Council approves charter changes

By ROGER CLINE
 Herald Staff Writer

Big Spring is a step closer to a revised City Charter following a meeting Wednesday evening in which the City Council considered and unanimously approved each of the 21 measures amending, updating, and tweaking the city's foundational framework.

According to the National League of Cities website at www.nlc.org, a city's charter is a document that defines the basic organization, powers, functions and essential procedures of that city's government.

"It is comparable to the Constitution of the United States or a state's constitution," according to the NLC website. "The charter is, therefore, the most important legal document of any city."

The city's Charter Review Special Committee met 11 times, starting Jan 13, with the final meeting held May 6.

"The existing charter, as we found it, had a large number of technical issues that we, the Charter Committee, tried to address," said Charter Review Committee Chairman John Scott. "Several of our measures that we'll go through in just a minute address these technical issues. Some of the charter was just, frankly, out of date and did not comply with state law."

Scott noted that the committee was guided in the legal aspects of its job by City Attorney Andrew Hagen and consulting attorney Charles Zech.

During the meeting, Scott briefly explained each of the measures, and then the council addressed each measure before voting to approve it.

Following Wednesday's meeting, the next step has the attorneys drafting summaries of each measure to be used on the ballot in a city-wide election on the amendments to the City Charter. The date for the election has not yet been set.

The measures are listed below, along with a brief informal summary of each. Note that the summaries given here are not the official summarized versions of the measures from the City, which have not yet been drafted.

• Measure A: An omnibus measure deleting or revising several items in the city's charter to require and ensure compliance with state law. "This is one overall very large measure that tries to bring the measure into compliance with state law," Scott said. "It's the single largest amendment that we have, and it affects virtually the entire charter."

• Measure B: Focuses on limiting redundancy in the charter, deleting or amending provisions which are already covered under Texas state law, that duplicate other sections of the charter, or are otherwise not needed in the charter. "A lot of the sections of the charter weren't really needed because state law already said this and gave us the powers," Scott said. "We propose taking all of those sections out in Measure B."

• Measure C: Requires councilmen and councilwomen to reside in the district they represent. Discussion

Scenic Mountain Medical Center Auxiliary is ready to bring back the jewelry sale May 20-21

Retail therapy can do wonders, but it's even better when that retail therapy offers support for a local organization. Scenic Mountain Medical Center Auxiliary's annual jewelry sale is set for May 20 from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and May 21 from 7 a.m. until 2 p.m., in the West Texas Medical Plaza lobby. Monies raised from the sale benefit the SMMC Auxiliary.

"This is one of the biggest fundraisers the volunteers have each year. It is a great opportunity to start working on your Christmas list for the year," April Arms, SMMC Executive Assistant, said. "This allows for an opportunity to purchase some unique items and support a good cause at the same time."

Last year the jewelry sale had to be put on hold due to the pandemic. However, the sale will be able to take place this year, with social distancing and the use of masks being required. Throughout the year, the volunteers hold fundraisers and take in donations, which are then distributed back into the hospital and the community. In addition to the jewelry sale, they have a bake sale, operate the gift shop and sale popcorn.

"This past year, the sale of popcorn was also put on hold with the pandemic, and the gift shop had limited hours to help do our part in slowing the spread and keeping our community, staff, guests and visitors safe," Arms said.

"While the majority of the funds have been used to support different areas of the hospital, the outreach doesn't stop there. The ladies love to get involved and lend a helping hand, wherever there is a need."

Over the years, funds have been used to purchase new chairs, redo the gift shop, and purchase new furniture for the lobby. The group has also provided scholarships for those who decide to go back to school to further their certifications and those who are entering the nursing program.

"We hope that the community will come out and see what they can find. There really is something for everyone included in the sale. We call it a jewelry sale, but there are clothes, children's items, purses and even some gift items for men," Arms said. "This is also a great time for anyone interested in volunteering to come out and speak to one of our volunteers and see some of the things that we do."

