Herald Staff Report

Throughout the school year, the Big Spring Rotary Club recognizes area high school students for their academic and athletic achievements. During a recent meeting of the Rotary Club, the Coahoma High School Student of the Month for May was recognized.

Coahoma High School Senior Noah Dials was nominated by CHS and recognized by the club for his hard work and dedication to getting the job done.

"Noah is such a hard-working student who keeps his head down and gets the job done. He is a quiet student who does everything that is asked of him, but does it without others noticing. Noah was one of the first high school students I met," Karen Rechichar, Coahoma High School Counselor, said. "I started my new job as High School Counselor and was working in the summer, and I remember meeting with him and his mother to see how to get Noah back on track to graduate."

Dials had slipped off course in the transition of switching schools and the order that classes

Finding the beauty in the moment throughout the community

HERALD Staff Report

Local resident, Anthony Villalpando, is in the process of starting up his own photography business. In the process, he is attending local events to capture photographs, exploring the community landscaping and capturing the beauty that the community holds.

A few of his focuses include special occasions and the scenes left behind after storms. While there are a few edits that take place, he tries to keep as much of the original, natural look in all his photographs.

were taken, according to Rechichar.

“The counselor at the time said you can work on this credit during the summer to get back on track with the other students. I remember thinking, ‘Wow, this student must be driven to do that during the summer,’” she said.

Dials did what he set out to do, and he got back on track over the summer break. While many students and teachers were trying to navigate through the quarantine, Dials was still trying to make sure he stayed on track to graduate.

“Noah called me and was asking how to get some credits knocked out during summer. This way he would be eligible to take as many dual credit classes as possible during the school year this year,” she said. “Well, he did that again during summer last year. Not many students would do what he did, just to get ahead. Noah would have been fine to graduate the way he came in, but that was not good enough for him, he wanted more.”

In addition to the positive things said by the high school counselor, teachers and administration spoke highly of Dials. He is recognized as a hard worker and always puts academics first. He participated in sports all four years of high school. He was also a member of the National Honor Society from his sophomore year on.

He plans on attending The University of Houston to get his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and become a Criminal Defense Attorney. Coahoma is so proud of Noah and is excited to see what becomes of his future.

Please join us this week at one of the following events:

Sunday, June 6 - Join us this Sunday at 9 a.m. & 11 a.m. for our onsite worship service. You can find our CCC Live Worship Experience online at facebook.com/CCCBigSpring or at Cornerstone Covenant Church Live on YouTube.

Wednesday, June 9 - Join us ONSITE Wednesday at 7 p.m. for our Man Camp bible study service. Men will meet every first & third Wednesday in the Main Sanctuary. Men will gather in a circle table format and will be challenged as men to recognize and claim the standard of greatness that God has set forth in His Word. Men will learn what it means to be a kingdom man who accepts responsibility for his domain of influence; who lives by kingdom principles; and who devotes his life to advancing God's kingdom at home, at church and in the world.

Wednesday, June 16 - Join us ONSITE this Wednesday at 7 p.m. For our Ladies Night Bible Study. Women will be studying Hosea: Unfailing Love Changes Everything. In a circle table format we will learn about unlikely couple, an unusual courtship, and an illicit affair. Through it all there was not a divorce; instead, a love story grew. It's Hosea and Gomer's love story. When you're looking for identity, God calls you His own. When you feel enslaved, God frees you. When you wander away, God brings you home. No matter where you are, God sees who you are and loves you faithfully. Let's learn together about His unfailing love and how it changes everything.

Transportation Ministry - You need a ride to church? CCC offers pick-up services on Sundays for our 11 a.m. worship service. If you are needing a ride for Sunday please contact the church office.

This Date In History

Today is Friday, June 4, the 155th day of 2021. There are 210 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On June 4, 1919, Congress approved the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which said that the right to vote could not be denied or abridged based on gender.

On this date:

In 1812, the Louisiana Territory was renamed the Missouri Territory, to avoid confusion with the recently admitted state of Louisiana.

In 1912, Massachusetts became the first state to adopt a minimum wage law.

