TDA awards Bronte grant for Community Development

The Texas Department of Agriculture honored Bronte as one of nine rural communities selected to receive a Hardworking Rural Community Award.

"Innovative community spirit, sound leadership, unrivaled dedication and hard work are having an impact on the future of rural Texas," Commissioner Staples said. "The Hardworking Rural Community Awards provide excellent examples of what happens when people work together toward a common vision of making their community a better place."

Launched in 2003, TDA's Hardworking Rural Community Program markets and promotes rural Texas while raising public awareness of all that rural Texas has to offer. The awards spotlight rural Texas communities' efforts to boost tourism, job growth, leadership mentoring, community development and other economic opportunities.

Bronte's achievements include the Texas Midwest Guide that provides valuable information to potential visitors; the construction of a Dollar General Store that will provide sales tax dollars to the city and create 10 new jobs; and a partnership with the 4B Economic Development Cooperation to implement a new business loan program for community businesses.

The rural communities recognized this year will receive grants that can be applied to future tourism, economic development or community development efforts. In addition, winning communities will be featured on the GO TEXAN Hardworking Rural Community Web page under the Members Corner at <http://www.gotexan.org/>.

The eight other finalists that will each receive a $1,500 grant are Brady, Crosbyton, Gun Barrel City, Hico, Navasota, Nocona, South Padre Island and Zapata County.

The GO TEXAN Rural Community Program creates a single rallying call for rural Texas, educating the public about all rural Texas has to offer and encouraging rural communities to share and promote successful ideas. Membership is free and open to qualifying rural communities, rural businesses and other organizations devoted to the success of rural Texas.

Census Bureau seeking applicants

The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting and testing motivated individuals to work in local communities across the state of Texas for the 2010 Census. These temporary positions offer paid training, mileage reimbursement, and a flexible work schedule up to 40 hours per week. Pay is based on position and location. Peak hiring will take place in May but applicants may be offered positions as early as January. Testing for these positions is taking place now! Testing information is available at 866-861-2010. The Census Bureau hires locally, so new hires will work where they live.

"We are committed to our goal of recruiting individuals from every neighborhood," says Gabriel Sanchez, the Census Bureau's Regional Director for the Dallas Region, which is comprised of Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. "The decennial census is mandated at a national level, but cannot be successful without the help and support from the community."

Census Day is April 1, 2010, and the Census Bureau's Dallas Region has commenced operations to ensure that every person is counted in the 2010 Census. A total of 38 Local Census Offices are operating across Texas. Based on the workload, these offices will need to recruit and employ approximately 84,000 workers during peak 2010 Census operations throughout the state.

The Coke County Library is providing testing space for the 2010 Census job program. Testing dates include Thursday, January 28, at 6 pm. Interviews and testing will both be held at this time.

Community Grant! The City of Bronte was honored with a Hardworking Rural Community Award by the Texas Department of Agriculture on Thursday, January 14. Also, Saturday, February 6, at 10 am, the Library will be opened for Census 2010 personnel for interviews and testing; the date of Thursday, February 11, at 10 am has been set as a date for testing as well.

To apply for employment, applicants should call 866-861-2010 to schedule a 30-minute employment test which will include basic math, reading and organization skills. Applicants may visit 2010censusjobs.gov to find a sample test.

Service

J. W. Service, Jr., a fifth generation Texas farmer and rancher, went to be with His Lord and Savior Friday, January 15, 2010, at the Robert Lee Nursing Home after a lengthy illness. J. W. was born October 16, 1927, the oldest child of John Warren and Lelia Ruth Service of Robert Lee and the Graham Valley Community of Texas.

When J. W. found and raised a kit of baby pigeons, his friends affectionately started calling him "Squab", a nickname that stuck the remainder of his life. Squab grew up in the hills of Graham Valley near Sanco, Texas. He graduated from Robert Lee High School in January 1946 after staying additional time so that he could play his favorite game which was football. After graduation Squab joined the Air Force and served at several bases including Scott Field Air Force Base in Illinois, Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo, and Camp Kilmer in New Jersey. He was trained and held all qualifications as a radio operator. He was awarded the World War II Victory Medal.

J. W. married his high school sweetheart, Ida Belle Eaton, on August 10, 1948. They started their lives together after eloping to Maverick, Texas. They were married by Pastor Fred Blake, the minister of the Robert Lee Baptist Church.

J. W. worked 34 1/2 years as a roustabout pumper for Sun Oil Company until his retirement. He also served on the Coke County Water Board, the Robert Lee School board, and served as President of the school board for a number of years.

