Anson scored first from the 46 on a screen pass, and again from 10 yards out. Conversion tries failed after both TD's.

Indians Keep Perfect Record With 38-0 Defeat of Rotan The Haskell Indians combined smooth-working backfield power behind an almost impenetrable line to completely overwhelm the Rotan Yellowhammers, 38-0, here Friday night in maintaining the Tribe's unblemished record for the current season. Haskell now holds a 3-0 record for the season and has amassed 73 points while holding three opponents

The Indians struck early in the first period for the initial marker, racked up two TD's in the second, and one in the third, with the final TD in the last quarter. The Tribe rolled up 289 yards on the ground and hit through the air for 64 additional yards, in their con-quest of the visitors.

The Yellowhammers, battling stubbornly throughout the game, were never able to mount a serious sustained threat and moved only 61 yards on the ground, while a desperate aerial attack netted only 51 yards for the visitors. Leading scorers for the Tribe were Backs Eugene Mullins

Lynn Pace, and Quarterback Erby Wolfe, one TD each. Disaster hit the Yellowhammers on their first aerial effort, early in the first period, when Indian Back Tom Ander-son intercepted a Baugh-to-Taylor pass on the Rotan 39.

and Tom Anderson, each with 10 points; Ends John Rike and dians comes Friday night, when the Tribe hosts Iowa Park in a non-conference affair in Indian Stadium. The Hawks will field a strong squad in an attempt to erase last year's defeat by the Indians.

Three carries by Back Eugene Mullins covering 22, 15, and 3 yards netted the Indians first TD, with Anderson running over the conversion 2-pointer. Striking through the air in the second, Indian Quarter-back Erby Wolfe connected with End Lynn Pace with a 12-yard aerial from the Rotan 23, with Pace adding the 11 yards to pay dirt. Mullins carried over for the two-point conversion. It was Wolfe to End John Rike for TD No. 3, when Wolfe from the Haskell 39 hit Rike with a 15-yard pass and Rike outdistanced the Rotan secondary in stepping off 46 yards to pay dirt. Mullins again converted, carrying over for two points for a 24-0 score at helitime. at halftime.

Indian tally in the third frame was set up when Tommy Cathey, Haskell tackle, recovered a Rotan fumble on the visitor's nine yard stripe. Tom Anderson picked up five, and Wolfe on a quarterback sneak, derson carried over to convert two points. Later in the third, Mullins intercepted a Rotan aerial on the visitor's 38, but two plays later the Yellowhammers regained the hell when Total gained the ball when Tackle E. Patton recovered a Haskell fumble.

In the closing seconds of the third, Indian Guard Fred Brown covered a Rotan fumble on the Haskell 49. Early in the fourth after relinquishing the ball to Rotan on the visitors 36 yard line, the visitors moved to the Haskell 47, where Indian Guard Gene Flanary intercepted a Rotan pass. Driving to the Rotan 39, a fumble gave the visitors an opportunity to continue a des-perate aerial attack which moved them into Haskell territory, only to be broken up when Indian Back Tom Anderson intercepted a Rotan pass on the Haskell 35. The fleet 160-pound back then turned in the night's longest run in shaking off the entire Rotan secondary in a 65-yard trip into the pay zone, and TD No. 5. Rike's kick for extra point was

Investment in Haskell's Future

Citizens of Haskell and their neighbors in Rule, Munday and Goree are finding the road to a solution of their municipal water problem a long and tedious one.

They have already indicated their desire and willingness to assume the obligations necessary for development of what is known as the Miller Creek project, and have banded together in a joint Water Authority to carry out the program.

However, due to the fact that Seymour has withdrawn from the project, a new bond election is necessary and has been The bond issue in this election, $3,800,000, is one million dollars less than the issue authorized in an election a few weeks ago, and for that reason is expected to be approved by a sizeable majority of voters in the four towns. Cost of the bond issue to the average taxpayer in Haskell will be less than ten cents a day for the initial five year period, then will decrease steadily each year. In return for this almost insignificant daily sum invested in the water program, Haskell and its neighbors will be assured an ample supply of soft, pure water in an amount adequate for all forseeable needs for the

It is an investment we must make to assure the growth and future development of our town and this section.