In 1939, the German ocean liner MS St. Louis, carrying more than 900 Jewish refugees from Germany, was turned away from the Florida coast by U.S. officials.

In 1940, during World War II, the Allied military evacuation of some 338,000 troops from Dunkirk, France, ended. British Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared: "We shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender."

In 1942, the World War II Battle of Midway began, resulting in a decisive American victory against Japan and marking the turning point of the war in the Pacific.

In 1972, a jury in San Jose, California, acquitted radical activist Angela Davis of murder and kidnapping for her alleged connection to a deadly courthouse shootout in Marin County in 1970.

In 1977, the VHS home videocassette recorder was introduced to North America by JVC during a press conference in Chicago.

In 1985, the Supreme Court upheld a lower court ruling striking down an Alabama law providing for a daily minute of science in public schools.

In 1986, Jonathan Jay Pollard, a former U.S. Navy intelligence analyst, pleaded guilty in Washington to conspiring to deliver information related to the national defense to Israel. (Pollard, sentenced to life in prison, was released on parole on Nov. 20, 2015.)

In 1989, a gas explosion in the Soviet Union engulfed two passing trains, killing 575.

In 1990, Dr. Jack Keivorkian carried out his first publicly assisted suicide, helping Janet Adkins, a 54-year-old Alzheimer's patient from Portland, Oregon, end her life in Oakland County, Michigan.

In 1998, a federal judge sentenced Terry Nichols to life in prison for his role in the 1995 bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City.

Ten years ago: China's Li Na captured her first Grand Slam singles title, becoming the first tennis player from China to achieve such a feat; Na beat Francesca Schiavone 6-4, 7-6 (0) in the French Open final. Former Secretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger, 80, died in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Five years ago: A day after the death of Muhammad Ali, President Barack Obama said the boxing legend "shook up the world and the world is better for it," and that Ali stood with Martin Luther King Jr. and Nelson Mandela in fighting for what was right. Hillary Clinton scored a sweeping win in the U.S. Virgin Islands, picking up all seven pledged delegates at stake as she inched tantalizingly close to the Democratic nomination. Garbine Muguruza (GAHR'-been-yuh MOO'-guh-roo-sah) won her first Grand Slam title by beating defending champion Serena Williams 7-5, 6-4 at the French Open.

One year ago: In the first of a series of memorials set for three cities over six days, celebrities, musicians and political leaders gathered in front of George Floyd's golden casket in Minneapolis. Protesters stayed on the streets of New York City after curfew for another day. Major cities across California lifted curfews amid more peaceful demonstrations over Floyd's death. In an incident captured by a TV news crew, a 75-year-old protester, Martin Gugino, fell and hit his head on the pavement after being pushed backward by two police officers in Buffalo, New York, who were clearing demonstrators from in front of City Hall. (Gugino spent about a month in the hospital with a fractured skull and a brain injury; the officers were suspended without pay, but criminal charges against them were eventually dropped.) Virginia Gov. Ralph Northam said a statue of Confederate Gen.

Robert E. Lee would be removed from Richmond's Monument Avenue, and that the state would no longer "preach a false version of history." Casinos in Las Vegas and throughout Nevada reopened for the first time since March. A judge rejected Ponzi king Bernard Madoff's bid for early release from his 150-year prison sentence. (Madoff died in prison in April 2021.)

Annie's Mailbox

Long-Distance Boyfriend

Dear Annie: I have dated a guy for the last six years, always long-distance. I have loved this man with my whole heart. The issue is we have not met each other's families. He has never met my kids and doesn't even want to. He will not acknowledge our relationship on his social media profiles. His parents know nothing of me. We do not spend holidays or birthdays together. We do not go on dates. The last time we saw each other in person was two years ago. He barely even texts me. There is always an excuse as to why he is unavailable. Yet he claims that he loves me. I just don't get it. I want to leave, but I care about him so much. What do I do? -- Mixed Signals

Dear Mixed: This man sounds more like a pen pal than a boyfriend (and not a very good pen pal, at that). You deserve to be with someone who wants to see you often, spend holidays together, introduce you to his family and meet your children -- in short, someone who wants to be with you. You'll never meet him if you're too busy staring at your phone waiting to hear from this guy. Break it off, stat.

