Fall hunting season begins this weekend

The scissortails and monarchs have left us; the nights are cool and we don't have to check our calendars to-know the fall hunting season is upon us.

General season for whitetail deer and fall turkey season will both open Saturday, Nov. 5 and remain open through Jan. 1, 2006. Special Late General season for deer (antlerless and spike buck only) is Jan. 2-15, 2006. Bag limit for deer in Coke County is 5, no more than 2 bucks, all seasons combined.

Fall season for turkeys runs with deer season, Nov. 5-Jan. 1, 2006, either sex. Spring season is set for April 1-May 14, 2006, gobblers only. Bag limit is 4 for both seasons combined. Watch your tags if you favor spring turkey hunting.

General season for quail opened Oct. 29 and continues through Feb. 26, 2006 with a daily bag of 15. Biologists are predicting the best quail hunting in our area in perhaps 10 years. Counts and surveys were hard to get due to heavy cover but every country road is alive with quail and aboveaverage numbers of very young birds.

Although it is impossible to print all the info you need, pick up a free copy of the "Bible" of hunting and fishing-the Texas Parks & Wildlife Outdoor Annual. Study it cover to cover and look up the things you have doubts about. A few important pointers that could save you a

Reed-Neal exchange vows

Natasha Dawn Reed and Tommy Edward Neal were united in marriage Saturday, October 1, 2005, at 7 pm at First Baptist Church in Ballinger.

Pastor Sonny Rice of Sealy, Texas, performed the double wedding ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Cliffy & Deeana Reed of Bronte. Natasha is the granddaughter of J.B. & Martha Arrott and Clifton & Bonnie Reed, all of Bronte.

The bridegroom's parents are Larry & Shelia Neal of Warren, Texas. Tommy is the grandson of Betty Joyce Conner and the late Guy Conner of Warren, Texas, and the late Robert & Jimmie Neal of Warren, Texas.

Natasha was given in marriage by her parents, Cliffy & Deeana Reed, and escorted by her father, Cliffy Reed.

Maids of Honor were her sisters, Natalee Reed of Stephenville, Texas, and Nicole Reed of Bronte. Bridesmaids were Lacy Schoenfield of San Angelo, Lucy Tyler of Stephenville, and sister of the groom, Leigh Ann Trotter of Hemphill, Texas. Flowergirls were cousin of the bride, McKenzie Arrott of Sweetwater, and niece of the groom, Avery Trotter of Texarkana.

Best man was Chris Cryer of West Monroe, Louisiana. Groomsmen were Steve Dryer of Seymour, Kris Crenshaw of Brenham, Trevor Powe of Stephenville, and brother-inlaw of the groom, Edd Trotter of Hemphill. Ringbearers were cousin of the bride, Carter Arrott of Sweetwater, and nephew of the groom, Brady Trotter of Hemphill.

Ushers were Bo Dees of Brenham, Brian Woods of Bronson and Adam Lasater of Stephenville.

Music was provided by pianist Leah Rosson and soloists, Monya Waldrop, aunt of the bride, and brother-in-law of the groom, Edd Trotter.

A reception followed at Carnegie Library in Ballinger.

Natasha graduated Bronte High School in 2002 and attended Tarleton State and will attend Angelo State University in the spring.

Tommy received a Bachelor degree from Texas A&M University and a Masters degree from Stephen F. Austin University. He is employed by Edward Jones Investments.

The couple makes their home near Ballinger.

Restoration to amphitheater continues

Plans for the restoration of the amphitheater continue to evolve. The building which serves as the equipment and lighting center for the stage has been partially demolished. In its place will be a sea container which will be retrofitted to look like an old building. It will house materials necessary for stage use binoculars and sit quietly performances.

Volunteers interested in this project have an opportunity to further the plans at a work day set for Saturday, November 19, at 9 am. The building needs to be completely demolished and the site prepared for a concrete slab. With volunteer help, this project can be completed this year.

Help from the community will make this project go faster. The anticipated revenue for the City from musical performances throughout the year at the amphitheater makes this project one that will benefit all businesses and increase the tax income.

Donuts will be available for all hands on deck on Saturday, November 19th.

