County Festival plans set for Saturday

Br. "Fall Festival" nearing

The annual Bronte "Fall Festival" will be held this weekend at the Bronte School.

The event is scheduled for Saturday evening, Oct. 28. A brisket sandwich supper kicks off the evening as serving begins at 5:00. The meal includes beans, chips, and tea and will be served in the lunchroom until 7:00 pm.

Games, booths, and food stations open at 6:00 and close at 9:00. There will be fun activities for all ages, as well as good food and visiting.

Parents are encouraged to let their kids wear Halloween costumes, if they'd like.

The proceeds from the evening's activities go toward all facets of school programs. With the band kids at Area competition the same day, the Booster Club is hoping for a good turnout of local folk. Y'all come!

RL PTA to sponsor Fall Festival

Festival fun, food, prizes, booths, and BINGO . . . all just seem to go together, and on October 28, the Robert Lee Fall Festival will bring them all together once again. The annual October event hosted at the Robert Lee ISD will this year be sponsored by the local PTA Chapter. Chapter officers began work early in 1995 to once more provide Bingo for festival goers. When the permit finally arrived, Festival planners happily added Bingo to the agenda for the Saturday, October 28 Robert Lee Fall Festival.

Add Bingo to the great line-up of booths for kids and adults alike, throw in a Mexican Supper, and the 1995 Fall Festival promises to be one of the best . . . a community event that offers something for everyone . . . a gathering of friends and neighbors as in the past. Booths will open at 5:00 pm and include: Ring Toss, Basketball Throw, Toy Walk, Go Fish, Train Ride, Marble Mania and Cake Walk (cakes will be baked by local ladies and gents). Also offered will be: Dice Toss, Laying Hen, Needle in a Haystack, Coin Toss, Pan for Gold, and Gumball Guess. Elephant's Truck, Toilet Paper Toss, Shave A Balloon, Coin Toss, Duck Pond, Pick Pocket and Tricycle Race booths will be set up.

Of course, there will be lots of great prizes, including a TV and VCR.

"Cemetery grooming" held

On Saturday, October 14, 1995, a cemetery working was held in The Brookshire Community, a few miles east of Tennyson. Among those attending were J.A. Cox of San Angelo, whose father and grandfather were pastors of the Methodist Church there for many years. Also Doris Potter, Scooter Harris, Queenie Wade, Carol and S.C. Cotton, Mary Lou and Ordie Crotwell, all of San Angelo; Mack and Bernice Kiser of Eastland, Hollis and June Kennemer of Big Spring, and Alton and Laverne Duffy of Andrews. A lot of needed work was done, and they hope to have another workday soon. Plans were made to build a fence on the north side of the cemetery if enough money can be collected.

Talleys begin work at Southside

Mike Talley, his wife Clovia, son Andrew, and daughter Sarah have moved to Robert Lee. Mike is the new minister for the Southside Church of Christ. He has served as youth minister, singles minister, education minister and preacher for the last twenty-eight years.

He received his education from Ft. Worth Christian (AA degree), Oklahoma Christian (BA degree), Sunset School of Preaching, and Abilene Christian University (MA degree).

Mike enjoys working with young people, helping those who are hurting, and teaching God's Word. He has helped coach girls' softball, little league baseball, and basketball for ages 11 and younger.

Mike and Clovia owned a Christian bookstore in San Antonio. Clovia has owned her own businesses in San Antonio and most recently, a gourmet coffee shop in Cloudcroft, New Mexico.

Andrew enjoys basketball and baseball, while Sarah enjoys volleyball and softball.

The Talleys are excited about being here and would like to be of service to the community.

The cemetery in the Brookshire Community received a facelift Saturday, October 14, as caring friends and neighbors worked to restore its unique beauty. Pictured are, l to r: June and Hollis Kennemer, Doris Potter, Scooter Harris, Ordie Crotwell, B.J. Kiser, Bernice Kiser, Queenie Wade, Connie Laverne Kiser, Alton and Laverne Duffy. RL cheerleaders interviewed on radio

If you happened to tune in to San Angelo's 98.7 K-LITE radio station last Wednesday evening between 7:00 and 8:30 pm, you heard the pepped-up, cheerful voices of five of the biggest Steer fans in Robert Lee. Robert Lee High School Varsity cheerleaders were interviewed by a K-LITE D.J. regarding the team's super record so far this season. The cheerleaders also made their singing debut, as they adapted the words to a popular song on the radio to fit the Robert Lee Steers.

