The aquatic center will be open Tuesday through Sunday from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. The Aquatic Center will be closed on Mondays to allow staff to deep clean and disinfect the facility.

“We are very excited to be able to once again have the Russ McEwen Family Aquatic Center open and to be able to offer entertainment and summer fun for our citizens,” Hayley Herrera, Director of Community Services for the City of Big Spring, said.

For the safety of the employees and citizens new rules and guidelines, in addition to the already set rules for the aquatic center, are being implemented for this season. Precautions and guidelines have been put in to place in order to encourage social distancing practices and slow the spread while utilizing the aquatic center. All rules are subject to change. # Scenic Mountain announces new visitor policy

By AMANDA DUFORAT
 Managing Editor

As the State of Texas begins to ease restrictions and businesses are beginning to re-open, Scenic Mountain Medical Center is following suit and easing restrictions. For the past few months, no visitors have been allowed on hospital grounds in order to slow the spread of COVID-19, and screening practices were put in place.

This past Wednesday, SMMC lifted some of the restrictions and will now allow one visitor per patient. The visitor must be over 18 years of age and should only visit the patient and avoid going to other locations in the hospital.

“The safety of our patients and staff is our top priority,” April Arms, SMMC Executive Assistant, said. “We appreciate the community support that has been shown to us through this process. We will continue to monitor the ever-evolving situation and make adjustments to the policies as needed.”

New visiting hours are Monday through Friday from 7 a.m.

Voter registration deadline set for Monday

Democratic Runoff set for July 15, early voting starts June 29

By AMANDA DUFORAT
 Managing Editor

The Democratic Runoff Election is set for July 14, which includes races for Railroad Commissioner, which is Robert R. “Beto” Alonzo against Chrysta Castaneda and the U.S. Senator race which has Mary “MJ” Hegar against Royce West. No local contested races are on the July Ballot.

“For those who are not registered to vote, or need to update their information, they have until Monday to get registered,” Jodi Duck, Howard County Elections Administrator, said.

Those who voted a Democratic ballot in the primaries will be able to vote, as well as those who did not vote in the primary. Voters who voted a Republican ballot will not be able to cast a ballot until the November election.

“In order to ensure the safety of our staff and the voters, we have worked a plan with safety precautions, sanitizing practices and social distancing precautions, that will allow for a safe environment for our voters to cast their ballots,” Duck said

In order to minimize the risk of exposure for the election workers and the voters of Howard County, an Emergency Action Plan was put in place and has been effective since April 2, 2020. The plan was designed by the Howard County Elections team along with assistance from Big Spring Fire Chief Craig Ferguson and has been approved, to help provide a safe environment for voters in the upcoming elections. The plan will allow for each election worker to be provided with gloves that are required to be worn at all times, along with hand sanitizer for the voter and election staff. The sanitizer will be at each location that is open for voting, along with disinfecting wipes to be used on the machines before and after each voter use.

Jerome F. Hoelscher

The community of St. Lawrence mourns the loss of their beloved brother, Jerome F. Hoelscher, 83, who went to be with the Lord on June 10, 2020. Jerome was born Aug. 22, 1936, at home near Rowena, Texas. He was the oldest child of Lawrence B. and Alma Pelzel Hoelscher.

He attended Saint Boniface Catholic School in Olfen, Texas, followed by schools in Rowena and Ballinger. He graduated from San Angelo Central High School.

After the family moved to Wall, Texas, Jerome worked on the farm. Due to the severe drought, he also worked in San Angelo with his Dad doing carpentry work. In 1956, the family moved to St. Lawrence, Texas. Jerome's work ethic resulted in a successful farming operation. He earned the Conservation Farmer of the Year Award in 2011. He served as a National Board member of the Singles in Agriculture group and enjoyed traveling and meeting new friends. In addition, he served on the St. Lawrence Gin Coop Board of Directors for 18 years and helped with the establishment of the new gin.

Jerome lived his life on the land. He enjoyed growing everything: peaches, tomatoes, and watermelons, but most of all, cotton, milo, and wheat. He loved sharing produce from his garden. An adventure took him to Germany to explore his roots and his love for good wine. After his newfound interest in the production of wine, he started growing his own grape vineyard, built his very own winery, and celebrated the finished product of St. Lawrence wines. He farmed in Glasscock County for over 60 years. In recent years, he had farming operations in St. Lawrence, Coyanosa, and Gruver. Farming was his love! Jerome enjoyed many activities with his family and friends. He loved deer hunting, the camaraderie of playing dominoes, and the fun that took place in camp. He entertained his brothers-in-law and nephews at his ranch in Robert Lee in the 1990's. Many stories are still shared about those fun trips.