The West Texas Medical Plaza is located at 1601 W. Eleventh Place, next to Scenic Mountain Medical Center. For more information, or to find out how to donate to the SMMC Auxiliary, call April Arms at 432-268-4907.

Deaths of Texans not wearing seat belts spiked 16% in 2020

AUSTIN— Despite a drop in the number of traffic crashes throughout the year, 2020 saw a spike in the number of fatalities overall and deaths of people in Texas from not wearing a seat belt. That's why TxDOT is reminding everyone that buckling up is the best defense in a crash.

Last year, the simple act of buckling up saved many Texans from death or serious injury in crashes. Unfortunately, in 2020 there was a 16% increase in deaths of unbuckled motorists. There were 1,073 fatalities in 2020 and 926 fatalities in 2019 due to people not wearing seat belts.

Putting on a seat belt only takes a few seconds and doing so reduces the risk of dying by up to 45% for people in the front seat of passenger cars and up to 60% for people in pickup trucks. "This past year we have all been reminded of the simple acts we can take to protect our lives and those of our loved ones," said TxDOT Executive Director James Bass. "Wearing a seat belt is the most important step we can take to protect ourselves from serious injury or even death in a traffic crash. Instead of putting yourself and others in danger, remember: buckle up day and night, every rider, every ride."

Research shows pickup truck drivers and passengers continue to lag in seat belt use. Close to half of all pickup drivers killed in crashes last year in Texas were not wearing a seat belt. Additionally, people driving at night wear their seat belt less often, even though it's a more dangerous time to drive. Last year, 59% of all crashes in which unbuckled drivers or passengers died occurred at night.

From May 24 to June 6, as the summer driving season starts and families head out to celebrate Memorial Day, Texas officers and deputies will step up enforcement of the state's seat belt and child car seat laws. Texas law requires everyone in a vehicle to be properly secured in the front or back seat or face fines and fees up to $200. Children younger than 8 years old must be restrained in a child safety seat or booster seat unless they are taller than 4 feet 9 inches. If a child isn't secured, the driver faces fines of up to $250.

From 2002 to 2019, the Click It or Ticket initiative in Texas is estimated to have saved more than 6,000 lives, prevented more than 100,000 serious injuries, and resulted in $23.6 billion in economic savings, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

The Click It or Ticket campaign is a key component of #EndTheStreakTX, a broader social media and word-of-mouth effort that encourages drivers to make safer choices while behind the wheel such as wearing a seat belt, driving the speed limit, never texting and driving, and never driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. November 7, 2000 was the last deathless day on Texas roadways. #EndTheStreakTX asks all Texans to commit to driving safely to help end the streak of daily deaths on Texas roadways.

during the meeting questioned what would happen to council members already elected who do not reside in the district they represent, should Measure C be adopted. "That person would finish out their term, but at that time that they may seek re-election from that same district, they could not seek re-election in that district," Hagen said. "They could seek election in another district, or obviously for Mayor."

• Measure D: Clarifies that the city attorney, internal auditor and city judge are appointed by the City Council.

• Measure E: Updates the current charter, changing gendered pronouns in several Articles to gender-neutral pronouns.

• Measure F: Authorizes the City Council to either appoint an individual to a vacant council seat or call a special election when there are less than 180 days remaining in the term of the vacant office.

• Measure G: Clarifies the existing term limits for the city's elected officials – no more than two consecutive terms, and no re-election within six years from the end of any two consecutive terms.

• Measure H: Clarifies the existing requirement that any elected city official who is appointed to or becomes a candidate for any local, state or federal office automatically resigns their City Council seat.

• Measure I: Deletes a provision in the Charter requiring a disciplinary hearing for city employees before complaints about them could be considered. "We want the council to understand that, by taking that out of the charter, we're not really removing discipline actions and hearings," said Charter Review Committee member Nati Saldivar. "The committee feels that, as a policy, the city should take care of it and it should not be placed on the charter."