ACT test registration deadline set Nov. 4

College-bound high school students can take the ACT college admission and placement exam on December 10, 2005, the next national test date. The deadline for postmark or online registration is November 4. The late registration deadline is November 17 (an additional $18 fee is required for late registration). Students can get registration materials from their high school counselor or they can register online on ACT's student website (www.actstudent.org). Students can also find the testing location closest to them on this website.

The ACT is an achievement test that measures what students have learned in school. The basic ACT exam includes four parts: English, reading, mathematics and science. An optional writing test is also available. Some colleges require or recommend a writing score, but many do not. To find out if a writing score is required by particular colleges, students may visit ACT's website for a searchable list, or they may check with the colleges directly. ACT scores are accepted by virtually all colleges across the nation.

Some students perform better on the ACT than on other college entrance exams because it is based on achievement, not aptitude. The basic exam takes three hours to complete, plus an additional 30 minutes for those who opt to take the writing test.

The basic registration fee for the ACT is $29. An additional $14 fee is required for students who choose to take the ACT Writing Test, bringing the total registration fee to $43 for these students. Free sample tests are available from school counselors and on ACT's website, which also offers additional practice tests for a minimal fee.

College/technical school night set in Abilene

Junior and senior students and their parents of high schools in the Big Country will have an opportunity to meet and talk with representatives from various colleges, universities, and vocational training schools at a college/technical school program at Abilene High School, located at 2800 North Sixth in Abilene, on Monday, November 14, at 7 pm.

Representatives from 47 institutions have been invited. In addition, representatives from the armed forces and a financial aid representative will participate in the program.

Each student and parent will have an opportunity to attend discussion groups to obtain information about schools in which they are interested. College representatives will discuss entrance requirements, application procedures, estimated yearly cost, courses of study, types of housing available, financial aid, and other topics of concern to students and parents. Browse areas will be located in both the east and west cafeterias.

"Pull for the Pool" Bronte community fundraiser

Lisa Gibbs' high school Multimedia class recently decided to help the Coke County Foundation raise money to save Bronte's swimming pool. The class, consisting of seniors, Garrett Acker, Sarah Basquez, Lindsey Butler, Megan Gibbs, Melissa Palmer, Lillian McMullan, Rebecca Rawlings, Bailey Saunders, Jaylon Saunders, Cheyenne Webb, and Zach White, designed and promoted a school-wide involvement program called, "Pull for the Pool." With the help of elementary, junior high, and high school students, the class raised over $2,000.00 for the Foundation.

In past years, Mrs. Gibbs' Multimedia classes have helped the community of Bronte with various projects including assisting the Bronte Chamber of Commerce design and create a new town slogan, raising money to help renovate Bronte's Texas Theatre, and creating, promoting, and running the school's local radio station.

With technology as the basis for the class, these students are working to help the community of Bronte.

C.J. Macon Dove & Skeet Shoot-Out held Oct. 8

The 2nd annual C.J. Macon Dove & Skeet Shoot-Out was held on Saturday, October 8, 2005, at the Trees Ranch in Orange Grove, Texas.

Festivities and fundraisers included a skeet shoot, horseshoe contest, silent auction, mariachi band and bar-b-que.

The 1st place winner of the skeet shoot was Michael Piper of Houston, and 2nd place was Willie Macon of Bronte. First place in the horseshoe contest went Tom Simonson of Wooster, Ohio, and Robert Wilhite of Abilene, with 2nd place going to Chris Dillon of Bronte and Brent Smith of Wooster, Ohio.

The event raised over $12,000 for the scholarship fund. The family sends their love and gratitude to the Trees family for holding the event and all the board members who strive to make the scholarship successful. Mom recalls that C.J.'s favorite expression was "Awesome, Mama Awesome" and this event truly was "Awesome". Donations to the fund can be made at First National Bank in Bronte.

Think twice before you co-sign

Unfortunately, co-signers are often not aware of the extent of their responsibility. You may expect that the primary borrower is going to be the one who actually makes the payments. What you must realize is that if the borrower does not make the payments, you are fully liable for the debt, just as if you had been the one who took out the loan.

This means you will have to pay all the money that is owed, including late fees and interest. If the loan is in default and the creditor sues to collect, you could even be responsible for attorney fees.

