Boston Terrier Museum in Floydada. Bob Hambright funds the memorabilia and the museum from his own pocket.

Floydada is home to the only Boston Terrier Museum in the world

By Kendall McCullough The Hesperian-Beacon

FLOYDADA - Bob Hambright had five Boston Terriers growing up starting in 1970. He began collecting Boston Terrier memorabilia in 1991 as a hobby with his wife, Frances. She was crafty and creative. Some things he would buy would need repainting or repairing and his wife did a great job making the pieces look brand new again.

When his wife died in 2002, Bob thought that he needed a hobby and he already had collected a lot of Boston Terrier memorabilia so he decided to put them all in a museum which opened in 2007.

The museum Bob bought was first a hospital, then a pharmacy, later a video store, and then finally a museum. To collect Boston Terrier memorabilia Bob has gone to flea markets, collectors, and shopped online. It's like treasure hunting. Objects are hard to find. I asked Bob why he thought that so many people liked Boston Terriers and he said, "terriers are good, friendly dogs."

The museum's popularity has grown a lot since its beginning. Bob doesn't advertise so word of mouth is how people learn about the museum's existence. People will post about their experience on social media and other Boston Terrier enthusiasts will come and visit. One lady that visited had 61,000 fans on Facebook and she posted about the museum. Bob received a lot more visitors after that. He receives many visits from Dallas, Houston, and Austin. Many of his visitors are apart of Boston Terrier clubs around the US.

The museum contains countless figurines, dolls, canes, life-size replicas, and much more.

Caprock Hospital building in final stages of demolition

By Kendall McCullough The Hesperian-Beacon

FLOYDADA - The Caprock Hospital opened on October 29, 1967 and cost 1 million dollars (a big deal during that time period). The hospital was made to serve the 16,000 residents of Floyd and adjoining counties in 1967. The hospital took five years to bed.

The Caprock Hospital offered cutting edge technology such as a unique heart monitoring apparatus, an internal-external defribillator, piped on oxygen to every room, and electrically controlled beds. A spacious, well equipped operating room, huge modern kitchen, dining area, snack bar, prayer chapel, modern emergency operating room were just a few of the many features of the hospital. We take these commodities for granted these days, but for that time period, these things were rare for smaller communities.

The building was also a feat of architecture in 1967, boasting a buff brick structure with suspended steel reinforced concrete flor and enormous heating and air conditioning plant. This allowed for individual rooms, halls, or service areas can be heated and cooled simultaneously. The hospital's power plant included elaborate water softeners and purifiers and even humidity control. Mayor Barnet had this to say about the hospital, "There is no question that this is one of the most modern and well-equipped hospitals of any in the area. See HOSPITAL, Page 10

Miracle on Main to be held Saturday

Special to The Hesperian-Beacon

LOCKNEY - The Annual Miracle on Main is scheduled for Saturday, December 7th

Sponsored by the Lockney Chamber of Commerce, the holiday community celebration brings residents and merchants together on Main Street. Cancelled last year due to winter storms, the organizers hope that the December snows stay away.

A multitude of downtown business owners are extending their hours for the evening, allowing for shopping and hotchocolate sipping. The Lockney Elementary students will have a Christmas Corale program and the Lockney High School Band selections will fill the streets with music.

A new activity this year is horse-drawn Christmas Carriage rides and the Elves' Christmas Ponies will be available for petting by little

Santa Claus will arrive on the scene at 6:15 p.m. and families can have photos of the children taken with St. Nick inside Garden's Gate for $5. The Chamber will be putting your Santa picture in a special Christmas keepsake

If you are interested in a booth for $10, please contact Priscilla at 806-401-1619 or Karen at 806-292-519.

See you there!

Nine Experiences that make Visiting Ouray, Colorado Irresistible family and I go on vacation. We enjoy McCULLOGH hiking, relaxing, shopping, playing cards, and just spending time together.

I have been to many places including Montana, Banff, Canada, and Wyoming. But my favorite vacation spot is a little town called Ouray in Colorado.

Here are nine things you should do if you decide to visit Ouray.

