

MONDAY

November 1, 1999 Volume 75, Issue 45

Astocks Nasdag S&P 500 Dow Jones price: 2,966.43 1,362.93 10,729.86

change: +91.21 +20.49 Friday's closing figures

STATE NEWS

Investigators hope for new progress in old slaying

SAN ANGELO (AP) - Investigators have been frustrated for more than a decade in their efforts to learn who killed a man whose decomposed body was found in knee-high grass near the north shore of Twin Buttes Reservoir.

They hope a forensic artist at the Department of Public Safety in Midland can provide a first glimpse of what the unidentified victim looked like, and perhaps inspire someone to offer clues to his identity and ultimately the cause of his death.

"Identifying him will be like blowing up a dam," said Lou Camelbeek, an investigator with the Tom Green County Sheriff's Department who has handled the case since the beginning in 1987.

'The information will just come flowing out," Camelbeek told the San Angelo Standard-Times in a story published Sunday.

Camelbeek and others said they've never forgotten that John Doe was someone's son, and possibly a father or brother.

NATIONAL NEWS

Four teens plead innocent in alleged plan for rampage

CLEVELAND (AP) -- Four white ninthgraders accused of making plans for a racially motivated rampage at their predominantly black high school pleaded innocent on Sunday and were sent back to a juvenile lockup.

The boys, one 14 and the rest 15, were accompanied by their parents and arraigned separately before Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court Magistrate Dick Walsh in closed hear-

They allegedly planned to set off bombs and open fire on classmates at noon last Fri-

The hearings were in a room on the ground floor of the Cuyahoga County Detention Center. The four will continue to be held there.

They were kept out of sight from the public. Reporters were allowed to see the hearing room, but were ushered outside the building before the arraignments began.

Larry Zukerman, an attorney representing one boy, emerged from the arraignments upset that the names and photos of the boys have appeared in print and on television. Juvenile court proceedings, by law, are confidential in Ohio.

WORLD NEWS_

South Korean fire that killed 55 blamed on poor safety

INCHON, South Korea (AP) - South Korea's deadliest fire in a quarter-century was a disaster waiting to happen, a weekend crowd of teen-agers partying in an unlicensed beer bar so crowded that waitresses could hardly move around the tables.

The only exit from the dimly lit bar was a stairway barely 1 yard wide. There were no fire alarms and no sprinklers in the nightspot.

With 55 people dead after Saturday night's fire, police sought arrest warrants Sunday for five people: four electricians they said ignored safety procedures and a teen-ager accused of inadvertently starting the fire while working on a new karaoke club in the basement of the three-story building. The five face charges of involuntary manslaughter.

Contact The UD

News	742-3393
Lifestyles
Sports	742-2952
Photography	742-2954
Editor	742-3395
Advertising	742-3384
Fax	742-2434
Letters Thellni	versity Daily@ttu.edu

Jetliner plunges into North Atlantic

with 217 people on board, including dozens of American tourists, plunged mysteriously into the ocean off Nantucket Island early Sunday, 33 minutes after leaving New York for Cairo.

By nightfall, searchers had retrieved debris and one body, but held out little hope of finding survivors in the chilly At-

Authorities said there was no distress call from the pilots before the Boeing 767 plummeted to the sea in two minutes from its cruising altitude of 33,000 feet.

Though the FBI and other intelligence agencies began checking on the possibility of sabotage, President Clinton and BOSTON (AP) — An EgyptAir jetliner other officials said there was no immediate indication of foul play.

> Searchers found two partially inflated life rafts, life jackets, seat cushions and other small debris, none with any burn marks, said Coast Guard Rear Adm. Richard M. Larrabee. A finding of such marks on debris could suggest the possibility of a fire or explosion aboard the plane.

The air search was suspended after dark, but ships continued scouring the area.

The Coast Guard said chances of anyone surviving more than 12 hours in the 58-degree water were slim.

A Navy salvage ship, the USS Grapple, and Navy divers were leaving Norfolk, Va., on Sunday night and were expected to join the debris and remains to a Navy base in Rhode

U.S. officials indicated a majority of the 199 passengers on Flight 990 were Americans, including a group of 54 people bound for a 14-day trip to Egypt and the Nile.

Alan Lewis, chief executive of the Bostonbased travel agency Grand Circle Corp., said most of the group members were from Colorado, Arizona and the Pacific Northwest.

The plane started its flight in Los Angeles and stopped at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport. It took off again at 1:19 a.m. EST and went down at 1:52 a.m., roughly 60 miles south of Nantucket. The Coast Guard deployed ships, reconnaissance planes and search by late Monday, with orders to take helicopters to search an area of about 36 square miles, in waters about 270 feet deep.

State-owned EgyptAir, confronted with the worst crash in its history, said non-American passengers included 62 Egyptians, two Sudanese, three Syrians and one Chilean passenger. There were 18 crew members, EgyptAir said.

It was the fourth time in three years that a major search operation was launched in the region for a plane lost at sea.

The series of crashes began with TWA Flight 800 off Long Island in July 1996, followed by Swissair Flight 111 off Nova Scotia in September 1998 and the single-engine plane carrying John F. Kennedy Jr., his wife and her sister off Martha's Vineyard in July.

Paul Burman, a freshman undecided major from Orange, gets labeled 'V', as a virgin who has never seen the 'Rocky Horror Picture Show.' Lance Morgan, a freshman business major from Corpus Christi, has the honors of labeling first-time viewers.

'Rocky Horror Picture Show' continues to succeed after 24 years

by Cory Chandler Staff Writer

Each year, strange creatures creep from the shadows across campus to participate in a bizarre annual ritual celebrating Halloween's arrival.

They arrive alone or in groups as witches, vampires, ghouls and ... transvestites.

Saturday at midnight, Texas Tech students gathered in the University Center Ballroom to take part in the cult movie phenomenon known as "The Rocky Horror Picture Show.' Since its first screening in 1975 at the Westwood Theatre in Los Angeles, "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" has become an underground classic, reigning as the longest-running movie in history. Many considered the movie racy when it was first released. The movie's presentation of androgyny and sexuality still is considered

bold by many. "Rocky Horror" screenings have evolved

Houston, was killed at the accident occurred on into one of the few movie experiences where the featured film takes backstage to the audience. "Rocky Horror" typically takes on a carnival atmosphere at the UC.

Audience members arrived Saturday in costumes carrying bags of goodies to help them participate in the action.

Once the film began, fans dressed in garter belts and their favorite characters reacted to the movie by throwing rice, toast and even squirting water guns during different scenes. People new to the "Rocky Horror" experience could be spotted by the large red "V's" painted across their faces.

Many were ashamed to admit the "V" meant they were virgins to the "Rocky Horror Picture Show" phenomenon.

The virgins were quickly initiated before the movie began. Every audience member pledged a solemn vow to "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" by the beginning of the

"I've always wanted to see it live," said

see SHOW, p. 3

Accident kills Tech student, five others injured

by Andrew Thompson

One Texas Tech student was killed and five others injured Friday afternoon when the driver reportedly fell asleep and veered off the road and into a creek bed, according to the Department of Public

Eighteen-year-old Michael Burrows, a sophomore engineering student from

Burrows

Highway 36 near Caldwell in Burleson County. Michael Shonrock, Tech dean of students, said Burrow's death was a great tragedy.

"This is very regrettable," he said. "Our scene after being thrown prayers are with their families. (The accident) into the front seat of the is a tremendous loss for Texas Tech and the van, according to a Bryan Department of Public Burrows, a member of the National Soci-

Safety spokesperson. The ety of Black Engineers, was traveling with five other Tech students to a regional conference when the accident occurred.

The other five students, Brian Vinson, 20; Darren Banks, 18; JayLynn Jackson, 22; Brandon Smith, 21; and Taimon Mosely, 21, all were listed in stable condition Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Bryan.

Tech officials made arrangements for the remaining 12 students who also were attending the conference to fly back from Houston with some of their families Sunday, Shonrock said. An investigation of the accident still is

A tentative memorial service is planned for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the University Cen-

Changes may boost Texas Tech's national rankings

by Andrew Thompson

Staff Writer

Texas Tech soon may be able to boast a new national ranking next year due to changes to classification standards by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teach-

The foundation, which created its classification system in 1970, plans to overhaul the way a university is classified. The foundation ranks institutions based on the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year and the amount of federal funding the university receives each year for research

But not for long.

The new classification scheme would eliminate the foundation's criteria targeting the amount of funding generated by the institution.

For instance, a university is listed as a Research University-I if they award more than 50 doctorate degrees per year and are granted more than $40 million in federal funding.

The University of Texas at Austin and Texas A&M University are listed in this level.

see CARNEGIE, p. 2

EUNIVERSITYDAILY

Box 43081, Texas Tech University. Lubbock, Texas, 79409 Room 211 Journalism Building

Copyright © 1999 Texas Tech University Student Publications/The University Daily. All UD articles, photographs, artwork and graphics are the property of The University Daily and Texas Tech Student Publications and may not be reproduced or published without written permission

Editor: Wayne Hodgin Managing Editor: Jason Bernstein News Editor: Greg Okuhara Techlife Editor: Laura Hensley Sports Editor: Nathan Notley Photography Editor: Greg Kreller Copy Editors: Ismara Quant, Lindsay Rowden

dvertising Manager Kevin Preas Editorial Adviser: Carla McKeown

Asst. Editorial Adviser: Sheri Lewis

Special Class Postage paid by The Uni versity Daily, journalism building, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas, 79409. Postmaster: send address changes to above address. Publication number 766480. The UD is a student newspaper published Monday through Friday, September through May: Tuesdays and Fridays June through August, except during riods. The UD is funded primarily through advertising revenues generated by the student sales staff with free campus distribution resulting from student service fees. Subscriptions: $90 annually; single

Radio station's changes cause protests

issues: 25 cents.

HOUSTON (AP) - Even the harshest critics of the board directs Pacifica Foundation's liberal radio network admitted they saw some progress this weekend toward resolving infighting over programming and control at its nonprofit stations.

"I think consistent pressure from the listenership is beginning to pay off," said Van Jones, a San Francisco area human rights activist. "The board listened to us, which is more than they have done before.

Iones was one of more than 50 protesters from across the nation who rallied in Houston during the weekend board meeting - Pacifica's first since network leaders clashed with staffers at their Berkeley, Calif., flagship station in July. The ouster of KPFA-FM's general manager touched off massive demonstrations, dozens of arrests and a temporary lockdown at the station.

An arson Friday at Houston affiliate KPFT-FM heightened tensions between the board and its opponents. Protesters denied responsibility for the blaze, which is under investigation. On Sunday, the board addressed one major concern of protesters by resolving not to sell any of its stations.

Besides Houston and Berkeley, Pacifica has stations in Los Angeles, New York City and Washington, D.C. All five are non-commercial and subscriber-supported.

Three new board members were seated, including two the protesters favored.

The panel also allowed an hour of public comments, despite what Pacifica chairwoman Mary Frances Berry called "admonishments" by Houston police and security.

Yoga class helps students relieve stress

by Adrienne Gaviglio Staff Writer

Students on Texas Tech's campus

are finding new ways to cope with the stress brought on by classes and Yoga has been discovered by students and Lubbockites as a new way to exercise and has increased in popularity in the past couple of years. Yoga, which means "union," originated in India more than 5,000 years ago.

"Yoga is a relaxed alternative way to work out without all of the stress and anxiety," said Suzi Schumaker, a yoga instructor at World Gym Aerobic and Fitness.