J. W. was a loving father, brother, adored grandfather and great-grandfather. He was known for his quick wit and easy smile. He never met a stranger and loved to tease his children and grandchildren. The family has many fond memories of vacations and get-togethers at their home.

J. W. will be missed by all he touched, and we sincerely appreciate his shining example of a godly man.

He is survived by Ida Belle, his loving wife of 61 years; one brother, Butch, and his wife Betty Service of San Angelo, his daughter Kathy and her husband, Joe Brasher of San Angelo, his son, Johnny H. and his wife, Sheila of Higgins, Texas, his son Jay Lyn and his wife Celeste of Robert Lee, his daughter, Konny and her husband, Robert Drennan of Arlington, Texas, his daughter Kaylan and her husband Rod Gardner of Menard, eleven grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Visitation was all day Sunday, January 17, 2010, at the funeral home with the family present from 6 pm until 8 pm. Funeral services were at 2 pm, Monday, January 18, 2010, at the Robert Lee Baptist Church, officiated by long time family friend Dr. Byron Orand, with burial to follow at the Robert Lee Cemetery. Services were under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home.

The family requests that memorials be made to a charity of your choice.

She graduated from Stephenville High School, San Angelo College, and was a 1948 graduate of the Shannon School of Nursing in San Angelo, Texas. She married Richard (Dick) Wylie in Stephenville on July 2, 1948. They recently celebrated their 61st Wedding Anniversary.

As a RN, she worked in a pediatrician's office and Shannon Hospital, both in San Angelo and later for a doctor and then a dentist in League City, Texas. She also participated in a 30-year Nurses' Health Study for the Harvard Medical School Health Study from 1976-2006, which aided in furthering the knowledge of women's health issues.

The Wylie's lived in San Angelo, Hobbs, New Mexico, League City, Brownwood and Bryan. They recently moved to Gilmer to be closer to their children.

Mrs. Wylie was a long-time member of the Baptist Church, currently a member of Central Baptist Church in Bryan, Texas. She was a member of the Daughter's of the American Revolution (DAR) since 1985.

The January edition of the ACT Parent Newsletter is now available online. ACT's free monthly publication helps parents as they guide their children to succeed in middle school and high school.

The new year is an ideal time to make resolutions, including setting academic goals. Parents should encourage their children to take the most rigorous classes available in school. The tougher the classes, the more prepared students will be for college and the workforce.

In this month's edition, parents of juniors will learn 12 strategies to help their student prepare for life after high school. The newsletter contains links to useful websites where students can explore possible majors and occupations.

The January edition also discusses how to combat "senioritis" and offers tips to keep seniors motivated during the last semester of high school. Even after students are accepted to college, colleges still expect them to continue earning good grades.

Parents may read ACT Parent online or subscribe for monthly email delivery.

Avoiding deceptive "opt-out" online scams

By Jason Alderman

Proverbs survive because of their universality. Take the adage, "One bad apple spoils the barrel"? It teaches us that good people (or good businesses) can be tainted by association with those whose actions are perceived as unscrupulous, even if they themselves don't employ the same deceitful tactics.

Here's an example: Because a very small number of e-commerce merchants have abused a practice called "negative renewal option billing" consumer confidence in the trustworthiness of all online retailers is being undermined. According to a recent Visa Inc. survey, 29 percent of Americans believe they've been victimized by this practice. The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) concurs, noting that approximately 3.2 million Americans reported these or similar types of unauthorized charges in 2007.

In a nutshell, negative option billing is where customers are required to opt out of recurring charges for future products or services, often by being instructed to unclick a pre-checked "terms and conditions" or "payment authorization" box. This clause is usually buried in the fine print most people don't bother to read.

So how are people lured in? It may be as simple as signing up for a free trial or sample of a product or service, not realizing that you've actually agreeing to be billed monthly for future shipments or charges if you don't proactively cancel the service at the end of the trial period. Canceling itself can be an ordeal, since some merchants have notoriously slow or unresponsive customer service (endless holds, no toll-free service number, hiding or omitting opt-out information, difficult return policies, etc.).

... "Opt-out" Scams

The problem has grown in recent months, thanks to deceptive merchants taking advantage of lower advertising costs to reach broader audiences. Visa, which monitors the merchant payment system, found that merchants using deceptive marketing practices have up to 20 times as many consumer disputes as average e-commerce merchants.

In response the FTC, the Better Business Bureau and Visa have joined forces to educate the public about negative option marketing and how to avoid being victimized. Among the steps they recommend are:

- Read and understand all terms and conditions (the fine print) before completing any transaction.

