Iraqi In Moscow Looking For Arms

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraqi Premier Tarek Aziz arrived in Moscow today on what Kuwaiti newspapers said was an arms-seeking visit and Iran's news outlets reported that the Iranian Supreme Defense Council was seeking clarification of a peace proposal from non-aligned nations.

Iran's news agency Pars also reported Iran's troops had pushed Iraqi forces back several miles from the east bank of the Bahmanshir River at Abadan for the first time since Iraq encircled the refinery city 18 days ago.

President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr announced Iran had "effectively stopped" the invaders and would score further gains once the country's harsh winter sets in. The Persian Gulf war is in its eighth week.

The Moscow trip is the second by Aziz to the Soviet capital since the war broke out.

Kuwaiti newspapers said Aziz seeks arms, spare parts and ammunition under the 1972 Iraqi-Soviet friendship treaty. Iraq has ordered 60 Mirage jet fighters from France but deliveries are not expected to start until early next year.

Iran's Supreme Defense Council decided Monday night to seek clarification of a five-point proposal conveyed by Cuban Foreign Minister Isidoro Malmierca, according to Tehran radio, while Pars reported the council would accept a personal envoy of U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim if the mission was confined to "fact-finding."

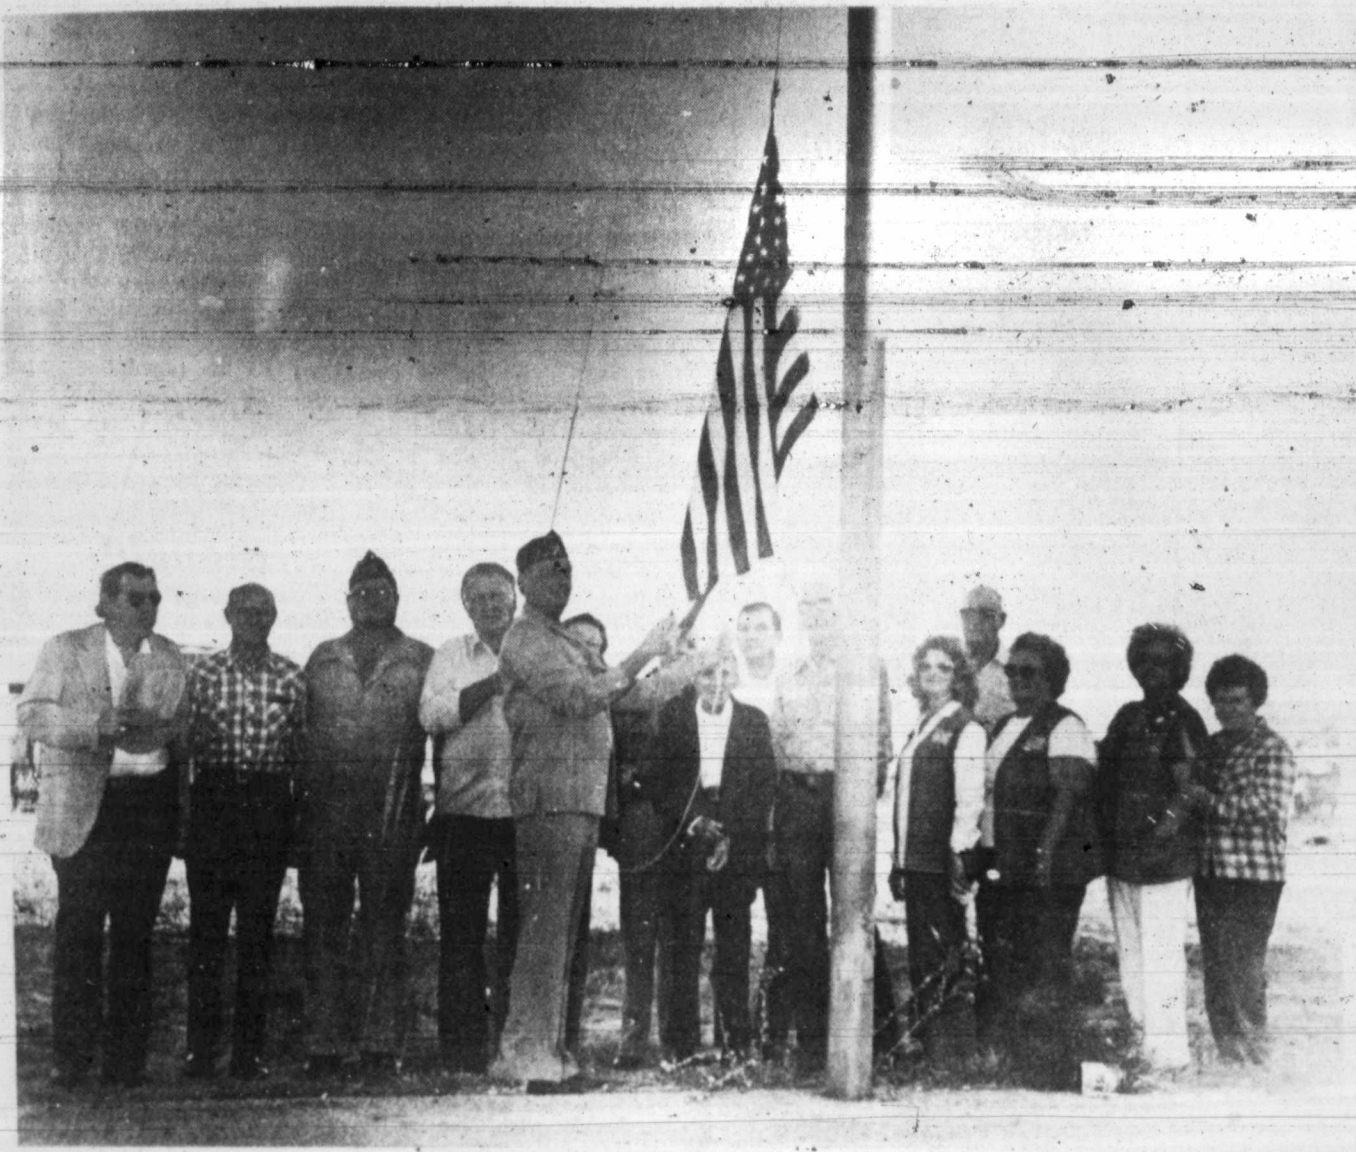

Pars said Malmierca proposed a six-nation "goodwill and fact-finding mission" from non-aligned countries to visit Tehran and Baghdad.

