College board sets budget & tax rate

By ROGER CLINE
 Herald Staff Writer

The Howard County Junior College District Board of Trustees officially set the district's budget and tax rate for 2021-22, and finalized pricing on revenue refunding bonds, when it met Monday.

The total budget set by the district for the upcoming fiscal year fell by $4,867,252, from $59,972,093 in 2021-22 to $55,104,841.

According to Howard College President Dr. Cheryl Sparks, the main reason for the difference in expenditures for the two years is the ongoing roofing project at Howard College's Big Spring campus and the South West College for the Deaf, which was funded through the 2020-21 budget. “It’s mainly due to the roofing project and some of those things in the construction countdown,” Dr. Sparks said. “We’re working on the project and it’s still in progress.”

Sparks said college staff has been working on the new budget since January, and just finalized it this past week.

“It was a long process,” she said. “We did lose funding in the appropriation process, but because the federal funds made up the loss in state appropriations, we were able to recover that. We were able to keep that the same. Increased tuition and fees back in March. Then that all ended up with the workshops and meetings that they had this summer so that we could

Finding a new purpose, turning it into art

Heritage Museum accepting submissions to ‘Found Object Art’ exhibit

By ROGER CLINE
 Herald Staff Writer

Do you enjoy taking a drab, boring piece of furniture, accessory, or just plain junk, and repurposing it into a stunning work of art?

The Heritage Museum of Big Spring has a show coming up that’s just perfect for you.

“We are doing a little art show with – I like to say it’s ‘found art.’ I just call it ‘found object art,” said Heritage Museum Archivist Michelle Worthan. “Basically, it’s where you find something and you refurbish it, or change it up however, and turn it in to a new piece of art. Kind of like if you’ve seen that show Flea Market Flip Tips on TV where they go to flea markets or garage sales and they find an old lamp that could really be thrown away, and they turn it into a piece of art. Just that kind of thing, where you take something and you turn it into something totally different.”

Worthan stressed that the show is not an art contest, but rather a chance to show off your creativity and possibly sell your artwork to museum guests who love great artwork.

The show will run from Sept. 4 through Oct. 28.

“We are going to take submissions for it Sept. 1 and 2, during normal business hours – 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Museum,” Worthan said.

According to the museum’s flyer announcing the event, “The term ‘found art’ is believed to be coined by artist Marcel Duchamp. Found art is art that is made with ordinary things, like household appliances, industrial items, or really just about any random object. To be considered fine art, how

He loved his family and loved his grandkids. He enjoyed his "date" nights with his beloved wife. He touched many lives during his job as a substance abuse counselor and particularly enjoyed working

Judy Park

Have you ever seen the ripples in a pond? That was Judy Park's life. The impact she had on family and her community will be felt far into the future. Anyone who came in contact with her would become part of her circle.

Judy Lynne Clanton was born to WC and Ruby Clanton on March 9, 1952, in Big Spring, Texas. She and her sisters, Janice Hopper and Betty Skeen, were inseparable growing up on the family farm in Lomax. They shared many adventures while they were young and still giggle together like best friends when they were able to spend time together. She was preceded in death by her parents, and her brothers Weldon and Carl Wayne. We know she was overjoyed to be reunited with them in heaven.

She leaves behind husband, Steve Park, of 52 years who adored her beyond words. They were junior high school sweethearts and it is no surprise that their first date was painting and cleaning up the Clubhouse in Forsan. They loved their community from the very beginning and have continued to serve it in many capacities throughout their lives together. They were a perfect picture of husband and wife serving each other, beginning with the coffee and toast he left by her bedside in the morning as he left for early morning tutorials at school.

Judy was born to host and was always worried about taking care of others. She has fed countless numbers of coaches, teachers, and random teenagers who would show up at all hours of the day or night regardless if her children were home or not. Her banana cookies and stuffed hamburgers are legends in many fieldhouses across Texas. She was infamous for taking everyone in as family. She was happiest scurrying around a packed house, waiting on everyone and would meet them at the door asking what they wanted to drink and telling them to get a plate of food....and she would not take no for an answer! They definitely were not going to leave the house without a plate for later.

