OES Roundup

by Jeffie Roberts
Nancy Bailey Allen of Robert Lee and Herbert L. Arnold of Granbury served as Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron of the Texas Order of the Eastern Star 1967-1968. The 28th Annual Roundup (Reunion) was held in Robert Lee April 18, 19, & 20, 1997 for the Nancy Bailey Belles and Herb's Buddies, their Grand Family and Friends.

The activities of visiting, snacking, and table games began Friday evening at the Hayrick Masonic Lodge Hall in Robert Lee. Saturday the group enjoyed picture taking, visiting, eating, games, sight-seeing, and shopping. The bluebonnets and other wildflowers were at the peak of their beauty in the Robert Lee area and the Robert Lee Cemetery, which will make a lasting impression on the 35 visitors from Buda, Canyon Lake, Seguin, Nederland, Austin, Wimberly, Dallas, Granbury, Houston, Lockhart, Dripping Springs, New Braunfels, Irving, Port Arthur, Richardson, Waxahachie, and Colorado City.

The "Rabbit Twister Brigade" Supper (Robert Lee Western Style Banquet and Dance) was held at the Recreation Hall in Robert Lee Saturday. Members of Robert Lee Eastern Star Chapter No. 187, Gaylon Pitcock, and Red Stephens prepared and served the meal to the 70 plus guests from the towns listed above, also San Angelo, Bronte, Ballinger, Silver, and Robert Lee. The Rec Hall was decorated with rabbits, coon, a life size sheep, windmill, saddles, bridles, chaps, ropes, churn, with red bandanas, silk spring flowers which included bluebonnets. The tables were covered with red and white checked tablecloths, centerpieces were globes and candles in tin cups with red bandana ties. Those who decorated and cooked were Reba and Jim Tabor, Dolores Roe, Bobby and Jeffie Roberts, Beverly Sinclair, Jackie Walker, Zola Hatley, Ruth Robertson, Gaylon Pitcock, Nancy Allen, and Red Stephens.

Jeffie Roberts, Worthy Matron of Robert Lee Chapter and Master of Ceremony, gave the welcome. Maude Arnold, wife of Herbert Arnold, gave the response. Bobby Roberts, Worthy Patron, gave the invocation. Remarks were given by the honorees, Nancy Allen and Herbert Arnold.

Jennifer Schultz, Miss San Angelo, was the special entertainment for the evening. She is a resident of Robert Lee, an elementary education major at Angelo State University, and a beautiful, talented young lady. She told her duties as the reigning Miss San Angelo. As a contestant in the Miss San Angelo Scholarship Pageant, she was to adopt a platform. Jennifer chose Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE), a project in which she has been active this semester. She accompanies a police officer to various area schools to promote DARE and encourage resistance to drug abuse. She will represent the San Angelo area in the 1997 Miss Texas Pageant in Fort Worth in July. She stole the hearts of those present with her beautiful singing. Jennifer introduced her brother, Ross Schultz, who is a Robert Lee High School junior and helps her with the sound system.

Eclipse (mobile DJ) Gary Karshner of San Angelo provided western music for listening and dancing entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Sunday morning the reunion group of 27 enjoyed "Till We Meet Again Breakfast" buffet style at the Ranchland Restaurant. Bobbie Hargett of Seguin gave the invocation. Tootsie Creech of Buda gave the devotional. They then said their goodbyes for another year.

Congratulations!

Korey, Kannan, and Jerrod

by Debbie Wilkes

Recently Doug, Debbie, Tom & June Wilkes flew to Germany for a visit with Doug and Debbie's son, Jeff, and his family. Jeff is stationed there in the Army. He is serving with the 123 CS Alpha Co. 1st Armored Division in Dexheim, Germany. His address is CMR 406 Box 1365, APO AE 09110. The Wilkes would love to hear from Robert Lee folks.

During their visit the Wilkes attended a "Change of Command Ceremony". Jeff was asked to present roses to the new "Incoming Commander's" wife.