National Newspaper Week

This country has something of a mania for "weeks" and "days" celebrating all manner of things and occasions from the sublime to the ridiculous. But some of the observances are far above the common rut, and deserve the public's interest and

This is certainly the case with National Newspaper Week, October 1-8. Its theme is "Your Newspaper Guards Your Freedoms." And that's more than just a felicitous little slogan. It's a fact. A free press is the most potent weapon against tyr any and persecution that any nation can possess.

Dictators always take over the press as soon as they gain power and pervert it to their own ends. That's only logical For dictatorship can't stand the freedom of expression and debate a free press stands solidly for.

There Must Be A Change

People should wake up and demand that Congress stop its spending spree.

That urgent need is emphasized by a member of Congress itself-Representative Byrnes of Wisconsin. And he doesn't feel he is fighting a lost cause. He says: "I think there is always the hope that when people start to understand-and the people must be made to understand where we are-there will be a change in the attitude. There must be a change .

"And I am sure Congress will be responsive to a feeling for economy on the part of the people. I have not given up the fight and I am still going to exert every effort I can to bring economy into our government."

Congressman Byrnes' statement of principle could not have come at a better time. It now looks as if the Federal deficit for this fiscal year will be at least $12 billion. The debt ceiling has been raised again-to $288 billion-and there is a definite possibility another increase will be requested next year. The last Congress, like the predecessors, made huge appropriations for which there was little if any justification. For instance, it voted to give the Atomic Energy Commission twice as much money for the construction of atomically-fueled electric projects as the Administration asked for.

Congressman Byrnes said the plain hard truth in five words: "There must be a change."

But some questions the tric asked Warden Bert Iverson recently when he talked at the Rotary Club luncheon, indicat ed to us that the aforesaid tric might pull a John Foster Dulles and get up to the "brink" on their limits.

Byrd posed a hypothetical question: If a man and his son were hunting, with only the man having a gun, could a two-person limit be bagged? Or i' the boy had an air rifle, chimed in Coston. Or, asked Wilkinson. could two men take time about using one gun and take the limit for each hunter? Stumped momentarily, War-

Wallace Cox Jr., reports he had numerous calls last Dollar Day for a 30-quart sauce pan at 49c, as listed in his store's ad in the circular advertising the monthly trades day. A typographical error resulted in the offer, changing a threequart sauce pan into a 7½ gallon affair. Proves that people DO read the ads, however.

We're still puzzling over the meaning of two large pennants noticed on a heavy truck passing through Haskell the other day. The pennants, bright yel-low with black lettering, were on short staffs on each side of the cab of the truck, loaded with heavy dirt-moving equip. ment.

The fluttering pennants and unusual lettering attracted the attention of several persons in front of the Texas Cafe. The truck driver and his companion, both grinning, apparently were enjoying the puzzlement caused by the pennants.

Each bore the lettering "S.

O. B." in characters readable a block away. The correct meaning, if known, would probably be something simple and easily understandable.

Despite Alaska, we've al-ways thought and still believe Texas is the oil center of the nation, raises the most cotton, biggest steers, and fattest hogs. It is an accepted fact that Ty-ler, in east Texas, is the rose capital of the world and that Fort Worth is the beef capital of the Southwest.

Notwithstanding these known facts and many more, there are some people (particularly Oklahomans) who indirectly challenge Texas' greatness by making boasts concerning the area separated from Texas by the Red River.

Met one of these fellows the other day, Dr. W. L. Daven-port of Stillwell, Okla., who was here with his nephew, Bert Davenport of Fort Worth. The Doctor allowed as how Tulsa was the oil capital of the world, then bragged that h's hometown of Stillwell was the straw berry growingest country any where. Granting they may produce a few strawberries in Oklahoma, it's a cinch they have to use Texas sugar refined at Sugarland and probably cream from some Dallas dairy.

Destroy Cotton Stalks Early Farmers Advised

Desiroy those cotton stalks to prevent pink bollworm winter carryover!

This is the advice of F. M. Fuller and C. F. Gardner, extension entomologists, who re-mind that deadline dates for stalk destruction are fast approaching.

They say in areas of Texas where stalk destruction is recommended, it is one of the most economical and effective methods of controlling the pink boll worm. The use of stalk shredders is highly recom-mended, since they kill many of the pink bollworms left in the field after harvest. Al though it is not legally required, they advise plowing under the shredded residues to a depth of six inches within five days after cutting. In Northwest Texas, the entomologists recommend that the stalks be left standing in the field until after a hard freeze because the low temperatures will kill the pink boll worms in exposed bolls.

