Big Spring Ford Community Appreciation

Big Spring Ford hosted Community Appreciation this past Saturday, as a way of giving back to those who have supported them the past year. There was an opportunity for kids to play in bounce houses, enjoy different activities and have their face painted. Double L BBQ was on hand serving lunch – sliders, hot dogs, roasted corn and more – and providing sno cones. All the activities, including food, were offered free to those who attended. SCARS entertainment was on hand, along with KBYG and KBEST throughout the day providing music. The customer appreciation was only one of many activities that took place this weekend, including Cowboys and Heels Trade Show and the second Moonlight Rave Run. More activities are set for the coming week for those looking to stay entertained this summer.

Chamber's Shopping Extravaganza is back

By AMANDA DUFORAT

Round two of Shopping Extravaganza is here. The Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce has joined forces with 16 local boutiques to host a shopping opportunity supporting local businesses this Thursday. "Summer is already halfway gone and back to school shopping is right around the corner," Debbye ValVerde, Executive Director of the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce, said. "This is a great way to get a head start on back to school clothes shopping, or even to have one final splurge on yourself before heading out to shop for the kids." Last month, 15 local boutiques joined together and opened their doors for extended hours. This month, The Chalet Resale Shop, has joined in the fun and will also be opening their doors a little bit later than normal. "All of these shops are locally owned and offer unique designs on clothing and even some housewares, bath accessories and more. For those who haven't been to these stores, this is a great time to stop in, meet the staff, and see what Big Spring has to offer." ValVerde continued, "Soothe offers a good selection of bath products; See SHOPPING, Page 3

Space Bubble coming to Big Spring

By ANNA GUTIERREZ
 Staff Writer

To keep in theme of "A Universe of Stories," the Howard County Library's Summer Reading Program will be hosting a traveling planetarium. The Space Bubble will be visiting Big Spring on Wednesday, July 17 and will be set up at the Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club gym, which is located at 811 W. 5th St. There will be three demonstrations at 10:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Space is limited to 35 per demonstration, and seating is first-come-first-served. Admission is free.

"The traveling planetarium allows kids to explore space, to see space projected onto the dome of the Space Bubble, and learn about space," says Sandra Verdin, Howard County Library Children's Librarian. "We chose this theme to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the moon landing. Throughout the summer, kids have read books about space, both fiction and non-fiction, and have made space-related crafts like sun catchers, solar system models, as well as other STEM-related projects. Kids can expect an interactive demonstration about our solar system and learn about planets, constellations and other celestial bodies." "This event would not be possible without the generous sponsorship of Star Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram of Big Spring, and specifically, Clint Fox, manager," continues Verdin. "We also want to thank the Salvation Army Boys and Girls club for opening up their gym for this event. Because space is so limited, we do ask that children attend only one showing. Children over six-years-old will be given priority due to the limited seating, and we Dazzling Decor, Brenda's Corner and Blue Eyed Buffalo offer a unique twist on home décor, whether you are looking for a new piece of art for your wall or a complete redesign of a room.

For those looking at cute back to school outfits, several of the boutiques downtown offer selections in all sizes. According to ValVerde, the Prickly Pear offers an opportunity to look at all different kinds of arts and crafts, kids clothing, home décor, and more.

"The best thing about Summer Shopping Extravaganza is it's an opportunity to get out and support local business," ValVerde said. "This is an opportunity to find out what is right here. The Crowned Bird, The Crazy Kow, Loco Flamingos, Splurge and the other boutiques are owned by families who have deep roots in Big Spring. By supporting local business we are supporting Big Spring, but we are supporting our neighbors and our friends."

In addition to the extended business hours - each shop staying open until 8 p.m. - there will be door prize opportunities, food and refreshments and more available throughout the night.

"We just want to encourage the community to get out and see what our town has to offer. For the most part, when it comes to looking for a gift idea or finding a little retail therapy, there is no need for us to travel outside of town. We are lucky to have these locally owned businesses providing quality products, but we need to support them, just like any other industry," ValVerde said.

