HC Theater Department performs 'A Christmas Carol' at Luminaria

By CINDY PINCH
 Staff Writer

Howard College hosted their annual event, Luminaria on Thursday, Nov. 21 in the Hall Center for the Arts. The event allowed children the opportunity to write letters to and take photos with Santa. The cheerleaders were among the students who helped with the event. In conjunction with Luminaria, the theater department performed Charles' Dickens' A Christmas Carol. Theater director, Dan Evers, introduced the show as a gift to the community. And what a gift it was.

The performance was filled with good humor and music. From dancing a jig with Fezziwig or scaring Ebenezer with Jacob Marley, the cast didn't miss a beat. The students had performed the play for elementary students earlier in the day before performing at Luminaria. Despite multiple performances, the cast had high energy that was felt by the audience.

December has arrived, the year is almost over

By ANNA GUTIERREZ
 Staff Writer

December is the first month of winter and the last month of the year. Whether you say, "Merry Christmas," or "Happy Holidays," December is definitely a time of celebration. Although Christmas, Hanukkah, and Kwanzaa are some of the major holidays in December, did you know there are many other events taking place during the month? Let's take a look at some of what's happening.

Although not a celebration, December 1 is World AIDS Awareness Day and also kicks off World AIDS Month. This day began in 1988 as a way to bring awareness to the HIV epidemic and to speak out against the stigma of having HIV. Since 1981, more than 700,000 Americans have lost their lives to HIV and AIDS. Today, more than 1.1 million Americans are living with HIV, and there are about 40,000 Americans with new diagnoses every year. Although this is a great decline of the spread of the disease from its peak, without intervention and education, that number will tend to increase. New medications and therapies have made living with HIV not be the death sentence it once was, but much more research and testing is needed to eradicate this disease.

December is the month in which we recognize Bingo's Birthday. The popularity of Bingo has decreased over the years, especially with the invention of electronic video games. Bingo was invented probably as early as the 1500s in Italy. It moved to France in the 1700s, and arrived in North America around 1929. The game became popular among Catholic churches when a priest thought it would be a good way to raise money for the church. Today, Bingo is still played in Bingo halls across the country.

December is the month in which basic human rights are recognized, not just in the United States, but around the globe, with National Human Rights Month and Universal Human Rights Month. This is a time where everyone, all over the world, is encouraged to stand up for equality, justice and dignity of all human beings. In 1948, the United Nations drafted and proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a common standard of achievement for everyone around the world to establish fundamental human rights. This declaration has been translated into over 500 languages and can be found on the United Nations website.

From December 1 through 24, we recognize Operation Santa Paws. Shelters and rescue organizations are over-run with animals. For many of us, our pets become members of our families, but for many, pets are disposable. Here in

Smith captures inspiration, beauty in churchouse

By AMANDA DUFORAT

When looking for inspiration an artist doesn't have to look very hard when traveling through New Mexico. Local Big Spring Artist Kay Smith, found her inspiration in the San Patricio Catholic Church.

While the original painting was the result of an assignment, the inspiration she has received from that little church house continues years later.

"The lighting in New Mexico is unlike that of any other state," Kay Smith said. "The color contrasts are breathtaking."

The initial visit was part of a painting workshop Smith was attending in Ruidoso, and the visit to the church was part of their excursion. While visiting the church and searching for her spot to set up her painting supplies, she ventured inside the church.

"There was a plaque inside on the floor saying that it was the oldest Catholic Church. You can feel the history in the building, from the worn pews to the yellow blossoms that surrounded the windows," Smith said.

Since her original visit a few years ago, Kay Smith has ventured back a couple of times. While the church house is still standing, its presence is hidden.

"You used to be able to see it from the roadway, but with the new road being built, if you don't know where you are going, you won't notice the church is even there," she said. "The beauty is still there."

While Smith has captured the beauty of the one room church house through her artwork, she has also captured a few photos which reflect the beauty just as much as her paintings.

"The nostalgia of the building is something I wanted to capture. I wanted to make sure people knew about this little church, the history of it," Smith said.

Mary Kathrynne Hammon

Mary Kathrynne Hammon passed away on Nov. 25, 2019, in Port Arthur, Texas. She was born in Denison, Texas, in 1933, to Sam and Sylvia Frazier. Mary had an older brother, Carl Raymond Frazier (deceased) and a younger brother, Don Frazier (deceased). Mary and her brothers had a wonderful childhood and were well-loved. Mary had many lifelong friends, and she lived most of her life in Big Spring, Texas. She was a member of Trinity Baptist Church for decades.

