Tobruk Forces Advance, Join British Drive

Imperiled Russian Capital Is Facing Renewed Assault

(By The Associated Press) The Tobruk garrison, a conglomeration of British imperial troops and their Polish and Czech allies, has fulfilled its mission as a flank threat to the Axis in Libya by striking through to a junction with the main British offensive on that turbulent front, the Middle East command announced today.

Prize Changes Often

The Germans and Italians sought to contain the garrison but, pointed by tanks brought by sea to the besieged port, the men of Tobruk thrust relentlessly through a land mine belt and siege entrenchments to capture Duda yesterday, and juncture with the New Zealanders was effected there early today.

Stiff Fighting Continues

"Stiff fighting continued in the area throughout yesterday and it was not until early this morning that elements of the relieving forces were able to join hands at Ed Duda with the British force from Tobruk which yesterday captured that important locality," the British communique said.

New Threat To Moscow

British armored and mechanized columns heeded the raiders whose operations were thus described by the communique: "While this raid had certain nuisance value it has not succeeded in diverting us from our main object—destruction of the main Axis forces further west."

"Huge Forces" In Battle

The Moscow newspaper Izvestia said that the Germans had thrown "huge forces" in an attempt to build up numerical superiority for their many-pointed offensive toward the Russian capital.

"God's Day Ends In Dawn" Is Sermon Topic At Union Thanksgiving Services Held Here

The following is the full text of the sermon delivered at 10 o'clock this morning at Union Thanksgiving services at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. W. J. Johnson, pastor.

GOD'S DAY ENDS IN DAWN

Introduction: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. And the earth was waste and darkness. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said: Let there be light, and there was light. And God saw the light that it was good, and God divided the light from darkness. And God called the light "Day," and the darkness he called "Night." And there was evening and there was morning, one day. God's day ends in dawn.

And God created the firmament and the waters, and the dry land, and all that above them, in them, and on them. And God finally climaxed his creation with the forming of man made in his own image. God loved the man whom he had made, and he gave him dominion over all things of earth, sea, and air.

God was good to man. It was this goodness which made our Pilgrim Fathers in 1621 go to their knees in thanksgiving to Him—the Giver of life-love-joy—in their Thanksgiving they began by saying: "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." The world and they that dwell therein. Yes, they were thankful for God's creation and the fact that they were His.

Let us give thanks likewise. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord.

Thanks—For What?

Personally—for home, loved ones, friends, health, freedom.

Nationally—for the president's Thanksgiving proclamation; for the fact that our nation is still a free nation; for the moral and physical defenses against the forces of threatening aggression; for the mounting unity in sentiment and effectiveness; for the fact that we are able to send money to those people abroad who are defending their homes and liberties against annihilation.

Thankful for God's merciful mercy in afflicting both public and private for the purposes of the harvest; for opportunities to labor and serve, and for the continuance of those simple joys which enrich our lives.

Indubitably—thankful for the privilege and experience of brotherhood around the table—thankful for One God, Father of us all—thankful for Christ, the Son of God.

Give thanks personally, nationally, universally for God's manifold goodness.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise. Give thanks unto Him, and bless His name.

As One Loving Christ

Today, as Christians of many denominations, but loving One Christ—we have assembled before God's presence with Thanksgiving—For Him—our God, and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hands. We are gathered to bless and magnify His name.

Trinitarian Truth and might whose love Unmeasured countless centuries prove Our Guide and Refuge, Guard and Stay, Our Light by night, and shade by day—Before thine altar, Lord Most High, Thy name we bless and magnify.

Because our fasting souls have fed On heavenly wine and living bread, Because our ears thy voice have heard, And in our life, thy life hath stirred, Before thine altar, Lord Most High, Thy name we bless and magnify.

For all thy goodness that supplied, For all thy wisdom that directed, For all thy love that has taken, Before thine altar, Lord Most High, Thy name we bless and magnify.

But as we bless and magnify God's name, as we find so much to be thankful for, may we not be heavy of heart—troubled— even extremely pessimistic—It is fine and good to be in the home—eating hearty of native, native prayers of Thanksgiving—but our minds aren't clear, for in the deepest recesses of the diving roar of blimp bombers as they rain death and destruction, the shriek of ailing men as they are crushed to earth, our hearts double their tempo—beating out the incessant question: "What about our war-time world struggling for breath? What of Christ's gift of a harvest—the earth? These are dark questions in the time of Thanksgiving—this is how to light.

When man and God had been separated for 1000 years because of the sin of Adam's highest creation, God saw mankind as waste and darkness covering the face of the earth—and God said: Let there be light, and there was light. The light of the World, that light—shining in darkness and the darkness cannot put it out. No, the light is not soiled, but it must be dark before we can see the stars.

The Light of the World

Jesus Christ is the Light of the World, the light that shineth in darkness. His teachings are as a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path—"For we were once darkness, but now are we light in the Lord. Walk as children of light. If we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another."

Christ's light still shines in the world, however bright depends on those who love Him. To the Christian he said, "Ye are the light of the World. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Outside of the soul's salvation, the brightest light Christ brings to our darkened world carries on its beam to the innermost heart the fact of the Fatherhood of God. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light. Love, which is the fulfilling of the law. The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light, that we may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse world, among whom we must shine as lights in the universe.

CONCLUSION: What may we say in conclusion as we face a world at war on this Thanksgiving Day, 1941. First, we have a tremendous number of things to be thankful for—personally, nationally, and universally. Second, we have a tremendous number of responsibilities and hardships ahead of us in this dark chaotic world. But thirdly, we have a light to guide us through the darkest days.

God doesn't always offer His children a bomb-shelter, but He does offer to walk with them in the darkness with Him. He doesn't promise to spare us the terrors of sorrow, but He has promised to wipe away all tears.

He doesn't say there will be no temptations or sufferings, but He says there will be a way provided to withstand either for His sake.

He doesn't tell us we will never taste defeat, but He does show us how to turn defeat into victory.

For all these sustaining blessings, we ought to give thanks. The Pilgrim Fathers had surmised many a loved one and had undergone every privation when they knelt that first Thanksgiving to give thanks.

God hath not promised Skies always blue, Flower-strewn pathways, All our lives through, God hath not promised—But without pain, Joy without sorrow, Peace without pain, But God hath promised—Strength for the day, Rest for the labor, Light for the way, Grace for our trials, Help from above, Unfailing sympathy, Unending love.

Yes, friends, we are living in the night of the world—but if ever a Christian felt deep certainty of any one thing—today, as a Christian, he must shout to the world this conviction—that the night of the world must inevitably give way to the light of the world. "For as in the beginning God's day ends in Dawn—and Christ is our Dawn—heralding the irresistible approach of the day in which shall come the Kingdom of Heaven to Earth."

