Arrington to honor fallen Big Spring soldier

By ROGER CLINE
 Staff Writer

A fallen hero will be honored at Big Spring High School Thursday.

2003 BSHS graduate Specialist Robert James "R.J." Volker will be honored with a Capitol flag presentation Thursday at 8:30 a.m. at the High School, 707 E. 11th Place.

Specialist Volker was assigned to the 1st Battalion, 5th Cavalry Regiment, 2nd Brigade, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas.

During a tour of duty in Iraq in 2006, he died of injuries sustained when an improvised explosive device detonated near his Humvee.

Robert graduated from Big Spring High School where he played the French horn in the Steer Band. He then attended Universal Technical Institute, where he graduated from the auto body repair course in 2004.

Robert James "R.J." Volker

Before joining the Army in September 2005, he worked at the Big Spring Collision Center.

His many awards include the Combat Action Badge, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and the Army Service Ribbon.

The program honoring Volker Thursday is part of the "West Texas Warriors" program spearheaded by Congressman Jodey Arrington recognizing fallen soldiers that called West Texas home. Arrington will be at the event.

In May, Sgt. Randall Olguin of Ralls, Texas, was the first fallen hero honored by the West Texas Warriors program. Olguin was killed in Iraq in 2007.

The dangers of vaping

A warning from the Big Spring Police Department and Howard County Sheriff's Office

Special to the Herald

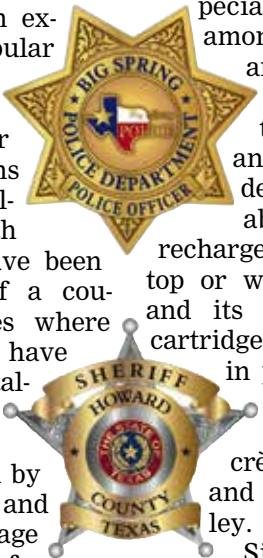

The Big Spring Police Department and Howard County Sheriff's Office want to make parents aware of an extremely popular but dangerous trend with our local teens called "juuling". Both agencies have been informed of a couple of cases where teenagers have been hospitalized due to side effects caused by "juuling" and we encourage parents to familiarize themselves with this trend and the paraphernalia that is associated with it. Research has indicated that the amount of nicotine in one juul pod is equivalent to a whole pack of cigarettes.

The National Center for Health Research produced the following information: Juul is a type of e-cigarette and is especially popular among children and young adults due to its sleek and discreet design, its ability to be recharged on a laptop or wall charger and its liquid-filled cartridges that come in popular flavors like cool mint, crème brulee and fruit medley.

Since juuls are small, discreet, and closely resemble a USB drive, they can be easily hidden and used in a wide variety of settings, such as the classroom.

Here, the kids and cops pose with the Police Department's Mine Resistant Armor-Protected Emergency Response Vehicle. "It's a good opportunity for our kids and family members and people in Big Spring to get to know our police officers," said Michelle Rodriguez, Big Spring Center's Activities Director. "They're still our officers, they still take care of us, but just 'Hey, hi! What's your name?' That kind of thing." Big Spring Police Chief Chad Williams agreed. "It's just an opportunity for the Police Department to engage with the community, and show the community that we're one of them," Williams said. "It's basically an opportunity for a good time to come visit us and enjoy each others' company." National Night Out has been held annually since 1984, and Big Spring has observed the event for the past three years.

BSPD's Pharmaceutical Take Back Initiative

By AMBER MANSFIELD
 Staff Writer

Is your medicine cabinet filled with the pesky unused prescription drugs? You want to clean up some space, but how do you properly dispose of them? If you flush them or just throw them away, they'll eventually leach into rivers, oceans, or groundwater, which can have adverse affects on drinking water and wildlife. Well, worry no more because on Oct. 27, 2018, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Big Spring Police Department's Narcotics Division will be working in collaboration with the Drug Enforcement Administration as part of the National Pharmaceutical Take Back Initiative. This will be held at the West doors of Spring Town Plaza (located at 1801 East FM 700).

