFB divisions.

So - an eagle-eyed constable, mismatched tires, an out-of-date inspection sticker - the crooks were doomed from the get-go and Ivey Motor Company added one more memory to the scrapbook. Watch next week's issue for another tidbit of history from Ivey's as they celebrate their 50th anniversary.

Sunny Notes for the Coke County Seniors

Note the New Name:

Ever wonder where they got the name Congregate Meal? A workshop that was attended in San Saba by Senior Center Directors several weeks ago gave us new insight as to the name of our meal programs at the Senior Centers. John Covert, Jr., Valley Innovative Management Services, which is a food services provider, suggested we call our "group" something clever. Congregate means assemble together in a crowd so include the word meal and it means gather together for a meal which is a nutritiously balanced meal, 1/3 of our daily requirements. So at the Bronte Senior Center, we are now called THE LUNCH BUNCH. So we would like to invite you to join our LUNCH BUNCH and have fellowship together during mealtime. Call for reservations on Monday for Wednesday, etc. We serve meals on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 11:30 am. We do deliver Home Delivered Meals if you qualify for such a service. Call the Bronte Center for more information.

"88 Tournament" scheduled

Thursday, April 14th beginning at 9:30 you will find Bronte Senior Center and Robert Lee Senior Center in tournament play. If you would like to be a part of the activity, call the Bronte or Robert Lee Centers to sign up. We do need to have a number count as the Bronte Center is providing lunch. Call by Tuesday, April 12th for reservations. Hope to see you there.

Birthday Celebration

Jessie Proctor has been selected as the March Employee of the Month, according to Pam Shaffer, Administrator of Bronte Nursing Home. Jessie is the bookkeeper/secretary. She has been employed since 1980 at B. N. H.

If you have or had a birthday in April we would like to invite you to lunch at the Bronte Senior Center with THE LUNCH BUNCH, Wednesday, April 13th. Call us by Monday, April 11th by noon if you can join us on Wednesday for lunch. We have a list of a lot of our senior citizens in Bronte at the Center and those of you who we know have a birthday, we will call you. There is a small donation suggested for those over 60 years of age. Cake will be served.

Summer Activities

Parents of Bronte High School students will meet Sunday night April 10 at 8 pm at El Rancho Restaurant. The group will discuss summer activities for the youth and a town recreation center. All parents are urged to attend.

Bronte High School

Bronte High School, in conjunction with the Bronte Nursing Home, began a new class during the school year 1993-94 titled Services for the Elderly. The class is designed to prepare high school students for jobs working with senior citizens. During the course, students will also complete the necessary training to become certified nurses aides through the Texas Department of Health Nurse Aides Training and Competency Evaluation Program. The class is being taught by Julie Massey, Home Economics teacher and Lavirl Hoyt, LVN. Students include Jamie Shipman (junior), Debbie Sanchez, Jess Percifull, Randy Bilbrey, and Rena Gee, all seniors.

When asked to describe what the class has done this year, Randy remarked, "In our Services for the Elderly class, we go to the Bronte Nursing Home two days out of the week and visit or play games with the residents." Jamie Shipman said, "Our class helps the elderly open up and get more socially involved with other people. We try to get them to have fun so that it is not just another ordinary day."

When asked to report what they have learned through the Services for the Elderly class, Rena commented, "We have learned about the needs (mental, social, etc.) of the elderly, how to communicate with them, and what kinds of hobbies and activities they can do." Jess Percifull remarked, "We have learned the importance of providing care for the elderly and the roles of the care provider." Debbie said, "You can learn a lot from the elderly. They have interesting things to say."

Students will take the state examination for nurses aides in May and will be qualified nurses aides upon graduation. For more information about the Services for the Elderly class, contact Julie Massey, Bronte High School (915) 473-2511.

Counselor's Comments
by Vicky McCutchen

All parents are very familiar with such substances as paint, glue, vitamins, cough and cold remedies, and others but may not be aware that these products that seem harmless can be life threatening for children if they are inhaled intentionally or consumed. Such substances as correction fluid, felt tip markers, perfumes, and air fresheners can be dangerous if used improperly. If they are inhaled or taken orally through the nose or mouth, it is just like drinking a bottle of poison. One exposure has the ability to leave the child severely impaired or life threatening. The fact is that the majority of accidental poisonings in this country involve children under age six and many more will become abusers of inhalants before they are half-way through grade school.