The exercise is supposed to help any ailment the human body might be suffering from, according to the Web site YogaOrganization.com.

'Some people's view of yoga in the past has been negative because they believe that it involves religious aspects, and to some people it may," Schumaker said. "Some may do yoga daily centering on it as a religion, but for the most part, the fad that has started does not involve religious as-

The exercise's popularity has taken off because of celebrity endorsements, she said.

Some of the reported benefits of yoga include improved muscle tone, flexibility, strength, stamina, reduced stress and tension, improved concentration and improved circulation.

Many have reported living a much more relaxed and stress-free life after doing yoga, said Dr. Harrold Capps, a physician at Student Health

'The effects of yoga have definitely been positive as far as helping people deal with their stress each day," Capps said. "Yoga also has been

"The effects of

yoga have definitely been positive ..."

seen to lower blood pressure, and heart rates reportedly have gone down."

Many students at Tech have decided to give the alternative exercise a try, Dr. Harold Capps tive exercise a try, especially after Student Health Services long days of studying. physician

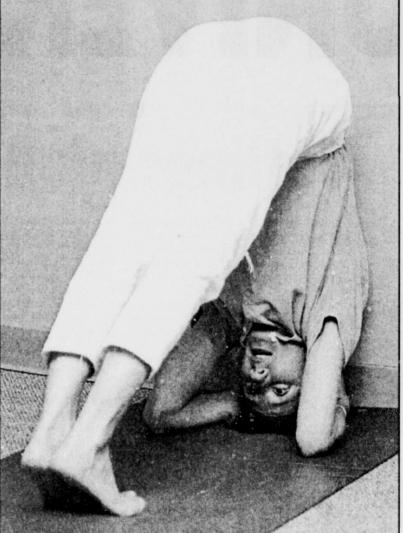

"I have en-

joved attending the voga classes and would recommend them to anyone who is really stressed out," said Julie Studdard, a junior therapeutic recreation major from Plano.

'Yoga is relaxing and helps you to find where your body centers stress." Yoga involves a lot of deep breathing that helps lower the body's stress level she said

'Yoga makes you aware of where you hold tension and aids to lengthen and strengthen your muscles," Schumaker said.

"I have found that in the past year, my class size has almost doubled because of the effectiveness of the Mariouz Young teaches yoga at the Student Recreation Center. Yoga has become a popular exercise for students to help relieve stress. Originating in India, yoga's popularity has increased because of celebrity endorsements.

McCain's temperament questioned

ing in the GOP presidential polls, Sen. John McCain is facing questions about what some Arizona political leaders view as his quick temper - and whether it might hinder him as

In a front page article and separate editorial Sunday, The Arizona Republic said it wanted the nation to know about the "volcanic" temper McCain has unleashed on several top state officials. Those who have been on the receiving end of a McCain uproar include Republican Gov. Jane Hull, former Republican Gov. Rose Mofford and former Democratic Mayor Paul Johnson of Phoenix.

Hull, a supporter of GOP presidential front-runner George W. Bush, has acknowledged that her relationship with McCain has been cool and told an interviewer recently McCain "has to keep control" of his temper. A Hull spokesman, Francie Noyes, said Sunday the governor had no further comment on McCain's temper and that "she wants to move on to other things.

The Arizona Republic, has endorsed McCain for his five congressional races but has made not endorsement in the presidential race.

UT chancellor says audit could 'devastate' construction

HOUSTON (AP) - University of Chancellor Cunningham warned auditors in a 1996 letter that a constitutional challenge of investment procedures could "devastate" construction financing at UT and Texas A&M, the Houston Chronicle reported Sunday.

Since that time, UT officials have invested nearly $450 million with private investment bankers despite auditors' questions about how the bankers' fees were being paid.

The draft state audit, leaked more than two years ago, indicated UT and its financial manager, the University of Texas Management Co., or UTIMCO, possibly violated state constitutional limits by paying private partner management fees from the Permanent University Fund.

Auditors believed the manage-

" ... the constitutional provisions governing the PUF are incompatible with modern investment theory and practice."

> Tom Ricks UTIMCO president

Available University Fund and recommended pursuit of an attorney general's opinion. But Cunningham's letter — which university officials withheld but the Chronicle obtained warned that even to request such an opinion would severely damage construction programs at UT and

"The (state auditor's) recommenment fees should be paid from the dation, if published, will have the that the Available University Fund unintended consequence of placing the credit ratings of approximately $1 billion of PUF bonds at the risk of a severe downgrading and the suspension of the issuance of additional PUF bonds," the chancellor's letter

Cunningham said federal securities laws would require the university to disclose to potential bond buyers might lose $233 million over 10 years ment Co. board members, UTIMCO because of a change in investment procedures.

That liability would "devastate the Available University Fund and thereby severely damage both the PUF bond financing program and the scholarship and other excellence programs," Cunningham wrote. Cunningham told the Chronicle last week auditors dropped the issue because he convinced them that UT's method of accounting and paying private investment managers was constitutional. State auditors have said they dropped the issue after UT assured the law firm of Vinson & Elkins supporting the constitutionality of the UT investment program.

them that they had an opinion from tors' question "further evidence that the constitutional provisions governing the PUF are incompatible with modern investment theory and prac-A constitutional amendment on Tuesday's ballot, Proposition 17,

President Tom Ricks called the audiwould change the way PUF investments are managed and remove many restrictions on the fund. UT and A&M supporters have promoted Proposition 17 as a method of modernizing university investments to make about $50 million a year more available to higher education spending by 2004. If the amendment fails, the PUI private investment program would have no final resolution on whether In an October 1996 memo to Uniits private equity program is operatversity of Texas Investment Manage- ing constitutionally.

CARNEGIE, from p. 1

However, the new standards for an institution to be listed as a Doctoral/Research Institution-L would require that a university award more than 50 doctorates per year across at least 15 disciplines.

Tech is listed as a Research University-II, an institution that awards 50 or more doctorates per year and receives $15.5 million to $40 million per year in funding.

The new standards will allow Tech to join the Research University-I company of other schools, including UT and A&M, said David Schmidly, vice president for research and graduate affairs at

"In the last three years, Tech has awarded at least 161 doctoral degrees in 30 disciplines," he said.

"We've averaged more than 170 per year in those years. These new rankings would put us in with the prestigious institutions talked about nationwide.'

Tech is unable to compete with larger land-grant or flagship universities in Texas because of the Permanent University Fund, which supplies large amounts of funding to UT and A&M, Schmidly said.

We do not have the size of a 40,000-plus student body, nor do we have large faculties like other universities listed at Level I, and that's the primary reason why we aren't Level

I," he said.

Tech President Donald Haragan has previously voiced his commitment to help Tech move into the first level by adding 20 more faculty members next year and to help Tech officials lobby for more federal funding.

Haragan was out of town and unavailable for comment.

Schmidly, however, also said it is important Tech does not lose sight of the university's main goal education.

"We have to balance these two goals - wanting to move into the first level to gain the recognition Tech deserves and wanting to provide the best education for our students," he said.

Colombians horrified over mass child killings

PEREIRA, Colombia (AP) -Twelve freshly planted palms stand as a memorial to the 25 children whose skeletal remains were found here last year, leading police to a man who may be one of history's worst serial killers.

Brightly-painted figures of children at play are carved into an overlooking hillside, and a sign at the bottom of the grassy gully reads: "If we continue with the indifference and the abandonment, we'll never know what happened to the children of Pereira.'

The gruesome findings last November in the ravine and a nearby overgrown city lot in Colombia's bustling western coffee belt sparked a public outcry that prompted a nationwide investigation into more than a hundred missing children over the past several years. This week, the break came. A 42year-old drifter confessed to killing 140 children during a five-year rampage, chief federal prosecutor

Alfonso Gomez said. Luis Alfredo Garavito, who was jailed on attempted rape charges in April, confessed to the killings after being presented with overwhelming evidence linking him to the attacks, the prosecutor said. Luring his victims with a myriad of disguises - a cripple, a monk, a beggar, a priest, a charity worker - Garavito gained his victims' confidence by offering them soft drinks and money. In several of the 59 towns he drifted through, Garavito earned nicknames, including "El Loco" and "Goofy."

Read The University Daily online: www.ttu.edu/~TheUD

"What a Great Experience!

Learning the language. Meeting people. Coming face to face with history, art and architecture, culture, food and fun.

UNIVERSITY STUDIES ABROAD CONSORTIUM...

Small classes. Personal attention. Fully accredited — receive university credit. We provide great classes in intensive, language, history, anthropology, art, business, economics, political science...

University Studies Abroad Consortium University of Nevada MS/323

Reno, Nevada 89557 (725) 784-6569 E-mail: usac@admin.unr.edu http://usac.unr.edu

AUSTRALIA · BASQUE COUNTRY · CHILE · CHINA · COSTA RICA · DENMARK · ENGLAND · FRANCE GERMANY • IRELAND • ISRAEL • ITALY • MALTA• NEW ZEALAND • SCOTLAND • SPAIN • THAILAND

DUCKS UNLIMITED

6th Annual Banquet Thursday, November 4th Doors open at 6:30 Danny's Fins and Hens

Banquet will include silent and live auctions, raffles, door prizes, and music by Luke Olson. Tickets include dinner and drinks for two, sticker, one membership to Ducks Unlimited with magazine, and Tech Chapter T-shirt to the first 150 ticket purchasers. Tickets on sale in the UC Tuesday thru Thursday

For more info call 785 - 4271 or visit us on the web at www.gesc.ttu.edu/ducks

TECH CHAPTER

Airline workers reach deal

FORT WORTH (AP) - Pilots and American Airlines have agreed to end a dispute that led to a pilot sickout and the cancellation of hundreds of flights earlier this year.

The deal reached Saturday between the airline and the Allied Pilots Association comes nearly a year after American acquired a controlling stake in Reno Air and two months after integrating the smaller airline's operations into its own.

American spokesman Mark Slitt said on Sunday the agreement is "very similar" to a compromise proposed by a mediator in July.

The pilot's union modified the proposal and the airline rejected the union's changes.

SHOW, from p. 1

Kelly Stumbo, a freshman public relations major from Flower Mound, who helped work the door while unabashedly displaying the "V" on her forehead.

"There are lots of interesting people around. The dress is very extravagant, even scary at times," she said

On-screen actors barely were audible as the audience sang along with the songs, heckled the characters and shouted one-liners in response to the scripted lines.

Live actors also took part by acting out the scenes and hosting the event.

Jeff Corning, who was one of the live actors, said, "I've seen the movie in other places, but Tech students definitely get into it more than I've ever seen.

Corning said he began acting out the movie after some friends talked him into it one

Chris Snively, a junior telecommunications major at South Plains College, said he always enjoys attending screenings because people really seem to get into them.

"There's always a chance to get a line in," he said.

Most people said attending a screening of "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" is better than watching it at home.

"I'd seen it before on television, but seeing other people getting into it is different," Snively said.

Michele Moore, a junior public relations major from El Paso, said she had seen the movie many times but never

"Seeing it live added a new dimension to the movie," Moore said

"I will definitely do it again. I think that it will be better the next time around because I know what to expect and will be able to participate a lot more."

We Wrap & Ship

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

www.willoughbycompany.com

Learn to Fly

For $50 A Month

Introductory Flight $35

LUBBOCK

AERO

Some Restrictions

Apply

Lubbock Int'l Airport

(806) 747-5101

LUBBOCKAERO.COM

parties had been at a stalemate until last week's meetings.

