Snyder Daily News

Ask Us

Q—Has the committee which was formed to study juvenile crime in Snyder made any recommendations yet?

A—The committee's report is to be released at the next meeting of the city council, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Monday at City Hall.

Local

Early vote

Almost 2,000 early ballots had been cast as of noon today here in the Nov. 8 general election.

According to the county clerk's office, 1,971 votes had been cast by 12:05 p.m. Early voting ends at 5 o'clock today on the third floor of the courthouse.

Civil defense

Snyder's civil defense sirens will be tested at noon Monday, weather permitting.

Pancakes

Snyder FFA is sponsoring a pancake supper beginning at 5 this evening in the high school cafeteria. Admission is by donation.

Video series

The Family Life series continues at 7 p.m. Monday on Cablevision Channel 2 with "Faith and Change: Dealing With Life's Twists And Turns."

Lord's Acre

First United Methodist Church will sponsor its annual Lord's Acre Festival Saturday at Scurry County Coliseum.

Booths will open at 11 a.m. A barbecue dinner is planned for 5:30 p.m. and an auction will follow at 6:30 p.m.

Barbecue

Allen Chapel A.M.C. Church, at 3401 Ave. M, is sponsoring a barbecue dinner fund-raiser Saturday. Chicken, brisket and rib plates will be sold at $5 for one meat, $7 for two meats. Children under age 10 can eat for $3.

For delivery call 573-4377 or 573-8834.

Company G

The Company G reunion continues this evening with a 6:30 dinner at Reta's. The group will conduct a business meeting at Martha Ann Woman's Club at 9 a.m. Saturday, followed by a luncheon at the home of Lynn and Mayzell Featon.

The reunion will wrap up with a banquet at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Willow Park Inn.

People who cried for mom now jeer her

UNION, S.C. (AP) — She spun a heartbreaking tale of being dumped on a lonely road by a car-jacker who abducted her two young sons. Today, she was jeered by spectators and covered her face as she headed to court to answer murder charges.

Susan Smith, whose tearful pleas for her sons' return inspired a nationwide vigil, confessed to killing 3-year-old Michael and 14-month-old Alex, according to an arrest warrant. And the nine-day search by authorities and hundreds of volunteers ended where their mother's story began: at John D. Long Lake.

Emotions were high today as Mrs. Smith was driven from the York County Detention Center in Rock Hill, where she was held overnight, to Union for her arraignment on two charges of murder.

Fifteen to 20 people watched as Mrs. Smith, covering her face with her manacled hands, took a few steps from the jail to an unmarked police car waiting to take her to Union, about 40 miles away.

"I hope you get what you deserve!" one of the spectators shouted. "You deserve whatever you get," another said. Mrs. Smith said nothing.

Mrs. Smith's burgundy 1990 Mazda was pulled out of the lake Thursday night, the bodies of two children in the back seat.

Union County Sheriff Howard Wells would not take questions at a news conference and did not discuss a possible motive. He said the identity of the bodies would have to be confirmed through an autopsy. The autopsy, set for today, also was expected to determine whether the boys died in the lake or were killed beforehand.

Residents of this mill town who searched and prayed for the children reacted with anger and bitterness. (See CHARGED, Page 3)

Arlie Eicke pleads not guilty; trial date scheduled for Dec. 5

A Dec. 5 trial date has been set for Arlie Thomas Eicke who pleaded not guilty Thursday in Lubbock's U.S. District Court.

The Snyder resident was arraigned Thursday before U.S. Magistrate J.Q. Warnick Jr. who also set the trial date.

Eicke, 42, and two other persons were charged last month in a 21-count federal indictment unsealed Monday. Eicke was arrested Sunday in Snyder and is free on a $5,000 bond.

His arrest followed the arrest of his brother, Johnnas J. Eicke, in Detroit last Friday. A detention hearing for Johnnas Eicke, 39, was scheduled today in Detroit, and he is expected to be extradited to Lubbock to stand trial.

A third defendant, Heather M. Altshuler, 29, of Denver was arrested Tuesday in London by Scotland Yard. She also is expected to be returned to Lubbock.

The trio is charged with conspiracy, wire fraud, mail fraud and interstate transportation of falsely-made securities.

The defendants allegedly operated a bogus banking operation out of Snyder named Central Dominion Trust and issued cashier's checks totaling more than $1 trillion. One cashier's check, for $100 billion, was reportedly sent to the U.S. Attorney's office in Dallas.

Authorities believe the operation is linked to tax-protest groups which question the authority U.S. government agencies.

If convicted of all charges, each defendant could receive a maximum sentence of 110 years imprisonment and a fine of $5.25 million. Other arrests have been made in New York and in Turkey, and investigators indicated that more arrests are expected.

'Peter Pan' debuts Saturday

A cast and crew of 45 students come together on the stage at Worsham auditorium this Saturday to present Snyder High School's fall production of "Peter Pan."

The play promises "elaborate stage decorations, exciting music and dramatic lighting," said drama director Jerry Worsham. "The cast actually interacts with the audience."

