Initial juvenile facility site selected

An initial site has been selected for the proposed facility Coke County is seeking to acquire; "to operate and manage a residential program for female juvenile offenders". The site, 1 mile west of Bronte, south of Hwy. 158, lies on two tracts of land, one belonging to the LeDrew Arrott family, the other to Dr. Joe Bob Warren. They have pledged their property for the project which will now be subjected to testing with boring, both for environmental and foundation assessment, soil content, etc. Both Jeff Spoon, vice-president of project development with Wackenhut Corrections Corporation, and Ron Jackson, past executive director of the Texas Youth Commission, have said that the sites are "tailormade" for the project. Alternate sites will be decided next week.

Five members of the site committee - Jackie Walker, Martin Lee, Stephen Myers, Royce Fancher, and Royce Lee - were present for a meeting with Spoon and Jackson at the courthouse on Friday, April 8. A number of

Primary Results

In an expected light turnout for Primary runoff elections on Tuesday, Coke County voted along with most statewide poll results. In the Democratic runoff, 260 county voters went to the polls, while 8 voters balloted in the Republican runoff.

In the U. S. Senate race Democrat Richard Fisher has defeated Jim Mattox. Fisher will face Republican Kay Bailey Hutchison in the November general election. Also in the Democratic races, Raul Gonzales won over Rene' Haas for Place 1 in the Justice of the Supreme Court balloting. Coke County went for Haas 135-116. Fisher's county vote tripled Mattox 194-64 and they voted 140 in support of Betty Marshall over Gene Kelly with 91 for Judge, Place 2, Court of Criminal Appeals.

County Republicans voted Don Wittig 7 and Pat Lykos 1 in the Attorney General race. They voted 6 for Sam Bayless and 2 for Sharon Keller for Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2.

2nd Annual Ranch Rodeo Slated

Gather up all your family and friends and come to the 2nd Annual Coke County Open Ranch Rodeo this Saturday, April 16th, at the Coke County Arena in Bronte. The rodeo is again sponsored by the Coke County Roping Club and will start at 7 pm this year.

There will be something for everyone including boot scrambles for the kids. Events for this year's performance include the Team Roping & Branding, the infamous Red Wagon Race, Team Mugging, the Pony Express Race, the Wild Horse Race, and the Wild Cow Milking. As you will remember if you were there last year, these events should provide a great deal of fun, excitement and laughs!!!

The rodeo also picked up an out-of-state team this year sponsored by Turkey Tracks Ranch of Artesia, New Mexico. Let's see how this team matches up with our own Texas and Coke County Boys (and girls).

The teams will vie for a record payoff this year, with the winning team receiving buckles in addition to their other prizes. Many area businesses contributed in order for these buckles to be presented.

A western trade show has been added this year beginning at 4 pm and will host booths for art, western wear, tack, etc. Dazzling Designs will be here with a large selection of jewelry and children's specialized western wear. Denise Patillo of Mertzon, owner, is usually on hand for all the large shows in this area and across the state and we are fortunate that her schedule enabled her to attend this Coke County event.

At 1993's rodeo, over 250 out of county visitors were recorded and that number is expected to rise this year.

near a major highway, level land, and preferably, already cleared. The sites were viewed by one or the other of the men and the sites were discounted one by one - too far from sewer; no well water accepted as a water supply; no building of a reverse osmosis plant; too far from a major highway; low elevation in a flood plane, and so on down the line. An added bonus was being near the Bronte schools. Although the juvenile residents will have their own school inside the facility, some Bronte teachers may have certain classes there.

Ron Jackson, now employed by Coke County as a consultant, has been a boon to planners after serving 20 years on the Texas Youth Commission. He is very familiar with requirements and problems faced. One of the biggest hurdles is the short time frame the county is faced with concerning the application for acquiring the facility. Officials could not believe the good fortune which almost fell into their laps. A group of officials went to Austin to Hope you will come by to see it. Lunch during the "quilting" will be provided by some of the parents of the Class of 1994. Eva Horton, West Texas Rehabilitation Center, will be our special guest.

Exercise is ageless

Growing older is inevitable, but some major ills that accompany aging may not be -- if you stay active and don't smoke. Research by scientists suggests that increased physical activity benefits the elderly. One study indicates that a higher activity level may reduce the effect of advancing age on the risk of stroke in non-smokers. Another finds fewer early signs of heart and blood vessel disease among older adults who exercise. (Source: American Heart Association) Before beginning any exercise program, see your physician.

The people of Texas should be encouraged to recognize the crucial role they play in our state.