Jerome took pride in his German and Austrian heritage, and only spoke the German language when he began school in Olfen. He made numerous trips to Europe including taking nephews to Germany. He enjoyed encountering someone who could engage in a German conversation with him. Jerome also loved listening to Polka music and eating delicious kolaches!

Jerome had a giving heart. His mailbox overflowed with requests for help because he generously contributed to many different charities. His interests included sponsoring children and giving to the poor. Jerome was a member of the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. He was an instrumental part in acquiring and donating the acreage for the current St. Lawrence Hall.

"He was a man who loved his job
And the life he lived

He was a man who worked with God
And couldn't succeed without His help,
For you see,
He was a farmer, plain and simple."

Those left to cherish his memory are his sisters and brothers-in-law: Alice Hoelscher Ayers (Tommy) and Betty Jean Hoelscher Halfmann (Delbert). Nephews and nieces include Darrell Halfmann (Danielle) and their children Laura Batla, Shanna, Kamie and Derek Halfmann; Scott Halfmann (Tana) and their children Holly, Hope and Hagan Halfmann; Ricky Halfmann (Becky) and their children Cody (Makenna) and Kortney Halfmann; Sherri Spruiell (TC) and their children Tanner, Tyler and Trace Spruiell; Jennifer Seidenberger (John) and their children Kylie and Logan Seidenberger;

Jeff Ayers and his children Reagan and Lincoln Ayers; Julie Allison (Robert) and their child Wyatt Allison.

A rosary will be held on Friday, June 12, 2020 at 7 p.m. at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. The funeral Mass will be held on Saturday, June 13, 2020 at 2 p.m. at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Burial will follow at St. Lawrence Catholic Cemetery.

The funeral Mass will be live-streamed on Facebook for those who are unable to attend.

Arrangements are being handled by Nalley-Pickle and Welch Funeral Home in Big Spring, Texas. Online condolences can be made at www.npw.com

By TOM SLOAN

"It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness." Lamentations 3:22-23

Did you ever go to bed at night overwhelmed by the feeling that you just could not face another day, only to wake up the next morning feeling fresh and new, saying - what problems? Did your problems somehow magically dissolve during the night? No, probably not. But what you were blessed enough to discover was the fact that the Lord's mercies are new every morning.

New mercies mean that they are new. Brand new, never-before-unpackaged mercies. You have never seen this morning's mercies, not yesterday, not the day before, or the day before that one. These new morning mercies teach us that our loving Heavenly Father knows us better than we know ourselves. So great, personal, and intimate is His knowledge of us that He tailor fits each day's mercies for this specific date in time and history. And He wants us to know this. And when we come to understand that He has designed His mercies for today's specific needs, battles, doubts, discouragements and sins, we know that He knows that we know that He knows. And when we know that He knows that we know, we enter into a very special relationship with Him, a relationship of trust.

If our Abba Father knows us this well, and if we know that we can trust and depend on His new morning mercies, we will live confident in the fact that nothing can separate us from His love which is in Christ Jesus.

What would you attempt for God if you knew you couldn't fail? How would you act if you were sure of the fact that your sin doesn't make God love you any less? And what if you were absolutely sure that His mercies would be new tomorrow morning as they were today?

Would you trust Him more? Would you relax and rest in the fact that He is truly in control of everything?

VOTE

"We are working hard to ensure all voters who are wanting and are eligible to cast their vote in this runoff election will be able to do so in a safe manner," Duck said. "Voting is a right that we have and should be exercised. We want to make sure that vote is not compromised or deterred due to the current pandemic situation."

The machines will be cleaned every hour regardless of use at each location open for voting use. In keeping with social distancing there will be a limit of 10 or less people allowed in each voting location at one time, this number will include staff and voters. All election staff and voters will be required to maintain a six foot distance between themselves and other persons at all times.

The plan also allows for election staff to wear masks and which will be supplied if resources are available.

Church News

Naz Family

This Sunday - As the Book of James tells us, Elijah was a human being just as we are, but he was also a man of great faith and prayer. The Lord used Elijah in a mighty way to bring people back to God and restore a nation.

Through his story we discover what it means to be a people of faith in a faithless generation. You won't want to miss this Sunday as Pastor continues this series exploring what we can learn today from The Days of Elijah.