Stripper harvesting aids in reducing numbers of pink boll worms in areas where it can be used. A large amount of the infested materials is stripped from the stalk and carried to the gin where the pink boll worms are destroyed.

The entomologists encourage farmers to avoid irrigating too late in the season, because insects are attracted in large numbers to late irrigated fields of cotton. Thee sooner harvest is completed and stalks destroyed, the better the chance of preventing a heavy winter carryover of bollweevils and pink boll worms. It is expensive to produce a late fall crop because in most instances, this practice encourages a large buildup of pink boll worms and boll weevils to go through the

OUTDOORS TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

People in Texas are very migratory in their fishing

Fishermen from west Texas quite often go into the eastern part of the state to do their fishing. Those from the north, south, east, and west frequently go fishing in the Gulf. Gulf fishermen go to the still-lake area. Those in the east-ern portion of Texas try the other sections, for a change of

A check of car tags around Texas' rivers, lakes and streams proves these facts to be true.

Editors of Texas newspapers learned long ago that their readers have varied interests and that the outdoorsman is no exception.

That's why you will find ar-ticles on gulf fishing in the Panhandle newspapers, and still-lake fishing stories in the valley and gulf coast press. All of which accounts for the many boats you see trailing Texas highways in every direction.

That's why this which deals with all phases of fishing, hunting and boating, appears in newspapers in all areas of the state. Not in all newspapers, of course, but in more than 200 weeklies and dailies in widely scattered sections of Texas.

It is indicative of great interest in the outloors - and of the tremendous appeal that fishing, hunting and boating have in this great state of ours. Light Tackle Grows Popular

Many fishermen in the past few years have been weaned away from stiff casting rods and conventional reels and have turned to spin-fishing with light tackle.

They are finding much more fun. If you want still more enjoyment, try fishing with a

If you want just pan fish, use smaller flies. Occasionally you'll get a bass, but you really can sack up the bream and sometimes crappie. Try it! Can Fish Hear—See—Smell?

Much has been written about the ability of fish to hear, see and smell. And, the topic is one that provokes considerable discussion among fishermen. on the subject, an out-of-state zoologist says that fish are quite capable of detecting noises. Also, they spot move-ment easily. But their eyes But their eyes don't seem to pick up details readily. However, their sense of smell is acute.

Finally, he says. "Fish not only have taste buds in their mouths, but on much of the exterior of their bodies.'

Standing on a dock in Lake Travis late one recent afternoon we saw several poundsize black bass surface to feed on food particles that had collected on the oil drums that supported the dock.

We got almost within touching distance of them and still didn't scare them away. Per-haps they were so intent on feeding that our presence didn't matter. Or maybe they just couldn't see us. If they saw us they certainly didn't scare. On the other hand a loud noise that vibrated through the water did cause them to trick that may help.

Next time you buy your minnows ask the minnow man to give you a tray full of ice from his refrigerator. Drop about five squares of the ice into the Drop about minnow bucket. It will keep the water cool and also help preserve the life of your minnows with the oxygen it adds to the water.

Deer and Turkey For Re-Stocking Ready Oct. 1

Applications for stocking lands with deer, turkey, and javelina again will be accepted October 1 through February In a very concise statement 1959, according to the director of Wildlife Restoration of the Game and Fish Commission at Approval under the program depends upon investigation by a game warden of land conditions and carrying capacity. Upon notification of acceptance the applicant must send a cashier's check payable to the Game and Fish Commission before a trapping order will be dispatched. The animals and birds are then trapped on the King Ranch and transported to the area and released.

Minimum order is ten animals or birds. Cost of orders defray trapping and transportation expenses of the King Ranch, the director said. The landowner will be charged $35 a head for deer, $12 each for turkey, and $20 each for javelina.

The program was set up to transport game from over-populated areas to those where brood stock is needed but where release areas cannot meet requirements for receiving game free of charge under the Federal Aid program car-ried out by the Game and Fish Commission.

Applications should be addressed to the Game and Fish Commission, Walton Building,

Wheat Carryover Will Set Record This Year

In 1958, American farms will produce more than twice as much wheat as half-a-century ago. But in 1958, the average American consumer is eating only a little more than half as much wheat as he used to.

The big black "X" made by that soaring production line and that sagging consumption line marks the heart of our wheat surplus problem; it will be especially glaring after this year's record crop is harvested, according to the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Com pany.