Thanksgiving

We are Mighty Thankful and Proud of the Privilege of Being Americans!

"Our deepest, most heartfelt thanks, O Lord, for the blessings of life, liberty and material well-being, and for the joys of family, friendship and happiness."

Prayers such as that are being offered all over the nation today, just as they were when that first little group of grateful colonists offered theirs in celebration of the first harvest in their new land. Hundreds of harvests, hundreds of Thanksgiving observances, we have had much to be thankful for; each of them saw our country a little further down the road of history, a land growing in power, in area, in wealth . . . and most of all, in the happiness and well-being of a free people.

Today, Thanksgiving 1941, we see our country engaged in a tremendous effort that is testing all of our capacities for ingenuity, for skill, for courage and patience. We can be thankful—and with confidence in the future—that the past has proven our ability to meet problems and to solve them, and that while our present position is a new one in history, it is not without precedent in kind and most certainly will yield to solution by the combined efforts of a people made incredibly strong by the blessings of nature and three-centuries of freedom.

So, as individuals, as a nation, as a people under God, we have much to be Thankful for on this Thanksgiving Day. Let's each of us individually, or as family groups, offer our Thanks as we sit down to that bountiful feast that is the outward sign of our gratitude.

Lubbock Well To Be Plugged

Oil news in the Permian basin followed routine Wednesday. Formal notice of intent to plug and abandon the L. C. Harrison-Tobe Foster No. 1 E. L. Steck, wildcat test two miles northeast of Lubbock, was filed with the railroad commission. The log showed total depth of 5,510 feet and that water was encountered at the 5,345-5,348 depth.

Trinity Drilling company No. 1 Dan Auld, western Lynn county wildcat, is shut down for orders at 5,207 feet in lime after drilling test and Schlumberger survey showed negative results.

No Shows Reported
The well was cored from 5,202-07 feet, recovering two feet of gray, slightly porous fossiliferous limestone showing nothing. A drillstem test from 4,958 to 5,201 feet, with tool open 25 minutes recovered 3,100 feet of salty drilling fluid. No oil or gas was present on the test.

Anderson Prichard Oil corporation and American Drilling corporation No. 1 W. L. Ellwood estate, northern Hockley county wildcat 15 miles northeast of the Slaughter field, is drilling at 4,840 feet in lime, with no shows reported.

Seeking deep Permian pay in northwestern Gaines county, L. Kins and Hall, Midland, No. 1 Jones is drilling past 4,900 feet in lime, while Amerada Petroleum corporation No. 1 Hudson has reached 4,809 feet, also in lime. Stanolind oil and gas company

Former Plan For Appropriations To State Colleges Is Endorsed By Tech President

Endorsement of a former plan under which boards of regents of state schools were permitted to make changes and substitutions within totals appropriated for them was expressed in a letter from Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president of Texas Technological college, written in response to an invitation from the state board of control to make suggestions relative to operation of the appropriations act.

At present money appropriated by the state can be spent only for the items appropriated and if not used for those items reverts to the state. For instance, if a faculty member drawing a salary of $2,800 should be replaced by one drawing $2,400, the difference of $400 annually would revert to the state and could be used for no other purpose. Budgets are drawn up long in advance of opening of a biennium, but boards of directors of state institutions have no authority to make changes which might later seem advisable.

No. 2 A. L. Green, in the Cedar Lake pool of northeastern Gaines, has been completed on swab for daily production of 568.96 barrels of 34 gravity oil. Gas oil ratio is 218-1. The well topped pay at 4,650 feet, is bottomed at 4,830 feet and was shot with 528 quarts. Honolulu Oil corporation No. 13-13 Igoe-Smith "Ax", on the Cochran county side of the Slaughter field, rated daily potential flow of 453.64 barrels of oil, plus two-tenths of one per cent water. Jones is drilling with 10,000 gallons in pay lime entered at 4,989 feet. It is bottomed at 5,046 feet, plugged back from total depth of 5,052 feet.

Could Be Simplified

President Jones said he believed workings of the appropriations act could be simplified if a notation similar to that appearing in the budgets from 1925 to 1931 were either written into the individual budgets of the institutions, or in general provisions following the various appropriations act. The notation formerly appearing six years was: "Provided that the board of regents shall be authorized to make such changes and substitutions within the totals appropriated for departmental maintenance and equipment as may be found necessary; the total sum not to exceed the total amount appropriated for these items."

Such a provision would make for "economy of operation," in the opinion of the Tech president.

Torrance Defense Seeks To Refute Charges Made In Trial

Three Testify As To Alibi

(By The Associated Press)
MONTREY, Mexico, Nov. 27—The defense summoned three witnesses last night to refute testimony that Arthur Torrance had burned a bundle of papers, later found to have contained fragments of a vacuum bottle.

The New York author is on trial on a charge of slaying his wealthy 67-year-old bride by beating her over the head with a vacuum bottle.

Ware With Him
 Juan Antonio Martinez and Abel E. Elizondo, law students acting as process servers, testified they were in the company of the New York explorer and author from 10:25 to 11:30 a. m. on Nov. 11 in a hotel garage. Federal Traffic Officer Cuatrecasas Guajardo said he saw Torrance at the same time.

A Monterey newsboy previously had said he saw Torrance go to a dry gulch between 10 and 11 a. m. on that date and burn the papers.

Charges Beaten To Death
 The prosecution charges the former Mrs. Ada Loveland was beaten with such a weapon, but Torrance insists she died from striking her head on the car's rear-view mirror when it swerved from the road to avoid striking an animal.

Police have expressed belief the bottle's plastic case might have been consumed in the fire. Names of two other women were injected into the trial last night.

Judge Santos told newspapermen he telegraphed San Francisco police to take a statement from Miss Barbara Bowen, 28-year-old Honolulu society girl who, not knowing he was honeymooning in Mexico, reportedly came to the mainland expecting to marry Torrance.

Other Women Involved
 Torrance had retorted it was a "false and malignant interpretation" when Richard Loveland, Los Angeles attorney who pushed the investigation into his mother's death, commented in the hearing before Judge Santos that he might conjecture that other women were involved.

Asked by Loveland whether he was engaged to Miss Bowen, Torrance replied: "Barbara Bowen is a very dear friend but I couldn't be engaged to her and be married."

Admits Sending Wire
 Torrance then admitted he sent a wire after Mrs. Torrance's death and Loveland offered for the record a wire addressed to Vera Bowen of San Francisco which started, "Dearest, withhold judgment" and ending "Profound love, Kiss mother."

