Big Spring City Council to convene Monday to hear routine agenda

By AMANDA DUFORAT

Managing Editor

The Big Spring City Council will convene for a regular meeting Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. inside City Council Chambers. Those wishing to attend the meeting may do so at 307 E. 4th Street or watch online at http://mybigspring. com/224/Channel-17-Live or on Suddenlink Channel 17.

The meeting will begin with a call to order, followed by the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. There will be a moment for public comment. Those in attendance may speak from the podium and those unable to attend can still take part in public comment by calling 432-264-2411. Those speaking are not to exceed five minutes.

As part of the City Manager report, Council will receive an update on the recent large item pick up that took place in District 6 on June 16 and move to discussion on Fourth of July. City Manager Todd Darden will remind Council there are no fireworks allowed at Moss Lake. There will also be discussion on substandard structures and future hearings and a report on Constitutional Carry.

As part of the Consent Agenda, Council members will look to approve City Council minutes from June 8, 2021 meeting, along with two final readings. The first of the readings will include the Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs article II "Parks and Recreation Facilities" Division I "Generally" section 40-33 "Additional Requirements for activities involving sales, services or consumption of alcohol" subsection 4 "Comanche Trail Municipal Amphitheater" in order to amend the boundary definition for alcohol service and consumption; the second of the readings will be the ordinance amending Number 029-202 which adopted the annual budget for the City of Big Spring for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1, 202 and ending Sept. 30, 2021 to increase the landfill fund budget for the purpose of additional postage for mailouts.

When the Camp Dixie Courts opened in March 1927, the address given was, one mile south of Court House on Hwy 9. Later, the address changed to 2301-2305 Scurry. The tourist court was built by W.B. Burns in hopes of catching the Highway 9 traffic. He said, "there are 4 or 5 tourist camps on Bankhead highway, going east and west, but nothing going north and south on Highway 9."

Toasty Tuesday Camp Dixie Tourist | cleaning up Howard Co. Fairgrounds this week

Toasty Tuesday last week focused on the beautification of the community, as volunteers planted flowers at the Vietnam Memorial. This week the group will be heading out to the Howard County Fairgrounds to do a little bit of clean up following rodeo week.

Legends and Legacies honors

Kenneth Williams

Editor's Note: Each year new members are added to the honorees of Legends and Legacies through the Heritage Museum. Over the next seven editions, the Big Spring Herald will feature this year's inductees. This is the fourth in a series of seven.

Special to the Herald

Kenneth Williams was born in Coleman County and later moved with his family to Knott, Texas to pick cotton. After he graduated from Big Spring High school in 1951, he married Jean Munselle in 1952. Kenneth had been clowning with the AJRA rodeos before enlisting in the service in 1953. From 1953-55 Kenneth's wife Jean, had talked Kenneth into clowning together as a team. They started working together as rodeo clowns on weekends while he was stationed in Fort Lewis Army

Base in Washington State. Once he was discharged in 1955, he moved back to Big Spring and started clowning in the AJRA again. Kenneth and Jean returned to Big Spring and they both started working at Cosden Refinery before tragedy struck on August 13, 1960. Twenty-seven-yearold Kenneth was performing a rodeo/ clown trick which required him to rope the horse on foot after the rider had been thrown. He was holding the lariat in his hands as the horse made a sudden dash for the gate and flipped Kenneth headover-heels. He landed on the back of his head and snapped a vertebra in his neck. For 15 months, he was in hospitals, most of the time, Kenneth said he was completely and helplessly paralyzed and hope for his life and existence was dim for many months. Kenneth said he had

Slain Dallas girl, 7, stabbed over 30 times; mother arrested

DALLAS (AP) -- A 7-year-old Dallas girl whose mother was recently arrested in her death was stabbed over 30 times, according to a court document.

Madison Petry died after being stabbed on Thursday. Troyshaye Mone Hall, 23, faces a capital murder charge in her daughter's slaying, as well as a charge of aggravated assault in the stabbing of a 16-year-old boy.

An arrest-warrant affidavit says that Hall's mother said she was taking a bath Thursday when she heard screaming. Hall's brother then told her that Hall had stabbed his teenage friend, the affidavit said.

The affidavit said Hall's mother and brother tried to take the knife from her, but she got away from them and stabbed her daughter. Madison was pronounced dead at a hospital. The affidavit said that the initial autopsy found that the child had over 30 stab wounds. Hall was being held Saturday in Dallas County Jail on $1.5 million. Court records did not list an attorney for her who could be reached for comment.

