Ice storm causes loss of electricity to local residents

Between 1,500 and 2,000 member/customers of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative were without power, following a severe weekend ice storm that paralyzed portions of West Texas. Most of the damage occurred in Floyd, Crosby, Hale, and Brisco Counties.

"Lighthouse expects to have two substations back on line today, with 500 to 700 meters still out," said Lighthouse Electric Cooperative General Manager Bill Harbin. "We still have lots of feeder lines and lateral lines unusable until poles and cross arms are replaced. Right now, we're expecting to have power restored to most residences by tomorrow (Wednesday) or Thursday."

Lighthouse EC crews are working around the clock to restore power in the wake of the ice storm that crippled the system over the weekend. Two substations and nearly 2,000 meters lost power due to the storm, and approximately 200 utility poles were downed, with hundreds of cross arms and conductors broken.

According to Harbin the area sustaining the most damage was the east side of Floyd and Crosby Counties but all of the service area was affected to some extent. "Electricity started going off Sunday between 2:00 a.m. and 4:00 a.m.," said Harbin.

Lighthouse EC line crews are being assisted by four contract crews and line personnel from Bailey County EC. All Lighthouse EC resources are being brought to bear to resolve this crisis, said Harbin. "We've had no problems obtaining supplies," he said. "Texas Electric Cooperatives (TEC) and other suppliers are keeping us well-stocked. Three trucks delivered new utility poles from the TEC Pole Plant about 7:30 yesterday evening," Harbin said.

According to Harbin, Lighthouse linemen were working 16-18 hour days. "We have 20 local men working and they have been reinforced by 30 more from other places," said Harbin.

"We still have a tremendous ice load on many lines," said Harbin. "We may sustain additional damage as the wind picks up and as ice falls from the lines when the temperature warms up." Harbin said the co-op hopes to have power restored in all residences by mid week, "but that will depend on weather and how much, if any, additional damage we sustain."

Harbin reported that "...even though we have additional customer service representatives manning the phones, members may get a busy signal, initially when trying to call in. Please try your call again. We appreciate your patience and we are working as hard as we can to restore power."

Harbin said, "Our members are the greatest folks in the world. We are grateful to them for their patience and courtesy. They keep encouraging us and offering to help, even though some have been without electricity since Saturday."

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

It's been a long run--96 years. Due to the support of this business throughout the years by the people of Floyd County, a number of families have made a living here. To that, we say "Thank you. We could not have done it without you." Kirk and Sons has now closed its doors forever and will auction the remaining assets on January 27.

John Campbell will be doing picture framing, glass cutting, storm windows and Hoover vacuum repair from his home on East Tennessee Street. For 52 years, John has been a loyal employee of Kirk's and has worked for me 20 of those years. Thanks John, I couldn't have done it without you.

I have grown up working for Kirk and Sons and have managed it for the last 20 years. I can honestly say that the people here are among the friendliest around. I have gained valuable experience serving you--from appliance repair and gunsmithing, carpet jobs and furniture moving, mixing paint and cutting keys, managing bookwork and selling game licenses, to just plain ol' being here when you needed something to fix a problem. Along with that, it has been a pleasure volunteering for this community. Lions Club, 4-H, the Floyd County Museum, the Band Boosters, Punkin' Days, and Old Settlers--all of these have taught me to serve even better.

As I look forward to moving to Amarillo and beyond, I am confident that these skills I have learned will make living life that much easier no matter where I live or with whom I work. Just as I feel I got a good education from Floydada ISD, I have also gained a great education just living and working in Floyd County. And for this I say "Thank you. I couldn't have done it without you."

Lockney awards bid for sidewalk grant

By Judy Macha

The Lockney City Council met Thursday January 11, 2007 to consider two bids received from O.J.D. and A.D.M. engineering firms regarding work to be done with the Sidewalk Grant funds.

Michael Adams, representing O.J.D. Engineering Firm, adressed the Council and answered questions. No representative from A.D.M. was present. The Council unanimously approved awarding the contract to O.J.D. Engineering Firm.

Police Chief Jerry Edwards advised the Council First National Bank in Floydada had given another $5,000 grant to the Lockney Police Department. "We will probably upgrade the radar systems in our patrol cars," Edwards said.