As a follow-up, the D.J. traveled to Robert Lee Friday night to see the awesome varsity football team for himself. The Steers didn't let him down, with a 41-0 victory over Garden City. The D.J. took his spot on the track close to the cheerleaders and reported to the radio station live by cellular phone, as fans of the Steers cheered wildly in the background. Way to go, Steers!

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

It might not be apparent from the score, but I can say without reservation that the Bronte-Roscoe contest was one of the finest high school football games I can remember ever seeing.

It was clear from the minute the two teams took the field that our boys were hopelessly outthorsed. It wouldn't be much exaggeration to say we gave up half a ton in weight and a good 12 feet in height, but the Longhorn squad looked their opponents in the eye and played every down as if it were the difference between winning and losing. Even when the score stood 38-0 in the last minutes of the fourth quarter, they didn't give an inch; Roscoe had to take it, and sometimes they couldn't do that. When the Longhorns finally put points on the board, you'd have thought they'd won State - from the crowd's reaction as well as theirs.

The importance of sports relative to academics has been much debated over the years, and we've all seen situations where sports has been given too much prominence. This particular group of young men, however, has shown us what sports is supposed to be about. All season long they have pulled together and backed each other up, forming an honest-to-goodness team in a sense that we haven't seen in years. There are no showboats and no slackers out on that field, just football players, and those on the sidelines are as caught up in the game as the ones on the field at the moment.

What we saw Friday night was a group of young men who wouldn't quit. They wouldn't let down, much less lie down. It's easy to keep team spirit up when you're ahead 38 to nothing, but this team was down 38 to nothing and still digging in.

When the boys came off the field, they were met by parents, friends, and general well-wishers who couldn't have been prouder of them if the score had been reversed. As corny as it sounds, it really isn't whether you win or lose, but how you play the game.

Whatever eventually comes of this season, I believe those boys will carry the memory of that game with them for years to come. They showed us determination and teamwork. They showed us heart. They showed us character. Well done, gentlemen! Steve Kelton

Longhorns lose fierce battle

by BHS Business Communications

The Bronte Longhorns hosted the Roscoe Plowboys Friday night. Although the Longhorns played their best defensive game of the season, they were simply overpowered by Roscoe's strength and speed.

Throughout the extensive defensive battle, Bronte had only 5 penalties as compared to Roscoe's 13.

By the end of the fourth quarter, Roscoe had scored 38 points. The Longhorns scored with a pitch from Nicholas Arrott to Keith Treadaway. Arrott then completed a pass to Russel Vaughn for a 2-point conversion, making the score 38-8.

The Longhorns will travel to Garden City Friday, October 27, to continue their district play against the Bearkats at 7:30 pm.

Shorthorns enjoy recent victories

During a three-game span in which the Bronte Shorthorns defeated Menard (24-6), Robert Lee (18-12), and Roscoe (22-12), the offensive line of Jake Graves, Blake McKee, Randy Johnson, Mark Newman, and Jeff Reed, has played superbly. The running of Mario Minjarez and Sam Sanchez, along with the throwing of Jerrod McClure, have also been very good. The Shorthorns' impressive 5-1 record speaks well for the junior high team.

Longhorn Band receives "Superior" rating

Saturday, October 21, 1995, the seventy-six member Bronte High School Marching Band traveled to Wylie Stadium in Abilene to compete in the UIL Marching Band Festival. There were six bands competing in the Class A high school category. The Longhorn band received a Division One (Superior) rating for the second year in a row. The band performed "Ghost Riders in the Sky," the theme from the t.v. show "Coach," "YMCA," "Java Dance" (percussion feature), and the feather theme from "Forrest Gump." Soloists included Jade Richards and Heather Randazzo on a mallet duet ("Java Dance"), Vanessa Sparks on trumpet, Jose Rodriguez on trumpet, Cara Barnett and Crystal Moore on a french horn (Mellophone) duet, and George Tomes (Trey) on trumpet. Drum Major Jamie Sullivan led the band on the field as they wore their new uniforms that capture the flavor of the Old West with the Duster jacket and black (Gunslinger style) cowboy hat. When the band takes the field with this uniform on, the audience can "feel" something is about to happen!

The Longhorn Band also won the honor of being invited to compete in the Area marching band contest in Euless, Texas, on Saturday, October 28. This honor is given to only the best bands in each region in the state of Texas. If the band wins in the Area contest, they will travel to Austin, Texas on November 6 to compete for the Best Band in Texas award at the state level UIL Marching Band competition at the University of Texas stadium.

Other band ratings include Aspermont, who was rated a Division Three (Good); Rochester, Division Three (Good); Knox City, Division Two (Excellent); Roby, Division Three (Good); and Roscoe, Division One (Superior). Roscoe has also been invited to participate at the Area Marching Contest in Euless on the 28th.

