Expanding to house more history Hangar 25 celebrates ground breaking

HERALD photos/Amanda Duforat

Hangar 25 board members and community members gathered together to celebrate the ground breaking of the expansion at the hangar. In addition to the ground breaking ceremony, one of the founding members was celebrated for his 90th birthday.

Building history is more than turning over some ground and erecting a new building; history is built in the stories, the passion and the drive of those focused on preserving important moments and sharing them with community. Saturday morning a group gathered to mark a moment in history, the ground breaking of the expansion at Hangar 25.

The ceremony opened with a small introduction from Jim DePauw, Hangar 25 museum board member, bringing refection on the history contained within Hangar 25, those who fought for our freedoms - Veterans, and a Hangar 25 founding member's 90th birthday. Jerry Worthy.

"Today we are here for three reasons: Hanagr 25 and the history it represents, for those who don't know Jerry's birthday, and what better way to start Veteran's Day weekend than honoring veteran's history," Jim DePauw said.

In recognition of Mr. Worthy, a few spoke of fond memories, including Colonel Jim Little, Director of Big Spring Airport at McMahon - Wrinkle Air

"He was part of the foundation of Hangar museum and no greater comment can be made than, who would kiss a pig to raise money to build a Hangar .. Jerry did that," Colonel Jim Little said, during the ground breaking ceremony

Christmas Tree Forest set to open Tuesday Heritage Museum will display trees through Dec. 20

By AMANDA DUFORAT

Managing Editor

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at the Heritage Museum. The annual Christmas Tree Forest is set up and ready to open Tuesday and run through Dec. 20.

"The local businesses and community members have outdone themselves this year," Denise Mccomb said.

There are approximately 70 trees in this year's forest. Local businesses - SMMC and SMMG, the Big Spring Herald, Home Hospice - along with area schools, organizations - Relay for Life, United Way and Crossroads Young Marines - put their creativity to work and decorated trees according to this year's theme, Rudolph and Friends.

"We encourage everyone to stop by and look at the Christmas Tree Forest," she said. "The trees really show creativity and help put you in the holiday spirit."

The Heritage Museum is open Tuesday through Friday from 8:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The

When it came to scouting and acquiring exhibits and ensuring the history contained inside Hangar 25 was top notch, Worthy and Colonel Little visited every air museum between Big Spring and Arizona.

"We did bring back some beautiful airplanes and made some great memories along the way," Colonel Little said. "I couldn't think of a better person to do that with." This is the culmination of three years of dreams. The plans for the addition are complete and ready for the construction phase to be implemented. According to Joel Miller, Hangar 25 board member, the project is expected to take about a year.

"We are ready to start moving forward on building a new hangar," Miller said.

The new hangar will be named the Jerry Worthy Hangar, in recognition of his contributions to the Hangar and in honor of his desire to maintain and display the history of Big Spring. "It's a great privilege in life to come out here and see all that's happening. I'm very grateful to the City of Big Spring for providing a space for us to build another firm attraction to our great city," Jerry Worthy said. Amanda Duforat is the Manag-

15 years ago I went to Waco VA Hospital for three months of therapy and inpatient counseling. I had some issues, as I have issues today, but nothing that would prohibit me from having a normal relationship with the rest of the world. It would be all peer, nothing professional." The group focuses on members helping members, he said.

"Any other issues...we try to help. We're a small post. We don't have that many active members. Most of the active members are Vietnam vets, so they're either close to 70 or older than 70," he said. "The couple of Iraq or Afghanistan members, not all of them are in good shape. We're open to working with other veteran groups. I'm also a member of the DAV, a life member. I'm not a member of American Legion. If they reach out, I'll help them."

In order to join the VFW, one must have been in the U.S. military in a conflict zone during a time of war or conflict. "You have to have served in a combat zone during a time frame authorized by Congress to be considered a conflict or an armed incursion or a war. Vietnam, Korea, Grenada, Afghanistan, Iraq, anything like that would qualify you," he said. "We would pay for the first year's membership. Membership is about like $25 a year. Location is 500 Driver Road.

Post is 2013. Services provided vary per post. We're a small post. We help with VFW members and their families. Somebody gets in a bind with utilities or some circumstance where they need some assistance, we'll help them."

Members meet at the VFW Post at 500 Driver Road the first Tuesday of every month.