Verlander, Altuve lead Astros to 12-4 win over Rangers

Associated Press

ARLINGTON, Texas — Justin Verlander shook off a shaky first inning with the help of his rookie shortstop.

The result was a four-game series split for the Houston Astros against the Texas Rangers that felt like much more.

The eight-time All-Star followed a two-run first inning with five no-hit innings and José Altuve hit Houston's franchise-record ninth grand slam of the season as the Astros beat the Rangers 12-4 on Sunday.

Texas' first inning ended when Astros rookie shortstop Myles Straw kept Rowned Odor's RBI single in the infield and threw out Nomar Mazara trying to score.

"It changed the complexion of that whole inning," Astros manager A.J. Hinch said. "Straw made the play specifically to make the throw at home. And that's the instinct there that you find when you start to play there a little bit more, get a little more comfortable."

Verlander (11-4) gave up four hits, all singles, and struck out seven. He retired his last 15 batters following a leadoff walk in the second inning as the Astros won their second straight after losing the series' first two games.

"For us to be able to flip the script and come out of a tough series with a split, that's what good ballclubs do," Verlander said.

Verlander didn't allow a home run for the first time since June 6. He has given up a major league high 26 homers this season, including 12 in his previous five starts, and said last Monday he was "100 percent" sure the baseballs were juiced this season. Verlander remained four shy of his career high for homers allowed in a full season and said he hasn't changed his pitching style to avoid giving up homers.

"I'm a fly-ball pitcher," he said. "If I start trying to be a sinker ball, it doesn't work. My goal is to try to miss as many bats as I can. That's what the game's turned into."

Once Verlander adjusted after the first inning, Rangers manager Chris Woodward said he was "as close as it comes to being unhittable."

Altuve, the Astros' leadoff hitter with George Springer given the day off, had three hits and scored three times after having four hits in Saturday's 11-inning win. In 20 games since activation from the injured list on June 19, Altuve is hitting .322 with 16 runs.

"These guys are playing so good, and I don't want to be the one that's not helping the team," Altuve said.

The grand slam came in a seven-run seventh inning that also included a home run by Yuli Gurriel.

Ariel Jurado (5-5) gave up five runs in the first two innings pitching on six days' rest in making his first start since July 3. Jurado allowed seven hits and walked four, three of the walked batters scoring.

The Rangers, vying for an AL wild-card spot, have lost eight of their past 12 games.

The Astros handed Verlander a 3-0 lead in the first inning on three singles, two walks and a sacrifice fly. Jurado threw 28 pitches and received two mound visits before recording an out.

"He was really fighting some mechanical issues," Woodward said.

The Rangers answered with two runs in the bottom of the first on the four singles before Verlander shut them down.

Verlander entered the game with a major league-low .168 opponents' batting average and was fifth in strikeouts with 153.

SHORT HOPS

Astros RHP Joe Smith, who ruptured an Achilles in December, made his season debut in the seventh inning. ... Michael Brantley's single and double gave him 37 multihit games, leading the American League. ... Texas pitching didn't record a 1-2-3 inning until the eighth. ... The July 1 Rangers home game against the Los Angeles Angels that was postponed by the death of Angels pitcher Tyler Skaggs will be played Tuesday, Aug. 20 as part of a split doubleheader.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Astros: RHP Brad Peacock (shoulder) won't start Monday's series opener at the Angels as planned after experiencing soreness. Peacock was sent to Houston to see a doctor.

Rangers: OF Hunter Pence (groin) is scheduled to return for the first two games at home against the Arizona Diamondbacks after completing a rehab assignment on Sunday night with Double-A Frisco.

UP NEXT

Astros: LHP Framber Valdez (3-5, 5.28) will follow opener Josh James and pitch Monday on three days' rest after allowing four runs in 2/3 of an inning on Thursday.

TENNIS

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Novak Djokovic became the first man in 71 years to win Wimbledon after facing match points in the final, coming back to beat Roger Federer in an unprecedented fifth-set tiebreaker Sunday.