"I would like to commend Lockney City Council," said City Attorney Lanny Voss. "You are ahead of the curve in having each council person personally inspect and initial each month the bills for the city department for which they have oversight. I have just received the newly released T.M.L. governance guidelines and they recommend doing just that as well as some of the other ideas you as a Council have already enacted to be as fiscally responsible as possible with the City's funds."

FISD Board renews Superintendent's contract

By Darwin Robinson

The Floydada ISD Board met Thursday, January 11, 2007, and after over three hours in closed session discussing Superintendent Jerry Vaughn's 2006 evaluation, the board approved Vaughn's three year contract through June 30, 2010 with a vote of 5 to 1.

Those voting for the superintendent's three year extension contract were Board President William Dean, Board Members Kerry Pratt, Marty Lucke, Lyle Miller and Bart Greer.

Voting against the superintendent's three year contract was Board Member Rachel Castillo.

Board Member Amado Morales was absent from the meeting.

Before unanimously approving the payment of the December, 2006 bills, questions were asked by Board Members Pratt and Greer concerning a $23,638.26 payment to Grimes and Associates.

According to Superintendent Vaughn, this expense was for a one day fact finding trip to Dallas and a partial fee payment to Grimes and Associates. "$1,800 was FISD's cost to fly me, Principal Fred Bush and Principal Gilbert Trevino to look over several school facilities there. By flying in Grimes' personal jet, we were able to return the same day without having to spend the night in a motel," said Vaughn.

"That sounds a little expensive to me," said Trustee Bart Greer.

In a related matter, Vaughn told the board about several blueprint drafts that have already been submitted by Grimes and Associates concerning the future construction bond project at A.B. Duncan Elementary. "We have made several changes on these early drafts in order to get all the space and classrooms needed for all our programs," said Vaughn.

Brenda Jones, a representative of Central Plains Special Education, addressed the board during Public Comment. Jones stated her concerns for the Special Ed children in Floyd County being neglected because of the recent dissolvement of the Special Ed Coop between Floydada, Lockney and Petersburg.

"Caprock Services have 34 children being served. There are 8 from Floydada, three from Lockney and two from Petersburg. I am very concerned for these special ed children," said Jones.

Board President Dean told Jones, "Speaking as an individual, and I hope for the board, we are not going to forget these children. It was not our choice to dissolve the (Special Ed) Coop. Those kids will still be served."

In a Coop related matter, Superintendent Vaughn told the board, "We are on a deadline to report to the state by February 1, whether we have a new (Special Ed) Coop, or if we are in another Coop. I am planning on meeting with the Honda Coop of Hale Center, New Deal and Shallowater this week. I have also had two inquiries of other districts wanting to join with us. We have three options now. We may have to have a special session to take action on this before February 1."

Concerning the costs of joining another Coop or allowing another district to unite with FISD, Vaughn said, "It depends on the situation. It may be expensive, or not. The services will not go away. We will pay only for the students we have in the Coop. Our Special Ed funds should be sufficient for our needs."

FISD Business Manager

Sharon Rainwater gave the board a Tax Statement, a Cash Flow Report and an Investment Report. The Tax Statement showed a Current Tax Roll of $1,974,201.76, with Net Collections of $1,367,474.30 as of December 31, 2006, or 69.37 percent.

The Cash Flow Report showed a Current Cash Balance of $7,133,327.81, with a Fund Balance of $5,663,799.75. The Investment Report showed a Total Cash Balance on 12-31-2006 at $7,198,145.54, with Earned Interest a $3,387,000.00 CD at $160,882.51.

In a related matter and upon the recommendation of Vaughn, the board unanimously approved designating 33 percent of all CDs' Earned Interest each year to help sustain the computer TIP program. "33 percent from this year's CD's Earned Interest will be $84,000," said Vaughn.

Vaughn said, "We have already received in the past three years more than $560,000.00 from the state for the TIP program. This state help will run out this year. We need to be proactive and maintain the TIP computer program. We need to start earmarking money now for this program. We will need some new computers, hardware, software and licenses. Sustainability is the key to these types of programs."

The board accepted the resignation of custodian Juan Gomez at FJHS and employed math teacher Laura Zepeda at FJHS.

Several Lockey businesses victims of burglaries

According to Lockney Chief of Police Jerry Edwards, several burglaries are currently under investigation.

Some time during the Christmas holidays the Longhorn Inn was broken into. "It was reported to us on January 1," Edwards said.