Back with a bang: Big Spring Rodeo returns for three-day event full of fun

The Big Spring Rodeo and Cowboy Reunion returned to action this past weekend, Thursday, June 17-19, in Big Spring. The event was packed withfamiy entertaiment and excellent rodeo action. Some of the top Cowboys and Cowgirls competed in the event.

By DUSTIN POPE

Herald Sports Writer

The Big Spring Rodeo and Cowboy Reunion took place this past weekend. It came back to Big Spring after a one-year hiatus attributed to COVID. The rodeo started last Thursday night and ran through Saturday night. It was a fun three days packed with competitive entertainment for the whole family.

While this was an entertaining event to watch, it was a still work for the Rodeo competitors. This is a sanctioned PRCA event that brought in some of the best Cowboys and Cowgirls in all of Rodeo to Big Spring.

Friday night's action kicked off with the Bareback Riding event. Jake Brown would take first place with an 84-point ride on Sayas Eyes. Second place went to Tyler Johnson, who had an 81.5-point ride. Harry Ash came in third with a 78, and fourth place went to Bodee Lammers with a 76.5-point ride. The riders would have one more night to improve on their score and try to take 1st Place.

Next up was the Steer Wrestling event. Cody Moore took first place with a fast time of 3.9 seconds. Second place would go to Heath Thomas with a time of 4.7 seconds. Cody Harmon came in third with a time of 5.0. There were no other qualified runs.

Saddle Bronc Ridding would be next up, and this was a close event. It was Dean Wadsworth that had an 80.5 point ride on Bobcat to capture the first place spot. Lucas Macza came in at the second spot with a 78.5 point ride. Andrew Counts rounded out the top three in third with a 71.5, and in fourth place was Kobyn Williams with a 70.

The Tie-Down Roping event took place next. Charlie Gibson would win the event with a swift time of 8.1 seconds. There was a tie for second place between Trevor Hale and Tate Teague with a time of 9.4 seconds. There was likewise a tie for fourth place, as Clay McCuistion and Landon Williams with 15.8 sec-

Barrel Racing was next up. Ashley Castleberry took first place with a time of 15.49, Lois Ferguson settled in second place with a time of 15.65. Third place went to Katelyn Scott with 15.69, Cadee Williams finished in fourth place with a fine time of 15.71. Finally, Martha Smith rounded out the top five as she finished in fifth with a time of 15.72.

The last event of the night was the Bull Riding event. Only one bull rider had a qualifying score. That rider was Mike Lee, who had an 85 point ride on Final Rainbow.

It was an entertaining night loaded with some good Rodeo action and was just a marvelous time for the entire family. The crowd was great as the stands were packed. It was wonderful to see the rodeo back where it belongs, here in Big Spring.

Mississippi State posts CWS-record 21 Ks in win over Texas

By ERIC OLSON

AP Sports Writer

As Will Bednar's strikeout total kept climbing, it seemed everybody at TD Ameritrade Park was keeping track.

Bednar didn't want to admit it, but he

"Uh, yeah," he said sheepishly when asked. "I wasn't trying to, but I kind of kept peaking up at the board."

The redshirt freshman struck out a career-high 15 over six innings, the most at the College World Series in 25 years, and Mississippi State held off Texas 2-1 Sunday

Bednar and Landon Sims set a CWS team record, combining for 21 strikeouts, and the Bulldogs (46-16) ran their season total to 765, tying the Division I record..

Bednar's total was the highest by an individual since Clemson's Kris Benson struck out 15 against Miami in 1996.

"I felt like it was a great performance, probably my best ever," Bednar said. "On this stage, it's real cool." No. 2 national seed

Texas (47-16) put only four balls in play against Bednar: three flyouts and Mitchell Daly's base hit up the middle in the

"Bednar, we still haven't figured him out," Texas coach David Pierce said. "He's a spin rate guy and the ball just doesn't lose plane, and it seemed like we were swinging underneath it the entire game."

The Longhorns' offense came to life in nar, had pinpoint command with his low the bottom of the ninth. Mike Antico led off with a homer, and Ivan Melendez and Cam Williams hit consecutive two-out singles to put runners on the corners before Douglas Hodo III grounded out to end the game.

The Longhorns have lost their CWS opener in each of their four appearances since 2009. Pierce typically doesn't address his team after a game, but he did this time.

"I know how emotional the game was, and they're frustrated and feel like they let their teammates down," he said. "My message: 'We'll continue to go to battle with guys that are preparing right, and we have to get better tomorrow. Don't listen to the noise. We know what happened, don't listen to the distractions of what happened and be tough enough to get over it.' " Bednar (8-1), brother of Pittsburgh Pirates pitcher David Bed90s fastball, working it on both sides of the plate and up in the zone and mixing in a slider down and out of the strike zone.

