ATC Motto Contest Draws Attention

PREPARE FOR SPEECHES—President of the Officers Toastmasters, 1st Lt. Don Edwards, and SSgt. Maynard Sitton, educational vice president of the Joseph M. Budde Toastmasters, compare notes on books set aside in the Base Library to aid members of the three Toastmaster units at Reese to make better talks.

STUDY BEST BOOKS—Chaplains James D. Taylor and George Worner study best books in a special library display.

Library Week Success Here

Observance of National Library Week at Reese was hailed as "a major success" by Mrs. Helen K. Fuller, base librarian. She said that attendance had increased at least 50 per cent and that large numbers of base people who had not been in the library previously had come in.

Free paper-bound books were given to all visitors and some people came back each day to secure a new volume, Mrs. Fuller said. Book marks also were given visitors.

Special displays at the library featured books and other material intended to interest wives, to assist Toastmasters in preparing speeches, emphasizing safety, and other features.

Children's books also were featured.

"National Book Week at Reese most certainly was a good one and drew more interest than we had expected," the librarian commented.

Bond Award Offered Best Single Entry

Could you describe the mission of Air Training Command in ten words or less?

A $500 United States Savings Bond is yours if you can.

Reese people this week began working on entries in the "ATC Motto Contest" which started last Friday and for which military persons and Department of the Air Force employees assigned to ATC are eligible.

Everyone is asked to pinpoint the global mission of the command in a few well-chosen words, the winning phrase will become the official Air Training Command motto.

The contest runs until 4 p.m. April 29 and all entries must be submitted to the Base Information Office.

Participation in the ATC Motto Contest costs nothing; but the motto selected may win the $500 savings bond.

Contest rules and the ATC Motto Contest entry blank may be found on Page 2 of this issue. All Reese people are urged to read the rules carefully and submit mottoes immediately.

Folk Dance Class Opening Tonight

A folk dancing class for Reese people will begin tonight in the Service Club, with all persons invited.

"Two left feet should not keep anyone from attending; everyone will learn to dance the first session; come, learn, and do," Mrs. Daphne Hargett, club director, said.

Mrs. Clarice Wills, past president of the Folk Dance Federation of California, who has taught in California, France, West Virginia, and Mississippi, is to instruct in polkas, schottisches, and occasional square dances. Instruction will be at 8 p.m. on the second, fourth, and fifth Friday nights of each month.

Saturday the chef's club meets at 4 p.m., with special games and dancing at night. Talent contest rehearsals are at 2 p.m. Sunday, camera enthusiasts meet Monday night, and the dramatic club is to rehearse Tuesday night.

Free sewing is offered airmen Thursday night. An Easter dance also is scheduled.

Northrop Officer Speaks At Dinner

J. J. Quinn, chief of marketing sales of the Northrop Aviation Corps, will discuss the T-38 Talon supersonic aircraft at the Pilot Training Group dinner at 7 p.m. today in the Officers' Club.

Quinn will show pictures of the Talon in action. The T-38 is scheduled to become the ATC primary pilot training aircraft next year.

All PTG officers are expected to attend the dinner, with Lt. Col. Charles W. Sawyer, Group Commander, as master-of-ceremonies. Special guests will include Col. L. C. Hess, base commander; Col. James D. C. Robinson, deputy commander; Maj. Charles Ford, Hospital commander; and Maj. H. R. Wright, personnel officer.

ENTRANTS—At least four additional entries in the ATC Motto Contest were assured Tuesday as base publications people took time out to tabulate suggestions. Seated are Mrs. Chris Ichtetz, secretary, and A/IC Joel Rowan, while TSgt. Robert W. Berry and A/3C Harry J. Gaffney write on top of filing cases. Each feels confident his motto will win the $500 bond.

Chilean Air Force Officers Visit Base Early Next Week

Four officers of the Chilean Air Force will visit Reese Tuesday and Wednesday on an orientation tour for indoctrination in Air Force operations, organization, and training.