Leonard provided a copy of the VFW mission statement:

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States believes America is defined by how it treats those who sacrificed to protect it; we believe in protecting and fighting for those who were brave enough to fight for us. Whether on Capitol Hill or in our communities, the VFW fights and defends the rights of America's veterans by lobbying for Veterans rights helping Veterans get the benefits they deserve, and assisting Veterans further their education with scholarships and living assistance for them and their families. To do less would be an unconscionable betrayal of our responsibilities as Americans and Veterans.

"Being a member of the VFW means being an agent of change. ...but... To be a leader within the VFW means connecting with those around you; inspiring them with a shared sense of mission; and through education and engagement, mobilizing them in order to accomplish a common goal."

On Veteran's Day: Find a way to honor veterans

BY PHIL ELLENBECKER

Veterans Day happens to fall on a Monday this year, bringing it in line with other holidays arranged to be celebrated at the start of the work week to create three-day weekends. The extra day off provides opportunities for relaxed celebrations, such as backyard barbecues or outings at the water.

But what makes Veterans Day special is we always celebrate it on Nov. 11, because it began as a way to honor a specific event in time — the 11th hour of the 11th day in the 11th month of November in 1918 — the cessation of fighting between the Alllies and Germany in World War I. A year later, U.S. President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Nov. 11 as the first Armistice Day.

Nov. 11, 1918, marked the end of what was then regarded as "the war to end all wars." Unfortunately, that wasn't quite true or really all that realistic, and 23 years later the United States was involved in another world war, a much broader one with more serious implications. And that one didn't end all wars any more than the previous one did. And community/ways-to-honor-veterthe fight continues.

That is all the reason why Veterans Day is needed. Congress in 1954 changed the name of Armistice Day, which had been made a legal holiday in 1938, to Veterans Day to honor all those who have served and sacrificed for our country through the years, throughout the world, in all wars.

Observation of Veterans Day in Brazoria County spans more than a single day. On Thursday at the Angleton High School auditorium, 400 fifth-graders from throughout Angleton ISD sang songs and took part in a patriotic program to honor veterans. Several other events are scheduled Monday and Tuesday, including the county parade in Brazoria.

While these programs offer a public way to honor veterans, there are other, day-to-day ways to show our respect, such as hanging a flag in our yard, asking a veteran about their time in the military, visiting a veteran's gravesite or visiting a homebound veteran in their home. (For a list of suggestions, visit http://www.militaryspot.com/ans-on-veterans-day.)

But these public forums offer a special chance to honor those who've chosen to serve their country — and since the Vietnam War, it's all been by choice and not by conscription. And for the great majority of us who haven't served, they're a chance to see in the eyes of the veterans what their service meant to them and to us, the pride they feel and the unending respect they deserve. Whether joining the parade in Brazoria, the celebration at the VFW in Clute or just shaking the hand of a stranger wearing a hat identifying their service, every person should pay tribute to veterans Monday — and every other chance they get.

All eyes on Texas governor as calls grow to halt execution

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — In his five years as Texas' governor, Republican Greg Abbott has overseen the execution of nearly 50 prisoners while only once sparing a condemned man's life.

But Abbott — who has proudly referred to the death penalty as "Texas justice" — has never confronted such intense pressure to halt a lethal injection like he is facing in the case of Rodney Reed, who is set to die this month for a 1996 killing despite new evidence that even a growing number of Republican legislators say raises serious questions about his guilt.

On Saturday, supporters of Reed held their biggest protest yet outside the governor's mansion, escalating a public campaign that now counts Beyoncé, Kim Kardashian and Oprah Winfrey among the celebrities who have urged Abbott to call off the Nov. 20 execution. So, too, has the European Union's ambassador to the U.S.

"Only thing I would tell him is, honestly, just look at the evidence," said Rodrick Reed, Rodney's

It's unclear if the public pressure is making any impression on Abbott, who was a law and order state attorney general before he was elected governor. Abbott hasn't spoken publicly about Reed's case. Even Republican lawmakers who are close to the governor and have lobbied his office in recent days and weeks for a reprieve say they're in the dark about his thinking.

Texas hospital delays plan to end life support for girl

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A Fort Worth hospital has stopped plans to end life support for a 9-month-old girl.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram reports the family of Tinslee Lewis said Cook Children's Medical Center told them Sunday that a ventilator will not be removed Sunday night as planned.

The girl's mother, Trinity Lewis, said hospital officials believe the girl will not recover and the family wants more time to find another hospital to care for her. She said she didn't know if the hospital still plans to remove the ventilator, or when.