The Outgoing Commander had served their company well during her duration. They were together in Germany, Hungary, Croatia, Bosnia, and again in Germany. According to her speech, the Company had done an excellent job in performing their duties under some very stressful situations, especially in Bosnia during "Operation Joint Endeavor".

Jeff, Leticia, Clint and Daylon are settling in very well in Germany. They are awaiting the arrival of their third child in early October.

Jeff is working in the motor pool at Dexheim and he enjoys helping Leticia take care of the boys. He is also playing slow-pitch softball.

Leticia likes the flea markets and has started collecting antiques, wooden train sets, and hand-carved "smoker" characters. She is a stay-at-home mom who stays very busy. She enjoys doing arts and crafts, and also does alterations for many of Jeff's fellow soldiers.

Clint has been attending Pre-K since last August and really seems to like it. Letty assures us that he is doing well. He just started playing T-ball and his dad helps coach the team.

Daylon is busy being a mischievous 2 1/2 year old. He even knows which bin the different recycling items go in (we were very amazed). He also likes to play outside at the playground area and waiting for the "Italian Ice Cream Truck" to come by.

The family has enjoyed being together since Jeff's return from Bosnia last December.

During our brief stay we celebrated with one big birthday party for all of us. Clint and Daylon especially enjoyed the balloons and party horns.

Many cities and towns were visited during our trip, but the most memorable were a train ride from Berlin to Frankfurt and a boat trip up and down the Rhine River with a view of numerous castles, vineyards, beautiful countryside, and quaint villages. The group went to a flea market held on the military base. There were many unusual sights and sounds. A few things that really impressed us about our trip were how clean Germany was, how nice the people were, and what great transportation systems they have. We have lots of pictures and many wonderful memories.

The reason the old days were so good is that we were young then.

Stover and Jerita Taylor of Bronte, Texas are pleased to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Eboni Marita Taylor to Richard Carroll Johnson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Fritz Norton Johnson of Mullins, South Carolina. The couple will be married on the fifth of July in Mullins. They will live in Charleston, South Carolina, where they will work and attend classes at the Medical University of South Carolina. Eboni is the granddaughter of Bonnie Taylor of Bronte.

RLHS Senior Class History

by Rachel Shook and Kannan Millican (reprinted from the Steer Review)

Throughout our high school career we've all had many memorable moments. Here are only a few: Brandi - Adventuring to Abilene with Kannan and Rachel to watch the Bryan White, David Kersh, and Neil McCoy concert (not mentioning we got lost and ended up on the interstate to Fort Worth!) Bobby - Hanging out at (and destroying) the Ranchland with the guys before football games. Meagan - Acting out the Aladdin play with Kannan and Shalon in Theater Arts. Rocky - My junior year when I had to play a woman in the Theater Arts play. Donny - Going up the ski lift for the first time and Daryl holding his broken ski saying to me "Don't go up there!" Jennifer - Dancing in aisles on the bus learning the Macarena after beating Trent in the bi-district game our junior year. Misti - Kizzie, Brandi, and I making it to state in FFA Farm Skills. Korey - The two quarterfinal football games I played in as a freshman and sophomore. Chad - Watching Korey fall down the bunny slopes on the senior ski trip. Kizzie - Being homecoming queen, playing in the regional tournament in basketball, and going to state in Farm Skills. Starsky - When my pole flew into the crowd at the Wall Regional Qualifiers Meet. Jerrod P. - Going with Starsky to pick up tuxes for prom. Mike - Doing splashers in the indoor pool in Austin at the state track meet. Jason - Going off the first tee-box at the state golf meet. Fred - Bobby, Jeremy, David, and I went to Lake Ivey camping for the weekend and lost the prop on the boat and Burns and I lost David's fishing pole in the lake. Gilbert - Summer of my sophomore year, Eric, Harley, Koby, Bobby, and I cruised to Odessa in Eric's mustang and locked the keys in the car and met lots of girls! Shalon - When Korey tried to high jump and totally missed the mat and fell on the asphalt! Jerrod C. - Playing in the football playoffs in Snyder my sophomore year. Kannan - When Rachel and I snuck through someone's kitchen window one night. Rachel - When Shalon, Kannan, and I took Mrs. Sanchez' car to get food for UIL. Not mentioning we rode around and hung a black, shriveled banana on someone's door knob. Kelly - Going skiing. Dona - When Jennifer Scott and I got into an argument and I threw a brick at her. Daryl - When I had to get a new ski because I broke mine skiing.