The dispute erupted over differences in how to absorb the lower-paid Reno Air pilots into the com-

Under the agreement, American will increase the number of pilots who cannot be furloughed 300 matching the number of Reno

Air pilots who joined American - and give the Reno Air pilots a 45-percent pay raise, negotiations on a two-year contract retroactive to March 1.

The dispute peaked in February with an 11-day pilot sickout that inconvenienced more than 600,000 travelers and cost American $225 federal judge to reimburse American $45.5 million for ignoring a court order to return to

That issue - determining the date on which

American gained control of Reno

Air - will be decided after hear-

"We see this as Allied Pilots President Rich a positive step LaVoy said Saturday that all but forward in fixing one of the issues related to the the relations be-Reno Air pilots' integration had tween American been resolved.

Andrea Rader American Airlines spokes-

and its pilots."

ings Nov. 11-12. The union also agreed to begin extension for the Fort Worth-based carrier's nearly 10,000 pilots. The current contract expires in 2001. "We are very pleased," American spokeswoman Andrea Rader said.

Negotiations between the two million. The union was ordered by a "We see this as a positive step forward in fixing the relations between American and its pilots.'

Both sides refused to comment on whether a deal was struck on the $45.5 million fine. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram on Thursday quote unnamed sources familiar with the discussions as saying the agreement could lead to Americanan this year and hurt customers' perceptions.

'Having harmony and a good relationship with the pilots is going to be an important element" to rebuilding the airline's image, Slitt said.

On June 1, an American jetliner crashed while landing during a storm in Little Rock, Ark., killing 11 people. Fatigue is suspected of being a factor. The co-pilot had been on duty more than 13 hours the day of the crash, although that is within the 14hour duty period in American's pilot contract.

American also has been sued by the Justice Department, which accuses the airline of predatory pricing to drive competitors out of routes in

One dead, 5 shot at fraternity party

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP) — A group of men who were turned away from a college Halloween party early Sunday opened fire on the small house, killing one man and wounding five others.

About 100 people had packed into the home after a Ball State University fraternity party. About 4 a.m., a car pulled into an alley behind the house and began firing into the home, said Marlon Glass, 31, who was at the party.

The house, in a student neighborhood near campus, was riddled with bullet holes, and a trail of shell casings still led from the back door to the alley Sunday afternoon. The windows of some of the half-dozen cars parked behind the house had been shot

Police and witnesses said at least two people had fired as many as 40 rounds from outside, and investigators were looking in to whether shots were fired inside the house as well.

Julian Brown, 28, a former Ball State student from Gary, Ind., was found dead in the kitchen, Muncie police Chief Joe Winkle

Two people were in fair condition Sunday at Ball Memorial Hospital and two were treated and released, a hospital spokesman said. One person was treated at the scene.

"It was a private gathering. It wasn't a wild party or anything like that. It just got out of hand," said David Keels, an advisor for Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.

A Kappa Alpha Psi member who lived in the house had invited several people over after the fraternity party at the local YMCA, Keels said.

The shooters' identities still hadn't been determined Sunday afternoon, Winkle said.

Gay beating case focuses on diminished capacity

that Aaron McKinney pummeled Matthew Shepard because he made a sexual advance goes on trial this week as lawyers try to prove McKinney suffered from a diminished capacity at the time of the beat-

McKinney is on trial for robbery, kidnapping and murder in the death of the gay college student.

His lawyers are seeking conviction on a lesser offense like manslaughter to avoid a possible death sen-

They have two approaches, both

McKinney suffered from a mental disease or defect that prevented him from knowingly or purposefully committing murder - the "diminished capacity" defense.

When McKinney's defense gets into full swing Monday, the lawyers plan to offer testimony that his mental capacity was diminished by drugs and alcohol, an approach that is allowed under Wyoming law. But they have combined that approach with the theory that a person with latent homosexual tendencies will have an uncontrollable, violent reaction when propositioned by a of which are aimed at proving that homosexual. Some have called this the "gay panic" defense.

McKinney's lawyers have contended he lost control during a drunken, drug-induced rage because a sexual advance by Shepard triggered memories of a childhood homosexual assault.

"It's the 'excuse defense,' and it has never been allowed under Wyoming law," said Carbon County Attorney Tom Campbell, who is not involved in the prosecution of the case.

No state legislature has recognized the gay panic defense because there is no scientific evidence to support it, he said.

Judge Barton Voigt is expected to rule Monday on whether McKinney's lawyers will be allowed to present evidence supporting the theory.

Russell McKinney and Henderson, both 22-year-old roofers, are accused of luring Shepard out of a Laramie bar and taking him to a remote area near town, where they robbed him of $20, lashed him to a wooden fence and pistol-whipped him into a coma.

Shepard, 21, died five days later. Henderson is serving two life sentences after pleading guilty to murder and kidnapping. During testimony last week, prosecutors offered jurors a timeline of the events the night Shepard was beaten, ending with McKinney's jailhouse confession.

McKinney's then-girlfriend, Kristen Price, testified that he went on drug-and-alcohol binges that sometimes lasted for days. But she said she did not see McKinney use drugs or drink the day of Shepard's

In his taped confession, McKinney said Shepard reached down and grabbed his leg while he was driving.

He said he became angry and struck Shepard with his hands and a

Judge released fugitive despite prosecutor's warning

wanted in a string of check forgeries in Louisiana and Texas used false names and addresses to convince a judge he could honor his $50,000 bond, The Times-Picayune reported

Keefe Anderson, 34, was allowed to leave jail nine days before he could have been transferred to federal court, where he and six others were indicted June 9 on charges alleging they stole more than $200,000 using counterfeit checks, according to an FRI bulletin

And a prosecutor wrote a note in Anderson's case file warning against allowing the suspect's release from

But Criminal Court Judge Charles Elloie allowed $45,000 of Anderson's bond to be covered by personal sureties and the remainder with a commercial bail bond that cost $500, according to court records.

With a personal surety, no money is needed - just a promise from a friend or relative to pay up if the defendant skips court or avoids the pro-

Anderson provided two such for himself were phony. names, but the addresses and telephone numbers listed for them turned out to be false, the newspa-

One, on St. Philip Street, belongs to an aunt who said Anderson has never lived there. Elloie said he was willing to set Anderson free in part Even the addresses Anderson gave because he was not accused of a vio-

The judge also said he does not need to conduct a cumbersome examination of a bond request if brought before him by an attorney or someone he knows.

COMBO SPECIALS SERVED SEVEN DAYS 10 % OFF $10 or more 15 % OFF Delivery over $15

TEL (806) 762-6548 FAX (806) 762-5984 1221 University Avenue @ 13th Street Lubbock, TX 79401

BUSINESS HOURS Mon-Thur 11am-10pm Fri 11am- 10:30pm Sat 11:30am- 10pm Sun 11:30am- 10pm

PHYLLOMA

1315 University

747-8811

The Homecoming Goordinating Committee Congratulates

Parade Winners

1st Place Coleman intramural Assn. Pi Kappa Phi & Delta Gamma

Sigma Phi Lambda/Kappa Upsilon Chi

Jackson JCFC Elementary 2nd Place Delta Hulen/Clement Miller Girls/Farmhouse

University Center Programs Bayless JCFC Elementary Kjhfdokjh 3rd Place

Alpha Delta Pi/Delta Sigma Phi ENTOMOLOGY CLUB Parsons Elementary

Alpha Phi Omega

Party Time

First Baptist Church

University Center

Programs

Ex-Students Assoc.

First USA

Student Alumni

Board

Women's Service

Organization

Golf USA

Potato Factory

Paddle Tramps

Putt-Putt

HomePlace Diner

Bodywork's

Joe Maclean

Rachel's Fine Fabrics

Tech Pom Squad

High Riders

Hobby Lobby

Accessory Touch

Banner Winners

1st Place Gaston Complex

2nd Place Miller Girls/Farmhouse

3rd Place Kappa Alpha Order/Kappa

Honorable Mention Tau Kappa Epsilon/Alpha Phi Alpha Delta Pi Kappa Sig/Kappa Alpha Theta

Special Thanks to Our Sponsors

Melissa Hancock 1999 Homecoming Queen 1st Runner-up Jennifer Steven

Jack North and Food Fashion Board Fast Signs Service

Gingiss Formalwear Monograms and More Morle Hoots Bagels Red Raider Outfitter Grounds Maintenance Body Bronze Aalon Salon Blockbuster Video CICI's Orlando's

College Flowers KLBK Dewey Schroyer Tech Cheerleaders Homecoming Committee Masked Rider

University Daily Brian Hughs Christy Andrews TTU Athletics Hub City Brewery Ken and Lori Mix 100 Electric Ear Productions

Facilities Planning Chili's Don Pablos Marble Slab Willoughby & Co. Cookie Bouquet Alante Floral The Fit shoppe Spilling Poetry Homecoming Advisory Board Queen Interview

Saddle Tramps Residence Assoc. Brita Tye Student Health Services Campus Police Chief Jay Parchman Sgt. Danny Davis Student Government Parade Judges Campus Activities & Involv. Crystal Falls Car wash Wicks 'n Sticks Taco Villa Friendze Caprock Classic Cars Rick Gilbert & KLLL Tech Gunfire Kickline

Goin' Band from

Raiderland

Editorial Board

Wayne Hodgin editor

Jason Bernstein managing editor

Laura Hensley

techlife editor

Greg Kreller

photography editor

Nathan Notley

sports editor

Greg Okuhara news editor

Ismara Quant copy editor

Lindsay Rowden copy editor

Letters to the Editor Policy: Letters to the editor are accepted for publication on the Viewpoints page. All letters must be no longer than two, doublespaced, typed pages. Unsigned letters will not be published. Letters must be submitted in person, by mail or by e-mail. Letters are published at the editor's discretion, and the editor reserves the right to edit letters for libelous material, spelling and vulgarity. "Letters to the Editor" is intended as a forum for public discussion of issues relating to Texas Tech; personal attacks will not be published. The UD does not discriminate because of race, creed, national origin, sex, age, disability or sexual preference. Letters must be submitted with picture identification and telephone number to Room 211 of the journalism building, or to The University Daily@ttu.edu. Letters sent by e-mail must include the author's name, social security number and phone num-

Editorial Policy: Unsigned editorials are the opinions of The University Daily editorial board and do not necessarily reflect the views of Texas Tech University, its employees, its student body or the Texas Tech University Board of Regents. A column is solely the opinion of its author. Editorial policy is set by The University Daily editorial board. The University Daily is independent of the School of Mass Communications. Responsibility for the editorial content of the newspaper lies with the student edi-

Equal representation a must in music industry

L V L liefs, values and feelings of many. It is very important to pay attention to what the music is saying, who is saying it and who is under-represented. Women are one group commonly under-represented in the music charts. There always have been a few women who stood out in the music scene, but it is rare for there to be equal numbers of men, women and coed groups on the music

Jennifer L. Bowie Guest

Without equal representation, women do not have an equal say in the Columnist voice of the times and are represented by a voice that is not theirs.

It is as important to have equal numbers of women singers expressing the women's view and speaking to and for both genders as males have had for years.

Women artists had a strong start in the 1900s with blues, gospel and country and western.

The blues became a high-paid

Blues greats Mamie Smith (who first recorded the blues in 1920) and Billie Holiday (the highestpaid black entertainer in America at the time) challenged the limitations of race and gender. Gospel became a womandominated genre allowing women to sing of their faith and gain authority and respect. The gender barrier in country and western was broken in 1952 by Kitty Wells.