Mary met Loyd, her husband of 64 years, who predeceased her in 2014, at L&H Drugstore in Odessa. They were married on June 4, 1950.

Mary touched many lives as a daughter, sibling, friend, wife, mother, aunt, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Mary worked in the office of Cosden Oil Company both at the plant and at the downtown office. Her next job was at the Big Spring Education Employee Federal Credit Union, and her last employment was working for Howard County at the Department of Public Safety.

She loved to travel and read. Mary became so interested in ceramics; she bought her own kiln. She was also very interested in making porcelain dolls and enjoyed her hobby with her friend, Alice Bentley. Mary loved to bake and cook; I'm sure many folks think of Mom at Thanksgiving and Christmas because of her candies and pumpkin logs.

Survivors include her son, Sammy Hammon and wife, Mary, of Port Arthur; two daughters, Glorya Garcia of Lubbock, and Carolyn Johnson and husband, Pat, of Austin; seven grandchildren, Jason Johnson, Ben Johnson and wife, Brenna, Adam Johnson and wife, Amanda, Sara Newton and husband, Nik, John Hammon, Viana Hammon, Jeff Garcia and wife, Lisa; nine great-grandchildren, Emma, Hunter, Adrina, Trysta, Emilie, Gracie, Benji, Jack, and James Henry; and sister-in-law Shirley Frazier of Albuquerque; and numerous nephews and nieces.

We will miss our beautiful mother and will think of her often.

Funeral services were at 11 a.m. Friday at Myers & Smith Chapel with burial at Trinity Memorial Park.

Arrangements are by Myers & Smith Funeral Home. Pay your respects online at www.myersandsmith.com

DECEMBER

Howard County, we see the results of lack of enforcement of local pet ordinances, and our streets are full of stray cats and dogs. Our local rescue organizations and shelters do as much as they can, but they rely on donations in order to keep their operations running. During these days in December, everyone is encouraged to contact animal shelters and pet rescue operations to make a donation, whether it be food, treats or blankets, or a few dollars out of your wallet. Remember...Adopt! Don't shop!

Some of the foods celebrated during December include National Pear Month and Root Vegetables and Exotic Fruits Month. The U.S. Department of Agriculture proclaimed December as National Pear Month in 2004. You can celebrate the day by trying a new variety of pears or preparing them in a new way. Pears can be poached in either red or white wine, baked in puff pastry, or just simply fresh paired with wine and cheese. It is uncertain how Root Vegetable and Exotic Fruit Month began, but you should enjoy some of your favorites. Many root vegetables, including potatoes, sweet potatoes and turnips, provide complex carbohydrates, they are high in fiber, and contain lots of vitamins and minerals. Many exotic fruits contain large amounts of antioxidants, vitamins and iron but can be hard to find in the United States. If you're out shopping in a larger city, try finding jackfruit or dragonfruit to recognize this special month.

In addition to these month-long events, the first week of December is also National Influenza week, which is a good time to get that flu shot, Older Driver Safety Awareness Week, and National Hand Washing Awareness Week. National Pet Suffocation Awareness Week also occurs during this first week in December, and it is a good time to remember the dangers of food packaging. Remember, any type of plastic bag or wrapping is a danger to not only our pets, but also to children.

During the craziness of the Holiday Season, don't forget these other special days that occur during December. It's a good way to get your mind off the hustle and bustle.

Do you have a special day you'd like to share with our readers? Send an email to citydesk@bigspringherald.com, and we'll celebrate with you!

The Howard Lady Hawks (4-10) had an outstanding showing this past weekend at the Howard Thanksgiving Classic.

On Friday night at the SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf, Howard was able to come out on top of Lamar Community College 56-52. They followed that performance up on Saturday afternoon with a 64-48 drubbing of the Coastal Bend Lady Cougars at the same location.

"I think when we value the ball, we play a lot better," Lady Hawks head coach Earl Diddle said. "We have a lot more energy, our confidence is a lot better. I was really proud of these last two days. I thought our energy was really good considering the circumstances with electricity being out. Them coming out here and practicing, doing the laundry in our houses... I thought there was a lot of distractions and I thought we overcame a lot."

