I want to thank the Seminole NEWS for the kind things said about me under the picture and the nice picture in the NEWS. Kind things so often said, and makes our old folks glad even though they are not what our life is in our hearts.

Saturday night a few of the neighbors dropped in and had a lovely visit with each other at Mr. and Mrs. L.V. Castleberry's. We all decided to enjoy the 4th out at the park, We

CONTROL OF HOUSEHOLD FLIES

Warm sunny weather is enjoyable. Unfortunately, it is also the time when most of our six-legged enemies thrive, points out Calvin Holcomb, County Agricultural Agent.

Houseflies constitute the most common insect problem of all. Besides being annoying to man and animals, houseflies may serve as carriers of such dreaded diseases as polio, typhoid fever, tuberculosis, dysentery and others.

Holcomb adds that other species of flies occur around the farm but houseflies are the chief species that invade buildings and homes. They breed in decaying organic matter and feed indiscriminately on manure, garbage and even the food on our tables.

Indeed, they contaminate everything they touch, states Holcomb. It is little wonder they are called the filthiest of all insect pests. A fly-free premise is not easy to achieve because constant attention is required, and several methods of control must be utilized, the agent says.

Sanitation is always the first step in control, emphasizes Holcomb. Accumulations of garbage or manure or droppings of pets and certain kinds of food should be avoided since all serve as breeding areas for flies. Fly breeding is almost sure to occur if the media is damp or moist, he explains.

Screens can keep flies outside the home. They should be checked regularly to make sure they are properly fitted and in good repair.

Insecticides have a place in fly control, but the results will not be satisfactory unless the sanitary and mechanical measures are carried out, Holcomb explains.

Residual sprays of 1 percent dimethoate (Cygon), diazinon, ronnel (Korlan) or malathion may be used on the walls of farm buildings. When properly applied, the sprays will kill the flies that rest on the surface of the walls.

Baits containing sugar plus an insecticide is a convenient way to supplement housefly control. Baits often give spectacular initial kill, but poor kill later, adds

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Foote,

Thank you so much for the nice newspaper article you wrote about us. You have made us feel very welcome here in Seminole.

Although we've only been in Seminole a short while, we have already begun to like it a great deal.

Thank you again, Mr. Foote, for your thoughtfulness in welcoming us to Seminole.

Holcomb. Regular reapplication will correct this.

It is also important to use residual sprays along with a bait program. Diazinon, dichlorvos (Vapona or DDVP), naled (Dibrom), ronnel (Korlan) and trichlorfon (Dipterex) may be used in the bait mixed at home or in a commercially prepared mixture which may be purchased.

Space sprays may be used for fly control in the home. Use only synergized pyrethrums or dichlorvos (DDVP) for this purpose. Be sure the label says this spray is for flying insects, Holcomb adds.

For additional information, check with our office and pick up a copy of the Texas Guide for Controlling Household Insects, suggests Holcomb.

Q & A

(Q) I have noticed several dull spots here and there on my paintings that I have finished. What can I do about these spots?

(A) The reason that you have spots in your paintings is because you are using too much turpentine. They will disappear when you put on a final coat of varnish.

(Q) I use the colors just as they come from the tube, without anything mixed with them. I have been told that they would crack with age. Is this true?

(A) Most mediums are mixed in tubes of oil (such as Resins, oils, and turpentine). The pictures will not crack with age, unless you have the pictures painted in thick continuous layers like cake icing.

Joe and Edna McKinney returned late Friday afternoon from a two week vacation in Bayfield, Colorado. They had lived in Bayfield five years, from 1948 to 1953.

They visited old friends and helped with a vacation Bible school. They did some fishing while there, also.

The McKinneys reported that the weather was cool and the mountain scenery was beautiful.

CITIZENS ASK TO ASSIST OFFICIALS IN CONTROL OF MOSQUITOES AND FLIES

State Sanitarian, Kyle Adams, expressed yesterday his thanks to the City of Seminole for spraying in the effort to control mosquitoes and flies.

Adams states the breeding places of mosquitoes have increased since the heavy rains.

The official urges all standing water in old can tires, etc., and to spray shrubbery around the house with an aerosol or hand spray. Also every one with pets or live stock are urged to clean pens and spray them to help control flies.

According to Mayor Wright, the City of Seminole is making a sincere effort to control the flies and mosquitoes caused by the heavy rain. The city appreciated and welcomes the cooperation of its citizens in telling us where we need to spray. The city will spray the location as soon as possible.