Although we often get in class arguments (not to mention the girls ALWAYS win), we are still an extremely close class and will always remain friends and never forget all of the times spent together. ATTENTION: When the Class of 1997 leaves the building for the last time, Robert Lee High School will never be the same!!!

RLHS Senior Trip

by Kelly Prine, Rachel Shook, Shalon Waldrop, and Kannan Millican (reprinted from the Steer Review)

On Thursday, March 13, the senior class made their departure to Sipapu Ski Lodge thirty miles south of Taos, New Mexico. We arrived Thursday night after twelve hours of driving. We decided to eat and go to bed for the next day's adventure. However, some of the group decided to stay up and play cards. Everyone was required to bring a certain food so we would have enough to eat. Our main course meals, chili and brisket, for two of the days were provided by Dr. Howell. The next morning at 6:00 am we were awakened by the parents beating on things and yelling at us to wake up. They thought they would get us back for staying up so late. The skiing lessons started at 10:00 that morning, and it took some of us that long to get fully dressed. The lessons were easy for everyone except for Korey, Donny, Daryl, and Chad. However, the little practice slope is a lot different than the real slopes. Watching everyone that was a beginner was a funny sight. A few of the group could not make it up the pull-up lift. On the way down the bunny slopes we were supposed to stop at certain numbers. Well -- Kannan did not stop until she finally fell (or should we say flipped). Everybody did well the one time we went down with our ski instructor; so they let us go alone. Jerrod Pitcock and Starsky Oleksiuk already knew how to ski; so they went on up to try out the slopes. Rocky Coates and Kelly Prine did not know how to ski but did not want to take skiing lessons. They were actually good and looked like they knew what they were doing! Marshall, Sheri, Kannan, and Rachel were skiing down the greens, and Rachel was skiing quite well when she decided to go down in front of everybody (an accident). All of a sudden Rachel took a spill and laid there until someone came to her rescue. When Marshall and Kannan arrived, we called for the rescue squad because her knee was hurt. One of the squad members arrived and called for a "toboggan". We learned that a toboggan was a sled that pulled injured people down the slopes. After fifteen minutes of waiting, they finally arrived and strapped Rachel in the toboggan. She looked like she was in a cocoon; all you could see was her head.

The students along with their parents worked long and hard for the money to finance the trip. Everyone was involved in making and selling the Valentines cookies, everyone worked in the concession stand, and helped sell Dash for Cash tickets. The long awaited trip was planned excellently, and the whole class had an experience they'll never forget. The seniors that went were: Brandi Brosh, Daryl Calder, Rocky Coates, Jerrod Copeland, Donny Edging, Meagan Hill, Kizzie Howell, Chad Leugers, Bobby Joe Longoria, Kannan Millican, Starsky Oleksiuk, Mike Pentecost, Jerrod Pitcock, Korey Pitcock, Kelly Prine, Rachel Shook, Jason Tavarez, Gilbert Torres, Shalon Waldrop, Misti Williams, and Fred Wojtek. The eight adults whose guidance and support made the trip a huge success were: Billy and Cynthia Hill, Marshall and Sheri Millican, Mario and

Taste of the Town competition held at RLISD

The Robert Lee Home Economics Career Cluster class recently held a Taste of the Town competition. The assignment is a six week project based on a cooperative learning philosophy. Students were divided into teams for competition for "business of the year."

