A Modern Home For A Great Institution

The Free Press joins with all Haskell and Haskell County, and indeed all of this section in saluting and congratulating the Haskell National Bank upon the accomplishment of its great program of expansion and improvement.

The word accomplishment is used advisedly because no program can ever be completed in a great institution like the Haskell National. There must be, and will be continuing progress in an institution with such a history and tradition behind it, and under the leadership it enjoys.

The roots of the Haskell National are deep in the life and growth and history of Haskell and this section of West Texas. They go deep into every phase of life and industry in the community, and they serve every legitimate interest.

Far-sighted leaders have given their best in the service of this banking institution from its earliest days. Under today's leadership this bank is carrying on a great tradition of service and usefulness to the community and this section.

In its larger, beautiful and convenient new building, the Haskell National is able to give an even greater service to its customers and to the community as a whole.

We salute President A. C. Pierson and all the officers and staff and stockholders of this great institution.

Tax Battle To Get Rough

Stakes are high and playing rough as the tax battle at the State Capitol this spring moves into the "hammer and tongs" stage, reports Vern Sanford of the Texas Press Association.

High state officials are laying their careers on the line when they take a stand.

On one side is Gov. Price Daniel, who wants to obtain needed new revenue through a program based primarily on taking over abandoned property, changing the bookkeeping methods a bit and increasing corporation franchise taxes, natural gas taxes and certain selective sales taxes.

On the other side are a number of lawmakers, including House Speaker Waggoner Carr, who call the governor's plan inadequate. They contend Texas' revenue needs are great and should be "spread thinly" to cause the least injury. Cited as possible solutions by Carr were the nine-part omnibus tax by Reps. R. L. Strickland and Wesley Roberts, or Rep. H. J. Blanchard's 1 1/2 per cent gross receipts tax.

Some House members, of course, side with the governor. Just how many will go to each side will not be known definitely until a floor vote is taken.

But some people already are reminded of a session 20 years ago when Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel got into a wild hassle with House members. O'Daniel used his Sunday morning radio broadcasts to blast steadily at 56 House members who blocked his push for a transactions (sales) tax. Price Daniel was one of the 56.

So far this session, Governor Daniel is focusing his ire on the "powerful lobbyists" who he says are blocking his tax program. Most of Daniel's proposals have been bogged down in the House Taxation Committee since the first of the session.

Byrd Warns Of Growing Federal Payroll

(The Houston Chronicle)

One of the nation's most able watchdogs of the federal dollar, Sen. Harry Byrd (D., Va.) is concerned about the growing federal civilian payroll. If all of these employees and their families lived in one new city, it would be the second largest city in the United States.

Sen. Byrd said that there now are 2,361,000 federal civilian employees, who are paid more than $1,000,000,000 a month. Their annual pay $12,000,000,000—is equal to the deficit the federal government is having in its fiscal 1959 budget.

Byrd noted that federal government workers averaged pay raises of 11 per cent in 1958, while few taxpayers did.

Byrd also said that if every program the government now has were continued, more than 150,000 jobs could be abolished without impairing efficiency in the slightest. What is some of the unnecessary programs were abolished?

Unlimited patronage and payroll padding are causing the average taxpayer to be deprived of some necessities so that he can help the government finance its excessive spending programs.

Haskell County History

30 Years Ago—March 28, 1929

Three trustees for the Haskell Independent School District are to be named in the annual election April 6. Members whose terms expire this year are Sam A. Roberts, E. I. Christian and Oscar Oates.

C. B. Breedlove, who has been superintendent of the Rule schools for the past six years, has been elected superintendent of the Haskell schools for the 1929-30 term. He will succeed J. Horace Bass, who has headed the school system for the past two years.

The Post Office Department at Washington has announced a change in the designation of Rural Route B out of the Haskell office to Route 2, effective immediately.

District Clerk Lois Earnest has returned from Sweetwater where she attended the funeral of her uncle.

C. G. Gay and H. M. Rike were in Wichita Falls last Saturday on business. Mr. Gay left Saturday for Dallas, where Mrs. Gay will receive treatment from an eye specialist. Born to Rev. and Mrs. G. Robert Forrester, a fine baby boy on Sunday night, March 24.

C. O. Davis, carrier of Rural Route 1 out of Rule, hatchery man, choir director of the Baptist Church, and general roustabout for the City of Rule, was in Haskell on business Wednesday.

Glenn Marrs returned last week from Baylor University, where he has been in school.

Two City Aldermen are to be elected in the annual election Tuesday, April 2, for the places now held by J. B. Post and G. B. Fields. Voters will also ballot on a proposal for the City to levy an assessment not to exceed $1200 per year for the maintenance of the Haskell Band.

30 Years Ago—April 7, 1939 W. T. Priddy, San Angelo barber and former resident of Haskell, has accepted a position in Richard Bischoffhausen's Hotel Barber Shop.