By barely emerging to win 7-6 (5), 1-6, 7-6 (4), 4-6, 13-12 (3) after nearly five tight, tense and terrific hours, Djokovic claimed his fifth championship at the All England Club and second in a row.

This triumph also earned Djokovic his 16th Grand Slam trophy, moving him closer to the only men ahead of him in tennis history: Federer with 20, and Rafael Nadal with 18.

Federer has ruled grass courts since the early 2000s; he has won Wimbledon eight times dating to 2003, and this was his record 12th appearance in the title match. But Djokovic is now 3-0 against Federer in finals at the place and 4-0 against him in five-setters.

In the women's final, Simona Halep won her first Wimbledon title and kept Serena Williams from winning her eighth.

Halep beat Williams 6-2, 6-2 on Centre Court on Saturday for her second major title.

Williams was trying to win her record-equaling 24th Grand Slam singles title, but she failed in a final for the third time. Williams lost to Angelique Kerber in last year's Wimbledon final and lost to Naomi Osaka in the championship match at the U.S. Open.

Williams still holds the record for most major singles titles in the professional era with 23, one more than Steffi Graf. But Margaret Court, who won 13 of her Grand Slam singles titles in the amateur era, has 24 overall.

Halep, who won last year's French Open title, had only three unforced errors to Williams' 25 in the final.

BASEBALL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Washington Nationals have put Max Scherzer on the 10-day injury list because the ace right-hander has a mid-back strain.

An MRI on Scherzer's back came back negative, and the three-time Cy Young Award winner had his start pushed back from Sunday to Tuesday. But he was placed on the injury list retroactive to July 10 after throwing a bullpen session before Saturday's game.

Catcher Spencer Kieboom was recalled from Double-A Harrisburg to take Scherzer's roster spot.

Scherzer was 7-0 with a 0.84 ERA in his last nine starts before the All-Star break. He is 9-5 with a 2.30 ERA overall.

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have upgraded their starting rotation by obtaining right-hander

Andrew Cashner in a trade with the Baltimore Orioles.

The deal was announced Saturday after Baltimore beat Tampa Bay 2-1 in the first game of a day-night doubleheader. The Red Sox also got cash while sending a pair of 17-year-old prospects to the Orioles.

Cashner is 9-3 with a 3.83 ERA in 17 starts for the team with the worst record in the majors. He has gone at least six innings in his last five starts and has a 1.41 ERA since the beginning of June.

SOCCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Procter & Gamble, a sponsor of the U.S. Women's National Soccer Team, is now supporting its members' fight for equal pay.

The company, which supports U.S. soccer through its Secret deodorant brand, says it will donate $529,000 — $23,000 for each of the 23 players on the U.S. team that won the World Cup earlier this month — to help close the pay gap. The sponsor took out a full-page ad printed in The New York Times on Sunday urging the U.S. Soccer Federation to "be on the right side of history."

In March, 28 members of the US-WNT sued the US Soccer Federation for alleged gender discrimination. The suit claims the federation pays the women less than members of the men's national team.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SEATTLE (AP) — The Seattle Storm say they are looking into allegations on social media that Natasha Howard physically threatened and abused her wife.

Howard's wife posted a minute-long, expletive-filled video on Twitter from March on Saturday in which she yelled at Howard about being threatened by the Storm forward. She also posted screen shots of conversations she had with Howard's agent and the team's general manager.

"The organization is aware of the recent allegations against Natasha. We are in communication with the league and looking into them," the team said in a statement from co-owner Lisa Brummel and CEO/general manager Alisha Valavanis.

Howard is averaging 17.6 points and 8.5 rebounds this season. The 27-year-old former Florida State player was selected to the All-Star Game for the first time in her career.

AUTO RACING

SPARTA, Ky. (AP) — Kurt Busch won a door-to-door overtime battle with his little brother at Kentucky Speedway to earn his first victory with Chip Ganassi Racing.