Steers run over Garden City Bearkats

by Bill Burns

The Steers were well prepared for their game against Garden City last Friday night, and they rolled over the Bearkats for a 41-0 victory. The Steer defense had a super night, allowing only 30 yards on 29 rushing attempts, and 158 yards on 14 completions of 38 attempts. The Steers also intercepted five Bearkat passes.

The Steer offense had a big night with 244 yards on 41 carries. They also had 127 yards on 6 of 9 passing with no interceptions.

First Quarter

The Steers received the opening kick but could not get a first down and punted to the Bearkats. The Kats got a first down but put the ball up one too many times, and Eric Hood got the interception.

With 3:14 left in the quarter, Harley Wagner went 21 yards for the first Steer TD. Gilbert Torres kicked the extra point making it 7-0, Steers. Jeremy Burns picked off a deflected pass for the Steers' second interception of the night. Aaron Hood went deep to Eric Hood for a 47-yard TD pass. Torres again was good, and it became 14-0 in favor of the Steers.

Second Quarter

Adam Morgan started the scoring in the second quarter with a 71-yard run behind three outstanding blocks. The kick failed. With 5:31 left, Wagner went 21 yards for his second TD of the night. Torres' kick was good. Jerrod Pitcock got the Steers' third interception of the night and had a good return to the Kat 3 yard line. On the first play, Morgan covered the three yards for a Steer touchdown. Torres kicked, and it was good.

Jason Key intercepted a Kat pass to end the first half, Steers 34, Kats 0.

Dogies comeback

by B.J. Bessent

The Dogies traveled to Garden City last week to face the Bearkats. The Bearkats scored first, but couldn't get the 2 points. The Dogies scored next on a long pass from Beau Boxell to Andrew McCabe. The Bearkats came back to score again in the third quarter. The 2 point conversion failed. The Bearkats scored again. This time they got the extra 2 points. At the beginning of the 4th quarter the score was 20-6, Bearkats favor. With 7 minutes left the Dogies smelled a comeback. It started off with a run by McCabe. McCabe also got the two point conversion. McCabe scored once again to tie the game. The Dogies went ahead with the extra 2 points. The Dogies got the ball back and scored on a run by Beau Boxell. Then McCabe got the extra 2 points. This put the score at 30-20 Dogies favor. The Bearkats couldn't get it back together.

This year has been successful for the Dogies. They are now 4-1. This week the Dogies play the Water Valley Wildcats at Robert Lee. Come out and support the Dogies.

The less you open your heart to others, the more your heart suffers.

Deepak Chopra, M. D.

Second Half

The Steers scored with 4:56 left in the third quarter when Jerrod Copeland crossed the goal line from 11 yards out. Torres closed out the scoring with the extra point kick.

Jason Key stopped a Garden City threat with his second interception of the night.

Good Job AGAIN, Steers! !

Proposition 3 garners statewide support

Saying that the economic boost from Proposition 3 will shape the future of Texas, Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry recently unveiled a broad list of endorsements, ranging from statewide leaders to business and agriculture groups. The recent release of the endorsement list coincides with the first day of convenience voting.

"The bipartisan nature of the support, from Governor Bush to Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock, shows that this is a program that rises above partisanship for the good of Texas," said Perry. "The support from all fronts, including the Texas Association of Business and Commerce and the Texas Bankers Association, has been overwhelming, and we fully expect the momentum to carry the amendment to victory on November 7."

Proposition 3 would strengthen the Texas Agricultural Finance Authority, which works with private banks to increase value-added processing of Texas agriculture. With the amendment's passage, TAFE can transfer 200 million dollars of existing bonding authority, providing more capital for expansion, production, and marketing of Texas agricultural products.

Working with limited funds, TAFE has helped 47 different businesses which have helped retain or create over 4,700 jobs while adding more than $400 million to the state economy.

"This legislation represents the future of Texas," Perry said. "Texas is the nation's second leading producer of raw agricultural products; but every day, almost 90% of these products are sent out of state to be turned into finished products. Then we buy them back, but the money and jobs have left the state."

"There can be no mistake: this proposition means jobs for Texas," continued Perry. "Bringing Texas up to the national average of 20 percent in-state production would add $22 billion to our Texas economy, without creating any new taxes or bonding authority. Proposition 3 is an economic winner for Texas."

Responding to unsolicited merchandise

A company sends you a gift in the mail -- a ball point pen, a key chain, a tie. But you didn't order it. What do you do? If you are the type of person this company is looking for, you may feel guilty about accepting the item without paying for it. Don't feel guilty! It's yours, and you are under no obligation to pay anything.