In the annual city election held Tuesday, Jason W. Smith and Dr. T. W. Williams were elected members of the City Council.

Management of the Watson Cafe in this city was taken over April 1 by Marion Josselot, who leased the business from the former proprietors, Watson Bros.

With spirited interest developing during the latter part of the week, taxpaying voters of the Haskell School District turned down a proposed bond issue of $5,500 for enlarging the present North Ward Building. Principal opposition, outspoken voters said, was based on the belief that enlargement of the North Ward building would mean abandonment of the South Ward School.

Surplus commodities including both food and clothing with a retail value aggregating $29,925 were distributed to relief clients in Haskell County during the year 1938. A total of 101,899 pounds of foodstuffs was distributed, while clothing distributed during the year was valued at $21,582 for the 18,535 articles listed.

Miss Eula Mae Watson of Anson has accepted a position with the Charmode Beauty Shop, Mrs. Parks Woodson, owner, announced this week.

Thirty-seven youths from Haskell and surrounding communities have been accepted for enrollment in the Civilian Conservation Corps and will be assigned to camps in New Mexico. The list includes Curtis Green Blankenship, Claude Don Bunton, Rolloan Wayman Clark, Elmer Edgar Cooper, Henry Dee Corley, Otto Barton Pugett, Joe Weldon Graham, Thomas Wesley Haynes, Travis Austin Hawkins, Rufus Walter Jackson, Frank Amos Johnson, Emmett Lee Jordan, Elwood, Earl Lucas, John Henry Maroney, Alton William McCreary, William Alton Morgan, Olen Robert Olmstead, Lonnie Glenn Pierce, Juan Jorge Polan, William Harvey Ramey, Garland Rallsback, Leon Therman Scoggins, Willie Tallan, Cecil Floyd Thompson, Raymond Willis Adams, Elmer William Bales, Roy Daniel Barner, Howard Franklin Benefield, Herman Marshall Bourland, Grady Eric Brandt, Joseph Burgess Brown, Paul LaVerne Cannady, Marvin Cecil Cape, George Warren Capeheart, Thomas Harold Chapmond, John William Clark.

30 Years Ago—April 3, 1909 T. C. Cahill is in a hospital in Abilene after a surgical operation made necessary by the extraction of a wisdom tooth. The local Union turned out the other day and picked 2800 pounds of cotton for Pinus Brooks, who has been down a long time with a spell of sickness.

W. T. McDaniel has presented us with a photo of his gin, also one of his cotton pile with seven hundred bales of seed cotton, and several wagons are shown on top of the pile unloading more cotton. His gin will be running no doubt until July. He keeps putting in new machinery for ginning bolls, and he tells us that a new machine installed last week has greatly improved the sample, most of which will now class as middling.

O. H. Rembert of McGregor has purchased stock in the McNeill & Smith Hardware Co., and will be associated with the concern in the future.

Last Saturday while A. S. Bullock was cleaning a garment in his tailor shop in a pan of gasoline, the atmosphere became filled with gas and an explosion resulted when the gas ignited from an open charcoal furnace in one room. Mr. Bullock and his son were badly burned about the face and arms and everything in the room was burned up. At the time the explosion occurred, the wind was very high, but the alarm was given and the fire was confined to the room in which the explosion occurred.

S. W. Scott of this city has purchased one of the most beautiful and powerful touring cars we have seen.

F. A. Green, who lives on the farm of R. G. Landess south of town, sold his 36th bale of cotton here Thursday, and will get one more bale, he believes. Thirty-five bales of this cotton was picked and "pulled" with Mr. Green and his family doing most of the gathering.

60 Years Ago—April 8, 1899 Messrs Meadors & Ellis new store building on the south side of the square is nearing completion.

Pete Sanders left Wednesday for Colorado City, where he has secured employment.

Judge J. M. Morgan of Benjamin was here and sat as special judge in the trial of two cases in our county court this week.

Ed Lanier, a stockman of King County, but well known in this section, spent a day or so among friends here this week.

Grandpa W. H. Sowell and wife returned last week from Edwards County, in the lower Rio Grande country, where they spent the winter.

Rev. W. S. Rogers and Messrs. John Couch and Emmett Robertson leave today for Waco, where they will attend the annual convention of the BYPU as delegates from the Haskell Union.

John Ellis, after putting in the winter on a ranch in Indian Territory, returned to Haskell the first of the week. He looks as if his Territory ranch experience agreed with him.

Rev. M. L. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Garrett, Misses Etta Riddel, Mollie Bryant, Hattie Sanders, Georgia Riter and Ethel Alexander are attending the district conference of the Epworth League at Vernon this week as delegates from the Haskell League.

It's not exactly a boom that Haskell is on, but when we look around the courthouse square and see the four new business houses which have been erected within the past few weeks, and one new store and shoe shop opened up in old buildings, and a new newspaper to be started next week we begin to think that things are coming alive again.