"The proposal was somewhat unclear," said a council member.

In Paris, Habib Chatti, secretary-general of the Islamic Conference, said Iraq has accepted his proposal for a special committee of six Moslem chiefs of state to work out a solution to the war.

"Iran has not refused it," he said, but gave no further details.

Iraqi President Saddam Hussein threatened Iran with destruction if it did not surrender its claim to the disputed Shatt al-Arab waterway between the two countries.

Formal Request Made For Recount Of Votes

A formal request for a recount of votes in County Commissioners' Precinct 3 in the Nov. 4 general election was submitted to District Judge Wayland G. Holt this morning.

The request, which asks for a "hand count" of all ballots in the commissioners' precinct, was made by Charlie Yoast, the incumbent and the Democratic Party's candidate in the general election. Unofficial returns from the election indicated that Yoast was defeated by Bernhard Bartels, the Republican Party nominee, by a margin of 89 votes.

Yoast had announced Monday that he was considering a recount request, and when he decided Monday afternoon to proceed, county commissioners delayed the canvassing of the returns from the Nov. 4 election.

Yoast had said that he was not questioning the integrity of election officials, but wanted to make certain that electronic voting devices were accurate. Therefore he requested a hand count of the ballots.

The Texas Election Code for a recount requires a request to the district judge, who, in turn, sets a fee for the cost of the recount and appoints three persons to recount the ballots. The fee set for Yoast is $300.

Judge Holt was busy in the courtroom on some juvenile matters this morning, and there was no immediate announcement of a vote-counting team.

Involved in the recount will be all ballots cast Nov. 4 in five voting precincts and those from Commissioners' Precinct 3 in the absentee box. The unofficial count reported earlier showed a total of 2,827 votes for that office, with Bartels receiving 1,458 and Yoast 1,369.

Yoast was seeking a third term as county commissioner, while it was the first political race for Bartels.

The hand-counting process will be somewhat tedious, since the perforations in the punch-type ballot must be checked against the numbers assigned to the two candidates individually and also the numbers assigned for straight party balloting.

Here's another one of life's little ironies. The powers that be report that the price of heating oil is likely to be increased soon. The reason: For every barrel of fuel oil turned out by refineries, there are two barrels of gasoline, and they are wondering where they will put all of that gasoline, now that demand for it has declined. Apparently lots of people have been listening to pleas for reducing gasoline consumption.

Excuse us if we seem to keep going back to the general election for comment, but undoubtedly it is an event that will get considerable space in the nation's political history and in our estimation is worthy of comment. It has launched a period of jubilation for the Republican Party, and consequently it is not surprising that you hear speculation that 1980 may be the year that wiped out the Democratic Party.

But pay no heed to such talk. There were many who thought that the Republican Party was mortally wounded in 1936 when Franklin D. Roosevelt overwhelmed Alf Landon. But the Republicans came back and put a man in the White House 16 years later. The same speculation evolved when Lyndon Johnson won easily over Barry Goldwater, and there were those who labeled Richard Nixon's overwhelming defeat of George McGovern as a death knell. But it never happened, and if you think the Democrats are dead, stick around for a few more years.

Do you want to live a happy life? Robert Louis Stevenson offered this formula a century ago:

1. Make up your mind to be happy—learn to find pleasure in simple things.
2. Make the best of circumstances. No one has everything, and everyone has something of sorrow.
3. Don't take yourself too seriously.
4. Don't let criticism worry you—you can't please everybody.
5. Don't let your neighbors set your standards. Be yourself.
6. Do things you enjoy doing, but stay out of debt.
7. Don't borrow trouble. Imaginary things are harder to bear than real ones.
8. Since hate poisons the soul, do not cherish enmities and grudges. Avoid people who make you unhappy.
9. Have many interests. If you can't travel, read about places.
10. Don't hold postmortems or spend time brooding over sorrows or mistakes.
11. Don't be the one who never gets over things.
12. Keep busy at something. A very busy person never has time to be unhappy.

U.S. Sends Reply To Iran Demands

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — The United States replied to Iran's terms for release of the 52 American hostages with a pledge not to interfere in Iranian affairs and an explanation of obstacles to meeting the other conditions set by Iran's revolutionary regime, U.S. officials say.

The American reply Monday to Algerian Foreign Minister Mohamed Benyahia for transmission to the Iranian government in Tehran, Christopher flew to Algiers with Deputy Treasury Secretary Robert Carswell and three other U.S. officials from Washington. They planned to remain in the Algerian capital to await Iran's response.

Applications Are Studied At WTC

Trustees of Western Texas College covered a brief agenda Monday night and then went into executive session to discuss a new president for the college.

Following action on routine items, the board went into closed session where it took the first look at some 12 applications for the post of WTC president.

Dr. Robert Clinton, the school's first and only president, turned in his resignation Oct. 14 to be effective Feb. 1. Dr. Clinton has taken a position with the Association of Junior Colleges in Austin.

In the executive session, the board agreed to meet again around Nov. 25 to again look at the list of applicants. The board earlier set Nov. 15 as deadline for persons to submit applications for the post.

During the regular meeting, the board agreed to open the Student Center on weekends on a trial basis. The administration was given the responsibility of planning the trial run. The decision was a result of a request from students who remain on campus on weekends.

In other business, the board accepted the bid from Gillilands Publishing Co. for printing of the college catalog. The low bid was $4,457. One other bid was received.

The board also discussed a meeting to be held in Austin Sunday in conjunction with Texas Community Junior College Week. A task group of college officials and board members will be formed to work with the legislature on bills dealing with junior colleges. The board named

School Board Session Set For Tonight

Snyder School Trustees are scheduled to appoint a local textbook committee at their regular meeting tonight.

The meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. in the board room of the school administration building.

Also on the agenda for tonight's board meeting is a revision of the school district's policy on bilingual education to make it conform to State Board of Education policies. It provides for making bilingual instruction available for children with limited English-speaking ability from kindergarten through the third grade, and English language development instruction for those in grades 4-12.

The board also is due to discuss a proposal for participation in the American Heritage program in 1981, and a school board workshop scheduled for next spring in Abilene.

Housing Takes New Tumble... Interest, Inflation Put Economy Into New Stall

WASHINGTON (AP) —

With Americans on an economic treadmill and purchasing power at a virtual standstill, rising interest rates and persistent double-digit inflation are taking a new toll on sales of houses and retail goods.

The Commerce Department reported Monday that new-home sales fell 14 percent in September, while October retail sales edged down for the first time in five months.