Chad Williams, Chief of Police

"It's called the 'Pharmaceutical Take Back Initiative,'" Chad Williams, Chief of Police said. "We do it twice a year. People can bring any prescribed controlled substances, except injections and syringes, which are not being accepted because of the hazards of the blood-

This week's reviews are all mysteries.

Mary Russell and her husband, Sherlock Holmes, help an old friend find her missing aunt in "Island of the Mad" (M KIN L) by Laurie R. King. Lady Vivian Beaconsfield has spent most of her adult life in one asylum after another, since the loss of her brother and father in the Great War. Although her mental state seemed to be improving, she's now disappeared after an outing from Bethlem Royal Hospital, better known as Bedlam.

To track down the vanished woman, Russell uses her deductive instincts and talent for subterfuge—and enlists her husband's legendary prowess. Together, Russell and Holmes travel from the grim confines of Bedlam to the winding canals and sun-drenched Lido cabarets of Venice—only to find the foreboding shadow of Benito Mussolini darkening the fate of a city, an era, and a tormented English lady of privilege.

In "Believe Me" (M DEL J) by JP Delaney, an actress plays both sides of a murder investigation. Claire needs work and money to survive, she is a struggling actor and a Brit in America without a green card. Then she gets both. Claire agrees to become a decoy for a firm of divorce lawyers. Hired to entrap straying husbands, she must catch them on tape with their seductive propositions.

The rules? Never hit on the mark directly. Make it clear you're available, but he has to proposition you, not the other way around. The firm is after evidence, not coercion. The innocent have nothing to hide. Then the game changes. When the wife of one of Claire's targets is violently murdered, the cops are sure the husband is to blame. Desperate to catch him before he kills again, they enlist Claire to lure him into a confession. For a woman who's mastered the art of manipulation, how difficult could it be to tempt a killer into a trap?

A psychological suspense, "Bring Me Back" (M PAR B) by B.A. Paris, will have you questioning everything and everyone until its stunning climax. Finn and Layla are young, in love, and on vacation. They're driving along the highway when Finn stops at a service station to use the restroom. When he returns Layla is nowhere to be found. That is what he told the police.

Ten years later Finn is engaged to Layla's sister, Ellen. Their shared grief over what happened to Layla drew them close and now they intend to remain together. Still, there's something about Ellen that Finn has never fully understood. Then, not long before he and Ellen are to be married, Finn gets a phone call. Someone from his past has seen Layla—hiding in plain sight.

There are other odd occurrences: Long-lost items from Layla's past that keep turning up around Finn and Ellen's house. Emails from strangers who seem to know too much.

Secret messages, clues, warnings. If Layla is alive—and on Finn's trail—what does she want? And how much does she know?

Scotland Yard's Ian Rutledge stumbles upon mystery in "The Gate Keeper" (M TOD C) by Charles Todd. Late one night, while driving down a deserted road, Ian nearly crashes into a car by the side of the road. When he stops to look closer he sees a young woman standing beside the vehicle with blood on her hands and a dead man at her feet. She swears she didn't kill Stephen Wentworth.

According to her a stranger stepped out in front of their car, and without warning, fired a single shot before vanishing into the night. But there is no trace of him. And the shaken woman insists it all happened so quickly, she never saw the man's face.

Although he is a witness after the fact, Rutledge persuades the Yard to give him the inquiry, since he's on the scene. Wentworth was well-liked, yet his bitter family paint a malevolent portrait, calling him a murderer. But who did Wentworth kill? Is his death retribution? Or has his companion lied?

Sandra Verdin

Librarian Cleo Watkins is trying to save her tiny town's storm-damaged library, in "Better Off Read" (M PAG N) by Nora Page. Cleo won't be shushed when an upstart young mayor threatens to permanently close down the library.