"I grabbed Will after the game and handed him the game ball and told him that's one of the better performances ever here," MSU coach Chris Lemonis said. "Six innings, one hit, 15 punchies. Not many guys have come here and done that because the talent level is so high.

The bidding: West South

North East Pass Pass Pass Pass 4 NT Pass Pass Pass Opening lead — nine of hearts.

This deal occurred in a match between Austria and Italy at the world championship held in Monte Carlo in 1976. It was played at 44 tables, and 23 times South got to six hearts, a dreadful contract that had about a 20 percent chance of making. However, thanks to a fortunate lie of the opposing trumps, the slam was 23 declarers. The opening lead was usually a successfully negotiated by 22 of the diamond, a club or a spade. Against any of these leads, declarer's only real chance was to take a first-round trump finesse — leading low to the queen — and next play the ace, hoping to find East with precisely the doubleton king. The 22 lucky declarers found this to be the actual case and, as a result, scored 1,430 points.

The Austrian declarer was the only one who failed to make the slam. At his table, Italian star Benito Garozzo chose the diabolical opening lead of the nine of trump! Declarer, in an effort to guard against the possibility that East might have the K-J-6 of trump, covered the nine with the ten and won East's king with the ace.

Declarer then led a diamond to the queen, returned a trump and, when East produced the six, found himself faced with a harrowing guess. He had to decide whether Garozzo's opening lead of the trump nine was from the J-9, which would be an unusual lead against a slam, or whether Garozzo's lead of the trump nine was a singleton, also an unusual lead against a slam.

With nothing to go on, the Austrian declarer elected to finesse the eight and so went down one. Ironically, the slam was easy to make without a trump lead, but once the trump was led, declarer had a chance to go wrong — and did.

Wife's Drinking Is Out of Control

Dear Annie: My wife and I have been married for 10 years. We have three children who mean the world to me. I'm sure that, on the outside looking in, people think everything is great. However, my wife has developed a drinking problem.

She says it isn't a problem, but I have to disagree. Every night she will drink between six and eight drinks. It starts right after she gets home and continues until she goes to bed.

She will often go downstairs to be alone and drink while "working" on her computer, or go "run an errand." I'll later find the cans in her car or the basement. This is all while I get the kids ready for bed and read to them, which I don't mind at all. But we have three small children, and sometimes it's not easy handling all of them on my own every night. But I love spending time with them.

her and see if there is anything personal going on, anything at work, that may make her feel stressed to feel the need to drink this much every day. But she insists she's fine. It's ended up in many fights. I've tried just not buying alcohol. I've tried limiting it. I've tried to not even care and just let her drink as much as she wants (as long as she isn't driving our kids anywhere). It has gotten to the point now where I've become numb to it and feel like it's a battle not worth my time.

I want to help her, but she thinks she doesn't need help. -- Helpless Husband

Dear Helpless Husband: Get in touch with Al-Anon today. You sound like a wonderful husband and father. Your wife's alcoholism is a disease -- not a lack of willpower or a moral failing on her part. But until she admits she has a problem, she will stay in denial and drunk.

If you have to hire babysitters so you can attend Al-Anon meetings, so be it. You will discover that you are not alone, and you will be given support and suggestions for coping.

Dear Annie: I'd like to share something with the high school senior struggling with financial aid for college. There are myriad resources available to help! Since she is planning to start at the community college, the college's financial aid office should have counselors available to help her complete the FAFSA (Federal Aid for Student Assistance), which is mostly online now. Yes, it can be very overwhelming when one has not experienced it.

They can also let her know about potential scholarships, if eligible for grants, and walk her through the student loan process. They also may have on-campus jobs available, usually called work study. These jobs were a vital part of my college education, and they were great because often I was able to study or do homework while on the job (working in the library and at the desk of the student center).

And while student loans sound scary, repayments don't start until six months after you have completed school Then the lender can work out a repayment option that may take longer but at an amoun you can afford.