This overall downturn was attributed heavily to the recent upsurge in interest rates, a trend that was underlined Monday when 13-week Treasury bill rates rose to 13.514 percent, the highest level since early April.

Six-month Treasury bills dipped slightly, but they still stood at 13.231 percent. As a result, starting Thursday, banks will pay savers as much as 13.481 percent on popular six-month money market certificates.

That rate forces banks and thrifts to charge steeper interest rates for consumer loans.

"Rising interest rates are hurting retail sales," said Robert Gough, vice president of Data Resources Inc., the Massachusetts economic forecasting firm. "If rates continue to go up, we can expect further softening in sales... during the pre-Christmas season."

His department said new-home sales during September stood at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 554,000, compared with a 643,000 pace in

Gulf Storm Strengthens

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical Storm Jeanne strengthened today as it moved slowly through the Gulf of Mexico, and forecasters at the National Hurricane Center said it could grow into a rare November hurricane.

"There is a possibility that it will be upgraded to a minimal hurricane" with winds of perhaps 75 mph, public service forecaster Alvin Samel said.

Tropical storms attain hurricane status if their winds top 74 mph.

At 5 a.m. EST, Jeanne's highest winds were estimated at 60 mph. The storm was about 425 miles southeast of New Orleans near latitude 24.4 north, longitude 87.1 west — and was moving north-northwest at about 6 mph.

"We expect it to keep moving that way for the next 24 hours," Samel said.

Forest Fires Battled

By The Associated Press
Facing dozens of forest fires and at least four more days without rain, National Guardsmen, state employees and Army soldiers from Fort Knox were battling blazes in eastern Kentucky and West Virginia today.

More than 35,000 acres — 55 square miles — has burned since Friday, officials said.

Arsonists were believed responsible for most of the fires. Officials said deer hunters and squirrel hunters often burn brush to flush out their quarry. Ralph Glover of the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources also blamed "people mad at landowners or people who just like to see fire burn."

The fires include five uncontrolled blazes in the Daniel Boone National Forest in eastern Kentucky, and two in West Virginia that consumed more than 9,000 acres of mountain timber.

many speaking out

An election has come and gone, and life goes on. The sun came up again. The lights did not go out around the world. Passions in the Carter Reagan campaign ran high, but they have in other presidential elections in the past and somehow the people have regrouped and gone on. They will again.

Probably no election in recent history caused as many people to take pen in hand and write to newspaper editors. Not all letters to the editor received by this paper got printed. Some of those came from all the way across the continent and obviously had been mailed to a great many papers. Other writers vented their spleen on what they imagined was the low estate to which the country had fallen, then didn't have the courage to sign their names. Those kind never make the papers, and, in a way, it's a shame — because some of them are quite well written.

The human parade goes on. Not all the letters were politically inspired. Many people are experiencing great travail and lament that no one cares to listen to their problems. A relative who had lost a loved one was distraught because nothing was being done to bring the person or persons responsible for the death to the bar of justice.

Some letter writers seemed to have experienced all the miseries ever heaped upon mankind. Others are alarmed over our collapsing civilization. A few think God is no longer alive. There are those who reason that everyone else is out of step but them.

A few religious zealots have become convinced that Armageddon is at hand. Others are certain that the Communists are at the gates, ready to capitalize on the betrayal of America's Fifth Column. A few make no sense whatsoever. Invariably, it is a lot harder to put to paper what one is trying to say than the author reasoned it would be. All too often, the message the writer is trying to convey is still there, locked in the author's brain.

All newspapers are trying desperately hard to keep their lines of communication open to the people. In this age of ominous Big Brotherhood, when individual rights are being trampled, where else can the ordinary person take his appeal?

credit for students

As if students didn't have enough problems these days what with steeply rising tuition and slack job markets, they're being reminded of another one. Their credit ratings.

A recent bottom-of-column item informs that the nation's industry, if that is the term for it, is concerned that prevailing high interest rates are making it more difficult for the student and recent graduate to enter the consuming society. The credit extenders are prepared to help.

Some major retailers are setting up special programs geared to student needs, assisting in acquiring credit cards and establishing ratings.

There is no encouragement to overdo plastic expenditures, however. The sponsors of the programs are emphasizing that once credit has been established, it is to be used with restraint and responsibility.

Sure, sure.

my turn

by john dunnam

"There's gold in them thar hills," is what we used to say back in college when an attractive specimen of the female persuasion aroused our attention. Obviously, we knew more about anatomy than geology.

The human body, which we spent so much of our time observing, contains copper, zinc, phosphorus, iron, calcium, lithium, chromium, and a host of other minerals, but no gold—unless one has piggied out at the dentist's office. And according to some propaganda put out by the Carnegie Museum of Natural History in Pittsburgh, all that metal stashed inside of us has a purpose other than just keeping the life-jacket industry afloat.

Thanks to those tiresome TV commercials, you probably know your body contains iron. However, Carter's bailout program will aid you little because you have only about four ounces of the stuff in our entire body. Enough to make only one nail by the time you include the tacks. Sorry.

I did hear of one lady who drank so much Geritol that she triggered the metal detector at the airport. As security led her away in handcuffs, her husband pointed to her and said, "That's my wife, she takes Geritol everyday and now I'm glad she does. I hope they keep her."

Iron, by the way, gives your blood its vivid red color.

The biggest vein of mineral deposit in your body is the calcium, about three pounds worth, mostly in the bones and teeth. Outside the body, calcium comes in many different shades including blue, gold, brown and orange. But we get only white. I think Mother Nature shortchanged us.

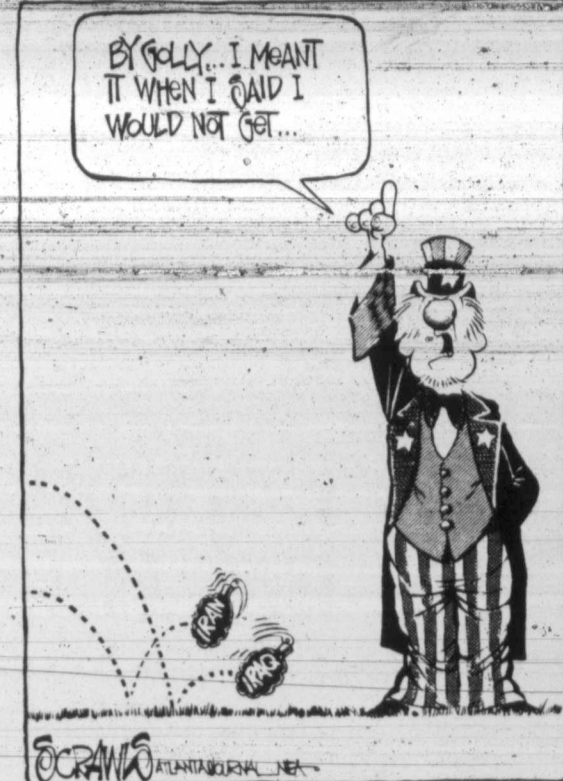

Phosphorus is also abundant in your body, about one and a half pounds in the average healthy human being. In other settings, phosphorus is sometimes mistaken for turquoise. And, like turquoise, is sometimes cut, polished and used for jewelry, ergo: don't turn your back on a jeweler. Phosphorus is also used in fertilizer. You can draw your own conclusions from that.