CRIMINAL REPORT
AUSTIN, Nov. 27 (AP)—The following proceedings were had Wednesday in the court of criminal appeals:

Affirmed—Thomas Converse from Kinney county.

Reversed and remanded—Burl Martin from Nacogdoches.

State's motion for rehearing overruled—Edgar Prater from Brown.

Appellant's motion for rehearing overruled—ex parte O. G. Taylor from Harris; R. C. Davis from Kaufman; T. C. Bedwell from Hunt; Horace Foster from Dallas; ex parte H. E. Rhoades from Nueces; Richard Robinson from Harris; Thomas J. Dix from Wilson.

Appellant's motion for rehearing overruled without written opinion—M. M. Tucker from friend and business associate of Miss Bowen, said last night in San Francisco she told him she received a telegram written in endearing terms from Torrance. MacDonald said that "didn't mean anything. Torrance was always addressing friends and even acquaintances in exaggerated sentimental terms."

NICE BRUINIE!
HICKORY, N. C. (AP)—Immediately after Worth Whitener had his picture snapped with a big black bear in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park the bruin took a piece out of Whitener's leg. No, the photographer didn't get the action shot.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

New Wave Of Anti-Nazi Violence Is Reported In Occupied France

Fine, Curfew Are Reprisals

(By The United Press)

VICHY, Nov. 27.—New anti-Nazi violence is occurring in occupied France, it was reported today. The Nazi military command in Paris announced a 1,000,000 franc ($20,000) fine and severe curfew restrictions in reprisal for outbreaks there.

Lieut. Gen. Ernest von Schaumburg, Nazi commander in Paris, announced that in view of recent dynamite attacks against German premises, any persons found in illegal possession of explosives would be executed.

Drastic Curfew Imposed

The fine was imposed upon the municipality in punishment for a series of explosives which damaged German army property and equipment.

At the same time a drastic 5 p. m. curfew was imposed for four days upon the districts of the city where the outbreaks occurred.

The Paris explosions coincided with new sabotage incidents occurring in the military zone adjoining the French coast.

"A force of British 'commandos' raided the French coast Sunday night and Monday morning. The party was said by London to have withdrawn while German reports claimed it was driven off by the German coast guard. It has been often reported that small British sabotage and wrecking parties are landed along the French coast secretly from time to time to carry out guerrilla action in the coastal region."

Passenger Train Derailed

One of the sabotage outbreaks occurred near Abbeville, it was reported. The second was near Noyelle. In the Noyelle attack the saboteurs employing what was described as "special technical material" jammed a railroad switch after removing some cross ties and thus derailed a passenger train. There were said to have been no casualties but property damage was caused.

The Abbeville sabotage was also directed against a railroad.

In the Paris bombings, the Germans said, no one was killed but considerable property damage was caused.

One of the Paris bombings occurred in a restaurant near the Montparnasse station requisitioned for the use of German railroad mail employees. The bomb was tossed through a window. No one was injured although 17 Germans were in the restaurant. One fired on the terrorist but didn't hit him.

Court May Get Land Dispute

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 27.—A Louisiana-Texas boundary dispute may have to be settled by the U. S. supreme court, Attorney General Eugene Stanley believed today.

Gov. Sam Jones previously announced that Louisiana planned to file a petition in the court requesting due respect be paid to "the original treaty boundary," an action expected to bring valuable southwestern Texas oil land into this state.

Jones' statement came after the Louisiana geodetic survey disclosed that Texas was entitled to a triangular section in northwestern Louisiana because of a 100-year-old boundary error. Texas' claim to 1300 acres in northwestern Louisiana was certified to her U. S. senators yesterday by Bascom Giles, Texas state land commissioner.

Stanley said the entire matter had been studied for several months by James H. Morrison, New Orleans attorney, with a view toward going to the supreme court, if necessary.

See-Saw Struggle

new fury by reinforcements for both sides.

An authoritative British source said New Zealand forces had retaken Rezeq, in date the pivotal point of the new battle of Libya.

British Said Repulsed

The captors of Rezeq, it was said, were the same troops which took Bardia, which the Italian high command reiterated today, is firmly in fascist hands.

That was the chief contradiction between the British and Axis reports, which also claimed successes in the new flare-up of the Libyan battle on which may depend ultimate control of the whole North African coast.

On reserves already thrown into the fight to replace depleted machines on both sides and on others still withheld may hinge the whole decision of the costly desert struggle.

In this, British in Cairo expressed belief the advantage was theirs. They said the Axis probably had exhausted most of its reserve strength with little change of getting new tanks or armored cars across the Mediterranean.

Reds' Losses Claimed High

In Russia, the German high command said, the Red army has lost heavily near and north of Rostov-on-Don, at the southern end of the long eastern front, and has been frustrated in a new attempt to break out of the Leningrad siege ring in the north.

Advices to Pravda—The organ of the Communist party, acknowledged that the Germans had made new advances toward Moscow. In this, they paralleled the Nazi war bulletin which, without detail, merely said there had been German progress in the central and northern sector of the Russian front.

Cupid To Get Test

ed of her, they indicated.

Ledonne's mother, Mrs. Lucille Howell, telegraphed money with which she was to come home, but the telegram was misdirected and returned to Mrs. Howell. She figured then that the Schills had relented and were bringing Ledonne with them.

That wasn't the case, however, and Ledonne, already in tears over the anticipated separation from Merlin, neared hysterics over the thought of being stranded in Denver.

Kind police had begun to take up a collection to send her home when the Schills made this offer.

They would take Ledonne back to Omaha with them, giving her those hours of grace with Merlin. If she and Merlin would submit to an annulment and promise not to see each other again for a year while he finished high school and began an electrical engineering course. Then, if at the end of the year, they were still in love and wished to remarry, parental consent would be given.

Merlin and Ledonne—who yesterday said "we are very happy and whatever happens I'm going to stick by Merlin"—agreed. Together they piled into the back seat of the Schilcar and started back to Omaha High school, and the severest test of their yet young love.

Plans For Wedding Are Ended At Grave

DALLAS, Nov. 27 (AP)—Plans of Mrs. Mary Slaughter, 23, and her lover, J. T. Stockton, 21, for a Christmas wedding ended today at the grave.

Stockton took what he said was the "only way to settle" a recent argument between them and late yesterday broke into a room where Mrs. Slaughter was sewing and fired three shots. One found its mark over the breast and Mrs. Slaughter died en route to a hospital.

Then he turned the gun on himself and killed himself.

Thanksgiving Quiet For City Authorities

Thanksgiving dawned quietly on the law-enforcement front and, at mid-morning, continued that way, officials said.

