Howard County Commissioners Court to meet Wednesday

By ROGER CLINE
 Staff Writer

The Howard County Commissioners will meet at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the second-floor conference room at the Howard County Courthouse, 300 S. Main St.

At the meeting, the commissioners will:

- Discuss and possibly appoint a 9-1-1 Board member;
- Discuss and possibly approve the acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, and a private sale to the City of Coahoma;
- Consider approval of an Indigent Defense Grant resolution;
- Consider approval of monthly invoices, purchase requests and budget amendments;
- Consider approval of the county payroll;
- Hear and consider a budget amendment proposal by

County Road Administrator Brian Klinksiek;

- Consider approval of a pipeline right-of-way at the old county airport property;
- Hear the presentation of the monthly right-of-way use report;
- Consider approval of a jury selection plan;
- Consider a proposal to pay travel costs out of the Records Management Fund for District Clerk Colleen Barton.

If you would like to address the commissioners, plan to arrive before the meeting to fill out a brief form alerting them to your intent to speak.

Contact County Judge Kathryn Wiseman at 432-264-2202 for more information.

Muddy Mongrels raise over 2,5k for local United Way

Members of Big Spring's Muddy Mongrels team, shown above, journeyed to Dallas this past weekend to participate in their second annual Tough Mudder, a 10-mile obstacle race with 20 hard obstacles in a water-soaked, muddy environment. Unfortunately, the Mongrels had gotten about five miles into the race when it was canceled due to bad weather. The event, sponsored by NuStar, Little Learners Christyian Daycare, KV Power, Cosden Federal Credit Union, Thermoflex, and the Big Spring YMCA, raised more than $2,500 for the United Way of Big Spring and Howard County.

Big Spring Spirit Week

By TYLER SCHELLIE
 Staff Writer

Steers will begin Spirit Week this Tuesday, October 2, after taking Monday off for Columbus Day.

The theme for spirit week is "Adventure; Steers will beat the Canyon Eagles and conquer this adventure."

Teachers and parents are asked to encourage their students to participate all throughout the week. Big Spring Community, get out and rally behind the Steer Nation!

Tuesday kicks things off with "Choose an outdoor adventure", dress up like a lumberjack, campers or your favorite adventurer/survivalist.

On Wednesday, the students will take you through the "Decades" with students dressing up in their favorite decade ranging from the 50's to the 90's.

Thursday is "Destination anywhere." Students should dress in tacky tourist attire, dressed up like they are on a beach vacation, or maybe even the safari style animal print clothing.

Last but not least, Friday is Black and Gold Pride day. Show your school spirit through the school colors - "Steer Strong!"

A few additional activities will also take place throughout the themed school week. Tuesday and Wednesday will be the Homecoming King and Queen election. Thursday, the Homecoming Bonfire will take place at 8 p.m. at the

Diamond Rio leaves crowd in awe, Country on the Rocks a huge hit

Big Spring's first ever Country on the Rocks, put on by BAD events, LLC and Franklin and Son, was a huge treat for attendees. The event took place at the Comanche Trail Amphitheater, and the lineup started off with the Brittany Oviedo Band, the winners of the Downtown Throwdown contest earlier in September, and regional act Sonny's Holiday out of Ft. Worth. Tracy Byrd (left photo), who has charted more than thirty hit singles in his career, including eleven additional Top Ten hits, followed up and brought the crowd on their feet. Event headliner Diamond Rio (right photo), who has received four Group of the Year CMA awards, two Top Vocal Group CMA awards, and one Grammy Award, closed out the event with their gorgeous harmonies that left the audience stunned.

Pizza with the Vets

The Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association Chapter 23-12 (above), a group of Combat Veterans, Auxiliary and Support members who are also motorcycle enthusiasts, rode into Big Spring to have pizza with the Residents and staff members of Lamun-Lusk-Sanchez Texas State Veterans Home on Saturday, Sept. 29. This event was made possible by Dominos, who donated enough pizza for all the residents, staff members, and the CVMA. HEB also donated three large cakes. The CVMA's motto is 'Vets Helping Vets', which is what they do. They hold fundraising events throughout the year to help their fellow Veterans in need.

10 Things to Know for Today

Angelica Cervantes kneels at her son Erick Silva's grave Saturday, Sept. 29, 2018, in Las Vegas. Silva was one of 58 people killed Oct. 1, 2017, in the deadliest mass shooting in modern U.S. history. Silva was working as a security guard at the Route 91 Harvest Festival and was shot while helping people climb over a barricade to escape the gunfire.