Education is a fabulous investment in one's self that no one can ever take away. If "E and O" is determined, then the financial concern should not be as huge a barrier as it seems right now. Good luck! -- Been There

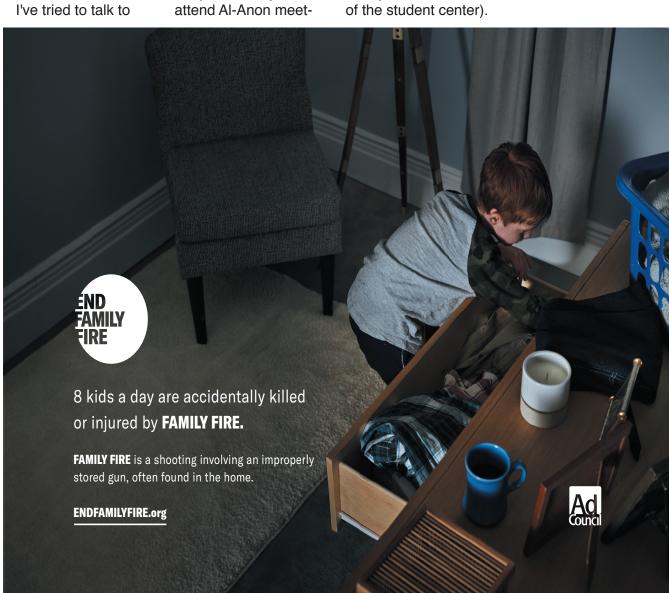

Dear Been There:

Thank you for sharing your experience. Your letter offers some wonderful suggestions for students. Congrats on your success.

Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the

Like puzzles?

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

CARMEN

Today's Highlight in History:

On June 21, 1964, civil rights workers Michael H. Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James E. Chaney were slain in Philadelphia, Mississippi; their bodies were found buried in an earthen dam six weeks later. (Forty-one years later on this date in 2005, Edgar Ray Killen, an 80-year-old former Ku Klux Klansman, was found guilty of manslaughter; he was sentenced to 60 years in prison, where he died in January 2018.)

On this date:

In 1788, the United States Constitution went into effect as New Hampshire became the ninth state to ratify it.

In 1942, German forces led by Generaloberst (Colonel General) Erwin Rommel captured the Libyan city of Tobruk during World War II. (Rommel was promoted to the rank of Field Marshal; Tobruk was retaken by the Allies in November 1942.)

In 1943, Army nurse Lt. Edith Greenwood became the first woman to receive the Soldier's Medal for showing heroism dur-ing a fire at a military hospital in Yuma, Arizona.

In 1954, the American Cancer Society presented a study to the American Medical Association meeting in San Francisco which found that men who regularly smoked cigarettes died at a con-siderably higher rate than non-smokers.

In 1963, Cardinal Giovanni Battista Montini was chosen during a conclave of his fellow cardinals to succeed the late Pope John XXIII; the new pope took the name Paul VI.

In 1973, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Miller v. California, ruled that states may ban materi-als found to be obscene according to local standards. In 1977, Menachem Begin (men-AH'-kem BAY'-gihn) of the Likud bloc became Israel's sixth prime

In 1982, a jury in Washington, D.C. found John Hinckley Jr. not guilty by reason of insanity in the shootings of President Ronald Reagan and three other men.

In 1989, a sharply divided Supreme Court ruled that burn-ing the American flag as a form of political protest was protected by the First Amendment.

In 1997, the WNBA made its debut as the New York Liberty defeated the host Los Angeles Sparks 67-57.

In 2002, one of the worst wild-fires in Arizona history grew to 128,000 acres, forcing thousands of homeowners near the commu-nity of Show Low to flee.

In 2010, Faisal Shahzad (FY'-sul shah-ZAHD'), a Pakistan-born U.S. citizen, pleaded guilty to charges of plotting a failed car bombing in New York's Times Square. (Shahzad was later sen-tenced to life in prison.)

Ten years ago: The Food and Drug Administration announced that cigarette packs in the U.S. would have to carry macabre images that included rotting teeth and gums, diseased lungs and a sewn-up corpse of a smoker as part of a graphic campaign aimed at discouraging Americans from lighting up. Amid street protests, Greek Prime Minister George Papandreou survived a confidence vote.

Five years ago: Hillary Clinton, during a visit to the battleground state of Ohio, said Donald Trump would send the U.S. economy back into recession, warning that his 'reckless' approach would hurt workers still trying to recover from the 2008 economic turbulence. North Korea fired two suspected powerful new Musudan midrange ballistic missiles, according to U.S. and South Korean military officials, the communist regime's fifth and sixth such attempts since April 2016. The Obama administration approved routine commercial approved routine commercial use of small drones in areas such as farming, advertising and real estate after years of struggling to write rules to protect public

One year ago: An initially peaceful protest in Portland, Oregon, against racial injustice turned violent, as police used flash-bang grenades to disperse demonstrators throwing bottles, cans and rocks at sheriff's deputies. Spectators in Raleigh, North Carolina, cheered as work crews finished the job started by protesters and removed a Confederate statue from atop a Confederate statue from atop a 75-foot monument. NASCAR said a rope shaped like a noose had been found in the garage stall of Bubba Wallace, the only full-time Black driver in NASCAR's elite Black driver in NASCAR's elite Cup Series, at a race in Talladega, Alabama. (Federal authorities found that the rope had been hanging there for months, and that it was not a hate crime.) New York Mayor Bill de Blasio said the American Museum of Natural History would remove from its entrance a statue depicting its entrance a statue depicting Theodore Roosevelt on horseback with a Native American man and an African man standing along-side; critics said it symbolized colonial expansion and racial discrimination.