The following businesses were broken into during the night of Wednesday, January 3: Lisa's Restaurant, Rudy's Barber Shop, Kaleidoscope and M.A. Ulmer's building. Kaleidoscope was again broken into during the night of Thursday January 4.

According to Edwards, an attempt was made to enter the Hesperian-Beacon office as well.

If anyone has any information pertaining to these burglaries, please contact the Lockney Police Department at 806-652-3548.

PNS Cogdell Clinic shows good profit at end of 2006

By Darwin Robinson

The Caprock Hospital District Board met Tuesday, January 16, and heard a good profit report from the PNS Cogdell Clinic and approved the purchase of new carpet for the Floydada EMS Service building.

According to Board Member Tom Farris, the Cogdell Clinic showed a total profit of $367,217.44 for the year of 2006.

"The clinic made a profit of $32,345.13 for the month of December, 2006," said Farris.

"The board approved the purchase of new carpet for the EMS Service building," said Farris.

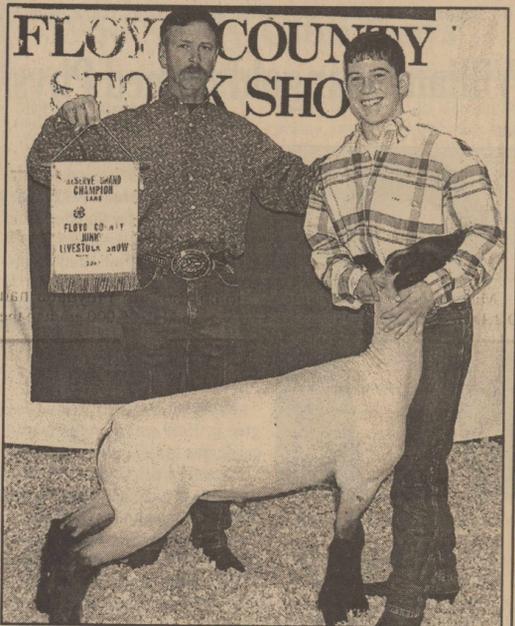

The EMS update showed 35 runs in December, with a total of 578 runs in 2006, according to Farris.

Lockney Senior Citizen News

By Vera Jo Bybee

Lockney Senior Citizens elected officers for the year 2007 at their annual board meeting Thursday afternoon. The new President is Jr. Brotherton, Vice President is Charles F. Barber. Board members are Gladys Bobbitt, Wanda Barber, Geneva Barclay, Jean Brotherton, Claude Brown, Walter Reeves, and Dee Copeland. I know they all are looking forward to serving the Center to the best of their ability. Let's give them our support by getting involved and helping them every way we can to make the Center a success and an enjoyable place to meet.

I really received a lot of response from readers who went to hear Charlie Pride sing in Lockney in 1967. Sandy Riley Jordan said she and Belinda Griffith Stapp went to hear Charlie and Belinda got his autograph. Belinda said she wish she still had it. Norma Ragland still had her program autographed by Charlie. She brought me a copy of it. R.L. Knox knew just exactly what year it was cause he was moving into his new house on 8th and Spruce and noticed all the cars over at the Elementary School. The next morning he asked Weldon Dodson what was going on and Ikey said "Charlie Pride was here". Others who remembered him being here were Jimmy Scott, C.F. Barber, and Alvin Hayes. Charlie was sponsored by the Fire Department. Audvie Barnett was the Fire Chief at that time and said Charlie was passing through and wanted to sing for them just for part of the door. He was just beginning his career. Next year Audvie tried to get him to come back to Lockney for the Fair but by that time he was such a success they couldn't afford him. Thank you Joe Holmes of Plano, Tx. for being the first one to tell me about Charlie Pride performing in Lockney.

In response to my request for a subject to do research on for a story for this article I heard from Joe's brother Jerry Holmes of Denver, Colo. He gave me a lot of information on "Maurice Ewing, a Lockney graduate and one of the most distinguished men in his chosen field of science.

Jerry and his father Oliver Holmes went to hear Maurice give a lecture in Dallas in 1972. Maurice died from a massive stroke in 1974 at age of 67 in Galveston, Texas

I quote from the 1979 Floyd County History Book.

"Paradoxically a boy reared in the drought ridden Panhandle of Texas stood high in the area of underwater exploration. The Maurice Ewing Hall, a laboratory centrally located in the complex of the Marine Science Institute of the University of Texas at Galveston is a tangible expression of the value according his work."