Official Memorandum State of Texas Office of the Governor

Thousands of dedicated telecommunicators daily serve the citizens of the United States and Canada by answering their telephone calls for police, fire and emergency medical services and by dispatching the appropriate assistance as quickly as possible.

The critical functions performed by professional telecommunicators also include those related to forestry and conservation operations, highway safety and maintenance activities and many other operations performed by federal, state and local government agencies.

Telecommunicators are the link between the public seeking help and those who will provide this help. Often working long hours under extremely stressful conditions, they are the state's unsung heroes, responsible for protecting life and property while often not receiving the credit they deserve.

The people of Texas should be encouraged to honor telecommunicators in Texas and to recognize the crucial role they play in our state.

Therefore, I, Ann W. Richards, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of April 10 through April 16, 1994, as: Telecommunicators Week in Texas and urge the appropriate recognition thereof.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 31st day of March 1994.

Ann W. Richards

plead their case just before the Easter holidays. At the meeting, Steve Robinson, executive director of the Texas Youth Commission, rose at the meeting and said, "We have a need; you have a need, let's get together."

The commission set the date required for Coke County's application at May 2, 1994. Coke County will be notified by May 23, 1994 whether their application has been accepted. The juvenile offenders would be transferred for occupancy by October, 1994.

During the approximately five weeks from the time of the proposal to the May 2 deadline many questions and figures must be answered and defined. It looked like an almost impossible task in the beginning but order is rising out of chaos and it could happen. There are many other details to be worked out. All concerned with the project, the youth commission who will pledge the offenders, and Wackenhut Corp. who will manage the facility, have committed to work with the county in any way possible to make the project a reality.

The residents will probably number 75-100 with a potential for 200. In the beginning, it will require around 100 employees in all levels of work.

Hopefully, most of these will be local but on some professional levels, no qualified individuals may be found. These would include division heads from Wackenhut, counselors, medical staff, educators, etc.

A group of ten county citizens were to leave Wednesday for Austin where they will breakfast on Thursday with Wackenhut representatives, Ron Jackson, James Jonas, and others. They were to tour a similar facility at Giddings where some of the offenders reside who would transfer to the Coke County project. Judge Royce Lee will not go to Giddings but will return to San Angelo to meet with Concho Valley Regional and Shannon Medical Center representatives concerning health care for the facility.

Over 60 counties have sent written support to the county supporting the facility being applied for. It should be of good value in the decision of the Texas Youth Commission favoring the county.

If a favorable decision is handed down next month, then the frenzy could begin in earnest, such as hiring of the staff, construction bids, selling of the bonds, and a thousand other issues.

Judge Lee assured citizens the county officials will continue to keep the public posted on developments.

Bike-A-Thon

All residents are being called on today to join in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon slated for Saturday, April 23, 8:30 am starting from the Courthouse. The AON Service Club is coordinating this event and is placing a great emphasis on rider safety.

Riders of all ages and sponsors are needed for this Bike-A-Thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center in its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

"We're looking for riders who will contribute their time and talent to help children live. We really need lots of riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-A-Thon successful," said coordinator Janie Nazier of AON.

In the Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon, riders ask sponsors to make a donation based on each mile completed. All riders turning in money will receive a certificate. Those who raise $30 or more will receive a certificate and a special St. Jude T-shirt. When $75 or more is raised, the rider also receives a sports bag. In addition, several local merchants have donated prizes to be awarded.

"The real prize, though, is the pride everyone can take in giving children a chance to live a normal life," Nazier said.

Contact Janie Naizer at 453-2062 or any AON member for more details on riding or sponsoring a rider. St. Jude Hospital was founded by Danny Thomas and operates primarily from public support.

Correction

Complete results of the annual Robert Lee Relays appeared in the April 8 edition of the Observer/Enterprise. In the rundown of the Junior High standings, Tiffany Copeland (a fifth grader) was given credit for placing 6th in the 200 and first as a team member on the 800 relay. In fact, it was her sister, Holly Copeland, who placed in the track meet. The sisters are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Copeland. Our apologies to Holly; Tiffany will have to wait her turn.

RL Tennis

The Robert Lee High School tennis teams participated in the District competition April 4th and 7th in Cross Plains. The girls doubles team consisted of Meagan Hill and Kannan Millican. The boys doubles team of Aaron Hood and Eric Hood won district and will advance to the Regional playoffs April 27th and 28th.

