Salute...october 4th-10th NATIONAL COTTON WEEK

The Gaines County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association met in Seminole Monday night. The sixth grade choir under the direction of Joyce Cate presented a choral program. Present were teachers from Loop, Seminole and Seagraves. John Thompson moved up from vice president to president when Sharman Conners moved out of the county. An outstanding program on drugs, drug abuse and their appeal to young people was given by Elmer Ratliff, Atlantic Richfield engineer from Denver City, Texas. He discussed Narcotics, Barbituates, Amphetamines and Hallucinogens. In the general meeting the association appointed delegates and alternates to the district house of delegates, also to the state house of delegates.

TO GIVE AWAY - 2 black kittens with 6 toes on each front foot, 1 brindle kitten with 7 toes on front feet. (Thought to be a rabcat descendant.) First lucky 3 get the kittens. Go by 609 S. W. 12th Street.

A major pep rally will be held on the courthouse square at 7 p. m. Thursday night. (Purpose getting ready for those Ponies from Andrews Friday night.)

School will be dismissed Friday for a Teachers Workshop, Classes will resume at the regular time Monday.

51 YEARS BETWEEN FUNERALS Last week the Woodenfoote told a story about Mr. Cochran being buried the second time in Stonewall County. Our thanks to the following people.

Walter Gayle - "My father was a pall bearer at Cochran's wife's funeral in about 1921 in Sterling City. The sheriff in Stonewall County got in touch with the sheriff in Sterling County after finding out that Mrs. Cochran had died and asked him to look after the small children until some of her folks could come and pick them up.

"The sheriff in Sterling City sent word back that they were living with their father and being well taken care of. Word went back immediately that the father had been buried in 1919 in Aspermont."

To make a long story short someone dug up the casket and Byrd Cochrane's remains were residing near Sterling City and not in the coffin at Johnson Chapel in Stonewall County. Thanks Mr. Gayle.

Farm Bureau sets County Convention

The Gaines County Farm Bureau will have their annual convention at the Party House at Gaines County Park Saturday,
October 10 at 7:30 p. m. Johnny's
Bar-B-Q of Midland will serve the meal.

Four new directors will be elected, according to Dayton Elam, president. There will be no speaker. Available time will be used for visiting and discussing problems that Gaines County farmers have. Suggestions and resolutions will be heard and voted on by members present at the convention.

Proposed resolutions of the Gaines County Farm Bureau are listed. NATIONAL - 1. We support and encourage extension of the National Agriculture Act of 1965 with no payment limitations.

2. We favor the present draft system for our Armed Forces and encourage the use of all eligible young people in patriotic endeavors. 3. We recommend that the anti-trust laws be expanded to include labor groups such as AFL and CIO.

STATE - 1. We support in the November State Election the passage of Amendment No. 3.

2. We believe effective State legislation must be passed to prevent Farm Labor groups such as UFWOC from controlling the production and marketing of agriculture products.

COUNTY-1. We insist on county participation in the establishment of outstanding community hospitals, assuring generations to come adequate medical facilities. 2. We encourage farmers to invest in agricultural related interprizes such as feed lots, spinning mills, vegetable processing centers for the purpose of increasing the County's total agricultural income.

ELAM APPOINTED TO STATE FARM BUREAU PROGRAM EXPANSION COMMITTEE.

Word was received by Dayton Elam, president of the Gaines County Farm Bureau, from Sidney Dean, president of Texas Farm Bureau, that he had been appointed as one of thirteen to serve on the State Farm Bureau Program Expansion Committee. The primary responsibility of this committee is "to draft and recommend to the State Farm Bureau ways and means for servicing the County Farm Bureaus under expanded program given top priority by the Presidents' Conference, including any necessary financing."

This was quite an honor as Gaines County is represented in a district extending from El Paso to Junction and from Seminole south to the Rio Grande. Texas now has 116, 000 Farm Bureau members.

FUTURE HOSPITAL DISCUSSED

The Directors of the Seminole Area Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday at the chamber office to discuss the needs of a new hospital. These alternatives were presented.