Hospital spokeswoman Winifred King said officials believe Tinslee's best interest is to "free her from artificial ... intervention and suffering" because of a heart defect, lung disease and hyperten-

The family of a 9-year-old girl sued the hospital last year to stop the removal of a ventilator, but the girl died hours after a court granted the request.

Missing airman identified as recovery efforts continue

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — An airman who is presumed dead in a parachute training exercise off Florida's Panhandle has been identified.

According to a military news release, U.S. Air Force Staff Sgt. Cole Condiff, 29, was a special tactics combat controller with 24th Special Operations Wing, part of the Air Force Special Operations Command. On Tuesday morning, Condiff fell into the Gulf of Mexico south of Hurlburt Field while performing a static-line jump from a C-130 aircraft. A military news release described what happened as an "unplanned parachute departure."

Coast Guard air and boat crews spent over 130 hours on scene and searched more than 4,909 squarenautical miles but were unable to locate him.

Condiff was a Dallas native who attended Utah Valley University and served a two-year mission with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Spokane, Washington.

15-year-old boy found fatally shot outside elementary school

DALLAS (AP) — Police say a 15-year-old boy has been found shot to death in the parking lot of a south Dallas elementary school.

A police news release says a passer-by reported the boy lying in the paved parking lot of R.L. Thornton Elementary on Saturday.

The release says officers found the boy dead at the scene when they arrived. Police say area residents told investigators they heard possible gunfire about 8 p.m. Friday. The boy's body was sent to the medical examiner for identification and no arrests have been announced.

"They said the governor has heard about it and is taking a very deliberative and thoughtful analysis," Republican state Rep. Matt Krause said. "But they didn't give me an indication one way or the other on which way he'd be." Reed, now 51, was convicted of raping and strangling 19-year-old Stacy Stites while she made her way to work at a supermarket in Bastrop, a rural community about 30 miles southeast of Austin. Reed has long maintained that Stites was killed by her fiance, former police officer Jimmy Fennell. Reed says Fennell was angry because Stites, who was white, was having an affair with Reed, who is black. In recent weeks, Reed's attorneys have presented affidavits that support his claims, including one by a former prison inmate who claims Fennell bragged about killing Stites and referred to Reed by a racial slur.

Reed's lawyers say other recent affidavits also corroborate the relationship between Stites and Reed. Fennell's attorney has said his client didn't kill Stites, and prosecutors maintain that they believe Reed is guilty.

Texas remains the death penalty capital of the U.S. even as executions nationwide hover at historic lows. Last year, about half of the 25 executions nationwide took place in Texas, which has put to death eight people so far this year.

Support for the death penalty has been declining in recent years, but in Texas, Abbott hasn't relaxed his position. A practicing Roman Catholic, Abbott breaks with the church on the Vatican's view that capital punishment can never be sanctioned, and efforts to scale back the types of crimes that carry the death penalty in Texas have stalled under his watch.

Lady Steers lose first game to Garden City

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sports Writer

On Saturday afternoon the Big Spring Lady Steers opened their basketball season with a last-second 39-37 loss to the Garden City Bearkats.

With only a few seconds left on the clock, Garden City took a wide open layup to put the Bearkats ahead for good. Time expired before the Lady Steers could hoist a shot on the opposite end of the court.

In a sloppy start to the season, both teams turned the ball over and fouled their way through the contest. With early season jitters to be expected, there is no panic from new Big Spring head coach Krystle Jim.

"I think our future is bright," Jim said. "We just have to work on all the little things. They started out with hardly any fundamentals and that's what we're working on right now. Day in and day out, we've gotten a lot better since the first week of school. I think the future is super bright."

Meanwhile, the referees were also knocking off the rust from the offseason with numerous missed calls throughout the season opener. In the crucial final minute of the game, with the game tied at 39, there was a pair of unnecessary whistles that seemed to alter the outcome of the tightly-fought game.

The Lady Steers had a rotation that featured elite size in the post and will need to find a way to create separation and limit the amount of errant passes inside. Lady Steers center Jalen Sykes was dangerous from the block and grabbed an impressive amount of rebounds to go along with 9 points.

Effort and energy on the offensive side of the ball seemed to be an issue that will need to be addressed as the season progresses and Jim finds her starting rotation.

"We've got a deep bench," Jim said. "We've also got a deep younger class on JIM said. "We've also got a deep bench," JIM said. "We've also got a deep younger class on JV as well. Right now, if they're not working hard on the varsity level, one of our JV kids will come up and they'll go back down. There's no room to sulk now."