The cool to cold, raw weather of the past two weeks has been hard on thin range cattle, and there will be some losses yet unless warm, pleasant weather sets in and continues.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS

By A. PATE

The new building of the Haskell National Bank was the showplace of this section last weekend.

Saturday afternoon, "open house" was held for bankers and bank employees—and they were here in numbers—bringing congratulations and best wishes not only from neighboring towns but from many of the larger cities in the state.

A glance at the register showed bankers here from an area extending from Tyler to Snyder and Lubbock, Fort Worth and Arlington to Abilene, and from Wichita Falls to Houston.

Sunday afternoon brought the official dedication and open house for the public. Hundreds of people from all over Haskell County, as well as many visitors from out of town, thronged the new building and inspected its many new and modern facilities.

An Olney man who pulled a series of burglaries in Seymour, Weimer and Haskell during the early hours Saturday, then returned home and was in bed before sun up, probably set some kind of record for speedy break-ins.

But he met his match in fast operating technique in the Haskell sheriff's department, coupled with the alert work of City Nightwatchman Richard Sparks.

Within a few hours after all the burglaries here and the one at Weimer had been checked out by Sheriff Pennington's department, the Olney man was taken in custody at his home. Subsequently, he told officers in detail how the robberies had been committed.

One of the burglaries here resulted in an embarrassing moment for an innocent party, a customer of Renfro's Grocery. Roy Johnson, Haskell banker, had gone to the neighborhood store early Saturday, about opening time. The front door was open, so Roy goes in—but there's no one in the store to wait on him.

About that time Owner "Fuzzy" Renfro arrives to open his store for the day. Renfro and his puzzled customer quickly figure out what has happened after noticing the door had been jimmied open and the cash register rifled.

Luck was on the side of everyone concerned Friday, when a grass fire was discovered on the Kleiner Ranch about noon. Grass fires present an alarming problem at any time, but more especially when one breaks out during a wind and sandstorm, and that was the case Friday.

Despite the high wind, neighboring farmers and ranchers, with the help of firemen and local department's new rural fire fighting truck, the flames were brought under control after about 15 of 20 acres had burned over.

This was the first time the new truck had been used for the purpose for which it was designed, and it came through with flying colors, according to the City Fireman Floyd Lusk.

A worker in the State Welfare Department was checking the application of a Negro woman for benefits, based on the fact that the father of her child was not contributing to its support.

"Where does this Negro man live?" she was asked. He replied thoughtfully, she said, "In Pennsylvania, Arizona."

The investigator, fairly well posted geographically, was a little dubious. "Just a minute now, are you sure that's right? How do you spell the name of that town?"

Reaching into her purse, the Negro woman came out with a worn envelope. "It's right here on this letter: P-h-o-e-n-i-x," she explained.

Johnny Mullins, Haskell farmer, can claim a distinction that few, if any persons in this section of West Texas can match.

Saturday afternoon Johnny was exhibiting a full grown bald eagle he had killed east of town.

The huge bird was one of the largest ever seen here. Wingspread was fully seven feet and the eagle's body was as large as a grown turkey. The needle-sharp talons were almost the size of a man's little finger.

Frank Draper and other long time residents here said it was the largest of the few remembered being killed in this section. They said the eagle could easily carry off a young lamb, favorite prey of the big birds.

Some 25 years ago, Reynolds Wilson, now living in Denton, killed a large eagle while hunting near town. Reynolds had the trophy mounted, and if memory is correct, it was about the same size as the one killed by Mullins.

Antedating Wilson's feat, one of the huge eagles was caught in a steel trap by the late W. M. Tucker around 1912. Tucker had a string of traps set south of town in the area around the old slaughter pens. He had seen two eagles in that vicinity, but had never been able to get within shooting range of them. After the eagle had been caught by one foot in the steel trap, Tucker told that he had difficulty in killing the big bird, which kept hatching into the air in efforts to free itself. The old man said he never saw the second eagle again, and figured that when its mate was killed, the other eagle had left the country.

When this country was first settled, according to the late R. E. Sherrill's History of Haskell County, eagles were numerous in the rough country along the Salt Fork of the Brazos around Kiowa Peak near the northwest corner of the county. Also, eagles were numerous in the rough country along the Salt Fork of the Brazos around Kiowa Peak near the northwest corner of the county.

Both the eagles and the country are noted. R. C. Cooked an interesting schoolroom description by come across not mentioned title. Much of the taken up were built, named that farm of Agnes Couch tells the sidebars name of each concluding as

Mrs. Joe W. Cloud Is Honoree At Brunch In Rule

On Saturday, March 21, a brunch was given in the home of Mrs. J. E. Geer in Rule, honoring Mrs. Joe W. Cloud.