The Saturday night showdown between the Busch Brothers came a week after Kurt Busch lost at Daytona because he pitted from the lead moments before weather stopped the race. That pit call haunted Busch and his crew chief all week, but a late call for four tires gave the No. 1 team a shot at redemption.

Joey Logano had the victory in hand until a spin by Bubba Wallace with six laps remaining sent the race into overtime.

TORONTO (AP) — Simon Pagenaud has won his third race of the season as IndyCar's championship fight tightened Sunday in Toronto.

The win on the streets around Exhibition Place is the third of the season for Pagenaud, but first away from Indianapolis Motor Speedway. The Frenchman won the Indy 500 and the road course race at the speedway to save his job with Team Penske.

Pagenaud had to save fuel in the waning laps to hold off reigning series champion Scott Dixon. But Penske teammate Will Power caused a caution on the final lap and Pagenaud was able to coast to the finish in his Chevrolet.

Alexander Rossi finished third, one spot ahead of IndyCar points leader Josef Newgarden. The two began the race separated by just seven points and Rossi cut the deficit to four points.

GOLF

SILVIS, Illinois (AP) — Dylan Frittelli won the John Deere Classic on Sunday for his first PGA Tour title, closing with a 7-under 64 for a two-stroke victory over Russell Henley.

The South African earned a spot next week in the British Open, finishing at 21-under 263 after the bogey-free final round at TPC Deere Run. He opened with rounds of 66, 68 and 65 to begin the day two strokes back.

A two-time winner on the European Tour, Frittelli birdied the par-5 17th after blasting out of a greenside bunker to 11 feet, and closed with a par on the par-4 18th.

Henley shot a tournament-best 61. Andrew Landry was 18 under after a 69.

SYLVANIA, Ohio (AP) — Sei Young Kim won the Marathon Classic on Sunday for her second LPGA Tour victory of the season, making five straight birdies in a mid-round burst and shooting a 6-under 65 for a two-stroke victory over Lexi Thompson.

Kim began the birdie run on No. 7 and finished at a tournament-record 22-under 262 at Highland Meadows Golf Club. The 26-year-old South Korean player has nine tour titles, also winning the LPGA MEDIHEAL Championship in May in California.

Thompson, a stroke behind Kim entering the day, closed birdie-eagle for a 66.

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Retief Goosen birdied the final two holes to win the Bridgestone Senior Players Championship on Sunday at Firestone Country Club for his first PGA Tour Champions title.

The 50-year-old Hall of Famer from South Africa broke a tie for the lead with a 15-foot putt on the par-4 17th and made a 10-footer on the par-4 18th for a 2-under 68 and a two-stroke victory over 65-year-old Jay Haas and Tim Petrovic.

Three strokes ahead after opening rounds of 69 and 62, Goosen dropped a stroke behind Scott Parel on Saturday with a 75. The two-time U.S. Open champion rebounded from a bogey on the par-4 first with an eagle on the par-5 second, then parred the next eight. He offset a double bogey on the par-4 11th with birdies on the par-3 12th and par-4 13th, but dropped another stroke on the par-4 14th.

Haas closed with a 67, and Tim Petrovic shot 68.

NORTH BERWICK, Scotland (AP) — Bernd Wiesberger beat Benjamin Hebert on the third playoff hole at the Scottish Open on Sunday for his sixth European Tour title.

Hebert shot 62 to set the clubhouse target on 22 under at The Renaissance Club but overnight leader Wiesberger (69) recovered from a slow start to reclaim top spot with his fourth birdie of the day on the 16th, only to bogey the 17th and then hole from five feet on the last to force a playoff.

Wiesberger parred the third playoff hole to beat Hebert.

SPORTS TELEVISION

Ryan Leaf has been hired by ESPN to be a college football analyst, another step in the remarkable comeback of the former Washington State star who has battled drug addiction and served time in prison.