NazFamily Live - Our ministry staff gathers each Tuesday @ 12pm for a time of Word, worship, and prayer together.

We will also continue to have a Wednesday evening service @ 6:30 p.m. You can join us through FaceBook Live for all of our services. Stay connected!

Simply Worship - Throughout the month of June our Wednesday Gatherings we will be reconnecting through a simple time of family worship and prayer in the gym. Join us at 6:30 p.m.

Art of Marriage - Marriage, the way God intended it to be, is a true art form. The Art of Marriage weaves together expert teaching, real-life stories, humorous vignettes, and more to portray both the challenges and the beauty of God's design.

You are invited out to Howard & Sally Callender's this Friday at 6 p.m. as we begin this meaningful study. There will be a meal and activities for the kids. Contact the church office for more information and directions.

Mystery Island VBS - Is there just one God? . . . Who is God? . . . What is God like? . . . Does God love me? . . . Can I know God? Our kids grapple with questions like these every day. At Mystery Island, we'll uncover the truth about our Creator God! There's a sea of confusion about who God is and what he's like, so we'll track down the one true God and learn how amazing he is through the pages of Scripture. July 6 - 10, NazFamily Mystery Island VBS will be packed with teaching that connects the Bible to the real world and gives kids a better understanding of our awe-inspiring Creator and the salvation he offers through Jesus Christ. Contact us at church@NazFamily.org if you would like to register your child.

Big Spring Steers Athletics has numerous updates and announcements for 2020-21

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sportswriter

The Big Spring Steers have been back at team workouts since Monday and things have started off nicely. The student-athlete turnout is strong and each workout group seems to be filled to their maximum capacity.

With the steady improvement of each of these students getting back into shape there is also the steady reopening of these athletic workouts to larger and larger groups as the weeks go by.

After being hard at work training his athletes for the past four days, Head Football Coach Cannon McWilliams has already set the schedule for the next week of workouts.

“Just a heads up for strength and conditioning next week: June 15-19. Because of the numbers and also the UIL continuing to open up, our schedule for next week will go as follows:

High School Boys: 8:00-9:30 a.m.

All Girls: 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Junior High Boys: 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Make Up (All): 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Friday Extra Beef: 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

If there are any questions about the schedule updates, you can contact McWilliams at 432-257-5611.

There is also a few neat roles that have opened up on the Steer sidelines this year. Head Athletic Trainer Stephannie Bledsoe is looking for some students who are interested in being either a student athletic trainer or team manager.

“There will be a mandatory meeting on Friday,

July 24 in the training room at the ATC beginning at 9 a.m.,” Bledsoe’s online post said.

The role of team manager or student athletic trainer is an important one and should be valued highly by any student who pictures themselves going into the field of sports medicine, physical therapy, coaching, etc.

If there are any questions about these openings, you can call the ATC at 432-264-3662.

Another important message from Bledsoe is that Rank One Sport forms are now available for the upcoming school year and must be turned-in in order for that student-athlete to participate in any sports this year.

“All incoming 7th graders and new participants to Athletics and Band must have a physical on file no later than August 1, 2020 or the first day of summer workouts.

“According to the new UIL regulations for the online medical history form, any Yes answer to questions 1-22 requires further medical evaluation which may include a physical examination. Written clearance from a physician, physician assistant, chiropractor, or nurse practitioner is required before any participation in UIL practices, games or matches.”

It is very important that this form must be on file prior to participation in any practice, scrimmage, performance or contest before, during or after school.

To fill out the form, just follow these simple instructions:

- 1.) Go to the school website: <https://www.bsisd.esc18.net/>
- 2.) Click on Athletics at the top of the page.
- 3.) Near the bottom of the page there is a link Rank One Online Participation Paper Work
- 4.) Start online forms. Sign-in or create a new account.

The student’s date of birth and their student ID number will be needed to fill out the information.

Those are just a few updates from Big Spring Athletics. Each team has been out of commission for the past three months and everyone is just now starting to get back into the swing of things. The beginning of the school year and the beginning of fall sports will be here before you know it.

In such a routine for everyone, it is important to get back to a routine for everyone both inside and surrounding Big Spring Athletics.

Big Spring still searching for pair of new coaches for 2020

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sportswriter

The Big Spring Steers are looking for a new wide receiver (passing game) coach to step in and take over that role sometime this summer. The Steers are also looking for a head girl’s track and field coach to join the teaching staff and take over their team next spring.

