Sales Tax AGAINST

FOR APPROVED AND CONTRIBUTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL

Is the sales tax needed?

The City of Seminole needs substantially increased revenues for improving and strengthening services.

The City has a tremendous investment in paving. The streets need and have needed seal coating for sometime -- without the needed repairs the Citizens of Seminole could lose many blocks of paving.

The City Water Field needs repairs. Most of the pumps and motors need over-hauling. Water is the City's life line -- without water there would be no Seminole.

The Sanitation or Trash Hauling Department is spending money on old, worn-out equipment that should have been replaced long before now. This is needed to enable the City to best serve the needs of the people.

The cost of materials and labor for extensions have increased and is continuing to increase; therefore the over-all increases in prices of material and labor for all departments have forced the cost of the City's operations to go up.

The City tax rate has not been changed since 1964. The cost of water meters have increased from approximately $22.40 to $36.20. Brass and copper goods have increased almost 40% since 1960.

What items are subject to the 1% Municipal sales tax?

The 1% sales tax is applicable only to those sales now taxed under the State Sales and Use Tax Act.

Q. Who can vote on the 1% local sales tax?

A. Any registered voter in the City.

Q. Why should a resident property owner favor this kind of tax?

A. Proper police and fire protection will protect the property owner's investment in his home, and high quality streets, parks and other Municipal facilities provide a suitable environment in which to live. The money to support these services must be derived from some source, which has, to this time, been primarily property taxes. Con't Page 12

The Seminole News
Seminole, Texas

Dear Sir:

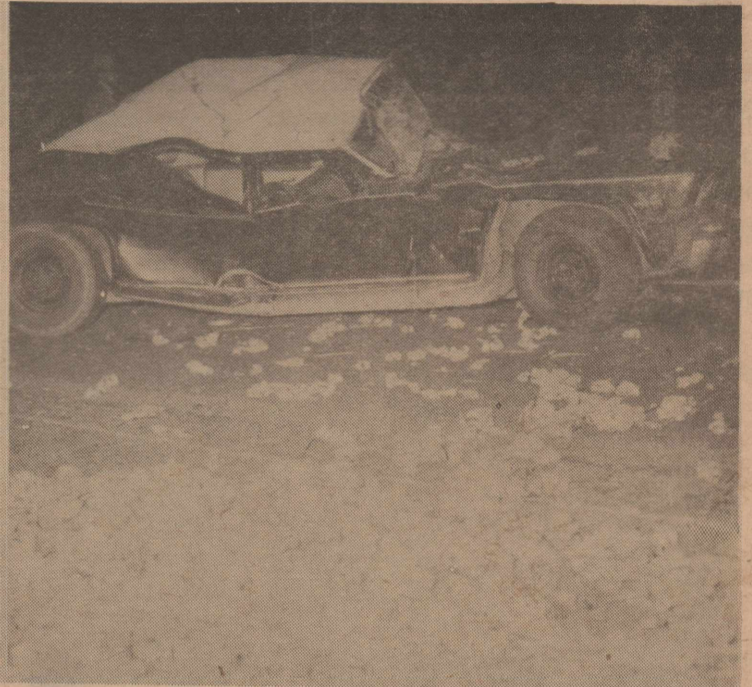

This is in regard to the city sales tax that is to be voted upon December 12. I would like to use this means of speaking out.

According to what I have read in the papers, this tax is to take care of rising costs in city water and trash collection, and also in city street repair. It does sound like a fair way to tax everyone since so many people are not property owners.

But--I do not live in the city. I trade in the city. Seminole is my town even though I live 4 miles from the city limits. Why should my family be taxed the extra one per cent in order for the city people to enjoy the comforts it will bring. By my paying the tax, will the city drive 4 miles to haul off my trash? I would gladly pay the fees they charge if they would.

I feel the rural people of Seminole have not been considered. Con't Page 12

COTTON TRAILER WRECK

Note the cotton in the foreground - See Picture-Sec II

At 6:40 p. m. Sunday, nine-tenths of a mile west of the city limits of Seminole a 1961 Chevrolet pick-up was hit from the rear by a 1965 Chevrolet car, owned by Flavio R. Coronado, Graybull, Wyoming.

Both vehicles were traveling west. The pick-up driven by Freddie Joe Vogler, 34, Route 4, Lamesa, Texas, was pulling two loaded cotton trailers to the Co-op Gin. The car was being driven by 21 year old Juan Soto Coronado, Mathis, Texas. The passenger in the car was 25 year old Frank M. Gonzales, S. W. 4th Street, Seminole, Texas.

The pick-up and trailers had their right wheels on the shoulder or the north side of the highway traveling west, when the car ran under the back trailer on the left hand side.