Signs of inhalant abuse could be: paint or stains on body or clothing, red or runny eyes or nose, spots or sores around the mouth, chemical breath odor, drunk, dazed or dizzy appearance, nausea or loss of appetite, and anxiety, excitability, and irritability. Some signs of withdrawal are: hand tremors, chronic headaches, nervousness, and excessive sweating. Some poisons that are dangerous include the following: KITCHEN - ammonia, bleach, butane, cooking spray, correction fluid, disinfectants,

Bronte FFA

Members of the Bronte FFA Chapter have participated in various aspects of the various livestock shows across the state. At the Fort Worth Stock Show, FFA members Russel Vaughn and Shae Kelton exhibited steers.

At the San Antonio Stock Show, Danielle Parker and Kim Blair exhibited swine, while members Russel Vaughn, Shae Kelton, and Justin Lampier exhibited steers.

Exhibiting sheep at the San Angelo Stock Show was Chad Barnett. Exhibiting swine at San Angelo was Danielle Parker and Laura Thomas and exhibiting steers were Russel Vaughn and Justin Lampier.

Also participating at the San Angelo Stock Show were four members that caught calves during the calf scramble of the rodeo performance. Chad Barnett caught the 5th calf and received an eighty dollar purchase certificate, Gary Walker and Cody Holland each caught a seventh calf and each received a $60 purchase certificate. Todd Harrell caught the eighth calf and received a $50 purchase certificate.

furniture polish and wax, insecticides, lighter fluid, lye and drain cleaners, oven cleaners; BEDROOM - hair sprays, moth balls, nail preparations, air fresheners; BATHROOM - deodorants, cough/cold remedies, mouthwashes, vitamins, prescription medications, children's aspirin products; GARAGE - antifreeze, car wax, fertilizers, gasoline, kerosene, lime, liquid solder, pesticides, refrigerants, turpentine; WORKSHOP - aerosol sprays, felt tip markers, glues and adhesives, paint and paint thinners, rust removers, solvent, spray paints.

Overwhelming? What do parents and educators do? Take precautions around your home and school by keeping these potential poisons out of reach of young children and maintain open communication with your children and adolescents, making them aware of the dangers of these substances. Have on hand Syrup of Ipecac at home to induce vomiting. Often inhalant abuse leads to other illicit drug abuse and to lifelong problems.

Fact: Both national and Texas surveys show inhalants as the most widely abused substance among eighth graders after alcohol and tobacco. Inhalants far outrank marijuana as the "drug of choice" with 12-14 year olds. More than 1,000 common products that are legal and easy to get can be mis-used to get high and if sniffed or "huffed" they can cause brain, lung, and liver damage. They can cause the heart to stop! Inhalants can kill!!!

Spring Chicken Affair

A fried chicken dinner with all the trimmings and toe-tapping music will be featured at the 12th Annual Spring Chicken Affair on Sunday, April 17 in San Angelo to benefit West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Scheduled from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm in giant tents behind sponsoring businesses Southwest Bank and Southern Sea Restaurant, 3451 Knickerbocker Road, the event is one Rehab hopes will draw its friends from around the Concho Valley.

Exactly the same price will be charged since the Affair began in 1983 -- and, as always 100% of the proceeds will go the WTRC. Advance tickets can be purchased at the bank, restaurant or at WTRC San Angelo and they will also be available at the event.

Making a return appearance in the entertainment tent will be LeAnn Rimes, the talented 11-year-old singer and dancer who delighted everyone at last year's Spring Chicken Affair and who was a popular feature at the 1994 San Angelo Rodeo.

Joining LeAnn on the entertainment roster will be Clay Blaker and his Honky Tonk Band from New Braunfels.

West Texas Rehabilitation Center, a private, non-profit organization with campuses in San Angelo and Abilene, provides outpatient rehabilitation care to more than 600 people a day...13,500 a year... without regard for financial status. For that reason, fund-raising events such as the Spring Chicken Affair are critical to WTRC.