1. Hike mountains - Ouray is a beautiful town surrounded by gorgeous mountains such as Sneffels, uncompangre, Redcloud, Sunshine, and Handies peak. Mountain climbing is challenging, but also rewarding. The views at the top and the satisfaction of completing the climb makes the tiring journey well worth it. When I reached the top of 14,158 Ft. Mount Sneffels I felt like a conqueror. I was on the same level as the clouds (even above some of them). I even felt closer to God.

2. Relax in hot springs - Hot springs are said to contain healing properties. Whether this fact is true or not hot springs are relaxing. Ouray has many natural hot springs at the base of mountains, but also a pool fed by the hot springs in town. The Ouray Hot Springs Pool and Fitness Center has three pools with temperatures at 75, 90, and 105 (enter slowly and exit quickly). In this pool my brother's and I enjoyed paddling in tube floats, swimming laps, and relaxing.

3. Jeep the mountain passes - Jeeping is a great activity for the whole family (and very summer my friends). Not everyone will be able to climb a mountain, but everyone can enjoy the beautiful scenery and refreshing mountain air from the comfort and safety of a JEEP. Find JEEP rental information here and trail information here.

4. Pan for gold - Discover what it felt like to be a miner panning for gold!...at least for a few minutes. You might just find a nugget or two. When I began to pan for gold, my blood began to quicken. I almost felt like I was searching for buried treasure! For more information, click here.

5. Discover ghost towns – Explore historic ruins and immerse yourself in the past. Seeing these old shacks and walking through them gave me a taste of what life was like for rugged, mountain explorers in the Old West. There are around nine ghost towns around

6. Ride in a mine cart - The Syracuse Mine Shaft will allow you to ride in an old mine cart through the tunnels while a guide explains the work of the miners and the perils they faced while mining. This ride was as adventurous as it was educational.

7. Rent a cabin - Cabins offer a rustic decor combined with the conveniences of a modern home. Staying in a cabin made me feel like I was actually taking a vacation, away from civilization, and close to nature. Rent a cabin with a veranda and an outside table. It makes for a fun picnic!

8. Visit a waterfall - Hiking up to a waterfall and even behind it is an experience that you cannot skip out on! The sight of a river cascading off the side of a mountaintop to far below is a tranquil sight to behold. You may get a little wet, but after hiking, the mist can be very refreshing.

9. Go Fishin' - Nothing beats fishing on the banks of a calm, peaceful, isolated lake nestled by mountains all around. The scenery is worth the experience alone, but you may just catch a few delectable fish for dinner to take back to the cabin.

Most important, enjoy yourself. Try new things. Explore different options and have fun!

The Razzle Dazzle Red Hat Sisters

November 2, 2019

By Mary M. Carter Special to The Hesperian-Beacon

The Razzle Dazzle Red Hat Sisters met at George's Restaurant in Post, Texas at 11:30 A.M., for lunch, on November 2, 2019. The day change from Thursday to Saturday for this month.

George's Restaurant has been there a long time. Most of us have been there, I believe. Everyone ordered their meals. It was as good as usual! Some ladies chose other places to enjoy a meal.

Next, we went on a tour at the OS Museum. Museums always are interesting and have something we haven't seen before. Small towns museums are one of the gems of Texas.

The last thing on the agenda was going to the Gospel Ragtown Theater for the 3:00 P.M. show, "Rhapsody of Angels". Twenty-six people enjoyed the music and the play. I wanted to give a high-five to the owners, The Polk Family, of the Gospel Ragtown Theater for recognizing the two Veterans in our group by not charging for their tickets for their service in the military. Just to let you know, we enjoy having guests come to our meetings and outings. So please feel welcome to come.

It was a full and busy day, thanks to our Hostess Karla Kindberg. Thank you, again, Karla for all the work it took to get this show on the road!!! Twenty-six people enjoyed it

It was a day of friends being together so there was not a meeting or names taken of attendance.

Our next meeting will be December 5, 2019 at 11:30 A.M. in Floydada, Texas. It is our Christmas Luncheon. We are to bring a wrapped gift of the white elephant variety.

NOTE: Hello. This is Mary M. Carter with my same song and dance note. I was unable to be at this meeting. Missed another fun time. Next meeting, God Willing, I'll be there, Yes!

The 501:

The art of being absurd

MUNN WELCH

Faded sturdy denim and elegantly embroidered net fabric! A ridiculous combination. Think of that famous icon of Surrealist art - the fur-lined coffee cup, complete with furry spoon and saucer.

