The Christmas in Boomtown 7th annual Parade, which was set for this coming Saturday has been cancelled for safety reasons.

By AMANDA DUFORAT

Unhitch the trailers, go ahead and string the lights, but this year there won't be a Christmas in Boomtown parade. An announcement was made Tuesday morning, in the best interest of the health and safety of the community and participants, the 7th annual Christmas in Boomtown Parade is cancelled for this

The annual Forsan Christmas in Boomtown Parade was set for 10 a.m. this Saturday, but due to an increase in cases across Howard County, the decision was made to cancel the parade.

"This is such a fun tradition for our little town to bring the community together," Jenny Sayles said. "However, with the cases increasing and several cancellations already, due to people being sick, we decided it was in the best interest to go ahead and not hold the parade this year." Sayles continued, "We want families to be able to enjoy the holidays this year, and while this decision was made with heavy hearts, we feel it is the best decision for all."

Howard Co. Children's Advocacy Center invites community to stop by

By AMANDA DUFORAT

Managing Editor

Santa Clause is coming to Big Spring for a special photo op. Howard County Children's Advocacy Center will be hosting the special North Pole guest and offering an opportunity for the community to drive through and snap a photo with the children or the pets.

"We want families to have access to fun holiday events without having to compromise social distancing," Kelli Crouse with the Howard County Children's Advocacy Center said.

The event will be taking place Dec. 6 from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. at Crossfit Big Spring, located at 1011 East 11th Place. All photos taken will be digital.

"This event will be a fundraiser for the Advocacy Centers and will serve as the annual fundraiser for the United Way of Big Spring and Howard County," Crouse said. "We are only going to be accepting cash and it will be $5 per car."

Those wanting to have a photo will be able to stay in their car and have Santa come to you. Each car is asked to keep participants inside the car for the photos, as the event will be strictly drive through to help maintain social distancing. The Howard County Children's Advocacy Center opened its doors in 2018 and has been providing local services to Howard County, alleviating the travel for those needing services. The center serves children and nonoffending caregivers who have experienced abuse or neglect or have been witness to a violent crime. The staff and volunteers help in conducting forensic interviews while working with law enforcement. The services are free of charge, which include therapy.

Benny Allen Lockhart

Benny Ållen Lockhart, 81, loving husband, father and grandfather, passed away peacefully on Nov. 21, 2020, at his home.

Ben was born to Carl and Lucille Barber Lockhart in Feb. 1939. He married the love of his life, Sandee McKinney, on March 14, 1970. They had 50 loving years together.

He lived an extraordinary life surrounded by people who respected and adored him. He touched numerous lives as a DPS Trooper for 22 years and as Howard County Judge for 16 years. Known to many as "Gentle Ben" or "The Judge", his favorite thing to be called was "Peep" by his long-awaited grandkids. He often joked that he would not live long enough to see grandkids. The joke was on him when he was blessed with twin grandkids in August 2012. He was also proud of his bonus grandsons, Randy Paige Jr and Nick Paige.

We miss him terribly but rejoice that he is whole again. We find comfort in knowing that we will see those sparkling blue eyes again someday. And, that he is reminiscing with his fishing buddies and family. He was an incredible husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle. He taught so many lessons in life and left an amazing legacy that will carry on.

Ben is survived by his beautiful wife Sandee. His daughter Kelly Paige and husband Randy Sr. of Big Spring, TX, one brother, Jimmy Lockhart and wife Wanda of Big Spring, TX. Four grandchildren Randy Jr., Nicholas, Kylee and Kade Paige. Also, several nephews and nieces.

He was preceded in death by his parents Carl and Lucille Lockhart, three brothers Tom, Don and Gene, and sister, Sue Mize.

A memorial service will be scheduled for some time in the Spring. Online condolences can be made at www.npwelch.com

City of Big Spring searching for Charter Committee members, announces PPC results

Herald Staff Report

During Tuesday's meeting of the Big Spring City Council, nominations for Charter Committee members were discussed. Each of the Council members brought forth a name for the committee, with Councilwoman Gloria McDonald abstaining due to conflict of interest. With no represantative from District 5 and District 6 present at the meeting, due to recent recalls of Camilla Strande and Jim DePauw, the Council decided to place notice of representation from these districts.