Through careful research, students chose an appropriate location, calculated the cost of operation, designed a layout, devised a restaurant name and logo, identified a theme, produced an advertisement, and developed the menu.

Students were encouraged to utilize classroom computers to produce a professional project. Each team prepared 6 to 8 dishes from their menu to serve on competition day. Judges for the competition were business leaders from the community, school board members, administrators, teachers, and restaurant owners. The judges interviewed the team members, sampled the foods, and selected the winner based on predetermined criteria.

There were three different types of restaurants. The owners of "A Taste of Heaven" were Shalon Waldrop, Rachel Shook, Jennifer Scott, and Kannan Millican, which was a dessert and coffee house. "The Sand Trap" was owned by Donny Edging, Jason Tavarez, Jerrod Pitcock, Kelly Prine, and Bobby Longoria, which consisted of American and Mexican foods. "Golden Legacies" was an Italian restaurant, and owned by Dona Bell, Ricky Bell, Joey Barrett, and Jaime Olguin. The winners of the competition was "A Taste of Heaven." Their award for winning is eating at a restaurant of their choice.

Teddy Millican was selected as a board delegate to the TASB state convention in September.

Exit level TAAS scores were presented to the board.

Contracts with ESC XV for 1997-98 were approved.

RL 3rd Grade tours ranch

Last week as the sheep shearing crew labored at Bobby Roberts' ranch south of Robert Lee, the third grade classes of Robert Lee watched with wide eyes. Bobby Roberts is the director of Coke-Sterling Farm Bureau and was eager to share his experiences with the children.

Jeffie Roberts directed the school bus to the shearing pens. Her granddaughter, Kacee, accompanied her. Bobby and Douglas Roberts let the children touch the sheep and feel the wool as Alfredo Morales of San Angelo, and his crew were shearing the sheep. Bobby and Douglas showed the interested third graders the differences in the fine wool and coarse wool. They noticed the lanolin in the wool. They also watched as the sheep were branded.

This was a very educational field trip for Mrs. McCown's and Mrs. Devoll's classes.

Tara Bruning

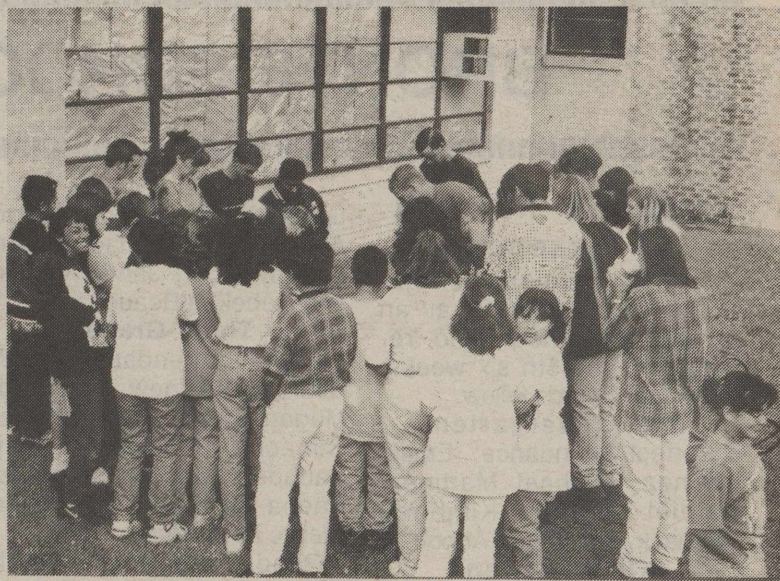

Bruning places 7th at State

On Thursday morning, May 1, Tara Bruning and sponsor, Mrs. Ballew, headed south to the State UIL Academic Meet in Austin. Tara placed third at the district meet in News Writing. She advanced to state by placing first at regional. At the state meet Tara placed 7th.