Pasty Cline soon joined in the spotlight and even edged over into mainstream. Others (Wynette, Parton, Harris and more) soon followed in these women's tracks.

Women of the '50s and '60s spanned the divide of "good girls" to "bad girls," but all were rebels of one sort or another because they were female singers. These Aretha Franklin, Nancy Sinatra, Cher, Dionne Warwick and Dusty Springfield.

Girl groups, such as the Shangri-Las, Shirelles and Crystals, had nearly all-female fans and did not reach the levels of popularity of the male groups of

The women in rock of the 1960s and 1970s changed into jeans and boots to sing in times where music represented the rebellion, but it was a rebellion with few women. The few included Janis Joplin, Terri Sutton, Tina Turner, Joni Mitchell, Bonnie Raitt, Linda Ronstadt, Karen Carpenter, Gladys Knight and the Pips and Bette Midler (who started her own production company All Girls Pro-

This also was the time when women moved behind the stage into production.

The rebels of the 1970s and 1980s included Patti Smith, Janye County, Siouxsie Siox and the Slits.

The 1980s to 1990s found women in all types of music from the bohemian rockers (Heart, Stevie Nicks, Kate Bush, Cyndi Lauper, Bjork, Sarah McLachlan and Indigo Girls); the street-beat MCs (Salt-N-Pepa, Queen Latifah and Lauryn Hill); the blended unique confessional genre (Annie Lenox, Suzanne Vega, Tracy Chapman and Natalie Merchant); the more rock-flavored female experience centered (Melissa Etheridge, K.D. Lang, Sheryl Crow and Alanis Morisstte); R&B (Whitney Houston, Mariah Carey, TLC); to the grunge, punk and ska schemes (Hole, L7, Riot Grrrl, Bikini Kill and No Doubt). Others such as ever-changing Madonna, dance and show business queen Janet Jackson, and unique, brutally honest, passionate enigma Tori Amos defy easy grouping.

So what about today's music scheme?

The Lilith Fair, a celebration of times, expressing the be- Gaines, Diana Ross, Joan Baez, of the women in music (1996 and abuses? 1997) ended, even the power" of the platformed madeup "postfeminst" Spice Girls is on hold. But women still have a foothold in the music industry.

> Pop Rock/Alternative: Christina Aguilera, Fleming and John and Sarah McLachlan are "manning" the charts. Paula Cole, Sophie B. Hawkins, Melissa Etheridge and Tori Amos recently released new albums.

> Country: LeAnn Rimes, Reba McEntire, Faith Hill and Mary Chapin Carpenter, have won numerous awards and topped the charts. And Texas natives the Dixie Chicks are quickly gaining popu-

> Shania Twain tops the charts in both pop rock and country.

Rap: Missy Elliot, Faith Evans, Foxy Brown and Lil' Kim are maintaining their popularity. TLC recently released a new album. Lauryn Hill, a multi-Grammy winner in 1998 and Best New Artist, now is one of the most respected artists in this genre.

Opera: Sarah Brightman is controlling the scene with her dramatic flamboyant flair.

Folk: The long-standing Dar Williams and Shawn Colvin are joined by the new celtic group the Corrs. Ani DiFranco, who began her own recording company Righteous Babes, is always a strong voice on the borderline mainstream and folk/rock circuit.

We all should support women artists so they can take their rightful place as equals on the stage of life and of music. Listen to song lyrics to see what they say about both genders and support artists who sing your views.

Hopefully one day soon, articles on women musicians will not be necessary.

Jennifer L. Bowie is a Ph.D. student in Technical Communication and Rhetoric in the English Depart-

Bill alienates public while rich get richer

feel vaguely like Henry Higgins in "My Fair Lady," announcing with gleefully inhumane relish: "She'll regret it, she'll regret it! Ha!"

"I can see her now, Mrs. Freddy Eynsford-Hill, in a wretched little flat above the store!

"I can see her now, not a penny in the till, and the bill collectors knocking at the door!"

Which is to say, the new banking bill is a thoroughly lousy idea, and the party most likely to regret it Molly The 1999

... the new

thoroughly

it is us.

lvins Gramm-Leach

Act is about to Columnist replace the 1933 Glass-Steagall Act, with the result that bankers, brokers and insurance companies can all get into one another's business. It's a done deal except for the final vote on the conference-committee agreement. The inevitable result will be a wave of mergers creating gigantic financial entities. In a stupefying moment of pomposity, a New York Times editorial solemnly concluded: banking bill is a The principle of freer competition is the economic lousy idea, and engine of this era. But the other imperative is to dethe party most mand openness, financial prudence and safeguards so that the vast new concentrations of wealth and power do not create new abuses." When was the last time you fail? One of these monsters goes saw a vast concentration of wealth down, and it will cost as much as the usic is the voice of the include Carol King, Donna women in music, is over. The years and power that DIDN'T create whole S&L debacle.

> Or as Sen. Richard Bryan of Nevada so neatly put it, "Industry has gotten a gold mine while the Ameri> can public has gotten the shaft." Just to remind you one more time of how corrupt our political system is (and members of the Senate had a cow when Sen. John McCain used the word "corrupt" to describe the campaign-financing system a few weeks ago), the financial industry has poured more than $30 million in soft money, PAC and individual contributions to politicians in 1999, 60 percent to the Republicans. That's just over one-third of the amount spent during the entire 1997-98 election cycle, according to the Center for Responsive Politics.

And this certainly qualifies as responsive politics.

So much money has gone into getting this bill passed during the last 10 years that there is no hope of stopping it.

The only thing that held it up this long was Sen. Phil Gramm's stubborn insistence on making it worse. He wanted to use the occasion to gut

Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, which forces banks to make loans in the same area where they take in deposits - in other words, to quit red-lining their own customers. Most of CRA was saved by the White House. But the bad news is:

Privacy: What's in the bill doesn't protect your financial privacy worth a rat's heinie. In theory, the new law says that banks have to disclose their privacy policies. That doesn't mean they always have to protect your privacy, or give you an opt-out before selling your information to every telemarketer on earth.

Ever use a check at a liquor store? Do you smoke? Ever put something from Victoria's Secret on your credit card? Take any meds? Ever see a shrink? (Actually, that's increasingly less likely under our dandy system of corporate HMO health care.)

The health information you provided to your life insurer will be passed along to your banker when you go to get a mortgage and will help determine the interest rate you get charged, as will your lifestyle

- Natural disaster: In theory, banks that merge with insurance companies are obliged to put themselves at only limited risk if some catastrophic event threatens their insurance subsidiary. What's the only business in the world that takes global warming seriously? Insur-

We just watched a third of North Carolina go under water. All the global warming experts think that increased hurricanes are one consequence of the phenomenon: One Mitch slams straight into Miami or Savannah, and the entire industry will stagger. Think it won't affect the banks that own it?

- Unnatural disaster: Don't get me started on the evidence for my theory that bankers are among the stupidest people on God's green earth. These are the geniuses who loaned all that money to Latin America in the '80s and then had to write it off. This is the system that almost collapsed last year because one hedge fund spiraled out of control - and had to be bailed out by the Fed. These are the clever fellows who didn't notice their banks were being used to launder Russian mafia money. "Too Big to Fail" will be the likely to regret new order of the day. And guess who gets left holding the bag when they're too big to

Alan Greenspan, not heretofore associated with the populist left, told bankers in a speech two weeks ago that the bill will create a class of super-institutions Too Big to Fail. In his usual impenetrable linguistic style, he allowed as how some new form of supervision will have to be created, but the regulators are well behind the financial system. Consumers: Phil Gramm promises us that increased competition will bring about a wonderful world of dandy new services at lower prices. Not a single soul thinks this bill will do anything but cause a tidal wave of mergers and acquisitions, leaving us with fewer options than ever. We'll get fewer and more powerful institutions with the ability to overcharge for products because of their market share.

Ed Mierzwinkski of Public Interest Research says the only customers whom banks care about are other banks' customers. The only offers you get for those 3 percent APR credit cards come from other banks. Once you sign up, the banks suddenly announce that the offer is

- Most obscure horrible provision in bill: Rep. Thomas Bliley of Virginia stuck in a $95 billion giveaway for insurance. The trend in that industry is "de-mutualization," a mutual being an entity where the rate-payers own the company. If the company "de-mutualizes" by going to a stockholder-owned mutual holding company, without compensation to the policy-holder owners, the increased value of the company goes not to the former owners but to execs with big stock options and new shareholders. The former owners lose equity of an average $1,700 each, according to the Center for Insurance Research in Cambridge,

Twenty-seven states have either rejected or have not enacted mutual holding company conversion laws. Hiya, sucker.

Molly Ivins is a columnist for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Write a letter to the editor. Drop it by 211 Journalism, have your Tech ID, or e-mail it to TheUniversityDaily@ttu.edu, include your social security number and phone number. Apathy sucks, so write a letter to the editor. Unless, of course, nobody cares.

remembers dead

by Angela Loston StaffWriter

Candy made in the shape of skeletons. Pumpkins carved into skulls. Playful dancing.

These things may be mistakenly associated with Halloween. Instead, they represent a Mexican holiday, El Dia de los Muertos (the Day of the Dead), that remembers the dead.

Texas Tech and the city of Lubbock will celebrate the holiday on its traditional day, Tuesday.

Organizations within the community will kick off The Day of the Dead through a procession. People will be taken by bus to several locations around town.

The Dia de los Muertos Procession will be from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Buddy Holly Center, the Lubbock Arts Alliance Gallery, Tech's International Cultural Center and the Art building.

"El Dia de los Muertos is a colorful festive time to celebrate life while remembering the dead," said Jane Bell, director of special projects for the Tech's International Cultural Center. "It is just a marvelous event."

Dia de los Muertos traditionally is celebrated in Mexico but also is observed in the United States. The occasion honors those who have perished in a very joyful and less mournful way. Bell said this is the first year for a community-wide procession to celebrate Dia de los Muertos.

The festival will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Buddy Holly Center, located at 1801 Ave. G, with traditional food and drinks.

There will be an 80-piece art exhibit depicting the colorful holi-

An ofrenda, a shrine that honors the dead, will be on display at the center. A musical performance will be made by Los Trios Clasicos. The event will continue from 6:30 p.m. to 7:20 p.m. at the Lubbock Arts Alliance Gallery, located 2974.

at 2109 Broadway. While at the gallery, Bell said people will hear stories about El Dia de los Muertos.

After leaving the gallery, festivities will continue from 7:30 p.m. to 8:20 p.m. at the International Cultural Center, located at 601 Indiana Ave. Ballet Folklorico Nuestra Herencia will perform in the auditorium at 7:45 p.m.

Art displays illustrating the celebration will be available for viewing. Food and drinks also will be provided.

The final stop on the procession will be from 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Tech Art building, located at 18th Street and Flint Avenue.

Carla Poindexter, a third-year graduate student from Lubbock, said some of the students and faculty members of the Department of Art have made an ofrenda and a Retablo Exhibit.

In remembrance of the artists who have died, Poindexter said various mementos will be placed around the ofrenda.

The Retablo Exhibit will commemorate the death of the students' and faculty members' friends and family.

Some undergraduate students also drew dancing skeletons and built a life-size wooden skeleton for the festival.