In the meantime, team chemistry will be built in the coming games and the Big Spring Lady Steers center Jalen Sykes goes up for the shot while being fouled in a close loss to Garden City. She would account for 9 points in the game.

Lady Steers will look to improve on their late game miscues.

"That will just have to come through experience, a lot of mental prep, repetition, and just being in those situations," Jim said.

Big Spring will head to Levelland this Tuesday night to take on the Lady Lobos in their first away game of the season. The game will begin at 6 p.m.

Howard Hawks Basketball back from road trip

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sports Writer

The Howard Hawks men's and women's basketball teams were back in action over the weekend.

The men took a trip east for a pair of games on Friday and Saturday in Plano. On Friday, the Hawks pulled out an impressive 96-80 win over the Lee College Runnin' Rebels.

Howard shot out of the gate and held a 53-30 lead at halftime while never letting their foot off of the gas.

In the contest, freshman guard Tucson Redding posted 30 points while knocking down three shots from beyond the arc and dishing out three assists. Eric Reed Jr., the lone returner from last year's team, played an all-around game falling one rebound short of a double-double with 18 points alongside 9 boards.

The Hawks converted 56.3 percent of their shots from the field and played great team defense combining for seven steals and three blocks.

On Saturday, the Hawks were out-battled when the Jacksonville College

Jaguars (TX) used a combination of size and speed to wear out Howard. The Hawks fell to the Jaguars 79-72 in an evenly-matched game and headed back to Big Spring owning a 3-2 record on the season.

The Lady Hawks also took a trip on Friday when they headed down to Beeville, where they faced off against the Coastal Bend Lady Cougars where they lost 71-67.

In another tight game, the Lady Hawks were not able to hold off their opponent late and fell to 1-5. In their third straight loss, which have been by a combined 17 points, the Lady Hawks were unable to get much production off the bench and also struggled again to consistently knock down shots.

Sophomore Makayla Thomas picked up her first double-double of the season, scoring 19 points and bringing down 11 rebounds in a game played without starting center Tye Perryman.

Both teams will travel to Tucson, Arizona later in the week for a slate of games this weekend which will be kickstarted by a matchup with the Cochise Apaches on Friday.

Cook leads Vikings to 28-24 prime-time road win over Cowboys

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Dalvin Cook did plenty in the running game.

The NFL rushing leader from Minnesota might have had his biggest plays in the passing game while easily outshining two-time rushing champion Ezekiel Elliott.

Cook ran for 97 yards, including the go-ahead touchdown on fourth down on the final play of the third quarter, and had 86 yards receiving that boosted three other scoring drives, leading the Vikings over the Dallas Cowboys 28-24 on Sunday night.

Cook's 183 scrimmage yards gave him the league lead in that category as well at 1,415 as the Vikings (7-3) beat a winning team on the road for the first time in almost two years. Minnesota was 0-9-1 in its previous 10 such games.

"Dalvin handled everything great," coach Mike Zimmer said. "He played outstanding. Had some unbelievable runs, tough, competitive runs. I think Dalvin believes that he's really good. I believe that Amari Cooper had the most circus catches on a night full of them for both teams, including a toe-tapping TD for Dallas' only lead in the third quar-

Kirk Cousins threw for two touchdown passes, both to Kyle Rudolph, for just his second victory in nine prime-time road games.

But Minnesota's offensive star was Cook, who set up the first two Minnesota touchdowns for a 14-0 lead with catches of 27 and 29 yards on screens and got a first down with an 8-yarder early on the third scoring drive.

"We thought it was going to be a challenge to get some explosive screens and get some explosive runs in this game to have a chance, and I think we checked those two boxes," Cousins said. "That's a big reason why we're standing here with a win instead of a loss." Elliott had 47 yards on 20 carries after three straight 100-yard games as the Cowboys (5-4) fell into a first-place tie with Philadelphia in the NFC East

"From the standpoint of numbers, from the standpoint of where you stand, this was a big game for us, and it's going to make it that much harder to get where we want to go," Cowboys owner Jerry Jones

Despite throwing for 397 yards and three touchdowns, Prescott lost to Cousins for the first time after going 4-0 against the former Washington quarterback as a division rival.

"We had to make them be one-dimensional," Zimmer said. "I wish we had played better in pass defense than what we did. I thought we did a really good job with our run fits and the way that we tackled."

Cousins, who had 220 yards passing, beat the Cowboys for the second time in eight tries as the Vikings kept pace in the NFC North, a game behind division-leading Green Bay.