She takes to her bookmobile, Words on Wheels, to collect allies and rally library support throughout Catalpa Springs, Georgia. A major benefactor known for his eccentric DIY projects requests all available books on getting away with murder. He's no Georgia peach, and Cleo wonders if she should worry about his plans.

She knows she should when she discovers him bludgeoned and evidence points to her best friend, Mary-Rose Garland. Sure of Mary-Rose's innocence, Cleo applies her librarian's sleuthing skills to the case, assisted by friends, family, and the dapper anti-quarian bookseller. With lives and her library on the line, Cleo must shift into high gear to close the book on murder.

F. Scott Fitzgerald, wrote in "The Great Gatsby," "Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall," we hope you dive into fall with one of these mystery books.

Free, confidential depression screenings offered October 11

BIG SPRING- Free, confidential depression screenings will be offered by mental health professionals from West Texas Centers and Big Spring State Hospital Thursday, October 11th, on National Depression Screening Day in Big Spring.

The screening will be held on the first floor of Scenic Mountain Medical Center, 1601 W. 11th Place, in Big Spring, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Participants may enter through the hospital's main entrance near the hospital cafeteria.

Screenings are free and are open to people of any age, said Shelley Smith, LMSW, West Texas Centers CEO.

National Depression Screening Day is held each year in October to raise awareness and screen people for depression and related mood and anxiety disorders. West Texas Centers and Big Spring State Hospital mental health professionals will provide attendees with a short questionnaire and visit with each individual upon completion to review their answers.

The questions provided by the National Depression Screening Day organization assists clinicians in recognizing people who may be living with depression or who are at risk for suicide, "Smith said."

After attendees complete the questionnaire, the answers are reviewed by the clinician and the attendee, which gives the mental health expert an idea what resources in the community are needed, Big Spring State Hospital Superintendent Traci Phillips said.

Sometimes the person may be living with a sad episode in his or her life or may be living with full blown depression and has never been diagnosed.

"That's why we decided that this was such an important public service for us to provide together," Phillips said. "Many people have never been diagnosed and may be living with depression and not even realize it. This way they can be seen in a confidential setting. It's free, and if they are just living with a sad episode in their lives, we can also give them a list of resources in the community that can help them as well."

Mental health professionals working at the screening will not diagnose depression but will suggest avenues participants can pursue following the screening, Smith said.

Depression is a very common condition that affects more than 16 million Americans—almost 17 percent of the population—and more than 300 million around the world. Clinical depression is treatable through a variety of methods, including medication and psychotherapy or a combination of the two.

Each attendee is given educational literature and the names and phone numbers of community resources.

Screenings are free and confidential, Smith said. They are offered at more than 1,500 locations across the United States.

West Texas Centers also operates a 24-hour mental health crisis hotline, 1-800-375-4357. The line is available for those who are in a crisis or need mental health services, Smith said.

For more information on National Depression Screening Day, call Amy Vidal at (432)264-3256.

location for their booth until the deadline," Lions Club Member and event organizer Lisa Duggan said. With just a few days left until the Trade Day kicks off, open spots are slowly dwindling away as more and more people sign up, so get those registrations in!

For those not looking to set up a booth, you are very much encouraged to stop in and grab some food and peruse through the large variety of unique antiques, collectibles, arts and crafts, clothing, jewelry and tons of other items sold throughout the collections of vendors.

"It's really cool. You will see a lot of items which are hand crafted by the sellers themselves," Duggan said. "Trade day is a blast, and also very beneficial to our community. We help raise funds for scholarships that go to our Coahoma seniors. This event also benefits those who struggle with their vision, as some people have inadequate insurance or no insurance at all, and that can make it very hard to get the prescription glasses they may need."

Along with the scholarships and vision fundraisers, businesses have previously held their own donation booths that went to a cause they reached out to help. In the past, students of Coahoma have also participated in raising funds for certain events coming up in the school year as well.