During the celebration, some of the artists within the Department of Art will dress up as skeletons. "It's a wonderful festival," Poindexter said. "I think it's slowly making its way into U.S. culture." Poindexter said she became involved with the event since she had participated in activities for the cultural holiday in Houston. "It's a time to not fear death," she said. "It's a time of celebration that becomes another part of life. The morbid side of death is buried under a celebration of music, food,

All activities at the four locations are free and open to the public. For more information, call 742-art making and remembrances."

Mexican holiday Rock tour is all in the family

by Sebastian Kitchen

Staff Writer

For the second year in a row, the Family Values Tour managed to blow the minds of most people in attendance. The tour continued Saturday in San Antonio at the Alamodome with a strong lineup for its second annual go-around.

Touring veterans Limp Bizkit, Filter, Method Man and Redman and Primus had no problems keeping the crowd entertained. All of the bands had new material to play and mixed it in with older, more popular hits.

Primus worked through a set that included, "My Name is Mud," "Jerry was a Race Car Driver" and "Wynona's Big Brown Beaver.

Through his playing, bassist and singer Les Claypool preached to the crowd why the guitar does not have to be the featured instrument. Claypool manipulated the bass, making the recognizable sounds that separate Primus from all other acts in music.

After a shoe was launched onto the stage, Claypool said he read in

Popular Science that people who

ACROSS

14 Dub

15 Baseball's

Negri 17 Number of Hitchcock's steps 19 Part of Q.E.D.

20 Butted in 21 "Nausea"

novelist 23 Fortas and 24 Took a wrong

25 Battier 28 New Orleans

29 The Ram

33 Ump's kin

34 Blind strips 35 Sticky stuff

"Alas, poor

8 Sought office
9 Bridge supports
10 Object of a

11 Number of illumination

subways 22 Saltwater lake of Asia

24 Furniture set rug 27 Number of gratitude 30 Bread portion

28 Express

31 Alaskar

seaport

32 Well-behaved

26 Type of code or

Heinz varieties

states, once 12 Blaze of

36 Actress

42 Cheered

45 Exploited

51 Wander

52 Number of Martin Luther's

54 Bellicose deity 55 Rogue

56 Verve 57 Soaks up rays

DOWN

1 Opposed 2 "High Hopes" lyricist 3 Send forth 4 Make saw-

58 lrk

59 Tear

46 Meeting plan

THE Daily Crossword Edited by Wayne Robert Williams

review on the road

Elife!

throw hard objects on stage have small

Surprise of the night — Method Man and Redman were both fun to listen to and to watch. The youthful crowd seemed to love the duo, who were joined by seven other people on stage. The men poured energy into the crowd with a combination of Wu Tang material and tracks from their collaborative new album, Blackout.

Method Man and Redman climbed out into the crowd as the crowd surged to get closer.

The crowds did not seem to mind the change of pace from hard rock to hip-hop. In fact, they welcomed it. Filter opened with pyrotechnics while performing its latest hit, "Welcome To The Fold." Richard Patrick and his band worked through slower, softer and harder songs and new and old

Older favorites like "Jurassitol" and "Hey Man. Nice Shot" had the thousands in attendance singing along.

Friday's Puzzle Solved dby ARCHAIC AGAMGAS

44 Athenian

45 Annoy 47 Obstacle

50 Give marketplace

48 Green shade

temporarily 53 Rural stopover

49 Novelist Hunter

The stage setups for all of the bands

TMSPuzzles@aol.com

did not compare to last year's tour. Limp Bizkit has been known for its giant stage props which have included a spaceship and a 30-foot toilet. On the Family Values Tour, Limp

Bizkit managed to top all of its previ-

The curtain opened for the crowd to see a giant science project - turning dials and flasks filled with smoke. Lead singer Fred Durst walked down tall metal steps after they folded down.

Guitarist Wes Borland has gained notoriety for his costumes and painted faces on stage. Saturday night, who knows what he was supposed to be, but people liked it. Blue and yellow stripes painted across his face, a long black trench coat and a contraption around his neck that glowed red - every night on stage is Halloween for Borland.

Limp Bizkit opened with the same song that had the band accused of inciting riots at Woodstock '99 — "Break Stuff.

Bizkit's high-energy set included its first big hit "Faith" and its other popular cover, House of Pain's "Jump

KCBD

NBC

Lubbock

KLBK

CBS

Lubbock

KUPT

UPN

Lubbock

MONDAY

CITY

KTXT

PBS

Lubbock

At one point in the show, Durst asked the fans for requests.

"Nirvana?" he said. "I don't think we know any of that."

Borland proved him wrong as he broke into "Teen Spirit." Borland proved his skills as he broke in requested songs including Rage Against the Machine's

"Bomb Track" and Metallica's "Master of Puppets," which he also sang the Method Man joined Limp Bizkit on stage for "N Together Now." The great version of the song was reminiscent of Ice Cube joining Korn on stage last year for "Children of the Korn." The crowd loved both. The crowd also loved Limp Bizkit's "Counterfeit" and "No Sex," where women joined the band on stage. Most of the thousands in attendance sang along with the No.1-hit "Nookie."

The Family Values Tour, for the second year in a row, was a success with the bands, and the fans had a good

It will keep people waiting for next year's version of the neo-Lollapoolooza.

NOVEMBER 1

KJTV

FOX

Lubbock

KAMC

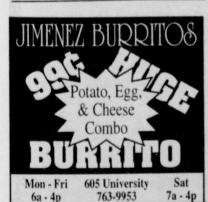

ABC

Lubbock

David Roth sues former manager

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former Van Halen frontman David Lee Roth is suing his former personal manager over a Web site where fans can buy the singer's memorabilia.

The lawsuit was filed Friday in Los Angeles against Edmund Anderson. Damages exceed $100,000.

Crickets LUNCH SPECIALS $5.25

Monday: All You Can Eat

11-2pm QBI is Available

Please SAVE Please

Hub City Burrito Co.

2102 Broadway Ave. / 741-1033

Entrees

Includes Drink + Tax

After 3 pm Daily- ALL WEEK

2102 Broadway 741-1033

2412 Broadway 744-HOPS

Tuesday: 2 for | Burgers Wednesday: 99¢ Fajita Tacos

1/2 lb. Burger or Chicken Sandwich w/ Fries & Drink 2 Pizza Slices w/ House Salad & Drink DINNER SPECIALS

Pepperoni Pizza $5.95 Free Pool 9 Shuffleboard w/ Lunch

RICE UNIVERSITY

37 Relative

38 Dry 39 Like a chimney

40 Pine or spruce

42 Apartment

43 Gem weight

WIESS SCHOOL OF NATURAL SCIENCES

GREAT LUNCH SPECIALS $3.99 & UP

10% OFF TO ALL TTU/TTU HSC FACULTY & STAFF

11am-1am Sun-Thurs 11am-2am Fri & Sat

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATE STUDY

The Wiess School of Natural Sciences at Rice University provides excellent opportunities for graduate study in a wide range of outstanding research programs with prominent faculty mentors. The departmental programs include Biochemistry & Cell Biology, Chemistry, Ecology & Evolutionary Biology, Geology & Geophysics, Mathematics, Physics, and Space Physics & Astronomy. In Addition, interdisciplinary programs are available in several areas (e.g., Applied Physics). Competitive stipends, outstanding faculty and programs, state- of-the art facilities, and a pleasant campus in a cosmopolitan city combine to create and atmosphere of stimulation and engagement for graduate study. For additional information, visit our Web page at http://www.ruf.rice.edu/~nsci/ (with links to information on each Department and interdisciplinary graduate programs) or send e-mail to gradinfo@rice.edu.

oday Show 7:00 Bloomberg Body Elec. Paid Program 8:00 Sesame Street 9:00 Mr. Rogers Barney Later Today K. Copeland 10:00 Teletubbie Wim zie's 11 :00 Zoboomafo Young & th Forgive o 12 :00 Contact Quilt/Day Vills Lane News Beautiful Mills Lane Days of Our Port Cha 1 :00 Comp. Chr. Barney One Life to Live icki Lak atlock 2:00 T. Tugboat Dragon Tales Paid Progra Liv'g Single Paid Program Magic Bus PR Playback Beast Wars 3:00 Arthur Wishbone O'Donnell Caroline 4 :00 Zoom R. Rainbow Digimon PR Galaxy Winfrey 5 :00 Kratt's Nightly Bus icki Lake News CBS News 6 :00 Newshour oyager 7:00 Antiques Roadshow ime of Sud/Susan 8 :00 American Masters Law & Ally McBeal 9:00 J. Lemmor 10 :00 Nightly Bus Joe Brown Joe Brown Tonight Show Letterman Greg Math 11 :00 12:00

> This is NOT Bailey... time of your life mondays at 7

followed by Ally McBeal FOX KUTYS 4

Formerly Brandy's Bar & Grill - Under New Management

COYOTE # & 5206 11th Street at 11th & Slide Road

> MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL!

25 Cent Buffalo Wings

Watch Your Favorite Football Games On Our Two Big Screens!

$1.00 Schooners

No Cover - 18 & Up Welcome! Open Mon-Sat 11AM to 2AM Sundays 12PM to 12AM 791-5806

Lunch: 7 Days A Week 11-2:30

Dinner: Sun-Thurs 5-10; Fri-Sat 5-11

ALL MAJOR CREDIT CARDS

We Prepare All Food At Your Table Teppanyaki •Hibachi Steak Seafood Tempura

> ·Sushi Menu Tues-Thurs & Sun •12 Years Experience ·Chef Owned & Operated

10% Discount With Texas Tech I.D

These programs and services are brought to you in part by the Student Service Fee and the University Center

A great day for jazz

Award-winning film, musicians bring a little piece of Harlem to Tech campus

lthough considered one of New York's hottest young A magazine art directors, Art Kane had never taken a professional photograph.

In 1958, Kane conceived the idea of a group shot "of everybody" in the field of jazz for Esquire magazine. He accordingly put out the word for all jazz musicians in New York to meet him uptown one summer morning at 10 a.m., which happened to be an exceptionally early hour for jazz musicians who finished a days work at dawn. There was a wonder if anyone would show at all. However, word of mouth prevailed, and the turnout was a success. With no benefit of lights or a studio, an inexperienced assistant (who initially loaded the film backwards), and some borrowed equipment, Art Kane shot his first professional photograph.

The one-hour Academy Awardnominated documentary, "A Great Day In Harlem," tells the story of the taking of this photograph of 57 of the greatest musicians in jazz. The film and the photo, which inspired it, presents an extraordinary cross-section of people and musical styles that have comprised the development of jazz from its beginnings to the avant garde. Included in the film are conversations with and about the various jazz stars pictured, as well as archival performance footage.

On Nov. 17, this film and a jazz performance by Johnny Griffin and his quartet will be presented at 8 p.m. in the University Center Allen Theatre. Johnny Griffin, a.k.a. "The Little Giant" (because of his small physical an internationally acclaimed tenor most of the jazz greats during his 50year musical career, including performances and/or recordings with Thelonious Monk, Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers, Lionel Hampton, Count Basie, Dizzy Gillespie and many more. Griffin is accompanied Webber, and drummer Kenny Wash- America's only original art form.

Jazz great Johnny Griffin will perform legendary saxophone Nov. 17 in the UC Allen

Theatre.

Harlem" and followed with other UCTICKETBOOTH@TTU.EDU.