On Tuesday afternoon, the City of Big Spring released a notice asking for those who live in District 5 and District 6 and are interested in serving on the Charter Committee to come forward. The press release read as follows:

Citizens that live in District 5 and District 6 who are interested in serving on the City Charter Committee are advised to contact Nora Hernandez at 264-2347 to have their name submitted before City Council. This committee is being formed to review the current City Charter.

9 a.m. until 11 a.m. The food pantry will be closed for the holiday season, through the end of the year

• The City of Big Spring recently announced that due to a recent increase in COVID-19 cases, all indoor city-owned rental facilities including our venue, The Big Spring Municipal Auditorium, will be closed for the rest of the year. With this announce-beginning Dec. 21. through January 5, 2021.

In addition, the City of Big Spring also issued a release about the Public Protection Classification Results. The press relase read as follows:

On November 1, 2020, City Officials were notified that Big Spring was awarded a Public Protection Class 03/3x from the Insurance Services Office (ISO).

ISO's Public Protection Classification Program (PPC) plays an important role in the underwriting process at insurance companies. In fact, most U.S. insurers - including the largest ones - use PPC information as part of their decision making when deciding what business to write, coverages to offer or prices to charge for personal or commercial property insurance.

PPC is important to fire departments as well. Communities whose PPC improves may get lower insurance rates. PPC also provides fire departments with a valuable benchmark and is used by many departments as a valuable tool when planning, budgeting and justifying fire protection improvements.

The goal is to accurately reflect a community's fire suppression and control resources through the Public Protection Classification (PPC) system.

Congratulations and thank you to the Big Spring Fire Department!

Big Spring Lady Steers stampede Midland Christian 57-37 on Tuesday night

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sports Writer

After winning the opening tip and making a couple passes, Big Spring's Jacqueline Belew knocked down a wide open threepoint shot from dead center. That shot gave the Lady Steers a quick 3-0 lead, and they did not look back from there.

Big Spring started out hot and went up 19-0 early in the second quarter before Midland Christian was able to score their first points of the game. They controlled each aspect of the game and their defense forced the Lady Knights into many mistakes en route to a 57-37 victory on Tuesday night.

It was a nice way to get back on track for the Lady Steers, who had lost four straight contests before prevailing against Midland

"There have been a couple games where we should have won, but we were being too careless with the ball. Tonight I wanted to see more control out of our offense and they did a good job of that," Head Coach Eric Tuttle said.

Big Spring was clicking on offense all-game long and there were three Lady Steers that finished with double-digit scoring numbers. Tristan Smith led the Lady Steers with 19 points to go along with seven assists and a handful of steals. Ryen Terrazas scored 12 points and had 10 rebounds for her second double-double of the season. Lastly, Alex Enriquez notched 12 points and did a great job on both sides of the ball.

Each and every Lady Steer was hustling all over the court on Tuesday night. They were diving for loose balls, fighting for tough rebounds, and playing physical defense on a group that was prone to turning the ball over. Belew, in Tuesday night's 57-37 win over Midland Christian.

Smith and Terrazas each recorded multiple steals throughout the game and at times seemed to just snatch the ball right out of their opponents' hands and take it the other way for an easy layup.

Making those easy layups had been a focus in practice over the past few days and Tuttle believes making those shots early allows his team to not fall behind and have a hole to dig themselves out of.

"It helps when we make layups early. That was our downfall the last couple of games because we didn't make those easy buckets early. We'd go into halftime missing 20 layups and that's 40 points that were leaving out there. Tonight, we only had three miss-HERALD Photo/Shawn Moran es going into the half. That helps us tremen-Jacqueline Belew passes the ball to an open Mya Blanco dously and opens up things for our shooters later in the game," Tuttle said.

> There was a solid crowd that filled Steer Gym and even a few of Tuttle's old players that he used to coach came to watch his team in action. "I appreciate those guys. They've been wanting to come and watch the Lady Steers play. I'm just so glad that some old players, girls and guys, came out tonight to support the Lady Steers," he said. Now, the Lady Steers will be looking to take the momentum from Tuesday night's win and bring it to the hardwood the next time they play.