If you or anyone you know has prior coaching experience and would like to take on a new challenge as a member of the Big Spring High School community, athletics leader and staff member, feel free to send an e-mail with your resume to Cannon McWilliams.

The Steers are in a bit of a transition period at the wide receiver position and a new coach at that spot could really help take the offense and the passing game to the next level. Big Spring has young playmakers such as Kaegen Mitchell and Isaiah Solis returning to the gridiron this fall. Whoever takes over the job will have the chance to develop those receivers this season and for the next group that will come behind them.

Lady Steers track and field is also a strong program that will have the ability to continue to build up the program into one of the elite groups in West Texas. Rhett Chaney will return as the Head Boys’ Track and Field Coach and he is looking for a counterpart to lead those athletes beginning next spring.

Bidding quiz

You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:
North East South West
1♥ Dble ?

What would you bid with each of the following five hands?

- ♠ QJ8 ♥ 92 ♦ K95 ♣ AJ743
- ♠ K9842 ♥ QJ753 ♦ 74 ♣ 10
- ♠ K73 ♥ 764 ♦ QJ63 ♣ Q85
- ♠ J65 ♥ K842 ♦ 86 ♣ J932
- ♠ K976 ♥ 3 ♦ J743 ♣ J1054

1. Redouble. In standard bidding, it is more or less automatic to redouble with 10 or more points in high cards when your partner opens the bidding and the next player doubles. Support for partner's suit is not required or implied.

Usually the opening bidder passes at his next turn whether or not his right-hand opponent acts over the redouble. After either opponent bids (one of them must in order to remove the redouble), the redoubler next shows the nature of his hand by the type of action he takes. He may double for penalties, raise or jump-raise partner's suit, name a new suit (forcing), cuebid the opponents' suit or bid some number of notrump.

2. Four hearts. There is a good chance that the opponents can either make a game or sacrifice successfully at five of a minor. The four heart bid is aimed at making it more difficult for them to make the winning decision. At the same time, there is also a reasonable possibility that partner can make four hearts.

3. One notrump. This indicates a balanced hand of six to nine high-card points. Tactically, it is better to bid now than to pass. If you pass, it will be more difficult to show the type of hand you have later on.

The notrump bid allows your partner to go on or not, as he sees fit. It also may silence the next player and thereby deprive the doubler of important information about his partner's hand.

4. Two hearts. After an opposing double, a single raise of partner's suit indicates a relatively weak hand containing trump support. The bid normally shows six to nine points, including distributional values. The raise puts partner in the best position to decide how to continue.

5. Pass. There is simply no better call available, so the best you can do at this stage is to pass. Change one of your clubs or diamonds into a spade, and you could then bid one spade over the double.

It is true that there is a slight element of risk attached to the pass, because the next player might also pass, but any other call would be even more dangerous. Also, unless partner bids again, there is an excellent chance the enemy will wind up playing in one of your suits, and you certainly wouldn't mind defending.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

Impressionable Pisces Moon

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Whether you climb your way up or start off in a higher position, sooner or later everything under you must be learned. That's your favorite part! You'll gladly take on the challenge.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Shame, blame, complaining -- these all get in the way of a good plan and a positive mindset. You will resist the temptation of such things and be guided to solutions to whatever ails you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Thinking is harder than it looks, which is why many get tired or lazy and want others to think for them. There are those who would take advantage of this. Give loved ones the benefit of your intellect and your protection.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Action is education today when the best way to learn, and perhaps the (SET ITAL) only (END ITAL) way, is by doing. Until you apply yourself, you won't know what you know.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Some relationships you seek. Others you earn. And then there are the ones you pick up by accident. Those are dealt to you by the hand of fate and will be your most profound teachers.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You're not out to impress anyone, but you do have something to say. You wouldn't mind if people were to come away from a conversation with you having more understanding than they started with.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You're halfway up the mountain with the requisite vistas and views. It still feels like you've a long way to go to get to the top, but you're worlds away from those who never embarked at all.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). True, some are not pulling their weight, but you're currently unconcerned with the division of labor. You'll focus on your own contribution to the team and leave pettiness to others.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Sometimes being a good leader, friend or partner means keeping your thoughts to yourself. Anyway, you don't care if those around you think you're smart or right. You care about spreading compassion.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You're more influential than you know, and there's reason to be mindful of how others are experiencing you. There is intrinsic power in what you say, how you behave and even in your casual statements.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). States of being are tricky. You know when you're in the zone, but you're not entirely sure how to get there. It's worth figuring out, as your production triples when you're in that frame of mind.