I will write more on Maurice's Floyd County relatives next week. I am getting most of this information from the 27 year old Floyd County History Book. The Floyd County Historical Museum still has a few of these books for sale at $37.50. That was the original price they sold for. Most places are selling their history books for $100.00 or more because there are so few of them left. This history book has the history of communities, schools, churches, families etc. It is a wonderful book that I use almost daily.

By Margarette Word

These past several days have really been different. Most of us have been at home trying to stay warm. Many have been without electricity and this is very bad. Everything you think about doing needs electricity. We forget how much we depend on it.

I want to "Thank" all those people who had to work hard in the cold to restore electricity to home and businesses that were affected by the bad weather.

Staying home I was able to get a lot done that I had been putting off. I enjoyed being lazy and I tried to enjoy each day.

MARK your calendar Friday, February 8th and Saturday, February 9th for AARP drivers license training course. If you take this two day course your auto inurance company will give you a nice discount on your auto insurance over a 3 year period. I have taken this course for several years and I enjoy getting the discount on my insurance.

Each day the course will be taught by a trained AARP representative from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. This course bring you up to date on your driving skills, rules and regulations. The cost is $10.00 per person. Please call the center, 983-2032, to put your name on the list. You must sign up and pay the $10 fee before class starts. We must have at least 10 people to take the course. No tests will be given but you will learn a lot that you may have forgotten.

Ruth Hammonds had surgery.

She is at home recovering.

Charles Haenisch had hip surgery recently. He is at home and is in recovery.

Alton and Frances Rose of Athens, Texas was in Floydada recently. They came to the center on Wednesday, January 10th and ate lunch and visited. We enjoyed seeing them.

Lovene Moore had minor surgery. She is at home in recovery.

Our sympathy to the family of Winnie Gregory.

Thank you very much for remembering the center when you need to make a memorial donation.

In memory of Imogene Baird - Harold and Charlene Norrell, Jerry and Winola Gallo-way, J.A. and Norma Welch, Gary and Emma Pate, Vonceil Colston.

1956 Study Club News

By Terri Bush

The January meeting was held in the home of Tomi Covington in Dougherty. Members visited and enjoyed selecting from mixed sandwiches, salad and crab rangoons for the meal. The table carried out the blue and silver winter theme of snowmen and snowflakes decor in the rest of her home. After the meal, Jan Willson introduced guest speaker, Katrina Gooch.

Katrina is the director of EMS services in Floyd County. She shared with the club what is involved in an emergency response and the different skills needed to perform her job effectively. The continuing education keeps all the personnel proficient in their skills.

We can help any emergency responder by having a list of all meds and conditions that could affect the care given. If you should use a cell phone to call in an emergency, she stressed it would be helpful to stay on the phone since many phones may not be equipped with GPS location capabilities. We enjoyed her presentation and are very lucky to have someone as dedicated as Katrina and her staff to service our emergency needs.

Our regular meeting was conducted by Jan Willson. She welcomed Kathy Pritchard of Plainview, a guest of Trina Simpson. Judy Schacht asked for everyone's New Year resolution at the roll call.

Thank you cards were read from Jim and Gail Dempsey on behalf of Katalyst Ministries. The club voted to make a donation to EMS for their use as needed and also in memory of Mrs. Imogene Baird, mother of member Dixie Harris.

After the recognition of birthdays and anniversaries, the meeting was concluded. Next month we will meet in the home of Trina Simpson.

Please remember to pray for our soldiers

We the family of Jerry Don Pleasant would like to thank everyone for your kindness and sympathy at our time of loss.

Every call, visit, contribution, food, prayer and a shoulder to lean on was deeply appreciated.

1934 Study Club

By Wilma Gowens

The 1934 Study Club met Tuesday, January 9, 2007 in the home of Faye Bertrand. The meeting was called to order by President, Diana Glover.

Roll Call, answered with "A Helpful Hint" and reading of the minutes was led by Willie Mae Ferguson. Nell McClung led the members with the Club Collect.

Melissa Long, County Extension Agent for Family and Consumer Sciences along with Seth Manney, new county Extension Agent for Agriculture in Briscoe County beginning February 8, 2007 gave an interesting program on foods for maintaining good health. Melissa gave each member a cookbook titled, "Soups and Stews from A to Z" which she had made with recipes she had collected.