Dear Annie: We have periodic overnight visits with my sister-in-law, "Lindsay," and her boyfriend, "Luis," who live out of state. We would either visit them at their house or host them at ours if there is some family event going on. We love them both, and they are both lovely people to spend time with -- except for this problem we are experiencing.

When we get together, we usually spend the evenings watching TV or movies together. Every time, as soon as we settle down and start a movie, Luis starts falling asleep and snoring -- really loudly. Lindsay will wake him up. He'll stop for a minute. And then, a short time later, he starts snoring again. This goes on all night and really ruins the evening. My husband sits there very irritated the whole time. Eventually, I say I'm tired and go to bed early. We have suggested he go to bed, but he just says he's awake now, and then the snoring cycle starts all over again.

Do you have any suggestions on how we can handle this situation? -- Can't Hear the Movie

Dear Can't: Try starting movies earlier in the night and leaving some lights on. If the snooze fest goes on, issue him a gentle wake-up call on the matter -- something friendly but direct, such as: "We love spending time with you, but your snoring makes it hard to hear the movie. Mind heading up to bed when you get sleepy?" Also, recommend that he talk to his doctor about being screened for sleep apnea. Sleep apnea can cause snoring and, because it prevents people from getting a full night's sleep, chronic fatigue.

Dear Annie: We were invited to spend the day with old friends. I thought it would be a nice gesture to bring a bottle of wine. It is one they were unfamiliar with.

We arrived at their home, and I gave them the wine. But it was never opened in our presence. I was disappointed. I was looking forward to sharing a glass with them. Is it common courtesy to open or at least offer a glass of wine when you brought it to share? Or is it a gift one should not have any rights to? -- Mouth Still Watering in Idaho

Dear Mouth Still Watering: When bringing a bottle of wine to a friend's house, traditional etiquette holds that it's a host/hostess gift for them to enjoy when they'd like. Next time a bottle captures your interest, buy an extra to enjoy at home later.

Bidding quiz

You are South, and the bidding has gone:

East	South	West	North
1♦	Dble	1♠	Pass
Pass	?

What would you bid now with each of the following four hands?

- ♠A5♥AQ98♦K3♣KQJ42
- ♠A1093♥K85♦K94♣KJ2
- ♠A82♥AQ8♦9♣AKQ1043
- ♠KQ3♥A92♦A102♣AQJ5

1. Double. This is a takeout double, just as your previous one was. Basically, this double asks partner to bid hearts or clubs, the two suits the opponents haven't bid. At the same time, the second double tells partner you have values well beyond those implied by the initial double.

A two-club bid, instead of a second double, would be wrong on two counts. First, it would understate your actual values. Second, it could also result in winding up in the wrong suit, clubs, instead of the right suit, hearts. The best way to find the proper denomination is to double again and let partner choose the suit.

2. Pass. You have no extra values beyond those you already indicated, so you should pass one spade. Your partner had a chance to bid voluntarily over one spade and turned it down. If you were to bid one notrump at this stage, you'd be looking for trouble. Besides, West might have difficulty making one spade, since he will be playing the hand in your best suit.

3. Three clubs. This bid, in conjunction with your earlier double, indicates pretty closely the values you have. It shows that your hand was not only too good for a two-club bid on the previous round, but also too good for a two-club bid now, even after having doubled.

Three clubs urges partner to bid three notrump with a diamond stopper and very little more, since you've guaranteed a strong club suit and an excellent all-around hand.

4. One notrump. This might seem a gross underbid given your 20 high-card points, but you must face the realities of the situation. The chance of finding your partner with six or more points is almost nil; he is much more likely to be in the zero- to three-point range. You should therefore restrain yourself and try to reach the safest partscore contract possible.

Note that in the present case, as contrasted with the first problem, you don't double for takeout a second time. This is because your distribution here is notrump-oriented rather than suit-oriented. Besides, your partner still has the option of bidding a five-card (or longer) heart or club suit at this stage if he is so inclined.