The Reverend Edmund W. Robb has been a Methodist minister for more than 20 years. Following a very successful pastorate in Midland, Texas, he was appointed a full-time evangelist in June, 1966. He has organized the Ed Robb Evangelistic Association with headquarters in Abilene, Texas.

The corporation has a 32-member board of directors headed by Methodist lay leader and oilman, C.W. Brown of McCamey. Joining the evangelistic team are Gene Moore, Methodist minister and singer, and his wife, Bobbie, a vocalist and pianist.

Before coming to Midland in 1962, Mr. Robb held pastorates in Marshall, Hamlin and Amarillo. In addition he has conducted more than 100 revivals and preaching missions in the last 15 years while serving as a pastor.

During his four years at St. Paul Methodist in Midland, the church grew from a membership of 616 to 1170, making it one of the fastest growing churches in the Northwest Texas Conference. During that period, 830 persons were received into the membership of St. Paul.

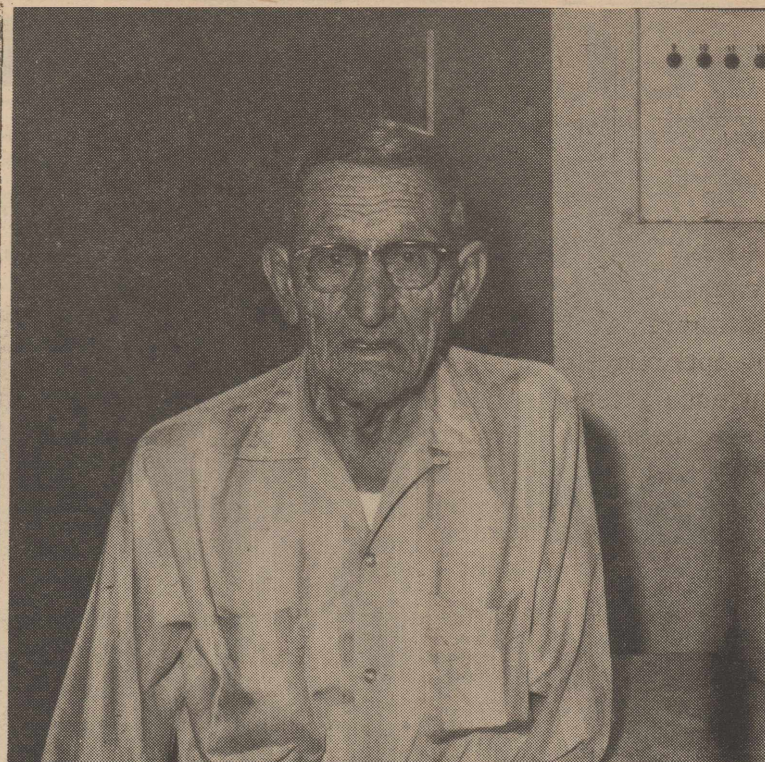

Mr. Robb was chairman of the Conference Board of Evangelism during the last quadrenium. In 1965 he toured South American for the General Board of Evangelism, and attended the World Congress on Evangelism in West Berlin in November of 1966.

CANDY STRIPERS PRESENT GIFT TO MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Candy Strippers are a volunteer group of teenage girls who serve at Memorial Hospital. They are a devoted group and bring much pleasure to the patients. The girls are very efficient, and it is a real joy to know that these young ladies are such useful citizens to our community. This year the 24 Candy Strippers who do volunteer work, choose as their project, the furnishing of each hospital bed with a new blanket. They are shown presenting the 31 blankets to the Memorial Hospital personnel. Pictured above are, Left to Right: Erma Wallace, R.N. Day Supervisor; Ed Rodgers, Hospital Administrator; Debbie Love, Vice President; Lynn Emfinger; and Nancy Lammons, Secretary-Treasurer.