As if that isn't enough already, United Blood Services will also be there from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to hold a blood drive for those interested in donating blood to help fight the constant battle and dire need for blood.

Come give back to the community, all while having fun, trying tasty food, and enjoying the small town atmosphere of the Coahoma Trade Days. For lot reservation prices or any other additional information regarding the Coahoma Trade Days, please call Lisa Duggan at City Hall (432) 394-4287.

VAPING

Teachers and school administrators across the nation are finding students juuling when their backs are turned: Students can take a hit, blow the small, odorless puff of smoke into their jacket or backpack, and continue their school work in a matter of seconds. Compared to other forms of teenage rebellion, juuling is especially dangerous as middle and high school students are unknowingly becoming addicted to nicotine at an alarming rate.

Medical professionals are very concerned because juul delivers higher concentrations of nicotine than other e-cigarettes. Nicotine is highly addictive but it is also toxic to fetuses and is known to impair brain and lung development if used during adolescence. A 2017 study found that non-smoking adults were four times more likely to start smoking traditional cigarettes after only 18 months of vaping, which includes "juuling."

For more information on "juuling" visit www.center4research.org/the-dangers-of-juuling borne pathogens."

This event provides a unified opportunity for the public to surrender expired, unwanted, or unused pharmaceutical controlled substances, dangerous drugs, and other medications to law enforcement officers for destruction.

People may either simply deposit the medication in its original container, or those concerned about the personal information on the container may dump the medication out of the container directly into the disposal box. However, liquid medications such as cough syrup must remain sealed in their original container.

The event will be so "no questions asked" that the police aren't even worried about people turning in illegal drugs, said the chief.

"You know what? If they want to come drop their illegal drugs in, it's no questions asked. Nothing's going to be said," he said. "If they come and drop something in that box, they turn around and walk off. We don't even look at it." Williams said the DEA will be responsible for disposing of the drugs collected at the event.

"Once it's completed, the boxes are sealed and hand-delivered to the Drug Enforcement Administration and disposed of through their facilities," he said.

This program is anonymous, and all efforts will be made to protect the identity of individuals disposing of medications. Participants may dispose of medication in its original container or by removing the medication from its container and disposing it directly into the disposal box. Liquid products, such as cough syrup, should remain sealed in the original container.

"We strongly encourage everyone who has expired medicine or medicine you no longer need or use to utilize this opportunity and dispose of your medicine safely," said the Chief.

For more information regarding this program, please contact Big Spring Police Department Narcotics Sergeant Steve Henry at 432-264-2595.

FORSAN'S FIRST EVER SHAKE-OFF

Special to the Herald

Monday morning not only brought a new week to Forsan ISD, but also brought some special visitors. Forsan students are known for their academic prowess and nationally recognized achievement. But, on this day, there was more being tested than their Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic. On Monday, the Forsan students were tested over an important life skill: shaking hands and conversational skills.

Over the summer, Superintendent Randy Johnson told his campus administrators that he was hearing feedback on Forsan students from local business owners and nearby universities. The community commended the intellect and work ethic of students hailing from Forsan, but noted that many "soft skills" were unrefined. The administrators saw this as a call to duty.

Forsan Junior and Senior High School Assistant Principal, Rebecca Medina, spent the summer designing and creating a program that would reach the needs of these students. She collaborated with school counselor, Angie Huckabee, and they sought input from their campus staff on what skills the students were lacking. Being able to shake hands while looking someone in the eye and maintain conversation was atop that list.

Immediately after school began in August, Forsan's teachers and staff jumped into action. Each day the campus sets aside 30 minutes called "Activity Period." It is during this time that the adults work with small groups of students on refining their social skills or "soft skills." The students began learning how to properly shake hands. They watched etiquette videos, had multiple class discussions, participated in contests within the classroom, and eventually competed school wide.