Several of the minerals in your body occur in such small quantities that they are immeasurable and known as trace minerals. Never the less, they are important.

Chromium is thought to help insulin get sugar into your cells after meals. It also makes the bumper on your car shine.

Zinc is another vital trace mineral. It is thought to help wounds heal more quickly and some doctors prescribe it for pimples. (Forget Clearcil kids, zap your zits with Zinco.) The minute quantity of molybdenum found in your body is believed to help fight

sobering survey

Wasn't that a sobering survey the other day, when a thousand of our foreign service officers were asked about worldwide terrorism. You and I had assumed that America's overseas diplomatic and consular personnel would be scared witless by the rampant terrorism, kidnapping, But — and overwhelmingly — the diplomats agreed the most dangerous assignment is Washington D.C.!

They fear greater danger from muggers than from terrorists. They feel safer overseas than at home!

The number one cause of death among males in New York City is murder. Most Americans are so frightened that they have obtained guns, legally or otherwise, to protect themselves, their families, their property.

A study of three cities — Chicago, Philadelphia and San Francisco — shows that fear of crime is beginning to paralyze American society.

Americans don't have to be more than middle-age to remember when houses were left unlocked, cars were left unlocked. Now Northwestern University's study on this subject reveals that six out of ten people dress plainly, without significant jewelry, to avoid notice by criminals. Nine out of ten refuse to open locked doors until the visitor identifies himself. Seven out of ten keep car doors locked even while riding in them!

The national study of attitudes reveals that 40 percent of all Americans are now "highly fearful" of becoming victims of murder, rape, robbery, assault. Significantly, the increased fear of crime has outstripped the increased incidence of crime.

This could reflect the movies and television programs which focus on crime, especially those that focus on the brutalization of women.

These shock films are a double-barreled menace. They compound the paranoia of potential victims and they whet the appetites of the sick sadists.

Most law enforcement officials relate most increased crime to the increased use of drugs. In Chicago, where a community group called the Back of the Yards Council has been waging all-out war on drug traffic, there is measurably less crime, less fear than in some of the more affluent neighborhoods of the city.

The pendulum of public opinion is swinging back in favor of stricter law enforcement. Two out of three people questioned favor giving police more power to question suspects.

Most Americans now favor increased police protection, even at the cost of higher taxes.

Nine out of ten Americans want stiffer prison sentences for violent criminals.

And an unprecedented half of all Americans surveyed now favor sterilization of chronic sex criminals. (c) 1980, Los Angeles Times Syndicate

Unwind before you sleep

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I used to sleep like a baby. Now I'm lucky to get six hours a night. Often I only get four or five. I realize that at 62 I can't expect to sleep like I did when I was 18 but isn't it necessary to get eight hours of sleep a night? I just don't seem to be able to get to sleep but am still mulling things at midnight. Should I take a sleeping pill? I see these ads on TV that tell you how much better you feel if you use something.

DEAR READER — In my opinion many of the ads on TV are really harmful to the public because they are misleading. Those ads are worse than many of the other things TV has been faulted for. No, you may not need eight hours of sleep. And no, you should not get in the habit of taking those advertised "sleep aids." Most of them are harmful if taken on a regular basis.

A large percentage of sleep aids you can buy, and some doctors prescribe, lose their effectiveness in a few weeks. Then the victim increases the dose — to levels, that are often not safe. Soon the person has an addiction as well as a problem sleeping.

Eight hours of sleep for young adults is about average and the sleep time does decrease with age. Many normal people sleep only six hours. It is the quality of sleep that makes the difference. Many short-sleepers have as much deep sleep as people who sleep eight hours.

It should be added that some people's arterial system is so sensitive to tobacco that smoking is a significant factor in causing them to develop gangrene of the tips of the fingers and feet. The classic example of this is Berger's disease. There are a number of peripheral vascular diseases that are significantly influenced by smoking. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Your Birthday

November 12, 1980

This coming year you might have some surprisingly pleasurable experiences in your travels. This could be especially true on short trips you make for business purposes.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Being your own person where you can function independently today brings out the best that's in you. You're not apt to do as well under the direction of others. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph, Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be amicable with people you have business dealings with today, but don't treat serious matters too lightly. Foolishness could defeat your purpose.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It's more important that you keep on friendly terms with career associates today than it is to fulfill selfish ambitions. Play it loose.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Major achievements are possible today, but they may not be accomplished on your first try. Keep plugging. You'll get what you want.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Valuable lessons can be learned from your mistakes today. Pulling a boob-boo isn't the end of the world. In fact, it could be a big step forward!

ARIES (March 21-April 19) There's a chance you could get off on the wrong foot early in the day and gum things up a bit. However, after you regroup your forces, you'll get back on track.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You're industrious and productive today, but not with things which you do for yourself. You shine when it comes to helping others.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) This should be a profitable day, provided you're not looking for something for nothing. Your big score comes through effort and hard work.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You could experience a situation today where you're reluctant to do something, even though you know it serves your best interests. Follow the dictates of your conscience.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Unless you take pride in your tasks today, you will not perform your best. Work as if each chore is being graded by someone whose opinion you respect.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're entitled to relax and enjoy yourself today, but try to choose activities which cost you nothing. On the free list there will be ample to choose from.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You're fortunate today regarding things which can make you money or contribute to your security. Don't fritter your time away on trivialities.

Dear Abby

In This Case, Charity Began at Home

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please continue to emphasize the fact that charities should not waste money. When I give blood to the Red Cross, I don't want a thank-you letter. When I walk door-to-door collecting for another charity, I don't need to be invited to a formal ball for dinner and dancing to be officially thanked for my help. If the public knew of this kind of waste they would be up in arms.