On Tuesday, March 29, 1994, the Robert Lee Steer Band, under the direction of Mrs. Stazie Church, attended UIL Concert and Sight Reading contest in Sonora. The Steer Band brought home a "II" rating in Concert and a "I" rating in Sightreading! The Steer Band has not received a "I" in Sightreading since 1986! This is a major accomplishment for the band and a sign of great things to come!

Robert Lee host families needed

Foreign high school students will be arriving soon into the Robert Lee area for academic semester and year homestays, and the sponsoring organization needs a few more local host families.

According to Pacific Intercultural Exchange (P. I. E.) Executive Director, John Doty, the students are all between the ages of 15 and 18 years, are English-speaking, have their own spending money, carry accident and health insurance, and are anxious to share their cultural experiences with their new American families. P. I. E. currently has programs to match almost every family's needs, ranging in length from a semester to a full academic year, where the students attend local high schools.

P. I. E. area representatives match students with host families by finding common interests and lifestyles through an informal in-home meeting. Prospective host families are able to review student applications and select the perfect match. As there are no "typical" host families, P. I. E. can fit a student into just about any situation, whether it be a single parent, a childless couple, a retired couple or a large family.

Families who host for P. I. E. are also eligible to claim a $50.00 per month charitable contribution deduction on their itemized tax returns for each month they host a sponsored student.

For the upcoming programs, P. I. E. has students from Spain, Germany, Poland, Russia, Finland, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Paraguay, Australia, New Zealand, Croatia, and many other countries. P. I. E. has also been invited to participate in a special government-funded program to bring scholarship students from the Newly Independent States of the former Soviet Union to the United States. P. I. E. is a non-profit educational organization that has sponsored more than 18,000 students from 23 countries since its founding in 1975. The organization is designated by the United States Information Agency and is listed by the Council on Standards for International Educational Travel (CSIET), certifying that the organization complies with the standards set forth in CSIET's Standards for International Educational Travel programs.

Robert Lee area families interested in learning more about student exchange or arranging for a meeting with a community representative may call P. I. E., toll free, at 1-800-631-1818. The agency also has travel/study program opportunities available for American high school students as well as possibilities for community volunteers to assist and work with area host families, students and schools.

RL Project Graduation

Graduation '94 is almost here for the Robert Lee senior class. A graduation night party is being sponsored by their parents. The all-night event will be fun-filled and drug and alcohol free. Activities in the planning stage include a dance, volleyball, basketball, casino night, games, plenty of food throughout and breakfast. Door prizes and an auction using play money will also be a highlight.

If local and area residents or organizations would like to lend support for the undertaking with door prizes, food, cash donations, gift certificates, or other items, they may call the following parents: Harrell Johnston, 453-2778; Judy Gibbs, 453-4973; or Dean Jameson, 453-2047.

Personal

Jerry Wilkes of Silver is currently undergoing a 7-shot series of anti-rabies treatment in San Angelo. A pup belonging to him became ill about the time a fox diagnosed with rabies was killed in the Wilkes' family yard. Physicians recommended the treatments since the pup may have already encountered the fox. Although the expensive treatments are not as painful as in years past, they do have some side effects.

Surrounding counties have reported a record number of confirmed rabies cases this spring. Caution is advised in dealing with sick animals or those acting contrary to their nature.

Personal

Teddy Pitcock of Sanco remains in serious condition in Angelo Community Hospital. He has been hospitalized with complications from pneumonia since the first of the month. Family members said his condition seems more stable this week.

Springtime among the tall pines and the ancient oak trees of northwest Louisiana was made even more beautiful with the blossom of dogwood trees, azalea shrubs, and wisteria vines. Shades of pastel pink to deep pink, lavender, and white blossoms amidst the bright green were breathtaking to observe when the three Luckett sisters, Joy McDaniel of San Angelo, Helen Murtishaw and Pat Oglesby both of Bronte visited in the home of Ginger and Sid Eubanks in Natchitoches, Louisiana.

The perfect warm weather enhanced the daily jaunts the ladies enjoyed. A lunch of delicious Cajun fried catfish and Crayfish Etouffe in the renowned Lyszzone's Restaurant; a lazy boat ride on the Cane River to view the beautiful landscaped gardens sweeping down to the river banks; and walks about the neighborhood taking snapshots of the dogwood and azaleas.

A drive to tour the nearby Hodges Gardens, which were peaking in bloom of spring flowers had the group picnicking lakeside. A riot of color spilled over the formerly old stone quarry, including 42,000 tulips, that had been landscaped and cared for by the family heirs of the late A. J. Hodges - oil magnate, timberman, and conservationist.