She was always a shining example of what it meant to be a coach's wife. She followed Steve to Bronte, Stanton, Coahoma and Forsan during his coaching career and was the right-hand woman to many school superintendents along the way. They all developed lifelong friendships with her, adding even more to her family circle. Among the friends who became family was R.L. and Linda Coates. Rarely a week went by without meeting for supper, catching up on news about the children they raised together as friends during their coaching life. She retired from Forsan as the superintendent's secretary a few years ago, but was never far removed from any activity when needed.

The center of her world was her children. No one was closer to her than her daily sidekick, daughter Jenny and her husband Shane Sayles who could make her laugh like no one else. She was so proud of her son Dave Park, who was destined to follow his dad into coaching as soon as he could walk and his wife Stacey. It was not a family secret that her son Cade Park and his wife Samantha completed the family perfectly.

The most important thing in her universe were her grandchildren. She thought they were all perfect in every way...and no one better say otherwise. Being a Nanny was her most important role. She adored Dustin and Alexandria Fontana of Lubbock, Ian Park and Sydney Rinard of Forsan, Walker Park and Carlee Daniel of Forsan, Nolan Park and Sydny Sayles of Forsan, and Jordan and Max Park of Aledo. She was blessed with numerous nieces and nephews who she considered as close as grandchildren.

Fittingly, she was a longtime member of the Forsan Baptist Church and knew that Jesus was her Lord and Savior.

Visitation will be on Tuesday evening from 5 p.m.-7 p.m. at Myers & Smith Funeral Home. Services will be at First Baptist Church in Big Spring at 11 a.m. on Sept. 1, 2021, under the direction of Derrick Looney.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to one of her favorite friend's scholarship programs, the Bob Fishback Memorial Scholarship. He was one of her favorite people and still loved to tell of his antics while working together. Another consideration would be the Dodo Phillips Scholarship fund. She and Dodo were both grandparents who loved their Buffalo athletes and would want to help them continue their education. Both funds are through the Forsan ISD Business Office.

Arrangements are by Myers & Smith Funeral Home. Pay your respects online at www.myersandsmith.com

COLLEGE

come to the total budget. So it's a long process. It takes a lot of effort on a lot of people's parts, and one always gives credit to (Howard College Chief Fiscal Officer) Brenda Claxton because she works very hard to pull it all together."

The college district's property tax rate for the upcoming year will be 23.6777 cents per $100 valuation, slightly less than the "No-New-Revenue" tax rate of 23.7548 cents per $100, which will generate about $44,000 less total revenue compared to 2020-21.

The total tax rate of 23.6777 cents per $100 is made up of two components: The Maintenance and Operations rate of 21.6008 cents per $100, which funds Howard's day-to-day expenses including salaries, building maintenance, and other expenses; and the Debt Service tax rate of 2.7939 cents per $100, which is used to pay against the college's longterm debts.

Dr. Sparks said that, although the total tax rate will levy less overall taxes than last year's rate, the average taxpayer will pay slightly more - about $20.10 more for the year on a $100,000 home because the tax rate increased due to a decline in Howard County's tax base.

In other business, the board received some good news related to its Revenue Refunding bond.

"(The bond) was refunded and will create a savings for our revenue bonds over the next few years," Sparks said. "The rate ended up being 1.38 percent, and that will give us... over the remaining part of the bond, it will save us $235,855."

Jason Hughes of Hilltop Securities explained further.

"We received three bids, with the lowest being 1.38 percent," Hughes said. "The nice thing is, we're taking 2009 revenue bonds, which carry an interest rate of 4.6 percent, and we are more than halving that rate, from a 4.6 percent to a 1.38 percent. So the final par amount of the refunding bond is $1,915,000. Crucially, there's no extension of the term, so we kept the exact same terms. All we're doing is lowering debt service, much like what would happen if you were refinancing a home mortgage. So you see there, the gross debt service savings is about $235,000. That is locked in."

Trustee Patricia Bennett informed the board that she will likely be moving pending the sale of her house, and hence resigning her position on the board. She told other board members that she will let the College District know for certain by Sept. 10.