Yes, we humans are inevitably both fascinated and shocked by unexpected illogical impractical juxtapositions of contrasting materials. It's no wonder the "Embroidered Mesh Detail Denim Trucker jacket" at Dillard's got my attention.

I bought it.

I cannot justify the purchase. At least it was 40percent off.

The look on my husband's face was priceless. Use your imagination.

The jacket is art. If you ask me, it's as much Dada as Surreal, even though the famous above-mentioned coffee cup officially falls into the Surrealism category. If furry cup artist Meret Oppenheim had been born sooner, she would have been a Dadaist first and then a Surrealist. Same goes for Dali. Both styles depend on absurd juxtapositions. Although I am enamored of my absurd jacket, I myself could never seriously subscribe to any movement that simultaneously ruins good coffee cups and pieces of fur.

PAUSE TO LOOK UP DADA.

"An early-20th-century international movement in art, literature, music and film, repudiating and mocking artistic and social conventions and emphasizing the illogical and absurd."

That settles it. We can call that furry cup Dada. But what about my jacket?

Here's what I haven't told you. It's part of the Reba clothing line.

Reba McEntire, Queen of Country, is no Dadaist. Just using the two art terms in the same sentence is unsettling. I'll take a clearly sad country song ahead of confusing Dada music any day. Keep Dada Dada and Country Country!

In fairness to Dada, I made that proclamation without ever having heard Dada music.

DADA MUSIC LISTENING PAUSE. My statement stands.

Back to my jacket. I am not naïve enough to think Reba herself designed it. But the Reba line is supposed to reflect the singer and her values. Right?

Leaving Dada in the dust, my jacket is fun. Think of a big Reba smile. If anything, it mocks Dada and nihilism and all other glum philosophies that dwell on things negative and hopeless. My jacket trades practicality for some lighthearted unexpected elegance, first via the embroidery-embellished mesh yoke in front and secondly - as the model (me) turns 180 degrees - an airy all-but-the-seams embroidered mesh back. If the north wind blows, I'll look it in the face. (I'll have to.) Indeed, whatever comes my way I'm ready to face it in my whimsical impractical fanciful denim jacket. Move over Reba. I'm joining you on the stage of life.

Or shall we wax analytical and say the markedly contrasting jacket materials reflect the paradoxical three-chord truths that characterize so many Country

We could say that. But I'd rather just say my next shopping stop, paradoxically, was the Salvation Army Store. There I spent $2.50 on another irresistible denim jacket. The arms were already cut off. Yes!

Move over just a few more steps Reba. You've inspired me, but this jacket's gonna be all mine.

The South Plains Hobby Club

November 13, 2019

By Mary M. Carter Special to The Hesperian-Beacon

We met at the Ghost Horse Gallery/Night Owl Espresso & Tea Bar on November 13, 2019 at Noon. It is at 506 Main Street, Silverton, Texas. Open 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday – Saturday. The phone number is 806-823-2333.

Helen Teeple, our president, called the meeting to order. She welcomed everyone. Prayer was said by Helen for our lunch. Also, for the people there and the sick and injured. Folks, there are more and more everyday that need our prayers. Please pray for them even if you don't know them. They will feel your caring and Jesus' care. Helen prayed for the people that have prepared our lunch and our speaker today. She thanked the Lord for everything He has done for us.

Ethelyn Vernon had a reading for us:

Helen went over our business. Our December meeting will be on December 11, 2019 at 11:00 A.M. It is our Annual Christmas Luncheon. It will be held at the South Plains Baptist Church in South Plains, Texas. Please bring a potluck dish. Remember to bring your Christmas Inspirational Book for exchange. A new one that made you smiled or the one that you enjoyed from last year. Also, a donation to a worthy cause. We have something new this year too. There will be another opportunity to bring items for donation. If you would like to bring items such as: Toys, can goods - tuna, corn, can chicken, peas, green beans, peanut butter, rice, dry beans, etc. Just bring them to the meeting at the church on November 11. 2019. They will be collected by Denise Doucette and Helen Teeple. We will be playing some games.