Mrs. Geer greeted guests at the door and introduced them to Mrs. Cloud. The honoree's mother, Mrs. L. J. Macha of Bomarton, and her aunt, Mrs. B. W. Pavlicek of Bomarton, were in the receiving line.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. E. Leon of Rotan, Mrs. Ed Cloud, Mrs. Henry Cloud and Mrs. J. E. Cloud, of Rule.

Assisting in the house party were Mrs. R. K. Blackshear of Spur, Mrs. E. D. Denton of Jayton, Mrs. Jack Westbrook of Snyder, Mrs. J. B. Cloud and Mrs. C. O. Davis.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Frank Campbell, and Mrs. Ed Cloud.

Flowers in shades of pink were used in the entertaining rooms. The table appointments were in crystal and silver with a table cloth of pink organdy and linen over taffeta.

Eighty guests registered during the morning hours from 10 until 11:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloud were married at Palo Alto, Calif., on Feb. 12, 1959. Mrs. Cloud had been teaching in the Palo Alto high school. She is the former Marilyn Macha of Bomarton, Texas.

Weinert Study Club To Present Talent Program

Weinert Study Club will present a program of musical talent of young people in the community April 3 at 7 p. m. in the Weinert high school auditorium.

This program is for benefit of the TFWC Penny Art Fund. Mrs. Bobby Joe Browning will direct the program. Wanda Vojufka will narrate the program. Hostesses will be the members of the Weinert Study Club. Refreshments will be served in the music room.

The Penny Art Fund was started in 1917 and adopted by the GFWC in 1930 to help local artists throughout the U. S. For the past ten years or more, Texas has used the Penny Art Fund for scholarships. For 1958-59 a $500.00 scholarship was given to art student at TWU, Denton; $300.00 at WTSC, Canyon, and $300.00 scholarship to a student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. Other colleges have received scholarships before.

The Penny Art Fund is a state project and the state uses the money in whatever way it chooses, but it continues to be a popular project. Sometimes the fund is used to pay teachers for conducting art classes or to purchase art books for libraries. During one year 186 scholarships were given, 174 pictures purchased, and over $10,000 was collected in the GFWC.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Mrs. Jack Pippin Directs Magazine Club Program

With Mrs. Jack Pippin as director, the Magazine Club met March 20 at 3:30 p. m. at the club house.

The club room was very attractive with spring flowers and Easter decorations. On the speaker's table was a lovely arrangement of large daffodils from the garden of the club's president Mrs. R. C. Couch, Sr.

Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Wallace Cox Sr., presided and presented Mrs. Pippin who opened the meeting with some remarks concerning the Easter Season. She mentioned Easter as a time when beauty returns to the earth; then she read Nineteen Centuries Later, which was a timely Easter message.

Mrs. Robert Middleton was introduced as guest pianist for the afternoon. She played two delightful numbers, "Ritual of the Fire Dance" by De Folla, and "Clog Dance."

Guest speaker for the program was Rev. Dan Barfield of First Presbyterian Church of Rule. He gave a most interesting and enlightening lecture on the Discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls. He told of the finding of some of the Scrolls by an Arab tribesman in the spring of 1947. These, it seems, are the greatest discovery of modern times. They come from a period 170 B. C. to 68 A. D. It may take 40 years to put all the fragments together, but these Scrolls are most important to Old Testament students. They afford material for better understanding of the Old Testament and Early Christianity. Rev. Barfield passed pictures of some of the Scrolls for members and guests to see.

As a fitting close for this program, Mrs. Pippin read a poem most symbolic of the season, "The Touch of the Master's Hand," following this, Rev. Barfield led in prayer.

Hostesses for the afternoon were the social committee: Mesdames D. P. Ratliff, C. V. Payne, A. C. Pierson, Joe Thigpen, J. P. Payne and Carl Wheatley.

Guests were served punch, sandwiches and mints from a table laid with pink damask. A "peach blossom tree" with Easter eggs and rabbits.

Present for this meeting other than those previously mentioned were Mesdames W. E. Guess of Weinert, Wallace Cox Jr., Scott Greene, Jr., C. O. Holt, C. J. Robinson, Bailey Tolliver, Elmer Turner, Earl Atchison, J. U. Fields, O. E. Patterson, K. H. Thornton, Ada Rike, R. L. Burton, Jack Merchant, H. T. Wilkinson, and Misses Beryl Boone and Nettie McCollum.

Composers Names Incorrectly

Names of Texas composers were listed incorrectly in an article last week concerning a program presented by the Mozart Club in Vernon when Mrs. Al C. Williams of this city was guest pianist.

Name of one composer was Victor M. Williams instead of "Richard M." as it appeared. Mr. Williams has sold compositions to 51 bands. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams of Haskell.

The second composer was Bill Gauldin instead of "Baldwin." Mr. Gauldin is at present head of the Music Department in the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Kent Hughes, another composer honored at the program, is presently teaching composition at the University of Texas.