Cosmic Color Wheel

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You appreciate the people who tune into you without making you work for it. You don't have to raise your voice to be heard. It is with soft insistence that you make your point or get your way.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You'll take notice of those who seem to be misreading reality. They likely have a personal motive for doing so, but who doesn't? That's the thing about reality -- everyone gets to have one.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). As infinite as your soul may be, you've plenty of internal resources that are as exhaustible as any external resource. Come from a soulful place and avoid depletion.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Often, from inside a dream, you don't realize that you're dreaming until you start coming out of the thing. At that point, you can see the available option of waking up. Today brings a similar dynamic.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Maybe you didn't plan it just right, or maybe you left just the opening that destiny needed to stick a hand in. So waste no time in worry. Use what you have then back off and accept the assist.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The marketplace will take whatever money you have to throw at it. If you want to fix the problem for $10, you can. If you want to fix it for $10,000, you can. Get informed.

Stories don't last if they are not told and re-told. So don't worry about whether you said it before, especially if it's part of your family heritage. Say it again. You learn and share something a little different every time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You don't have to have the same taste as someone to appreciate your connection. You'll experience things together, each with a takeaway that is different from and enhanced by the other.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You don't think about it much, nor do you walk around feeling any different from anyone else. And yet, your unique past has made you stronger. You continue to draw strength and ideas from what you learned back there.

but it's the sort of job that is easier to do than avoid. Also, being the one who handles things without hesitation or complaint makes you awesome.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You prefer to surround yourself with items that have use and meaning to you; otherwise, it's more to organize with very little reward for doing so. What story do your material possessions tell about you?

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 4). You make unorthodox choices with results so interesting you'll talk and teach on the subject of your own unconventionality. But now, it's about figuring out how things fit together as well as finding and cherishing the people who help you make it work. Success springs from your light, flexible and experimental approach. Libra and Leo adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 8, 40, 6, 13 and 22.

WEEKEND LOVE FORECAST: ARIES: Theoretically, you can have a wonderful time without falling in love, although it usually doesn't go that way. TAURUS: Love is a tango -- strong and sudden movement, synchronicity and passion. GEMINI: You're like a mirror to someone. The question is this: How flattering a mirror do you want to be? CANCER: There's a showiness to the proceedings, a glamour infusion that's come just in time. LEO: A little planning and excitement, some work, some rest... the love sector thrives on this recipe. VIRGO: Love is a slippery slope, and one you'll have fun sliding down. LIBRA: People get bored of too much of one thing, so you're sure to hit a range. SCORPIO: Someone is trying to elicit a very specific response from you and will not give up until you've given it. Of course, you can always walk away. SAGITTARIUS: You will be comforted by someone's presence. CAPRICORN: You'll adore most the one who inspires your creativity. AQUARIUS: Ever just, you only want the amount of attention you can comfortably return. PISCES: If you can't leave someone alone, blame the invisible ties that bind. What can you put into the air that will reveal how you're connected?

COUPLE OF THE WEEKEND: Staying home together, which has been the safest choice for so many months, will be among the weekend's least appealing options for high-energy Aries and Gemini. Of course, their relationship is, in and of itself, a kind of escape from the world's way of thinking and doing things. These two create their own ecosystem where the sky is lit by possibility and rushing waters of novelty collide on excitement's shore.

Level: Advanced

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Batter up: Things to know about NCAA baseball regionals

By ERIC OLSON

AP Sports Writer

OMAHA, Neb.— The NCAA baseball tournament, canceled last year because of the COVID-19 pandemic, opens Friday with play in 16 double-elimination regionals. Regional winners advance to best-of-three super regionals next week, and the final eight go to the College World Series in Omaha beginning June 19. Some of the top story lines:

WHO'S HOT

VCU is on a 21-game win streak that's the nation's longest and a program record. Don't count out the Rams. They made it to super regionals in 2015, their most recent tournament appearance. Freshman third baseman Tyler Locklear is the Atlantic 10 player and rookie of the year.

Wright State and Duke, which as the No. 9 seed won its first ACC Tournament, each are on 12-game win streaks.