- 1. County Bond Election
 - A. 50 bed hospital half way between Seminole and Seagraves.
 - B. 50 bed hospital in Seminole (Original Survey Recommendation)
 - C. 35 bed hospital in Seminole, 20 bed hospital in Seagraves (Amended Survey Recommendation)
- 2. Hospital District
 - A. Full County District
 - 1. 50 bed hospital half way between Seminole and Seagraves. hospitals.
 - 50 bed hospital in Seminole (Original Survey Recommendation)
 - 3. 35 bed hospital in Seminole, 20 bed hospital in Seagraves (Amended Survey Recommendation)
 - B. Part County District

50 bed hospital in Seminole.

3. Hospital Corporation of America.

The third alternative listed is a group of interested businessmen that have built several hospitals in the United States and have shown some interest in building a hospital between Seminole and Seagraves or between Seminole, Seagraves and Denver City.

The great disadvantage of hospitals on a local level are the requirements made by Health, Education and Welfare concerning the amount of registered nurses, the amount of LVNs and the amount of doctors to staff them. The requirement as set up by HEW says there must be 4.2% registered nurses on duty per 40 hours work.

In attendance at the chamber board meeting were Chester Browne, County Judge, and Travis Bagley, Commissioner.

Glen Cavitt, president of the chamber, told the representatives of the Commissioners Court, "We are here to support you and to help you, also feeling the necessity of a new medical facility." Answered by the judge of the county, "We'd better have a good understanding because of the new nurse requirements and the new bills that are coming out, it might be that if we built a new hospital we might never get it opened."

Question: If a hospital district was voted would that end the court's responsibility and its help toward a medical facility? Answer: Yes.

The public is asked to look over the alternatives as presented and make recommendations.

The following were present: Olan Locker, Jim Davis, Glen Cavitt, Charles Ray, Bob Clark, Bill Faircloth, Ed Rodgers, George Cristy, Don Cates, Robert Jones, and Brom Marchbanks, plus representatives of the court.

What Is Cotton?

THERE ARE OVER 1,700 OFFICIALLY-RECOGNIZED TREE FARMS IN TEXAS.

THE FIRST STATE FOREST IN TEXAS WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1924,

Ed Rodgers, hospital administrator; Bill Faircloth, Chamber of Commerce manager; Chester Browne, Gaines County Judge; all from Seminole; Travis Bagley, Commissioner and Dr. Bill Mc-Cullough, Seagraves; attended a meeting in Lubbock concerning legislation from 7C hospitals, 20% required autopsies and sprinkler systems as requirements for hospitals.

It was pointed out that January 1, 1970 there were 173 hospitals classed as 7C. Of this number, 22 have improved facilities to Class 7B. Twenty-nine others have forcibly or voluntarily withdrawn from Medicare. Seminole has one of the remaining 122 hospitals falling in this class. An amendment was tacked onto the Social Security bill trying to do away with these three requirements. A voting on this bill will probably take place later in the month. (Editor's note- It's too bad when HEW officials are allowed to interpret past legislation.) You might use your influence by writing one of the following:

Paul Combs, an old Stonewall County resident, came by to say "Be sure and tell them that I know all about the story."

Bill Goodall said, "Walter, his name was Byrd and not Bert," and he said it wasn't "Yucca Gold", it was Yacca.

Our special thanks to Delmon Ellison whose father was sherrif of Stonewall County. He brought the best information. The tombstone set out by the side of the house and it had a bunch of logs piled up one on top of another, and with a Woodmen of the World symbol and a scroll on whic was etched: "Byrd J. Cochrane, Oct. 9, 1883; March 10, 1919. In loving memory of husband and father."

The 1919 casket was evidently available for people to see but Joe Anderson never saw it, Jim Rash never saw it, Paul Combs never saw it, nor Bill Goodall, Walter Gayle, nor Ellison. (I had a chance to see it but I didn't want to see it either.)