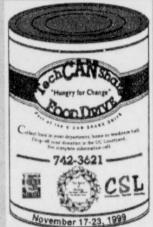

stature and huge musical talent), is films. This project was the result of her life-long passion to bring the joy saxophonist. He has played with and brilliance of jazz to a broad audience. Because bits of our culture slip away each day, memories fade and the influence of earlier stars upon their successors often get overlooked, Bach, used this opportunity to tell an important story, while at the same time providing some classic enon this tour by the exceptional talents tertainment. It is a chance to celof pianist Michael Weiss, bassist John ebrate the music that has been called

For more information, contact the Jean Bach, a jazz journalist in Chi- University Center Ticket Booth at cago, produced "A Great Day in (806) 742-3610 or e-mail

Food drive to benefit local needy

As the holiday season approaches, it is time for the Texas Tech community to begin thinking about ways to serve Lubbock citizens in need.

Community Service-Learning is sponsoring a variety of activities throughout the holiday season during the annual "Spirit of Sharing." One particular program, the Tech Can Share Food Drive, is a great way to be involved in service and make a difference in the Lubbock community. Community Service-Learning encourages all of Texas Tech to participate this year and help contribute 25,000 pounds of food to the Lubbock community.

Reports from the National Coalition for the Homeless indicate that up to 12 million people have experienced hunger and homelessness in the 1990s. Here in Lubbock, it is estimated that one in four children go to bed hungry at night. All of the food collected in this year's food drive will serve hungry and homeless people in Lubbock.

There are opportunities for everyone in the campus community to get involved in the Tech Can Share Food Drive. Departments, offices, student organizations and residence halls can establish a collection box for employees and students. Faculty members can have "Tech Day" in their classrooms where students are asked to bring in one or two cans of food. Student organizations can have a can of food be an "admission" to a meeting or activity.

This year Community Service-Learning is hosting the "S.O.S. to the Rescue: Student Organizations Share" contest. There will be awesome prizes awarded to the top student organizations and residence hall floors who collect and bring in the most food. So, grab your boxes and start col-

Individuals also can volunteer to staff the Food Drive Collection tables in the University Center Courtyard during Nov. 17-23 from noon to 5 pm. While the official collection dates in the University Center don't begin until Nov. 17, groups are encouraged to register for the food drive contest and begin collecting cans now.

If you have questions about the food drive or would like to register your office, department, or organization, please stop by Campus Activities and Involvement UC Room 228 or call 742-3621.

Madrigal Dinner returns

The beginning of the holiday season brings the return of the Texas Tech School of Music and University Center's Madrigal Dinner.

Madrigal Dinner includes a full meal as well as performances by Tech's Madrigal Singers and entertainment throughout the evening. The menu for dinner includes center-cut pork chop with raspberry sauce, apple-walnut dressing, fresh green beans, holiday hominy, fruit salad with whipped cream and nuts, bread made with fine flour, holiday cake with cranberries and the traditional holiday beverage, wassail.

Madrigal Dinner will be at 7 p.m. Dec. 2 and Dec. 4-7 in University Center Red Raider Ballroom. Because of overwhelming demand, initial ticket sales are by mail only, and all orders may not be postmarked, or have an express mail date earlier than Nov. 3. Beginning Nov. 11, if tickets are still available, they may be reserved by telephone or in person at the Texas Tech University Center Ticket Booth. Those interested in attending should purchase tickets early.

Reserved seat tickets for Madrigal Dinner are priced at $22.50 for Tech students, $32.50 for the general public and $67.50 for Scholarship Benefit tables. The scholarship seat price includes a $35 contribution to the vocal scholarship fund at Texas Tech's School of Music. Call 742-3621 for ticket order flyers or more

Troupe to reconstruct history

The Reduced Shakespeare Company is known for to now, the year 2000. The comedic style that they use their fast, funny and physical condensations of things that are very serious. This year they find themselves dealing with a subject that's on everyone's mind. "The Complete Millennium Musical (abridged to the 21st Century)" is a history of the past 2000 years abbreviated in 90 minutes as only The Reduced Shakespeare Company can do it.

RSC was founded in 1981 by Daniel Singer, who performed with the troupe for eight years. Its current manifestation, besides Martin, Ryan and Tichenor as performers, includes Nick Graham, who performs on the keyboard and guitar and who wrote the original music for the production. With its coupling of wits and zany physical comedy, RSC has been compared to the Marx

"The Complete Millennium Musical," is divided into two acts and six epochs ranging from the start of time developed as a pass-the-hat act at the Renaissance Faires in California in the early 1980s. Since then, they have tickled the funny bones at the White House and the Kennedy and Lincoln center's. They also have performed at countless civic and university venues across the country. An excerpt from the Anchorage Daily News says, "The show goes next to Homer. Local residents are advised to grab the chance to see this bawdy, clever comedy-and maybe be offended.

The Complete Millennium Musical" is a 90-minute performance with a 15-minute intermission and will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the University Center Allen Theater. For additional information about the show, contact UC Programs advisor Darryl Robbins, or UCP Fine Arts Chair Joey Taylor in the UC Activities Office at 742-3621. Tickets may be purchased at the University Center Ticket Booth at 742-3610.

In The Studio goes to theatre

Imagine Steve Martin's mind creating discussion between Pablo Picasso and Albert Einstein. You don't have to imagine. You can come to the In The Studio sessional 7 p.m. Thursday at the University Theatre Mainstage. This will be about 45 minutes of the rehearsal of Picasso at the Lapin Agile followed by discussion with director Jonathan Marks. For more information, call 742-3621, e-mail: bkmed@ttu.edu or come by room 228 of the University Cen-

MC needed for comedy chow

Attention all Tech comedians. Think you are funny? Prove it! Try out for the opening act and Master of Ceremonies spot for the Comeback Jack's Comedy Showcase. Tryouts are at noon Wednesday in the University Center Courtyard . For information on trying out, contact Brian Franz or Darryl Robbins at 742-3621.

Hoffman blows into UC

Glassblower Al Hoffman will make a reappearance Nov. 8-12. Hoffman has been coming to the university for 10 years, weaving his glass magic for students in the University Center Courtyard on the Ballroom Porch

So, you think

noon you're funny??? UC Courtyard For more info

November 3

Fry out to be the opening act and MC contact or Comeback Jack's Comedy Showcase 742-3621

THE TWENTY-SECOND MADRIGAL DINNER

Volunteers Needed!!!! South Plains Food Bank

Volunteers are needed this Saturday November 6, 1999 from 9:00am - 12:00pm. Volunteer opportunities are available for Students, faculty, staff and student organizations. Advance sign up is required.

Sign up in Campus Activities and Involvement University Center Room 228 or call 742-3621

Spike and Flight

Raiders learn to balance time, travel, school - all for love of game

Raide

Staff Writer

Having already taken trips to Fairbanks, Alaska, and Albuquerque, N.M., in the non-conference season and playing seven Big 12 Conference away games, the Texas Tech volleyball squad is no stranger to the road.

The Red Raiders have played 11 road contests, and most of those matches have involved at least two or three days of travel, which has meant missed classes for the players.

When the Raiders are not on the road, their normal weekday consists of classes, weight training, practice have a little bit more time to our-

and studying after practice.

Freshman outside hitter Ann Romjue said with such a busy schedule there is not much time for herself.

"The days are usually pretty full," 'We don't have as much time as other people do to just goof around." Romjue said having a busy schedule has its good points and its bad

"It gets old sometimes," she said. "But it has kept structure in our lives so that will probably help us in the long run. In the spring when we are not playing, we will be able to

By the end of the regular season, the Red Raiders will have traveled to 12 different cities in nine different states.

Middle blocker Janelle Jones said the team travels so much it is sometimes hard to remember where they are and where they are going. "There are plenty of times when people come up to me and ask where we are going and I can't remember,"

When the Raiders traveled to Alaska to compete in a tournament earlier in the season, they were able to take a number of side trips to visit landmarks and tourist attractions.

hard to keep up with where you are going

you're coming back. But overall, it's pretty

"It seems places makes all of the hard work inlike we are always gone. It is volved in traveling worth it. "There are a lot of advantages to being a student-athlete," she said.

"I love to travel, and we get it paid for so that is kind of nice. We get free food plus we get to play the sport that we love and have our education paid for, which is really nice."

Smith said making good use of personal time is important in balancing school and sports. Time management is probably the hardest thing," she said. "I'm a junior, and it took me two

Outside hitter Colleen Smith said years to learn how to manage my getting to travel and seeing new time enough to get the grades that I wanted. So it's tough because there is not a lot of social time.

Jones said it depends on how hard the individual works at keeping up in class that makes the difference in balancing their time.

"It's hard just missing all of the classes and the notes," Jones said.

"But it's really a matter of determination. If you really want to keep up in school and you are really determined to get good grades, then it is possible. You just have to force yourself to do things on your seventh in the BCS standings last weeks ago and needed a second-half comeback against Kansas -

yes, a comeback against Kansas -

Saturday to avoid their first loss to Nebraska held off Kansas 24-17.

The Cornhuskers are at home

A win over the Aggies (6-2, 3-2 in

A Nebraska loss would crush

Saturday against No. 21 Texas A&M.

Big 12) would set up the showdown what's left of their already-slim national title aspirations and all but assure K-State a spot in the Big 12

title game for the second straight

Figuring out who will be repre-

the Jayhawks in 31 years.

with K-State.

The Huskers lost to Texas two

Weekend Sports

Raider volleyball falls to No.13 Cornhuskers

After an emotional upset vic- Coliseum in Lincoln, Neb., on Fritory against Kansas State on Wednesday, the Texas Tech vol-

With the loss, the Red Raiders fall leyball squad fell to No.13 Ne- to 14-10 overall and 4-8 in the Big 12. braska 15-6, 15-3, 15-4, in front The Cornhuskers improved to 16-5 of 3,848 fans at the Nebraska and 8-3 in conference play.

Tech was outhit .324 to .036 and was led by Lori Garber's 10 kills and .318 hitting percentage.

The Red Raiders will be in action Wednesday against Texas A&M in College Station.

Tech tennis makes good showing at tournament

FORT WORTH — Texas Tech tennis players Borut Martincevic and Ryan Shupe both lost to their respective opponents in Saturday's round of 16 matches at the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Region VI Championships in Fort Worth at Texas

Shupe, the No. 14 seed in the match against Oscar Johannson of Arkansas, 6-2, 7-5.

Martincevic, ranked No. 51 in the nation and the tournament's 6th seed, was upset by TCU's Trace Fielding, the 12th seed. Martincevic took Fielding to three sets (4-6, 7-5, 6-3) before bowing out.

In doubles competition, Tech duo Clay Estes and Marino Baghdati lost tournament, lost a hard-fought their quarterfinal matchup to Shaun Madden and Dumitru Caradima of Texas A&M 6-4, 7-5.

"I think we came here and played very well," said Tech men's tennis coach Tim Siegel. "To have Borut and Ryan advance as far as they did against the competition we faced here is encouraging. Clay and Marino also played well to advance to the point they did."

Soccer suffers defeat against Bears, fall to 4-6 in Big 12

In their final game of the regular season, the Texas Tech women's soccer squad suffered a 5-2 defeat against No. 25 Baylor on Saturday, and the Raiders fell to 4-6 in conference play.

The Tech squad was able to strike first as a Lizzy Biles goal, assisted by Carrie Graham, gave Tech would not add another goal for the rest of the first half.

did not waste any time getting on the board, scoring four of five goals in the first 45 minutes. The Bears led the Raiders 4-1 at the half.

A stingy Baylor defense stifled the Raiders' offensive attack as Tech was able to score one other goal for the rest of the game.