Heading the group will be Maj. Gen. Alfredo Ramirez Lavin, Deputy Chief of Staff for Materiel. He will be accompanied by Col. Eduardo Serrano Acvedo, Assistant Chief of Finance; Lt. Col. Gustavo Guzman Leigh, Director of Supply and Services; and Lt. Col. Eleodoro Loyola Calderon, Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Materiel. The escort officer will be Lt. Col. Robert Johnson of Air Force headquarters.

The visitors are scheduled to arrive at Reese at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and leave late the next afternoon. They will study maintenance and supply and be briefed on training procedures.

Project officer is Col. William A. Martin, M&S Group commander. He will be assisted by Maj. Thomas Manjak, who came to Reese from three and a half years duty in Chile as materiel adviser to the Air Force there. While in Chile Maj. Manjak worked very closely with General Lavin and the visiting colonels.

Fourteen Airmen End OJT Course

Fourteen Reese airmen today are completing the OJT Administrator-Supervisor course after 60 hours of instruction by Ben Vandell, educational specialist for ATC, stationed at Amarillo AFB.

The instruction began a week ago Monday and continued daily, morning and afternoon. Students represented each unit of the base, learning of best methods and techniques for planning and carrying out OJT in the Air Force.

The course is to "assist commanders in establishing and maintaining a capability to conduct OJT on a continuing basis in their own commands." Officers are eligible to attend. The course was arranged by Capt. James R. Coleman, assistant personnel officer, and MSgt. Ross Freeman, OJT supervisor.

Warnock Selected As Honor Student

Aviation Cadet Edward R. Warnock of Baker, Ore., has been selected as outstanding graduate of Air Training Command and will receive special recognition on graduation of his class, 61-G, from Reese on April 29.

Cadet Warnock will receive the Daughters of American Colonists award at the graduation for achievement in all phases of training at all levels. He received pre-flight training at Lackland AFB and learned fundamentals of Air Force flying in the civilian contract school at Bartow AB.

First Life Scout Award Made On Base

In a candlelight ceremony Monday night, Rudi Rushing, son of MSgt. and Mrs. Claud Rushing, received the award of Life Scout as a member of Reese Troop 148 Boy Scouts. He is the first scout to achieve this rank since the troop was organized six years ago.

Presentation was by Eagle Scout, Lt. Col. Victor C. Correll, at a Court of Honor.

Successfully completing advancement also were: Alan Johnson, son of Capt. and Mrs. John L. Johnson, Victor Correll, son of Colonel and Mrs. Correll, Clay Walker, son of TSgt. and Mrs. R. L. Walker, and John Knierim, son of Capt. and Mrs. Donald Knierim. The boys moved to Second Class Scout.

Merit badges were awarded to Rudi Rushing, Richard Ford, Michael Hritz, Roddy Lins, Alan Johnson, and Clay Walker. A special award of neckerchief slide and an official Boy Scout ring was presented to Candidate Scout Terry King for selling 44 tickets to the Scout Exposition.

From the COMMANDER'S DESK

By Col. L. C. Hess, Base Commander

The selective reenlistment program for implementing the 55/45 concept is now underway. It is extremely important that first term airmen who are eligible for reenlistment, commanders and supervisors thoroughly understand the program.

Commanders and supervisors must be familiar with the program so they can properly counsel the young airman whose retention is desired. The first term airman should likewise be well informed so he can make a wise decision based on all the facts.

The selective reenlistment program is a big step toward increasing quality in our career airmen. To assure the successful development of a prestige force, which this program affords, requires a thorough understanding of the advantages it offers. The advantages for the Air Force are more quality, better stability and a balanced structure, whereas the keynote for the airman is better career progression and promotion opportunity.

I cannot over-emphasize to commanders, supervisors and first term airmen who are eligible for reenlistment the importance of being thoroughly informed as to the purpose and scope of this program.