Your daily look at late-breaking news, upcoming events and the stories that will be talked about today:

1. WHAT IS REPLACING NAFTA

A revamped trade pact called the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement, or USMCA, gives American farmers greater access to the Canadian dairy market and offers Canada tariff protection in the auto industry.

2. FBI AGENTS INTERVIEW KAVANAUGH ACCUSER

Deborah Ramirez detailed her allegation that the Supreme Court nominee exposed himself to her at a party in the early 1980s when they were students at Yale University, a person familiar with the matter says, while another college classmate disputes this characterization of his past drinking.

3. BURIALS BEGIN IN INDONESIA

A mass burial of earthquake and tsunami victims begins in hard-hit Palu and the death toll of more than 840 is expected to rise as areas cut off by the damage are reached.

4. IRAN LAUNCHES MISSILES INTO SYRIA

The paramilitary Revolutionary Guard says it launched six ballistic missiles into eastern Syria, targeting militants the force blames for a recent attack on a military parade in Iran.

5. WHO WON THE NOBEL IN MEDICINE

of Japan were honored for developing therapies for treating cancer.

6. VEGAS MARKS MASS SHOOTING ANNIVERSARY

It's been a year since the deadliest mass shooting in modern U.S. history, and a sunrise ceremony will commemorate the 58 lives lost, capped by a wall dedication at night.

7. SOUTH KOREA BEGINS REMOVING MINES

Troops enter the heavily fortified border with North Korea to remove mines under recent tension-reducing agreements and Seoul believes the North is reciprocating.

8. WHERE THE FIRST LADY IS HEADING

Melania Trump will travel to Africa on her first big solo international trip, aiming to make child well-being the focus of a five-day tour that will take her Ghana, Malawi, Kenya and Egypt.

9. WIRELESS AIMING TO MAKE INROADS ON CABLE INTERNET SERVICE

Using emerging 5G technology, cellular companies like Verizon are promising services that would be ultra-fast, affordable and wireless.

10. WHAT'S NEVER HAPPENED IN BASEBALL

Major League Baseball is set to hold two division tiebreakers on the same day for the first time when the Brewers play the Cubs and the Rockies meet the Dodgers.

Canada-US reach deal to stay in trade pact with Mexico

TORONTO (AP) — Canada is back in a revamped North American free trade deal with the United States and Mexico after weeks of bitter, high-pressure negotiations that brushed up against a midnight deadline.

In a joint statement, U.S. Trade Representative Robert Lighthizer and Canadian Foreign Affairs Minister Chrystia Freeland said the late Sunday agreement "will strengthen the middle class, and create good, well-paying jobs and new opportunities for the nearly half billion people who call North America home."

The new deal, reached just before the midnight deadline imposed by the U.S., will be called the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement, or USMCA. It replaces the 24-year-old North American Free Trade Agreement, of NAFTA, which President Donald Trump had called a job-killing disaster.

Trump on Monday morning called it a "great deal," tweeting that it "solves the many deficiencies and mistakes in NAFTA, greatly opens markets to our Farmers and Manufacturers, reduces Trade Barriers to the U.S. and will bring all three Great Nations together in competition with the rest of the world."

He added: "Congratulations to Mexico and Canada!"

The agreement reached Sunday gives U.S. farmers greater access to the Canadian dairy market. But it keeps a NAFTA dispute-resolution process that the U.S. wanted to jettison and offers Canada protection if Trump goes ahead with plans to impose tariffs on cars, trucks and auto parts imported into the United States.

"It's a good day for Canada," Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said as he left his office.

Trudeau said he would have more to say Monday. "We celebrate a trilateral deal. The door closes on trade fragmentation in the region," Jesus Seade, trade negotiator for Mexico's incoming president, said via Twitter.

Representatives for the government of Mexican president-elect Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador called a press conference to discuss details of the trade deal on Monday.

Canada, the United States' No. 2 trading partner, was left out when the U.S. and Mexico reached an agreement last month to revamp the North American Free Trade Agreement.

The Trump administration officially notified Congress of the U.S.-Mexico trade agreement on Aug. 31. That started a 90-day clock that would let outgoing Mexican President Enrique Pena Nieto sign the new pact before he leaves office Dec. 1.

Trump threatened to go ahead with a revamped NAFTA, with or without Canada. It was unclear, however, whether Trump had authority from Congress to pursue a revamped NAFTA with only Mexico.

Some lawmakers immediately expressed relief that Canada had been reinstated in the regional trading bloc.

"I am pleased that the Trump administration was able to strike a deal to modernize NAFTA with both Mexico and Canada," said Senate Finance Chairman Orrin Hatch, R-Utah. "NAFTA is a proven success."