One story said he killed seven Mexicans on the border, another story said that he was a member of a posse and was made the 'goat' after chasing a fugitive after being accused of being a murderer in New Mexico and be being charged with with murder. After being buried word was sent to New Mexico that the wanted man was dead. A death certificate was signed by an Aspermont physician 'Died from influenza and heart failure'.

After the runeral the plot moved on to Sterling County and Sterling City where he bought a ranch on top of the divide. Also it is told that Byrd paid back the insurance company after Mrs. Cochrane had been practically forced to take the check on her dead husband.

I always heard that there were some mesquite stumps placed in the coffin and he escaped before being buried. Another story has an inner tube in the casket and friends unearthed him.

Joe H. Jones, the man that was a pall bearer at both of his funerals, was quoted as saying he was a good man and I grieved at both of his funerals. I must have set some kind of record for pall bearing.

Fifty-one years between funerals is a long time, especially if it's your own.

State Health officials claim to have known that Bubonic Plague has ravaged the rodent population in Gaines County since June. They failed to report the matter to the public, and the story was finally released by Dr. Bill McCollough, Seagraves M. D., and Commissioner Travis Bagley in order to warn the hunters of this area to stay away from the region where plague was confirmed. Dr. McCollough and Commissioner Bagley toured the entire area 17 days ago and released the warning immediately upon their return to Seagraves. County exterminator D. W. Folmar did everything possible to advise the people of the situation, while the state agency remained reluctant to use the voice of a free press to advise the people of plague in epidemic proportions in this area with the reason given that they did not want to cause panic.

We believe the people have a right to know the facts when their health and welfare are concerned. We do not believe any arm of the government, on any level, has the right to gag the news.

Much has been said in recent years about government management of the news on city, county, state, and national levels. This is an issue which cannot be tolerated in a free society. When the freedom of the press is abridged, then democracy ceases

While the state health department does much good, and their intentions were perhaps noble, we believe they showed error in judgement and must cooperate with the news media in order to assure the public the right to know when danger exists.

State Rep. E. L. Short is making a protest to the Austin office concerning their silence, and has joined the News in demanding public announcements in the future when serious situations arise

If hunters would have gone into the area without warning and brought the fleas out on their dogs the situation could have been horrible with possible deaths in humans because of no notification of the plague. Dr. McCollough and Commissioner Bagley are to be commended for making public announcement of the situation. The County Commissioners Court is also to be commended for ordering the chemical dusting of the area to stop the spread of the plague. From the Gaines County News

Plague Slowing Down

Last week Williams Flying Service of Seagraves and Seminole Aero Service of Seminole were employed by the Commissioners Court to work on plague infested areas in the county. The two dusting companies used approximately 25 tons of D.D.T. in trying to eradicate the bubonic flea carriers at a total cost of $3,000. Generally there were three main areas to be dusted - one from Cedar Lake south to the Lamesa Highway, ending up on the Whitaker ranch. Another infested area was one mile east of Seminole and the third area (small in size) between Denver City and Seminole. The third area, according to Chester Browne, Gaines County Judge, could not be dusted from the air because of the livestock in the area. All three of the areas are where prairie dog towns exist or had existed.

In other court action last week by the Commissioners Court the firm of Freeman and Curry was retained for the legal right of way condemnation for the highway west from the city limits to the state line.

Information From Social Security Office

BY DOROTHY FEAZELL

Beginning in January, an older person who goes to the hospital under Medicare will be responsible for the first $60 of his hospital bill -- now running about $750 for the average stay by a Medicare benefictary.

The present hospital deducti ble is $52 and will remain in effect for all Medicare hospital admissions during the remainder of the year.

"The increase is mandatory under the law, " Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security, said. "It is a result of the long term upward trend in hospital costs, and in part, of course, the general inflation. "

"The Administration," he said, "has been working hard to bring inflation under control and has also been working with the professional health community, health insurance organizations and others so that the Medicare program and general consumers, too, will get full value for each health care dollar spent."