Family Reunion

Ira and Bonnie Cleveland, Ronnie and Debbie from Regina, Saskatchewan, arrived Tuesday for a weeks visit with his mother, Mrs. Gladys Clelland. Gladys' other children will also be here during the week to visit. They will be coming from Levelland, Lamesa, Lovington, New Mexico, and Denver City.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY KEITH DAVIS

Murphree - Davis wed July 8

Carol Ann Murphree became the bride of Larry Keith Davis on July 8 at 7:30 in the evening in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Wood, 106 S.W. 12th Street. Reverend Gene Hawkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murphree, 306 S.E. 3rd, and Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Davis of Snyder, Texas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress of white lace. It was princess style and featured long sleeves. Her jewelry was a pearl pendant which belonged to her sister, Mrs. Wood. She wore a traditional blue garter and coins with the birth year of the bride and groom. Her flowers were of white feather mums with satin streamers atop a satin covered Bible.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Thompson of Tatum, New Mexico, and Miss Dana Lynn Wood, the brides neice, was ring bearer. Mrs. Thompson wore a street length, princess styled, lace dress of yellow. Little Miss Wood wore an A-line dress of yellow dotted Swiss and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. The Matron of Honor's flowers were of white carnations and the ring bearer's were of yellow carnations.

The bride graduated from Seminole High in 1967. She was a member of F.T.A. and was on the annual staff. The groom attended school in Tatum, New Mexico.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The three-tiered wedding cake topped by a bridal couple and punch were served. The table was covered with white lace over yellow, featuring an arrangement of yellow flowers and white tapers; crystal appointments were used.

When the couple left on a wedding trip, she wore a knit suit of blue and white trimmed with Belgium lace. Her accessories were white and she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Snyder, Texas, where Mr. Davis is associated with the Ace Construction Company.

How of town guests include the brides sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Dushane and sons from Hobbs, New Mexico.

Bridal Shower

A bridal shower honoring Miss Carol Ann Murphree was held at the community building on Thursday, July 6 from 7 to 9 in the evening.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow satin. The brides choice colors of white and yellow were featured. An arrangement of yellow flower basket of white milk glass, flanked by white tapers centered the serving table.

Punch, with a lovely fruit ring, and iced cake squares were served by Mrs. B.F. Brummitt and Mrs. Raymond Patton. Yellow napkins with "Carol and Larry" inscribed in silver were used. Appointments were of milk glass. The bride wore a corsage made of kitchen gadgets.

Guest were registered by Miss Johnnie Kay Dodd. The register table was covered with a white cloth and was enhanced by an arrangement of Shasta daisies in milk glass.

Gifts were displayed on tables. At a vantage point among the gifts was a bride doll, made by Mrs. Kenneth Henson. The bride was dressed in traditional fashion, complete with a flowing veil.

The hostesses gift was stainless steel cook ware. Hostesses were: Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Henson, Mrs. Leon Ragsdale, Mrs. W.H. Griffith, Miss Sharon Allen, Mrs. Brummitt, Mrs. Hub Bryan, and Miss Dodd.

Approximately 30 guests attended.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear News,

I have appreciated the Seminole News in more ways than can be mentioned. I know the school personnel, city government officials, and churches are equally proud of what you are doing. The Chubbs really love Seminole---their people and their schools. As a former teacher, I can assure you that the teachers, coaches, and administrators there are second to none. In no other area can you find people that are more dedicated than those you will find in Seminole School System. This is one of the main reasons that Seminole is an ideal place in which to live and bring up a family.

In the ten years that I was privileged to be with the school system I was able to watch the school as a parent, teacher, and coach. I will never be able to say enough for the wonderful teachers that my children had during their tenure. And as a teacher and coach, I will never work with nor for any finer people than I have in Seminole.

Them Seminole News is very informative---surely makes it easy for us to keep up with all of our friends. I sincerely want to thank Mr. Walter Woods and Mr. Leon Foote. People appreciate what you are doing, more than you will ever realize. Here's wishing you continued success.

Sincerely,
Jack Chubb

LETTER HOME FROM THE TRAVELING FOLK OF SEMINOLE

July 3, 1967

Today, twenty-six years ago, we changed the name of Frances Marie Smith to Mrs. Walter L. Woods and it has been a wonderful arrangement. We promised one-another that nothing would come between us but something did. A little girl came to live at our house just one year later, less four days. As the years passed, we got further apart at the table and closer together at heart. As the four fledglings begin to leave the nest, this time of the year becomes dearer and dearer. Hawaii is a wonderful place to spend another honeymoon. WW