You, the consumer, may only legally be sent two types of merchandise through the mail without your consent or agreement:

* Free samples which are clearly and conspicuously marked as such.

* Merchandise mailed by a charitable organization that is soliciting contributions.

And in these two cases, you can consider the merchandise a gift if you wish. In all other situations, it is illegal to send merchandise to someone, unless that person has previously ordered and requested it.

The rules are codified in Title 39, United States Code, Section 3009. That section of the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970 incorporates these protections for American consumers and makes the mailing of unordered merchandise unfair methods of competition and unfair trade practices under the law.

If you do not wish to pay for unsolicited merchandise or make a donation to a charity sending such an item, you may do one of three things (in each case, by law, you have no obligation to the sender):

* If you have not opened the package, you may mark it "Return to Sender," and the Postal Service will return it with no additional postage charged to you.

* If you open the package and don't like what you find, you may throw it away.

* If you open the package and like what you find, you may keep it for free. In this instance, "finders-keepers" applies unconditionally.

Furthermore, it is illegal for a

Jack-o'-Lantern Pops

- 1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 cups (2 sticks) margarine, softened
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 2 1/2 cups quick or old-fashioned, uncooked oats
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon each: soda and salt (salt optional)
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon flat wooden sticks
- Prepared vanilla frosting and assorted candy pieces for decoration

Beat sugar and margarine until creamy. Add eggs and milk; beat well. Mix oats, flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and cinnamon. Combine, mixing well. Cover; chill about 2 hours.

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Roll dough into 1 1/2-inch diameter balls. Place 3 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheet. Insert a flat wooden stick into side of each ball of dough. Using bottom of glass dipped in sugar, flatten to form 2 3/4-inch diameter circles. Bake 14-16 minutes or until edges are light golden brown. Cool 1 minute on cookie sheet; remove to wire rack. Cool completely. Makes 2 1/2 dozen.

company that sends you unordered merchandise to follow the mailing with a bill or dunning communication.

If you are aware of violations of the federal law prohibiting the mailing of unordered merchandise, or if you have personally had difficulty with such items -- especially if you are sent statements demanding payment for the merchandise -- you should contact your local postmaster or the nearest Postal Inspector.

Prepare for "cold season"

If you catch a cold this fall or winter, remember to wash your hands a lot.

"Although most colds are contracted by breathing virus-filled droplets, many colds result from rubbing the nose or eyes with fingers that have picked up a virus from hand-to-hand contact," said Dr. Christine Matson, an associate professor of clinical family medicine at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "If you catch cold, add frequent hand-washing to your list of remedies."

Millions of people at some time or another fall victim to the common cold bug. Americans catch a total of about one billion colds each year caused by one of 200 different viruses. Children are often vulnerable to colds, sometimes getting up to 10 colds per year, since they pass on different viruses to each other.

"When people with colds cough and sneeze into their hands," Matson said, "they tend to touch objects at home, work and school, leaving colds-causing viruses behind."

In addition to frequent hand-washing, tissues and handkerchiefs can also lessen or even prevent the passing of colds to others because they can contain the germs associated with coughing and sneezing.

"Obey how you feel and treat only what is bothering you the most," Matson said. "You can take fewer drugs and lessen the chance of unfavorable side effects. A stuffy, runny nose may only call for an antihistamine, and a nagging cough may only require a cough suppressant."

The most effective at-home treatment is plenty of rest and lots of fluids.

Bothersome cold symptoms are actually a positive sign that your body is fighting off the cold virus. They can also be the sign of a more serious problem.

"A cold can aggravate an asthma problem," she said. "Coughing and wheezing could be the beginning of a respiratory problem that needs immediate medical attention."

Have a safe Halloween

Much of Halloween safety begins with everyday common sense. Review the following points of safety with your children and others who will be celebrating Halloween.

1. If a mask is worn, cut the eye holes and nose hole large enough to allow full visibility and so breathing is not hampered. Tell children to wear mask on top of their heads when walking and pull it over their faces only when reaching their location.
2. The elastic should be permanently attached to the mask, and there should be no sharp points on the ends of the elastic or the mask.
3. Be certain that masks, wigs, beards, and hats fit securely and are not cumbersome.
4. An alternative to face masks may be the application of non-toxic face paint or make-up to the child's face.
5. Look for "flame resistant" labels on costumes, masks, beards and wigs. When shopping for fabrics to use in home sewn costumes, choose flame resistant fabrics. Sales people can assist in identifying these fabrics.