The car after coming up over the hill, traveling west skidded 194 feet to the point of impact. All vehicles stayed in the right hand lane.

Vogler did not sustain any injuries. The driver, Coronado, is in the local hospital reported to be in serious but not critical condition. The passenger in the car, Gonzales, is in critical condition.

(The harvest season is here. Everyone be careful)

A HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL!

The harvest time is underway. The farmers are rejoicing because of bountiful crops. It's a happy time of the year. Business people are anticipating a busy yuletide season. Families will be getting together. It's Thanksgiving!

In the pictures below, we see a scene which many will recall as a personal part of Pre-Thanksgiving and Christmas feasts. Few are left who dress that special bird, the turkey, for themselves.

C. C. Conner has killed and dressed 52 turkeys for Thanksgiving. In the picture he and Jerry Rowlett are shown as they cut the turkey's throat to bleed it real good.

The turkey is being scalded in an iron pot.

With hatchet in hand, he lobs off their heads and their legs. The other turkeys still have their feet on them. They will soon be ready for the pan.

This brings us near to Thanksgiving, we have so many blessings, if we would just stop and count them. We have health, pay our honest bills, and most of all, to have a God to love and trust, and a church and Sunday School to study with our brothers and sisters in love.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pence and daughter, Frances from Anson, Texas, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pence of Fairview. Mr. Bill Pence is Mr. S. A. Pence's brother. This was a nice visit for everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Castleberry of Florey, Texas, stayed at home Sunday, said hunters was thick on the road around them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pattie are both doing better this week. Saw them in Lamesa Saturday, but guess they had a pleasant week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Pattie from Dallas, Texas, also Cleo Pattie from Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Pattie from Muleshoe, Also Joe Pattie of Seminole and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Basham and children. They all had a wonderful time as well as a big dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Rice are doing pretty good. Mrs. Rice works most all time and Mr. Rice would like to Boss.

Mrs. Ethel Garland and son, Edward, got out Sunday evening and drove down the road, seen the crops, they went as far southeast as the McGuire Ranch and Farm. They reported nice change of scenery.

(I) Mrs. Opal Hughes went to Lamesa Friday and spent the night with my sister and brother-in-law and their grandson, Preston, also saw

BRANDING TIME IN GAINES COUNTY

From left to right, Dave Scott, Lee Wyatt, Albert
O'Neil, Maugie Turner, Bernie Elam, P. J. Stanley, Sr., James Stanley, Scott Doss, Frank Brittain, also sitting up against the corral fence is Cecil (Slats) Stanley.

Dave Scott, riding the black horse, Colie, roped the calves and brought them to the roping crew. He was world champion bulldogger. Cecil (Slats) Stanley probably opened the gate for them to bring the calves through or put them up. Lee Wyatt is holding the back legs of the calf in the foreground. "He was the best cowboy of the bunch," James Stanley said. Albert O'Neil is sitting on the forequarter of a calf with his boot on the neck. Notice the spur still on the boots. They are waiting for the brand-ers.

The calf in the foreground is being held on the head by Maugie Turner. James Stanley is holding the rear legs, Bernie Elam is running the knife, and P. J. Stanley, Sr., who was the manager of the ranch, is running one of the branding irons. On the far right is Frank Brittain running one iron and Scott Doss sitting atop another calf.

The Bar S Ranch was organized in 1920. It was owned by the Kings and was managed by P. J. Stanley, Sr., with James Stanley as foreman. This was their first branding.

Notice the shinnery (shinoak) in the foreground, also the bear grass. The corrals were new, materials being hauled from Lamesa, Texas. Headquarters was 6 1/2 miles southeast of Seminole, made up of thirty-five sections owned and ten lease sections. The ranch came up to the edge of Seminole.
The horse pasture was three sections.

There is a used spool of barbed wire hanging on the corral fence just this side of the windmill. That is a pigeon on top of the barn and to the left of the windmill. (We ate them in those days when they were young, and they were sure good.)

"All our cattle were white-faced. We picked these 600 cows out of a 1300 cow herd along with 75 bulls.
Our first calf drop was 575."

The wooden windmill was an eight-foot eclipse.
The tower was thirty-three feet high, and the little building just to the left of the mill was the milk house.
The water from the mill ran through the milk house cooling milk, butter, and other things, then into a concrete storage tank running over into an earthen tank.

There were two brands - - one with a Bar and the other with an S. Look at the calf in the foreground that has had the Bar put on it and is waiting for the letter. Nearly all the grass in that day was sage grass except on the hard ground or tideland.

