THE M.S. DOSS YOUTH CENTER WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS ITS SINCERE APPRECIATION TO THE MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR STUDY CLUB FOR THEIR WORK IN DECORATING THE CENTER FOR CHRISTMAS. RESPONDING TO A REQUEST BY THE CENTER TO ASSUME THE PROJECT, CLUB MEMBERS, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MRS. WAYNE GEORGE, PRESIDENT, AND MRS. JOHN MOFFATT, PROJECT COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, COMMENCED THEIR ADORNING ENDEAVORS WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9TH. MANY YOUTH CENTER MEMBERS PITCHED IN TO HELP WITH THE EFFORT, AND SEVERAL DAYS AND NUMEROUS DECORATIVE HOURS LATER THE CENTER HAD TAKEN ON AN APPEARANCE GAILY, ATTRACTIVELY AND CLEVERLY REFLECTIVE OF THE SEASON'S SPIRIT.

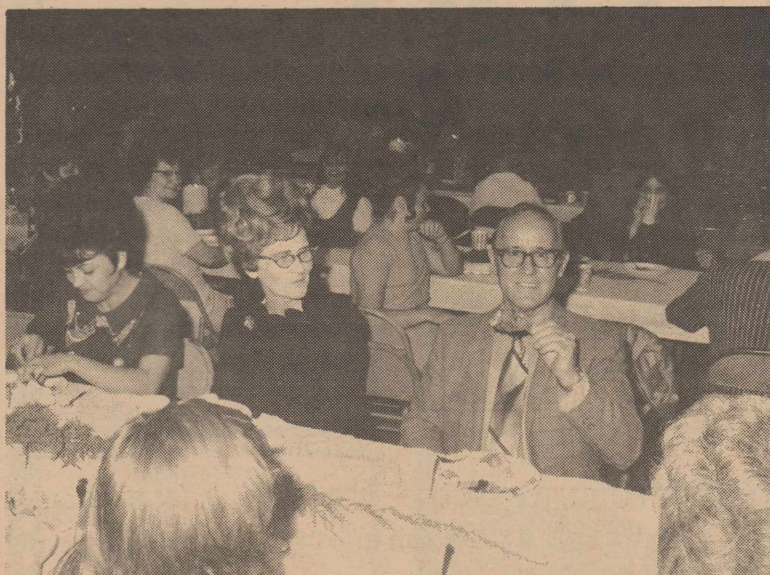

SINCE THE COMIC STRIP, PEANUTS, IS VERY POPULAR WITH TEENAGERS, THE CLUB APTLY DESIGNATED AS THEIR DECORATIONS THEME, "A PEANUTS CHRISTMAS," WITH THE AID OF AN OPAQUE PROJECTOR MANY LARGE REPLICAS OF THE FAMILIAR PEANUTS CHARACTERS-- CHARLIE BROWN, LUCY SALLY, LINUS, SNOOPY, ETC.-- WERE FASHIONED AND SITUATED ABOUT THE CENTER TO CONVEY IN THEIR UNIQUE MANNER THE TIDINGS OF THE TIME.

FOR A HUGE TREE, ALMOST TWENTY FEET TALL, CLUB MEMBERS FASHIONED A LARGE NUMBER OF RED VELVETEEN BOWS AS ELEMENTS OF TRIMMING. A SNOWY WREATH, SOME FIVE FEET IN HEIGHT, WAS CONSTRUCTED AND COMPLEMENTARILY HUNG NEARBY ABOVE THE STAGE. GREENERY, POINSETTIAS, GARLANDS, BELLS, HUGE CANDLES HANDWROUGHT WITH FLORISTS WIRE, CARDBOARD AND WRAPPING PAPER, PLUS A VARIETY OF OTHER TRADITIONAL FESTIVE CREATIONS WERE LIBERALLY UTILIZED TO FURTHER THE EFFECT. SANTA HIMSELF WAS, OF COURSE, NOT NEGLECTED, AND IS TO BE SEEN STANDING CONSPICUOUSLY ATOP THE TELEVISION CONSOLE ABOVE THE PATIO DOOR, WITH A BEVY OF GIFTS CLUSTERED ABOUT HIS FEET. HUNDREDS OF RED LIGHTS ON THE TREE AND INTERTWINED AMONG THE GREENERY OVER THE CORNICES ALONG BOTH SIDES OF THE AUDITORIUM ADD COLORFUL AND WARMLY GLOWING NOTES OF CHEER.