Police said they had not decided whether to file a drunk driving complaint against a man arrested early Wednesday night after his car had figured in a slight mishap on Fifteenth street near Texas avenue's intersection. A 20-year-old Mexican was held for aggravated assault on his wife. Two Mexican women were reported back today for investigation into a disturbance.

A 32-year-old Amarilloan who persisted in trying to argue with police tried once too many times, reports showed. Last night he was jailed when he became drunk and left a cafe and went to a radio prowl car and "aired out" its occupants. He had done the same thing a few nights earlier, police reported. He was charged with drunkenness.

Bobby Gene Givens of 2114 Seventh street reported his bicycle stolen Wednesday night. Slight traffic mishaps were reported early today at Avenue J and Main street, at Fifteenth street and Avenue X and at Fifteenth street and Avenue S, but no one was injured, said Ralph Goldwater and Harold McInroe, motorcycle patrolmen.

Former Resident Of Brownfield Dies

Mrs. Austin F. Anderson, who died in Fort Worth Wednesday night soon after a paralytic stroke in church, was a daughter of John S. Powell of Brownfield and a sister of Mrs. Rufus Rush of the Lovell road. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus and son, George Rufus, and Mr. Powell left this morning for Fort Worth.

Funeral services are not definite but it is expected burial will be in Marshall cemetery.

Mrs. Anderson lived in Brownfield as a girl and will be remembered as the former Miss Kathryn Powell. Survivors are: The husband, Lieut.-Col. Anderson, who is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.; son, Austin, Jr., in naval aviation training school at Corpus Christi; a daughter, Kathryn who is a senior at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., and a son, James, a Fort Worth high school student.

A. And M. Freshman Is Shooting Victim

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 27 (AP)—Warren Atkins Frederickson, 20, was shot fatally last night while he and six other A. and M. college freshmen were handling a pistol in his dormitory room.

Justice of the Peace E. M. Dodson of Bryan returned an inquest verdict of accidental shooting.

The Pleasanton youth and his friends had returned to his room after a rally and bonfire on the eve of the Texas-Aggle football game, officials said, and found the .410 pistol in a handbag left by a former student.

Britons will open a bank in Mexico City.

QUESTIONED—Bessie Feagin, above, sales promotion manager for Scribner's Commentator, outspoken isolationist magazine, has been questioned in a Washington, D. C., court concerning an alleged "master mailing list" used by the publication to circulate anti-administration foreign policy material.

Stolen Merchandise Found Near Lamesa

Sheriff Buck Bennett of Lamesa has lifted the mystery of a lonely fresh grave in Dawson county, Texas rangers said in Lubbock this morning.

Not so incidental to the solution was recovery of approximately $800 in merchandise stolen in San Angelo.

Two Mexicans arrested by Sheriff Bennett have been transferred to Tom Green county by San Angelo officials, for hint of charges.

Sheriff Bennett was informed by a farmer he had seen two Mexicans uncovering a grave in deep tumbledowns. He watched them remove from it a "casket box." They drove away.

Through "a neat piece of detecting," Sheriff Bennett was accredited by rangers with having traced movement of the Mexicans to Post, where they delivered to another Mexican approximately 23 suits and a variety of other expensive merchandise.

One of the Mexicans had been employed by a San Angelo store that reported the loss. The property was restored.

FIVE BAD WOLVES—KETCHIKAN, Alaska (AP)—Some bad little wolves, five of them, had a swell time fishing on a cranberry-picking trip with his wife, Willis Jackson came upon the playful puppies, pulling salmon from the rifles of a nearby shallow creek. Both sides of the creek were littered with the fish, killed on their way to spawning grounds.

P. S. Jackson took some wolf pelts home.

The Japanese envoys were understood to have cabled the document to Tokyo during the night, together with their own reports on their extended conversations with President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull.

Great Britain, China, the Netherlands and Australia all were kept fully informed of developments in the discussions through their envoys here and all gave their full support to the attitude taken by the United States.

However, a band from the Chinese refugees children's institute, composed of Chinese youngsters, appeared to cheer them on their leave-taking. And the bulk of the dwindling American colony together with Russian and Chinese girl friends of the marines lined the dockside.

Two representatives of the China World Peace federation, a Buddhist organization, thanked Lieut. Col. Donald Curtis, officer in charge of the evacuation, for the work of the marines in protecting Chinese refugees during the China war.

"The Chinese said: 'Three cheers for Roosevelt! Three cheers for Chiang Kai-Shek! God bless America!'"

They raised their hands in salute to which Curtis smartly responded.

Man Charged With Murder In Wreck

SUSANVILLE, Calif., Nov. 27 (AP)—Nevada authorities were expected here today to take Clarence J. Alexander, 24, to Eureka county, Nev., for prosecution on a charge of murdering one of the 24 persons killed in the 1939 wrecking of the streamlined train, City of San Francisco.

Sheriff Stanley Fine of Eureka county, en route here from Reno, said that unless Alexander, a section hand fought extradition, he would be in Beowawe, Nev., in time for a scheduled preliminary hearing Friday morning.

District Attorney W. R. Reynolds of Eureka county yesterday officially charged Alexander with murdering Miss Helen Henry, 30, Oakland, Calif., who died in the wreck.

Thanksgiving Here

10 miles southeast of the city this morning were that preparations have been made for the largest crowd of the late season. The early arrivals there were numerous to take advantage of fishing, boating, picnicking and other recreational facilities.

Business Houses Closed

Many Lubbock football fans, however, remained at home to listen to football game broadcasts—particularly that of the University of Texas and A. & M. college at College Station.

Most business houses, banks, official offices, courts and Texas Technological college were observing the entire day. The Tech holidays continue until Monday.

The Union Thanksgiving service sponsored by Lubbock Ministerial association at St. John's Methodist church this morning was well attended. Rev. W. Jack Lewis, associate pastor of First Presbyterian church, delivered the sermon.

Schools In Session

Schools were in session as usual, having observed last week, and Dr. W. B. Irvin, superintendent, reported that absences were few. He announced several days ago that arrangements could be made for the absence of children whose parents desired to take them on holiday trips. Tech students' holidays began late Wednesday.

Work proceeded as usual at the air base under construction west of the city because of the desire to get this national defense project operating as speedily as possible.

Aunt Gives Tip

The patrolman said Cumberland police were tipped off to the two boys by an aunt of Hoback who read of the Loveless killing and noticed that the automobile bore the same license tags as those listed for Loveless' automobile in the newspaper story.