MISS NABEELA HASSEN

Mrs. Shahir Hassen of Haskell has announced the engagement of her daughter, Nabeela, to Mr. Edward Keith David, 3220 W. Kansas, Midland.

The couple plans an April 26 wedding at the First Methodist Church in Haskell.

Miss Hassen, a former speech therapist with the Odessa Public Schools, holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Texas, where she has also done graduate work. Her sorority is Alpha Gamma Delta.

Mr. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewin L. David of Hebbronville, attended Texas Arts and Industries College before receiving his bachelor's degree from Texas Technological College. He is employed as a geologist with the Texas Co. in Midland.

Mrs. Pumphrey Is Guest Reviewer At B&PW Club 'Bosses Night' Program

"An excellent example of the advancement of women in numerous phases of the business world is our guest reviewer," stated Louise Greene as she introduced Mrs. J. B. Pumphrey of Old Glory to members and guests of the B&PW Club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Pumphrey is active in the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, the Stamford Garden Club, is currently serving on the State Committee for the advancement of Garden Clubs, The Philadelphian Club of Rule, The Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, and Delta Kappa Gamma organization, and is owner and manager of a large ranch.

Dressed in a Japanese gown and wearing a large white blossom in her hair, Mrs. Pumphrey reviewed in a most entertaining manner "Bride to the Sun," by Given Terasaki.

The occasion, designated in the year's program as "A Stop Over for Fun," was the annual "Bosses Night" banquet at 7 o'clock in the Texas Cafe.

The Easter motif was carried out in all the table decorations, featuring grass and multi-colored eggs throughout the length of the dining tables, each centered with a large Easter bunny. Places were marked with small colored Japanese parasols adding a touch of the Far East to the setting for the review.

A. C. Pierson gave the invocation. Bosses were introduced in a round-the-table manner following the welcome extended by the club president, Nettie McCollum. A gift of appreciation was presented Mrs. Pumphrey by Madalin Hunt.

A three course dinner was served the members of B&PW Club and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pierson, Barney Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Byrd, Roy Johnson, Paul Kuenstler, Chas. Conner, Mrs. R. V. Robertson of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bell, Myron Biard, M. L. Blohm and the club's special guest, Mrs. Pumphrey.

Plain talk to the man who thinks "all cars are built alike today"

J. EMMET JUDGE

"The one thing we know car buyers want above all in an automobile is quality. Yet many people assume that all cars today are pretty much the same in this respect.

This is far from being the case. I can name at least 30 basic differences in the design of our '59 Mercury. Naturally, we feel these differences make Mercury a better car. For example:

EXTRA STRENGTH STARTS WITH THE FRAME
The backbone of every Mercury is the frame. We use a heavy box-type construction—the heaviest in the industry. Competitors use frames that are up to 125 pounds lighter.

WE BUILD QUALITY YOU CAN SEE
Compare the way Mercury builds engine hoods. Most competitive cars use what is known as a single-panel construction. This type of hood can be twisted and turned with the slightest pressure—often flutters and vibrates when the car is in motion. At Mercury, on the other hand, we use a double-panel construction—two layers of steel with the insulation sandwiched in between. Not only is Mercury's hood more rigid, but it looks better.

YOU FEEL THE QUALITY WITH EVERY STOP...
Mercury brakes are the largest in the field—with up to 22% more brake lining than competitive cars. And only Mercury in its field has brakes that adjust themselves mechanically. You save money by eliminating periodic adjustments. And you are safer because Mercury brakes stay properly adjusted for the life of the linings.

...AND EVERY TIME YOU TAKE THE WHEEL
All 1959 Mercurys have a flexible coupling installed in the steering system.