Mrs. Medina notes that each class competed with handshakes and eventually crowned the top two winners. Those students would move on to the semifinals and compete against each other while school staff members judged. The semifinals narrowed down the group to a total of fifteen students ranging from sixth grade through twelfth grade. Those fifteen students moved onto the finals which happened Monday morning.

To up the rigor of the competition, Mrs. Medina invited specific community members to judge the contest. The judges included Mayor Larry McLellan, Sheriff Stan Parker, Bank President Joel DeLaGarza, Howard College Dean of Students Erin Mackenzie, and local rancher, business owner, and philanthropist Carroll Choate. The students met with each judge and were analyzed by a rubric system of seven categories: Appearance, Je Ne Sais Quoi, Verbal Poise, Handshake, Non-Verbal Cues, Adaptability, and Conversational Skills. The students were scored in each category and were assigned an overall score by combining each categorical score.

Two winners were crowned; one each from high school and junior high. The high school winner was sophomore Hailei Cotton. Rounding out the top of the junior high scores was eighth grader Emily Allen. Both young ladies impressed the judges and walked away with perfect scores in the competition.

Lady Steers celebrate seniors, suffer first district loss to Sweetwater

By JORDAN PARR
Sports Editor

The Lady Steers faced off against the Sweetwater Mustangs on Big Spring's senior night Tuesday evening with the opportunity to go 3-0 to start district play and take a commanding lead of the district. But the Mustangs had other ideas and played a great game to take the match in straight sets Tuesday night at Steer Gym. Big Spring entered the match with a 2-0 district record after back-to-back wins over Snyder and San Angelo Lakeview.

Sweetwater came into the match with a 1-2 district record with back-to-back losses to Greenwood and Snyder. After the big loss to the Mustangs the Lady Steers, now 2-1 in district, are still very much in a position to take the district title. Big Spring will have to make the adjustments and try to get back on track against Greenwood this Saturday to retake the district lead.

In the first set, Sweetwater jumped on the Lady Steers early and got out to a 7-1 lead early in the set. Big Spring scrapped and fought hard the entire set and cut the lead to four at one point, but too many unforced errors kept the Lady Steers from ever taking the lead. Big Spring eventually lost the sloppy first set 25-15 and looked out of sorts.

In the second set the Lady Steers came out a lot sharper and got some good things going offensively while stepping up their defensive game as well. Big Spring took the early 2-0 lead in the set before the Mustangs put together a nice run to take an 8-3 advantage. The Ladys Steers fought back though and retook the lead at 11-10 in the middle of the set. With great serving from Sweetwaters #9 Brianna Moriel and #17 Charity Thompson and huge kills from #5 Hannah Mobley the Mustangs once again held off the Lady Steers counter attack to win the second set 25-21 and take a two set lead in the match.

In the third set, with all the momentum in the Mustangs favor, Sweetwater jumped out to a commanding 7-0 advantage early. With Thompson and Mobley continuing to put the ball down hard for the Mustangs the Lady Steers really had to dig and play for the counters in the set. Despite trailing by as many as nine in the set, Big Spring never gave up and fought hard to get back in the set and the match. But it was just too little too late as the Lady Steers dropped the third set 25-20 to take their first district loss of the season.

Whenever Big Spring was able to set up their big hitters with good kill opportunities they looked like the better offensive team, but the Mustangs offensive fire power kept the Lady Steers scrambling and never let them get into a rhythm where they could string together multiple kill chances in a row. "We really were pumped up about the match and we knew Sweetwater was going to be ready to play. They put the ball down hard and we just didn't hit the ball hard when we had the opportunity. We know what we need to do get the job done and we just didn't do it tonight. We had some real hustle plays at times and did some great things but just not enough to come out on top. Sweetwater got that momentum after winning set 2 and we couldn't recover" said head coach Mitzi Bell of her team after the loss. Olivia Bancroft 11 assists and 5 digs; Amber Martinez 4 kills, 1 block and 1 dig; Keila Yanez 2 blocks, 1 ace and 3 digs; Hayden Bell 1 dig; Robyn Evans 3 digs; Logan Terrazas 3 kills, 5 blocks and 3 digs; Hannah Bell 1 ace, 5 assists and 6 digs; Ryan Terrazas 1 kill and 1 dig; Mackenzie Rodriques 6 digs; Kalyn Whitehead 2 kills; Marissa Aguilar 2 kills and 1 dig; Kayleigh Penny 7 kills and 15 digs.