Those of us who work hard for charities want all the money to go where it can help the cause.

HELEN IN SAN PEDRO

DEAR HELEN: Right on! The best example of using every cent to "help the cause" reminds me of a wonderful fund-raising idea used by Goodwill Industries of South Florida a few years ago. They sent invitations that read:

"The annual Goodwill Industries dinner will not be held this year at the Americana Hotel. No cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. No dinner will be served at 8 p.m. The master of ceremonies will not be Jackie Gleason. The invocation will not be read by the Rev. Norman Vincent Peale, and the guest speaker will not be Dear Abby.

"Stay home and have a restful evening, but please send $50 per person or $100 per couple."

Needless to say, it was hugely successful.

P.S. The moral to that story is: Many people are so bored with fancy fund-raising bashes, they'd cheerfully pay to stay home!

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my husband's family. We get along for the most part, but when it comes to politics and related social issues, we disagree violently. In order to keep every family get-together from erupting into a noisy battle, I just keep my mouth shut.

However, my children are now old enough to understand the talk, and I don't want some of the erroneous, bigoted statements made by my husband's family to go unchallenged. (They are the kind of people with whom one cannot have an intelligent, quiet discussion; they just yell a lot.)

My husband's family always initiates these political discussions. In the world can I remain silent without destroying my children's belief in my ideals?

KEEPING THE PEACE

DEAR KEEPING: A noisy battle involving politics and related social issues is much healthier for children than the choked-off silence you're maintaining in the interest of peace and quiet. Speak up. Silence implies agreement.

DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old daughter wants to wear a chain around her ankle. We decided to go with whatever you said.

When I was growing up (I'm 37), only females of ill-repute wore them. "Nice" girls didn't wear ankle bracelets — as we called them back in those days. Is this still true?

SEEKING INFORMATION

DEAR SEEKING: It wasn't true then, and it still isn't.

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

If West opens his king of diamonds South will make 12 tricks by the simple play of winning the diamond, finessing in trumps, playing a second trump and going after spades. East will take his ace, but with the 10 dropping from the West hand, South will get to discard one club on dummy's jack of spades and will ruff both his low diamonds.

If West opens his singleton spade he will ruff the second spade and hold South to five.

We have shown North doubling the one-diamond opening, but doubt if many players did double. In fact we believe that some West players will be allowed to play at two diamonds after a pass by North, a spade by East, a pass by South and two diamonds by West.

Of course, if the bidding goes that way South should and in most cases will try two hearts after the two-diamond call comes around to him and North will raise to three or four. If he only bids three he will be sorry and deservedly so.

The play at two diamonds will probably result in West getting set but he will still get a good score for minus 50 or even minus 100 if he misguesses everything after North opens a spade.

Rinse Silver After Using

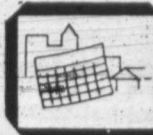

Always rinse silver and silverplate utensils after using if they won't be washed right away, advises Nancy Granovsky, a family resource management specialist.

Foods such as eggs, mayonnaise and seafood contain sulfide which may cause silver and silverplate to tarnish with prolonged contact, she says.

Mrs. Granovsky is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Today about half your electricity is made from lignite coal.

And a good thing, too, because our biggest contract for low-cost natural gas (which we also use to make your electricity) expires this year.

This contract has been in effect for almost 20 years. It's helped us keep the cost of electricity lower here than in many other parts of the country.

Next year when we have to start paying much more for natural gas, electricity is going to cost more. There's no way around it.

But your bill won't be as high as it would be if we weren't making about half your electricity with economical, abundant lignite coal from Texas.

Becket Portrays Clash Of Archbishop And King

Thomas Becket played a role so well he finally came to identify with it completely.

His friend, King Henry II of England, cast him in that role when he named him Archbishop of Canterbury. When Becket's loyalty to God overshadowed his loyalty to the king, Henry was tortured and exasperated by the resulting estrangement and Becket's assassination followed.

The play Jean Anouilh wrote about Becket and Henry II is titled "Becket," with the subtitle "The Honor of God," and it will be presented by the theatre department of Western Texas College Nov. 13-15 and 17. Information about tickets may be obtained by calling the Fine Arts Division office at 573-8511, extension 234.

The playwright drew freely from the story of King Henry II (1133-1189) and Thomas A. Becket (1118-1170) to confront two types of men bound by friendship but diametrically opposed in their aims and conceptions of life. The play begins and ends with short scenes depicting King Henry doing public penance after Becket's assassination. The actual adventure of Henry and Thomas, which makes up the body of the play, is a flashback consisting of the vital encounters of the two men.

Around this tragedy, Anouilh constructed a fast-moving and picturesque play. The one setting, consisting of columns which, from scene to scene, become the pillars of a church, trees in a forest, the framework of a palace, and so forth, is the background for a historical fresco - somewhat naive, full of contemporary allusions and touches of satire. The play abounds in theatrical effects.

Appearing as Becket in the WTC production will be Rob Clark of Mineral Wells, Mark White of Midland is cast as King Henry II, Bill Martin appears as the Bishop of Canterbury who precedes Becket and also as a Saxon father.

Jesse Estrada of Benjamin is seen as the Bishop of Oxford and as a monk. Fred McFarland of Snyder is Gilbert Folliot, the Bishop of London, and Tod Fritz of Snyder is Baron Regnault.

Donna Browning of Snyder plays the Queen Mother and Doni Douglas of Colorado is the Young Queen. Laurie Allen and Laquita Reaves, both of Snyder, are cast as a Saxon daughter and Gwendolen, respectively. Debbie Lindsey of Benjamin plays the part of a French girl.

Benji Fishman and Brad Vincent are princes, Charlie McCormick is a French choirboy, and Aaron Fishman portrays a young monk. These roles call for very young actors and are filled by Snyder public school students.

Jim Rambo is directing "Becket," with Miss Allen as assistant to the director. Fritz is technical assistant and stage manager, with Seth Cox house manager. Teresa, Rambo is costume assistant. Cast members also double on technical crews and the crews also include Neva Reaves and Diane Aycock.

WINNERS—Some "crafty" senior citizens who are getting the jump on Christmas items won prizes in a painting contest Monday in the Senior Center. Shown above are Paula Fox, Tri-Chem Crafts Products representative who sponsored the contest and furnished awards, and Gladys Kuss, first place winner, Bonnie Foree, second place, Myrtle Mae Bibb, third place, and Philomena Huidsnourcher, honorable mention.

DWI Case Filed

A charge of driving while intoxicated has been filed against Garland Robert Parks.