An evening out for a meal of boiled crayfish proved to be an amusing experience, both delectable and educational.

They family members joined locals and other tourists Saturday evening strolling along the Cane River embankment in the Historical District of Natchitoches, visiting and observing the encampment of the Union Army. A re-enactment of the April 1, 1864 Red River Campaign began on Good Friday. The Yanks with all the trappings of war bivouacked Saturday and marched out Sunday morning after attending the Easter Sunrise services with the townspeople. The West Texans and the Eubanks, also, attended.

It was interesting to talk with the soldiers. Questions as to why the men chose to participate in the re-enactment were answered by two men who drove from California. They were overwhelmed at the size of Texas after traveling through El Paso, Ft. Worth-

Dallas, and to Shreveport, Louisiana. Two Illinoisans explained the many regulations necessary to assure the chosen historical campaign to be as authentic as possible. It was disappointing to learn they didn't know about Ft. Chadbourne and Ft. Concho or the Buffalo Soldiers. But did YOU know -- the Red River Campaign was the beginning effort to invade Texas and cut off the Rebel's supply line from Mexico? It also re-created the Confederate victory that stopped the Yankee invasion. History buffs spend their vacation time and many dollars to be able to take part in these re-inactments.

Joy, Helen, and Pat returned home by way of Cisco to visit their uncle and aunt, W. F. and Odesa Collins.

Counselor's Comments

by Vicky McCutchen

I am beginning a series of articles based on reading I have experienced on children entitled "Children the Challenge". One of the sections is concentrating on the characteristics of the family constellation.

A child experiences different emotions in the family by the position they possess in the birth order of the family. For example, a child's frustrations, ambitions, expectations, and opportunities are affected by his/her birth order. Looking closely at these emotions and feelings can help the parents in being effective with the child. The greatest concern in the relationship is the impact of the family upon the personality of the child. These experiences in the family affect the way he perceives, interprets, and evaluates his/her world outside the family. The skills, habits and knowledge that are aquired in the home will largely determine his/her capacity in dealing with situations outside of the home.

Each child wants to gain a place in the family group and does this early in his/her relationships with them using his/her way. Security and a feeling of belonging is the ultimate goal of the child in the family. All humans react differently to the same situation. No two children born into the same family grow up in the same situation because the environment of the family that surrounds each individual child changes. Here are several reasons the environments are different: 1) with the birth of each child, the situation changes; 2) parents are older and more experienced; 3) parents may be more prosperous and own their home; 4) parents may have moved to a new neighborhood; 5) possibility of a step-parent--due to divorce or death; among other things. Children are very sensitive and even a child can take an entirely wrong direction in life through the suspicion that other children in the family are preferred, such as boys preferred to girls or favoritism of parents toward a child exist.

In the life pattern of a child, there is the imprint of his or her position in the family and this imprint can affect the future attitude towards life of the child. Next week, we will discuss the only child and their characteristics.

Ivey Motor Company has not always been Ivey Motor Company. In 1914 the business was owned and operated by J.S. "Jess" Craddock. He also had a unique monopoly in addition to selling cars - he had the first and only gas pump in town.

EMS receives grant

The West Coke County EMS recently received a grant from the Texas Department of Health, Bureau of Emergency Management Local Projects Grant Program.

The grant proposal was one of 223 submitted and one of 85 approved and was for $3,600 of the $656,000 awarded, according to grants co-ordinator of the local EMS, Fran Lomas.

Ten radios have been ordered, received and placed into service by the local volunteers, replacing those purchased in 1978 and 1980. All radios now in use are less than two years old.

This was the first grant proposal submitted by the local service which received grant writer's training at a seminar in Austin. Plans are being made for submitting a grant proposal for 1995 to the Texas Department of Health.

Red Canyon Gun Club

Red Canyon Gun Club held a smallbore pistol silhouette match on April 10. Complete results are as follows:

High overall

1st. Place, Richard Johnson, Robert Lee; 2nd. place, Phillip Stephens, Austin; 3rd. place, Ken Green, Robert Lee.