You would've been 48 today,
 But God had other plans for you.
 He needed a great hunter and fisherman,
 So he picked you.
 I'm sure that hunting and fishing is excellent in heaven, for everything there is perfect and right.
 I keep asking God to bless me and help me keep my faith, for with God and you on my side I will be okay.
 I love you and miss you, Irma

- Pay particular attention to any pre-clicked boxes before submitting your payment card information.

- Always review your monthly credit and debit card statements to spot any unauthorized charges.

If you're being victimized by unauthorized recurring charges or inadvertently signed up for them, first try to resolve the situation with the merchant. Look for cancellation instructions on their website or call customer service.

If they can't or won't resolve the problem, contact the financial institution that issues your card and dispute the charges. As part of your cardholder agreement, they will advocate on your behalf with the merchant's bank.

Also report the problem to the Better Business Bureau ideally, with the local chapter where the merchant is headquartered. And finally, report abusive marketing practices to the FTC's complaint assistance center at www.ftc.gov/complaint.

To learn more about protecting yourself from e-commerce scams, visit Visa's dedicated web page at www.visa.com/dmp.

God Reveals Himself to the Righteous

Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; for some do not have the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. • I Corinthians 15:14

The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him; and He will show them His covenant. • Psalms 25:14

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed. He made known His way unto Moses, His acts unto the children of Israel. • Psalms 103:6-7

The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. His work is honourable and glorious: And His righteousness endureth forever. He hath made His wonderful works to be remembered: The Lord is gracious and full of compassion. He hath given meat unto them that fear (reverence) Him: He will ever be mindful of His covenant. He hath shown His people the power of His works, that He may give them the heritage of the heathen. • Psalms 111:2-6

Political Profiles

Mary Grim

I am a candidate for reelection to the office of County/District Clerk. I have worked 14 years for the County. Ten years of this time I have served as the County/District Clerk. I have lived in Coke County for 35 years.

I was born in San Angelo and grew up attending schools there. I graduated from Lake View High School. I have two children, Sheri Hood of Henrietta and Steve Ebenstein of Greenwood. They both attended Robert Lee ISD. I have seven grandchildren, Deisa, Sterlin, Denver, Kambree, Darbey, Slade and Sawyer. I am a member of Robert Lee Baptist Church.

After graduation, I began working at West Side National Bank as a bookkeeper, taking some banking courses. I have also worked at North Park National Bank in Dallas, where I was over the collections department. I also worked 14 years at Coke County Pharmacy. Before going to work for the County as a deputy clerk, I worked at Texas State Bank in San Angelo.

I was active in school activities such as Band Boosters, Sports Club, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. I worked as a teacher and director of the primary department at the Baptist Church for seven years. I served 12 years on the Robert Lee ISD School Board. While on the board, I served as President, Vice-President and Secretary. I have served on the Coke County Child Welfare Board and presently serve on the Coke County Library Board.

I enjoy working around the house but spending time with my grandchildren is what I really enjoy most, "they are the light of my life".

I have enjoyed serving the people of Coke County as your County/District Clerk for the last 11 years. I am still learning about County government and continue to see many changes. With legislation changing from year to year, I promise to get my continuing education so I can provide the best service possible in the most effective way.

The Clerk's office has an open door policy and my goal remains the same, to continue the great service you have received from this office in the most cost effective way. Courtesy and efficiency are the main requirements of this office. If you haven't had to chance to visit the clerk's office to see what we do, I would like to take the opportunity to invite you to visit us. We would be glad to give you a tour and explain our job as the records keeper of the County.

I would sincerely appreciate your vote and support for the office of County/District Clerk on March 2.

Most ID Theft Low-Tech

Identity theft claimed more than 10 million victims in the U.S. in 2008, according to the Better Business Bureau.

Of the cases where consumers knew how their identity was compromised, stolen wallets and physical documents accounted for 43 percent of all identity theft, while online methods accounted for only 11 percent. "Consumers must remain vigilant and continue adhering to the adage, 'trust, but verify,' when it comes to providing personal information," says Steve Cox of the Council of Better Business Bureaus. For information about how to protect your identity, visit www.ProtectYourIDNow.org.

Scareware Attacks On The Rise

Computer experts are reporting that scareware -- yet another sneaky technique used by hackers to steal personal information and spread viruses online -- is on the rise. Recently, companies like Google, Twitter and the New York Times have been exploited by hackers as part of scareware attacks on consumers.

The Better Business Bureau offers the following advice for protecting yourself from attack: never let your guard down, as these attacks can happen on trusted sites; protect your computer with the latest software updates and antivirus software; and take immediate action during an attack, such as forcing the window to close through your task manager.

The Alderman Cave Top Hand Award for this year's county livestock show was presented to Cody Brosh.