COUNTRY AGENTS NEWS

by Tommy Antilley
Coke County Agent

Worm Test Lab Set

There will be a worm testing lab to determine the actual stomach worm infestation in producer's sheep and goats held in the recreation hall in Robert Lee. This lab will be sponsored by the Extension Service and conducted by Tommy Antilley, County Extension Agent and Dr. Frank Craddock, Extension sheep and goat Specialist.

Producers wanting their flocks tested need to collect fresh fecal samples from their sheep and goats sometime Tuesday. If at all possible the sample needs to be collected late that afternoon. Samples should be collected from several animals to give a better indication of the worm infestation of the entire flock. Samples should be placed in a sealed plastic bag and kept out of direct sunlight and heat as sunlight can kill the worm eggs in a very short time. If the sample has to be taken that morning, place it in a sealed bag and place it in the refrigerator until that night.

This a simple operation and producers can learn the technique and be able to test their own animals periodically to insure an effective worming program. If there are any questions please call Tommy Antilley at 453-2461.

Sparks Reunion

For the first time in several years, surviving members of the Lem and Lillie Cowley family held a reunion at the home of Calvin and Cova Sparks Saturday, April 2. All four of the Cowley's daughters were there, two of whom, had four generations present in their families. A lot of old memories were recalled and a great deal of "catching up" took place in the afternoon with the help of a family scrapbook with pictures from past reunions.

Three week old Rowdy James Fox and seven month old Emily Talley were the center of attention, but everyone enjoyed themselves until the sandstorm broke up the party for those who had several miles to travel home. Most were planning to attend an Easter sunrise service at various places.

Bucky Sparks and Glenn Bridges served as chefs and hamburgers were served to the following family members: Calvin and Cova Sparks, all of Robert Lee; Otis and Flora Smith of Bronte; Pete and Clema Rumpy, Ronnie and Doris Fox, Judy, John and Larry Cathey, Linda and Michael Fritz, Pam and Emily Talley, Calvin Deck, Nanette and Rowdy James Fox, all of San Angelo; E. S. and Jean Herring of Maryneal; Wallace and Jerry Colburn and Jolynn Wilkins of Lubbock; Gay Dale, Corey and Casey Collins of Wollforth; Tommy and Carla Moore of Tyler; Glenn, Loretta, Marshall and Cody Bridges of Menard and Mike, Donna and Matthew Gosney of Muscle Shoals, Alabama.

Stenholm announces 1995 academy cycle

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm is pleased to announce the beginning of the 1995 United States Service Academy cycle. At this time, information is being forwarded to all area high schools and those individuals who have expressed interest in applying for a nomination to the United States Air Force, Merchant Marine, Military or Naval Academy.

Applications are currently being accepted from individuals who wish to be considered for the classes entering in July 1995. The academies seek well-rounded, intelligent young men and women who are accustomed to balancing many activities while maintaining a high level of academic excellence. The academies offer an excellent educational opportunity, while achieving their goal of preparing tomorrow's military leaders. The academies are seeking individuals of high moral character with much leadership potential, who thrive under pressure.

Individuals who are at least high school juniors, and who will be between 17 and 22 years of age on July 1, 1995, may be eligible for consideration. Selections are made in mid-December, using a formula based upon the candidate's high school record, class standing, SAT and/or ACT scores. Involvement in athletics and school and community extracurricular activities are important factors in

Call of the Wildflowers

Now that spring in here, thousands of Texas travelers want to know one thing - where are the best wildflower patches? The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) has the answer.

Every spring, TxDOT provides a wildflower reporting service that points travelers in the direction of the state's most gorgeous fields of bluebonnets, Indian paintbrush, and other native flora. Throughout April and early May, callers may dial the department's travel information line at 1-800-452-9292 for the scoop on the most colorful wildflower sightings across the state. This information, which is updated weekly by TxDOT employees across the state, is also available at any of the department's 25 district offices or 12 Travel Information Centers.

Travelers can also find out about bluebonnet driving trails, wildflower festivals, and other springtime events held across the state.