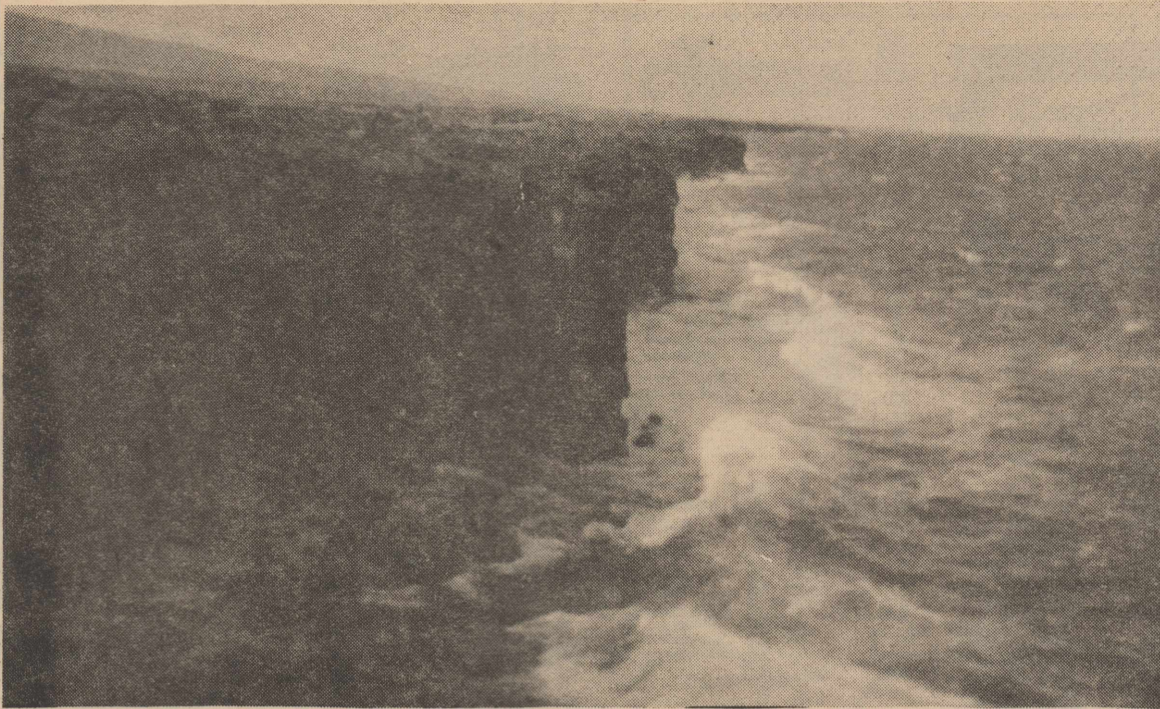

ROCKS & STONES

Dr. Sood, in whose house we live, said as he was boarding the plane. "I could not get a yard man". I said, "Forget it, I will take care of the yard, I will water it, and I will mow it". He said "Nature will take care of the water; you can not mow because of the stones, you know, the stones. The stones are bad." With that he bid us goodbye.

After a few days of seeing rock fences, rock buildings, black pumice blocks, highways out of stones, rock gardens, trinkets out of rock, rock mountains, and trying to mow the back yard -- the Good Doctor's words have a much greater meaning. THIS WHOLE ISLAND IS ROCK OR LAVA STONE. When someone on the island of Hawaii tells you their house is built upon a rock, you just better believe them.

I will never understand amidst all these rocks how everything grows, how green everything is, how good the fruit, and how beautiful the flowers. My Hawaiian Map shows a lot of the flows of the Lava rock; the flow of 1959, 1955, 1750, 1881, 1935, 1843, 1919, 1950, 1926, 1851, 1907, and 1840. We did not visit the prison system because I thought of all that pile of rock they had to work on. Mauna Kea has built a mountain of 13,796 feet, and Mauna Loa one of 13,680. Add to that the depth of the sea and you can see some STONE. Joe McKinney once said of our home county of Gaines, "There are not enough rocks, in most of the county, to get mad at a cow". Joe, you could have a big herd here. This rock we're on is 93 miles long and 76 miles wide at its longest points. From the ocean floor to the top of the mountains of rock is 31,000 feet. In one of the flows, 500 acres of land was added to this island. Just as surely as God can add one acre or 500 of them just as surely He can remove them. WW