6. Avoid costumes made out of flimsy materials and outfits with big, baggy sleeves or billowing skirts. These are more likely to come in contact with an exposed flame or candle than tighter fitting costumes. Be certain that costumes allow children to walk easily without tripping and entangling their feet.

7. Do not allow children to carry knives, swords or other props unless they are soft and flexible.

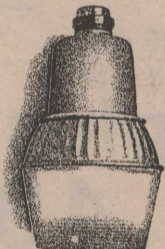

8. Buy or make Halloween costumes that are light or bright enough to make them more visible to motorists at dusk and in the dark. Reflective tape or decals may be added so that children are visible at night to motorists.

9. Children should wear comfortable, well-fitted shoes or sneakers. Do not let them wear mother's high heels.

Blood donors needed

Dracula isn't the only one looking for blood this Halloween. The 12th Annual Bloodsuckers blood drive is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 28, from 10:00 am until 5:00 pm at Sunset Mall near JC Penney. KIXY-FM personalities will be on hand for a live remote and contest giveaways.

Donors at the drive will receive a coupon for a free medium pizza at Shakey's, and people whose donation on Saturday is their second time since Oct. 28, 1994 will also be eligible for a free official Bloodsuckers T-Shirt provided by Ethicon. Donors will also get an invitation to the Bloodsuckers Ball, scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 31, from 6:00-8:30 pm at Shakey's Pizza.

The Bloodsuckers Ball is an opportunity to show appreciation for donors that take the time to help supplement the blood supply. There will be a costume with two categories: children under 10 and youth and adults 10 and older. Contest judging will be at 7:30 pm.

UBS representatives say this is a critical time for blood collection.

"We like to take this opportunity to bring a lot of light-hearted fun to a very serious subject," said Angie Tyson, Community Relations Representative. "The blood supply is not at a comfortable level. We are currently able to supply our hospitals, but we have no cushion. We're asking more people to consciously make the decision to donate."

Sponsors of the Bloodsuckers Drive and Ball are Shakey's Pizza and KIXY-FM. UBS has also received support for the project from Ethicon and Coastal Cookies.

UBS must collect approximately 300 units of blood a week to adequately serve area hospitals. Anyone with questions regarding blood donation can contact UBS at (915) 653-1307 or (800) 756-0024.

Jell-O Eyeballs

Shudder! These look (and feel) like real eyeballs

- 2 (4-serving-size) packets lemon gelatin
- 1 1/2 cups boiling water
- 24 blueberries

Pour boiling water over gelatin and stir to dissolve completely. Pour mixture into ice cube trays with rounded bottoms (should fill 2 trays). Refrigerate 30 to 45 minutes or until just beginning to thicken. Remove from refrigerator and press a blueberry into the center of each piece (make certain the blueberry touches the bottom of the tray. Return tray to refrigerator for 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

To unmold, place bottom of ice cube tray in warm water 15 to 30 seconds and run a knife around the edges of each cube. Turn the "eyes" out on a serving plate and refrigerate until serving time. Makes 24.

Enlarged prostate may be mistaken for cancer

Men who suspect they have prostate cancer actually may have benign prostate hyperplasia.

"Often what they really have are enlarged prostates, or BPH," said Dr. Kevin Slawin, a urologist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "In fact, the early stages of prostate cancer rarely have observable symptoms."

BPH occurs in half of all men by age 60 and in 80 percent by age 80. The cause is unknown, but the condition has become more common as the average life span increases.

In men with BPH, the prostate grows larger, sometimes as much as five times its original size. Because the urethra, the tube carrying urine out of the body, passes through the prostate, this growth may affect urination.

Typical symptoms of BPH are:

- * Urinary hesitancy, or difficulty in getting the flow of urine started.
- * Severe urinary urgency.
- * Weak urinary flow.
- * Frequent nocturnal urination.

In the past, there were few treatments available for benign prostate hyperplasia other than surgery, Slawin said. In those cases, physicians removed portions of the enlarged prostate either directly or through an operating scope.

This procedure, although highly effective, Slawin said, sometimes resulted in scarring and/or excess bleeding.

"Treatment advances in recent years for BPH, however, have reduced the necessity for invasive surgery. Newer treatments allow earlier medical intervention with drugs that can alleviate symptoms and may arrest them before they progress to the point at which surgery is required," Slawin said.

"We know these drugs work and are safe for short-term alleviation of BPH symptoms," Slawin said, "but we want to find out if they work well for the long-term and if they can slow or stop the progression of BPH."

Men interested in participating can call the Baylor Prostate Center, 713-798-5050.