Trailing by four in the final two minutes, the Cowboys had a first down at the Minnesota 19 but insisted on continuing to force the ball to Elliott when the Vikings had made it clear they were stopping him first.

Two runs netted minus-3 yards, and the Cowboys went to Elliott again on fourth down even though it was a pass. Linebacker Eric Kendricks broke up the sideline throw to Elliott, a dual threat like Cook but not on this night. He had two catches for 16 yards.

The Cowboys got the ball back with 17 seconds left, but Jayron Kearse intercepted Prescott's desperation pass from near midfield in the end zone.

Dallas was down by four because of settling for a field goal and a 28-24 deficit after having a first down at the Minnesota 6. Another smothered run by Elliott was followed by two incompletions.

RUDOLPH'S SCORING

Rudolph started the night of circus catches with a one-handed grab in the back of the end zone and scored on another short TD toss.

Then the tight end put Minnesota up 28-21 after Cook's scoring run by winning a jump ball with cornerback Chidobe Awuzie. Rudolph's 14 points were the most in 122 career games for the ninth-year player.

CIRCUS TIME

With the Cowboys trailing 14-0, Cooper kickstarted their first TD drive with a heel-dragging catch on third-and-12, followed two plays later by Michael Gallup's 23-yard scoring grab.

Then the player Dallas gave up a first-round pick for at midseason last year had two toe-dragging catches in a row, the second a 12-yard touchdown that put the Cowboys in front for the first time 21-20 in the third quarter. Cooper had 11 catches for 147 vards.

Randall Cobb made a lunging catch in the end zone on a 22-yard touchdown catch to get Dallas even at 14.

BLOWOUT ON GROUND

While Cook outgained Elliott by 120 scrimmage yards, the Vikings finished with 153 yards rushing to just 50 for the Cowboys. That's about 100 yards below Dallas' third-ranked rushing average.

INJURIES

Vikings: RG Josh Kline was ruled out with a concussion in the second half.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba (AP) — Mark Scheifele decided to shoot the puck instead of passing it.

He made the right choice, scoring 21 seconds into overtime to give the Winnipeg Jets a 3-2 victory over the Dallas Stars on Sunday. Scheifele went in on a 2-on-1 with Kyle Connor, kept the puck and beat Anton Khudobin with a low shot for his seventh

"At first I thought (Stars defenseman Miro) Heiskanen was going to come over a little more and I was going to go into the triangle to (Connor), but he kind of backed off a little bit and I thought I'd just shoot it," Scheifele said.

Patrik Laine snapped a 10-game scoring drought with a power-play goal and Andrew Copp also scored for the Jets. Connor Hellebuyck made 26 saves to help Winnipeg improve to 4-0-1 in its last five.

man's shot.

"I think we've proved to ourselves that we can come back in any game this year," Copp said. "Any game where we're down a goal or two goals, it doesn't really matter how much time is left. We have the confidence we can do it. We've done it before. "I

The bidding: West North East South 1 NT Pass Pass Pass 2 🏚 Pass Pass Pass Dble Pass Pass Opening lead king of hearts.

Quinn won the 1998 World Women's Pairs in Lille, France, continuing individual hot streaks that had seen the two players separately win a combined total of 14 North American championships and five world titles in the previous decade.

Americans Jill Meyers and Shawn

Their victory was even more remarkable because it was the first time the two had played together as partners, aside from a few practice sessions they arranged just before departing for France. Today's deal, which pitted them against another top American pair, Carol Sanders and Dorothy Truscott, earned the winners a near-top score.

The deal exemplifies the aggressive tactics matchpoint scoring frequently requires. After Meyers (East) passed Ouinn's opening notrump bid Truscott (South) competed by bidding two spades. Meyers' double indicated some high-card values, and Quinn elected to go for the +200 she would get if the vulnerable contract could be defeated one trick.

Quinn led the heart king and, after dummy's singleton heart came into view, switched to a trump. Meyers won with the ace and returned a trump. Truscott put up the king, cashed the club ace and continued with a second club.

Meyers won with the king and returned a heart, allowing Quinn to collect three more heart tricks. Declarer later got rid of her diamond loser on one of dummy's good clubs as West ruffed with the spade queen, but the damage had already been done. The seven tricks collected by the defenders gave them a score of +500, and no doubt exceeded both of their initial expectations.