UP NEXT: The Lady Steers (3-4) will host the Pecos Lady Eagles on Friday night at Steer Gym (7:30 p.m.).

Showtime Steers win third straight, 75-19 over Grape Creek

Kaegen Mitchell guards an inbounds pass against Andrews. Mitchell led Big Spring with 17 points last night on the road.

By SHAWN MORAN

Herald Sports Writer

The Big Spring Showtime Steers dominated the competition on the road Tuesday night for a 75-19 victory over the Grape Creek Eagles.

Kaegen Mitchell led Big Spring with 17 points and he was one of three Steers to score in double digits. Gavin Padron added 11 points of his own and Gavin Greathouse accounted for 10 points. In all, 12 Big Spring players recorded at least two points on a night where they played without an injured Kyler Sey-

Head Coach Kris Hise was pleased with the selfless way his team played and was thrilled with the strong defense his team played that converted into points on the offensive end.

"I thought that we distributed the ball pretty evenly," Hise said. "When Kyler is in there, they can focus on him and know that he's going to get some shots up. I think we distributed pretty evenly last night though, which made us a little bit harder to guard. In the end, it really wasn't our offense that led to the points. Our defense played strong and that led to most of our points."

The Steers are now 3-1 on the season and riding a three-game win streak. Since they have had their full roster, Big Spring has not lost a game and looks like a deep and talented team that will only keep improving.

UP NEXT: Big Spring (3-1) will play an undefeated Reagan County (6-0) team on Friday night at home.

Basketball in a mask? Rare but not unheard of in pandemic By DOUG FEINBERG

make the decision."

It is not unusual to see players and coaches wearing masks on the sideline as the college basketball season gets going.

The DePaul and Creighton women's teams have taken it a step further: Their players are wearing masks while they are on the court competing.

"The first week I complained every day, but now it's normal as we wear them every day in practice," said Deja Church, a senior guard for DePaul. "It's kind of normal now. I don't like it, but whatever keeps us and the coaches and everyone safe is what matters most."

The NCAA does not require masks on the court, though it recommends them on the bench along with social distancing guidance for its member schools and other steps to prevent the spread of COVID-19. But masks are still very uncommon in organized basketball and that is unlikely to change.

DePaul coach Doug Bruno said he took the advice of the school's medical staff. His 20th-ranked team has worn masks in every practice since Aug. 7 and played its first two games wearing them. Creighton coach Jim Flanery said he left it up to his players to decide whether they wanted to wear masks in games. A majority of them are wearing them. "Our contact tracer has told us it will be impactful in terms of contact tracing and determining whether we'd have to pause if someone on the other team tests positive," Flanery said. "We gave (the players) the information and let them

West South

East North Dble Pass Pass Pass (!) Pass Pass Opening lead — king of hearts.

Not many members realized at first how little Sylvia knew when she started to play with the experts at the club. But it didn't take the cognoscenti long to discover the vast areas of ignorance in Sylvia's game, nor did it take them very long to try to take advantage of her shortcomings.

While it may be that all's fair in love and war, I always had reservations about the propriety of some players at the club who psyched against Sylvia. She had such an extraordinary talent for doing the wrong thing that it seemed to me they should have left well enough alone instead of trying to make things even more complicated for her. But there were times when such tactics boomeranged against the perpetrators. One of her first great triumphs occurred on this deal when Sylvia (East) was playing against two of the more larcenous members of the club

South bid a spade, and West doubled. North, who could smell a psychic a mile away, assumed his partner was throwing a curve, and he passed. Sylvia, who couldn't tell the difference between a takeout double and a Wiener schnitzel, thought her hand was too weak to bid, so she also passed.

South assumed the spades were all banked against him and so ran to two diamonds. West passed, and North, having first congratulated himself on diagnosing the opening spade bid as a psychic — apparently confirmed by his partner's runout to two diamonds — also passed. Sylvia then closed the auction with a pass.

You never did hear such a ruckus as took place after South saw the dummy and realized he was playing in two diamonds when six spades was practically laydown.