Johnson said Cumberland police trailed the pair from there to Lynch and then across the Kentucky-Virginia state line to Appalachia where they enlisted the aid of local police in apprehending the boys.

Virginia police were expected here about noon.

Age No Factor In Baseball As Glance At Two New Managers Of Phils, Tribe Will Show

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Within a day of each other a 24-year-old youngster and a 60-year-old veteran have been made managers of major league baseball clubs proving that whatever other qualifications may be necessary, age is no factor.

The Phillies picked genial old John Bernard (Hans) Lobert yesterday to run their ball club less than 24 hours after the Cleveland Indians named Lou Boudreau, who was not born until 14 years after Lobert made his major league debut with Pittsburgh.

These appointments are giving baseball men something to chin about before they get wrapped up in trade talks next week at the minor league meetings in Jacksonville, Fla.

Lubbock To Play Host To Oklahoma Poloists

Lubbock's poloists will play host to one of the outstanding collegiate teams of the nation Friday afternoon when the Oklahoma university quartet comes to this city for a game, Claude Hurlbut of the Lubbock team announced last night.

The Oklahoma team has been tied once and beaten once this season.

Lubbock will be strengthened by the addition of Tom Mather, six-goal player who has moved to Lubbock.

The game will start at 3 o'clock. There will be no admission charge.

The Oklahoma team, accompanied by a team of university graduates, is making a tour of West Texas and New Mexico. Today the Sooners play New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell. Saturday the group returns to Lubbock and the Oklahoma exes will meet the Cadets. Sunday, the university team will play the Lamasa Whites at Lamesa.

Was Logical Choice

In spite of his age he still is an active man and was the logical choice to assume the manager's toga discarded by Prothro.

Cleveland's choice of Boudreau, on the other hand, was a "bolt" to most people. He has played in only 357 major league games, the equivalent of 2 1/2 seasons and been in baseball just three years.

He has proved himself a fine player, one of the best shortstops in the majors, and a diplomat well liked by his teammates. They can be expected to play ball for him. He took no part, at least actively, in the rebellion against Oscar Vitt two years ago and he was friendly with Roy Weatherly, the temperamental centerfielder who was in several jams with Manager Roger Peckinpaugh last summer.

Yet with the exception of Bob Feller, Boudreau is the youngest regular on the club and it is expected a lot of him to step into the uneasy driver's seat at Cleveland and tell veterans like Rollie Kentley or Hal Trosky or Gerald Walker what they shall and shall not do.

May Affect Playing

However, the point about which other baseball executives have expressed the most concern privately is what the responsibility of the management will do to Boudreau as a player. He had his own troubles last season, batting .258 and

Harvesters In Favored Role

Sandies Will Play Bulldogs Saturday

(Special To The Journal)
PAMPA, Nov. 27.—Pampa's Harvesters, barring a stunning upset, this afternoon will clinch a tie for the District 1-AA football championship. They meet Borger in a conference game here, and are favored to take the Bulldogs by anything from six touchdowns on up.

A crowd of 5,000 is expected for the holiday game, despite Borger's lusterless record for the season. Cool, clear weather is predicted.

Sandies, Plainview
A victory for Pampa would leave the Harvesters and Lubbock tied for the title, with Amarillo probably joining them to make it a three-way deadlock after the Sandies' Saturday game in Plainview with the Bulldogs.

An upset triumph for Borger would knock Pampa out of the running for the crown.

The season's record:

Team	W	L	T
BORGER	0	10	0
Plainview	1	9	0
Pampa	1	9	0
Lubbock	1	9	0
Amarillo	1	9	0

City's Turkey Day Grid Headliner-- Lubbock And San Angelo Negro Elevens Clash At Tech Today

Headliner, and only game, on the local football card this afternoon is a clash between negro high school teams of Lubbock and San Angelo, slated to begin at Texas Tech Stadium at 2:30 o'clock.

The Dunbar Panthers, unbeaten in two seasons, protect their record against an invading team that already has been defeated once by the Lubbock elevens this year.

Admission for the game is 25 and 44 cents. Preceding the game, a parade featuring bands of the two schools was to be staged through the downtown section of Lubbock.

Meadow Cage Tourney Planned Dec. 11-13

MEADOW, Nov. 27 (Special)—Dates for the annual Meadow high school invitation basketball tournament have been announced by Coach L. A. Stephenson. The sawoff, annually one of the best on the South Plains, will begin on Thursday night, Dec. 11, and run through Saturday night.

Fourteen entries, including some of the strongest quintets in this area, already have been received, and a number of others are expected.

A fine array of team and individual trophies will be awarded to the winning teams and outstanding players. Competent officials will work all games and interscholastic league rules are to be observed.

Already entered are Ropes, Idaho; Friendship, Wellman, Sundown, Cooper, Plains, Andrews, Floydada, Ralls, Spur, Southland and Meadow. Any coach wishing to

Floydada To Invade McLean For Contest

FLOYDADA, Nov. 27 (Special)—The bi-district football contest between Floydada's District 4-A champions and McLean, 3-A winner, is scheduled for McLean a week from Friday.

Arrangements for the game were made at a conference of school officials in Childress Wednesday morning.

Winner will play the winner of today's Hereford-Phillips game in Hereford for the regional championship won last season by Phillips.

Cats To Pass

A well-balanced team featuring the offensive efforts of Deverele Lewis and Jiggs Fankersky, two of the finest backfielders ever to tread a Class A gridiron in West Texas, is Brownfield's hope for victory. The Cubs have been scored on, and frequently, but usually it has been the reserves who have allowed the touchdowns.

Coaches Abe Murphy and C. L. Storrs of Littlefield rest their chances in large measure on the tough defensive team they've built up and on the good right arm of Robert "Babe" Hammonds, the district's ace passer.

There's no way to figure that Littlefield should be in the same league with Brownfield, using comparative scores for a basis, be-

British Women Face Service

(By The United Press)
LONDON, Nov. 27—A motion picture for the conscription of all women, regardless of age, was submitted to the House of Commons today.

It was signed by Prime Minister Winston Churchill, Labor Minister Ernest Bevin, Air Minister Sir Archibald Sinclair, Lord Privy Seal Clement R. Attlee and Health Secretary Alfred E. Brown.

Approval "Certain"
Approval was considered certain and a motion picture was expected to include raising of the military age for men to 40 and to provide compulsory war work for women up to 40.

During a two days debate on the motion, Churchill planned to make a statement on government policy regarding man power and woman power. No date for the debate has been set but it will be soon.

Scripts for the show will be submitted Dec. 1. Jeff Coffey, senior student from McLean, is director of the show, which is written, directed, cast and sponsored by Tech students. The theme will revolve around the campus scene. A call for campus talent in form of actors, dancers, singers, musicians and designers will be made after selection of the script. Harding also was faculty adviser last year.