Since the return of starting center Tye Perryman, the Lady Hawks have found a new groove. The team is rebounding the ball better and gaining control of more offensive possessions.

How does Diddle feel about the return of his starting front-court leader?

"Oh," Diddle exclaimed. "Oh, she helps a lot! I'd be a better coach, with a better record. I thought she really battled and she's a presence in there."

ter and 4 points in the third.

The Lady Hawks followed up their strong second frame with an impressive group showing to begin the second half. By the beginning of the final quarter, Howard was on cruise control on the way to their third win in their past four games.

Following an extremely slow start to the season, Diddle seems to have made adjustments to his rotation and game-plans that should continue to help the Lady Hawks level of play in the future.

With a head-to-head matchup with No. 2-ranked South Plains College (10-0) coming up this week, the Lady Hawks will have a solid barometer to see just how much they have improved over the course of the season.

"South Plains is probably the best team in the country," Diddle said.

The Lady Hawks will continue to improve and see how they fare against a top-tier opponent for their toughest game of the season to date.

UP NEXT: Howard will play host to undefeated South Plains on Wednesday at 5:45 P.M.

Watson throws 3 TDs, catches another; Texans top Pats 28-22

By KRISTIE RIEKEN

AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — Deshaun Watson has long admired Tom Brady for his talent and resilience.

He beat him Sunday night by not only throwing touchdown passes, but by catching one, too.

"I told them I'm an athlete ... the longer you play in this league," he said. "So I can do it all."

Watson threw three touchdown passes and had the first TD reception of his career, and the Houston Texans frustrated Brady in a 28-22 victory over the New England Patriots.

Texans coach and former Patriots assistant Bill O'Brien got his first win in six tries against New England coach Bill Belichick. It was Houston's second win over the Patriots and first since Jan. 3, 2010.

Watson had 234 yards passing and threw touchdown passes of 14, 13, and 35 yards as Houston (8-4) built a 21-3 lead against New England's vaunted defense.

"This is pretty big just because it's Brady," Watson said. "I was 0-2 against him and who knows when he's going to hang it up. That's my role model, a guy that's been doing it forever, over 20 years ... so it's pretty awesome to finally get one."

Brady completed two of his three TD passes in the final 4 minutes to pull within six. A Patriots (10-2) player got a hand on Jake Bailey's onside kick attempt with 50 seconds remaining, but the ball bounced out of bounds.

"There's really not a whole lot to say here," Belichick said. "The Texans did a good job tonight, across the board, in every area. They were just better than we were."

James White had a 12-yard reception for New England's first touchdown late in the third quarter, but Watson grabbed the first reception of his career on a flip from DeAndre Hopkins on a trick play with about 10 minutes left to make it 28-9. Watson took the snap and handed off to Duke Johnson, and he gave the ball to Hopkins on a reverse to the right. Hopkins tossed to Watson on an option near the sideline, and Watson dove into the end zone for a 6-yard score.

The Patriots entered needing a win to be the first AFC team to clinch a playoff spot after Oakland's loss to Kansas City earlier in the day. Instead, they struggled to sustain drives, and Brady often looked upset on a night he was 24 of 47. He threw an interception and was sacked three times, hit on 12 other occasions and was seen yelling at his receivers on the sideline after a drive with several incompletions in the first half. He finished with 326 yards.

"Execution," Brady said. "Just got to do a better job, and it's tough to get behind and come back. Just put ourselves in a pretty deep hole and you can't do that on the road."

New England dealt with a flu bug this week that swamped the locker room and left two players inactive Sunday.

Brady connected with White again with about four minutes left, but the 2-point conversion failed to leave New England down 28-15. The Patriots attempted an onside kick after that and Houston recovered but couldn't move the ball and had to punt.

Brady threw a 20-yard pass to Julian Edelman that cut the lead to six with 50 seconds left. But the Patriots couldn't recover a second onside kick and Houston ran out the clock.

There were about seven minutes left in the third quarter when the Patriots went for it on fourth-and-1 and Johnathan Joseph broke up a pass intended for Mohamed Sanu.

On the next drive, Houston had a touchdown reception by Will Fuller called back after a review. It didn't matter much as the Texans got a 35-yard TD on a nearly identical route by Kenny Stills on the next play to push the lead to 21-3.