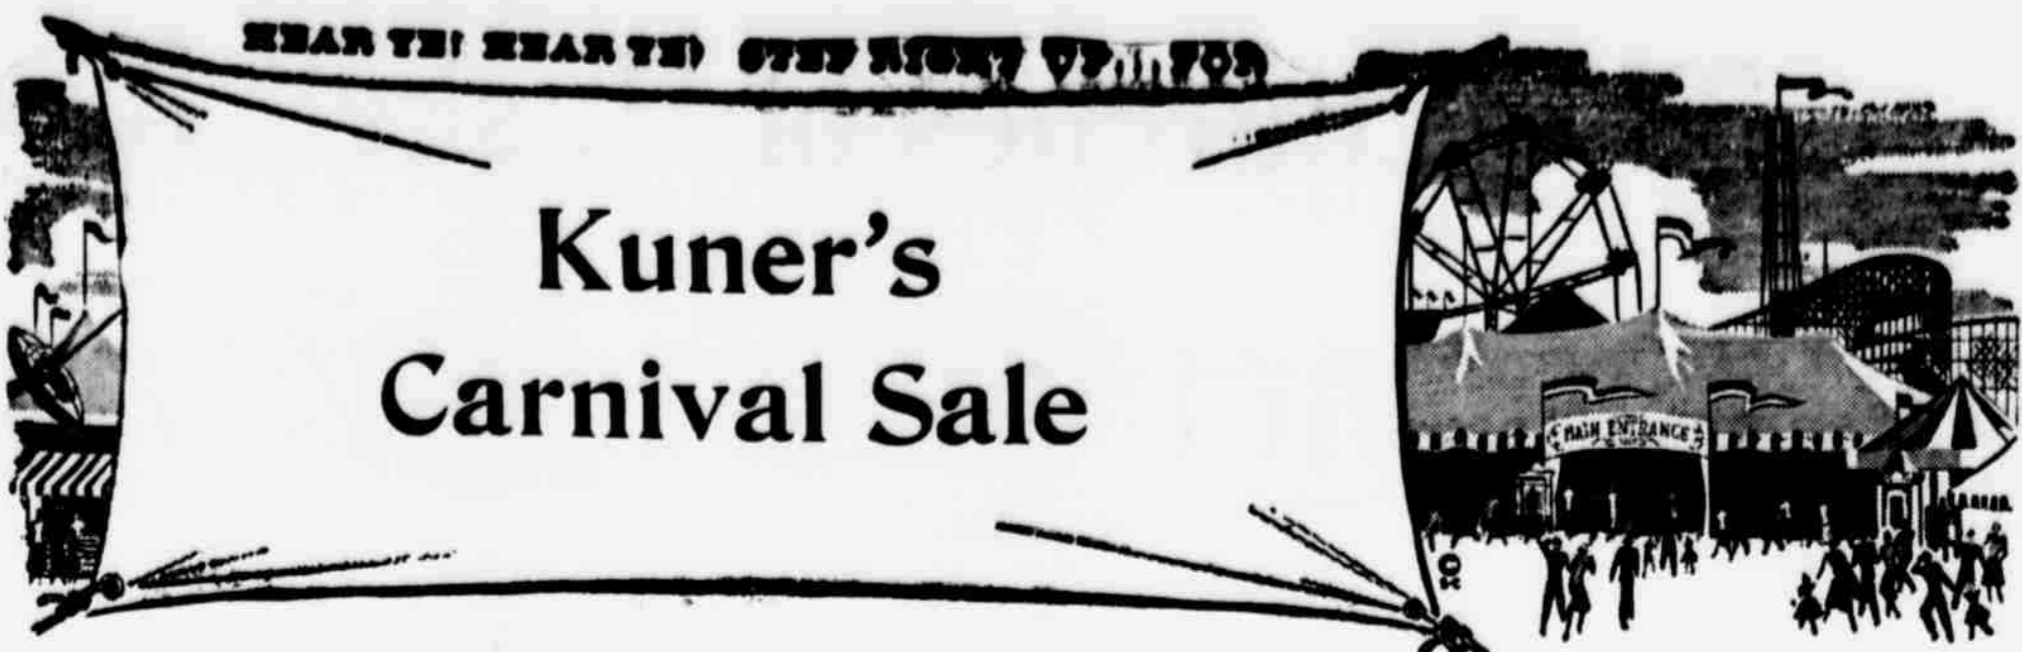

This acts as an insulator—absorbs shocks that would otherwise be transmitted to the steering wheel. Mercury's some cars, gives you this with manual or power steering.

WE HAVE PLENTY OF PROOF THAT THIS IS THE BEST-BUILT CAR IN AMERICA
We know it is the greatest ever designed and built. Mercury's 20-year history has proved so much value in the product. Mercury has advantages over competition. The four messages I'll tell you about more—in styling, comfort, and things you want in a car."

We realize the laudable part our churches play in community life, their contribution in both a spiritual and material sense toward community welfare and common good. These churches, their teachings and their membership exert a tremendous influence that touches every home and every business. This function they have in common with our schools, civic bodies and other organizations, all of whom through various methods perform services for the good and benefit of all. In recognition of the splendid ideals and achievements of the Haskell churches, we urge everyone to attend an Easter church service.

Paint Creek... Community News

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

I have never heard such tall snake stories as we hear these days, and they are true. One day recently Albin Hokanson and Leon and Fred Shaw Sr., smoked out and killed 54 rattlesnakes on the northwestern corner of the Hokanson pasture and the southeastern corner of the Purdue Ranch. Some of them were long and big around, and they all wished for some film so they could take pictures of them. Maybe we need to have a community rattlesnake smoker-out along with these rabbit drives.

Billy Garland Middlebrooks completed his basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark., and returned home for a 10 day furlough. At the end of this time, he will be stationed at some other camp for further training.