REALIZING THAT ALL FAITHFUL PEANUTS FOLLOWERS ARE SURELY AWARE OF THE NEVER FAILING FRUSTRATION CHARLIE BROWN ENCOUNTERS IN HIS KITE FLYING ATTEMPTS, THE HAPLESS CHARLIE HAS BEEN PORTRAYED AS HAVING HAD HIS KITE ON THIS OCCASION COME FITTINGLY TO REST IN THE PINNACLE BOUGHS OF THE CHRISTMAS TREE, WHERE IN ITS ENTANGLED PERCH IT IS RESPLENDENTLY OUTLINED IN TINY MULTICOLORED LIGHTS WHICH INTERMITTENTLY TWINKLE ON AND OFF, AS IF SMILINGLY MANIFESTING THEIR AMUSEMENT AT CHARLIE'S PREDICAMENT.

THE HUNDREDS OF KIDS WHO WILL FREQUENT THE CENTER DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON WILL DERIVE MUCH PLEASURE FROM THE ATMOSPHERE THAT HAS BEEN EFFECTED BY THE DECORATIONS. SO TO THOSE OF THEIR NUMBER WHO HAVE ASSISTED IN THE PROJECT, TO ALL OTHERS WHO HAVE IN MISCELLANEOUS WAYS MADE CONTRIBUTIONS OF TIME OR MATERIALS, AND ESPECIALLY TO THE MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR STUDY CLUB, THE CENTER WISHES AT THIS TIME TO EXPRESS A HEARTY "THANK YOU VERY, VERY MUCH." IT IS OF COURSE, IMPOSSIBLE TO LIST THE NAMES OF EVERYONE TO WHOM SUCH AN EXPRESSION IS APPLICABLE, BUT YOU CAN BE ASSURED YOU ARE EACH AND ALL REMEMBERED WITH APPRECIATION AND GRATITUDE.

THE YOUTH CENTER WOULD BE HAPPY TO HAVE ANYONE WHO MIGHT LIKE TO COME BY AND VIEW THE DECORATIONS TO DO SO AT ANY TIME IT IS OPEN.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. McMullen and Jo Hutson are shown at the Assembly of God Christmas party last Friday night.

Little Mission Friends at First Baptist Church presented a program "Joy to the World" for their parents and friends Monday afternoon. There were approximately twenty-eight children, and eight teenagers, who assist each week, present for the program. Mrs. Jerry Norman, leader, is assisted by Mrs. J. D. Long and Mrs. James Neugent, in working with the four and five year old Mission Friends.

Half the charm of the "good old days" is that we were 20 years younger.

Taking it with you is a thing of the past: The problem today is making it last.

A sobering thought for every youth to ponder is that someday he will know as little as his parents know now!

CHRISTMAS TIME, BRACERO STYLE --- Some of the finest men I've ever known were Mexican Nationals that came over on a Bracero program of a few years gone by. There was a school teacher I knew and another man that owned his own farm.

It was almost Christmas time. The weather was bad and about nine or ten Braceros had congregated and asked me to take them for the canajos (simply a rabbit hunt). They drew a diagram on the ground to help with their English and my Spanish and we each armed ourselves with two or three sticks approximately 2 feet long. (A piece of a hoe handle or a shovel handle is ideal,) I became more interested and agreed to take them.

You threw the stick like a boomerang, breaking the legs of the rabbit when it went under him. This was no idle hunt, this was to lay up a food supply for the holiday season. Cotton tails or young jack rabbits were the specialty. After you located the rabbit, one or two men would ease around to flush him away from the brush and crowd him into the circle of men. To get away, the rabbit had to run between two of you. As he ran past you, you threw the stick side-arm, propelling its weight into the rabbit or under the rabbit.

I've been on many hunts but this got more and more exciting. Why, upon a successful kill, they rejoiced in Spanish and I rejoiced in English. The yells sounded international. These men went out for groceries, also to have a good time.

The first hunt we got eleven rabbits and as many as eighteen on later hunts. The rabbits were skinned, cleaned and dropped into a big container of salty water. It was really funnier to catch a young jack rabbit in the circle. He would dodge, he would play. He would dance back and forth, he would try to hide, only to be looking at another man and the two men that missed and let one get away were talked about in terms that probably couldn't be repeated.

'Big Ricardo' and 'Little Deanicio' were clean with their cooking and food handling and they were the ones who boiled the rabbits. They stripped the meat off, added a can of vegetable soup, added some pepper and salt, (not too much) and with a tortilla to push with and one to load with, it made good eating.