4-H Food Show! The 4-H food show was held recently at the Coke County courthouse. Seven 4-H members showed off their culinary skills. All seven 4-H members will advance to the District 7 Food show in November held in Abilene. Those competing were: Intermediates: Breads-Garrett Rodgers, Main Dish-Emilee Yanez, Snacks-Briana Brisbin, Fruits & Vegetables - Meagan Ross, Juniors: Breads-Kourtney Kelton, Main Dish - Hanna Hambrick, Snacks-Ashley Williams, Fruits & Vegetables - Jaden Aldridge

Volunteers needed for Bryan's Barn .

Christmas at Bryan's Barn has not been cancelled because Wilson has broken his hip. The show will go on.

To make sure that Wilson doesn't do too much when he gets back to the Barn, volunteers are needed for a while to help get the Barn up and running. December 1st is not far off.

This year, Christmas at Bryan's Barn will feel the gouge of the electrical costs affecting everyone else. Donations at the Barn may not cover the whole bill. To help defray these costs, contributions may be made to the Coke County Foundation which is a 501c(3) organization and donations are tax exempt. Checks should include the notation "Bryan's Barn" on the bottom, and be mailed to P.O. Box 1329, Robert Lee, TX 76945, or P.O. Box 370, Bronte, TX 76933.

Fridays and Saturdays during November have been designated as Volunteer Days at the Barn. Bring vacuum cleaners, dust clothes, window cleaner, or brooms, dust pans, hammers, rakes, or nails and a snack. A small job awaits a willing hand. There will be a room, a display case, a tree, a window, or a floor that needs your attention.

You'll see your reward in the eyes of the guests at the Barn during the whole month of December.

The Coke County Library will hold a really big book sale Friday, November 4, from 8 am to 12 noon, and Saturday, November 5, from 9 am until 2 pm.

Several boxes of hard back books have been donated which include inspirational, mystery and general fiction. Hardbacks will be on sale for 50 cents each. Also, the paperbacks have been adding up to a huge collection for the sale. Many romance, mystery, and action books will be available.

It's time to think about Christmas-all book lovers will appreciate books in their stockings or under the tree, no matter what the condition. It's the subject that counts.

The library has received two booklets discussing the new Medicare drug coverage. An English and a Spanish version are available. The booklets have been prepared by AARP and should convey the latest information.

Library hours are Tuesdays, 8-12; Wednesdays, 8-4; Thursdays, 1-5; Fridays, 8-12. Books may be returned in Bronte to the Main Street Market and to the 24/7 book drop on the porch of the library. Story Hour is Tuesday at 10 am and Head Start Story Time is Wednesday at 10.

Hal,

I've been thinking about the upcoming Veteran's Day. One of the things I enjoy about Robert Lee is the patriotism in displaying the American flags on specific holidays. With this in mind, I'd like to run the following letter/article promoting the sponsorship of these flags.

One of the many things I love about Robert Lee is the patriotism in displaying the American flags on specific holidays. These flags are sponsored by local businesses and individuals. It would be great if other businesses and individuals would sponsor flags so that every telephone pole within the city limits along Hwy. 208 and Hwy. 158 were draped with the American flag. This can be easily done through the local Lions chapter for $20.00 annually. guys will put up and take down the flags on special holidays and events.

Let me encourage you, as a community, to show our troops we support them by displaying more flags than ever on Veteran's Day. Please consider sponsoring a pole and call any of the Lion's Club members as soon as possible so that flags may be purchased. You may contact me at 453-2724 day, 453-4346 evening.

Thanks, Mike Poye

Broken hip won't stop 93-year-old Wilson Bryan from continuing legacy of Bryan's Barn

By Beth Prather Visitors to Christmas at Bryan's Barn, especially the children, experience all that is essential to the Christmas spirit.

The Barn is fun, it's magical, it's nostalgic, it's anticipation, it's awe, it's spiritual, it's loud, it's serene, all at one time. Indoors and outdoors a few steps in any direction elicits a new emotion

Wilson Bryan has seen all this in the reaction of children, foreign visitors, senior citizens on tour busses and church busses from surrounding areas and the cars full of families who have made the Barn a Christmas tradition.

Not only is the Barn the home of all the Bryan's family Christmas treasures, but donors have found a home for their treasures at Bryan's Barn to be enjoyed for years to come.

Wilson can't wait to create a new room, a new display case, a new arrangement, or to rig an eye-popping light spectacle.

