Local Farm Bureau Leaders Attend Meeting! Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau President John Ross Copeland his wife Autumn and Director Bobby Roberts and his wife Jeffie participated as voting delegates recently at the 78th Texas Farm Bureau annual meeting held December 3-5 in Corpus Christi. Discussion of the latest agriculture issues, recognition of top county Farm Bureaus and individuals and evaluation of the organization's policies was the task for more than 1,050 delegates from 147 organized Farm Bureaus. County delegates voted on proposed policy changes during the meeting's business session. Farm Bureau policies reflect the needs of local farmers and ranchers and direct the state's largest farm organization. Approved recommendations on national policies advance to the American Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting to be held in January in Honolulu, Hawaii. Addressing the delegates were Kenneth Dierschke of San Angelo, TFB president, and Vernie Glasson, TFB executive director. The business session covered the final day of the meeting. The last order of business was the election of the president, Kenneth Dierschke of San Angelo was re-elected.

Miles and Miles of PIPE! Trucks laden with the miles of pipe for the water pipeline project to Bronte were brought in last week. The moon shines its last rays before the sun came up as Edwin Brosh of WEB Construction (top photo) unloaded one of the trucks. The contractor responsible for boring under the highway should start next week just west of Robert Lee on Hwy 158. If bids are approved when opened next Monday, information on volunteering will be included in the January 13 issue of the Observer/Enterprise. Groundbreaking for the pipeline should be the middle of next week. See page 8 of this issue for information on and photos of the pipeline right-of-way.

4-H holds raffle for trailer

All the Coke County 4-H members and FFA kids from Robert Lee and Bronte are selling raffle tickets for a chance to win a 2011 S & H 5' x 14' x 6' 6" Rawhide Stock Trailer.

The drawing will be held at the conclusion of the Coke County Junior Livestock Show on January 21, 2012. You do not need to be present to win.

James Vernon Glenn, age 88 of Amarillo died December 30, 2011, in Amarillo, Texas.

Memorial Services were held Thursday, January 5, 2012, at 10 am at Schooler Funeral Home, Brentwood Chapel. Greg Corona, Pastor at Hillside Christian Church officiated. Arrangements were by Schooler Funeral Home, 4100 South Georgia.

James passed from this world to meet with his parents, relatives and loving friends in Beulah Land, just as he promised his mother he would.

James was born May 10, 1923, in Tennyson, Texas, to John and Mattie Glenn, the sixth of seven children. He was an aviation cadet at Texas A&M and entered into the Army Air Force in 1943 to proudly serve his country.

He married Bobbie Forman and together they had two children, Elaine Alford and Mason Glenn.

James was the owner of the Gibson Stores and the Jack N Box convenience stores in Amarillo. On December 30, 1972, in San Angelo, he married Bessie Pauline McCoy. James died on their 39th wedding anniversary.

James truly enjoyed camping, fishing and hunting with family and friends. Yellowstone, Monument Lake and Eagles Nest were some of his favorite places to visit.

Until his health prevented it, each year he would get up from the Thanksgiving table and head to Ft. Davis to hunt with his brother.

The family would like to extend a personal thank you to the wonderful doctors, nurses and staff the VA Hospital and Odyssey Hospice.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister Pauline Glenn Sims; three brothers, D.K., J.B. and Clark Glenn; his daughter Elaine Alford and his son Mason Glenn.

James is lovingly survived by his wife Bessie; a step daughter, Betty Melinda Leake and her husband Tommy of Amarillo; two step sons, Lester Terry McEntyre and his wife Janet of San Angelo and Michael E. McEntyre and his wife Lisa of Amarillo; two brothers, Tuny Glenn of Bronte and Dale Glenn of San Angelo; a special niece Janeen Williams; thirteen grandchildren, Amy Clawson and her husband Dan, Allison Alford, Colt Glenn, Pam Saunders, Mollie Lee and her husband Steven, Dr. Abby Leake, Ryan Leake, Travis Leake, Carrie Searcy and her husband Jerry, Lisa Hall and her husband Dusty, David McEntyre and his wife Heather, Emily Riley and her husband Michael and Hanna McEntyre; and six-

Wanda Sue Caulder, 73, died Saturday, December 31, 2011, at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene, Texas.