In announcing the new $60 deductible, Commission:er Ball explained that the law requires an annual review of hospital costs under Medicare and an adjustment of the portion of the bill for which a Medicare beneficiary is responsible, if these costs have risen substantially. The law provides a formula for determining the amount of any adjustment in the deductible amount.

Based on 67 million days of hospitalization covered by Medicare bills in 1969, the current average per diem rate for inpatient hospital services amounted to $55.70 compared to a rate of $37.94 for the base year of 1966. Applying the formula, i.e., multiplying the ratio of the 1969 rate to the 1966 rate by $40, the result is $58.72, which must, under the law, be rounded to $60 the new deductible amount.

The hospital deductible amount, Commissioner Ball explained, is intended to make the Medicare beneficiary responsible for expenses equivalent to the average cost of one day of hospital care. It is like the deductible amounts specified in many auto insurance policies where the car owner pays the first $50 or $100 on a repair bill, and the insurance policy covers the Ball said that when the hospital deductible amount changes, the law requires comparable changes in the dollar amounts that a Medicare beneficiary pays toward a hospital stay of more than 60 days, or a posthospital extended care stay of more than 20 days.

When a Medicare beneficiary has a hospital stay of more than 60 days, he will pay $15 a day for the 61st through the 90th day, up from the present $13 per day. If he has a posthospital stay of over 20 days in an extended care facility, he will pay $7.50 per day toward the cost of the 21st day through the 100th day, up from the present $6.50 per day.

If he needs to draw on his "lifetime reserve", the reserve of hospital days a beneficiary can draw upon if he ever needs more than 90 days of hospital care in the same benefit period, he will pay $30 for each day used, instead of the present $26 per day.

The Young Farmers and Young Homemakers cancelled their meeting for the first Monday night in October and it is scheduled to be held on Monday night, October 12 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Judy Mullins will be the speaker at that time to show some of the crafts made of cotton from the Cotton Crafts Trunk which was made by members of the Womens Gaines County Cotton Association.

Also all the Young Homemakers are urged to attend to plan the annual halloween carnival. The carnival is held each year to help support the stock show held in January.

The meetings were cancelled in favor of the first annual cotton banquet held in Seagraves Community Building. The banquet was sponsored by the Gaines County Cotton Promotion Club. Miss Patsy Davis, Gaines County Miss Cotton, was presented at the banquet. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of Loop.

The FFA club has selected Laura Corbell as their sweetheart for the year 1970-71.

The FHA girls have selected Roger McKenzie as their Best Beau of the year 1970-71.

The Longhorns were hooked by the Cotton Center Elks at Loop last Friday night with a score of 38 to 8. The ballgame was closer than the score indicated with Loop first downs 16, Cotton Center 12. Total yards for Loop 227 against Cotton Center 269.

The Longhorns mistakes accounted for 30 of Cotton Center's points. Records for the next few weeks should improve if the boys continue to play as well as Friday night and can correct errors.

Cotton Center has won all their games this year against four teams: Wellman 40-0, Dawson 34-6, Klondike 48-6, and Loop 38-8.

Football boys, pep squad, their families and other boosters all enjoyed a party at the Community Building after the game last week. Sandwiches, chips, tea, coffee and a special football cake were served.

The Shorthorns or junior high football team now stands at one win and one loss. The first game was a win over Union with Kevin Freeman scoring two touchdowns and Danny Young played an outstanding game on defense. They met Wellman in the next game and were defeated 16-0 on the Loop field.

This Thursday evening, October 8, the Shorthorns will meet Dawson on the Loop field at 6:30.

Loop now is 1-1 for the season and Wellman is 1-1 for the season. Dawson is 2-0.

NUMBER 147 HIGHEST LOTTERY SELECTION NUMBER REACHED IN

Naomi F. Petty, Executive Secretary of Local Board No. 32, announced today that random selection number 147 is the highest lottery selection number reached in 1970. However, the board spokesman said, it may be necessary to go to a higher random selection number than the previous high number in order to satisfy the remaining 1970 draft calls.