Sears Pig Contest Judging Is Friday

Five Future Farmers of America or 4-H club boys who have won their respective county contests in the fourth annual Sears, Roebuck & Co. registered gilt program for this area, will compete here Friday for the championship of the district. W. C. O'Mara, manager of the company here, said this morning.

The five animals will be exhibited at the Lubbock Auction and Commission Co. sales ring, Thirtieth street and Avenue D, at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning, with judging by N. C. Fine, assistant professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college.

Winner will receive a registered Jersey heifer, said O'Mara. Competing will be Buster McDuff, Crosbyton, Crosby county; Wayne Johnson, Hale county; Alvin Binzer, Ropesville, Hockley county; Charles Hammonds, New Home, Lynn county; Denzil Curry, Wolfthorpe, Lubbock county.

Parents and interested farmers are invited to attend the showing. It is planned to have the animals on display for several hours during the day.

A boy from the Freshship high school at Wolfthorpe has won the contest for the past two years.

O'Mara pointed out L. M. Hargrave, graduate of Texas Technological college division of agriculture is the teacher. Hargrave, said O'Mara, is hoping to make it a third triumph.

Price Control Bill

The administration favors such a provision.

The pending bill weathered its first test yesterday by a margin of 218-163, when the House crushed an attempt to substitute stringent control of all prices, rents and wages for the administration plan of imposing price ceilings on only those commodities whose prices got out of line.

But important opposition was brewing on two important points. The Republicans were dead set against a proposal to license dealers handling regulated commodities, and representatives of farm states did not favor the omission of wage control. This double dissatisfaction evoked speculation on the possibility of a coalition drive for recommitment.

Apparently in recognition of this, Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass) took the floor late in yesterday's debate to caution the farm bloc that the measure was "eminently fair to agriculture" and that recommitment probably would mean a bill "far more drastic."

The possibility remained, however, that the farm group would attempt to tack on a wage control amendment on the grounds that ceilings over commodities automatically would put a roof on the income of agricultural producers.

For the present, House attention focused on the "buy and sell" clause demanded by the administration, a provision which gained the support of the banking committee after a long and bitter dispute among its members over the potential effect upon private business.

granted that a dozen firms offered to negotiate with him for exclusive rights.

"Who'd think," the amazed Scotty demanded, "that anything as well known as that had not been patented?"

Burns On Warpath

worse than the first. It wasn't even clean. The stuff in that story was disgusting. It was bad enough to make my good friends look like bare-footed, tobacco-chewing imbeciles with long beards, but to have them say the words the writers wrote would have been a crime.

"The people of Arkansas are good wholesome characters. They don't seem to realize this at Paramount. All they know at the studio about Arkansas is what they see in the cartoons of a magazine that sells for 50 cents and whose name I can't seem to recall.

"I am supposed to be an authority on the fine people of Arkansas. I am proud of being an Arkansan. And if I sometimes make a crack about my Granddaddy Fuddy back home, it is a gentle crack that my friends appreciate.

"So what I'd like to do is put it up to my friends," Burns drawled. "Let them read that script and decide whether I should make it into a movie. Of course I don't guess the studio and its high-powered lawyers would want to do that. Looks like they want to get me into court."

Court is bad, all right, but it's nowhere near as bad as being at the wrong end of an Arkansas shot-gun. Hop to it, lawyers. Bazooka Bob Burns'd rather take his chances with you.

EVERY year, about this time, some organization, or some individual, hops up to demand that newspapers make no further use of the 'Xmas' abbreviation...

But let's examine the matter more closely and see if the substitution of 'X' for 'Christ' in 'Christmas' really does detract...

The 'X', when used in the word 'Xmas', is not our 'X' at all. It is not the 24th letter in the English alphabet...

SEVERAL days ago, editors of the land received a communication from the Orangeburg, South Carolina, Chamber of Commerce...

Most of the writing gentry, like The Plainsman, glanced through the item from Orangeburg, then filed it in 'File A'...

It was not long after the Resurrection that Christianity began to spread from Palestine throughout the Roman Empire...

When these little boys, they knew that the little band of faithful whom they were trying to annihilate lived on, strong in their faith, ready to endure persecution for the truth...

It HAS been years since The Avalanche Journal has used 'Xmas' for 'Christmas' in news or editorial columns...

However, like to El Paso's Mr. Pooley, the hullabaloo over the use of 'Xmas' seems to us to be much ado over nothing...

Spelling of the holiday is not nearly so important as the observance of it. And we know a lot of people who would do better to pay more attention to observing the day...

For The Love Of Pam

BY VIVIEN GREY (Copyright, 1941, For The Journal)

CHAPTER 31 DIFFICULT VISITOR 'You look as if you're seeing things, Pam!' May said. 'Not sorry you asked me here?'

'No. No, of course not,' Pam answered, recovering her poise. 'I'll take you to your room.'

'On, perhaps,' Pam's face brightened as a new thought came to her. 'You saw? I have some new material I'd be glad to give you.'

May laughed. 'Me sew? Me? Say, a needle would be so surprised if I picked it up it would stare its eye out in amazement.'

Work For May Pam, adjusting herself with some difficulty to the new personality in her home, wondered when Jerry would appear. Surely he would be showing up soon with some solution to the situation...

Edmund Antoine dropped in one afternoon. 'How long is this going on, Pam?' he asked, indicating May sitting in the sun beyond the window. When Pam didn't answer immediately, he went on: 'You know you'll have to call a halt, don't you? You can't have that night a burglar who refused to be scared away by a pistol in the hands of a professional singer, ran like everything when she started calling for police.'

'We'll bet we know that professional singer. Fact is, we'll bet she's the girl who lived next door to us while she was studying singing.'

MOST Americans dislike individuals, organizations and laws which are dictatorial and which are aimed at "cramping" someone's freedom...

For the benefit of those who didn't know about the California law, that state has for several years barred from its borders American citizens who, for any reason at all, do not happen to be blessed with wealth. No matter how sorry an individual might be; no matter how unscrupulous, dishonest, or immoral, California didn't want anyone who had money in the state...

But the Nine No-So-Old Men have ruled, as all thoughtful Americans believed they should rule, that California has no right to refuse entry to any free American citizen, regardless of his material wealth or lack of it.

The ruling is particularly commendable since 27 other states had sped California by passing similar laws to restrict immigration from other states.

Today's Journal Editorial . . .

A NATION KNOWS IT SHOULD BE THANKFUL. Seldom has any Thanksgiving found so many of our people so deeply and consciously thankful as it is true of this one.