I've eaten pheasant, juicy turkeys, T-bone steaks and many other delicacies but there's nothing better than a rabbit when it's fixed right.

If some of these young folks don't brush up on their manners, maybe their folks ought to move the brush further down.

Office boy: "Now that I'm 18, I don't know whether to get married or go out and see an adult movie."

SIX ADDITIONAL LINES ADDED BY SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

SIX ADDITIONAL OVERSEAS TELEPHONE CIRCUITS ADDED DURING THE PAST YEAR WILL MAKE IT EASIER FOR MORE SERVICEMEN TO TALK WITH THEIR FAMILIES IN THE UNITED STATES THIS CHRISTMAS SEASON.

HARRY SAWYER, MANGER FOR SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY, SAID A TOTAL OF 16 CIRCUITS ARE AVAILABLE TO VIETNAM.

HE POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT DUE TO THE VOLUME OF CALLS GENERATED BY HOLIDAY CALLING, PERSONS WISHING TO REACH SERVICEMEN IN VIETNAM SHOULD PLAN AHEAD FOR THE RUSH.

"IT IS GENERALLY EASIER FOR A SERVICEMAN TO CALL HOME THAN FOR HIS FAMILY TO TRY REACHING HIM IN VIETNAM," SAID SAWYER. "THIS IS BECAUSE SERVICEMEN CAN CALL THE U.S. FROM SAIGON, TON SON NHUT, LONG BINH, CAM RAH'N BAY, NHA TRANG, QUI NHON AND DA NANG. CALLS ORIGINATING FROM THE U.S. CAN BE PLACED ONLY TO SAIGON."

HE ADDED THAT IT IS MORE DIFFICULT TO REACH A SERVICEMAN IN SAIGON UNLESS THE CALLER KNOWS THE SERVICEMAN'S UNIT, APO AND TELEPHONE NUMBER WHERE HE CAN BE REACHED.

"ALTHOUGH SERVICEMEN PLACE CALLS FROM VIETNAM ON A FIRST-COME-FIRST-SERVED BASIS, IT USUALLY ONLY TAKES A FEW MINUTES TO REACH THE STATES ONCE HE GETS ACCESS TO A PHONE AT ONE OF THE VIETNAM TELEPHONE CENTERS," SAWYER SAID.

HE ALSO REMINDED RESIDENTS OF THE 14-HOUR TIME DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE U.S. AND SAIGON. FOR EXAMPLE, WHEN IT IS 9 P.M. CHRISTMAS EVE IN TEXAS, IT IS 11 A.M. CHRISTMAS DAY IN SAIGON.

CALLING RATES TO VIETNAM WILL BE THE SAME AS LAST YEAR WITH THE FIRST THREE MINUTES OF A STATION TO-STATION CALL COSTING $9, WHILE A PERSON-TO-PERSON CALL FOR THE SAME TIME COSTS $12. EACH ADDITIONAL MINUTE FOR BOTH KINDS OF CALLS COSTS $3.

INDIANS WIN

If you failed to see the Seminole Indians and you like a thrill a minute you missed a good ballgame Monday night against Brownfield.

It was tied 66-66 when Tommy Shuler calmly sank two charity tosses with 4 seconds to go. Jim Livingston sparked the Indians in the early part of the game along with Sims, Sims getting 12 points for the night's effort and Livingston 19, to lead the Indians in the field.

Donald Roberts came on strong in the last quarter, getting 10 points and a total of 18 for the night. He got the free throw that tied the ballgame 66-66 with 28 seconds of playing time remaining.

The Indians led at the end of the 1st 2 quarters by 5 points, but fell behind 1 point, 54-54, at the end of the 3rd period. Seminole won at the free throw line, getting 30 charity tosses.

The Cubs had 30 fouls called on them, compared to 18 for the Indians. They lost 4 men by the foul route. Pierson had 8 points and Shuler 11 to round out the scoring for Seminole. The game was tied at 46-46, 48-48, and it was a see-saw battle the rest of the way.

In the B-game, Lan Locker led all scorers with 20 points. Stewart Coffee followed with 18 to overwhelm the Brownfield B's, 75-41. Coach Pulliam cleared the bench, letting his entire squad play. Robert Arrezola had 11 points, Farris 11 and Larry Jackson 10.

The Seminole Indians won one of three games in the Denver City tournament last weekend, losing a heartbreaker to Morton in overtime in the consolation finals.