Sylvia never quite understood why he squawked so much, since South wound up making his partscore with two overtricks.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Tomorrow's Horoscope lated to

Early Days of Mercury in Sagittarius

ARIES (March 21-April 19). New relationships have their own special magic, a spark that can largely be created by our fantasies of who we want people to be and who we want ourselves to be.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Of all the notable sounds you'll hear during the day, the two you'll enjoy most will be your name on the lips of a delightful someone and the low din of life in the distance, uninterrupted by anything that requires your attention.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Wanting a particular outcome too badly makes you less aware of the nuances of timing. Help yourself play it cool by doing what it takes to return to a state of relaxed neutrality.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). It seems like with sufficient evidence to make your point, the others would concede without drama. It is not so, as everyone has their own opinion about the evidence. The only way to reduce drama is to drop out of the fight.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Items in your everyday life get out of control, seeming to have lives of their own or decaying in some way before your eyes. When the back of the closet and the refrigerator are decluttered, so will be your mind.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The easiest people to be around today will be neither reBy Holiday Mathis you nor reminiscent of anyone from your original family. You'll see another side of yourself because they do.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). The anchors of life are very useful and can keep you from drifting, emotionally or otherwise, to parts unknown. But you're supposed to lower them when the ship is at rest, not en route.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). With the internet alive and eager with information, you have to be a little judicious about what you ask. There are things you really don't want to know. Once you learn, you cannot unlearn, so go carefully.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You like the look of the situation and now it's time to do a deeper dive. Is there substance here to match? If there is, then you'll know within 10 questions.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You cannot develop yourself and ignore yourself at the same time. You are a reliable entity who must be listened to. first by you. Put self-approval before validation from others, and then act on what you approve of.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Certain individuals seem crystalized against the truths you hold so dear. On the bright side, if it were not the case, you wouldn't have nearly the drive to explore, practice and celebrate this important part of who you are.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You would rather do the listening than the talking, but what's out there to listen to today will either be too quiet to hear or, quite frankly, not worth listening to. Take this as an invitation. The world needs your contribution.

TODAY'S BIRTH-DAY (Dec. 2). Your social grace is admirable to many and a talent you can rely on. You'll intuit when to step forward and when to step back, and in doing so, you'll create a beautiful dance of relationships. A much-needed break from work will come with once-in-a-lifetime experiences. A decision in February increases family closeness. Leo and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky num-deal breaker?"

If he gave you something you wanted because he wanted to keep you, then was that not a token of love? Maybe he has baggage around the words "I love you," and yet, he spoke them anyway for you. Now that you've decided that the means didn't justify the end, you require other proof. So, how it is that you would prefer to receive your love? A gesture? A gift? Different words? A physical manifestation of some kind? It might be interesting to explore this in a journal or a conversation with a trusted person, although don't be surprised if you decide on a piece of love's proof, request it, get it and then still don't feel completely loved. In the end, seeking proof of love is just another form of approval seeking, and thus trying to get internal fortification from external means. It never works. The wholeness you seek is accomplished by determining your own set of estimable acts and approving of your process

Hard to Listen to Friend's Complaints

Dear Annie: My good friend, who happens to be in her 40s, moved back in with her parents over five years ago because of her health and for financial reasons. Her parents have allowed her to live with them and don't require her to pay rent.

My friend is constantly complaining about her mother. She makes her mom out to be one of the worst moms ever. She feels her mom isn't very nice to her and that her mom finds fault in everything that she does. This gets hard to listen to every time we're together.

Her parents are in their late 70s and early 80s. Perhaps her mom just wants to enjoy being retired together with her husband -- to not have to take care of, or tiptoe around, a daughter who doesn't

appreciate what she has done for her.

I would love to say these things to my friend, but I am afraid she won't take it well from me. I really think she would have a better relationship with her mom if she moved out. What do you think? --Concerned Friend

Dear Concerned Friend: You are probably correct that some distance between your adult friend and her mother might be a good thing for their relationship. If she is really a good friend, and you are concerned about her unhappiness, then suggest that she move out. In the end, it is up to your friend and her mother to communicate better and try and live in peace.

However, you do