"I rode Cotton, a white horse, for sixteen years.
Every year I would rope eight to ten half grown antelope on him. I was lucky enough to rope two grown antelope off him in that span of time when I would catch him in a circle. One day I rode into where they were branding about ten o'clock in the morning. (I had been sick.) There was a bunch of antelope in with the cattle, and they were scared.
We rode in and roped one and carried it to the cook wagon. It might have been half grown. We ate it in one meal."

Scott Doss was the owner of the car.

If anyone has ever followed a chuck wagon, smelled the burning of the hair, flanked a calf, or eaten with a bunch of hungry cowboys, it is not soon forgotten. The work was hard but most enjoyable.
(Thanks to Mrs. Raymond Golden and Mr. James Stanley.)

LINDA MARTIN PAUL DABBS
MARTIN, DABBS WIN
SEMINOLE FTA ATTENDS DISTRICT

Linda Martin and Paul Dabbs won the Mr. and Miss FTA contest at the district meet. They will represent this district at the State Convention in Dallas, February 23, 24.

Linda Martin and Paul Dabbs were chosen November 2 to represent Seminole High School at the district convention, and this began their trek to the competition at the district level.

Linda's winning speech centered around two ideas. The first point was that teachers must invest time, energy, research, money and themselves in order to find new methods of improving the student. Secondly, the student must invest time, effort, and research to accomplish new and better ways of studying to improve his mind.

Investment in the human heart, innovation of the mind, and improvement of the soul was the theme of Paul's speech. Paul concluded by saying, "It is for us (as teachers) to improve ourselves and those around us by adding depth to the souls of men."

Judging was based upon opening, appearance, posture, voice, gestures, eye contact, mannerisms, organization, delivery, sincerity, audience reaction and conclusion.

Seminole High School's Cleo Price Chapter of the Future Teachers of America took twenty-nine members to the district convention in Big Spring held Saturday, November 18.

The opening session was held from 8:30 to 10:00. Highlight of the session was keynote speaker Leo Gee, a Big Spring pastor.

Concluding the workshops, meetings, and elections, the site for next year's convention was discussed, and Seminole was chosen.

Den Four and their den mother, Peggy Stephenson, had charge of the closing program. Refreshments were served to the boys, their parents, and guests.

Mrs. Chester Roberson, Mrs. Jimmy Markham, Mrs. A. Ray Russell, Mrs. Louise Jones of Midland, Mrs. Doyle Hankins, Mrs. Charles Gay and Mrs. Eddie Jameson are shown painting when Mrs. Jones met with the Llano Estacado Porcelain Art Club Saturday afternoon at the Seminole State Bank Room.

LLANO ESTACADO PORCELAIN ART CLUB HAS GUEST ARTIST

Mrs. Louise Jones of Midland was guest artist when members of Llano Estacado Porcelain Art Club met in the Seminole State Bank Room, Saturday, November 18, at 9:30 a. m. Hostesses for the all-day meeting were Mrs. C. V. Singleton and Mrs. Chester Roberson.

Mrs. Charles Gay, first vice-president, presided over a brief business meeting. Yearbooks were distributed and members are asked to be thinking of a theme for the club scrapbook. Members of the scrapbook committee were named: Mesdames P. A. Morgan, A. Ray Russell, Doyle Hankins and Charles Cope.

Mrs. Russell introduced the guest artist, Mrs. Jones, who began with the first verse in the Bible, "In the beginning God created." She said that she likes to take a piece of china and create.

Mrs. Jones said there are rules to go by, take time to understand your subject and practice a little each day. She said that she always tents a piece of china with ivory and fires it before beginning her design.

Mrs. Jones pointed out the three principles of design, small, medium and large. Also background, shadows, center of interest and medium of color-- light, medium and dark. She said to remember these and it will help to tie all in together.

For her demonstration she painted a grape plate. She also displayed many beautiful pieces of china etched in gold.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Cope, Mrs. Eddie Jameson, and Mrs. Johnie Gentry.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served during the morning to Mesdames Jones, Doyle Hankins, Charles Gay, P. A. Morgan, Dean Smith, Jimmie Markham, A. Ray Russell, Charles Cope, Eddie Jameson, Ina Lee, C. L. Robertson, Arnold Scharbauer of Midland, and her houseguest, a sister, Mrs. Johnie Gentry of Phoenix, Arizona.

The group had lunch at the Raymond Restaurant and returned for an afternoon workshop at the Seminole Room.

The next meeting will be held December 16, with Mrs. Esther Higgins, guest artist.

The really happy man is the one who can enjoy the scenery when he has to take a detour.

Jerry Roe instructing the Gold Band in Odessa Saturday.

The Junior High Gold Band competed in the University Interscholastic League in Barrett Stadium in Odessa, Saturday.