Special to the Herald

In a close match, the Coahoma Bulldogettes couldn't overcome the Coleman Lady Bluecats Tuesday night and fell in three sets, 26-24, 25-19, 25-22.

Paige Aktins led in offense for the Bulldogette varsity volleyball squad.

She had 9 kills for the game. Julia Mashburn had 9 assists and Cassie Grant had 4 digs.

The Bulldogettes pulled off 5 aces during the evening thanks to strong serves by Ashley Romero, who had 3, along with Mashburn and Jaydan Mann, who both had 1 a piece.

Earlier in the day, both Coahoma JV teams won their matches against Coleman: JV White, 25-12, 25-15; and JV Red, 25-11, 25-11.

Next: The Bulldogettes will travel to Clyde Saturday to faceoff against the Lady Bulldogs.

Aces: Ashley Romero, 3; Julia Mashburn, 1; Jadyan Mann, 1.

Kills: Paige Aktins, 9; Romero, 4; MaKynlee Overton, 3; Kaitlyn Corley, 3.

Assists: Mashburn, 9; Mann 7.

Digs: Cassie Grant, 4; Overton, 2; Romero, 2; Mann, 1.

Opening lead — five of hearts.
Many deals present declarer with a choice of two different suits to develop. Sometimes the suits appear to be about equal to each other in potential, but, as in the present case, appearances can be deceiving.
When the deal was played, South won the heart lead with the king and, seeing very little difference in the trick-production possibilities of the diamond and club suits, elected to try to establish the clubs.

So he led a low club to the queen at trick two and, when this held, continued with a club to the king, East discarding a low spade. West won with the ace and returned a heart, establishing three heart tricks for the defense. Since South could not come to nine tricks without conceding either a club or a diamond, he had to go down one.

In failing to make the contract, South did not recognize a subtle but important difference between the two minor suits. Attacking clubs first gave him no chance to recover if the clubs divided 4-1. The diamond suit, however, presented him with an opportunity to test for a 3-2 division while retaining the option to switch to clubs if the diamonds did not split 3-2.

Thus, if he had cashed the A-K of diamonds and learned that the missing diamonds were 4-1 (or 5-0), he could then abandon the suit and try clubs. Playing clubs first did not offer the same advantage.

In the actual deal, South would have continued diamonds after cashing the A-K, thereby assuring nine tricks. By playing in this fashion — giving himself two chances instead of one — declarer would have gone down only if both minor suits were divided unevenly.

Tomorrow: Independent judgment.

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Storytelling Moon

BY HOLIDAY MATHIS

The story changes the experience. If the experience isn't what you want it to be, maybe there are actions that could alter it, moving things in the environment, using different people, cutting ties, making new deals... but before you go drastic, the entertaining Leo moon suggests you change your story about it and go from there.