Happy Cancer Seasón

On the first full day of the Cancer sun and the last full day of Mercury's retrograde, the best position is one of having nothing to prove and no one to prove it to. An ego can dissolve to the point of being merely a suggestion. From that humble place, we are not as distracted by gratification and self-importance, so we can see what is needed of us.

ARIES (March 21-April

19). No one likes to work with substandard tools, and to feel cornered into doing so under pressurized circumstances is even worse. Yet, this is exactly the recipe for today's magic.

TÁURUŠ (April 20-May 20). To practice peace is to feel a kinship with the people next to you even when they do not believe as you do. This requires getting to common ground, which takes creative thinking, one of your many talents. GEMINI (May 21-

June 21). It's nice when everyone gets along, but nice circumstances seldom bring out the best in people. So when the energy is harmonious, enjoy it. And when it's not, you'll seize the chance to sharpen yourself. CANCER (June 22-July 22). Today's work doesn't have to be in your wheelhouse to be worthy of you. You can find fulfillment doing something very boring as long as you know how it's helping. To mingle as you do with the spirit of generosity is to be lifted.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). The very same ideology that once gave you a much-needed sense of structure and a helpful viewfinder for the world will one day seem outdated, limiting and perhaps even untrue. Ideologies age out; mystery is age-

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). So much is possible for those who are willing among the spoils for the social and professional risk-takers is the possibility for friendship, love, profit and advancement.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You may as well make yourself comfortable, because the space between wanting and getting could be quite long. Occupy yourself in some way to lessen the tension of anticipation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). There are endeavors you can steer and endeavors that will steer you. You'll be led by things like ingredients, tools and materials that seem to dictate to you how they want to be used. SAGITTARIUS (Nov.

22-Dec. 21). The theoretical physicist wants to know: Do we exist in time, or does time exist in us? You would pose the same question about love today, as you feel you are swimming in it even as it flows from you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You'll be gathering intelligence, which is the first step on any large project and the step that tells you whether an endeavor is worth taking on in the first place.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). The weak will bring down the strong in the manner of babies and puppies who melt hearts with their cuteness, a defense that comes straight from heaven, and usually with a ticking clock.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). If you're making mistakes, it's because you're making decisions. Give yourself credit for being in the flow, for it's not for the faint of heart. And don't worry; the fumbles are minor, and they come with the territory.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 21). Projects take you through peaks and valleys, and you'll enjoy external expressions of potency like financial validation and awards, though you'll also recognize that they were never the goal. You're growing into real power with a legacy of teamwork and relationships aimed at bringing up the level for a whole group. Sagittarius and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 29, 30, 1, 14 and 37.

COSMICALLY CURI-OUS ABOUT... SELF-PARENTING (PART 1): Hopefully you have a parent or two who provided a model of what it means to care for yourself, survive and thrive on every level. If that is the case, you can count vourself among the lucky humans who've walked the Earth. For most of human history, parenting has been primarily about the survival of the group rather the individual. Up until about 200 years ago, children as small as 6 years old were sent to work at farms, factories and various apprentice positions. Indeed, there are many children in different parts of the globe today whose lives are still centered around the production of goods for the world economy.

In the modern era, it's common to blame bad parenting for everything from relationship disharmony to eating disorders to unemployment. But regardless of the skill and effectiveness of their parenting, the two people whose union brought you into this world are only obligated to parent you to a certain point. Even for those fortunate ones born to parenting champions, life is still better when we learn to care for and help ourselves. This begins a series of self-parenting tips by sign. Tune in tomorrow for Aries!

CELEBRITY PRO-FILES: Prince William, Duke of Cambridge, was born when both the sun and moon were on the cusp of Gemini and Cancer. If he were born earlie in the day, he would have been a Gemini with a Gemini moon. Instead, he is a Cancer with a Cancer moon and a gift for nurturing and healing. His protective instinct grows stronger as his family grows.