Wilson loves the season. He's just a kid in December, although the rest of the year, he is 93 years old. As he said the other day, "No one has told me how to be 93."

Wilson has broken his hip. He was at the Barn and ironically sat down to rest-when he got up, he lost his balance, fell, and broke the upper part of his leg. He is in rehab at Shannon until November 11 or, as he says, "I will be out sooner than that."

Wilson Bryan has been a selfless server of the Robert Lee community. He built the amphitheater, mini park, and served as mayor of Robert Lee twice.

There are between 8,000 to 10,000 visitors to Robert Lee during December all because of Wilson and his family and the Barn. The restaurants are full and the opportunity to provide other activities for these visitors is great.

Wilson does what he does because of the enjoyment and satisfaction. He insists there be no charge to visit the Barn.

There has always been a small corps of volunteers who help the Bryans. They have been doing it so long, they "know the drill" on how to get the Barn ready for 10,000 visitors. A few of the heartiest are there every day or every weekend. They put their own activities on hold, leave the television cocoon, and head out Highway 1904 in rain or shine to act on behalf of the enjoyment of a lot of other people. Probably no one has ever called to say thanks, but somehow these folks know they are something that is important to a lot of people and also to the general well-being of our society.

Turkey at Thanksgiving

By: Agriculture Commissioner Susan Combs

Turkey at Thanksgiving is a must for many families across Texas. Thankfully, Texas growers produce 5 million turkeys each year. In fact, last year the value of Texas turkey production clocked in at $87 million, with a statewide economic impact of $146 million. McLennan and Milam counties are Texas' top two producers, and Texas has typically ranked as one of the top 10 states nationally in terms of production.

Americans eat some 18 pounds of turkey per person every year, and while turkeys are certainly considered traditional fare for the holidays, many families are branching out by grilling turkeys for other occasions during the year. The rule of thumb is to buy one pound of turkey for every person being served. If you are having a small gathering and don't want to tackle a whole bird, consider buying cuts of turkey such as breast, tenderloins or cutlets.

However you cook it, turkey can be a sound choice when it comes to good nutrition. According to the National Turkey Federation, a 3-ounce cooked skinless portion of turkey breast contains just 120 calories, 1 gram of fat and 55 milligrams of cholesterol. Combining a low-fat protein source with fresh Texas fruits and vegetables helps round out a healthy diet and can even reduce the risk of cancer.

While Thanksgiving is a great time to experiment with new flavors for the holidays, be sure to include turkey at the table. It is a healthy and delicious way to celebrate the season in a traditional way.

WCCHD board minutes posted

The West Coke County Hospital District met October 25, 2005, for their regular meeting. Members attending were: Dessie Kendall, Mary Bessent, Rick Sanchez and Gayland Hurst. The board accepted the resignation of board member Jim Naico.

Mary Grim, County Clerk for Coke County, provided information on Board voting. Mrs. Grim stated that the Chairperson/President always has the right to vote on an issue. She also referred the board back to the legislation that created the West Coke County Hospital District concerning the question of if a quorum vote is legal. The legislation states that three members constitute a quorum and may conduct business. Mrs. Grim handed out copies of recent legislation which requires board members of any taxing entity receive training in the Open Meeting, Open Records Act.

Mike Lomas was elected to serve the unexpired term of Jim Naico by a vote of 3 for, 1 against. Mr. Lomas will be sworn in at the next meeting.

Teri Tedford presented bids on new flooring for the Care Center. The board voted to remove the carpet on the floors and walls. Industrial tile will be laid throughout the facility except in the front lobby and the business office. Anderson Tile was given the

Capitol Comments By Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison

Astros' season another "First" for Texas

Throughout the history of our great state, Texans have enjoyed many firsts. This year marks another such occasion as we proudly pay tribute to the Houston Astros, the first baseball team from Texas to make it to the Major League World Series.

I have many fond memories of cheering for the Astros in Texas as a student, reporter and senator. I remember when the Astros -- then the Colt .45s -- beat the Chicago Cubs in 1962 in their first Major League game and when Nolan Ryan became the first Major League pitcher to reach 4000 strikeouts in a career at the Astrodome in 1985. This year the Astros reached a new milestone in their history by winning the National League Championship.