PI-SCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Most people don't reach for a flashlight in the noonday sun, but that's precisely the best time to find one and get it ready for the evening hour of necessity.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 12). In some ways, you operate as your own universe this year, powerful as the star of your life, commanding the lineup of events, characters and scenery. You'll find support for a creative venture. You'll band together with loved ones for mutual enrichment. There's a professional bonus in August. Aquarius and Taurus adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 30, 1, 11, 20 and 15.

WEEKEND LOVE FORECAST: ARIES: In love and sports, it's the same. There is no downside to endurance. The more you can take, the more you can give. TAURUS: You don't have to think about how to flirt. You're open, and it comes naturally to you. GEMINI: Your self-restraint is born of a desire for a different outcome than you've had. This is not censorship; it's discipline. CANCER: Your sense of humor and mischief will be epically alluring. LEO: In a relationship that supports freedom, you're not afraid to say what's on your mind. VIRGO: Improvement is change. Expect resistance. Change makes people nervous, even when it's for the better. LIBRA: The appearance of confidence will be essentially indistinguishable from actual confidence. SCORPIO: The longer a story is, the more entertaining it should be. Otherwise the audience wanders. Your humor earns big points. SAGITTARIUS: Privately appreciate your fine qualities. You're so humble you can afford to pump yourself up, inducing a degree of swagger. CAPRICORN: Love means minimizing shortcomings and maximizing assets. AQUARIUS: The relationship progresses -- scary and wonderful. PISCES: Take part in competitions. The mere idea of winning brings out your best qualities.

COUPLE OF THE WEEKEND: The moon will move into Aries this weekend, reflecting the glow of the Gemini sun from a place of action and excitement. The alchemy between these two signs gets interesting. Gemini will want to talk about it. Aries will be drawn to move first and discuss later, or never. Aries warms to the possibility of a deeper relationship with Gemini. Gemini will want to find out how Aries reacts in a variety of settings.

Later, I picked up the boxes (left on their front porches) and called the pottery store to let them know I was leaving our projects at their door. By the end of the week, the awesome final projects were complete.

Though not a "normal" family get-together, we had so much fun. Even though we are apart, it's important to know we can still make silly new memories together. And each time we look at our pottery, we remember how, although times were hard, we were able to share love and happiness together... just not together. -- Crafty Mom Who Loves Her Adult Kids

Dear Crafty Mom: What a brilliant idea! Thank you for sharing and for inspiring all of us to make shared memories with loved ones, even while not together physically.

Charlie the Chatterbox

Dear Annie: My neighbor "Charlie" is a chatterbox. He only works part-time and is home for the day by 11 a.m. For most of the afternoon, he hangs out in his front yard, talking to passersby. Anytime I run into him, it turns into a 20-minute-plus rambling conversation about all sorts of topics and people I don't know. I avoid taking out the trash some nights because I don't want to get stuck outside talking to him. Sometimes, I peek outside, see he's not there and think the coast is clear -- but then he rushes outside once I do. His family has a motion-activated "smart" security camera on the front of their house that I set off going down my driveway.

I'm not alone in feeling this way about Charlie. Recently, I said hello to my mailman, and he whispered, "I need to get out of here before Charlie gets started."

Charlie really is a nice guy, and I've grown fond of him and his family over the past few years that I've lived here. And I know his chattiness is not a real problem, only a minor annoyance. But I wish I could keep our conversations to a minimum some days. And I don't think he's lonely; they've got three generations in one household, so it's not as though there's a shortage of people for him to talk to. I've tried dropping the usual hints -- looking at my phone to check the time -- but he just doesn't get it, and he never pauses long enough for me to say that I need to go. Would it be rude of me to interrupt him? -- Ear Off

Dear Ear Off: Dropping hints works fine with people who pick them up. Others need a more direct approach. But direct doesn't need to mean confrontational. The next time Charlie gets to chatting, give him a warm smile and say: "I really have to get going. I'll catch you later!" Other variations that will work: "I'm in the middle of chores..." or "I was just about to make dinner..." If he bristles at the brush-off, that's on him. But if he's such a social butterfly, I have a feeling he won't mind. He'll simply alight on his next audience.

Dear Annie: We have four young adult children (ages 19 to 27). One is living with me doing online college; one is two hours away at college; and the other two live about 90 minutes away. Usually, we get together at least one or twice a week.