The lunch was four different choices of slices of pizza. Dessert, coffee, and hot tea. We enjoy a filling and good meal as our business meeting took place. Normally we would have the company of the "One and Only Blind Barista, Rowdy. He was unable to be there and we missed him. There is a gift shop with lots of different items to see. Some from San Saba, Texas and Fredericksburg, Texas.

Helen introduced Tammy Penn our program speaker. She has been a Master Falconer" for 15 years now. There is an apprentice program to start. Then a General Falconer after 2 years. Master Falconer is a designation after 7 years of falconing experience and the highest level to obtain after several federal tests. When Tammy takes the birds out to hunt she wears a special vest. It has bags to her sides and back to carry her gear. Such as: Transmitters, food for the birds, Ipad, and what the birds have caught, plus more. She wears thick large gloves to protect her hands and arms according to the size of the bird's talons.

The first bird Tammy brought out was the Red Tail hawk named Ace. He was found in Gasline, Texas. He was very frail and underweight covered with mud, but he was not injured. With all the mud he could not fly so he couldn't hunt. The people who found him saved his life. They called Tammy about him. She is very glad they did because he is now a very special bird of prey. He weights 1lb. and 5ozs. Hawks have hollow bones therefore weight less. This is an interesting fact. The birds of prey she has all have tiny transmitters on them that she follows on her computer. This is so she can keep an eye on them, where they are, or if any danger comes to them. Ace catches jack rabbits, rats, mice, and he almost caught a pheasant. Things we don't know! Hawks like road-kill like vultures. It is also a federal law that you can't use bird of prey feathers to decorate. These birds molt yearly in the summer. They drop a few and grow a few.

The second bird we saw was a

TAMMY AND ACE

falcon named CJ. A male 7 years old. He is white and gray. Falcons have much tighter feathers than other birds. He is a hybrid, 3/4 Gyr and 1/4 Saker. He was hatched in Wyoming in 2012 and never in the wild. He was originally used as an educational bird. He came to Tammy in 2017 and he had never hunted. CJ is now a great hunter and has taken pheasant, ducks, rabbits, and pigeons. The Gyr falcon is the largest of the falcon species. He breeds on arctic coasts and tundra, the islands of Northern Europe, Asia, and North America. The Saker is also a large species of falcons. This falcon breeds from central Europe eastward across Asia. Interesting fact! The Gyr falcon has a horizontal speed of 60 mph and a diving speed of 150 mph. God is amazing in what He

The third bird we saw today was Annie, a female Eurasian Eagle-Owl. It resides in much of Eurasia. It is also called the European Eagle-Owl. Tammy Bought Annie this spring. She never saw her parents. The females are bigger than the male owls. They get up to eight lbs. They have softer and fluffier feathers than the other birds we saw today. Very long talons. Her wingspan is six foot now and she will get bigger. She feeds on all she wants daily. They are solitaire birds except only for mating. They are about the same size as eagles. All the birds were seen inside the Night Owl Espresso and Tea Bar. We went outside to watch Tammy have Annie fly and do her demonstration.

We all shopped in the Ghost Horse Gallery. Denise Doucette and Helen Teeple visited Oakley the male Great Horned Owl. Tammy was talking to the birds and feeding them frozen mice.

All said, this was an excellent day and program. We enjoyed seeing friends too. You just have to thank the Lord for days like these.

Note: I really don't like my notes!! Because that means I was not able to be there to see the beautiful birds or enjoy all the fun. I received very in-depth notes from Helen Teeple. It was great!! Thank you, Helen. I appreciate it!!

Those attending Helen Teeple, Carolyn Marble, Peggy Roberts, Sue Daniels, Ethelyn Vernon, Virginia Taylor, Mary Quattlebaun, and Denise Doucette. Guest speaker Tammy Penn.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM MEMORIES 1979

WILLIAM SNELL FAMILY

William Snell was born near Columbus, Georgia in 1878 and moved to Texas at age six with his parents, settling in Coryell County. His parents were W. H. Snell and Margaret Mitchell. His father owned and operated a cotton gin and later owned and operated a grocery store in Clifton, Texas. His grandfather was a Methodist preacher circuit rider in Georgia. Will met Annie Doris Jones at a church picnic and they were married in 1902.