Tomorrow: Choosing between options. ©2019 King Features Syndicate Inc

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You don't have to be in a good mood to act like you're in a good mood. Today, you'll spread your emotional sunshine indiscriminately to loved ones and perfect strangers without realizing just who needs it most.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The best way to catch a thing isn't always to run after it. Be like the spider instead of the lion. Weave something lovely in the optimum place, and then wait for your reward.

GEMINI (May 21-

Wandering Eye Worrying

Dear Annie: I would love to hear your comments on my situation. My husband, "Craig," is an attentive, considerate and truly loving partner. The one quality that causes me to lose sleep is this: He is in his late 70s, yet he enjoys the attention of young women, ranging in age from their 20s to their 60s. When he and I spend time alone, we get along very well. However, almost every time we are in public, if he sees an attractive woman, his eyes rest on her with obvious interest. Then he may look for an excuse to pass near her or somehow engage her in lighthearted conversation.

Recently, we were on a train. On his way back from the washroom, when the train swayed a bit, he accidentally (or on purpose) lost his balance and heavilv leaned on the table of the foursome across the aisle -- high school or early college-aged ladies, and apologized.

Did he want their attention?

serve no practical pur-

Last evening, we went to a lovely restaurant for dinner. Craig commented on the long red hair of a young woman whose back he was facing. Craig and I continued to enjoy our dinner together. Then Craig excused himself to go to the washroom. On his way back, he went out of his way to go toward the table of the redheaded young lady, pretending to check out her meal selection, until he caught my eye. He then returned to our table.

It is similar with my friends. They love his attention. He is charming and smart, qualities I love about him. too. He is flattered that they respond to his attention, and they in turn show that they are flattered by his attention to them. They're so happy to "bond" with him.

Perhaps I am digressing, but I feel this next incident is linked. Last year, Craig was out of town on business. As he was planning his trip, he had mentioned to me, that, unfortunately, he had two days in between assignments that were unscheduled. He was worried he'd be bored. The next thing I knew, he had let a young colleague from a nearby town know that he had a couple of free days, and she joined him, and they spent those two days touring together.

I can understand Craig being friendly with my friends, but I feel he encourages a friendship beyond what I am comfortable with. As I have mentioned the inappropriateness of his staring at women when I am with him, he has definitely tried to curb it. But with the train incident (I said nothing because I was sure he would insist he lost his balance), the restaurant incident, which was rather obvious (he later admitted being curious about how she looked), and the two days shared with his vivacious colleague, I feel a bit humiliated.

As a result, I avoid making plans with friends as couples, and do so on my own. I very much look forward to your comments. Thank you kindly. -- Aggravated

Dear Aggravated:

Jealousy might be a greeneyed monster, but you are entitled to feel it right now. It's one thing to admire an attractive woman, or man, for that matter, but it is quite another for your husband to undress them with his eyes. Furthermore, and perhaps the most concerning part of your letter, is that he invited another woman on a trip with him. That woman should be you, and you need to make that very clear to him. I'm not sure if it's his own insecurity or if he is being a scoundrel, but regardless of the cause, you deserve better.

He needs to shape up and stop ogling other women or he is going to be shipped out to another house; yes, even in his late 70s. Don't rule out talking this over as a couple with a professional counselor.

Today in History

Today is Monday, Nov. 11, the 315th day of 2019. There are 50 days left in the year. Today is Veterans Day.

Today's Highlight in History: On Nov. 11, 1972, the U.S. Army turned over its base at Long Binh to the South Vietnamese, symbolizing the end of direct U.S. military involvement in the Vietnam

On this date:

In 1620, 41 Pilgrims aboard the Mayflower, anchored off Massachusetts, signed a compact calling for a "body politick."

In 1831, former slave Nat Turner, who'd led a violent insurrection, was executed in Jerusalem, Virginia. In 1918, fighting in World War I ended as the Allies and Germany signed an armistice in the Forest of Compiegne (kohm-PYEHN'-yeh). In 1921, the remains of an unidentified American service member were interred in a Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery in a ceremony presided over by President Warren G. Harding.

In 1929, the Ambassador Bridge spanning the Detroit River between Michigan and Windsor, Ontario, Canada, was dedicated. In 1942, during World War

II, Germany completed its occupation of France. In 1960, South Vietnamese

President Ngo Dinh Diem survived a coup attempt by army rebels. (However, he was overthrown and killed in 1963.)