Class Winners

AAA - Phillip Stephens, Austin

AA - Ken Green, Robert Lee

A - Doug Randel, Big Spring

B - Kelly Graham, Robert Lee

Phillip Stephens earned a 10 in a row Pin on Pigs. Next match will be smallbore silhouette Rifle on May 1st at 1:30 pm. You do not have to be a member of the gun club to shoot.

may remember, Saturday used to be a really big shopping day in Robert Lee. People that owned cars brought them in to be filled up (1/2 gallon of gas would do the trick). Since Saturday was shopping day, most folks would leave their car to be filled and then return for it at the end of the day. According to some accounts, cars were lined up for quite some distance waiting to be filled (kinda like the 70's gas shortage days). Mr. Craddock would fill the tanks on the cars and then park them around the side of the building. This assembly-line method evidently worked quite well except for one small problem. (You knew this was coming, can't have a story with no problem.)

Remember, we said earlier that people who owned cars left them to be filled. This was 1914, and lots and lots of people still used horses as their main mode of transportation. Cars in 1914 backfired - alot. Horses do not like cars that backfire - at all. Needless to say, this caused a problem that was eventually taken before the city council.

Mr. Craddock didn't want his customers to have to park their Model T's behind the building to wait to be filled up - horse owners did not want to have to tether their horses behind buildings to stand while they shopped. An apparent empasse was in the works. It would be left up to the council to arbitrate the disagreement. Oh, by the way, did we fail to mention that Mr. Craddock was a city councilman?

In 1914 new hitching posts and water troughs were built behind the buildings in downtown Robert Lee.

Annual Easter picnic and hayride

Fifty-five members and friends of the Mauldin and McDonald families met Saturday, April 2, for the annual Easter picnic and hayride.

The day began at 10:00 am with a tractor-drawn wagon piled with hay leaving Don Mauldin's home to travel two miles through fields of wild flowers to the family's private picnic grounds.

Following the noon weiner roast, the group enjoyed volleyball, pitching horseshoes, taking pictures and old-fashioned visiting. A scavenger hunt was the hottest activity, with nature objects being hunted, and the prize Easter egg was found by Kristi Mauldin. Bingo was played throughout the afternoon with Hazel Witzel, of Leroy, furnishing cards and prizes.

Late in the evening the group boarded the hay wagon to travel back and gather at the Mauldin barn for a brisket supper and barn dance.

The barn dance was hosted this year by the Mauldin cousins, Robbie and Lynn Beal, Steve Smith, Kirby and Linda Lammers, Randy and Genny Lammers, Donny and Theresa Mauldin, and Jana and Randy Smith. Music was furnished by Sammie Duncan and The Country Kings Band of San Angelo, providing tunes to line-dancing, Cotton Eyed Joe, and the Bunny Hop to delight the dancers.

Those attending were Hazel Witzel and Ret. Air Force Col. Mary Martha Todd of Leroy; Otis McDonald of Gatesville; D. W. and Edna McDonald of Evant; Pete, Betty and Lee Taylor of San Antonio; Ernest, Billie and Jimmie Taylor of Boerne; David, Arlene, Lisa and Lance McDonald of Bakersfield; Dutch Stuermer of San Angelo; Kirby, Linda and Jessie Lammers of Houston; Randy, Genny, Brandon and Shauna Lammers of Cypress; Betty and Wendell Lammers of Houston; Lynn, Robbie, Bethany, Ashley, Amanda and Colin Beal of Odessa; Melissa Whitten of Odessa; Lee Ann Baldrige and Jason of San Angelo; Donny, Theresa, Kristi, Kim and Laura Mauldin of Greenwood; Rick and Kay Styles of Bronte; Zeddie and Ruth Beal; Jana, Randy, Dane and Rob Smith; Tucker Green; T. J. Roe; Will Renfro; Steve Smith; Wanda and Willis Smith; Don and Melba Mauldin, all of Robert Lee.

Since 1979, the annual Easter picnic and hayride has been hosted by Don and Melba Mauldin, Wanda and Willis Smith and Betty and Wendell Lammers.

Jerry Proctor has been selected as the March Employee of the Month, according to Pam Shaffer, Administrator of Bronte Nursing Home. Jerry is the bookkeeper/secretary. She has been employed since 1980 at B. N. H.

Be prepared when you file for disability benefits

As soon as you become disabled, you may file for disability benefits with your local Social Security office. Whether you choose to file by phone or by scheduling an appointment with a Social Security representative, you should have on hand all the documentation and information that will be necessary for your claim to be processed efficiently.

When you file, bring the necessary documents. These include:

- *the Social Security number and proof of age for each person applying for payments (this includes your spouse and children, if they are applying for benefits);
- *names, addresses, and phone numbers of doctors, hospitals, clinics, and institutions that treated you and dates of treatment;
- *a summary of your last 15 years of employment and the kind of work you did;
- *a copy of your W-2 Form (Wage and Tax Statement), or if you are self-employed, your Federal tax return for the past year; and
- *dates of prior marriages if your spouse is applying.