Souvenirs Needed

Air Force investigators, examining causes of certain aircraft accidents over the nation, are being plagued by souvenir hunters. Persons visiting the scene of a major aircraft accident seem to have an irresistible urge to collect a souvenir. Just a small piece of the aircraft is taken "to show the folks."

Unless every piece of the aircraft can be found and examined by experts, chances of finding the cause of the accident are slim.

The souvenir that someone picked up might have provided the investigators with the exact cause of the accident. Without all the pieces, the experts are "working in the dark."

When the cause of an accident can be determined, precautions are taken to guard against similar crashes. These precautions can prevent other accidents, saving numerous aircraft and many lives.

Fortunately, few accidents have occurred on or near Reese. But in case a major crash occurs at any time, base people are urged to help protect against souvenir hunters. The investigators need all the pieces.

During the last fiscal year, Air Training Command was responsible for programming and managing all individual training for more than 20 separate Air Force missile systems in the aerospace force.

Past Achievements Sidetrack Present Desires For Many

By Chaplain James D. Taylor

In the early days of railroads, the habit of spotting cars at different sidings was accomplished in this way where the grade would permit.

A long line of box cars would be uncoupled from each other and pushed up a grade by a powerful locomotive. There one by one, they were given a final push over the top of the grade. They ran along well from the force of the power that started them. They seem to keep up the speed for a time; they are for a while going down hill, but by and by run slower and slower until at last they are sidetracked at various places along the way.

Some people are like this. Something comes along and gives them a big push, and they go to the top of the grade and over there they spend the rest of their lives getting along on their past achievements. They are so easy to sidetrack and will follow almost anything as long as they are not required to furnish any power.

I had a dog once that was spoiled as to hunting where we did not dare take him with us. He could follow the tracks of a coon for a while until he came across the track of a rabbit or anything else that was a little fresher and follow that. Some people need to get on the right track and follow God rather than being led off into all kinds of sidings. In this season, it is good to renew our vows to God.

It's A . . .

Sons On Rival Lubbock High School Teams; Johnsons Face Big Problem

Loyalty to their third base- men sons is complicating the lives of Capt. and Mrs. John L. Johnson of Reese.

Tom S. Lubbock and Monterey High School teams played at home last weekend and the Johnsons had to watch both teams out of loyalty. Then who will they root for when the Tom S. Westerners meet the Monterey Plainsmen next Tuesday and on April 29?

One son, John, 17, is starting third baseman for Monterey; another son, Phil 15, plays third base for Tom S.

"It looks like Tuesday we'll just sit quietly and not take sides, hoping the boys do well and the best team wins," Captain Johnson said.

Loyalty to sons was a problem last weekend. The Westerners met Amarillo teams at Mackenzie Park, the Plainsmen were playing the teams at Hodges Park, more than five miles away.

Captain and Mrs. Johnson took a look at early innings of the Monterey-Palo Duro game Friday at Hodges Park, a game in which Johnny got two hits of five and a pair of runs batted in as the Plainsmen won, 13-0. Then they dashed out to Mackenzie Park to watch Phil help the Westerners to a 4-1 win over Amarillo High.

Saturday the parents opened the baseball afternoon at Mackenzie watching Phil double and single, record an RBI, and score twice against Palo Duro. Then they hastened to Hodges Park, where Johnny hit two for two, scored twice, and got an RBI.

Phil is a former Reese Little Leaguer and for the past two years pitched and played infield for the First National Bank in the Southwest Pony League, hitting 394 his first season and leading the league in 1959 with .535.

Both boys are confident they will be on the winning team Tuesday. John enrolled in Monterey when the Johnsons lived in Lubbock. He was permitted to remain in the school to get his diploma this school year, although he and his family moved to the base. Reese is in the Tom S. Lubbock school area, so Phil enrolled in that school.

PLAY PLANNED

The summer golf league will begin Monday, April 25, with USGA rules in effect. Schedules are being drawn and awards will go to winners and runners-up. Points also will be given toward the Commanders Trophy, 30 for competing, 100 for winning the league title, 70 for second, 50 for third, 30 for fourth, and 15 for fifth. Entries must be made by April 19.