Executive Secretary Mrs. Petty said that in compliance with the White House Executive Order announced recently, all registrants of Local Board No. 32 who hold the highest reached number or numbers below the highest reached number and who have hot been issued orders for induction due to any circumstance, will be considered for carryover into the extended priority selection group if they are classified I-A as of December 31, 1970. Such young men will have their liability for induction extended for the first three months of 1971.

The local board spokesman said that the Executive Order states that registrants who held numbers above the highest reached number of Board No. 32 and are classified I-A on December 31, will be placed in a lower draft priority group on January 1.

he passed, he ran and he threw and completely leveled the Lobos from the north country.

If Roberts pushed the offense to their best effort of the season, the defense did even better. Kregg Pierson got things kicked off in the very beginning for the defense when he cut through the line and made a bone rattling tackle dropping a halfback for an 8 yard loss. Next it was Everett Haller's turn. No wonder the opposing quarterbacks fade back so fast when they see him coming. Then Rick Partain got in on the act and Terry Ivy, Lloyd Barker, Bill Hearne (the fans even hurt a time or two when he made a mean tackle). Roger Allen got in his licks on defense as did Shuler, Miller, and Trevino. The line in front of Roberts, Ray, Calderon, French, and Hearne was blocking well, and the Indians were good for 260 yards --up the middle, on slants and skirting the ends. The Indians put together a sustained drive at the end of the first quarter, starting out on the 14 yard line only to have it bogged down by a penalty. Levelland fumbled. Seminole's score was 6 - 0 with 10:23 left in the second quarter as Roberts passed to Lloyd Barker, a halfback, for the Indians' first touchdown. The play was good for 11 yards. With six and a half minutes to play in the second quarter, LI oyd Barker took a flair pass from Roberts on the 50 yard line that was good for 27 yards. The quarterback dropped back again and handed it out to Roger Allen. The play covered 23 yards and the Indians were leading by 13 points at the half.

After intermission the defense came in again and held the Lobos on a 4th down and 1 yard to go situation. There was eight and a half minutes left in the quarter when Sims hauled in a pass for 15 yards and after a running play that lost one Gary Don Ray helped himself to a pass thrown by Roberts and traveled 31 yards for the 3rd score. The PAT was good and Seminole was ahead 20 - 0. The Indians made a big quarter of it. Barker rambled for 21 yards, then fullback Hearne drove for 8 yards and Roberts, on his patented keeper play, traveled the final 36 yards and the final touchdown. This was the second outstanding run by Roberts. A 51 yard earlier play had been called back. He kicked the extra point and the Indians journeyed south with a record of 3 wins and 1 lose.

Andrews will be in Seminole Friday night and mighty warriors are on the prowl. If the defense keeps on strengthening itself and the offense keeps moving, pleasant things are in store for backers of the Seminole Indians.