"Anticipating that it will happen, the board went ahead and planned to be able to move forward," Dr. Sparks said. "A person that is interested, if they will submit their interest in writing and just get it to the College...they can submit that and get it to the President's Office. We're asking that those be turned in by Thursday the 16th, if they can have them in by the end of the day. The board will also do interviews. Based on the number of interested parties, we will also need to set up interviews for that Monday, the 20th."

The board also: Met in executive session before the open meeting to discuss an information technology report, the Junior College Audit Report (JCAR) Safety and Security update, and Bennett's possible resignation; and held a public hearing on the proposed budget which was approved later in the meeting, but no one addressed the board.

The board approved routine matters including the minute of their Aug. 2 and Aug. 16 meetings; financials for July, monthly reports of auxiliary services, personnel matters and the internal audit report.

The board also heard an update on the response to COVID-19, and discussed plans for the upcoming 75th Anniversary Initiatives.

Dr. Sparks presented reports on the College District's quarterly investment report and financial indicators.

Chief Operations Officer Fabian Serrano and Chief Business Officer Steve Smith reported that a central plant compressor at the Big Spring campus is being repaired at a cost of $85,018, a budgeted expense.

Additionally, Board Chairman John Freeman presented awards to Bennett and to board member Mark Morgan for five years of service on the board.

ever, it needs the artist's input; people need to know what the artist is trying to say with the piece or how they want it to be interpreted."

The flyer goes on to add, "Taking a found object and creating a work of art is a great way to recycle and reuse old discarded items that are bound for a landfill somewhere. In today's throw away world, turning trash into treasure not only gives us a creative outlet but it also helps us to save the environment."

According to the flyer, artists submitting to the show must be over 15 years of age; must reside in Texas; and must submit original artwork made by them with found objects.

To submit art to the show, bring it to the museum either Sept. 1 or Sept. 2 during regular hours. There is a limit of three pieces per artist. Have the pieces ready to display and include an artist card with artist's name, title of the piece, and sale price (if any) for the piece. The card may also include any information that you wish known about the piece. Museum staff can help with the artist card at the museum.

The flyer goes on to say that the museum will do everything it can to accept all submitted artwork, but space limitations may place some restrictions on larger objects. The museum's staff reserves the right to accept or deny any artwork, and their decision is final.