While in Austin, Tara and Mrs. Ballew stayed at the historic Driskill Hotel. The Driskill is one of only four historic hotels in Texas. They tried many different exotic cuisines throughout their trip, which included escargot, calamari, blue crab, fried crab fingers, and crispy duck. Seeing the sights of Austin was one of the major highlights of the trip. Among the places they visited were Lake Austin, the University of Texas, and the State Capitol. Carrie Davis, former student at Robert Lee, now the UIL director at Miles, was also in Austin with one of her students. They joined Tara and Mrs. Ballew for most of their sightseeing.

Sponsors for the RLHS Senior Class of 1996-97 were Patricia Ballew and Coach Chandler Langley.

As first graders, with Linda Burns and Mimzi Horn as teachers, the seniors buried a time capsule to be recovered their senior year. Last week the seniors began the search, but with no luck. "I know we buried it under a tree!" "No, we buried it over here!" "Maybe it was further out on the playground" "Let's Dig!" These were comments made, but trying to remember where they actually buried the time capsule was not an easy task. The students nor teachers could remember where this treasure was buried. If any of their parents can remember, please help! Perhaps some year this will be recovered, maybe by their own children or grandchildren. Who knows?

Wanker to graduate

Frank L. Wanker is graduating from the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine on June 1, 1997. He is the son of Forrest and Bertie (Gaines) Wanker who live in Fairview, OK, now but were long time residents of Robert Lee. He is also the nephew of Jesse and Willie Eads of Robert Lee. Frank has selected the specialty of family medicine and will complete his three year residency in Fort Smith, Arkansas at the Fort Smith Area Health Education Center and Sparks Regional Medical Center beginning July 1, 1997.

Frank graduated from Fairview High School in 1987 and was co-valedictorian of the class. Following high school he attended the University of Oklahoma in Norman where he graduated Magna Cum Laude in 1991. His major area of study was Zoology with minors in English and history. After college Frank worked for the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation in Oklahoma City under the supervision of Jeffrey M. Gimble, MD, PhD in the department of Immunobiology and Cancer. During medical school he received the Presbyterian-Harris Honors Research Scholarship for studying matrix-metalloproteinases, a family of proteins that are involved in tumor growth and metastasis. He was also awarded a National Health Service Corps Fellowship for a public health project in Grove, OK. He has been involved in a number of professional organizations including the American Academy of Family Practice and the American Medical Student Association as well as the Medical Student Council.

BISD holds retreat

Bronte ISD had its annual Site Base/Board Retreat on Saturday, May 17, 1997, at the Community Center. Those in attendance included Bronte ISD Administration, Site-Base Committee members from each campus, and board members. Goals and plans, long and short term, were made for the school district. The retreat was led by Barbara Brown, ESC Region XV facilitator.

Braswell retires after 21 years

After 21 years of service to East Coke County maintenance, Bronte's Dennie Ray Braswell is retiring as of this month.

Members of the Church of Christ, of which Dennie is a member, hosted a retirement party for him in the fellowship

Dennie Ray Braswell

annex of their church building. The room had been furnished with "Happy Retirement" banners, napkins, and other decorations appropriate to the occasion. Dennie was honored with a few gag gifts and a few serious ones. Sandwiches and chips were served along with a beautifully decorated cake on which was written "Congratulations, now go to work!"