WHO'S NOT

Arizona State, the No. 2 seed in the Austin Regional, comes on in its first three-game losing streak of the season. The Sun Devils were swept for the first time this season, by UCLA, and their 3-0 loss Sunday marked the first time they've been shut out.

NAME YOU KNOW

Kumar Rocker is back. The Vanderbilt sophomore dazzled on the national stage in the 2019 tournament, pitching a no-hitter against Duke in super regionals and being named CWS Most Outstanding Player. He got roughed up by Arkansas in the SEC Tournament last week, but he enters regionals 11-3 with a 2.86 ERA.

NAME YOU DON'T KNOW

Nevada senior first baseman Dillan Shrum leads the nation with a .479 batting average, is slugging

.992 and is first in the Mountain West with 15 homers. He's gone deep five straight games and in eight of the last nine. He ended the regular season by going 12 for 15 with six homers, a double, 14 RBIs and 12 runs in four wins over San Jose State.

BEEN THERE, DONE THAT

Florida State, at 43 in a row, owns the longest active streak of NCAA appearances. Vanderbilt, at 15 straight, has the second-longest streak, followed by Florida (13). Texas is making its 60th appearance since 1947, most of any school.

FIRST-TIMERS

Four teams are in the field for the first time: Grand Canyon (WAC), NJIT (America East), Norfolk State (MEAC) and Presbyterian (Big South).

MAINIERI'S SWAN SONG

LSU's Paul Mainieri will begin his 21st, and final, national tournament when the Tigers play Gonzaga in Eugene, Oregon. The 63-year-old Mainieri last week announced he would retire after a combined 39 seasons at St. Thomas, Air Force, Notre Dame and LSU.

Mainieri's 1,501 career wins are most by an active coach and seventh all-time. He's taken 12 of his 15 LSU teams to the tournament, five to the CWS, and won the 2009 national championship.

BAD TIMING

Fairfield will be without Metro Atlantic Conference player of the year Mike Caruso when the Stags play Arizona State in Austin, Texas. The senior catcher and team captain broke his jaw when he was hit by a pitch in practice. Caruso led the team and ranked ninth nationally on a .414 batting average, and his .532 on-base percentage is the highest in program history.

CALL KOPPS

Kevin Kopps of No. 1 overall seed Arkansas has established himself as one of the best college relievers of all time. The SEC pitcher of the year on Thursday became the first reliever to be named Collegiate Baseball national player of the year in the 34 years the publication has given the award. The sixth-year senior is 10-0 with 10 saves in a team-high 66 1/3 innings — an amazing number for a closer — and his 0.81 ERA leads the nation. He has 105 strikeouts against just 15 walks.

BIG BOPPERS

Old Dominion leads the nation with 101 homers in 56 games, the most since Tennessee Tech went deep 135 times in 65 games in 2018. Three Old Dominion players have double-digit dingers, and nine have more than five.

South Carolina's Wes Clarke and Florida State's Mat Nelson share the national lead with 22 homers apiece. Northeastern's Jared Dupere has a school-record 21 homers in 46 games.

WELL-ARMED

Fairfield is first nationally with a 2.75 ERA and 1.03 walks/hits per innings pitched, Mississippi State averages 12.4 strikeouts per nine innings and Central Michigan has 10 shutouts among its 40 wins.

Dallas Baptist's Dominic Hamel (12-2) leads the nation in wins, Vanderbilt's Jack Leiter and Rocker have struck out 135 each to lead pitchers in the tournament, and UC Santa Barbara's Michael McGreevy has walked just 10 batters in 95 2/3 innings.

CURSE OF THE 1 SEED

Attention, Arkansas: The last No. 1 national seed to win the championship was Miami in 1999, the first year of the current tournament structure. Vanderbilt was a No. 2 seed when it won the title in 2019. The most recent No. 1 to reach the College World Series finals was Texas in 2009.

miraculous intervention might be told over and over again. Remembering was a way for future generations to participate in the great acts that God had already done for Israel. Joshua saw the importance of these memorial stones.

We too, have memories that cause us to pause and remember and to ask questions. This Memorial Day that we observed was to honor the men and women who put on the American military uniform, but did not return home.