New England was able to sustain a drive for the first time since its opening possession when White grabbed his 12-yard TD from Brady late in the third. Kai Forbath missed the extra point to leave the Pa-trials down 21-9. Forbath was signed on Friday to replace Nick Folk, who was released after having an emergency appendectomy.

The Patriots led 3-0 after a field goal on their first drive. The Texans had to punt on their first possession but got the ball back three plays later when Bradley Roby jumped a route and intercepted Brady. Roby, who also had a sack, returned after missing the last five games with a hamstring injury.

Houston cashed in on the miscue when Watson connected with Johnson on a 14-yard TD pass to make it 7-3 late in the first quarter. It is Watson's fifth game this season with at least three touchdown passes, which is tied for most in the NFL.

The Texans padded the lead when they capped a 13-play, 88-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown reception by Darren Fells.

INJURIES

PATRIOTS: OL Marcus Cannon left in the third quarter with an illness. ... C Ted Karras injured his knee in the third quarter and didn't return.

TEXANS: RB Taiwan Jones left in the third quarter with a hamstring injury and didn't return.

HOPKINS THE QB

Hopkins had previously attempted two passes in his career — an interception and an incompleting. He was feeling pretty good about himself after his TD toss to Watson and had this to say when asked to rate himself as a QB.

"I would give myself a 10, 11, maybe, because I took a hit just to get it to him," Hopkins said with a smile.

WATSON IN PRIME TIME

Watson has 21 touchdowns and just three interceptions in eight night games in his career.

"He's come up big in important games throughout his life: high school, Clemson, Houston," O'Brien said. "He's a great guy to coach. He's got great poise."

UP NEXT

Patriots: Host Kansas City next Sunday.
Texans: Host Denver next Sunday.

Heisman winner, former coach Pat Sullivan dies at 69

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Pat Sullivan, the 1971 Heisman Trophy winner at Auburn who went on coach TCU and Samford, has died. He was 69.

Sullivan's family released a statement saying he "died peacefully at home" Sunday morning, surrounded by relatives. The former quarterback was diagnosed with throat cancer in 2003 and the statement said he "fought a long and difficult battle as a result of his treatments."

Sullivan was a College Football Hall of Famer who played four seasons with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons, wrapping up his playing career in 1976 with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers.

He was on the search committee when Auburn hired coach Gus Malzahn.

"We are deeply saddened by the passing of Pat Sullivan, one of Auburn's all-time greats on and off the field," Malzahn said. "I will forever be indebted to Coach Sullivan for helping bring me back to Auburn to serve as the head football coach.

"He was a friend, mentor and a man of great character who was beloved by many generations of Auburn fans."

Sullivan began coaching at Samford in 2007 and stepped down in December 2014, citing health issues.

He went on to serve as special advisor to the president for campus and community development.

"Coaching is a grind. Right now I need more balance in my life," Sullivan said in announcing his resignation. "I need to pay more attention to my health and I want to spend more time with (wife) Jean, my children and grandchildren. I owe that to them. But I'm not done working and I'm not leaving Samford."

Annie's Mailbox

Up in Smoke

Dear Annie: I smoked cigarettes for 18 years and tried to quit many different times. I tried all the recommended treatments including hypnosis, nicotine gum, patches and a hundred other things. But three years ago, I quit for good, and I feel so much better. That was possible because I started vaping. I have said many times that vaping is saving my life.

My doctor says that I'm in much better shape than I was when I was smoking cigarettes. My husband says that he and our children are extremely grateful that I managed to quit. I have way more energy, and I no longer cough in my sleep, which I used to do all the time when I smoked cigarettes.

However, now I'm hearing that vaping is causing health problems, and I am really scared. In fact, I have been thinking about going back to cigarettes.

Because of the news, I have been reading a great deal about vaping, and my understanding is that the vaping itself is not the problem, since it has been popular for a number of years and legions of smokers from around the world have been vaping without problems. From what I can tell, the people who have suffered lung ailments and other health issues from vaping were victims of black-market liquids for either nicotine or marijuana.

I really don't want to take up cigarettes again. But our state is considering banning vaping, and I feel like they will force me back to cigarettes. If the illnesses were caused by black-market products, and if vaping is made illegal, won't we have even more black-market products?