• Measure J: Removes a requirement that council members must provide a bond upon being elected to office.

"That has not been a practice that we know of, ever, so we took it out of the charter," Scott said.

• Measure K: Defines the city's fiscal year as starting October 1 of each year.

• Measure L: Clarifies the terms of city "officers" and "employees" as they apply to the city's employment practices.

• Measure M: Enumerates the powers and responsibilities of Big Spring's Mayor and Mayor Pro-Tempore.

• Measure N: Provides for selection and appointment of an Acting City Manager to take the place of the City Manager during his or her absence.

• Measure O: Provides for the appointment and removal of the presiding and associate City Judges of the municipal court.

• Measure P: Requires creation of a Charter Review

Committee a minimum of every four years.

• Measure Q: Changes the deadline to provide notice of damage or injury to the city from 30 days to 90 days.

• Measure R: Amends and updates the procedure for recalling elected city officials.

• Measure S: Sets the number of council members required to call a special meeting of the council at one, instead of three as in the current charter.

• Measure T: Amends and updates the procedure for initiative, wherein private local citizens can, through petition, propose and require the council to consider a specific ordinance; and referendum, wherein private local citizens can petition requiring the council to reconsider an ordinance already adopted.

• Measure U: Authorizes the City Council to make non-substantive numbering, spelling, punctuation and vocabulary changes to the City Charter when necessary.

Big Spring Steer Football is back: Big 7-on-7 tournament to kick off Saturday

By DUSTIN POPE

Herald Sports Writer

Football fans, you are in for a thrill this weekend. The Big Spring Steers are hosting a huge 7-on-7 Football tournament this Saturday, May 15. The tournament will have a field of 12 teams. Big Spring, Snyder, and Seminole will make up Pool A. Midland Christian, Lubbock High, and San Angelo Central are in Pool B. Pool C will be San Angelo Lakeview, Brownfield, and Greenwood. Group D has Crane, Wink, and Sonora.

The action will kick off this Saturday at 9 a.m. The games will take place at Memorial Stadium and Blankenship Field. If you have never seen 7-on-7 Football, you are in for a thrill. It is a high-paced style of football. They decreased the field down to 45 yards. There are markers every 15 yards. If the team can get three first downs without a penalty, it is a Touchdown. All plays must be passed; there are no running plays also no kicking or punting. The runner is down when the opposing team touches him. Each half is 15 minutes. 7 on 7 is an appealing brand of football that is satisfying to attend.

This will be a 12-team warmup tournament. The Steers open up Pool

A play when they take on the Snyder Tigers at Memorial Stadium at 9 a.m. The second game for Pool A will pit Snyder against Seminole at 10 a.m. Then third game for Pool A will start at 11 a.m. and has the Big Spring Steers facing off against Seminole. Pool B will begin at Blankenship Field at 9 a.m. and will start with Midland Christian taking on Lubbock High. Game Two will be at 10 a.m. and finds Midland Christian facing off against San Angelo Central. The last match of Pool B will be at 11 a.m. when San Angelo Central faces Lubbock High. Pool C will be at Blankenship Field. They set the first game of the day for 9 a.m. and finds San Angelo Lakeview taking on Greenwood. The game at 10 a.m. will be San Angelo Lakeview against Brownfield. The last match of Pool C is at 11 a.m., and it will be Greenwood against Brownfield. Group D will likewise take place at Blankenship Field. It kicks off at 9 a.m. with Crane against Wink. The 10 a.m. game will be Wall vs. Sonora, and the last match of Pool D will be at 11 a.m., and it will be Crane battling Sonora.