Parks, 3008 Ave. F, was arrested Nov. 8 by troopers of the Department of Public Safety.

Henry O. Flipper was the first black to graduate from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, in 1877.

Handicrafts For Senior Citizens

Senior citizens who enjoy handicrafts are invited to check the crafts classes offered by the Senior Center, Jean Smith, activities director, said.

One of the ongoing classes is liquid embroidery, which meets at 1 p.m. each Monday. Paula Fox works with the class members and she sponsored a painting contest Monday. Prizes worth about $100 went to the winners.

Classes in silk flower corsage-making are planned on Thursday and Tuesday. Materials for the corsages will be furnished, but those enrolling will need to bring scissors and pliers for their own use.

Senior citizens who would like to have other crafts classes offered at the center are invited to talk with Mrs. Smith. The center, located at 2603 Ave. M, is open each weekday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Guns Taken From Autos

Two auto burglaries that resulted in the thefts of guns are under investigation by city police.

The first such incident was reported to police officer Keith Ward at 9 p.m. Monday by Richie Weathers. Weathers said his pickup truck, which was parked at the Club 250, was broken into and a 410-gauge shotgun stolen.

The next auto burglary was reported at 9:50 p.m. at the Wallace Building. Danny Chaney told Ward his pickup had been broken into and a $30 single-shot, 12-gauge shotgun stolen from it.

A minor traffic accident was also worked. It occurred at 10:15 a.m. at 710 25th St. Reports show the Choice Antiques building had been struck by a car which left the scene. Damage to the building was estimated at $400. Working that accident was Buddy Kinney.

Losing 43 pounds makes her shine like a new Penny.

Penny Charles hadn't weighed herself in 4 or 5 years. Oh, she knew she'd put on a few pounds cooking all the fattening things her husband liked, but she still thought she couldn't weigh much more than 120. When she finally did step on the scale, she burst into tears. Her weight was up to 142 pounds.

"I'd started shopping in the maternity department for smocks," Penny recalls. "I told myself I needed them for my work as an artist, but the fact was I couldn't find anything else that fit."

Through her mother's influence, Penny found the Pat Walker's program... and began an exciting new stage in her life.

Reduce in privacy

Penny discovered that going to Pat Walker's doesn't mean becoming just one more in a roomful of overweight women struggling through strenuous exercises. At Pat Walker's, privacy is very important. Penny liked that, because she was self-conscious about the after-effects of a bout with polio.

"I didn't want to parade around in a leotard for others to see," she says. "I think a lot of women feel that way, for whatever reason."

No-sweat exercise gets results

You don't even have to change from your street clothes at Pat Walker's. Or work up a sweat, or muss your hair. All you do is lie back and relax for a half hour or more about 3 times a week, while the Symmetricon exercise unit does the work for you. As it gently moves your body, you get the benefits you want: toning, tightening, smoothing.

It's a remarkably easy way to achieve the best body you can have, which can be a surprisingly nice one, as Penny will tell you.

"I always made excuses for my fat arms, telling people it was because I'd used crutches for a long time. Well, that was a crutch. Now I have slender arms!"

She does indeed. Penny Charles has lost 43 pounds and a total of 80 inches (7 feet of fat) over the last 2 years. Not only has her weight loss changed her looks, it's changed her career. Now art work is her hobby, and Pat Walker's is her job—she's a salon owner and assistant director of Pat Walker's International.

Does her husband approve of the new Penny? No doubt about it. "He used to give me practical gifts, like an iron or a bathrobe. For Christmas last year, he gave me a beautiful diamond ring in the shape of a 'S'... for 'sexy.'"

Pat Walker's is for you, too

There is a difference in weight reduction programs. If you like the idea of being treated as a special and valued patron, in complete privacy... if you'd like to take it easy while you reduce, let a Pat Walker's consultant explain our complete program to you.

Call today to reserve a time for your complimentary treatment and figure analysis. There's no obligation.

Rent To Own Plan Available Now At Strickland Television

QUASAR TELEVISION—Pauline Strickland shows a display of Quasar televisions and a video tape recorder. New 1981 models are now at Strickland T.V. Service.

Want a new T.V. for Christmas, but can't afford one at the present time? Strickland T.V. may have the answer to your problem. They are now offering a "rent to own" plan on a new console or portable television.

For a few dollars a week you can have a new Quasar T.V. in your home. Go by Strickland T.V. and let Hoyle Dean or Pauline Strickland explain this plan to you.

The 1981 models of Quasar televisions are now arriving, so be sure to drop by 2413 College Avenue and see them.

The Quasar features a Compu-matic remote control that allows you to go directly from one channel to another without flipping all the way around the dial.

The Quasar also features Audio Spectrum Sound that surrounds the set with sound coming from three separate speakers.

Quasars are available from 13" to 25", with the 25" models featuring the Dynabrite III picture tube. There are also many new cabinet designs available for 1981 in both traditional and contemporary styling.

Strickland does service work on most brands of TV's and will make service calls in the city. Another product in the Motorola line is a six hour video cassette recorder. You can see one now at Strickland's.

Hoyle Dean and Pauline Strickland invite you come and pick out a set to suit your tastes—and right now they have a good selection. That's at Strickland TV Service, 2413 College Avenue.

Get Fireplace Ready For Cold With Chainsaw From U-Rent-Em

CHAIN SAW HEADQUARTERS Sherene Digby, U-Rent-Em employee, is shown here displaying two of the Homelite chain

Fireplace weather is just around the corner and whether you have a chain saw or need one, U-Rent-Em is a place you need to be acquainted with.

U-Rent-Em is the dealer for Homelite chain saws and they stock a wide variety of sizes to suit your needs. Also, if your saw needs the chain sharpened or a tune-up, they are the folks to see.

George Lowe does repairs on just about any kind of small engine, and the firm is a dealer for Briggs & Stratton engines and parts.

If you need something sharpened, which is much cheaper than replacing it, U-Rent-Em can do it. They sharpen scissors, lawnmower blades, router bits, hole saws, power saw blades, knives and planer blades.

The firm is also the Snyder U-Haul headquarters with all kinds of trailers, hitches and dollies. If you're moving and need a truck or trailer, remember you can take U-Hauls anywhere in the U.S. or Canada.

The Robo Car Wash is also a part of U-Rent-Em and is now completely self-service.

U-Rent-Em rents just about anything and everything you might need. Key and locksmith service, roll-away bed rental, Steamex carpet cleaners, folding chairs, etc. are just a few of the services that they offer.