I am turning to you for advice, but please don't tell me to stay away from cigarettes if I don't have the alternative of vaping. Why can't vaping be legal but regulated? -- Quitting Cigarettes

Dear Quitting Cigarettes: First, congratulations on quitting smoking cigarettes. You should be commended for sticking with it. Second, some states have banned the sale of flavored vaping products but not vaping itself. These states are doing this to combat the growing number of teenagers who have been attracted to vaping.

Vaping is being studied very carefully because of the illnesses, and deaths, that have been attributed to it -- whether it is the vaping itself or contaminated liquids. As this is such a new development, there is a lot of misinformation out there. Have a frank conversation with your doctor about your concerns before taking any drastic actions. Focus on your feet rather than your fear.

Dear Annie: I would like to thank you for responding to my recent letter about my husband's "wandering eye." By expressing my frustrations on paper, it helped me realize that my concerns should not be so worrisome. I am trying not to be that green-eyed monster. And your wise comments affirming my sentiments gave me the confidence to calmly and rationally confront my husband, "Craig," about the main issue, and to put it into perspective because he took my comments seriously. -- Formerly Aggravated

Dear Formerly Aggravated: Thank you for your kind words, and for sharing an update. Expressing our frustrations, or any feeling for that matter, on paper can be very therapeutic. We gain perspective. Writing is a great stress reducer, and a place where you can express yourself free of judgment or interruption.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Your days are always evolving to reflect your values and concerns and vice versa. Take a mindful moment to consider how well your current situation is working to both satisfy and challenge you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). All achievements have a price. Often it's in the ballpark of the anticipated price, though the currencies can be difficult to predict. You can have a thing only if and when you give what it takes.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). You seek conversations that facilitate understanding. You don't wish to talk out of a need to be heard or acknowledged. Instead, you share to open the way for the other person to do the same so that you might learn a little more.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Even though you think it might be a bit of a hassle having a human interaction, do not choose the computerized nonhuman option if you can help it. Those little exchanges and niceties are key to your well-being.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Whether you're sorting

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The way you feel about a past situation is having a negative impact on your current life. Letting it go is not about the other person; it's about you having a better life because you're no longer hung up on this.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You have the power to change, in that you have the raw fuel for it. However, it takes more than energy to evolve in the direction you'd like to. You need a plan. What obstacles are likely to block you, and how will you surmount them?

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Readiness will quickly switch it up if you need to.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Think of today like a city bus ride. It may take a while to get there. You may not be able to choose your company. There will be plenty of stops. And you can be reasonably certain that you will all get where you're going.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). With a big lucky planet rushing into your realm, it feels like you need to clear out some space to make way for what's to come. Move such things as clutter, money and habits, and spiritual energy will move in.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Stay focused on doing your best with this day and limit the amount of time you allow yourself to think about other days to only as long as it takes to make a brief and broad strokes plan.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Balance always depends on the right combination of strength and fluidity. The principle is reflected in your schedule today, with immobile pillars you keep sacred offset by hours that flow with the moment's demands.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Dec. 2). There's a rhythm to being you, and it's about to get just a little crisper as excitement stirs around one of your favorite activities. Making time to do more of what you love gives more intentionality to the rest because you must be more efficient and purposeful to accommodate the influx of new people and activities. Capricorn and Pisces adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 8, 10, 3, 33 and 27.

Opening lead — nine of hearts.

China won its first Venice Cup in Sao Paulo in 2009, comfortably defeating an American team for the world title in the 96-deal final. The margin for the Chinese women was 72 IMPs, including a 16-IMP carry-over from their win over the U.S. team in an earlier round-robin match during the qualifying stage.

In the final, the victorious Chinese displayed superior judgment in many key situations. Today's deal, which occurred just past the midway point of the final, produced a big gain for the new world champions.

Both Easts opened four hearts, and both Souths ended up in five spades. In the auction shown, Beth Palmer, West for the U.S., doubled and led the nine of hearts. Wang Wenfei won with dummy's ace, led a spade to her ace and conceded a trick to the king. When the diamond finesse succeeded shortly thereafter, declarer had her doubled contract for +650.

At the other table, where Irina Levitina's five-spade contract was not doubled, Wang Hongli elected to lead the ace of clubs. Given that she had seven clubs and her partner had indicated a seven or eight-card suit for her four-heart bid, it was not unreasonable to hope that East had a singleton or void in clubs.

After leading the ace, she continued with a second club, ruffed by East. West still had to score the spade king, so South was down one, giving the Chinese a total pickup of 700 points, or 12 IMPs, on the deal.