In 1966, Gemini 12 blasted off on a four-day mission with astronauts James A. Lovell and Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin Jr. aboard; it was the tenth and final flight of NA-SA's Gemini program. In 1990, Stormie Jones, the world's first heart-liver transplant recipient, died at a Pittsburgh hospital at age 13. In 1992, the Church of England voted to ordain women as priests. In 1998, President Clinton ordered warships, planes and troops to the Persian Gulf as he laid out his case for a possible attack on Iraq. Iraq, meanwhile, showed no sign of backing down from its refusal to deal with U.N. weapons inspectors.

In 2004, Palestinians at home and abroad wept, waved flags and burned tires in an eruption of grief at news of the death of Yasser Arafat in Paris at age 75.

Ten years ago: For the first time since World War I, the leaders of Germany and France held a joint ceremony to commemorate the end of the conflict, saying it was time to celebrate their countries' reconciliation and friendship. Longtime CNN host Lou Dobbs announced he was leaving the network. Taylor Swift won four awards, including Entertainer of the Year, at the Country Music Association Awards. Five years ago: Leaders of Asia-Pacific economies meeting in China agreed to begin work toward possible adoption of a Chinesebacked free-trade pact, giving Beijing a victory in its push for a bigger role in managing global commerce. Henry "Big Bank Hank" Jackson, 57, a member of the pioneering hip-hop group The Sugarhill Gang, died in Englewood, New Jersey. Carol Ann Susi, 62, a character actress best known as the unseen Mrs. Wolowitz on "The Big Bang Theory," died in Los Angeles.

One year ago: World leaders including President Donald Trump and Russia's Vladimir Putin solemnly marked the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I at a ceremony Today's Birthdays: Coun-

Titans rally, spoil Mahomes' return beating Chiefs 35-32

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Forcing Patrick Mahomes and the Kansas City Chiefs to settle for a bunch of field goals gave the Tennessee Titans a chance to stay close.

Ryan Tannehill and a cornerback only activated off injured reserve a week ago helped make the Chiefs pay for their fifth and sixth attempts.

Tannehill threw a 23-yard touchdown to Adam Humphries with 23 seconds left, and Joshua Kalu blocked a last-second field goal attempt to beat the Chiefs 35-32 to spoil the return of NFL MVP Patrick Mahomes.

"It's fun to win a game like that, battle back in the fourth-quarter at home and find a way to win is a ton of fun," Tannehill said.

The Titans (5-5) only had a chance after a bad snap by the Chiefs on Harrison Butker's fifth field goal attempt of the day. Kansas City coach Andy Reid blamed communication for the snap taking holder Dustin Colquitt by surprise, and he threw the ball away in desperation for an intentional grounding call, setting the Titans up at their own 39.

Tannehill scrambled for 18, hit Anthony Firsker for 20 yards and then found Humphries who ran in for the TD. Tannehill also ran for the 2-point conversion for a 35-32 lead.

The Chiefs (6-4) had a final chance with Mahomes. He drove them down, setting up Butker for another field goal try from 52 yards.

Kalu blocked the kick with his left hand, and the Titans ran onto the field to celebrate. Kalu wound up at the bottom of a pile, and he said he kept getting closer each time watching the Chiefs' cadence, hands and eyes. The block was a blur but not his decision to jump at the snap.

"As soon as I hit it, it was automatic joy," said Kalu, recently activated from injured reserve.

Kansas City coach Andy Reid, now 1-8 all-time against Tennessee, said he wanted to see a replay of the blocked field goal thinking Kalu was offside. But Reid took the blame for the loss.

"We were in position to close it, and we didn't get that done," Reid said. "My responsibility. Then we were too sloppy."

Derrick Henry ran for 188 yards, including a 68-yard TD that put Tennessee up 20-19 with 5:58 left in the third. His 1-yard TD with 6:26 remaining pulled the Titans within 29-27.

Tannehill finished with 181 vards passing and ran for 37 yards for the win.

The loss spoiled the best passing game this season for Mahomes as the Chiefs outgained the Titans 530-371. Mahomes threw for 446 yards and three touchdowns. His best play came with the pocket collapsing around him when he jumped up to throw over the linemen to Mecole Hardman who ran for a 63-vard TD with 11:54 left and a 29-20 lead.

"The knee feels fine, and I'm glad to get through another game," Mahomes said of his knee and ankle that had been hurting Mahomes looked very healthy playing for the first time since dislocating his right kneecap Oct. 17. He got lucky when his first pass first ruled an interception was overturned by replay for Titans safety Kenny Vaccaro trapping the ball on the ground. Mahomes capped the Chiefs' first drive with a 3-yard shovel pass to Travis Kelce.