Sammy Griffith, Bill Griffith and their brother Lloyd Griffith of Benjamin attended the Feeder's Field Day at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Moore and daughters were in Denton recently visiting Glenda and Nella Walton, students in North Texas State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cathey and Elizabeth from Grand Prairie were community visitors in the home of Mrs. Cathy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Montgomery.

G. Velton Middlebrooks is a surgical patient in the Stamford Sanitarium this week. He underwent surgery Monday, March 16.

The G. A.'s and R. A.'s had a point meeting Monday afternoon at the Baptist Church and heard a review of the Missionary book, "For You." The first three chapters were reviewed by Mrs. Bud Moore and the last three by Mrs. Morris Haynes. Afterward a meal was served by Mrs. Haynes and Joan Griffith, who is working on her Queen with GA's. One of her requirements is to cook and serve three foreign dishes. The menu consisted of paprika chicken, a Polish dish, pizza pie, an Italian dish, secret salad from a German recipe, French bread, tea and Swedish ring for dessert.

During the discussion following the book review there were several personal testimonies, and then four little people were converted. The conversions came as a surprise to the leaders, but made the program one of the big services the church has had this year. These four will join the church this coming Sunday.

Twenty boys and girls attended and guests were Rev. and Mrs. Moore, Jeannie Moore, Phyllis Middlebrooks and Wanda Griffith, and the G. A. leader Mrs. Haynes.

Mrs. Woodrow Smith underwent dental surgery at the Haskell Hospital recently.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Gillespie had as their guest last week their little grandson, Greg Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dyle Gillespie of Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hughes and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hughes spent the weekend in Denton recently with Dolin Hughes who is attending N. T. S. C.

Miss Billie Lou Boshier and Mrs. Paul Fischer went to Stephenville to take the Homemaking girls to attend the area FHA meeting. Making the trip were Paint Creek chapter president, Margaret Fischer, and members Janette Trussell, Roberta and Belva Jones, Helen and Delores Pustejovsky and Mary Lou and Ann McLennan.

The Womanless Wedding that preceded the Box and Pie supper sponsored by the senior class was a scream. That is just the best way to describe it. The audience laughed themselves sick. Some of the men made very nice looking women, especially the choral group, Glen Walton, Allen Overton, Dale Middlebrooks (who really made a good looking woman) and R. V. Earles composed the group. They were led by Verney Howard, and sang surprisingly well. They sang "Here Comes the Bride" and "I Love You Truly." Jimmy Trimble, the pianist, wore a pink dress, rather short on him, and had black accessories. Paul Fischer, sans teeth, and with a black shawl over his head stole the show as the bride's grandmother. Grandpa was Morris Haynes. Ira Coleman, dressed only in a diaper and shirt, and all 6 feet 2 of him in a wheelbarrow "baby carriage" pushed by his Negro mammy, Willie Lee Medford, also stopped the show. Other members of the family were the bride's mother, James Raughton; the bride's father, Roy Overton; baby sister of the bride, Ray Perry; jilted sweethearts of the groom, Mack Earles, Ellis Bean and W. C. Hughes. Members of the wedding party were candlelighters Irvin Overton, Woodrow Smith, John Lee Holcomb, Flower girls, Bill Tate and Louie Kuentler; maid of honor, Allen Isbell; bridesmaids, Bill Petrich, Arthur Watson, Frank Pustejovsky, Jody Earles; ring-bearers, Sammy and Bill Griffith; trainbearers, Raymond Bounds and Lem Ivy. Bill Petrich was a lovely bridesmaid in black gown, and cowboy boots. Gene Overton made as beautiful bride at 225 pounds dressed in white dress and net veil could be. The groom was Albin Hokanson, best man was Durward Livengood and groomsmen were Luther Harris, Albert Bittner, Homer Livengood and Alex McLennan.

The seniors had 12 boxes and over 60 pies to auction after the wedding, and they made almost $150 toward their senior trip.

Clarence Raughton has returned home from the Stamford Hospital and is feeling better than he has in several days. He had two blood transfusions while he was in the hospital.

At the track meet in O'Brien Jimmy Griffith won second in the 880, and was only 2-10ths of a second behind the Trent boy who won first. Schools from all over the area participated and we are proud of Jimmy. Jerry Hughes placed in the junior high jumping.

Mrs. Allen Isbell is back in school after missing almost a week due to the unfortunate accident when she dropped a gallon jar of salad dressing and cut the top of her foot badly. It required 16 stitches, and is still quite sore, but she can stand on it.

On Saturday, April 4, there will be a trustee election held at the school auditorium. Names on the ballot are Jesse Cook, Paul Fischer and Roy Medford, and for County Trustee, Roy Overton. The three board members are the ones whose terms will expire this April, and they have all agreed to serve again.

120 Hunters Take Part In Rabbit Drive Tuesday

An all-day rabbit drive conducted in the Curry Chapel community Tuesday was one of the most successful held in years, with 120 or more hunters taking part in the day-long hunt.