Will and Annie purchased a farm in the Blanco Community of Floyd County in 1909, paying $9.00 per acre for it. In 1920 they decided to move to this farm and contracted with two carpenters from Gatesville to come to Floydada and build the house and it took them about 8 months to finish it. Will and Annie retired in 1944 and moved into to Floydada to make their home. This couple lived to enjoy their sixtysecond wedding anniversary. Will died in 1971 and Annie died in 1965. They are buried in the Floydada Cemetery.

To this marriage were born three sons and two daughters. Wilber Snell married Mildred Anderson and they live in Fort Worth, where he is a salesman. He has one daughter, Eloise, who lives in Colorado.

Margaret Snell died at an early age.

Clyde Snell married Elizabeth McKinney and lived in Fort Worth, where he was a truck driver. He died in a truck accident in 1938. They had one son, Clyde Harold Snell Jr. who married Vivian Fewell, and they have two children, Mark and Donna. Harold is on the police force at Brownfield, Texas. Vivian is an X-Ray technician at the Brownfield General Hospital.

Billy Snell married Virginia McKinney and they live in Lubbock where he is in the food service equipment business. They have two children;

Steven who married Debbie Evans and lives in Lubbock and Susie who married Kenneth Thornburg and they also live in Lubbock with their two daughters.

Ruth Snell married Roy L. Hale and they lived in the Harmony Community where Roy died in February, 1978. Ruth is a registered nurse and is living in Lubbock. Renewed Strength

[God] comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God. - 2 Corinthians 1:4 (NIV)

I was deeply saddened when I received the news that a good friend from our congregation had died of cancer. This brought back memories of the deaths of my mother and sister after their struggles with terminal disease. I could not hold back my tears.

My three-year-old son came over to me, caressed my face, and asked, "What's wrong, Mommy? Why are you crying?" I told him, "I miss my mother and my sister." He looked at me and smiled, then took my hand and motioned for me to step outside the house. He said, "Look at the sky, Mommy. They are there with God. God is taking care of them. You don't need to be sad."

God was there in that moment, showing me the power and breadth of faith. My son was witnessing to the faithfulness of God who is with us in this life and in life beyond death. That conversation with my son renewed my strength and helped me move ahead, acknowledging that God sometimes uses ways beyond our understanding to demonstrate love and mercy. -Angieluz Valle Rodríguez (Puerto Rico)

Reinke Recognizes Agriculture Precision Supply with Diamond Pride Award

Special to the Hesperian-Beacon

(DESHLER, Neb.) -Reinke Manufacturing, a global leader in irrigation systems and technology, has recognized Agriculture Precision Supply in Floydada with a Diamond Pride award in recognition of the company's marketing year success. The organization was honored during Reinke's annual convention in Kansas City.

"I want to congratulate Agriculture Precision Supply on receiving this award," said Reinke Vice President of North American Irrigation Sales Mark Mesloh. "Reinke appreciates the dedication they have shown to the growers in their area. We are very proud to work with them and have them representing Reinke."

Reinke dealerships from across the United States and Canada gather each year to attend the company's sales convention. This year, Reinke dealers met in Kansas City, Salt Lake City and Charlotte. The awards recognized select Reinke dealers for their hard work, commitment to the higher standards of being 100% Reinke Certified and for their dedication to sales and marketing efforts throughout the past year.

The Reinke Pride awards are determined as part of an incentive program that distinguishes superior achievement levels according to an evaluation based on a dealership's exterior and interior housekeeping and maintenance, indoor and outdoor displays, safety, retail environment, merchandising, professionalism, promotions, event participation and market share.

With hundreds of dealers in more than 40 countries, Reinke Manufacturing is the world's largest privately held manufacturer of center pivot and lateral move irrigation systems. Family owned since 1954, and headquartered in Deshler, Neb., Reinke develops products and technology designed to increase agriculture production while providing labor savings and environmental efficiencies. Reinke is a continued leader in industry advancements as the first to incorporate GPS, satellitebased communications and touchscreen panel capabilities into mechanized irrigation system management. Floydada Whirlwinds

Floydada teams sweep Petersburg

PETERSBURG - The Floydada Whirlwinds and Lady Winds basketball teams swept a non-district doubleheader with Petersburg.