The Chiefs sacked Tannehill four times and also forced a fumble but could only turn that into one of Butker's four made field with a 52-yard throw to Kalif Raymond, then he hit Anthony Firkser for a 9-yard TD. Then rookie linebacker David Long forced a fumble by Damien Williams, and linebacker Rashaan Evans picked up the ball, juked away from Mahomes and ran 53 yards for a TD and a 13-10 lead with 6:14 left in the second quarter.

INJURIES

The Chiefs came in with left tackle Eric Fisher still healing up from a groin injury that has kept him out all but the first two games of the season, and right guard Laurent Duvernay-Tardif missing a second game with an ankle. Late in the first half, Kansas City lost an offensive lineman on consecutive plays. First, right tackle Mitchell Schwartz hurt a knee and went to the sideline, snapping the NFL's longest active snap streak at 7,894 snaps. Then Martinas Rankin, who started at right guard, moved over a spot and hurt his right knee on the next play. He was carted to the locker room and did not return. Schwartz returned.

defensive end said Emmnuel Ogbah tore his right pectoral muscle.

PENALTY WOES

Three-time Pro Bowl left tackle Taylor Lewan apologized for leading the Titans in penalties, including a trio Sunday. He said no needs to call him out on having a team-high nine penalties in six games after being suspended for the first four.

"It's not intentional," Lewan said. "I do not mean to do it. My intentions are good. I'm just trying to finish and it's killing the team."

Special to the Herald

The Big Spring Junior High 7th and 8th grade teams played this past Thursday, as the end of the football season nears. Here are a few updates from the games:

The 7th grade A-team played well and won the game 28-0. They ran the ball well and the Offensive Line controlled the game from the start, putting the ball in the end zone with four rushing touchdowns by all three running backs. The defense also came to play with four turnovers, two interceptions and recovered two fumbles. They swarmed the ball and made good tack-Notable players during the game included: Alex

Cantu, Douglas Armstrong, Aiden Silva, La Bella Mathews, Mathew Ybarra, Zadrian Washington, Jayson Garza, and Nathaniel Zarraga.

The 7th grade B team was unable to clench a win, and ended the game 8-0.

The team fought well, but lost a close game. The defense only gave up one touchdown, and kept the game close with an interception returned for 30 yards.

The offense struggled throughout the game, but never gave up with a couple big plays. Notable players from the game were: Don Rios

In recognition of Veteran's Day

Dear fellow Texans

Each year on November 11th we commemorate Veterans Day. This originates from the armistice that ended World War I which occurred at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918. In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson designated November 11th as Armistice Day to honor the veterans who fought in the Great War. After WWII and the Korean War, at the urging of veterans service organizations, Congress amended the commemoration by changing the word "armistice" to "veterans". The legislation was signed by President Dwight E. Eisenhower on June 1, 1954 changing Armistice Day to Veterans Day to honor all American veterans.

November 11 marks a day of Honoring All Who Served. Parades at large cities and small towns across Texas and community breakfasts are among ways this day is commemorated across our great state. Join in the events whether you're a veteran or not on Veterans Day, November 11, 2019.

There are over 1.7 million veterans in Texas. What is a veteran? A veteran, whether discharged, retired, active duty or reserve, is a man or woman who committed themselves carte blanche to the United States of America for an amount up to and including life. They may have served at home or abroad in a variety of ways from motor pools to medical facilities, combat to supply chain. Veterans are men and women from all walks of life who served in the Army, Marines, Navy, Air Force, or Coast Guard. All served and all are to be honored for that service.

As this day honors those who serve, I encourage Texas veterans to claim the benefits they have earned for themselves, their spouses and families. From education and employment to disability compensation and health care, Texas veterans may call on the Texas Veterans Commission for assistance and to smooth the process. Further, we can help veterans struggling with crisis to connect with a fellow veteran to talk with or with licensed mental health providers. Veterans who are business owners or want to own their own business can benefit from our Entrepreneur program. For those organizations providing services to veterans such as financial assistance, food and housing, we offer grants through the Fund for Veterans' Assistance.

Texas veterans, connect with your Texas Veterans Commission online at tvc.texas.gov or call 1-800-252-8387.

To all our Texas veterans, know that you have our gratitude and our unwavering support on Veterans Day and every day of the year.

Let us all join in commemorating Veterans Day. whether active duty, veteran or civilian. Let's show our appreciation and Honor All Who Served. We should always remember our veterans' selflessness, commitment to duty and service to all Americans and make every day Veterans Day.