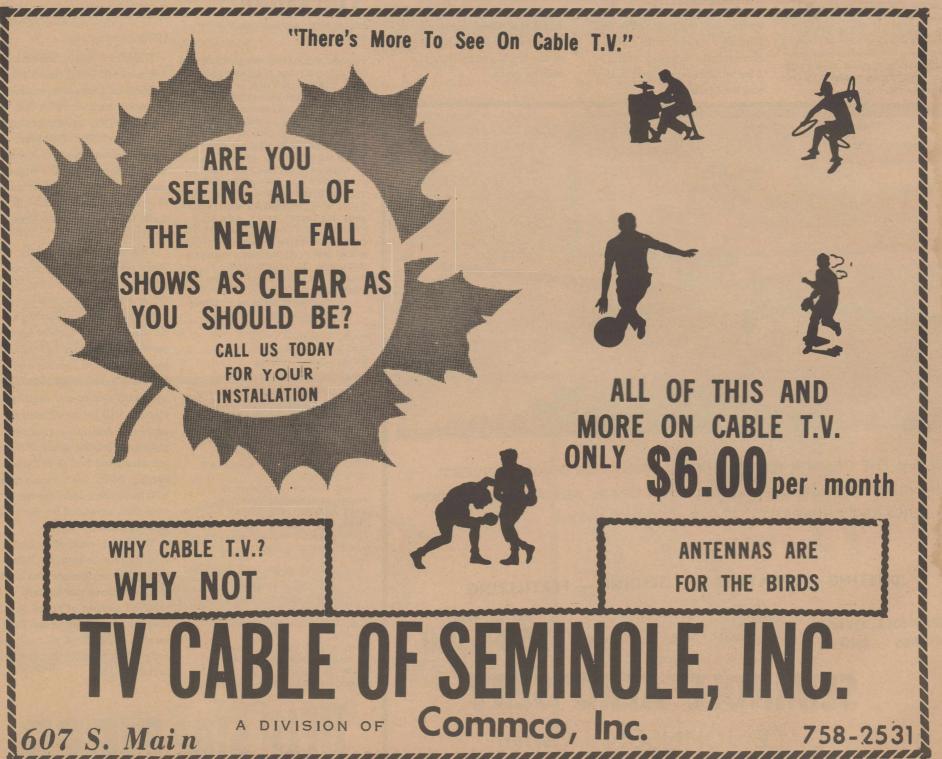

A major pep rally will be held on the courthouse square at 7 p.m. Thursday night. The public is invited to attend to help boost the Indians for the game with Andrews Friday night.

Gene Sims, #80, and Lloyd Barker, #41, go after a free ball in last Friday night's action against Levelland.

Jim French shows running power as he heads up the field after breaking through the Levelland line. Note the ball in his left hand, also his blocker as he moves in to take out a defender.

The young man, 24 years of age, told the automobile dealer, "I will not pay $571 for a year's automobile insurance." $571.00 for one year's insurance on a new automobile? How terrible! How few people could affort $571 per year? This editorial is being written to remind every driver that his insurance can sky rocket to as much as two or three times what he is now paying if he is guilty of the following things. (1) Speeding - more than one time per year or more than two times in a three year period. (2) Driving while intoxicated. (3) Hit and run or leaving the scene of an accident. (4) Negligent homicide. (5) Any felonious offense. (6) Driving with no driver's license. (7) Violation of speed laws. (8) Cited for an "at fault" accident.

A rule of thumb has it that one ticket would raise the insurance cost 15% or $15.00 on a $100 policy. Mr. Moore of Moore - Haralson Insurance Agency, stated "We had much rather sell a policy for $200 to a good risk than sell a $500 policy where we have to take it to a high risk company." If you have been given one ticket or two tickets, slow down. Your insurance might have to be placed with with a high risk company and your cost might jump to the $400 -$700 class. Also it makes finance companies and banks have a harder time financing an automobile. On a $571 policy, 24 months to pay, make $1142, plus the finance charges. This adds more than $50.00 per month to payments that could push the purchaser beyond his earning power.

No doubt the very best answer to the insurance problem would be to start out on time, refrain from drinking while driving, stop the car while giving one of the children a spanking and less back seat driving.

Here's an uncommon conundrum for anyone who revels in What gets lower the higher you make part of it?

A see-saw you say? Nope. It's a deductible property insurance policy--the premium payment gets lower the higher you make the deductible.

It works this way: Aware that some sneaky disaster can knock the daylights out of your pocketbook, you insure your property against damage or destruction, and make relatively small periodic payments for this protection.

Now, here's how the deductible gets into the act: You can agree in your policy to pay the first $50, or more, toward the repair or replacement of an insured property--home or automobile, for example--with the insurance company agreeing to pick up the rest of the tab up to the limit of the policy.

If you have a $50 deductible clause in your policy, your premium payment is reduced. A $100 deductible clause shrinks your payment still smaller, and so forth. You have an option on how high you want you deductible, with your premium payment scaled down in proportion.