Leaf will be paired with play-by-play announcer Clay Matvick and will mostly call games on ESPN2 and ESPNU. The former No. 2 overall NFL draft pick for the San Diego Chargers in 1998 worked for the Pac-12 Network last season and has been co-hosting a show on SiriusXM's Pac-12 channel.

Leaf finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1997 and led the Cougars to the Rose Bowl.

After a tumultuous four-year NFL career, Leaf's personal life fell apart. He spent two years in prison after being arrested in 2012 for breaking into a home in Montana to steal prescription drugs, and violating his Texas probation.

COURTS

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Authorities have charged an 18-year-old man in an April shooting that wounded New York Giants draft pick Corey Ballentine and killed one of his Washburn University teammates.

The Shawnee County district attorney's office says in a news release that Francisco Alejandro Mendez was charged Friday with first-degree murder, attempted first-degree murder and five counts of aggravated battery in the April 28 attack.

Authorities say Ballentine and teammate Dwane Simmons were outside of an off-campus party in Topeka hours after the Giants picked Ballentine in the sixth round of the draft when someone opened fire on them from a vehicle. Simmons was killed and Ballentine was shot but has since recovered.

Annie's Mailbox

Wanting a Walking Partner

Dear Annie: My husband and I are very close. We have been married for 27 years and agree on most things and share many common interests. There is only one issue where we differ, and I'd like to hear suggestions for how I can help him to change, so he will join me in my daily walks.

I love to walk, and I make it a point to walk at least two miles every day. My parents walked together every night after dinner, and they lived into their 80s and had a very close marriage. My brother and I joined them many nights when we were younger, and I have great memories of that family time together.

Every time I ask my husband if he will join me, he says that's for me, not him.

I've told him that walking makes me feel so good. It helps with my digestion. It helps me sleep better. I keep my figure better because of walking. My doctor says I am in good shape largely because of my two-mile daily walk.

If it is raining or snowing, I simply dress for the weather and go forward every night. I always imagine how much fun it would be if my husband were with me each night instead of sitting at home watching television.

Lately, he has been complaining that his joints are sore. When he gets up after sitting, it always takes a while before he is steady on his feet, and I am convinced that his joints would be much more limber if he were to join me on my daily walks.

If you or any of your readers have suggestions for how I can motivate him to join me, please let me know. -- Walking Alone

Dear Walking Alone:

Congratulations on all that walking! Our joints love movement, and you have found an ideal exercise for you. The key is to have your husband believe that walking is ideal for him, too, and that is not so easy. Look for walking trails in your neighborhood and see if taking him into new scenery sparks his interest in walking. Is he a dog lover? Adding a four-legged member to your family has been shown to help people lose up to 10 pounds in the first year because of all that walking. Consider visiting your local animal shelter to adopt, or to foster or volunteer to walk, a furry friend.

Dear Annie: I read your piece on mourning after the loss of a preterm baby. I have experienced this pain three times years ago. My wife's friends were very supportive and understanding. However, in no case did anyone ask how I was doing with this loss.

Fathers are supposed to be strong and support their wives or partners. It is often the case that divorce stems from the inability of one partner to soothe the other, which results in a growing distance between the two. Just wanted you to hear from a grieving father's perspective. -- Grieving Father

Dear Grieving Father: Thank you for your letter and for offering the father's perspective. You highlight a little-known fact. Fathers grieve as well and need support.

In addition, your conclusion that partners need to support each other in their grief is key. No one else in the world, except the two of you, loved your baby as much as you did. It sounds like you and your wife remembered that and have allowed these tragedies to be experiences that have strengthened your marriage.

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Full Moon Pre-Roll

ARIES (March 21-April 19). When the negative outweighs the positive, don't let it slide. Keep track. It will help you decide if, when and how to make a change. One day's tally won't be a sizeable enough sample to work from, but it's a start.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). If you know what people want, it's easy to please them. But pleasing people isn't the same as helping them. In order to truly help, you have to go beyond what people want and give them instead what they need.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). It's not what you do so much as how you do it that matters today -- well, every day really. But you'll notice this more with the current emotional fluidity you're experiencing.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You'll need to be somewhat stern with yourself as you keep yourself on track with projections and goals. Put a hard shell around you to deflect the word "no" and keep on going until you get to "yes."