This reporting service gives the department a chance to show off the year-round work of TxDOT's maintenance crews, who plant thousands of pounds of wildflower seed annually and coordinate mowing schedules that allow the native plants to mature. Not only do these vegetation management techniques produce some of the most beautiful rights-of-way in the United States, they also prevent erosion and save water and money.

determining the individual's ability to effectively function under pressure. Evaluations by school officials and other individuals who are familiar with the candidate are also used in the decision-making process.

Motivated, self-starting individuals who like to be challenged are strongly encouraged to contact Congressman Stenholm's San Angelo office for further information. All inquiries should be directed to: Congressman Charles Stenholm, O. C. Fisher Federal Building #318, 33 East Twohigh Avenue, San Angelo, TX 76903, Attn: Academy Applications.

Home safety checkup

It's that time of year again...when spring cleaning fever hits the air and everyone decides to take on those tough chores around the house. This is a good time to perform a home safety check. Inspecting your home and creating a hazard-free environment will reduce your chances of having an accident.

West Texas Utilities Company and the National Safety Council recommend spring cleaning as the best time to conduct a home safety checklist:

- *Avoid overloading electrical outlets
- *All appliances should have Underwriters Laboratories (UL) labels

- *Replace cracked or damaged cords and plugs
- *Cover electrical outlets if you have young children in the house

- *Label all fuses and circuit breakers to show which outlets and fixtures they serve
- *Washers and dryers should be electrically grounded. Be careful: damp or wet floors can lead to electrical shock

- *When remodeling, position light switches in accessible areas. Accidents can happen when people stumble through the dark. Place locations around the home for emergency use

- *Good lighting should be provided at the stove, sink and countertop work areas, especially where food is chopped

- *Place night lights in bathroom or hallways to act as a guide to prevent falls.

Make sure a home safety list is part of your spring cleaning plans this year. Take the time to ensure the health and safety of you, your family and your home.

ASCS lists CRP Weed Policy

The State Committee adopted a policy concerning weeds on Conservation Reserve Program acreage.

The State Committee policy provides that all CRP participants must maintain the vegetative cover and all required conservation practices on CRP land and take other action as necessary to control weeds to maintain the production capability of the soil.

All CRP participants on the contract will be subject to applicable penalties if weeds on CRP acreage are not controlled in a timely manner.

CRP acreage will be checked annually to verify that the vegetative cover is being maintained and that the weeds will not create a problem or become a nuisance on other farms.

Control measures must be consistent with other control practices normally carried out on similar cropland in the area.

For more information call the Coke-Sterling ASCS office at 453-2751.

Estrogen Benefits

Evidence has been growing in recent years to suggest that estrogen plays a role in mental functioning, in addition to preventing osteoporosis and other disorders associated with menopause. A new study, which used estrogen on laboratory animals, found that the hormone appears to improve brain function, and enhances memory and learning. University of Florida doctoral student Meharvan Singh presented his findings to the Society for Neuroscience.

Dr. Zaven Khachaturian, associate director of the National Institute on Aging, called the initial results promising and exciting. He said plans are already underway to evaluate the effect of estrogen on humans. Particular focus will be on the devastating progressive loss of memory and mental function caused by Alzheimer's Disease, which affects more than four million, mostly elderly, Americans.

One day can make a difference

"What a difference a day makes," according to a song written several years ago. The song probably wasn't written to address a Social Security issue, but it does. If you were born on the first or second day of the month, one day could make a difference and mean an extra month of Social Security benefits when you retire.

How can this be? Consider how being born on the first or second day of the month would affect someone who is just turning 62. You must be at least 62 to receive Social Security retirement benefits. And, the earliest that you can be eligible for a retirement check is the first full month you are 62. That means that most people cannot receive a benefit for the month in which they turn 62. But, the law also says that you "attain" your age the day before your birthday. So, if you were born June 2, for example, you legally attain your age on June 1 and you would be eligible for benefits for June because you're considered 62 for the entire month. Of course, if you were born June 1, you also would receive benefits for June because you are 62 the entire month. (Even though you legally turned 62 on May 31, you couldn't receive any benefits for May because you weren't 62 for the whole month.)

The "born on the first or second" rules also apply to Medicare, with one important difference. Unlike Social Security, where you must be eligible for the whole month to qualify for benefits, you can get Medicare coverage for a month even if you're eligible for only one day of the month. That means if your 65th birthday is on June 1, you would be entitled to Medicare for the month of May because you legally became 65 on May 31. If your birthday fell on June 2, you would be entitled to Medicare for June.