If you need to rent, or to be repaired, or to buy, stop by and see the friendly folks at U-Rent-Em, 3403 College Ave.

Oilers Dodge Bullet Again

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Oilers almost forgot who they were Monday night when they jumped to a 24-6 halftime lead against the New England Patriots.

But the Oilers, who prefer a good cliffhanger to a blowout, quickly got back in character in the second half when they almost blew the lead and treated fans to their weekly chamber of horrors before pulling out a 38-34 thriller.

It wasn't decided until cornerback Greg Stremick intercepted a Steve Grogan pass in the end zone with 20 seconds left to play.

And it took a couple of

Monday night specialists, quarterback Ken Stabler and running back Earl Campbell, to lead the Oilers through.

Stabler, who has posted a 10-1 record in Monday night games, completed 15 of 17 passes for 258 yards and three touchdowns.

Campbell, in his fifth consecutive 100-yard performance in Monday night games, gained 130 yards on 30 carries and scored on runs of three and seven yards.

"It's not a matter of 'I' but 'We,'" said Stabler when asked about his Monday night success. "We've got an outstanding offensive team with a lot of talent."

Campbell, who had only 46 yards rushing in the first half, said he was trying too hard.

"A lot of the problem in the first half was my fault," Campbell said. "I was trying to push things too much. In the second half I just slowed and let the offensive line do their work. Their defense came at us very hard. They've got a great club. There's nothing you can say bad about them."

The Oilers took an unaccustomed 24-6 halftime lead on a 45-yard field goal by Toni Fritsch. Stabler's touchdown passes of 79 yards to tight end Mike Barber and 4 yards to tight end Dave Kasper and Campbell's 3-yard run.

New England could muster only field goals of 45 and 26 yards by John Smith.

But Grogan, who finished with 25 completions on 39 attempts for 374 yards, brought the Patriots to life in the third quarter with a 39-yard touchdown pass to Harold Jackson and Don Calhoun's 1-yard run.

The race really heated up in the fourth quarter with Campbell scoring on a seven-yard run and Grogan matching it with a 21-yard touchdown pass to tight end Russ Francis.

Stabler came back with a 16-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mike Renfro, but Grogan had one more shot, a 15-yard scoring pass to Francis with 1:28 left in the game.

But it still wasn't over. New England's Mose Tatupu recovered an onside kick and the Patriots reached Houston's 19-yard line before Grogan threw into the end zone and Stremick ended the threat with his interception.

Georgia Picked To Lead Poll

by The Associated Press
Georgia's Bulldogs, the nation's only unbeaten-untied major team, moved into first place in The Associated Press college football poll today for the first time since late in the 1942 season.

Following Saturday's 26-21 come-from-behind triumph over Florida, Georgia received 54 1/2 of 66 first-place votes and 1,299 1/2 of a possible 1,320 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

The Bulldogs were runnerup to Notre Dame a week ago but the Fighting Irish were held to a 3-3 tie by Georgia Tech, a 1-7-1 team, and slipped from first place to sixth.

Southern California, fourth last week, moved into second place with six first-place votes and 1,180 points following a 34-9 victory over Stanford.

Florida State, a 31-7 winner over Virginia Tech, held onto third place with 1,172 points. The Seminoles received three first-place ballots.

Nebraska moved up from fourth to third with two first-place votes and 1,105 points for a 55-8 rout of Kansas State. Alabama, the No. 1 team two weeks ago, rose from sixth to fifth with 1,067 points by defeating Louisiana State 28-7.

Notre Dame was sixth with 1,045 points, followed by Ohio State. The Buckeyes, who won a wild 49-42 slugfest from Illinois, received the remaining one-half first-place vote and 924 1/2 points.

Pitt, Penn State and Oklahoma rounded out the Top Ten. Each moved up one position from last week as UCLA skidded from eighth to 17th. Pitt received 868 points by trouncing Louisville 41-23. Penn State earned 765 points for a 21-13 triumph over North Carolina State and Oklahoma totaled 618 points following a 21-19 victory over Kansas.

WTC Golfers Place Seventh In Bahamas

FREEPORT, Bahamas—Western Texas College placed seventh out of a field of 15 in the Sam Houston University Intercolligate Golf Tournament, held here last week and weekend.

Freshman Jeff Seger led the local group, finishing eighth out of 83 players and leading both WTC teams with scores of 75, 74, and 76 for a total 225.

Cameron University, Okla., won the three-day tournament with an 899 total. Odessa College placed second with a 912. Texas Wesleyan University took third with a 916, followed by the University of Southern Louisiana, 918; Northeastern Louisiana University, 919; Sam Houston State, 920; WTC No. 1, 927; Elon College, NC, 928; and St. Thomas University (Houston), 929.

Others were, Southwestern Louisiana University, 930; San Jacinto JC, 943; Guilford College, SC, 943; WTC No. 2, 957; Bahama Amateurs, 963; and Mary Hardin Baylor, 973.

WTC Coach Bob O'Day stated the Westerners did not play consistently in the tournament: "The Ruby and Emerald Course were championship golf courses. They were both very long with water on several holes. The rough was not rough, but jungle. You could not hit the ball out of the fairway because you would never see it again."

"WTC No. 1 team had a bad second day team score on the Ruby Course or we could have finished second in the tournament. We did not get to play a practice round there and course knowledge means a lot," O'Day explained. "It was great experience for WTC to compete in a tournament of this caliber. I was proud the way the players conducted themselves on the trip."

Western Texas No. 1 was in ninth place after the first day and fell to 11th on the second, but rallied the final round to move up to seventh. Odessa College led the final day, moving from sixth place to second.

WTC No. 1 individual scores, in addition to Seger's 225, were: Chris Johnson, 74-82-76-232; Richard White, 77-79-76-232; Gary Hodge, 79-81-79-232; and Jeff Wagner, 79-81-80-240. Johnson, White and Hodge all finished tied for 26th place among the 83 participants, as did Phillip Jones (73-81-78-232) from WTC No. 2.

Other WTC No. 2 scores were: Frank Monfrey, 77-82-80-239; Matt Vincent 82-78-83-243; George Gonzales, 79-79-88-246; and Gary Ray, 84-81-86-251.

"We would like to thank our sponsors - Dr. and Mrs. Bob Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. John Reed - for making this trip possible," commented O'Day.

Dusters Meet Ranger Tonight

Western Texas College's Dusters begin a three-game home stand here tonight, entertaining Ranger Junior College at 6 in the college gymnasium.