Anyway, this is no day for it either way. Move. You'll find the excellent route soon after you start walking.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). People who have already decided are not very good candidates for hearing what's new and exciting. It's why you'll put off a decision in favor of first hearing all that's being offered.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You have a gift for putting yourself in the other person's place and really understanding what it's like to be there. That's why you'll sort out the conflict that others couldn't seem to unravel.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You are loyal by nature and it's why you need to do more research up front to make sure you're getting into a situation where you're going to be loyal to the right people.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 3). A surprising turn of events happens this month. You'll be mentored by one who sees your enormous potential and can help you realize it. More highlights: a spontaneous trip that leads to love, a bargain catered just to you and the chance to perform before your colleagues and raise your position. Capricorn and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 9, 33, 38, 25 and 17.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Stars smile on your negotiations. Better arrangements can be hashed out with very little compromise because each party needs the same kind of change. How fortuitous!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). It's never "just business." Business and finance are woven with emotional threads. It's never "not personal" either, if it's a person who is acting or a person who is affected. Today calls for extra sensitivity.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). What rituals are involved in your daily life that keep you on the path you want to be on? And what rituals take you off of the path? That second question may be a harder one to answer, but the answer is worth more than gold.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You care, and you believe. It will lead you to an exclusive and coveted position. It will help you understand what needs to happen next and why it matters.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Inactivity is not always the same thing as rest. Sometimes it's just being stuck.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You're really good at processing what's offered to you. You do it quickly, based on priorities you've established and re-established along the way. But don't go on automatic mode today. Something will need more attention.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The others came in at a different time, an earlier time, and they have the advantage of already knowing the space. Other than that, they don't have anything extra that you don't have. Don't be intimidated. Go for it.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Emotionally healthy people don't often find themselves in the middle of drama. Though you're a fan of excitement, you'll take the peace of health over the cheap thrill of drama any ole' day.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Trust, hope and passion. These are the things that you'll be cultivating, building on and banking on in the weeks to come. See them as the important

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

This Date In History

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 3, the 276th day of 2018. There are 89 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:
 On Oct. 3, 1995, the jury in the O.J. Simpson murder trial in Los Angeles found the former football star not guilty of the 1994 slayings of his former wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and Ronald Goldman (however, Simpson was later found liable for damages in a civil trial).

On this date:
 In 1789, President George Washington declared Nov. 26, 1789, a day of Thanksgiving to express gratitude for the creation of the United States of America.
 In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday in November Thanksgiving Day.
 In 1932, Iraq became independent of British administration.
 In 1941, Adolf Hitler declared in a speech in Berlin that Russia had been "broken" and would "never rise again." "The Maltese Falcon" — the version starring Humphrey Bogart and directed by John Huston — premiered in New York.
 In 1955, "Captain Kangaroo" and "The Mickey Mouse Club" premiered on C-B-S and A-B-C, respectively.
 In 1962, astronaut Wally Schirra (shih-RAH) became the fifth American to fly in space as he blasted off from Cape Canaveral aboard the Sigma 7 on a 9-hour flight.
 In 1967, folk singer-songwriter Woody Guthrie, the Dust Bowl Troubadour best known for "This Land Is Your Land," died in New York of complications from Huntington's disease; he was 55.
 In 1981, Irish nationalists at the Maze Prison near Belfast, Northern Ireland, ended seven months of hunger strikes that had claimed 10 lives.
 In 1991, Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton entered the race for the Democratic presidential nomination.
 In 2001, the Senate approved an agreement normalizing trade between the United States and Vietnam.
 In 2003, a tiger attacked magician Roy Horn of duo "Siegfried & Roy" during a performance in Las Vegas, leaving the superstar illusionist in critical condition on his 59th birthday.
 In 2008, O.J. Simpson was found guilty of robbing two sports-memorabilia dealers at gunpoint in a Las Vegas hotel room. (Simpson was later sentenced to nine to 33 years in prison; he was granted parole in July 2017 and released from prison in October of that year.)