To add some fun, humor and new activities to our family time, I purchased plates, wine glasses, Easter bunnies, gnomes, eggs, paints and brushes from a nearby pottery store and made "Family Fun Virus Boxes."

I added pasta, sauce, bread, Entenmann's cakes and some wine to the "fun boxes" and delivered them on Friday, putting them on their front steps, and then waved and blew kisses from my car when they got their boxes.

Saturday night, my children and their significant others had four separate but together dinner parties. We all made our own dinners, and sent each other pictures in a group chat.

Painted our craft items and sent each other pictures in a group chat.

Later, I picked up the boxes (left on their front porches) and called the pottery store to let them know I was leaving our projects at their door. By the end of the week, the awesome final projects were complete.

Today in History

By The Associated Press undefined

Today in History
Today is Friday, June 12, the 164th day of 2020. There are 202 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:
On June 12, 1994, Nicole Brown Simpson and Ronald Goldman were slashed to death outside her Los Angeles home. (O.J. Simpson was later acquitted of the killings in a criminal trial but was eventually held liable in a civil action.)

On this date:
In 1630, Englishman John Winthrop, leading a fleet carrying Puritan refugees, arrived at the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where he became its governor.
In 1898, Philippine nationalists declared independence from Spain.
In 1942, Anne Frank, a German-born Jewish girl living in Amsterdam, received a diary for her 13th birthday, less than a month before she and her family went into hiding from the Nazis.
In 1963, civil rights leader Medgar Evers, 37, was shot and killed outside his home in Jackson, Mississippi. (In 1994, Byron De La Beckwith was convicted of murdering Evers and sentenced to life in prison; he died in 2001.)
In 1964, South African black nationalist Nelson Mandela was sentenced to life in prison along with seven other people, including Walter Sisulu, for committing sabotage against the apartheid regime (all were eventually released, Mandela in 1990).
In 1967, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Loving v. Virginia, unanimously struck down state laws prohibiting interracial marriages.
In 1978, David Berkowitz was sentenced to 25 years to life in prison for each of the six "Son of Sam" 44-caliber killings that terrified New Yorkers.
In 1981, major league baseball players began a 49-day strike over the issue of free-agent compensation. (The season did not resume until Aug. 10.)
"Raiders of the Lost Ark," directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Harrison Ford as Indiana Jones, was first released. In 1987, President Ronald Reagan, during a visit to the divided German city of Berlin, exhorted Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev to "tear down this wall."
In 1997, baseball began regular-season interleague play, ending a 126-year tradition of separating the major leagues until the World Series. (In the first game played under this arrangement, the San Francisco Giants defeated the Texas Rangers 4-3.)

In 2004, former President Ronald Reagan's body was sealed inside a tomb at his presidential library in Simi Valley, California, following a week of mourning and remembrance by world leaders and regular Americans.

In 2016, an American-born Muslim opened fire at the Pulse nightclub, a gay establishment in Orlando, Florida, leaving 49 people dead and 53 wounded before being shot dead by police.

Ten years ago: A French fishing vessel rescued 16-year-old Abby Sunderland from her crippled sailboat in the turbulent southern Indian Ocean, ending the California teen's attempt to sail around the world solo. Ethnic riots wracked southern Kyrgyzstan, forcing thousands of Uzbeks to flee their homes. Daniel Nava hit the first pitch he saw as a big leaguer for a grand slam — only the second player to do it — leading the Boston Red Sox to a 10-2 rout of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Five years ago: Joyce Mitchell, a worker at the maximum-security Clinton Correctional Facility in Dannemora, New York, was arrested on charges of helping two convicted killers escape; Mitchell later pleaded guilty to promoting prison contraband and was sentenced to 2-1/3 to seven years in prison.

One year ago: President Donald Trump said if a foreign power offered dirt on his 2020 opponent, he'd be open to accepting it, telling ABC News, "There's nothing wrong with listening." (Two days later, Trump shifted gears, saying that "of course" he would go to the FBI or the attorney general to report such an offer.) Maine Gov. Janet Mills signed legislation that legalized medically assisted suicide; Maine became the eighth state to allow terminally ill people to end their lives with prescribed medication. U.S. Catholic bishops voted to create a new national sex-abuse hotline run by an independent entity; it would field allegations that bishops committed abuse or covered it up. The St. Louis Blues won their first Stanley Cup, beating the Boston Bruins 4-1 in Game 7 of the NHL finals.