Last Friday evening at 5:30 the cold, cold Indians could not get the ball to fall through and fell behind by 15-4 against Lamesa in the 1st quarter. With 2 minutes to go in the half, the Indians began to show life and scored 8 points and went in at halftime behind 19-36.

The Indians got red hot in the 4th quarter and scored only 13 and got within 4 points and then 3 points, only to lose 54-60. Gene Sims came off the bench and scored 10 points in the last half to spark the Indians in their rally, only to see his efforts fall short. Jim Livingston led the Seminole effort with 19, Donald Roberts had 11, Howard Baker 6 and Shuler and Pierson 4 each.

On Saturday morning at 8:30 it was a different story in Denver City against Brownfield. Livingston was the big gun and poured in 17 points in the 3rd quarter to add to 8 others and led the field with 25 points. Roberts had 23. The Indians beat the Cubs by 26 points, 69-43. Coach Henderson cleared his bench and the Indians looked good. They led by 20 points at the half, 33-13, increased their lead by 31 points, 58-27 at the 3/4 mark.

Sophomore Donald Roberts was voted to the all tournament team in Denver City after scoring 31 points against another Indian team from Morton. It was not enough however as the Indians from Morton beat the Indians from Seminole in overtime, 69-65. The Indians led at the end of all three quarter marks until the final minutes of the ballgame when a free throw would have won for Seminole or a missed basket. It was 61-61 at the end of regulation playing time but Roberts went out by the foul route and Seminole could manage only 4 points while their opposition got 8.

Livingston had 15 points for Seminole, Gene Sims had 13, Pierson 4 and Baker 2. Final score Seminole 64, Morton 69.

8th

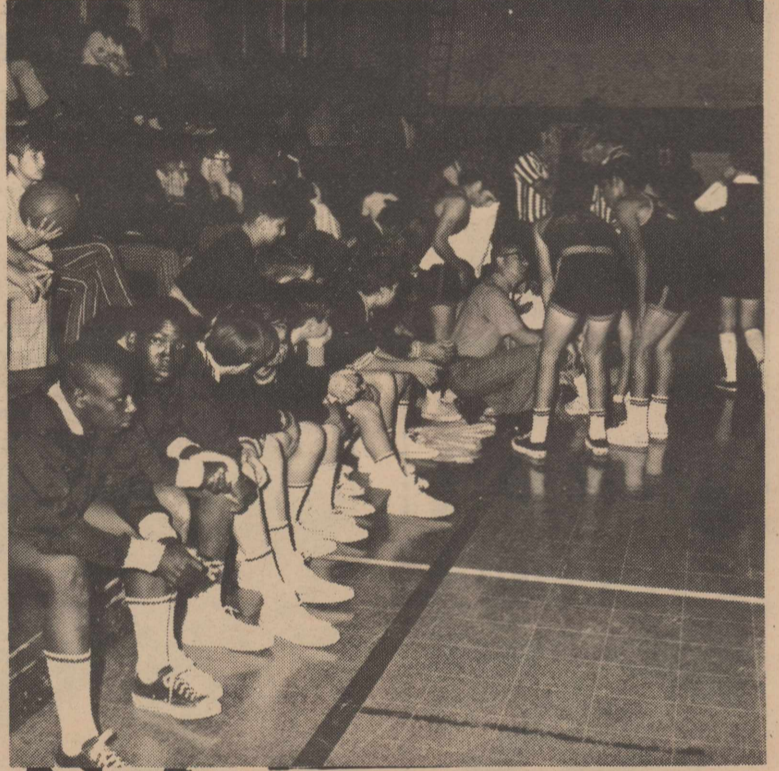

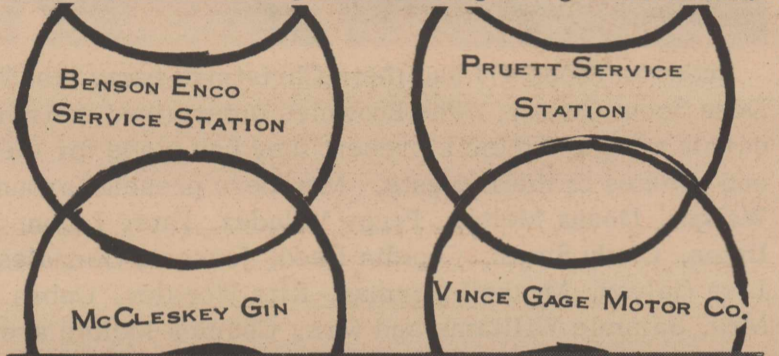

The 8th grade Warriors led by 5 and 6 points throughout the contest against Kermit last Thursday except the last 12 seconds when Kermit hit on 2 field goals and won 46-45.