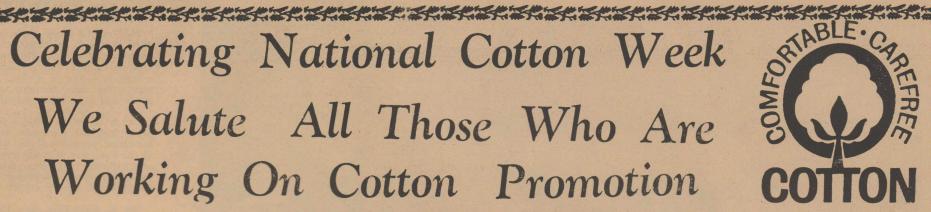

And that's the answer to today's conundrum--your premium payment gets lower the higher you make the deductible.

A TAX IS NOT A TAX

The late Gertrude Stein was very big with the intellectual literati of her day with such impressive lines as "A rose is a rose, is a rose, is a rose." To some this was fraught with great and significant meaning.

But it comes as quite a surprise that the Gertrude Stein influence permeated the halls of the Congress. It is not generally believed that Congressmer pay that much attention to avant garde poetry styles.

Yet in their own way, Congress recently contributed to this school of literature by passing a law which says, "A tax is not a tax, is not a tax, is not a tax."

This was achieved by the passage of the new tax on airline tickets. It is actually quite a hefty tax rate, imposed at a time when airlines are suffering from a business decline.

But the airlines cannot state on their tickets that this extra amount is a tax. This is strictly verboten.

In fact, if any airline employee should mention to a customer that this additional cost is a new Federal tax, there is a criminal fine of $100 involved.

And to make the situation even more paradoxical, shortly after this tax was added, to be collected from the public with a big secret made that it is a tax, another branch of the government jumped on the airlines for raising their fares sometime previously.

The basis of that brannigan is that there were not sufficient public hearings on the matter, therefore the airline action in raising fares was strictly illegal, and quite under-handed.

And on another front, there is a great hue and cry in Washington over something called "consumerism". There is the charge supporting this movement that sometimes business deceives the public.

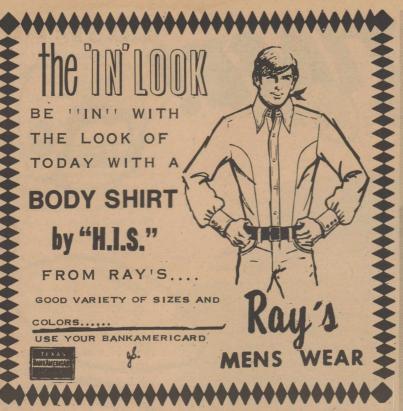

Undoubtedly the charges are highly over amplified, but by what other method can bureaucrats build their payrolls.

Or, how can the pot call the kettle black?

A government that can tell a business that they will raise their prices to their customers and pass on the additional money to Washington, but at the same time provide penalties for revealing this fact to the customer does not seem the proper authority to protect consumer interests. Does a shepherd ask the wolves to look after the lambs?

CONVERT YOUR HOME TO COMFORT ELECTRIC HEATING NOW...AND WE'LL INSTALL STORM WINDOWS...

Now is the time to bundle up your home for winter. Now is the time to install whole-house, comfort electric heating because, right now, with every qualifying electric home heating installation, we'll install free a complete set of storm windows for the heated portion of your home. All you need do is call Southwestern Public Service Company. Our electric heating specialist will gladly and professionally determine the exact heating requirements for your home.

Modern electric comfort heating is already being enjoyed by over 4 million American families! . . . almost 5,000 in our area alone. The reasons are many, but what most people like about clean electric heating is the comfort it gives. An even warmth from floor to ceiling creates a comfort unlike any other heating method. You owe it to yourself and your family to get the facts about electric heating! . . . and now is the time to do it.

Storm windows have proven their value in keeping out cold, wintry winds, holding down

Early reservations and information are requested. For details, please contact the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, 301 Polk Street, Amarillo, 79101.