NAFTA tore down most trade barriers between the United States, Canada and Mexico, leading to a surge in trade among them. But Trump and other critics said it encouraged manufacturers to move south of the border to take advantage of low Mexican wages, costing American jobs.

Trump campaigned on a promise to rewrite NAFTA or get rid of it. Talks on a rewrite began more than a year ago. To placate Trump, Mexico agreed in August to provisions that would require 40 percent to 45 percent of a car be built in countries where auto workers earn at least $16 an hour to qualify for NAFTA's duty-free benefits.

It was surprising that the United States found it easier to cut a deal with Mexico than with Canada, a longtime ally with a high-wage economy similar to America's.

"When this got started, Canada was the teacher's pet and Mexico was the problem child," said Michael Camunez, president of Monarch Global Strategies and a former U.S. Commerce Department official.

But relations between Ottawa and Washington soured. In the aftermath of a disastrous G-7 summit in Quebec in June, Trump called Trudeau "weak" and "dishonest."

Trump and Trudeau spoke on the phone on Monday.

The two countries need each other economically. Canada is by far the No. 1 destination for U.S. exports, and the U.S. market accounts for 75 percent of what Canada sells abroad.

The Canadian dollar jumped to a four-month high in response to the deal.

Coahoma's Caitlyn Corley pushes the ball over the net during the varsity Bulldogettes game against the Colorado City Lady Wolves. Corley had 7 digs, 2 blocks, and 1 kill during the game held in Colorado City Sept. 29, 2018.

Special to the Herald

COLORADO CITY - The Coahoma Bulldogettes fell to 0-2 in district play after losing to the Colorado City Lady Wolves Saturday in three sets 20-25, 17-25, 18-25.

It wasn't an easy win for the Lady Wolves thanks to a stubborn Bulldogette team. Several times during the match both squads refused to give up points by pulling out huge defensive plays to keep the rallies alive.

In the first set, Coahoma started out strong building up a 4-point advantage before the Colorado City squad chipped away the deficit and took over the lead by mid-match.

Coahoma roared back cutting down an 8-point deficit to three. However, the Lady Wolves sealed the first game thanks to some solid blocks at the net.

With Caitlyn Corley serving, the Bulldogettes made a second come-from-behind bid in the third set racking up 11 straight points on the scoreboard which pushed Coahoma into the lead, 17-16. However, the Lady Wolves were able to gain back control of the game and earned 9 out of the last 10 points in the set for the win.

As for individual performances on the Bulldogette squad, Corley stepped up on her defensive skills with 7 digs including several critical saves and two blocks. On offensive, Ashley Romero led Coahoma with 5 kills followed by McKynlee Overton with 4. Julia Mashburn had 5 assists.

Before the varsity game, the Coahoma JV Red team won their match against Colorado City in three sets (23-25, 27-25, 25-23). The Bulldogette JV White team had the weekend off.

Next: Coahoma will play Coleman

Tuesday at the CES competition gym. JV White will play 4:30 p.m. followed by JV Red at 5:30 p.m. The Bulldogette varsity team game begins at 6:30 p.m.

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Moon Goes Home

BY HOLIDAY MATHIS

It takes guts to go first. That's why those who go first have an advantage. Their courage earns them an edge. First can be tricky, too, with no examples to tuck within or hide behind. As the moon goes home to Cancer and Mercury mixes it up with Pluto, it's a good time to calculate the risks of going first. It might be worth it.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You'll do a sort of mental training. You'll steer your thoughts in such a way that creates a peaceful state. It will be easy this time, and you'll be able to build on this positive experience later when circumstances make it harder.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The people you cherish will know it. They sense it in the tenderness of your eyes, the thoughtfulness of your words and the warmth of your being. You and your loved ones are rewarded equally in the exchange.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). To get faster at a thing takes training. Put yourself through the paces. Repeat the processes until you can do them more automatically, until the friction points wear smooth. Doing a thing well will be its own reward.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Thoughts will seem to bump up against one another, creating confusion and division within your own mind. Instead of taking on each clash as a battle to be sorted, get into some exercise and breathing. All will calm down.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). You listen well. Do they? This matters today. Make it known that you have an expectation regarding the quality of attention you receive from others. You deserve this, and there's a classy way to do it.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). There's an effect you're going for -- a reaction you'd like to get from others. You're not even aware of it, until you realize that it's not happening. Take it as an opportunity to fulfill an elusive need.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Don't let it get complicated. It doesn't have to be. Kindness is the way. Kindness is the choice through which all the other choices will be made clear.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). The task requires your emotional involvement. It requires you to relate to others, see it their way and lean into the unknown of interactions. A computer couldn't pull it off. The labor is a celebration of your humanity.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). The cleanest, most direct and most effective way to get your goal is through sacrifice. It gets the unpleasantness out of the way upfront. It will be harder. But there's something instantly gratifying about doing hard things.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Capricorn is a sea goat who climbs mountains while remembering where he came from -- the sea. You'll be recognized in your community yet stay connected to your emotional and spiritual source.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Because you will accomplish what you believe you can, it will be very effective to spend more time visualizing your desired outcome and hyping yourself up.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You're driven to become better at what you do. However, you're not ready to handle a lot of attention just yet. Play it low-key. Keep learning. Tonight features a moment of accidental good luck.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 1). Whereas many fear change, you go into your solar return craving it. The desire to make a difference will be behind every presentation you give, every major decision and thousands of small ones, too. There will be a wind-fall in November and June; invest carefully. Love and family inspire an action that will be your legacy. Gemini and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 3, 36, 44, 49 and 13.