"They were the best they had been all year," said Mr. Roe, "but they fell down in their music some." They received a third division rating. There were 12 bands in this division. A third division rating would be average to good. This is only the second year that the Gold Band has entered and has changed their march from 8 steps to 5 yards to 6 steps in 5 yards in preparation for high school.

Every member of the Gold Band is in step. They did well in their marching.

Con't from P. 1 SALES TAX -AGAINST

Isn't farming the main industry in Seminole and Gaines County? Why should they support the rise in city costs?

Wouldn't a more fair way be to raise the costs of the water and trash collection? If people don't want to pay the extra costs, they can always haul off their own trash as we do.

If the city votes to accept the city tax, then I will no longer feel obligated to buy in Seminole. I will feel justified in going elsewhere to buy the things I need.

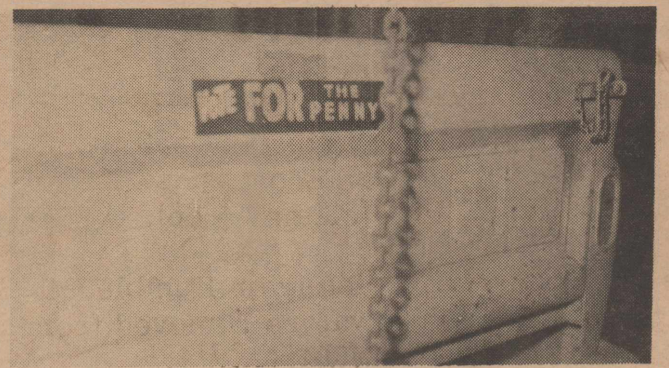

Thank you for giving me the opportunity of speaking my opinion.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Monte Paxton

Seminole, Texas

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING PLANNED BY AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

The American Cancer Society is sponsoring an organizational meeting at 7:30 p. m., November 27, in the Community Building to form a Gaines County Cancer Control Unit. This is an organizational meeting and funds will not be solicited. The purpose of the organization is to establish a year round Cancer control program in Gaines County.

All interested persons are invited and urged to attend.

Mayor Clarence Wright is expressing his views on the sales tax, and this sign was photographed on the back of his pickup. The city council has asked for a one-cent sales tax to be voted on by the registered voters of Seminole on December 12.

Q. Is the local tax regressive -- that is, will it cause a particular hard-ship for lower income families?

A. A sales tax has more elements of equity than any other type of tax, and this is particularly true in Texas, since so many essential items are exempt from the sales tax.

Q. What are the advantages of the penny sales tax over increased property taxes?

A. Everyone who benefits from City services help pay for them. The penny sales tax has been called the fairest, best and most equitable because people pay only when they buy non-essential items.

Q. Are city sales tax payments deductible on Federal Income Tax Reports?

A. Yes.

Q. How will the tax be collected?

A. It will be collected by the State of Texas right along with the present State Sales Tax and the City's one per cent will be paid to the City by the State Comptroller's Office.

The sales tax is the only tax that all the people, who are qualified voters, can vote on themselves and if the time comes that it proves to be too great a burden the people can vote it off.

The cost of government is steadily rising. Popular demand is pressing for more and better City works and services and these must be provided if this City is to grow and prosper and be a safe, healthy and pleasant place in which to live.

The choice is not whether City taxes should be increased or not. The choice is how the people want the increase. It can be property taxes, water and sewer charges, trash hauling or one per cent sales tax.

Seminole voters will decide December 12th whether this City should levy a 1% sales tax or not. It is important for everyone to understand what choice they are being offered.

TENNIS IS OUR GAME

The Seminole High School tennis squad ended its fall schedule last week by winning one match and losing two.

On Thursday the Indians entertained Andrews and edged the Mustangs, 6 - 5, with three matches being called on account of darkness. Winning points for Seminole were Robert Kirk and Doug Bailiff in boys singles and Cindy Bramlett, Carolyn Booe, and Sammie Hill in girls singles. Cindy Bramlett also teamed with sister, Barbara, in girls doubles to provide the margin of victory.

The win marked the second time this year that the Indians have stopped the defending district champion Mustangs. On October 16 the Tribe beat the Ponies 12 - 5 in Andrews.

The only thing pleasant for the Indian netters on Saturday, however, was the weather; for both the varsity and the junior varsity dropped their final matches of the fall season. The varsity was whipped 11 - 5 by Class AAAA Lubbock Monterey, while the JV's were bowing to the Levelland varsity, 5 - 4.

Monterey completely dominated the boys events by sweeping all four singles and both doubles matches. The closest the Seminole boys could come to scoring a team point was Skeet Doss' three-set loss in boys singles.