After the round-robin play of each Pool, the top two seeds in each Pool will advance to the playoffs, a single-elimination tournament. After a break, the teams will go back to work at 1 p.m. at Memorial Stadium. The winner of Pool A will face off against the second-place team of Pool D. Then second-place team of Pool A will play the First-place team of Pool B. At 2 p.m., the single-elimination tournament will continue when the top team from Pool B plays the second seed for Pool C. Then second-place seed from Pool B will take on the top finisher in Pool C. The semifinals will be held at 3 p.m. when the winners from the 1 p.m. games will play each other, thus the squads who win the 2 p.m. games will play. Then the winner of those two games will play in the overall championship. They set the Showdown for a 4 p.m. start.

One of the cool things that will happen at this tournament is that they will raise money for a significant cause, Hope for Hailey. Hailey Williams is a 14-year-old Forsan native diagnosed with Ewing Sarcoma; She had her first round of chemotherapy on May 10. They will have a table set up to collect any donations for this young lady. Big Spring will also have a concession stand, and all the proceeds will go to the Williams family. She also has a GoFundMe page; all you have to do is go to GoFundMe.com and search for Hailey Williams. Let's all turn out and watch some good football, all while helping Hailey and her family.

Two local athletes sign on to continue athletic careers

Courtesy Photos

Top Left: Rylee Evans signs with McMurry University to continue her basketball career. Evans averaged 15.6 points, 4.6 rebounds, 3.6 steals, and 3.7 assist this year. She was also named the District 8-2A overall MVP of the year. She scored a fantastic 1,500 points in her career at Forsan. Evans was also named to the first-team All-Big Country team, Co-Offensive MVP Super Team, Co-offensive MVP 2A all West Texas Team. She was also the first team All-State academic. Top Right Phillip Lopez is signing to continue his golfing career at the University of the Southwest in Hobbs, N.M. Phillip is not only a fantastic golfer but an even better young man. This young man will go on to do great things in Hobbs. Congratulations to both of these exceptional local athletes. We wish you all the best in your next step in your athletic journeys.

Astros slug season-high 5 homers to rout Angels 9-1

By KRISTIE RIEKEN

AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON— José Altuve and Yuli Gurriel homered early as the Houston Astros hit a season-high five long balls Wednesday night in a 9-1 win over the Los Angeles Angels.

Altuve launched a leadoff homer and Gurriel, who also went deep Tuesday, added his two-run shot later in the first inning. Kyle Tucker also connected for a second straight game when he smacked another two-run drive off Andrew Heaney (1-3) in the sixth to make it 5-0.

"Guys are getting good pitches to hit and keeping pitchers in the stretch," Astros manager Dusty Baker said. "Hitting's contagious and just keep them coming."

Houston starter José Urquidy allowed two hits and struck out four in 3 2/3 innings before leaving with posterior shoulder discomfort.

"His strike-to-ball rate was outstanding and then all of a sudden he lost his velocity," Baker said. "He said he was feeling some discomfort behind his shoulder."

Brandon Bielak (2-2) was solid after Urquidy's early exit, giving up just two hits and a run in 3 1/3 innings for the win.

"He wasn't trying too hard tonight," Baker said. "We told him to try less and be natural. He gave us all that we needed."

Yordan Álvarez hit a solo homer and Chas McCormick added a three-run shot in the eighth to help the Astros win their second consecutive series after they also took two of three from the Blue Jays.

Angels two-way star Shohei Ohtani batted lead-off, making him the first player to do so the day after a pitching start since Ray Caldwell for the Yankees in July 1916. Ohtani, who struck out 10 in seven innings on Tuesday night, went 0 for 4 with two strikeouts on Wednesday.

Angels manager Joe Maddon was asked if he thought fatigue played into Ohtani's off night at the plate.

"He may have been fatigued tonight but he didn't relate that to me," Maddon said. "He'll get a nice day off tomorrow and then he'll just hit for a couple of days."

Heaney yielded a season-high nine hits with five runs in 5 1/3 innings for his second straight loss.

Altuve sent the first pitch he saw off the foul pole in left field. There were two outs in the first inning when Álvarez singled, and Gurriel made it 3-0 with his opposite-field shot to the front row of seats in right.