Final Notice and Public Explanation of a Proposed Activity in a Wetland

To: All interested Agencies, Groups and Individuals on 8/31/2021: This is to give notice that the City of Coahoma has conducted an evaluation as required by Executive Order 11990, in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 55.20 Subpart C Procedures for Making Determinations on Floodplain Management and Wetlands Protection. The activity is funded under the Community Development Block Grant Program under contract 7220099. The City of Coahoma proposes a Sewer Improvements project, including Administrative and Engineering fees and services, to resolve the sludge accumulation issues through removal and land application of the sludge to improve wastewater storage and treatment effectiveness. Contractor shall inspect and rehabilitate the wastewater lagoon liners, install new pump station equipment, electrical equipment, piping and all associated appurtenances. Construction shall take place at the Coahoma WWTP and the agricultural field adjacent to the WWTP located approximately 750 ft. south of the intersection of South 1st Street and Midway Road, Coahoma, Howard County, Texas. According to the USFWS National Wetlands Inventory, the WWTP consists of approximately 3.19 acres of PUBFx and R5UBH wetlands. Wetlands have many natural and beneficial values such as fish and wildlife habitats, natural water quality improvement, flood storage, shoreline erosion protection, and opportunities for recreation and aesthetic appreciation. These values could be potentially adversely affected by the proposed project activities. However, the WWTP Wetlands are manmade for the purpose of effluent treatment and storage. After rehabilitation, the WWTP Lagoons will continue to function as vessels for effluent treatment and storage. The proposed project will not contribute to a direct loss of wetlands. The City of Coahoma has considered the following alternatives and mitigation measures to be taken to minimize adverse impacts and to restore and preserve natural and beneficial values: a reduction in scope, alternate locations, and abandoning the project entirely. The scope and location of project activities were chosen based on minimum improvements necessary to correct the health and safety risks existing facilities pose to the natural and human environment. Because the project scope includes only system components most in need of repairs, the alternatives considered would preclude correction of these risks or environmental compliance violations. Additionally, there shall be no significant increase to impervious surface, best management practices shall be employed during construction to ensure erosion control and to prevent the unintentional discharge of dredged or fill material into the wetland, and the activity shall comply with state and local wetlands protection procedures. The City of Coahoma has reevaluated the alternatives to building in the wetland and has determined that it has no practicable alternative. Environmental files that document compliance with steps 3 through 6 of Executive Order 11990 are available for public inspection, review, and copying upon request during regular business hours at the City Hall. There are three primary purposes for this notice: (1) People who may be affected by activities in wetlands and those who have an interest in the protection of the natural environment should be given an opportunity to express their concerns and provide information about these areas; (2) An adequate public notice program can be an important public educational tool. The dissemination of information and request for public comment about wetlands can facilitate and enhance Federal efforts to reduce the risks and impacts associated with the occupancy and modification of these special areas; and (3) As a matter of fairness, when the Federal government determines it will participate in actions taking place in wetlands, it must inform those who may be put at greater or continued risk. Written comments must be received on or before 8/7/2021 by the City of Coahoma at P.O. Box 420 or 122 N. First Street, Coahoma, TX 79511, (432) 394-4287. Attention: Warren Wallace, Mayor, during regular business hours. A full description of the project may also be reviewed during regular business hours at 122 N. First Street, Coahoma, TX 79511, or requested by mail to the City of Coahoma Attention: Warren Wallace, Mayor at P.O. Box 420, Coahoma, TX 79511. Comments or a request to view the full project may also be submitted via email to tammy.griffith@live.com CC: Austin.McLemore@GrantWorks.net

Annie's Mailbox

A Promiscuous Former Life

Dear Annie: My wife and I have been together since we were just out of high school. We've been married for 18 years, and we have three glorious children. We have a great relationship, but I recently discovered she was extremely promiscuous in high school and found out she slept with many of our friends, some of whom are still in our social circle. I have always had a jealous nature, and now the jealousy is overwhelming my daily thoughts, especially when we see these other guys. Although the encounters happened before my time with her, I still feel cheated on and don't look at her the way I once did. I have not brought it up with her, because I know she will get super defensive, and I know she will not go to counseling because of the nature of the topic. Any insight into getting over this would be appreciated, as I do love her and want to be with her. -- Jealous in Wisconsin

Dear Jealous:

Your wife is still looking at you with the same love in her eyes she always has, and if she knew you now look at her differently because of things she did 20 years ago, she would be heartbroken. So don't tell her. Though I generally champion the importance of talking every problem out with a romantic partner, unfounded jealousy is the exception. If you aired your feelings, they'd grow like fanned flames. You'd most likely make your wife feel defensive, and her defensiveness would in turn make you feel less secure about the marriage. Deprive these fiery feelings of oxygen and they'll eventually die out.

It's also not worth talking about it with her because this is about you, not your relationship. Do some digging and try to get to the root of your insecurity.

Use positive self-talk to encourage rational thinking. And if the obsessive thoughts won't stop nagging you, consider therapy.

Dear Annie: I recently visited a small deli-type restaurant and ordered a takeout square of lasagna. There was a big glass tip jar of cash right next to the credit card screen. I waited for my order, and when I received it, I placed several bucks in the tip jar -- overly generous, as my tab was only $6 -- and walked back to my camper. When I opened my bag, I found that my lasagna was a very small edge slice, and it was burned black -- not even close to being edible. I am mildly disabled, enough that a stroll back to the restaurant was too much for my bad knees.

I would like to know when a tip went from being a reward for exemplary service to a ransom for basic decency. I sure wish I had my tip money back for that lasagna. Alert to owners: Do you know how your employees are treating your customers? I'll surely never return, nor will many of the people I related my experience to. Alert to service personnel: What are you going to do when the business where you work folds because customers don't come back? -- Lost Customer in Wilmington

Dear Customer:

It sounds as if you didn't give this server a chance to earn her tip. Next time, speak up. If a restaurant wants to stay in business, it'll do what it can to keep customers happy.