I know the 2005 season will be among my most cherished. I called Drayton McLane - the owner of the Astros - after most of the playoff games to let him know I was cheering from Washington for my home

The Astros have enjoyed a great season, which has been characterized by overcoming tough obstacles on their rise to the top. As a team, they have risen above many challenges including injuries, slumps and personal family

Coming into the regular season we were missing four of our key players from last year's playoff run against the Cardinals. Carlos Beltran, our center fielder, went to the Mets; Jeff Kent, our second Lance Berkman, our left fielder, was injured and out for the first part of the season; and Jeff Bagwell, our first baseman, was also injured and on the sidelines for the majority of the year.

Late in the regular season, tragedy struck the family of one of the players. On September 14, Bess Clemens, Roger's mother, passed away, ending a long battle with emphysema. Despite his profound loss, and being sleep deprived from staying up with her, Roger Clemens took the mound, dedicated the season to her and brought home a win for the Astros that night against the

The Astros began this season with an infield and an outfield that had many holes. The team filled those holes with a free agent and rookies. They rose to the challenge and the season ended with one of those newcomers a candidate for Rookie of the

Though many were skeptical about the Astros' chances this season, the team stayed true to the "never say die" Texas attitude. Before long, things began to turn around for the Astros, and the fans that never stopped believing.

With so many challenges to Houston this year, including opening our doors to thousands of Hurricane Katrina victims and Hurricane Rita that struck our area, the Astros' success was a welcome celebration. These Astros embody the good character and moral decency of all Texans. Astros players contribute much to the community.

Throughout the peaks and pitfalls of this season, the Astros exemplified the spirit of Texas. Texas' first baseball team won its first pennant race and will forever hold its place in history as the first team in Texas to make it to the World Series. Thank you Houston Astros. I look forward to next season and accomplishing another first -- bringing home the

Keeping an eye on the high cost of fuel

By Greg Abbott Attorney General of Texas High gasoline prices have increasingly pinched Texas consumers' pocketbooks over the past few months. Those already high prices were compounded by Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita, which prompted complaints from Texas consumers about possible price gouging and oil and gas investment scams.

A number of factors contribute to the high cost of gasoline. The cost of crude oil is the primary factor in how much you will pay at the pump. That final price also includes how much it costs to deliver the oil to refineries, the cost of the refining process, distribution costs, taxes and the retail stations' operating cost. Those factors, combined with the laws of supply and demand, led to the increase that we saw over the first half of the Then came the two storms, causing significant loss of production and refining capacity along the Gulf Coast, which crimped the supply even more. Fuel rates subsequently increased more sharply than before.

In short, the high prices we are experiencing at the pump are in most cases probably not the result of price gouging. However, you can be certain that my office is diligently investigating complaints of prices that seem out of step with generally prevailing market

The Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act prohibits businesses from engaging in false advertising of rates, prices or services at any time. However, when the governor declares a state of emergency-as Governor Perry did with Katrina and Rita-the Attorney General has increased authority to act against businesses that sell or lease fuel, food, medicine or

In the wake of the storms, we received many complaints of possible gasoline price gouging and promptly issued warnings that we would not hesitate to stop exorbitant price hikes that were out of step with generally prevailing market forces. Our investigators worked tirelessly tracking down reports of price gouging and we are continuing to monitor gas prices.

other necessities at exorbitant or excessive prices.

Due to the high price of oil, we have also received complaints regarding gas and oil investments. Investors have been ripped off by phony companies that promise huge profits due to the high cost of crude oil. Please understand that oil exploration is a high risk investment, not for the faint of heart. Be sure to properly research a business before investing your money.

The State Securities Board oversees oil and gas investments. Anyone considering an oil and gas investment should contact the Board for available information about the producer. The Board also accepts complaints about oil and gas investments.

In addition, the Texas Railroad Commission can tell you if the company that solicited the investment is registered as a producer in Texas and about the leases it has operated in the past.

If you believe you have encountered deceptive or fraudulent business practices associated with high fuel costs, do not hesitate to contact my office.