Nelson fouled out with 2 minutes to go in the 3rd period and Gutterez fouled out in the 4th quarter to hurt the Warriors' chances. Mark Nichols came on strong in the 4th quarter to score 7 points and run his total to 18, to lead all scorers. Mike Bell scored 12 and Gutterez 6.

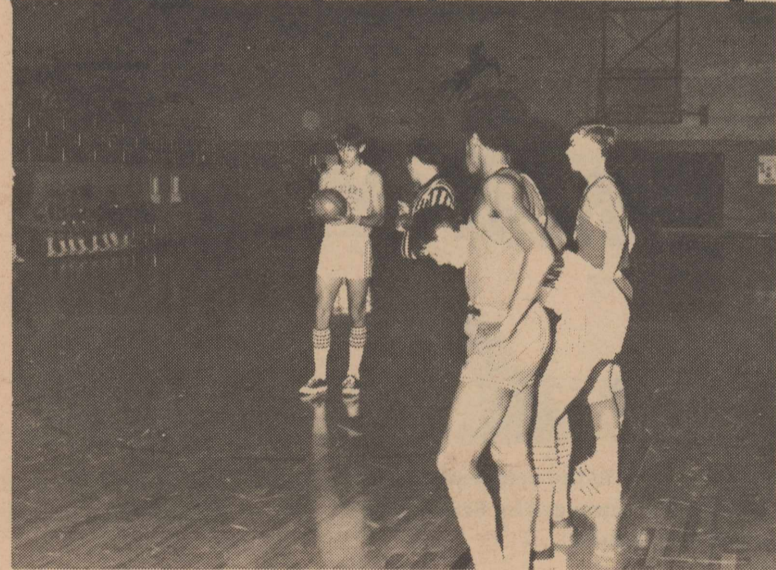

At the end of the first quarter it was 11-6, it was 23-17 at the half and 31-26 at the end of the 3rd period. With 12 seconds to go, the 8th graders had 3 opportunities to tie the score up or win but 2 missed field goals and a free throw would not fall through and they lost a heart breaker by 1 point, 45-46.

The 8th grade Warriors dig in in their ballgame against Brownfield.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE NEW YEAR

Westinghouse Portable Microwave Oven

- An entirely new concept in easy, convenient cooking
- Faster cooking — cooks foods twice, three times, four times faster than conventional cooking
- Cooler cooking — creates cooking heat only in the food itself
- Cleaner cooking — no baked-on spatter, oven wipes clean with a damp cloth
- Cooks foods right in the serving vessels — no pots and pans to scour
- Completely portable — cooks anywhere there is a 115-volt outlet
- More flavor — faster cooking means that natural goodness, flavor and vitamins are not cooked away

MRS. THOMAS MARK MARTIN

Wedding of Interest

The First Baptist Church of Seminole was the setting for the evening marriage of Miss Sammie Lou Hill and Thomas Mark Martin.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the pastor, Rev. Gene Hawkins. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Vera Fay Hill, 602 S. W. 19th St. and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin of Tahoka, former Seminole residents.

The church was lighted with scented votive candles in red and green votive cups for both aisles. Each window was decorated with votive candles, pink poinsettias, and red holly. The back of the altar was decorated with a tall candelabra entwined with emerald foliage, pink gladiolas and pink tapers. On the sides were spiral candelabras, foliage and many pink tapers.

Mrs. Dean Wheelis at the organ accompanied Miss Marilyn Shook as she sang "Twelfth of Never", "A Time for Us" and "One Hand, One Heart."

When given in marriage by her brother, David Lee Hill of Lubbock and her mother, the bride was lovely in her Juliet gown of Ivory Alencon lace applied on silk English net. The fitted bodice of lace was designed with a high band neckline, applied in lace flowerlets and long sleeves. The sleeves were of applied lace and net and were gathered to bands of satin faille with lared cuffs. Tiny bows with pearls further accented the cuffs. The skirt of satin faille was applied in flowerlets of lace down the front and fullness of the gown was gathered to a lace-yoked back forming the flowing train. Her tiered bouffant veiling of silk illusion was caught to a seed pearl crown. The bride carried a bouquet of light and dark pink carnations centered with two orchids.