If you have questions about Social Security, call our toll-free number 1-800-772-1213.

50 Years of Memories

by Kenneth Lackey

Mrs. Ivey was keeping the books when I was hired on a temporary basis September 5, 1951. I always said that I tried to get on permanently for 40 years. Doug Keith, a Sun Oil office manager, was helping out part-time and together they broke me in to the job.

Cumbie, Sr. was doing all the selling and management of the dealership. At that time, the production had not caught up with the demand built up during the war, and we were getting only four new cars a month. Buck Ivey was the parts manager, Jack Cowley was shop foreman, Maurice Yarbrough, and E.H. Ivey were the mechanics. Jessie Gloria washed the cars and Elmo and Billy Gene Bell ran the body shop.

When production increased, Doo-dad Davis came into the dealership to help out and in 1954, Cumbie, Jr. finished his Air Force obligation and came into the dealership as a partner. Royce Smith got out of the Service and came to work for us in 1955.

The drought of the 50's made business difficult, but fortunately the oilfield was in full swing and offered many jobs for farmers and ranchers to tide them over the dry years. Cumbie, Sr. said many times that we would never have made it through the 50's without the oilfield.

There were a number of shop foremen and mechanics who worked for us over the years. Joe Slaton came from Winters to be shop foreman. One of his customers from San Angelo, Mr. McDale, found out Joe had moved here and came over to get his car worked on. He said that Joe had always worked on his cars and he wanted him to continue. He bought many cars over the years and always brought them back here to be serviced.

R.M. Lykins came from San Angelo to serve as shop foreman. While he was here, Mike Fluhmann showed up about 10:00 am on his 20th birthday. He said he had gone by the Ford House in San Angelo and they had told him that they didn't have an opening at that time, but if he wanted to go work at once to go over to Robert Lee. R.M. helped him unload his tools and drove a car in for him to start on. He kept an eye on him as he worked and every once in a while he would come by and nod his head at Cumbie, Jr. to let him know that he liked what he saw. Mike and Tony Smith had worked together in Vernon and later that year Tony moved here. Even though they are still young enough to coach Little League baseball, they have spent over half their lives working at the dealership.

Ray Aldridge has served as service manager for more years than any other, starting in 1976 and working to the present.

1965 was a transition year for the dealership. Cumbie, Sr. retired to pursue his ranching interests, and on the recommendation of Vaughan Davis, Cumbie, Jr. hired Billy Wayne Roe. B.W. quickly became a talented salesman and was a great help to Cumbie, Jr. in all the management of the sales department. Together they have covered the walls with Ford Motor Company Awards and won Ford trips all over the world.

The good thing about being in business for a long time is that you have an opportunity to build a number of loyal customers who come back, often from long distances, to trade with you. We owe our continued success to the many customers who have come back year after year, generation after generation, and we appreciate all of them. We have a number of third generation and some fourth generation customers who trade with us.

One person I appreciate is Elaine Lee, who came into the dealership to replace me and give me a chance to retire. If you come by and look into the office you can easily see that I'm not there. The office is neat and clean, everything is in place, and there are computers all over the place.

Poem

The following poem was contributed by Melynda Denman:

As I was riding my horse up a hill

Everything seemed so very still

The birds, bees, flowers, trees, and the tall, golden grass blowing in the breeze.

As I sat looking over the clear, blue lake,

I thought how wonderful that God could make

This beautiful, wonderful land From the tall, green mountains to the desert sand.

I thought how lucky I was to be Free and Alive in this beautiful country

(Written March 3, 1973 by Melynda Denman at the age of nine, the author is the granddaughter of Opal Baker of Robert Lee.)

Tornado

watch/warning

Knowing the difference between a Tornado Watch and a Tornado Warning could save your life.

A Tornado Watch means conditions are right for tornadoes to form. Weather conditions conducive to tornado formation include hail and thunderstorms.

A Tornado Warning means a tornado has been sighted in your area, and you should take cover quickly. Tornadoes can form and move quickly, there may not be time for a warning. That is why it is important to watch for weather conditions and stay alert during severe weather.