Here are some other ways that you can help us to help you:

- *Keep thorough records that document the symptoms of your illness and how it affects your daily activities.
- *Ask your doctor or other health care professional to track the course of your symptoms including any evidence of hard-to-document symptoms like fatigue, depression, forgetfulness, and dizziness.

*If you are working, keep records of how your illness affects you on the job. If you lost your job because of illness, make notes that describe what it is about your condition that forced you to stop working.

*Give us copies of all these records when you file.

Do not delay filing for benefits just because you do not have all the information you need. The San Angelo Social Security Office can help you.

Free Trees

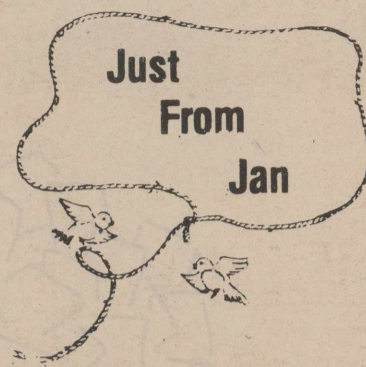

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during April 1994.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten shade trees are Red Oak, Weeping Willow, Sugar Maple, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, River Birch, Tuliptree, Silver Maple, and Red Maple.

"These trees were selected to provide shade and beauty, and a variety of forms, leaf shapes, and fall colors," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting in April or May with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Helping children get into the habit of eating right!

Habits are learned. Undesirable eating habits are learned or formed the same way as healthful eating habits. It's the kind of foods provided that makes the difference.

What you bring home from the grocery store will decide the kinds of foods your children eat. You are in control of what's in the refrigerator. When you have a selection of tasty, nutritious foods on hand, your children have the opportunity to enjoy them. When foods such as potato chips, candy, cakes, soda pop, sweetened cereals and sugary cookies are available, kids learn to eat these kinds of empty calorie foods.

It's important that you provide a wide assortment of nutritious foods for meals and snacks.

Set an example by eating a wide variety of nutritious foods yourself. Children learn from adults. If you snack on empty calorie foods, your child is likely to do the same. If you drink water or fruit juice more often than soda, your child will learn to enjoy these beverages.

Take time to look more closely at your own eating habits and decide how you might change them to set a better example.

Involve children in planning and preparing meals and snacks. This helps them feel that they can make a real contribution.

Help your child develop an open, adventurous attitude toward trying foods. Be relaxed about it. Help your child use the appetite and desire for food that he or she was born with.

If the foods you provide your children are the basic, nutritious foods the human body was designed to eat, chances are your children's health won't suffer even if it seems as though they don't eat enough to feed a bird. If you are concerned about your child's eating habits because he or she isn't growing or seems tired, pale or irritable most of the time, check with your doctor. Usually, a child who likes all kinds of different foods is more likely to be well-nourished than one who does not.

"Academy Day" announced

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm announced recently that he will be co-sponsoring an "Academy Day" event in San Angelo on Sunday, April 24, 1994, along with U. S. Representative Lamar Smith.

The Academy Day program will include a brief introduction of the Congressional staffers and academy representatives who will be working with the students during the nomination process, a discussion of procedures to obtain a nomination, videotapes of life at each academy, and comments by academy representatives. There will also be refreshments and an opportunity for students and parents to have one-on-one discussions with all of those involved in the program.

The event will be held at the Houston Harte University Center Ballroom at San Angelo State University from 2:00 to 4:00 pm.

The U. S. academies offer young people an excellent education, while also developing skills in leadership and self-discipline. It is a one-of-a-kind opportunity to earn a bachelor's degree and earn a salary for doing so. An education at an academy also guarantees a career upon graduation as an officer in the U. S. Armed Forces.

High Anxiety

A high level of tension or anxiety is more than an emotional problem for middle-aged men. It can result in high blood pressure. Not surprisingly, you say? Well, middle-aged men were the only group in which the relationship to anxiety and high blood pressure was found.

Dr. Jerome Markovitz, of the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Medicine, using data from the Framingham Heart Study, did not find the emotional trigger for high blood pressure in women. It was not that women did not have anxiety, in fact, they frequently tested higher for it than men, but there was less risk of it resulting in chronic high blood pressure.

Middle-aged men with high amounts of anxiety in their lives had twice the risk of going on to develop high blood pressure as men without anxiety, adding to other research suggesting that chronic emotional stress may have physical consequences.