Opening lead — jack of diamonds.

Eventually he also loses a heart trick and so goes down one. Superficially, the outcome seems normal, but declarer actually misplayed the hand and should have made his contract. It was wrong for him to lead the jack of clubs and take a finesse. A far better approach is to lead a trump to dummy at trick four and return a low club toward the jack. East is helpless against this play. If he takes the king, declarer follows low and eventually discards two hearts on the A-Q of clubs. If East does not take his king, South wins with the jack, plays a club to the ace and ruffs a club. When the king falls, the queen becomes trick No. 10. Admittedly, playing the club suit in this fashion is abnormal, but at the same time it is very rational. Declarer cannot make the contract unless he scores three club tricks. Therefore, leading the jack toward dummy cannot be the proper play, since this will not yield three club tricks regardless of who has the king (West will, of course, cover the jack with the king if he has that card).

By far the best chance is to assume that East has the king. If he does, a low club lead from dummy wins whenever East has fewer than four clubs, or whenever he has four or more clubs and errs by going up with the king.

Tomorrow: Sheer logic.

Sands drop first game of the season to Roby

BY DUSTIN POPE

Herald Sports Writer

The Sands Mustangs fell to the Roby Lions this past Friday with a final score of 70-21. It was a very tough game for the Mustangs to open up the season. This will serve as a learning experience for Sands as they move forward this season.

The first quarter was dominated by the Roby Lions. They opened up the scoring with a 45 yard TD pass. They scored again when they connected on a 51 yard TD pass. The Roby Lions would not be done with the scoring as they connected on a 35 yard TD pass making this a 20-0 game after one quarter of play.

In the second quarter it was the Sands Mustangs who scored their first TD of the season when Aiden Gutierrez had a eight yard run for the score. The Lions answered right back with another touchdown of their own when they had a 30 yard TD pass making this a 28-7 lead for the Roby Lions. Roby tacked on another touchdown on a 16 yard pass giving them a 36-7 lead. The Sands Mustangs tried to find a way back in this game as they scored on a 11 yard run by Michael Diaz. With the Mustangs touchdowns the score was now 36-14. The Lions were not done scoring as they scored on the kickoff return making this a 42-14 game at halftime.

Starting the second half of play the Sands Mustangs faced a uphill battle to try and get back in this game. Unfortunately the third quarter was much like the first two with Roby controlling the action all over the field. The Lions scored again on a two yard run. They followed that up with another ten yard run making this game a blow out at 58-15.

The Sands did tack on another score when Rodolfo Juarez broke loose on a 54 yard TD run making this a 58-21 game at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter started just like the first three did for the Sands Mustangs with the Roby Lions scoring twice in the quarter putting this game to rest winning a blow out by a final score of 70-21.

There is no doubt that this is not how the Sands Mustangs wanted to start the season. This game will only serve as growing opportunity for this young team. They now have the experience of a real game under their belt and will be far better from here on out.

Lake Superior: Michigan beats Ohio for Little League title

By ANDREW DESTIN

Associated Press

SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.— Twice, Jackson Surma walked to the plate with runners in scoring position in the biggest game of his young life. Both times he delivered.

Surma drove in four runs and Ethan Van Belle struck out eight as Michigan beat Ohio 5-2 on Sunday in the championship game of the Little League World Series.

"The first one, I knew I had runners on second and third," Surma said. "There weren't two outs, so I needed just something in play. He threw me a curveball, I sat on it and drove it to left. The second one, he threw me a high fastball and I went up there and got it."

The team from Taylor North Little

League delivered the first LLWS title for the state of Michigan since 1959 when Hamtramck National Little League won it all.

"We're just excited we're mentioned with them," manager Rick Thorning said. "To be in that group and say that a team from Michigan won the LLWS, it still doesn't sound right when you say it."

Both Michigan and Ohio are from the Great Lakes, marking the only time clubs from the same region played in the championship. That was because international teams didn't compete in the LLWS for the first time since 1975, due to travel restrictions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Little League allowed two squads from each U.S. region to fill out the 16-team field.