In girls events the Tribe fared somewhat better, gaining a 5 - 5 split. Barbara Bramlett, Cindy Bramlett, and Nancy Billups turned in victories in singles. In doubles Cindy Bramlett and Sammie Hill scored one point, while Pat Jocoy teamed with Nancy Billups to record the other and to finish the scoring.

Only boys matches were played at Levelland since the school does not field a girls team. The four team points scored by the junior varsity came on hard-fought singles victories by Karl Pearce, Doug Bailiff, and Dusty Earl, and a doubles win by Pearce and Bailiff. The two schools were more evenly matched this time than when the Seminole varsity swept thirteen of fifteen matches earlier in the fall.

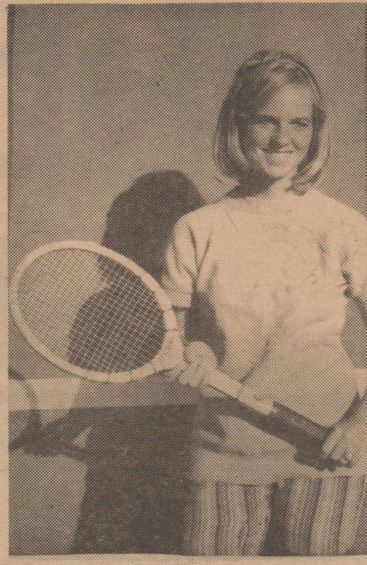

Saturday's losses put the final ledger for Seminole tennis teams at 6 - 4 - 1 for the fall schedule.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Club Estep will have their children home with them for Thanksgiving. Hutson and Molly Greenwood, Mark and Julie, live in Odessa. Frank and Joan Pierce, Bobby, David, and Jonathan live in Azle. The Pierces will stop by Abilene to pick up their daughter, Neta, an A. C. student.

Dr. Selby gave a very impressive talk regarding the three chest diseases, tuberculosis, pulmonary emphyzema and lung cancer. Lung cancer has increased 900% in the last decade, and is the most frequent cancer today. Smoking is one of the major causes of lung cancer. Dr. Selby stressed that a person over 35 years of age should have a chest X-Ray every year and heavy smokers should have one made every six months.

We, as local citizens, have a responsibility to help carry out this tuberculosis program. Many of our local civic groups are standing behind it and helping support it.

The Tuberculosis Mobil Unit will be in Seminole, Wednesday, Nov. 29, to take X-Rays. The public is urged to have these X-Rays made. See other article on the Mobil Unit.

Mrs. Marvin Lewis and son, Myron, were in Carlsbad to see Mr. F. B. Fowler who is in the hospital there. He is Mrs. Lewis' uncle.

BE THANKFUL

As we Americans sit down to our traditional turkey on this Thanksgiving Day in homes across the nation we have much for which to be thankful. True, there are many disquieting factors giving cause for grave concern, both on the domestic and international scenes, but if we look deep enough, we shall find unmistakable reasons for thanksgiving.

Consider the many liberties we enjoy in this nation and be thankful for their existence. Be thankful for our freedom to achieve, work and advance; for our freedom to worship; for our right to free speech and free elections.

While we are grateful for a special day when we can join with others all over the country in counting our blessings and thanking God for them, we are still challenged to make every day a Thanksgiving Day as we recall the blessings that ever surround us.

Truly there is much for which we can be thankful. And this overflowing of good should daily remind us to pray for peace throughout the world so that all mankind may live in harmony and enjoy the fruits of a better life. (Thanks, W. B.)

EDITORIAL

In "March of the News", a headline column in U.S. News & World Report, October 23, 1967, page 14, they quote from a Federal Government report some suggestions for embattling alcoholism:

" MORE FAMILY DRINKING TO REDUCE ALCOHOLISM

- ★Serve beer in college cafeterias.
- ★Permit liquor advertisements to show alcohol being consumed by the whole family, including children, in a family setting.
- ★Urge that alcoholic beverages be made available to young persons at church gatherings supervised by adults.

These and other ideas added up to a policy of permitting youth easier access to alcohol in carefully controlled settings. The suggestions were presented in a report by a commission established under a 1-million-dollar grant from the National Institute of Mental Health.

Recommended in the report is 'increased emphasis on gregarious social drinking' to replace drinking in bars.

The report added: 'The personal anonymity, darkness and generally furtive quality of many bars permits and even encourages behavior usually not socially acceptable.'

The study recommended a legal drinking age of 18 throughout the country. Its findings were endorsed by the National Council of Churches."

This writer - seeing that the findings were endorsed by the National Council of Churches wondered about such things as "...flee from the very appearance of evil."

When will the citizens of our country, our town, and our block rise up and say that the public drink is fast driving our drivers, our friends, our families and ourselves to ruination?