John Brock, who helped plan and organize the drive, estimated that several thousand rabbits were killed by the hunters.

Women of the community helped in serving dinner on the ground at noon.

Sponsors of the drive expressed appreciation for the generous cooperation extended by the Modern Way Food Store, M. System Co-Op, Gin No. 2 of Haskell, and the Paymaster Gin at Weinert in helping make the drive a success.

Visit With August Rueffer Reveals Fate Of Historic School Sidewalks

(Editor's Note: In an article last week, R. C. Couch Sr., told the interesting history of the lettered sidewalks put down 30 years ago on the high school grounds. In this concluding article, he tells the fate of some of the lettered concrete blocks taken up when the present school buildings were erected.)

BY R. C. COUCH, SR.

The sidewalks in question were built when the old concrete block building was in use on the North Grounds and after the first new building for the High School was built just south of it, where the last one built now stands.

After the "death" of both buildings, new planning, of course, did not fit the old building which the sidewalks were made to fit. Hence when these walks did not fit the new buildings they had to be taken up. And, at least one-half or more of the sidewalks that were laid in the public effort had to be removed.

Our friend and citizen August Rueffer from the northeast part of the county who had his eyes open for a bargain contacted the School Board for one in the salvage matter. He first bought, at 25 cents each, a number of loads of the concrete—big heavy slabs—of which the North Building was constructed. He built from these a two room storage space, part above the ground and a part below which is now of service and will, no doubt, be for years to come.

Mr. Rueffer also decided that he wanted the walks, a block at a time, for some reason we know not what. I hardly think he knew at the time what he wanted them for, but he took them because he could get so much for a quarter and that was what he paid for each block.

Since August had to make so many trips, with wagons and teams over this 30 mile round trip, I felt he had made a bad deal. For many years when I would go by the Rueffer place I would see numbers of these blocks leaning up against a shed or some other support. On the outside block was the name Lewis Manley, one of the teachers of that time. She is now Mrs. John McCollum of Dallas.

I had noticed in recent years that these blocks had been moved but I did not know what had happened to them. So I decided to interview August to get the complete history of the blocks. On doing so I had a very pleasant visit with him which I enjoyed, as I always do.

After we searched the premises for all the information that we might find on the old blocks, he then told what happened to the rest of them. In his farm needs he found that he could use a concrete table or platform where he could dry out his wet grain. Since this is sometimes quite a job, he really needed a large spread. In doing this he needed a lot of sand and cement, and to save on these he broke up the slabs and used them in a mixture and covered over the area with a nice cement covering. So this ends forever and seals the history of this part of our sidewalk story.

However, we did find about a dozen of our number, which were still intact and showing the names of the ones responsible for their existence. They are Oates Drug Store, Mrs. Scott Greene (The), Mr. J. Horace Bass (These), Mr. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. O. Dodson, Oliver Williams, Frank Sloan, R. H. Mitchell, J. T. Bynum, J. A. Gilstrap, Farmers Gin Co., Farm Bureau Gin Co., Sheriff. The word "the" on Mrs. Greene's block and the word "these" on the block of Mr. Bass tells us that the High School teachers and the Grade School teachers were placed together and located on the walks connecting the two buildings. So they had to be removed.

Rueffer Family History Interesting

The August Rueffer family history would be an item of much interest to many people. The father of August came to the States and Texas from Germany in 1892. He came alone. In 1893 he sent August a ticket which landed him in Galveston alone. He said he saw his first Negroes on this trip, and with these and many other marvelous things he made a great voyage of discovery. In 1894 the balance of the family was brought over. He had to take it in broken doses.

The first birthday that August had after he landed in the U. S. was his 17th. The family stayed in South Texas for many years and August was working for wages a good part of the time. His first salary was $8.00 per month. After proving to his boss that he was a good hand, he had a

County Offices Will Go On 5-Day Week Schedule

Beginning Saturday, April 4, all offices in the courthouse will go on a five-day week, with the offices remaining closed all day Saturday.

Only exception will be the offices of the Sheriff's Department and the Highway Patrol.

The five-day week schedule will be observed until Oct. 1, when the offices will resume opening on Saturday morning. County Judge Jim Alvis stated.

In addition to office personnel in the courthouse, it is understood that the five-day week will also apply to all other county employees who work on a monthly or annual basis.

raise to $10 per month. The family moved to Haskell County in 1907, and in 1908 he moved to the lands where he still lives. He spent the first year in a tent or under wagon sheets. From his $10 a month he has grown to a landholder of some 10 or 12 farms located in several West Texas counties. At the present time he is retired and living alone in his commodious country lay-out. But he says he still likes to work. He feels better and sleeps better when he does. He just visits around with his children when it suits him.

August Rueffer has made Haskell County a fine citizen for more than 50 years, and he is leaving a fine family of his own kind and likeness.