Carlos Correa singled after that before Heaney settled down, retiring 12 of the next 13 before Michael Brantley and Alex Bregman hit consecutive singles with two outs in the fifth.

Correa singled again with one out in the sixth before Tucker chased Heaney with his towering shot to the second deck in right field to push the lead to 5-0.

"The first inning happened and all I could do after that was put up zeros," Heaney said. "I tried to keep us in it. The way it ended was a backbreaker."

There were two outs in the fourth when Urquidy was injured. Pitching coach Brent Strom and a trainer came on the field to check on him before they summoned Baker, and Urquidy was removed from the game.

The Angels cut it to 5-1 on a sacrifice fly by Drew Butera in the eighth.

Jupiter Goes Swimming

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Your creative endeavors are like a net you cast into the world. They will bring you some of the things you chase, as well as what just happened to be drifting by, caught in the middle of that pursuit.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Getting positive feedback and encouragement is helpful but not as helpful as the criticism that will shine light on where you can improve. Dare to ask for that, and you'll get both respect and valuable information.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Limits lift with the acceptance of this truth: Our minds, as reliable as they may be, can only witness the smallest slice of any reality. Wisdom is not knowing more but embracing that you don't.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Today, you will read the signs better than the Oracle at Delphi herself. Just remember that criticism isn't a sign that you shouldn't be doing a thing, it's actually just an opportunity to get better. Everyone can get better.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Nobody likes to do what they are not good at. When you're not enjoying the work, the culprit is a knowledge gap that needs filling. Take a breath, stay receptive to learning, and it will get better.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Since you

Tomorrow's Horoscope

BY HOLIDAY MATHIS

can't prove it either way, you may as well believe that this destiny unfolding includes the right people at the right time and the opportunities that lead to your ultimate fulfillment and what's best for all.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You made your choice, and now you're baffled as to why. You cannot remember your reasons, if you had them. Did outside forces have a hand in this fate? Perhaps, though it is yours to handle now, and handle it you will.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Everyone has their own private worries. You're braver about this than most. You realize that hiding can be more energy than it's worth. You also know that your story cannot inspire other people if you don't tell it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Taking on too much leads to diminished results in all categories. But how do you tamp down the ambition that swells in you? Maybe you can't, but instead of rushing to tell everyone, air it somewhere safe, like a diary.

CAPRICORN (Dec.

22-Jan. 19). One difference between a bouquet of wild roses and a bouquet of weeds is that the wild roses can draw blood. Expensive tastes require sacrifice that may or may not be worth it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Contrast helps us see. The negative space is as much a part of the silhouette as the object itself. You'll understand what matters because it will stand out against a backdrop of so much that doesn't.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). It's hard to say why people come down hard on one another, but usually, it's about something different than the situation at hand. You've a gift for steering clear of drama and staying in your own business.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (May 13). Your cosmic birthday boon is a well-focused supply of fearlessness. It allows you to trade in the change you thought you wanted for a fresh idea just coming into your realm. Breezy connections develop into deep bonds. Lifestyle upgrades will be affordable and in fact you'll be paid to teach others the change you created in yourself. Virgo and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 9, 30, 22, 1 and 10.

COSMIC QUESTION: "I'm a 30-year-old Aquarius, and I live with my parents. They don't mind that I live at home, but they wish I'd marry someone. I never met anyone I felt like marrying. When I turned 24, my mom sent me to Korea to meet a man she thought was perfect for me. This man couldn't have been a worse match. After that, my mother seemed to give up on me ever getting married. I like to date and go out and have fun. My mother doesn't understand. She blows up at me. I'm not willing to get married just so my parents can be happy. Do you think I'll ever find love?"

Aquarius isn't naturally inclined to abide by traditions except for the ones that Aquarius creates. You are the sign of tomorrow. You often open people's minds to new ways of operating in society. That said, your audience would be more receptive when you find some common ground in which to align with their interests. If you are not going to follow your family traditions, you need to give your mother and father new reasons to respect you. Find meaningful work and contribute to your household and family in ways they find invaluable. You will find love as you learn to make cherished contributions to others.