Usually we have gone through the mere motions of Thanksgiving. We have imagined, perhaps, we were truly thankful for the liberty, peace and plenty we have enjoyed. But few ever have known anything else. They are things taken for granted. There has been no cause to fear they might be lost. We have lacked the experience to imagine living without them.

Perhaps we never can appreciate what we have unless we are deprived of them. But if we have escaped the actual experience, observation has caused widespread awakening to the real danger that they could be lost. Ours is the position of individuals who sit at the sick bed of a loved one and ponder, perhaps for the first time, the void death could cause.

We know, as we never have known before, the feeling of genuine thankfulness for past liberty, peace and abundance because of the danger that we won't have any or all of them much longer. In view of what has happened to others and of what we know of the speed of modern war, the possibility cannot be ignored that this may be the last Thanksgiving day that people of this nation may be permitted to observe.

But we know we have this Thanksgiving. We know we have cause for Thanksgiving as have had perhaps no other people on earth.

parade parked on you for the rest of your natural life. 'I can't just throw her out when she has nowhere to go,' Pam said quietly, but she was beginning to fear May never would have any place to go. Besides, she wanted Jerry to appear and come through with some sane, right conduct.

'You can't? Well, you'll never get rid of her any other way. She'll stay here as long as you'll let her.'

'Have you seen Jerry lately, Edmond?' Pam asked, changing the subject abruptly. 'Left him a few minutes ago. He didn't send you here? I mean, to try to get me to put May out?'

'No, he didn't. But he's worried sick about her being here. He feels he's responsible. He needs it. I did it myself.'

'You've put Jerry in a bad spot, Pam. Edmond was trying to reason with her. You know, taking up a girl he wants to be rid of, a girl of May's kind. . . . 'I can't understand it,' Pam said. 'It seems to me I did the only thing I could do. You can't close your house to people who need shelter.'

'When the people won't try to provide for themselves honestly, you can, Pam. As a matter of fact, you can. It's a moral obligation not to help people to be worthless.'

'Is that the way you look at it, Edmond?' It was a new slant on the case. 'You really think I'm helping to make May weak and worthless by keeping her here?'

BROADWAY Hors d'Oeuvres: Marlene Dietrich and a New York milliner will tell it to a judge. The star will be accused of dodging a bill for many hats which she allegedly ordered, disliked, returned and wouldn't pay for. . . . Walter Duranty's lowdown on Russia is rapid reading. 'The Kremlin and the People' is its name. . . . Paulette Goddard flies from H'wood to Washington every fortnight—regular as a good clock. . . . To consult a famous justice. The news that Geo. Sylvester Viereck's printing house in Jersey has folded is especially interesting to this column, which linked the Nazi to that publishing firm on January 9th.

A vet Broadwayite recalls when Chinatown was big news every night. . . . And district attorney was phoned out of a sound slumber one week with the news of a mass murder in a Chinatown dive. . . . When he got there, still fastening his clothes, he found the joint steeped in blood and bodies on the floor—the WINCHELL hatchets and knives still in 'em. . . . The bartender was moaning and weeping noisily. 'What happened?' he asked. 'The reply, as the tears glistened from his mustache, 'Every customer ran out without paying his check!'

VARIETY reports that the aggrieved AGVA (actors' union) had asked a retraction of this column's accusations. Variety also reports Henry Dunn, former officer of that group, 'is so resentful of Winchell's charges that he has tendered his resignation to take effect unless a strong stand is taken by AGVA against the columnist's accusations.' Mr. Dunn tells this column 'that "perturb this" over Variety's piece and that our report was correct. . . . AGVA has not (up to this moment of dilly-dallying to press) made any demand for a retraction, correction or anything, and a lotta wood-is-gonna do them if they do.'

The Public, the Chorus Girls and anybody else it conceals, are recommended to the Cleveland (O.) newspapers for Monday. One of them has engaged a story about a "steer joint" in that city operated by, you'd never guess! That respectable group of chorus girl protectors, that body of high class gentlemen of the theater, the AGVA. . . . A steer joint, no less! This is the outfit that says it protects chorines from such places, such managements and from such awful, terrible, horrible, awful, terrible, among the stars who recently appeared at this so-called steer joint—are such virtuous AGVA officials as H. Richman and M. Downey.

THE FBI is more interested in a prominent Chicago psychiatrist, who obtained an appointment to The Moral Board of Col. Donovan Office. . . . This doctor, a Hungarian who recently became a citizen, was given a routine check by the G-Men. . . . When an agent called at his home, he spotted a large framed portrait of Mussolini, affectionately inscribed. . . . That made it more than a routine investigation and led to the fact that Fritz Horvath, Hungarian Nazi leader, is a frequent guest at the Dr.'s house. . . . And at conferences in a hideaway near Colosimo's joint in Chicago. . . . Horvath has definite Berlin connections and the doctor may learn for the first time—that he is not going to be accepted for that swell job with Col. Donovan.

The Women's Business and Professional Group annual dinner—held last night. . . . They had previously announced that they would make known at this dinner—the ten big, important women chosen to represent the U. S. . . . To inaugurate civilian defense in England. . . . The dinner was prepared and sent to Mrs. Roosevelt by her okay. . . . The names submitted did not measure up to her requirements, and a new list was to be pitched that the list has been temporarily deferred and possibly shelved.

IN the current Nazi organ Das Schwarze Korps (Berlin) one article deals with an unmarried woman—presumably, conscious of her own responsibility and of her burden, she thereby undertakes to take upon herself sacrifice of motherhood for her nation. She is most worthy to parent her child. Also in such a case, this man never be approached with frivolity or irresponsibility.

The campaign is getting increased support from all branches of the Nazi Gov't—following great losses in manpower in Russia. . . . line of family men. I can't live alone. I want my wife with me when I leave. I want my home and a family. I suppose I'll never forget you. 'You will,' she said finally.

Mister Secretary Ickes Screeches At Mister Secretary Jones Of All Things! 'Honest Harold' Is Mad Again!

By PETER EDSON Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. Gossip in Washington has it that after Federal Loan Administrator Jesse Jones got his famous 3,000-word letter from Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes' bawling the daylight out of Jones for the contract he signed with the Aluminum Company of America, the air around the Federal Loan headquarters was every shade of the rainbow and smoke poured from the windows. For a while, there were periodic drafts of letters in reply, all of which were red hot, but none was sent. The drafts expressed what was felt, all night, which was to the general effect that Harold could go jump off any or all of his Department of Interior dams, facing either way. All savvy banker Jones ever admitted was that "to be accused of making a contract unfavorable to the government was a novel experience." It was a classic of understatement. His reply to Ickes was a short telegram.