The maid of honor was Miss Barbara Bramlett of Seminole and Mrs. Jerry Awalt of Winters served as matron of honor. Barbara Killen of Amarillo, sister of the bride, and Beth Gracey of Dallas the bride's college roommate, served as bridesmaids. The attendants were attired in beautiful carpet length gowns of candy pink chiffon featuring the juliet motif. Long sleeves and high-rise waistlines with pleated front panels were features of the gowns. The fullness at the back fell from the shoulders forming a mock train. The headpieces were of matching chiffon and silk flowers. They each carried crystal votive cups with scented raspberry candles. The lighted candles were further decorated by holly and pink ribbons.

Best man was Dave Emler of Denver City. Groomsmen were James and David Martin, brothers of the groom, and Steve Haley of Seminole.

MRS. BAGGETT HOSTS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Phebean Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church met December 14 in the home of Mrs. B. T. Baggett, 607 S. W. 12th, for their annual Christmas party. A tree, about three feet high, made of pine cones, was decorated with twinkling lights. Other decorations were attractive poinsettias.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over red, centered with a lovely Christmas arrangement. Fruit cake with whipped cream, mints and punch were served.

Mrs. Gibbs Phillips led in prayer and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell brought the devotional "In Search of Christmas" by James E. Fogartie from a book of Christmas stories. Members of the class presented the teacher, Mrs. Truemen Dolloff, with material for a dress. Year books for the class were assembled by each member present.

Others present were Mmes. Melvin Brown, Ena Hobdy, L. F. Hyatt and Nell Ikard.

SMART TRICKS

Fashion designers decreed long skirts. The ladies, proud of their "hidden" assets displayed with the mini, didn't take too kindly to the idea. One charged it was an underhand trick at scenic pollution. Others thought it was a sly trick to force them to buy complete new outfits and great cost to them and a greater profit to the designers, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

So the rebellious ladies thumbed their pretty noses at those trying to tell them how to dress - and went out and bought pants.

pillars and topped with tiny flowers and buds. It was light pink with darker pink bells and roses. The floral center-piece was of pink and white carnations arranged with baby's breath and four pink tapers. The arrangement was formed in a spiral candelabra with cupid at the base.

The groom's table was covered with a floor-length linen cloth. Coffee and chocolate cake were served from gold service by Miss Debbie Love, Seminole and Miss Marsha Fenner of Abilene.

The bride wore a dress of hot pink with puffed sleeves under a jumper of hot-pink and orchid for her wedding trip to El Paso, Juarez and Alpine. She wore the corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 1624 24th Street, Lubbock, Texas, where they are both students at Texas Tech.

Mrs. Martin, a 1969 graduate of Seminole High School, will be a Junior next semester. Martin, also a 1969 Seminole High graduate, attended West Texas State University at Canyon one year and entered Texas Tech last summer.

Oh, shucks! Santa, I did so want to eat "SUPPER" at JO'S Christmas Day, but they will be closed.

The feeling of Christmas is finally in the air with the cooler weather we've been having. People are scurrying around, picking up last minute gift items while I am just about starting my Christmas shopping. Every year I tell myself I'm going to start earlier and every year it's almost Christmas Eve before I do. But I have found if you don't know what you're going to buy in the first place, you do just as well by waiting until things are marked down.

ALBERT and EUNIE McGUIRE celebrating their 35th wedding anniversary Monday. Congratulations, McGuires.

BENNY BAGGETT by the office Monday saying he and CORA are really enjoying retirement or at least Cora is since he has joined the "Honey Do Club." He said the last time they loaded their trailer to go fishing she put everything from the ironing board to the sewing machine in it. It was so heavy he could hardly pull it.

GLYNN CHANDLER visiting in Seminole Monday while CARLYNE and the girls were in Odessa. The Chandlers are living on a ranch near Sheffield.

After taking BOB and VICKIE CLARK'S family picture Monday night for their Christmas greeting, I asked if it was all right. Little JOHN MARK spoke up enthusiastically and said, "Oh, I love it!"

That B&PW gal, RUBY OWNBEY, by the office Monday, spreading a little Christmas cheer.

Happy birthday MOM, you're still the 'BEST MOM' a girl ever had.

Because we have been so rushed at the office I haven't made my rounds for the past two weeks and have missed seeing the friendly familiar faces on my trek around town. But I would like to wish each of my readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy and peaceful New Year.

Look out for me because I'll be seeing you AROUND TOWN.