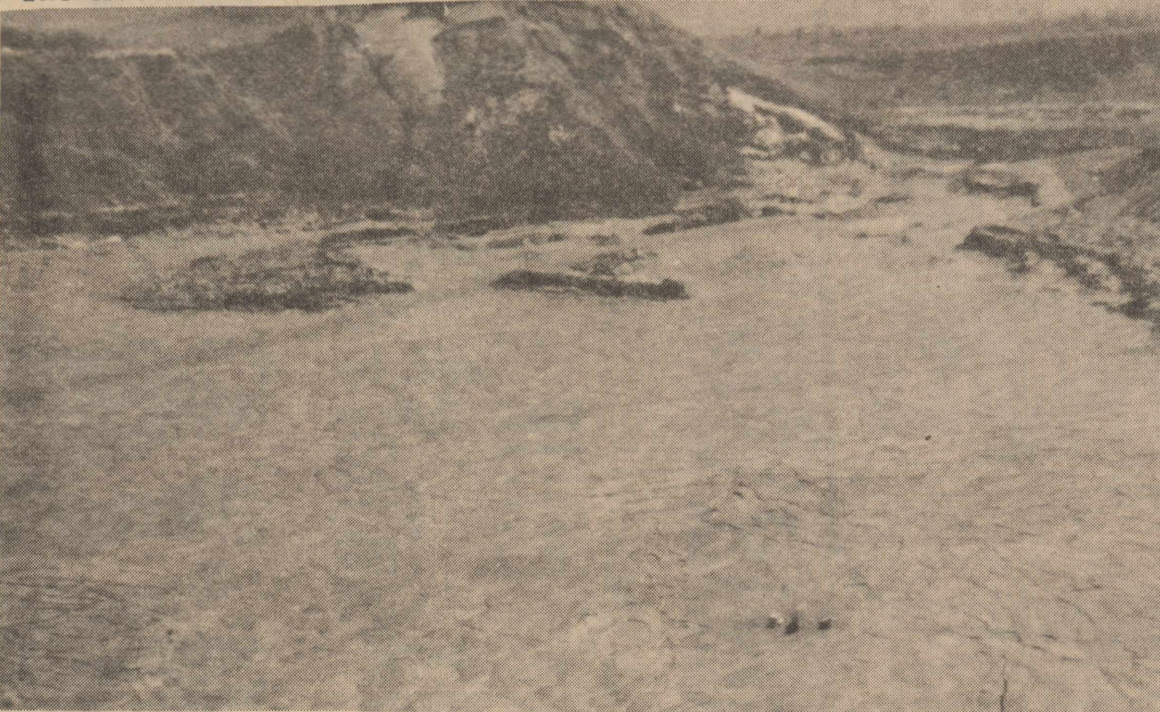

Devastation area covered over 100 acres outside the crater. Cinders here in this picture are 20 feet deep. Some of the trees burned off under the top area. (After the top cooled and toppled over.) Notice the mountain of cinders in the background.

Lava flow into the sea--cliffs are 40-50 feet high. All rocks are black.

The crater still smokes and steams in places. The depth is 400 feet.

It is 11.1 miles around this crater, 4 across, it shot 1900 ft. in the air when it was making new rock. Notice the Seismograph station out in the middle.

The Peach Queen of Texas, Miss Nila Norton, is shown with Floyd Oliver, one of the owners of the Oliver Orchard in West Gaines County.

Peach Story

The peach story is still and we hope will continue to be 'news' in Gaines County for years to come. We hope the story gets bigger and better! The boost to the economy and the publicity received statewide because of our 'peachy' crop of girls and two state queens in two years, is wonderful.

The largest producing peach orchard in Gaines county is the Oliver Orchard in far west Gaines. It was formerly the Boyd Orchard. June, 1966, it was purchased by Floyd and Layton Oliver, from Wright G. Boyd. There are 8,000 trees on 225 acres. As in other orchards in the county there are several varieties, including, Dixie Reds (cling), and Rangers. The Red Globes are ready now and the Red Skins will be ready around the first of August.

The processing at the Oliver Orchard is done by customers, who wish to select their own fruit. They also have peaches that are already gathered for those who prefer this service. Out-of-town consumers have come from Plainview, Midland, Lubbock, Clovis, Abilene, Big Spring, Lamesa, etc. Mr. Clyde Cowan is at the orchard each day.

Handling the sales of the Oliver orchard is Richard Jones of 406 S.W. 17th. Richard is the operator of the Wolfe Nursery. The Wolfe Nursery has 855 acres and 41,040 trees. These trees will begin producing next year and will be in full production in five years. The Wolfe orchard is in west Gaines, as are the Moore-Freeman, the George Norman, and other orchards.

The abundant water helps in making western Gaines County an ideal location for quality, and quantity production of peaches.

Floyd and Layton Oliver are brothers, and both reside in Dawson County. The Oliver orchard is located 20 miles, west, on the Hobbs Highway, five north (on pavement) and two west.

