Local testing offered to Census applicants

The 2010 Census Bureau almanacs, newspapers, history books, and public records. Head counts are often taken - at ball games, in classrooms, on bus trips, at tourist sites - no personal information is needed, just the numbers are important. Rural areas hoping for more representation and a cut of the federal funds are especially needed in the count.

None of the information, other than the numbers given in the count, will be released for 70 years. The Census Bureau and the National Archives release household names some 70 years after a census has been taken. The 1940's census has just recently been released.

No personal information can be given to any law enforcement or other state or federal agencies. Prosecution for giving out information is heavy and violations are made public - unlike the information some credit card companies, catalog companies, Internet businesses, or Cold, Snowy & Wet! Wet and cold seem to be the name of the game this winter as Coke County received from two to three inches of rainfall (including ice and snow) last Thursday and Friday. El Nino is nowhere near through (we hope) as another system dumped up to an inch of rainfall Wednesday morning (February 3) just as we go to press with this issue. There are additional rainfall possibilities for this weekend.

magazine sweepstakes companies are sharing.

The numbers released are also used to determine the location of retail stores, schools, hospitals, new housing developments and other community buildings and offices.

Daddy Daughter Date Night! The event was held Saturday, January 30, at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Hall in Robert Lee.

Daddy Daughter Date Night held

"Denim and Diamonds" Daddy Daughter Date Night was held Saturday, January 30, 2010, at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Hall with 76 people attending. Beginning at 6 pm, the hall began to fill up with young girls dressed to the nines and on the arms of their much taller dates. The Hall was decorated with red tablecloths and white cowboy boots filled with a bluebonnet floral arrangement, along with western confetti on the tables. White lights, white cowboy boots and diamonds decorated the food table. The photos were taken in front of the decorated gazebo which had red and white tulle with faux barb-wire and a saddle.

Besides the light appetizers and dancing, there were opportunities to win door prizes and for each young lady to have their photo taken with their date. Door prize winners were: Braylee Hood, Joe Roe, Justice Saucedo, Michael Munoz, Chelsea Wyatt, CR Tijerina, Aimee Zimmerman, Aaron Hood, Jeremy Burns, Madison Wright, Ed Zimmerman, Kelby Clawson, Bailey Smith, Zoe Tijerina, Joey Rhodes, McKenzie Bachmann, Haylee Padgett, Jim Grantham, Jayce Bower and Ronnie Clawson.

Natalie Clawson, Katie Drennan, Tracy Grantham and Angie Wright were the organizers for the event. The organizers were hoping to make it a fun and memorable evening to the girls and their dates without having to travel to San Angelo. The organizers would like for this to become an annual event with young girls from Robert Lee and Bronte. With having numerous inquiries about a mother/son date night, they are hoping to have one next year.

Assisting with the event were Twisters Restaurant, Rangel's Restaurant, Farm Bureau, Massey Hardware Store, Megan's Massage Therapy, Chili's Restaurant, Super H Foods, DJ's Merle Norman, David Sheldon and Kelly Millican for helping us make this a successful event.