American farmers produced 683 million bushels of wheat in 1909, the bureau points out. In 1958 they will harvest 1,429 million bushels, according to latest USDA estimates.

Though U. S. population has nearly doubled in the same period, our nation of 170 mil lion Americans will consume almost exactly the same total amount of wheat for food in 1958 as 90 million Americans ate in 1909-about 475 million bushels, the insurance statisticians state.

In 1909 U. S. farmers raised 151/2 bushels of wheat per acre. In 1958 they will harvest over 26 bushels per acre, from more J. E. Bernard. Mrs. Foresman than 20 per cent more acres. five and a quarter bushels of wheat per capita in foods. In 1958 they will consume about two and three-quarter bushels dairy products, eggs, green land.

National Fire Prevention Week October 5-11

Fire prevention is the best defense against fire. By not giving fire a place to start, reports the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the na-tion's annual fire losses of about $150 million can be cut

The council points out three general safeguards against fire, which if practiced by all farm families, could cut farm fire losses in half.

First, they say, use foresight and care to avoid all needless fire hazards in building, equip-ping, maintaining and using farm property. Management of the farm and woodland is included in this suggestion.

Secondly, they warn that farm families should be prepared to fight a fire as soon as discovered. Prior training in the use of safe and effective neat and arranged for fire checked.

fire fighting equipment is sug-gested by the councilmen. Fire extinguishers should be check-ed regularly and kept in readiness wherever needed, in and near the home and other buildings, and on trucks and trac-

Thirdly, they suggest organizing to provide community fire protection with trained men and equipment sufficient to put out or control large fires. Such a community effort makes for more protection of life and property and better fire prevention, they say.

Finally, the state safety group advises all farm families to do some hazard hunting in their homes and on their farms. Since approximately one - third of all farm fires start from defects in heating and cooking systems, they suggest that flues, chimneys, spark arresters and cooking equipment be checked first.

Then check for inadequate, defective and misused electrical wiring systems or appliances. Give the fuel storage facilities a close check and for all members of the family make sure the storage area is trical entrances should be

The Christian Church began an Open Bible Crusade last Sunday and apparently the Crusade got off to a good start as Brother Guy Harris reported that the attendance board showed a 43% increase over the preceding Sunday.

In the auditorium of the church there is a Master Attendance Board with the names, address and phone numbers of the members of the church. When the congregation comes to the morning or evening worship service they find their attendance card which reads, "Abesent" (in red) and turn it over so it reads "Here" (in green). The congregation has been equally divided into 8 groups with a team captain over each group. The captains work to have their group 100%. Last Lord's Day evening was Bible Night. The Great Plains Conservation program offers an excelopportunity for farmers ranchers to re-establish good grasses on eroded and brushy land, stated Ernest Cowger, soil conservation service technician.

The rainy seasons during the past two years have failed to improve range land properly due to competition of the brush and lack of good grass seed.

The Great Plains program provides Federal cost sharing assistance for applying soil and water conservation practices in a planned program covering a period of three to ten years.

USDA Announces Plentiful Foods For October

Beef is on the U.S. Depart ment of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for October. It is the first such listing for this favorite meat for 1958.

October supplies of beef are expected to be seasonally large as fed cattle marketings increase and coincide with marketings of grass-fed cattle. The number of fed cattle going to market this fall is expected to exceed last fall's total, reports Agricultural Marketing

Service. Broilers, fryers, cheese and apples have been designated as the foods to feature in October meals because of heavier than usual supplies. Three other meats, hens, lamb, and pork, are also listed as plentiful in the southwestern area. Other October plentifuls include small and medium eggs. potatoes, honey, canned ripe olives and peanut butter.

Chukars Will Be Introduced In Big Bend Area

attempt to introduce Chukar into West Texas as a game bird will be made this week on the Black Gap Management Area in the Big Bend. Approximately 500 adult birds will be liberated there the latter part of the week. They are being brought to Texas from Nevada, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission. Early this year a trade was made by the Texas game group as traded 100 javelinas for the 500 Chukars. Although numerous attempts have been made to introduce Chukars into Texas pre-viously, this is the first major attempt in West Texas. Pen raised birds have done well in certain areas, but these are wild birds and will be introduced to terrain comparable to their home breeding with the state of Nevada. Tex-ground. The altitude and weather conditions of the Big Bend are somewhat similar to those of Nevada, except that it doesn't get as cold in Texas.