 Ten years ago: Amid dire warnings of economic disaster, a reluctant Congress abruptly reversed course and approved a historic $700 billion government bailout of the battered financial industry; President George W. Bush swiftly signed it. Thirteen years to the day after O.J. Simpson was acquitted of murdering his ex-wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman, the former football star was found guilty of robbing two sports-memorabilia dealers at gunpoint in a Las Vegas hotel room. (Simpson was later sentenced to nine to 33 years in prison.)
 Five years ago: A Connecticut woman driving a black Infiniti with her 1-year-old daughter inside tried to ram a White House barricade, then led police on a chase toward the U.S. Capitol, where police shot and killed her. (The unarmed woman, 34-year-old Miriam Carey, had been diagnosed with postpartum depression and psychosis; her child was unharmed.) President Barack Obama canceled a trip to Asia to stay in Washington and push for an elusive funding agreement that would end a partial government shutdown. A smugglers' ship packed with African migrants sank off the coast of a southern Italian island, killing more than 365 people.
 One year ago: President Donald Trump, visiting Puerto Rico in the aftermath of Hurricane Maria, congratulated the U.S. island territory for escaping the higher death toll of what he called "a real catastrophe like Katrina;" at a church used to distribute supplies, Trump handed out flashlights and tossed rolls of paper towels into the friendly crowd. The United States expelled 15 of Cuba's diplomats to protest Cuba's failure to protect Americans from unexplained attacks in Havana. Yahoo announced that the largest data breach in history had affected all 3 billion accounts on its service, not the 1 billion it had revealed earlier.
 Today's Birthdays: Composer Steve Reich is 82. Rock and roll star Chubby Checker is 77. Actor Alan Rachins is 76.

Former Sen. Jeff Bingaman, D-N.M., is 75. Magician Roy Horn is 74. Singer Lindsey Buckingham is 69. Jazz musician Ronnie Laws is 68. Blues singer Keb' Mo' is 67. Former astronaut Kathryn Sullivan is 67. Baseball Hall of Famer Fred Couples is 59. Actor-comedian Greg Proops is 59. Actor Jack Wagner is 59. Actor/musician Marcus Giamatti is 57. Big Spring Junior High Volleyball

Special to the Herald

The 7th grade A team fell short to Snyder in 3 sets. The first set was close with our Lady Steers defeating the Lady Tigers (26-24). The second and third sets weren't in our favor (20-25 and 10-15), but the team worked as a unit to make key plays. Kendall Brooks, Julianna Fraser, and Delaney Moreno played well on offense. Defense was led by Miranda Gomez, Brooklyn Hyatt, and Karissa Gonzales.

7th Grade B fell to Snyder in 2 sets (5-25, 15-25). Standout players on defense were Addison Rubio and Destiny Hodnett. Standout players on offense were Lauren Bryans and Kylee Haynie. Girls worked hard and continue to do their best!

8th Grade A Lady Steers fell to the Snyder Tigers in 2 sets. We had some great net play though led by Jalen Sykes, Marlie Kennedy, and Katelyn Haynie. Taylor Partlow and Kortney Moore led out of offense from around the floor. Defensively Monica Gutierrez and Alyson Castaneda worked the back row.

8th grade B fell to Snyder in three sets. Our Lady Steers won the first set (25-20). We fell in the next two sets (25-16, & 25-16). Our stand-out players were Kaydence Canales, Elaina Arrendondo, Mia Bustamante and Daniah Wrighter with serving aces and J'oncye, Daniah and Elaina with kills at the net. Valerie Hernandez, Mia Bustamante and Kaydence Canales played strong defense.

Enter To Win $50 At These Participating Merchants

Rules: Find this week's games between the merchants' ads on this page. Choose the teams you think will win. Clip and fill in the official entry blank on this page with your team choices. The entry with the most correct picks will win $50. You must be 18 to enter. No Photo Copies Accepted. In the event of a tie, the tie breaker will determine the winner. For the tie breaker, the entry with the correct team will win. If both entries have guessed the same team, the second tie breaker will be the one closest to the total points. Decisions of the judges are final. Employees and family of The Big Spring Herald are ineligible. All entries must be received at one of the participating merchants by 1 p.m. Friday of the week played. Do not drop your entry form at the Big Spring Herald. Winners will be announced in the next Pigskin Contest Page.