Melissa also brought Asparagus Potato Soup which she had cooked in a crockpot, to serve to us with other refreshments of "Friendship Cake" and Snack Mix by Faye Bertrand. We all enjoyed the delicious refreshments and the program by the two County Extension Agents and welcome them back again.

Two of our members were unable to attend due to illness. We look forward to our next meeting and hope Ila White and Emagene Haenisch will be well and able to attend. We wish for Charles Haenisch that he can recuperate well from his hip surgery and be home soon.

Members presents were: Faye Bertrand, Wilma Colston, Betsy Dempsey, Willie Mae Ferguson, Diana Glover, Wilma Gowens, Nell McClung, Flora McNeill, Wanda Turner, Marie Warren and Margarette Word.

By Shawn Wade

The list of challenges facing the cotton industry heading into the 2007 growing season is significant and the presenters who shared their thoughts about those challenges with the more than 2,300 growers and industry leaders that gathered in New Orleans for the 2007 Beltwide Cotton Conference spoke to a highly attentive audience.

Opening day speakers at the Beltwide's Production Conference discussed the importance of upcoming federal budget discussions and the need to formulate a sound response to the latest challenge put forth by Brazil as two of the many issues facing the industry heading into the Farm Bill debate.

Highlighting the speaker list was Secretary of Agriculture Mike Johanns who provided the keynote address, but confined his comments to general themes that continued to lay the groundwork for what many expect to be a very different view for future U.S. farm policy.

Sticking with the Administration's long-standing position that changes should be made in the current policy to more readily insure that U.S. farm programs are fully compatible with WTO trade agreements and also provide a more equitable distribution of farm program dollars, Johanns reiterated his intention to submit a different vision for U.S. agricultural policy.

Johanns noted in a press briefing following his address that the Bush Administration is preparing to release their proposal for future U.S. farm policy around the first week of February.

That announcement is also expected to coincide with release of the Administration's new budget recommendations for the 2008 fiscal year. One of the initial focuses of the cotton industry before the 2007 Farm Bill debate opens will be establishment of the budget baseline within which the new Farm Bill will be written.

Joining Johanns in addressing the Beltwide conferences were National Cotton Council Chairman Allen Helms and Cotton Incorporated President and Chief Executive Officer J. Berrye Worsham. Helms' remarks focused on the legislative, trade and regulatory challenges facing the cotton industry.

Worsham discussed the issue of sustainability and the efforts of Cotton Incorporated to minimize issues that could become obstacles to future growth. He noted that the issue of sustainability in cotton production involves finding the right balance between environmental stewardship and preserving cotton's resource base and accomplishing those goals in a way that allows cotton to remain an economically viable crop. NASS announces updated 2006 crop estimate

Release of the January 2007 Crop Production report from the USDA National Agricultural Statistics Service shows a slight increase in the fortunes of the 2006 High Plains cotton crop.

Based on the latest figures the High Plains crop is now expected to total 4.16 million bales, an increase of 150,000 bales from the December forecast. Texas production is now forecast at an even 6 million bales.

The High Plains cotton production forecast had been holding steady at 4.01 million bales for the past few months as producers harvested crops and set about the process of getting cotton through the gin.

The January change shouldn't be considered much of a surprise now that virtually all the 2006 crop is out of the field and gins have a better handle on how many modules are still waiting to be processed.

Nationally, the January report shows all cotton production up 2 percent at 21.7 million bales from the previous month. Upland cotton production is estimated to total 20.9 million bales.

The following table shows the production breakdown for Texas crop reporting districts based on the January 2007 NASS production estimate.

1 Corinthians 13:7-8

I AM THANKFUL

For the wife who says it's hot dogs tonight, because she is home with me, and not out with someone else.
For the husband who is on the sofa being a couch potato, because he is home with me and not out at the bars. For the teenager who is complaining about doing dishes because that means she is at home, not on the streets.
For the taxes that I pay because it means that I am employed.
For the mess to clean after a party because it means that I have been surrounded by friends.
For the clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I have enough to eat.
For my shadow that watches me work because it means I am out in the sunshine.
For a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.
For all the complaining I hear about the government because it means that we have freedom of speech.
For the parking spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking and that I have been blessed with transportation.
For my huge heating bill because it means I am warm.
For the lady behind me in church that sings off key because it means that I can hear.
For the pile of laundry and ironing because it means I have clothes to wear.
For weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been capable of working hard.
For the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours because it means that I am alive.