Benefits planned for Ginny Smith

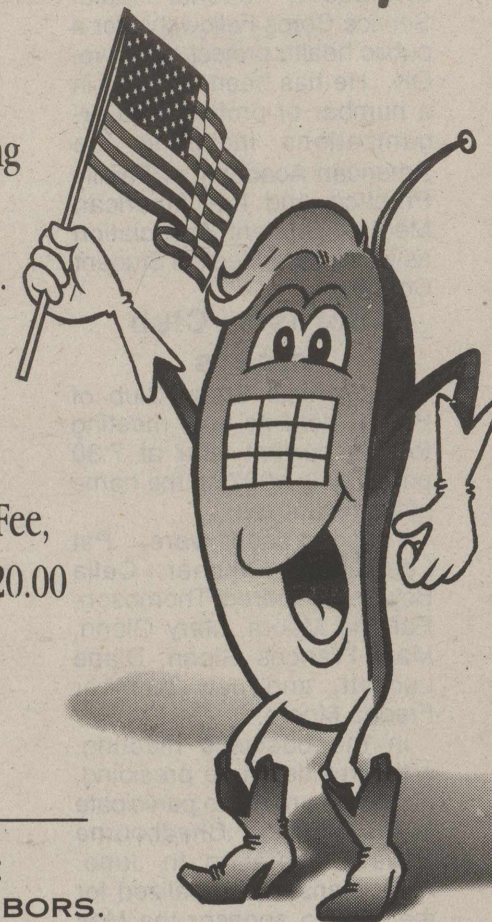

Plans are underway for a Ginny Smith benefit roping and auction to be held on Saturday, June 7. Ginny, wife of Winters veterinarian Dr. Jimmy Smith, was diagnosed with cancer in October, 1993, and has undergone extensive treatment since that time.

The team roping will be held at the Winters Rodeo Arena on June 7. A dance will also be held the following Friday, June 13, at the Winters Community Center. For more information contact Janet Cason at 754-5205 or Fran Kidwell at 754-5365.

Writers' contest seeks entries

Think you have the "write stuff" to be a writer? Many people who do will this year enter the Writers of the Future Contest, now in its 14th consecutive year of helping new writers.

The contest was founded by L. Ron Hubbard, shortly after the release of his best-selling science fiction novel Battlefield Earth, a Saga of the year 3000. An acclaimed writer for over 50 years, Hubbard gave freely and generously of his time and energy to help others become better and more productive writers.

Winners of the Writers of the Future Contest, judged by such luminaries as Ann McCaffrey, Jack Williamson, Robert Silverberg, and Frederick Pohl, win some $14,000 in cash and prizes, trophies, attendance at a week-long writing workshop and publication in the "L. Ron Hubbard Presents Writers of the Future" anthology - as well as the opportunity for recognition in the genres of science fiction, fantasy, and horror.

Scores of contestants have continued with now-successful careers: More than 100 novels and over 1,000 short stories have already been sold by winners and published finalists in the fields of science fiction and fantasy alone.

Dave Wolverton, former Grand Prize winner, later became the contest coordinating judge, editor of the anthology, and a New York Times best-selling author with his novel, Star Wars: The Courtship of Princess Leia.

No entry fees are required; contestants retain all rights, and all awards are judged by an outstanding panel of top-rank writers and editors in the field of speculative fiction.

You can find out more about the contest by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: L. Ron Hubbard's Writers of the Future Contest, PO Box 1630-WS, Los Angeles, CA 90078.

Over 40 eyes
You may not feel old when you reach 40, but chances are your eyes will. Nearly 90 percent of people over 45 are wearing glasses all or most of the time. "It's a normal biological phenomenon," said Dr. Richard Lewis, professor of ophthalmology at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "Our tissues are not infinitely elastic. We develop wrinkles in our skin, we develop gray hair, and we begin to lose the ability of the lens to focus up close." While some people experience blurred vision as they age, others will witness more subtle changes in vision. Eye strain and fatigue are common complaints from people who have their eyes too close to their work. To help focus on the fine print and relieve stress on their eyes, many people in their 40s turn to over-the-counter reading glasses. "These are acceptable for the average person who isn't unusually nearsighted or farsighted and who doesn't have a significant problem with astigmatism," said Lewis. But the glasses do have limitations. "They are made for the average face, which means the center of the lens may not line up properly with the eyes," said Lewis. "An eye-care professional should make the necessary adjustments." While reading glasses can be effective for people in their 40s and 50s, Lewis says the glasses should not take the place of a complete, regular eye examination. Middle age is when the most common form of glaucoma begins to appear and other common diseases, such as diabetes, have potential complications inside the eye. Most of us have a hard time accepting what we see in the mirror and on the bathroom scale.