Would that everyone that would teach such had to help load the bloody bodies, see the liquor containers scattered by the wreck and see the horror registered on other faces when they view such scenes.

Can we leave our properties more available to help the thief?

Why make keys for locks and keys for cars if availability slows up people who have sticky fingers?

We feel making anything that is wrong or enticing more available will increase its use and its national problems whether it be liquors, gambling, or such like.

Kathy Hodges, Lavinna Jones, Laren Holler, Ronald Dunn, Weaver Patterson, and Luke Alexander attended the festival in hopes of gaining a better understanding of oral interpretation.

Each student received an oral critique from his judges, directed to help correct the mistakes made and to strengthen his good habits.

The divisions that were available were: prose, poetry, radio, and television.

Everyone present at the tournament was able to attend lectures concerned with each field. The festival lasted the entire day, and each student became better acquainted with his particular division.

Kermit Over Indians 46-0

If Seminole fans thought that Kermit would be down after being beat by Ector, their thinking was misplaced.

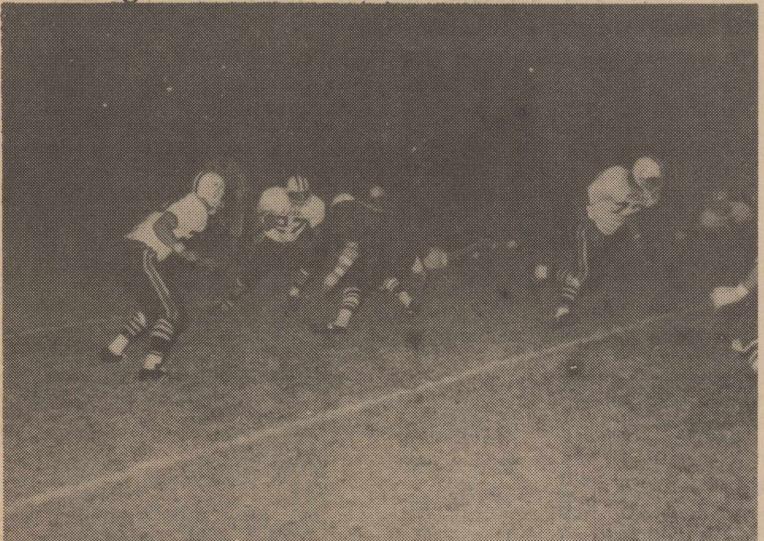

Tim Peden did everything but bounce the ball across the goal line for six points. On the first play from scrimmage, he passed on a pass play and scored from 82 yards out. Carroll Samuels then went for 85 yards and Peden passed to Samuels for the third touch-down in the first half.

In the last half he scored once himself, passed for another 80 yard play and another 15 yard play. The Yellowjackets could not make a mistake. When the Indians tipped the ball, it fell into their hands. Seminole moved the ball well at times, but failed to carry it in for a score.

The Indians had a real good season. The NEWS would like to congratulate the players and coaches alike. They just did not have it against Kermit.

These twelve seniors played their last high school football game in Kermit.

Yards were hard to come by against Kermit. Richard Jones, No. 27, is running against a determined Yellowjacket.

How Creep Feeding may help your cattle profits

Lots of cattlemen in this area have found it pays to creep feed their calves. Helps the calves, and their mamas, too.

Here's proof from work with 2800 head of test cattle where calves were fed Purina Creep Rations:

1. 34% more choice and good grade calves.
2. Heavier calves. Every 10 calves creep-fed Purina returned weight equal to one extra calf. (No extra cow to breed, feed and care for, either.)
3. Better cow condition. Cows suckling creep-fed calves carried 44 lbs. of extra condition.
4. This extra cow condition meant 16% more calves the following season.

That's a big return for just a little outlay in creep feeding the Purina Way. Come in and let us talk over your operation. Prove to yourself Purina feeding can cost you less.

THESPIANS INDUCTED

Seven new members were inducted into Troupe 1031 of the National Thespian Society in a very imposing formal ceremony held November 16 in the Seminole High School Auditorium.

The candlelight induction service was conducted by Paul Dabbs, president; Clayton Holbrooks, vice-president; and Linda Martin, secretary-treasurer.

The program included the history of the National Thespian Society, its achievements, and its goals. The inductees were instructed in the development of the dramatic arts which included speech, dance, music, writing, literature, Thespi, and theatre.

The inductees, Lynn Blackmon, Randy Cole, Ronald Dunn, Lilah Leigh Gainey, Sandra Kidd, Vicki Ray, and Linda Watson, have shown themselves to be worthy of admittance into the service organization by doing extensive work with the SHS drama department.