The daughter of the late Lula Fannie (Palmer) and Robert Curtis Walker, Wanda was born on January 17, 1938, in San Angelo, Texas, and graduated from Robert Lee High School in Robert Lee, Texas in 1956. She graduated from nursing school in San Angelo, and in 1976 moved from Robert Lee to Abilene. Wanda worked as a LVN, retiring from Hendrick Medical Center after a 33-year career in nursing.

She was an active member of Elmcrest Baptist Church in Abilene. Wanda was active as a volunteer for various groups and organizations including Frontier Texas, The Grace Museum, McMurry University, West Texas Fair & Rodeo, West Texas Rehabilitation Center and Abilene Christian University, and was a member of Potosi Quilters.

Wanda is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Buddy Caulder and Tonya of Graham, Texas, Eddie Caulder and Lori of Jacksonville, Texas, and a daughter, Debbie Sanders of McKinney, Texas. She was Meme to her five grandchildren and eight great-granddaughters. Survivors also include three brothers and sisters-in-law, Bobby Walker and Joyce, Curtis Wayne Walker and Annice all of Robert Lee, Donald Walker and Janice of San

SIN DEBT IS PAID BY YOUR SUBSTITUTE

The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. • John 10:10

Just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many. • Matthew 20:28

He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. • 1 John 3:8

Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil. • Hebrews 2:14

And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins. • Matthew 1:21

For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die, yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die.

But God demonstrates his own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more than, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.

For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

And not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. • Romans 5:6-11

Clawson

Frank Clawson Jr. passed from this earth to a better place in heaven on December 14, 2011.

He was born on July 26, 1924, the eldest child of Frank Clawson Sr. and Odessa McCraw Clawson. He attended Robert Lee School. He farmed for awhile in Coke County and then migrated to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where his grandmother, Ell McCraw Thompson lived. He met and married the love of his life, Roberta Woodard and to this union four children were born.

After trying several farm jobs, he went to work in a cast iron/aluminum foundry. He was a very talented craftsman and soon had his own foundry, JRS Ornamental Shop. He made numerous signs and garden items including fancy tables and chairs for his family in addition to other work which included making bases for signal lights for Oklahoma City. He molded and fired a design for the Patriot and Drummer Boy statue that still stands today in State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. He was well known for being able to make anything people wanted and was always in demand. He continued in this endeavor until he sustained an injury in the shop and was forced to retire.

After he recovered, he became a greeter at the new Crest Food Store in Moore, Oklahoma. Ill health forced him to retire after six years. He never met a stranger and was well liked at Crest Food Store. After he became ill, people continued to ask about his welfare at the store.

He is survived by his son, Kenneth L. Clawson Sr.; his daughter, Sandra Clawson Little and her husband Gerald of Moore, Oklahoma; his daughter, Victoria A. Clawson Manly of Oklahoma; and his son Johnny D. Clawson and wife Sheryl of Oklahoma City. He is also survived by his brother, Johnny Quannah Clawson Sr. and wife Elsie of Highland, Texas; his sister, Christine Clawson Stewart of Tribbey, Oklahoma; and his baby sister, Mary Jo Clawson Storie of Midwest City, Oklahoma.

He was preceded in death by his parents,

Frank and Odessa Clawson, a sister, Virginia Alice Clawson in infancy, his brother, Wilford Roy Clawson Sr. and his beloved sister, Betty Jean Clawson.

He had 13 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, many nieces and nephews and a host of friends both in Oklahoma and Texas.

The funeral services were conducted at the Sunnyland Funeral Chapel at 2 pm, December 17, 2011. He was laid to rest at Moore Cemetery in Moore, Oklahoma.

Euterpean Club meeting held

The Euterpean Club of Blackwell had their annual Christmas party December 13th at the Methodist Fellowship Hall. Hostesses for the affair were Jane Battle and Bobbie Varnadore.

Jan Hall, president held a short business meeting. The two birthday recipients of the month, Shirley Lemley and Bobbie Varnadore, were given sacks of odds and ends which made for a lot of laughs. A Chinese auction of Christmas ornaments was the highlight of the meeting.

Two new members, Nelda Lee and Betty Jordan were welcomed to the club.

Refreshments were served to Jan Hall, Sue Crain, Shirley Lemley, Janet Lisso, Shirley Passmore, Connie Tomlinson, Rebecca Whipple, Nelda Lee, and Betty Jordan.