Saying no to stress

Life in general can be stressful. There are several tell-tale signs you are under high levels of stress: irritability, changes in appetite, sleep problems (too little or too much), fatigue and the inability to find pleasure in activities and relationships you usually

Help alleviate stress in your life with these tips:

- * Stop for several minibreaks during your work or school day. Look out the window and stretch.
- * Learn to say no. Set limits for yourself and stick to them.
- * Exercise to relieve tension, improve fitness and lose weight.
- * Get some sleep. When you are rested, you are stronger and better able to handle daily stress.
- * Give yourself a massage. Rub your shoulders, neck, feet, hands and scalp.
- * Eat healthy, substantial meals, and don't starve yourself. Eating well helps keep your energy level high.
- * Reduce or eliminate caffeine, a stimulate that can aggravate your stress level.
- Go on vacation. Take some time to get away from your usual routine, even if it's just a day.
- * Laugh more! Use humor to reduce stress.
- * Simplify your life by eliminating unessential "busyness" activities.

Bronte Vision Planning meeting held Tuesday, November 1st

A Bronte Vision Planning meeting was held at 5:30 pm Tuesday evening, November 1, 2005, in the Bronte School Library.

Nicki Harle of Texas Midwest Community Network acted as facilitator for the meeting. Acting as scribe was Kathy Howell.

Attending the meeting were Michael Bohensky, Kari and Adam Richter, Melinda McCutchen, Julie Springer, Misti Bedford, Gerald Sandusky, Cyndi McConnell, Martin Lee, Natalie Hunter, Tammy Hortenstine, Martha Ratliff, Morris Johnson, Alan Richey, Lee and Janet Wommack, Mary Frances Glenn, Larry Tienen, Paul and Susan Williams, Earlene Alexander, Andra Arrott and Charles Sonnenberg.

Michael Bohensky welcomed the participants, offered pizza and drinks to everyone, and introduced Ms. Harle. She opened the session with door prizes for the person living the longest in Bronte, Gerald Sandusky; the person living the shortest time in Bronte, Larry Tienen; and the person raising the most children in the Bronte School District, Andra Arrott.

Ms. Harle then gave a brief overview of the purpose of the meeting - to establish a vision for the community of Bronte. She explained the three entities that began the Vision process for towns like Bronte - the Work Force Development Center, the Governor's office and the Texas Midwest Community Network.

A cross section of the entities present at this meeting included the Chamber of Commerce, Economic Development Board, local businesses, governmental agencies, educators, church personnel, law enforcement, farmers and ranchers, civic clubs, and volunteers.

Ms. Harle then began the process of establishing a roadmap to create Bronte's Vision, beginning with the assets and challenges of the Bronte community.

Goals discussed for the next three to five years include:

- community
- · downtown revitalization (utilize empty buildings)
- · community-wide cleanup
- · healthcare provided
- childcare available
- additional youth activities
- drug-free community effort
- park/pool restoration
- retain/expand businesses
- · establish new businesses/job opportunities
- · hire community development director
- housing renovation program
- ° affordable new housing · scholarships for every Bronte
- graduate
- incentives for young adults to return to Bronte
- · Centennial celebration
- Assets listed include:
- · highway traffic school/education
- Coke County Juvenile Justice Center

- Outdoor recreation (hunting)
- · local recreation (golf course, arena)
- Fort Chadbourne
- defined downtown
- Texas Theater
- · adequate city infrastructure
- good churches
- · involved young adults and families
- good civic leadership
- · small town atmosphere
- good law enforcement
- rich heritage and culture
- · community foundation (Coke County Foundation)

Challenges faced by Bronte include:

- need better paying jobs
- improved parenting skills
- · more rent houses available
- · more support for local businesses (shop at home)
- curtailing drug dealers
- finding funding resources
- · local communication (local organizations)
- · conformist mentality ("It's always been done that way.")
 - · local politics ("clickish")
- · telecommunication (highspeed internet, wireless cell service)
 - shortage of EMS volunteers
- · lack of equipment for volunteer fire department
- · lack of local healthcare
- limited volunteer pool

Strategies to accomplish goals include:

- Brainstorming Task Force community-wide communication
- · create a Community Development Director position
- · form a coalition for drug use prevention
- · coordinate local planning to include local businesses, community, municipality and

The Vision includes:

- · a great place to raise a family - education, healthcare, a safe environment, and cultural and recreational
- · a thriving business community with retail and industry providing for necessities and job opportunities
- · secure a quality of life through strong and stable ser- school pride throughout the vices provided by volunteer fire department, EMS, law enforcement senior citizens and child care

It was noted that the Vision Planning Committee had completed Mile Marker 4 in their Roadmap.