The pandemic also led to tight restrictions on attendance, with just 1,017 the in stands on Sunday. The famous sliding hill behind Lamade Stadium was mostly empty.

Michigan jumped out to a three-run lead in the first after Surma's two-run single and an RBI groundout by Jakob Furkas. Surma's next clutch hit, a single to center, came in the fifth.

Ohio had plenty of chances. It loaded the bases in the first on a pair of walks and a single by JJ Vogel, but Van Belle struck out Levi Smith with two out to end the threat.

The team from West Side Little League in Hamilton, Ohio, loaded the bases again in the third with nobody out. The next two batters struck out looking before Chance Retherford was picked off at third base as he headed toward the dugout after strike two.

Ohio got its first run in the second. Chase Moak led off with a triple and Cooper Clay singled him home to bring the score to 3-1.

Gavin Ulin came in to relieve Van Belle in the fifth and got into a jam with runners on first and second with one out. He induced a double-play grounder.

In the sixth, Ohio loaded the bases again, as Ulin hit two of the batters, then walked in a run. But Retherford flew out to center to end the game.

"I was a little nervous at the end. It was a great feeling after I got out of it," Ulin said. "When I hit that kid (to load the bases) and then I had to face their best hitter in the lineup, I was a little worried there. But once I got out of it, got him to pop it up, I was so happy."

"It's beyond words."

Patrick Cantlay delivers clutch putting for signature win

By DOUG FERGUSON

AP Golf Writer

OWINGS MILLS, Md. — No one ever questioned that Patrick Cantlay had the chops to be among golf's elite.

What he might have lacked in number of PGA Tour victories, he made for it with the way he won or the field he beat. His victory Sunday in the BMW Championship — the fifth of his career and his PGA Tour-leading third of the season — was a little of each.

On a Caves Valley course that suited the biggest hitters, facing the biggest masher of them all in Bryson DeChambeau, he delivered a moment that will be remembered for the ice in his veins and nerves of steel.

He really only smiled after he made the last of six pivotal putts on the final nine holes — six of them in a sudden-death playoff.

"I'm just as focused as I can be. If I look the way I do, it's because I am locked in and focused," Cantlay said. "And I felt like that today."

Even more remarkable is that Cantlay had plenty of occasions to believe he wouldn't be winning the BMW Championship, yet it only crossed his mind once.

That came on the second playoff hole when he hit his approach heavy and came up 55 feet short of the hole. DeChambeau, who had a 30-yard advantage off the tee on the 18th hole, hit wedge into 6 feet.

"I liked Bryson's chances of making that 6-footer up the hill," Cantlay said. "I thought he was going to make that putt. That was maybe the only time that I really thought I was done. But he didn't make it. That's golf."

As for the other times? Right when Cantlay looked to be done, he was clutch.

DeChambeau took a one-shot lead on the par-5 16th with a 12-foot putt, and Cantlay still faced an 8-foot par putt to avoid falling two behind. He made it.

On the next hole, Cantlay's tee shot bounced short and right and into the water, with DeChambeau in the rough just short of the green, about 25 feet from the hole. Cantlay removed his cap and slowly tugged it over his head. Surely, it was over.

But then DeChambeau muffed his chip and missed his 12-footer for par. Cantlay hit lob wedge from 100 yards away in the drop area and slid in the bogey-saving putt from 8 feet.

"I got to thinking, 'Let's try and make 4 here and at least not take all the pressure off of him.' We both had 4s on that hole, and that really kept me in the golf tournament, kind of switched the momentum a little bit," Cantlay said. "It would have been almost insurmountable if I would have went down two going into 18."

The biggest was the 20-foot birdie putt he made on the 18th in regulation, the only reason he got into a playoff with a 6-under 66 to match DeChambeau's score for the round and the astounding total of 27-under 261.

And even then, there was no relief. Cantlay missed the 18th green to the left in the playoff and had to make a 6-footer for par to extend the playoff. He made the 7-footer on the next hole. And on the fifth extra hole, DeChambeau looked like a winner again when he hit wedge to 6 feet.