Junior Alexis Cruz led the Lady Winds to a second half comeback, guiding the Floydada girls to a 28-22 victory in the first game of the night's two games. In the boy's game, the Whirlwind defense crushed the Buffaloes for much of the contest and gave Floydada the sweep with a 74-25 vic-

The Lady Buffs (0-4 on the season) had a depth question before the season, but injuries and sickness left the team down three players, leaving just two substitutes - one of which was called up from the junior varsity team - against Floydada.

Likewise, the Lady Winds (1-3) were dealing of their own, forcing the team to change its approach from one half to another.

Playing mostly a sloweddown, half-court game in the first half, the Floydada girls picked up the pressure on defense and continued to limit Petersburg's touches in the paint.

Cruz totaled 10 points to lead the Lady Winds, which followed up an 18point performance against Lorenzo. Simmons said the Plainview transfer who sat out last year has "been a great addition for us for sure.". Lindsey Marquez had six points and Vega had four.

TheFloydada boys put the clamps on Petersburg from the outset, forcing the Buffaloes into difficult situations on offense. The Whirlwinds also moved the ball well on offense, keeping the defense on the move all night...

The Whirlwinds jumped

Special to The Hesperian-Beacon with some missing players out to a 28-8 lead at halftime, a solid lead for most teams, but Floydada was just getting started. Floydada opened up the third quarter on an 18-0 run that put the game officially out of reach.

While Floydada has had some practice time, the Petersburg boys were playing a playoff football game this time last week. The Buffaloes have already had two games and the rustiness on the hardwood was evident.

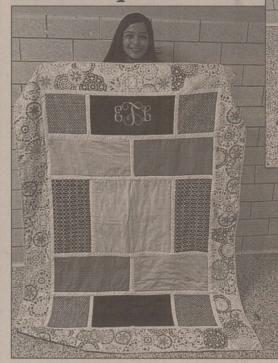

Senior Marcus Perez was the constant thorn in Petersburg's side. The feisty point guard came up with numerous steals, started fast breaks and, as tough defenders usually do, got under the Buffaloes' skin a Ouincy Gonzales led the way for Floydada with 24 points while Garrett Hobbs added 18. Lamychal Henderson put in 11 points. Jesus Alvarado had 13 points for Petersburg.

Ave., Lubbock.

The event is free for all 4-H and FFA exhibitors. Participants are urged to bring their livestock projects - cattle, lambs, goats and hogs - for a morning of hands-on training, said Robert Scott, AgriLife Extension agent in Lubbock County.

Scott said the showmanship clinic is a good opportunity for youth and their families to gain valuable experience from older 4-H members who have been successful in the show ring.

"We've selected almost a dozen of our district's top showman to conduct this training," Scott said. "They are all longtime 4-Hers and veterans of the show ring. They know firsthand what it takes to compete successfully."

As the museum has become more well-known people have donated more and more memorabilia to Bob. He often gives away duplicates to children. The Boston Terrier museum is 1 of 2 dog museums in the world and pitals of any in the area. For a city the size of Floydada its an outstanding facility." The mayor was a good judge because he had managed the Friona Medical-Surgical clinic before moving to Floydada.

The hospital was also equipped with a $12,000 Xray machine, along with a dark room and lighted viewing panels. Its immaculate kitchen contained $33,000 work of stainless-steel utensils, fixtures and appliances. Th facility contained 18 private beds, 16, semi-private beds; a four-bed ward, and a two-bed pediatrics section. There was also a five-bassinet nursey, a major surgery room, emergency room, a two-bed recovery room, delivery and the only Boston Terrier specific museum. The other one is located in New York.

The museum doesn't have general hours of operation, but if anyone wants to visit they can call ahead of time to make an appointment. Hambright said he is more than happy to open up his museum and show off all his stuff. The number to call is 806-983-5010.

Half of the hospital was paid for by a Hill-Burton grant. The people of the hospital district voted bonds for a lack amount, but over a year costs increased so that there was an extra $80,000 needed. The community, having faith in the project, paid that $80,000 in two weeks. As you can see the hospital was a big project, with large costs, but also state of the art equipment and facilities for the time. The hospital truly covered a huge need for the community and communities surrounding it. Caprock Hospital closed its doors in 1991. Now after 28-years of being vacant, the hospital is in the final stages of demolition. Vanco, contracted by Floyd County, first had the hospital abated for asbestos and is now tearing it down. They hope to be completed in the next 3-4 weeks.