ASTROLOGICAL QUESTION: "My daughter has gained 30 pounds recently, and I know it probably bothers her. What can I do to help her get back in shape? I'm a little limited in my reach because she lives in a different state and because she happens to be 40 years old. But still, I'm her mother. I'm a Cancer and very intuitive, and my daughter has always listened to me. We're very connected -- so connected that sometimes I feel that if I'm eating healthily and exercising, it's doing some benefit to her, too. Anyway, maybe there's something I can say to help."

Nope, there's not. Stay out of it. Focus on your own health and fitness, and stay out of her business. I appreciate how connected you are with your daughter. It's true that Cancer is extremely intuitive. Cancer is also the sign of mothers. I don't doubt that your caring runs deep. That makes it even more important that you recognize boundaries between you and your daughter, accept her the way she is, and relinquish the need to control her. At 40 years old, she is eminently capable of making her own decisions.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: From Mary Poppins to Maria von Trapp and beyond, lovely Libra Julie Andrews doesn't just play roles; she creates iconic and beloved characters. She rarely plays the villain! Having one's moon, Mercury and Jupiter in Scorpio is a sign of emotional depth and soulfulness, which are no doubt helpful in portraying too-good-to-be-true characters realistically.

Fun By The Numbers
Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

The North players opened one club; the others opened one diamond. It is odd that in this highly touted event, which included most of the top players in the United States and Canada, only one North-South pair thought enough of their cards to undertake a game contract. But even at that table something peculiar occurred, since the bidding went:
North 1♣ East Pass South 1♦ West Pass
3♦ Pass 3♥ Pass
4NT Pass 5♦ Pass
6♦
South bid three hearts to invite North to bid three notrump if he had a spade stopper. But North obviously misunderstood the call and never did let go until six diamonds was reached.

The bidding:
North 1♣ East Pass South 1♦ West Pass
Opening lead — queen of spades.
This deal occurred in the International Team Trials in Dallas in 1964. The hand was played at nine tables, and you'd think that at most of them, the final contract would have been five diamonds. But the fact is that at eight of the tables, only a partscore in diamonds was reached.
At three tables the North-South pairs stopped in two diamonds, and at three tables in three diamonds, and at two tables in four diamonds. Some of

This Date In History

Today is Monday, Oct. 1, the 274th day of 2018. There are 91 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History: On Oct. 1, 1908, Henry Ford introduced his Model T automobile to the market.

On this date: In 1890, Congress passed the McKinley Tariff Act, which raised tariffs to a record level.

In 1910, the offices of the Los Angeles Times were destroyed by a bomb explosion and fire; 21 Times employees were killed.

In 1937, Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black delivered a radio address in which he acknowledged being a former member of the Ku Klux Klan, but said he had dropped out of the organization before becoming a U.S. senator.

In 1949, Mao Zedong proclaimed the People's Republic of China during a ceremony in Beijing. A 42-day strike by the United Steelworkers of America began over the issue of retirement benefits.

In 1957, the motto "In God We Trust" began appearing on U.S. paper currency.

In 1964, the Free Speech Movement began at the University of California, Berkeley. Japan's first high-speed "bullet train," the Tokaido Shinkansen, went into operation between Tokyo and Osaka.

In 1971, Walt Disney World opened near Orlando, Florida.

In 1972, the book "The Joy of Sex" by Alex Comfort was first published by Mitchell Beazley of London.

In 1982, Sony began selling the first commercial compact disc player, the CDP-101, in Japan.

In 1987, eight people were killed when an earthquake measuring magnitude 5.9 struck the Los Angeles area.

In 1994, National Hockey League team owners began a 103-day lockout of their players.