The Bears put the game out of reach when Baylor's Courtney Saunders scored at the 76-minute them a 1-0 lead after nine minutes mark. Saunders scored four of Baylor's five goals. Tech finally found the back of the net when Biles put her second goal The Baylor offense, however, in at the 78-minute mark, but it was too late.

The Bears went on to take a comfortable 5-2 win against the Raiders. In a rare occasion, Tech allowed their opponent to outshoot them as Baylor outshot the Raiders 25-17. The Bears also had 14 shots on goal to Tech's

Baylor goalkeeper Dawn Greathouse pulled in five saves while Tech goalkeeper Brittney Peese tallied nine on the

Tech and Baylor will both compete in the Big 12 Conference Tournament on Wednesday

Big 12 national title hopes rest with Kansas State 'Cats — again

(AP) — Kansas State has been voters enough to move K-State into down this road before - pretty recently, too.

The No. 6-ranked Wildcats are once again the Big 12 hopeful for a national championship, just as they were a year ago headed into No-

In order to secure a spot in the Sugar Bowl, the national title game, the Wildcats will need to win their remaining three games, the Big 12 championship and get a little help from a few teams in front of them in the Bowl Championship Series

They'll also be crossing their fingers, hoping a lackluster non-conference schedule doesn't cost them. Sound familiar?

It's a whole lot like last year, when K-State was fourth in the early BCS ratings. With non-conference wins against (Division I-AA) Indiana State, Northern Illinois and Northest Louisiana, the Wildcats' strength of schedule wasn't going to allow them to pass up top-ranked Tennessee or UCLA, which was sec-

It stopped mattering in the Big 12 Championship, when Texas A&M upset K-State 36-33 in two

K-State was fifth last week in the first BCS ratings, behind Florida beat 'Nebraska, State, Penn State, Virginia Tech and too.' Tennessee.

And once again, it's the Wildcats' schedule that isn't doing them any

Wins over Temple, Texas-El Paso and Utah State haven't impressed

we'll be able to since 1968. And the Cornhuskers shot than the Wildcats.

the top five in the AP Top 25 or USA of the last five national titles, were Today/ESPN coaches poll.

Some close calls aren't helping,

The Wildcats had to rally from 21-point deficits in wins over Oklahoma State and Iowa State, two teams that are scrapping to avoid another losing season.

K-State seemed to be back on track Saturday in a 42-7 win over Baylor (1-7, 0-5).

But with Colorado coming to Manhattan on Saturday and a visit to No. 9 Nebraska on Nov. 13, K-State is far from a lock to go undefeated.

The Buffaloes are coming off a 38-24 win over Oklahoma and Nebraska is still seething about last year, when K-State broke a 29-game losing streak in the series.

The Wildcats aren't overlooking senting the South Division is a little Colorado, but know what could be more muddled. at stake in Lincoln.

"We're making "We're making a lot of progress," receiver a lot of Quincy Morgan progress." said. "We've got to be ready to play Colorado first but Quincy Morgan if we can beat Colorado, I think

(7-2, 4-1),which needed a last-second field goal to edge Iowa State 44-41 on Saturday, is the frontrunner, Kansas State but A&M (6-2, wide receiver 3-2) is still within range.

The Aggies visit Austin Nov. 26 in K-State hasn't won at Nebraska the last game of the regular season. Oklahoma (4-3, 2-2) also was (7-1, 4-1) are still clinging to their looking good until Saturday's loss at own faded hopes for a national title, Colorado, while Texas Tech (4-4, 3although they are a much longer 2) was shot down 34-7 by Missouri on Saturday.

D CLASSIFIEDS

CLASSIFICATIONS: Typing • Tutors • Help Wanted • Furnished for Rent • Unfurnished for Rent • For Sale • Services • Lost & Found • Miscellaneous • Personals • Roommates • Legal Notice

ATTENTION CLASSIFIED READERS: The University Daily screens classified advertising for misleading or false messages, but does not guarantee any ad or claim. Please be cautious in answering ads, especially when you are asked to send cash, money orders, or a check CLASSIFIED WORD ADS DEADLINE: 11 a.m. one day in advance

RATES: $5 per day/15 words or less: 15s per word/per day for each additional word: BOLD Headline 50s extra per day

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY ADS

DEADLINE: 3 days in advance RATES: Local $10.60 per column inch;

PAYMENT TERMS

All ads are payable in advance with eash, check, Visa, Mastercard or Discover

TYPING

RUSH JOBS ACCEPTED ABC Typing Service. College papers, Disrtations, Theses Editing & Proofreading. Digital Pager

TECH TYPE SECRETARIAL SERVICE mphis Place Mall 50th & Memphis 785-1195. We're here for you umes, cover letters. CV's, Theses, Dissertations, Term Paper Manuscripts, Reports, MLA, APA, Turabian formatting; Charts, Graph Copying, Scanning, Faxing, Typesetting, and desktop publishing. Fast

TYPING, RESUMES, etc. Rush Jobs welcome. Call 780-1573 or page

WRITE AWAY RESUME

TUTORS

1-2-3. It is easy. Help for MATH/STATS (all levels). Don't be left in the

ACCOUNTING & FINANCE TUTORS Superior tutoring with 12+ years experience. Exam reviews, group and individual rates. Call The Accounting Tutors, 24 hours, 796-7121.

Professional tutors with up to 10 years experience in Biology, Business, Chemistry, English, Math, Physics & more. Call 797-1605, www.collegiatefutoring.com

COLLEGIATE TUTORING

NEED HELP in physics, engineering or computer programming? Call Dr. Gary Leiker 762-5250 ($15/hr).

Private Math Tutor

There is no substitue for one-on-one tutoring. Over 35 year's experence covering Math 0301 to 2350. Call 785-2750 seven days a

HELP WANTED

ATTENTION 12/99 GRADUATES Great local company is in need of a computer programmer. Must have MIS or database background with experience in C++. This is a great opportunity with a competitive salary and benefits package. Fee paid.
Stacle.Gardiner@pomstaff.com Pomerantz Staffing 3305 81st 797-5765

BINGO CALLER TRYOUTS! No experience necessary. Great job for students $8/hr plus tips. Monday, Nov. 1 3pm-5pm 6602 W. 19th

CROSSED KEYS Wine and Spirits on Tahoka Highway is taking applications for immediate employment. Applicants must be well groo neat, dependable and motivated, and at least 21 years of age. Our en neat, dependable and motivated, and at least 21 years or age. Our en-ployees work between 25 and 30 hours weekly, and must be able to work morning, evening, and weekend shifts. Must be available during upcoming holiday season. Apply in person Monday-Friday between 1-5pm. Interview appointments will be arranged as applications are re-

DOC'S LIQUOR

old. Apply in person at Doc's Liquor.

FEMALE MODELS Needed 11:00am-1:50pm Mon/Wed. Apply in Art

PART-TIME RECEPTIONIST/ Secretary with law firm from 1-5pm Mon-Fri $5.15/hr occasional studying permitted call 740-0072 PART-TIME SALES ladies and childrens clothing and shoes Wednesday and Staurday afternoon, 10-6pm. Approximately 15 hours total. Ap-ply in person at the Clothesout 7020 Quaker next to Oshman's

FREE BABY BOOM BOX + EARN $1200!

Fundraiser for student groups & organizations. Earn up to $4 per MasterCard app. Call for info. or isit our website. Qualified callers receive a FREE Baby Boom Box. 1-800-932-0528 ext. 119 or ext.

125. www.ocmconcepts.com

Do You Like Talking On The Phone! Make up to $8 - $16 hr. FT or PT days or evenings. Hourly/Commission plus

PAID DAILY Pros. more than welcome! No exp. necessary - Will train! Call Today - Start Tomorrow Call Dean Now!! 747-7856

$$ - CASH BONUSES - $$

FURNISHED FOR RENT

perated air, all bills paid, 2024 10th $250. 763-4420

QUAKER PINES Apartments and townhomes 16 & Quaker. Brick planters, trees, flowers and red peppers accent our beautiful courtyard and pool. One bedroom and two bedroom flat with new central air. Furnished/unfurnished 799-1821 TREEHOUSE APARTMENTS, 2101 16th. Desert Willows and flowers highlight our lovely courtyard. Two bedroom with fireplace and new car pet plus one bedroom, remodeled. Small 19 unit student community ige student discount. See to believe. Furnished or unfurnished.

UNFURNISHED FOR RENT

1/1 EFFICIENCY house, two blocks from campus, 2316-C 14th, $210.

1/1 EFFICIENCY HOUSE. Two Blocks from Campus. 2316 C 14th.

1/2 BLOCK FROM TECH: 2Br upstairs apartment. No shared walls. Central heat, fridge, stove, w/d, a/c, parking in the rear. 2406 9th St.

2 BEDROOM for $325 access gates, walking distance to TTU, freshly painted, miniblinds call 765-6008 or come by 2020 5th Apt. #1 2430 30TH: CHARMING, redone, particular. 3-2-2, no pets, $840/ month plus utilities and deposit. 794-7471

3 STORY, 3/2, Large living rooms 2019 15th $600/mo $400/dep. Call

3/1 CENTRAL HEAT/AIR w/d connections. One block from Tech. $800/month. Available Nov. 1 Call 788-9161/ pager

ALL BILLS PAID 2-Bedroom free cable no pets, non-smoking Westridge Apts. from $400 1606 Elkhart 793-8147, "specials" BARGAIN Priced at $675 month month. Four bedroom, two bath, newly remodeled, fresh paint, ceiling fans, w/d connections 2319 48th

BEAR CREEK APARTMENTS, 4203 18th. Cool shade trees, colorful flowers, and hanging peppers invite you to this incredible property. Smartly remodeled with new carpet and ceramic tile flooring. Effi-ciency and one bedroom all bills paid. Two bedroom plus electric washer/dryer connections. Small pets welcome. 791-3773 BRICK DUPLEX For lease. 3-2-1. Central heat/air. Fireplace, kitchen appliances, laundry room, ceiling fans. Ten minutes to Tech. Call

CLEAN TWO Bedroom, one bath duplex, new paint inside and out. Fenced backyard 2115-A 29th $450/ month 787-2323 CLOSE TO TECH. Huge two bedroom, one bath with fireplace. Central air/heat. All appliances. Washer/ dryer connections. Lots of extras 2623 26th $575. 797-6274 ELEGANT 4/4/3 house, two fireplaces, cedar closets, huge, Rush School District, $1,500, 797-3030.

FOR LEASE: Walk to Tech: comfortable clean two bedroom brick ome. One bath, two living areas. Nice appliances, w/d, wood floors. 2600 block 21st $495 plus, 795-9918 I BLOCK From campus! 1br apartmnt 2432-B.21st H20 pd $275/mo

NEWLY REMODELED one, two, three and four bedroom house for lease. Call 785-7361, leave message. NICE 1BR/1BA Apartment, hardwood floors, good neighborhood 2308-

NICE APARTMENTS 1/2 block from Tech on 14th/15th Street. Convenient, Comfortable, Reasonable. Free Parking. Call 762-1263 for more

ONE BEDROOM duplex, probably the nicest you will find. Lawn kept

ONE BEDROOM. Savoy Condominiums, across from campus, $420.00 per month. Non-smoker call 747-7205 open immediately. REMODELED QUADRAPLEX, 2 BR, W/D connections, new dishwasher, carport, water paid, West Lubbock, 793-8147. STUDENTS: Following houses available now 8217 Elkridge, 3502 523-1778 mobile or 7971778

TINY EFFCIENCY garage apartment 2313 Broadway $215 plus elec

TWO BEDROOM, TWO BATH Condo. All appliances and washer/dry from Tech $700 plus electric and deposit. 763-7572 or 796-1065

VERY NICE 1bedroom condo in Southwest Lubbock $475/mo 794-4089

FOR SALE

1/2 CARAT ENGAGEMENT DIAMOND, purchased for $1500, selling for half, Call 473-2390, leave mesage.