What got the Ickes goat was primarily the fact that power for one of the plants, a $9-million, pound-per-year plant to cost $1 million or $12 million, was to be located in the vicinity of Bonneville where the power would have come from Grand Coulee and Bonneville dams. Department of Interior picks, Ickes has consistently battled the Aluminum company because he believed it to be a monopoly.

SECRETARY SAW RED WITH this background, Ickes gave Alcoa a contract to build and operate any big new government plant. real or theoretical monopoly the Aluminum Company of America had as the government's three-year anti-trust action failed to do when Federal Judge Carey recently decided Alcoa was not a monopoly. But the end of that hasn't been heard, either.

Meantime, Jones is negotiating another contract with Alcoa, for two more plants.

ALUMINUM LINEUP

ADMITTING that a perfect contract was never drawn and that the government's Defense Plant corporation-Aluminum Company of America agreement has some bugs in it that should be more specific, the charges Harold Ickes makes against the contract and the Jesse Jones position in answer can be boiled down in this form: It is charged that under the contract, production rate in the government plants is controlled by Alcoa. This is answered "No" because provision is made to keep the government plants in operation at the same rate as Alcoa's, instead of providing that government plants must close when demand drops off. . . . To charge that the price provisions are unfair to the government, the reply is that the government controls the price of aluminum made in the government plants and therefore can cut prices below Alcoa's. . . . The charges that Alcoa's 15 per

Near East Vital Link In Allied War Aims

Area May Hold Final Answer

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Journal War Analyst

The appointment of William C. Bullitt as special presidential observer in the Near East served to emphasize the vast and growing importance of this war theater which, in conjunction with the Russian front, may provide the decisive field of the war for land operations.

If and when the Allies deliver the coup de grace to the Germans, it likely will be achieved in the main by forces striking at eastern Germany from a Russian soil. Through the Near and Middle East will pour troops and resources to back this victory drive.

Call For AEF Expected

Should the time come when the British call on the United States for an expeditionary land force—and to my mind that need be occasion no surprise—in all probability the necessity will arise from this Middle Eastern zone upon which hangs so much. For that reason alone it is essential that this country have such first-hand information as can only be secured by American observers like Bullitt.

To look at this situation from another angle, the only way Hitler can win the war as the cards now lie is to smash Russia and break down through the Caucasus and into this selfsame Middle Eastern zone. That would in effect shatter the British naval blockade which is strangling him, and would provide him with fresh military bases from which he might pour out defeat against the Allies.

Libyan Struggle Vital

Thus we see how vital is the outcome of the greatest desert battle of all time which is now raging across the hot wastes of Libya. Look at it through Hitler's eyes or from the Allied viewpoint and the answer is the same—that battle must be won or a mirage of disaster may rise up out of the inhospitable sands.

Recognition of this is seen in the unceasing fierceness of the struggle which centers in the Rezegh region south of the port of Tobruk. The great battle of the tanks, which finally died down from pure exhaustion and losses among these land destroyers on both sides, has for the moment given way to old-fashioned infantry fighting with cold steel, though more tanks are being rushed into the conflict from reserve.

The battle is still too young for prophecy. Both Berlin and London are cautious and non-committal; only Rome exemplifies the perfect optimist in its claims. However, two important facts give us a certain amount of guidance, though it isn't conclusive:

1. The Allies appear to retain the initiative, despite the powerful Nazi defense and counterstroke under the fine leadership which one would expect to find in any German command.

2. The outcome of the battle is likely to hinge on the matter of reinforcements.

HELP LIVER BILE FLOW FASTER

For the next 30 days follow this simple recipe to stir up the flow of these important digestion-aiding bile juices and see if you too—after finishing the first bottle—cannot say that you "feel ever so much better."

Here's all you do: Get a bottle of Kruschen Bile Beans—rich blend of six salts, not just one, and take half a level teaspoon in a glass of water (hot or cold) half an hour before breakfast. This rouses the flow of bile with its gentle laxative action. Keep this up for 30 days and you too may shake off that "stomach" sour, indigestion, acid, headaches, so-called "biliousness," Poor Digestion and "bile" acidity. Constipation. But don't start unless you are willing to keep it up for 30 days. If then you do not get a real "kick"—feel 100% better—get your money back. MARK Bilsley Drug Store—ANY.

WIDENING NINETEENTH
Dear Plainsman: After three years work we thought we had accomplished a little civic job, but as it stands today it seems a failure unless we can get revised and proceed to accomplish what they promised to do. Now after several months it has all become stale and no prospects of being done. It is high time we started and finished our job. I have been confined to my room over four weeks with flu and watched the cars go by and if possible as many as three a second and on a 36-foot street. Yet we sit here blind to the danger there is to your dad, mother, wife or child as well as all these children about.

Just so all of you may know about this project. We started over three years ago first to widen Nineteenth street five feet on either side. Then we jumped to six feet and then seven. We were to secure right of way at seven feet. Then we discovered Nineteenth street is without an established property line so we went after 19 feet wider than present curb line to be secured as sidewalk and street. This would make our 36 foot street 52 or 54 feet wide.

Remember out of 117 property-holders over 900 have signed or agreed to sign on that basis, and the city gets our brick that are paid for. You see our street is paid for and we donate that 19 feet more. Now do you think the 100 or more would rule, or do we bow to the few that is left? Some of us think this is worthy of careful consideration. We have spent around $100,000 on the Brownfield highway and like amount on the Levelland highway and millions on the air defense and hundreds of thousands on housing for defense work and thousands and thousands on electric, sewer and water extension and what-not.

It is still all bottle-necked at Nineteenth street and College. The distance of eight blocks, it should run 17 blocks now since the project has jumped, according to all information, from about 25,000 to 100,000. We should ask for the work to be started immediately. Plenty can be done these winter months. Don't think for a minute we would interfere with the school plans, we would not. We are behind our school bond election. We must vote these bonds, because the children must be given a chance to be educated in our grade and high schools. If we fail to give them that chance then we do not need million-dollar colleges. They must not get full of cobwebs for the want of material out there. We are strictly supporting all our schools. That is one reason this street is involved. Some of our forefathers read books and plowed with a pony at the same time. Other split rails before and after school and walked to school in a muddy trail. I did. We did not realize education and time would demand wide highways and roads to go to school. So now let's fix a place for these cars to run and a place for them to park and one that will last at least 25 years. Put down an underpass then they will at least have a chance to save themselves. You all know your school buses must contact Nineteenth street one way or another, so why wait?