The Dusters, 4-0 on the season, will host Henderson College in the gym Thursday, then move over to Scurry County Coliseum for a Saturday date with Weatherford College. Both of those games will be held at 6 also.

A victory tonight would equal the Dusters' opening record of 5-0 last year, despite Coach Joe Cushing's insistence that this year's team is coming along at a slower pace.

"We're bringing them along more slowly this year," he assured. "We aren't going to repeat last year's slump if we can help it."

The Dusters looked to be the team to beat in the WJAC last year, but had several below-par games in a row which knocked them out of position for the conference title.

This week's games will be the final home games for the Dusters until Dec. 4 when the girls host McMurry College.

Pastorini Peels For Playgirl Mag

By Bruce Lowitt
Associated Press

Dan Pastorini is no longer exposed to the rush of quarterback-hungry linemen - but he's exposed himself to far more widespread attention of late.

The tall, blond quarterback of the Oakland Raiders, following in the footsteps - sort of - of ex-cheerleaders Lynita Schilling, Jacqueline Rohrs, Andrea Mann and others (not to mention Burt Reynolds), has traded in his working togs for a birthday suit.

In the December issue of Playgirl Magazine, Pastorini, the one-time husband of one-time bombshell June Wilkinson, displays for all the world to see just what he's made of.

Well, not entirely. He's almost coy, almost shy, as though it were an embarrassed giggle rather than a hearty laugh he was having into the lens.

"I thought it was kind of odd anyone would want to photograph this body nude. It's all beat up," Pastorini said, reflecting back on the suggestion first made last summer, shortly after Houston traded him to the Raiders.

"I just did it for fun. I was laughing through the whole thing. When they first asked, I said, 'Nah!' but a lot of my friends said to go ahead and do it. So I told them that if it was in good taste, I would."

And he did. And it is. "I don't think it's disgusting or anything. I don't think I showed any more than Jim Palmer does in those underwear commercials," Pastorini said of the Baltimore Orioles' pitcher.

Duran Predicts Fight Won't Go 15 Rounds

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Former champion Sugar Ray Leonard begins his workouts here today, preparing for his Nov. 25 rematch with welterweight champion Roberto Duran.

Both fighters will be working out daily at the Superdome, but Leonard begins his training sessions

Schmidt NL Top Player

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike Schmidt, the slugging third baseman who led the Philadelphia Phillies to their first world championship in 97 years, was named National League Player of the Year by The Associated Press today.

Schmidt easily outdistanced the field, leading a Philadelphia sweep of the first four places in the balloting by a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

He received 368 1/2 votes, finishing far ahead of Philadelphia pitcher Steve Carlton, who last week won the National League Cy Young Award. Carlton received 81 1/2 votes. Phillies bullpen ace Tug McGraw was third in the balloting with 13, followed by peppercorn first baseman Pete Rose, who had nine.

He also won the National League runs batted in crown with 121.

about two hours later than Duran.

Duran zipped through his first on-site workout Monday, toying with three sparring partners through six rounds of boxing.

He took the World Boxing Council crown from Leonard by unanimous, though close, decision in June in Montreal. The rematch is scheduled for the Superdome, and promoters say they expect a live gate of around $8 million.

Duran repeated his prediction that the fight will not go the 15-round distance.

"I'm better prepared than I was last time," he said through manager Luis Henriquez, who acted as interpreter for the Panamanian fighter.

Duran said Leonard gave him only a mediocre fight in June.

"I don't have any respect for him," he said.

"When he was champion, he became the champion by fighting nobodies."

Leonard won his title by stopping Wilfred Benitez in the 15th round of their fight.

Duran held the undisputed lightweight title before running out of opponents and tiring of making the 135-pound limit.

He said Monday that he is much stronger at the 147-pound weight, and he appeared to be close to that weight on Monday.

But he said he has no plans

Sheriff's Posse To Meet Tonight

The Scurry County Sheriff's Posse meets tonight at the Posse Hut on West 30th St. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m., members report.

Economy Stalls

August. The drop was most pronounced in the South and Midwest.

Sandra Shaber, a senior economist at Chase Econometrics Associates in suburban Philadelphia, said retail sales will continue to be sluggish because people's incomes, particularly their wages and salaries, are not keeping up with inflation.

Government figures released over the weekend showed total personal income from April through June rising an average of 1.1 percent. At the same time, inflation rose 2.6 percent.

Consumer prices are rising at a 12.7 percent annual rate. Moreover, food prices are moving up with particular force, and this is one family expense that cannot easily be avoided.

The retail sales performance in October broke a four-month improvement that paralleled the nation's climb from recession.

That positive trend occurred as interest rates were working their way down from levels that reached 20 percent last spring.

In recent weeks, however, these rates have begun climbing again, and the prime rate banks charge now stands at 15.5 percent. Car loans — if they are even available — will carry even higher interest.

Hardest hit right now are retailers who sell durable, big-ticket items such as automobiles.

All durable goods sales fell 1.1 percent in October, after rising 3.9 percent the month before. Auto dealers reported a 2.1 percent falloff last month, following a 5.2 percent increase in September.

Sentenced On Check Charge

Rebecca Inez Franks, 306 28th St., was sentenced yesterday in 132nd District Court on a charge of forgery by passing.

The charge alleges Ms. Franks passed a forged $300 check on the account of Dot Bowman Sept. 4. She was assessed a two-year probation, fined $250, and ordered to pay restitution.

Another forgery charge against her, one alleging she passed a $200 check on Dot Bowman's account, was dismissed.

OBITUARIES

E. J. Hardin
Funeral service has been set for 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Bell-Seale Funeral Home Chapel for E. J. (Eston) Hardin, 71.
Mr. Hardin, a retired Snyder building contractor, had moved to El Paso last June. He died at 12:10 p. m. Monday in Sierra Medical Center in El Paso.
The Rev. Ken Branan and the Rev. Clarence Minton will officiate at the funeral service, and burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.
Surviving are his wife, Ina Mae; a daughter, Margie McNitt of Garden Grove, Calif.; three sons, Richard Hardin of Snyder, Robert Hardin of El Paso and Cary Don Hardin of Richland Hills; a sister, Mrs. J. C. Carter of Odessa; a brother, Henry Hardin of Eastland; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Cash Prizes

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played around the country this weekend. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only...opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS or bring your entry by the Snyder Daily News office. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first place the winners will divide the cash money of $17.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $100. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number and watch for the story on next Tuesday's front page for the winners. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employees of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