1986 TOYOTA COROLLA $395, 1986 Cadillac Sedan $595, 1986 Hon-34th St. 762-0653

ACE PERSONAL trainer stufy kit. New $250 O.B.O. Call 744-4511. TWO 6-MONTH Membership certificates to Gym X. Purchased at

MISCELLANEOUS

AMBITION

Not degree required to put $1200 in your pocket this week. Call toll-free (3 minute recording) 1-888-303-1152 code 11.

BICYCLES New bikes, used bikes. Repair all bikes, good prices. Adenture Cycle Broadway & University 749-2453

EARN EXTRA MONEY via the internet. For free and courteous infor-

FREE CAR

Drivw the car of your dreams free, http://www.nfli.net/115446 or 795-1631. Residual income, free car, free home!

GUITAR LESSONS: Concert Artist. Beginners/Advanced. All styles. anti Guitar, Studio. 747-6108. CD's at Hastings Music and

INDIA CONTACTS NEEDED! Billion dollar international company ex-LOOKING FOR Three Tech vs. UT football tickets call Tina at 254-666 8064 or e-mail: TXG1@COMPASSBNK.com ren, Gap, Tommy Hilfiger, Lucky, or Doc Marten's call 798-0256 NEED MONEY? Will pay cash for good used cars or trucks. Call Richard at 747-4688, 748-1967 or pgr. 767-8150.

R&R ELECTRONICS AT 1607 Ave. G. has quality parts at reasonable. prices. Call 765-7727. We accept M/C, Visa & Discover SPRING BREAK in Cozumell Free body transformation contest, weight oss/gain, revolutionary products, guaranteed results! 866-0340

WIN $2000 CASH in free makeover-contest! International company of cool indie music when you register at Mybytes.com the ultimate website for your college needs.

Free CD

SERVICES

ANDROPOLIS

Body Waxing Eyebrows, underarms, lip, bikini, legs. Beautiful sanitary setting Lindsey's Salon and Day Spa. Ask for Lucy.797-9777 COLOR NAILS

Special offer student rate with valid ID. Full set $18 Fill $12 with fre-French, American manicure and free paraffin wax. Pedicure $20, free paraffin wax. Your nails will be done by our Lubbook experts NailTech Andy Nguyen, Kevin Nguyen and others... Call for appointment, walk ins welcome. 791-1000, 4931 Brownfield Hwy (close to Hollywood Tat-

CONFIDENTIAL AND FREE Pregnancy tests-Pregnancy Counseling DALTON'S AUTOMOTIVE Repair. Your automotive care special ists. Tech ID receives 10% discount. 5009 Brownfield Hwy, next to Dollar Western Wear 791-0014

EXPERT TAILORING. Dressmaking, alterations, wedding clothes repair all clothing. Fast Sewing Place, 745-1350. PARIS NAILS STUDENT SPECIAL! Full set $20.00, fill-in $12.00. Free French & American polish. Appointment and walk-in w

PROBLEM PREGNANCY

Planned Family Clinic~Lic#028 792-6331

COLLEGE FLOWERS 2002 Broadway 747-2800 SUE'S CHILDCARE, loving, licensed home. Birth to 4 yrs. Monday-Friday 7:30-5:30 69th and University 799-4511

WestNet One Unlimited Internet Access, show your Tech ID for discounts $8.50 pr month. Call for details. New systems upgrades, and repairs, IBM, NT, Macintosh. WestNet One 1220 Broadway 10th floor 806-762-1953

WINTER SKI BREAKS Steamboat Winter Park Breckenridge Vail/Beaver Creek Aspen/Snowmass Lodging • Lifts Parties • Taxes Jan 2-17 + 2,3,4,5,6 or 7 nights + 1-800-St www.sunchase.com

ROOMMATES

ediatley $210.00 plus half bills 2/2

ROOMATE WANTED to share 2/2. Two miles from Tech $245/month

TECH STUDENTS seek female roomate no smoking/pets. $250/month

Wide receiver Tim Baker is brought down after a reception. The Missouri defense held the Raiders' offense to no points and only 160 total yards.

Two streaks end at once

Red Raiders fail to pick up third consecutive win while Missouri stops a three-game losing streak

by Patrick Gonzales

Staff Writer

The Texas Tech Red Raiders failed to win their third consecutive game Saturday, as the Missouri Tigers and its dominating defense crushed the Raiders 34-7 at Memorial Stadium in Columbia, Mo.

The loss drops Tech (4-4 overall, 3-2 Big 12) into second place in the Big 12 South with three games re-

The victory was Missouri's first conference win of the year and ended the Tigers (4-4 overall, 1-4 Big

12) three-game losing streak. Tech scored first on an 86-yard fumble return by free safety Kevin Curtis after Tiger running back DeVaughn Black was stripped by Tech defensive end Taurus Rucker.

But the lead was short-lived as the Missouri offense scored 34 unanswered points.

Led by a ground game that featured Tiger sophomore backup running back Zain Gilmore, the Tigers compiled 403 total yards and had the ball for 41:42 compared to Tech's Gilmore's total rushing yards were the most given up by Tech's SWARM defense this season.

The story was different for the Missouri defense, who held the Raiders' rushing attack to nine yards on 22 carries.

Altogether, the Tech offense had a season-low 160 total yards and zero points.

The Red Raiders now are one game behind the Texas Longhorns, who defeated Iowa State 44-41.

Tech will clash with Iowa State on Saturday at Jones Stadium before heading to Austin to face Texas on

Tech's Gray behind on child support

According to court documents released last week. Texas Tech starting offensive tackle Jonathan Gray is behind more than $2,700 in child support payments.

Gray is scheduled to appear in court this week for a hearing about the failed payments for his son.

He first was ordered to pay $2,736.75 in back-pay to Diana Owens, the boy's mother, on

The junior from Lubbock has started every game for the Red Raiders since his freshman year and was a first-team all-Big 12 selection last season.

This is the LAST WEEK to have your FREE YEARBOOK PHOTO taken, so Put on your smile!

Don't miss your chance to be in the Millennium La Ventana!!

Have your picture taken

Come to UC Room 209 all week long! 9:00 AM - 12:00 NOON & 1:00 PM - 4:30 PM

BRING $2 FOR EACH ADDITIONAL ORGANIZATION PHOTO.

A Tech Tradition Since 1925

St. Louis Rams finally topple

starts had made the St. Louis Rams the NFL's last undefeated team. On Sunday, they couldn't get going fast enough.

Steve McNair, playing his first game in six weeks following back surgery, threw for two touchdowns and ran for another as the Tennessee Titans held on for a 24-21 victory over the Rams in the unlikely clash of this year's NFL powers.

The Titans (6-1) outscored the Rams (6-1) 21-0 in the first 14 minutes. But Kurt Warner, whose two fumbles led to two first-quarter touchdowns, rallied St. Louis by throwing three touchdown passes in the second half.

After Warner's 15-yard TD pass to Amp Lee with 2:14 left cut Tennessee's lead to 24-21, Lorenzo Styles of the Rams recovered the onside kick and gave Warner one more chance to prove the Rams could win late as well as early.

With no timeouts. Warner needed nine plays to get them to the Titans 19 with time running out.

St. Louis ran Jeff Wilkins out to try a 38-yard field goal, but his kick missed wide right with 7 seconds left. The Rams thought they would get one more chance thanks to a flag.

But officials ruled that Titans linebacker Terry Killens had been blocked into Wilkins by Mike Gurttadauria.

The Rams had outscored opponents 66-9 in the first quarter this season, but Tennessee jumped on the Rams from the opening possession. McNair, who wasn't named the starter until an hour before kickoff, moved the Titans 80 yards and capped the drive with a 1-yard toss to Lorenzo Neal and a 7-0 lead.

team that had trailed only once this season and then for less than three

Warner lost two fumbles in just over a minute, and McNair quickly converted them into touchdowns. He first hit Eddie George on a swing pass for a 17-yard TD with 2:41 to go, and he scored untouched from 10 yards out on a draw up the middle for a 21-0 lead with 1:24 left in the quarter.

McNair finished 13-of-29 for 186 yards, while Warner was 29-of-46 for 328 yards.

St. Louis, which hadn't given up more than 20 points in a game this season, had trouble regrouping.

The Titans got four of its six sacks in the half and batted down several of Warner's passes. The Rams didn't get into Tennessee territory until the second quarter. Once there, they couldn't go forward without taking a step backward due to sacks or pen-

Right tackle Fred Miller, facing Titans rookie end Jevon Kearse, was flagged repeatedly for false start or holding. He was even pulled for a series late.

The NFL's highest-scoring offense finally got going in the third quarter thanks to Marshall Faulk.

He took a short pass from Warner, dodged a couple of Titans and ran in for a 57-yard touchdown on the second play of the second half. The Rams pulled within 21-14 when Warner found Isaac Bruce all alone at the back of the end zone for a 3yard TD with 7:55 to go in the third

But it wasn't enough as the Titans, who looked sluggish after the first quarter, went 65 yards and settled for a 27-yard field goal by Al Del Greco with 4:18 left in the third for what Then it fell apart for St. Louis, a turned out to be the winning margin.

A&M Aggies defeat Oklahoma Cowboys

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — No. from us last week, but we got our feet 21 Texas A&M's Wrecking Crew defense is proud once again.

The Aggies (6-2, 3-2 in Big 12) were embarrassed after giving up 552 vards in a 51-6 loss to Oklahoma Oct. 23. They rebounded by rolling to a 21-3 victory over Oklahoma State (3-4, 1-3) on Saturday, holding the Cowboys to 260 total yards.

"I saw some people with 'Wrecking Crew' caps at the end of the game, and this week I've got to say that I was pretty proud," linebacker Brian Gamble said. "We played with great

The best the Cowboys' offense could muster was a 36-yard field goal by Tim Snydes with 14:49 left in the 'Last week was a shot to our pride," Aggie cornerback Sedrick Curry said. "We just had to put the Oklahoma game behind us. Coach (Mike) Hankowitz did a good job of making us focus on this game."

The emotion spread to the offensive side. The Aggies have had trouble with their running game but managed 152 yards against the Cowboys. "I think just the display of emotion after this game shows the character of this team," fullback Ja'Mar

Toombs said. "We got our pride taken back on the ground today (Satur-

Quarterback Randy McCown played with as much heart as anyone. Despite a separated left shoulder on his non-throwing side, McCown had touchdown passes of 11 and 14 yards to Matt Bumgardner and his passing also set up D'Andre Hardeman's oneyard touchdown run.

"There was some pain but all I had to do was look in these guys' eyes and I couldn't let them down," McCown said. "I could have broken my back and not cared. It means a lot to me to see everybody come together like we did."

The Aggies became the 17th NCAA Division 1-A school to win 600 games and the victory also gave Slocum his 100th coaching victory. Cowboys quarterback Tony Lindsay missed four games with a knee injury but returned to lead an early assault on Kansas State on Oct. 23. He didn't play against the Aggies because of a shoulder injury from the Kansas State game.

"During the course of the week his shoulder had been bothering him," Oklahoma State coach Bob Simmons said. "He could throw the short route but not the long one."