Board Meets

SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board held a public hearing Thursday. About 12 oil tax representatives were present at the meeting.

Superintendent, James Bramlett, discussed salary changes and how they affected the budget. He also discussed estimated revenue and expenditures for the 1967-68 school year.

Appreciation was expressed to the Board of Trustees by several of the oil tax representatives.

The Board was commended on their concern about the increased cost in education and the tax men requested the Board's continued support for excellent education at a minimum cost.

At a Monday night meeting, the Board accepted the budget for adoption and serve the local rate for $2.08 per $100 assessed evaluation (interested in sinking 39¢--local maintenance, $1.69).

The resignations of Mr. Billy D. Manhart and Mrs. Bessie McNab were accepted. Mr. Manhart will be moving to Bonham, where he will be an elementary principal. Mrs. McNab is moving to Lubbock to teach in the schools there.

In other actions, the Board employed the following: Mrs. Lorita Ann McCreary, to teach first grade; Mrs. Marilyn Gail Hicks and Mrs. Carol Sue Lewis, both 6th grade teachers. Lions Club

Dr. E. M. Wright was one of the speakers at the Noon Day Lion's Club on Tuesday. He gave an interesting and informative report on the International Lion's Convention in Chicago, which he attended. The theme for the 1967-68 program is "World Peace Through Lionism". 133 countries were represented.

A highlight of the Convention was a speech by Secretary of State, Dean Rusk. His topic was "Peace and the Vietnam War."

In the Lion's parade, the 6 flags over Texas led the Texas Lions'. Dr. Wright carried the Spanish Flag and Henry Hicks carried the French Flag.

Dr. Wright met a conventioner from India. He was very interesting and inspiring. He told that he was allowed only one visit outside his country in a life time. He choose to come to the Lion's Convention. He travelled 15,000 miles one way. The Wright's travelled 2,700 miles round trip.

21 blind children who attend Blind School in the state of Washington, were at the Convention. Several of the children performed. A most outstanding performance was given by a 10 year old boy, blind since birth. He played and sang the "Ole' Piano Roll Blues." The crowd of 50,000 was filled with emotion.

In one of the speeches Helen Keller was quoted as having said "she was thankful for being blind --for through her handicap she found God". It was Helen Keller's suggestion that the

WINDJAMMERS TO APPEAR JULY 18, AT TOWER THEATER

Abilene's most famous musical export, the Windjammers of Mc Murry College, make their Seminole debut in a concert at 8 p.m. July 18, in the Tower Theatre. The Seminole concert is being sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Well over a million persons have seen the Windjammers in scores of personal appearances and concerts in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma since the formation of the group on the Mc Murry campus about three and a half years ago. Hundreds of thousands more were introduced to the talented threesome by way of the state-wide telecast of "Talent '65," shown in 1966, and "Talent '66," which was first telecast in January of this year and repeated in the spring due to popular demand.

Although the Windjammers have been building a solid reputation in Texas for a long while, only recently have they begun to attract the attention and interest of the national music business people. Two semi-successful records probably provoked some initial interest, but their heavy schedule of campus concerts this past year has probably done most to stimulate national interest in the Windjammers.

Several weeks ago one of the entertainment world's most pretigious magazines predicted editorially that the Windjammers would be entering soon 'the magic circle of musical stardom'.

As important as anything else so far in the Windjammers infant career were the two consecutive summer stints at Six Flags Over Texas where they sang for about half a million fun-seekers.

Attempts to categorize the Windjammers are usually doomed to failure. The Windjammer concert program is a lesson in musical variety and good humor. Their repertoire includes a sampling from most every area of popular music.

By name, the Windjammers are Clark Walter of Roswell, New Mexico, bassist and tenor; Pat Hamilton, bariton and one-man-orchestra; and Jerrel Elliott of Brownwood, guitarist, woodwinds section and electronics technician.

Sara's Stories

by SARA JANE SMITH*

THE CLOCKS

Once there was a clock that didn't know how to tell time. I don't think any one ever heard of that. The people who owned it were all mixed up because they didn't have another one. One day they bought a grandfather clock. It was so old that it ran backwards. So the people bought a watch. But the watch lost its hands. So the people just gave up.

The End of Sara's Story.

*Sara Jane Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith. Sara is 8 years old. We will be sharing her stories with you. (With spelling, punctuation, etc. intact).