This year the Thespian Society will better fulfill its duty as a service organization. The Thespians will take an active part in all dramatic presentations. They will be in charge of maintaining the stage, light cage, the construction room, and the make-up, dressing rooms.

The organization is presently preparing for the production of a one-act. The date of the play has been tentatively set to be prior to Christmas holidays.

The new members are Ronnie Dunn, Sandra Kidd, Lynn Blackmon, Linda Watson, Vicki Ray, Lilah Gainey, and Randy Cole.

OF INTEREST TO STUDENTS

Students and others who will be working during the Christmas holidays are reminded that they will need a social security card. The number is used to keep a record of the worker's earnings. The individual earnings record is used to determine benefits in the event of death, disability, or retirement. To avoid error, the worker should have his employer copy the name and number directly from the card. Only one social security number is issued during a person's lifetime.

Housewives and others who have married and changed their names should get a replacement card showing their new names before going to work.

Those who have lost their cards may request a duplicate at the social security office located at 516 First National Bank Building, Odessa, Texas 79760.

Mrs. Walter Partain, Y. W. A. Director, is shown with the girls, left to right, front row, Vickie Six, Debbie Love, Sandra Kidd, and Janis McNaughton; middle row, Penny Baker, Freida Stephens, Kay Huey, and Terry Duncan; back row, Mrs. Partain, Gay Foote, Nancy Hawkins, Loretta Dyess, Mrs. Herbert Hicks, guest speaker, and Nila Norton.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met at 6:30 in Fellowship Hall for a Thanksgiving Dinner. The girls prepared and served the food. Following the meal, Mrs. Herbert Hicks taught the Mission book on Africa, "So Sure of Tomorrow."

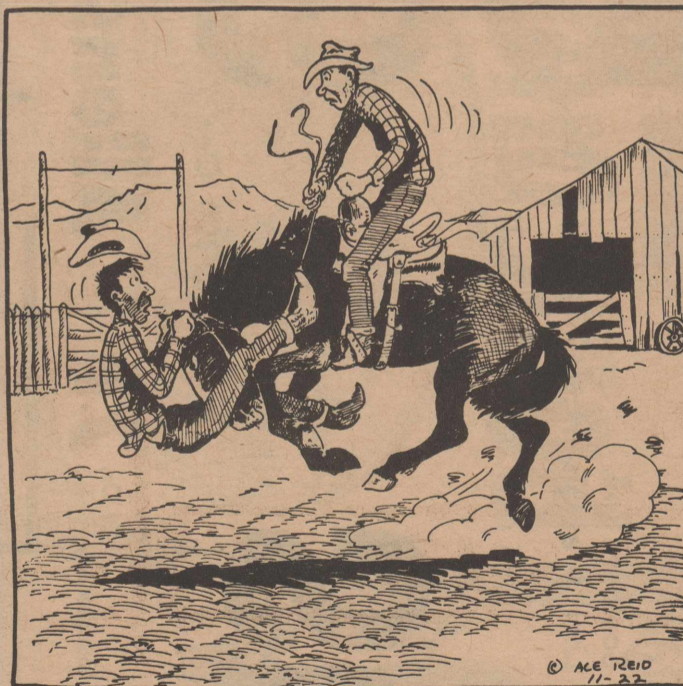

All enjoyed a delightful meal and thanks to Mrs. Hicks for the inspiring lesson. Those present were Gay Foote, Nila Norton, Terry Duncan, Penny Baker, Loretta Dyess, Freida Stephens, Kay Huey, Janis McNaughton, Nancy Hawkins, Vicki Six, Sandra Kidd, Debbie Love, Mrs. Hicks, and Mrs. Walter Partain, YWA Director. Mrs. Lynn Garrett, Counselor, was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Shelton, Charlene and Karen Pool visited Friday night in Kermit with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gist, Glenda, Jimmy and Julie.

Honored With Shower

Miss Lucia Salmon, bride-elect of Fred Waldrop, was honored with a shower, Saturday, November 18, from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. in the lovely home of Mrs. Herbert Hicks, 409 S. W. 17th Street. Autumn flowers were used at vantage points throughout the home.

The parents of the engaged couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wade Salmon and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Waldrop.

Miss Salmon, the honoree, Mrs. Salmon, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Waldrop, mother, and Mrs. M. T. Waldrop, grandmother of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. Hicks formed the receiving line.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cut work cloth. Silver and crystal appointments were used. The centerpiece was an elegant arrangement of midnight red carnations and white mums, the bride-elect's chosen color, interspersed with lighted candles. Streamers of midnight red, bearing the names of the honorees, extended from the floral arrangements and completed the table decor.