In 1996, a federal grand jury indicted Unabomber suspect Theodore Kaczynski in the 1994 mail bomb slaying of advertising executive Thomas Mosser. (Kaczynski was later sentenced to four life terms plus 30 years.) The federal minimum wage rose 50 cents to four dollars, 75 cents an hour.

Ten years ago: After one spectacular failure in the House, the $700 billion financial industry bailout won lopsided passage in the Senate, 74-25, after it was loaded with tax breaks and other sweeteners. Nick Reynolds, a founding member of the Kingston Trio, died in San Diego at age 75. TV actor House Peters Jr., the original "Mr. Clean," died in Los Angeles at age 92.

Five years ago: The federal government partially shut down because of a budget impasse in Congress, the same day Americans got their first chance to shop for health insurance using the online marketplaces that were at the heart of President Barack Obama's health care overhaul (however, government websites designed to sell the policies struggled to handle the traffic, with many frustrated users reporting trouble setting up accounts). Novelist Tom Clancy, 66, died in Baltimore.

One year ago: A gunman opened fire from a room at the Mandalay Bay casino hotel in Las Vegas on a crowd of 22,000 country music fans at a concert below, leaving 58 people dead and more than 800 injured in the deadliest mass shooting in modern U.S. history; the gunman, 64-year-old Stephen Craig Paddock, killed himself before officers arrived. O.J. Simpson was released from a prison in Nevada a few minutes after midnight, after serving nine years for a botched hotel-room heist in Las Vegas. Germany celebrated its first same-sex weddings, after a law took effect putting gay and lesbian couples on an equal legal footing with heterosexual couples.

Today's Birthdays: Former President Jimmy Carter is 94. Actress-singer Julie Andrews is 83. Actress Stella Stevens is 80. Rock musician Jerry Martini (Sly and the Family Stone) is 75. Baseball Hall-of-Famer Rod Carew is 73. Jazz musician Dave Holland is 72. Actress Yvette Freeman is 68. Actor Randy Quaid is 68. Rhythm-and-blues singer Howard Hewett is 63.

Big Spring Tennis takes top spot with win over Greenwood

Special to the Herald

The Big Spring Steer Tennis Team sits atop the District 5-AAAA Team Tennis race by beating the Greenwood Rangers in Greenwood, 12-7. Strong play on the boy's side sweeping the doubles and winning 5 of 6 singles matches. Continued strong play from Marissa Salazar and Gabby Medina and a hard-fought win by the freshman girls doubles team of Alisa Gonzalez and Natalia Lopez.

"We played much better in this match than against Sweetwater. We still have definite areas to improve upon" said head tennis coach Dana Jones.

Next up for the Steers in district play is a key matchup against San Angelo Lake View (dropping down from 5A) at home on Saturday, October 6, 2018. Play starts at 10:0 a.m.

Texas Tech QB Alan Bowman sustains partially collapsed lung

Texas Tech's Alan Bowman (10) throws a pass during the first half of an NCAA college football game against West Virginia, Saturday, Sept. 29, 2018, in Lubbock, Texas.

Associate Press

LUBBOCK, Texas— Texas Tech freshman quarterback Alan Bowman sustained a partially collapsed lung against West Virginia and remained hospitalized a day after getting injured.

Red Raiders coach Kliff Kingsbury said Sunday there wasn't a timetable for Bowman's return but that it would likely be "sooner than later" because Bowman didn't have broken ribs.

Bowman was injured in the second quarter of a 42-34 loss to the Mountaineers when he was sandwiched on a hit by Ezekiel Rose and Keith Washington as he threw a pass. Kingsbury said Bowman was evaluated at the team's facility before being taken to a hospital.

"I've never had one that's had it," Kingsbury said. "It's a new kind of experience for all of us. He's doing better. He was up and alert and seemed to be in a good mood."

Bowman was the nation's leading passer going into the game after taking over in the season opener when McLane Carter sprained an ankle in a loss to Mississippi.

Jett Duffey replaced Bowman and had the Red Raiders within eight points and driving in the fourth quarter after they trailed 35-10 at halftime. Duffey's second interception was returned for what amounted to a clinching touchdown by Washington.

"We're being cautious," Kingsbury said. "His game is a little bit different than Alan's where he's going to move and make plays. So we want to make sure he's 100 percent before we get him back out there."

Bowman has 1,680 yards passing with 11 touchdowns and three interceptions. He had a touchdown and an interception against the Mountaineers (4-0, 2-0 Big 12), who jumped to ninth from 12th in the AP Top 25. The Red Raiders (3-2, 1-1) dropped out from No. 25 with the loss.