Golf Notes

By Ken Shields

The first round matches of the Base Match Play Golf Tournament are underway this week, with matches scheduled for completion by tomorrow night.

Seventy-two golfers entered the tourney, enough for nine flights. Merchandise prizes from the Pro Shop will be awarded to the winner, runner-up, and consolation winner of each flight. All first round losers go into the consolation bracket.

Congratulations to Col. James D. C. Robinson for his deuce on No. 7 last Sunday. This was the first eagle ever scored on a four-par hole of the Reese course. The colonel holed a four iron shot from 180 yards.

Captain Places In AAU Contests

Captain Robert Carlin of Air Base Group, winner of fifth place in the AAU wrestling tournament in the 115-pound class, returned to the base this week.

He was state wrestling champion of New York State in his weight for four years while in high school from 1943 to 1947, captained the Indiana University team two years, and was Big Ten champion in 1952.

Captain Mario L. Ventura, former staff judge advocate at Reese, has been reassigned to the Air Force Academy law faculty, reporting in the summer. He is staff judge advocate at Stead AFB.

Girl Scout Bowlers Lead City League

Girl Scout Troop 41 bowlers this week were in first place in the Junior Girls League, rolling at the Oakwood Lanes.

The girls insist they will remain on top during the remaining three weeks of the league play, Mrs. William C. Lindler, troop leader, states. On the Troop 41 team are Diann Bloomer, Pat Lindler, Nancy Parsons, Pegg McGuire, and Paula Wilson. Peggy, only one with prior experience — in Hawaii — has a 125 average.

Mrs. Bill Farlines, Oakwood Lanes instructor, started the girls bowling and SMSgt. William C. Lindler has been attempting to improve the averages, working frequently with the team.

Thrift Shop Seeks More Sale Articles

A request for Reese families to bring more articles to the Thrift Shop to sell was made Thursday by Mrs. Russell Hainline, chairman. She said the stock is being depleted rapidly. Items may be placed in the shop on consignment or may be given to the shop. The 88 cent bargain table continues to be popular. Clothing items are priced at $1 and below.

The Reese bowling team last weekend at Lowry AFB ran into "hot" teams and finished seventh in the Northern District tournament of ATC.

First-Termer Reup Program Gaining Momentum On Base

The 55/45 career program for first-term airmen gained momentum this week at Reese. Squadron commanders met with wing personnel officers Thursday to discuss the program, and first-term airmen will be interviewed soon.

All first-termers eligible for reenlistment during the next fiscal year have been identified and each will be asked if he wishes to reenlist. Under the 55/45 program, 55 per cent of Air Force personnel will be career men, 45 per cent first-termers.

Supervisors will evaluate eligibles and state for each whether or not he recommends reenlistment, giving his reasons.

A board will consider each person desiring to reenlist in career fields where the number exceeds the quota. Each applicant will be rated.

All major commands have been given quotas and will set quotas for each base. In instances where the command quota is not large enough to set base allotments, ATC will make the selections of who can reenlist in certain career fields. Only the best qualified, in all instances, will be permitted to reenlist.

Under the program, when base quotas are received each eligible airman will be asked if he desires to reenlist. He must state his wish immediately. He may take a short discharge and reenlist at this time, or extend his enlistment for nine months. If the enlistment is extended, the individual may reup at any time between the extension and the original ETS. If he extends, but does not reup, he must serve the nine months additional time in order that a replacement may be obtained.

Persons not selected for reenlistment during the next fiscal year will be notified in June.

Woman's Chatter

By Mrs. Patrick F. Durning
Looking ahead, parties and luncheons should keep everyone busy for the next few weeks.

First Lt. and Mrs. Ernest Bedke entertained an uncle, Lt. Col. Hazen Bedke of Washington, D. C. He flew in Wednesday. The Reese Bedkes and son, Curt, will leave today for 30 days in Phoenix, Las Vegas, and San Francisco.