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Your acoustic environment can add or subtract quite a few points from the score that is your overall quality of life. It's worth spending energy on, whether in acts of soundproofing, building playlists or other sorts of audio-soothing.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Your plans will be expedited just as soon as you get that piece of training you've been missing. Ask around because the perfect teacher is only one connection away.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Bonds that were built in times of difficulty and trouble will get tested under happier circumstances. They'll probably prove strong, but you might be surprised how tricky it is to relate in a lighter atmosphere.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You'll notice how your whole demeanor and energy improves when you get around that attentive person who listens and laughs with you. This sort of high-quality interaction doesn't need to be such a rarity.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You said you'd do it, and you will. True, today it's still undone. Take a step or two, though, and you'll create momentum enough to make quick work of this project.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). It's like you're a different person when you signed up to do a thing than you are when it's time to actually deliver. Regardless, you'll be glad for your commitments and all you must do today to keep them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Your heart will suggest your next move to you, booming its impractical request without regard to the sort of details that will have to come together to make it happen. After all, that's someone else's department.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Relationships exist in a state of flux. Any move made by any involved will change the balance. In order to stabilize, and let the relationship find its natural equilibrium, both have to

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (July 15). Your cosmic birthday present will be an always welcome one -- money from out of the blue that you can use to accomplish any number of things, including enjoying loved ones in a new setting, helping a friend and/or investing in your business or education. Extremely lucky meetings happen in August and November. Aries and Virgo adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 49, 2, 18, 44 and 8.

OPPOSITION MADNESS: This is the part where the sign-by-sign series on intuition is interrupted by a cosmic public service announcement regarding the prevalence of oppositions in this week's astral lineup. First, it's the sun and Pluto, followed by Venus and Saturn, the moon and Mars, and later Venus and Pluto.

An opposition happens when two luminaries are 180 mathematical degrees apart from one another on an astrological chart. Astrologers believe that the opposition is perhaps the most powerful astrological aspect after the conjunction. Think of two children on a see-saw. They're as far apart from each other as they can possibly be, and yet they share a common center. Planets in opposition have contradictory agendas, yet there is still the possibility of finding balance in the middle. We on Earth may experience conflict and confusing push-pull feelings during oppositions. Opposites do attract, though sometimes one needs to call in a mediator to settle disputes. Remember that even as we oppose one another, we are using each other as a balance. Without this configuration, no one would get to rise or fall, so there would be no ride. Vive la difference!

Opening lead — king of hearts.

This deal occurred during the playoff to determine the team that would represent the United States in the 1973 world championship. It was only the second deal of the 160-board match, but it demonstrated that at least one of the players, Jeff Rubens, was already functioning on all cylinders.

Rubens was South and reached three notrump as shown. Ordinarily, Rubens plays his cards in a delicate tempo, even though he is one of the fastest thinkers in the game. But on the present occasion he played very quickly.

West led the king of hearts, ducked by South, and continued with the jack, won by Rubens with the ace. He promptly played the jack of diamonds and finessed. East took the queen and returned a club.

Rubens thereupon showed his hand and claimed the rest of the tricks, making five on a double squeeze! The only explanation he offered was that he assumed East had four or more spades, which in turn meant that the double squeeze was sure to succeed. His well-versed opponents conceded the claim, and the hand was not even played out!

They realized that Rubens would win the club with the king and cash the A-K-Q of spades and A-K-10 of diamonds to produce this ending:

North

♥ Q
♣ J 4

East
♠ 10

South
♣ A 6

The lead of the diamond four would first squeeze East out of a club, on which South would discard a spade, and then squeeze West out of a club to put an end to the proceedings. Rubens' claim at trick four was simply a timesaver!