Mrs. Charles Wrenn served the guest spiced tea and sandtarts. Mrs. Laverne Jones registered the guest. The honoree was presented with a white carnation corsage. Others in the receiving line wore white corsages with red ribbon.

SALES TAX - AGAINST
to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In regards to the city sales tax election of December 12, 1967.

This is not a letter to offend any person, but only a few things of interest to the people of Gaines County.

In the days before the Great Society, our forefathers did not like Taxation without Representation. In this election only the Seminole citizens get to vote on tax bills that affect everyone shopping in Seminole.

Those living outside of Seminole help pay the school tax. City tax does not go toward the upkeep of our school system.

If you live outside the city limits and use city water, you pay a premium on it. The farmer or stockman pays for the upkeep of his own wells, not out of taxes, but out of his own pocket.

For years we have all insisted that the people of the surrounding area shop at home. As long as other nearby towns do not have this tax, can we still expect them to do so.

The merchants in Seminole have a hard time meeting competition of the surrounding towns. Milk for instance retails in Hobbs for 39 to 45¢ for ½ gallon and from 63 to 65¢ a ½ gallon in Seminole. Even at that price he does not make enough for operating expenses.

If this tax is passed, a bar of soap will cost you an additional 1¢, a student's 25¢ package of theme paper will cost an extra 1¢. I believe it will cost the average shopper at least $25 a year.

This county depends on the farmer and his employees to a great extent. Besides what he is out on his water, he pays over 50% higher for his insurance outside of the city limits. He will be required to pay the 1% tax on all tractor and car parts and yet not allowed to vote.

In many of our towns close by (Seagraves and others) the alderman and the mayor serve for no salary, even a larger town of our area, the mayor draws $60 a year. We know that it is hard for one to suggest a cutting of his own salary but this would save about $9,000 per year for the city.

Even in Washington the members of the cabinet are beginning to rebel at so much spending.

If this tax will only take in twenty to thirty thousand a year, is it worth it? But if it does pass and you go to your merchant to buy a television set or the other taxable items, please do not gripe when he tells you your city tax is three to five dollars.

Thank you
C. B. Estep

Study Club

BILL WALDROP, INTERIOR DECORATOR - GUEST SPEAKER

The Seminole Junior Study Club met Wednesday, November 15, at 4:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Charles Cope on the Hobbs Highway. Mrs. Kenneth Bass was co-hostess. Individual pumpkin pies were served with tea and coffee during the social preceding the meeting. The serving table was covered with a white organdy cloth with linen appliques and a linen border. An arrangement of white silver-tipped mums complimented the silver and cut glass serving pieces.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Bill Waldrop, Interior Decorator for Miller-Waldrop Furniture Company. He had several decorating tips to offer, beginning with one on color. He said color was very important because of its psychological value. He cited some examples such as yellow, which is a "happy" color and is often used in kitchens. Green and blue are the "peaceful" colors and are most often used in bedrooms. Mr. Waldrop advocated the use of a color wheel to pick your color schemes. With this you can determine which colors harmonize and compliment each other best.

Mr. Waldrop prefers to furnish a room in one particular line or style of furniture, such as Early American, French Provincial, Italian, or Spanish. He said one should not cross colors on early and modern, nor textures on different lines.

Where you could not change the size of a room, you could make it appear different by the use of color and lines. Cool, light colors and horizontal lines make a room seem larger, while the warm colors and vertical lines pull a room in to you.

Mr. Waldrop said pictures were made to be seen as the artist who painted them saw them. They should therefore be hung only six to eight inches above a sofa or console, so that a person might enjoy them while sitting down. Groups of pictures should be balanced with smaller pictures beneath larger ones. His concluding tip was an easy way to hang pictures. He said to place a piece of newspaper on the floor and place your pictures on it the way you want them to hang. Trim the paper to the size of your group of pictures, then punch holes in the paper where nails must go. Remove pictures and hold paper in place on wall where you will hang pictures. Mark the holes and picture hanging is much simplified.

Those present for the meeting were Mesdames Shafter Bailey, Kenneth Bass, Hilbern Briscoe, Glynn Chandler, Paul Condit, Charles Cope, Marcus Crow, Kent Denson, Wayne George, Herbert Hicks, Don Hughes, Mike Jenkins, Frankie Karvas, Gail McCullough, Sammy Robertson, and two guests, Mrs. Bill Adams and Mrs. Lynn Garrett.

Who We Are

Let us be grateful for our heritage. For a little pride is the wellspring of courage. Let us endure unflinchingly whatever sacrifices we are called upon to make to defend our free institutions from the night of communism, which is bent on undermining our faith in ourselves. Let us rely not only on the gold in our vaults, but the iron in our blood. And let us cling like ivy to the faith of our fathers until, in God's good time, all men are free.