Opening lead — six of clubs.

Assume you're in three notrump and West leads a club. There seem to be many chances for the contract, but if you relax your vigil for even a moment, you will wind up taking second money at the end.

Let's say you win the club with the king and play a low heart to the queen, which wins the trick. You then lead a low spade to the ace, but what you do next doesn't really matter, because as the cards lie, you must eventually go down at least one.

If you try to establish the hearts, you'll find yourself short one entry to dummy to cash them. And if you go after spades instead, you'll find you can't score more than two tricks in that suit. Yet the fact is that the contract is ice-cold from the start — regardless of how the opposing cards are divided.

All you have to do is to lead the king of hearts from dummy at trick two! It may seem unduly extravagant to waste the king and queen of hearts on the same trick, but this is a luxury you can easily afford because it guarantees at least 10 tricks. So, regardless of how much that play may run against the grain, it is the only way to ensure the contract.

In the actual deal, East wins either the first heart or the next one and returns a club. You play the nine, losing to West's jack, but whatever West does next, the only other trick you lose is a second heart.

Tomorrow: Bidding quiz.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

Hoping for a Passionate Love

Dear Annie: After years of being in an ice-cold marriage for many years, I have finally divorced. I am in my late 60s, active, fit and interested in dating and meeting "the right guy." I have lots of friends and many are single women. I have heard so many stories, some hilarious and some disastrous, of people in my age group dating. One thing that has piqued my curiosity is that many stories include disappointment in the intimacy department. It appears that women my age are more interested and capable than men are in this area of the relationship. Is it true? I am still hopeful that I can find a well-rounded, monogamous, fulfilling relationship -- even at this age. Say it isn't true! -- Looking for Love

Dear Looking: The bad news is that men tend to experience lower libido as they get older, and erectile dysfunction is also common. This can be due to hormonal changes, medications (including ACE inhibitors), mood disorders or, in the case of erectile dysfunction, cardiovascular trouble. The good news is that it's not inevitable. And men who lead a fit, healthy lifestyle are less likely to have these issues. Get out there and start meeting people, and you may be pleasantly surprised.

Dear Annie: I've known my friend since sixth grade. We talk on the phone a few times a week, and she says that I am her best friend. She and her husband moved to Florida a little over four years ago. Every time she's come back to visit -- four times so far -- she's not made time to see me. I live 90 minutes away from where she stays and always invite her to come to see me. I even offer to meet halfway to have dinner or lunch, but she says she can't because she has family to see.

When I traveled down to Florida once, this friend kept telling me that I had to come see her. My time was also limited because I also had family to visit, but I extended my vacation two days to see her. I feel like she puts no effort when it comes to seeing me. I feel like a phone buddy. Do you have advice? -- Backburner Friend

Dear Backburner: This is a dilemma all transplants face when returning home for visits: how to divvy their time between friends and family without leaving anyone feeling shortchanged. Reiterate to her how much it would mean for her to pay you a visit. If she feels too pressured to spend all her time in that region with family, then plan a girls' trip where the two of you meet in another town for a weekend. Make it a yearly or twice-yearly tradition. And savor the fact that you have such a close friendship.

Dear Annie: In the current April 2021 edition of the AARP Bulletin is an in-depth article "Inside an International Tech-Support Scam." If you can acquire a copy, the information in this article could give you a tremendous amount of ammunition with which to assist those such as "Love Two Men." I doubt if AARP would object to your sharing such information. Your inclusion of warnings from the FBI triggered my idea to share with you the above-mentioned resource. -- Jim Banks

Dear Jim: Thank you for the tip about this compelling investigative report from AARP. I encourage everyone to find it online at the following URL: <https://www.aarp.org/money/scams-fraud/info-2021/international-tech-support-scam-exposed.html>. It's worth your time.