The production, based on the original story by J.M. Barrie, opens at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $3 for students, $4 for adults and $6 for reserved seating.

There will be a second and third performance Monday and Tuesday evening as well.

Senior drama students have been cast in the major roles; secondary roles will be filled by advanced theater arts students.

Leading cast members are Mark Bullard as Peter Pan, Kevin Alejandro as the infamous Captain Hook, Amanda Carter as Wendy and Amy Patterson as Tiger Lily.

Cogdell Memorial Hospital has resumed performing mammograms, following receipt of certification from the Food and Drug Administration.

Certification will be in force until April 25, 1995. Inspection and certification renewal of the unit will be held on an annual basis.

The local hospital had to temporarily suspend performing mammograms — breast X-rays that can detect cancers too small to be felt by hand — last month when "bureaucratic red tape" delayed the FDA's certification.

The nation's first safety and accuracy standards, which recently went into affect, now govern all facilities which perform mammograms.

Technicians who perform mammograms and doctors who read them must be properly trained. Only up-to-date mammography machines are allowed. Each facility must track its accuracy and ensure that women with suspicious results are promptly sent for follow-up.

At Cogdell, Stephen Camp is the radiology manager. The hospital also has three qualified and specially trained radiologic technologists who perform mammograms.

Drs. Sherman Merritt and Burek Williams read Cogdell's mammograms.

Cogdell started performing diagnostic mammography in 1980. Women with lumps or other problems were referred to the hospital by their doctor.

Cogdell's dedicated mammography unit was established in 1986 through funds provided by the hospital's auxiliary and the local community. Since then, self-referrals have been accepted.

The mammography unit is equipped with a Bennett dedicated mammography machine which means that only mammograms are performed on it.

The American Cancer Society recommendations for mammograms are as follows:

— Age 40 — screening mammogram.

— Ages 40-49 — every one to two years.

— Age 50 and over — every year.

Smartt scholarship established at WTC

A memorial scholarship in the name of the late Jack Smartt has been established at Western Texas College, Dennis Carlton, financial aid officer has announced.

The scholarship will be awarded for the first time next fall.

Smartt was a strong supporter of Western Texas College. He was a member and former chairman of the Economic Development Committee and the Board of County Development. He worked actively to locate the Price Daniel Unit here and in 1989 was recipient of the Vesta Award for his work in the community.

He was a member of the hospital foundation advisory board and a Rotarian. He retired in 1992 as the manager of TU Electric. Smartt died in July of this year.

Carlton said the only qualifications for a student seeking the scholarship is that he or she be "a Snyder student desiring to get an education."

Anyone interested in donating to the Jack Smartt Memorial Scholarship fund may do so by contacting Carlton at 573-8511, ext. 309 or 208.

Area citizens are also invited to start a scholarship fund at Western Texas College. It takes about $2,000, Carlton said, to start a scholarship fund. However the entire sum need not be accumulated at one time. A citizen or group can pay into the fund until it builds up.

Only the interest is used from scholarship funds. The principal is never touched, said Carlton.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "When folks disagree, it's often over something neither knows anything about."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

Big city people call it plagiarism, but in small-town newspapering we have a more polite term. It's called lifting, and it's legal as long as you fess up in advance.

This one has been lifted so many times, nobody can remember the origin. It's a fable that describes the plight of a small-town editor:

"A female child is born unto the wife of a merchant. The physician gets 10 plunks. The editor writeth a stick-and-a-half, and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. And the proud father giveth the editor a cigar.

"Behold the young one groweth up and gradueth. And the editor putteh into his paper a swell notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the Rose of Sharon is she, and her gown is played up to beat the band.

"And the dressmaker getteth four score and two iron men. And the editor getteth a notice of thanks from the sweet girl graduate, and her merchant father declineth to buy an ad.

"And the daughter goeth on a journey. And the editor throweth himself willy-nilly on a story of the farewell party. It runneth a column solid. And the fair one catcheth one of the town's promising young men. And they send unto the editor a bid to the wedding.

"Flowerly and long is the wedding notice, which the editor printeth for free. The minister getteth ten bones, and the groom asketh and received a free subscription.

"And flesh is grass and in time the wife is gathered unto the soil. The minister getteth his bit. The editor printeth a death notice, three lodge notices, and a cubit of poetry, asking not for payment.

"And he forgetteth to read the proof on the head, and the darned thing cometh out, 'Gone to her final roasting place.'

"And all that are kin to the deceased jumpeth on the editor with great vigor. They pulleth their ads and cancelleth their subscriptions, and they swing the hammer — yea, unto the third and fourth generations."

Jury recommends death sentence for ex-minister

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The killer of an abortion doctor and an escort remained calm and defiant as a jury recommended that he die in the electric chair. "You have a responsibility to protect your neighbor's life and to use force if necessary to do so," a subdued Paul Hill told the jury Thursday before they began considering his fate. "In an effort to suppress this truth, you may mix my blood with the blood of the unborn and those who have fought to defend the oppressed."

"However, truth and righteousness will prevail. May God help you to protect the unborn as you would want to be protected." The jury then deliberated nearly four hours before choosing the death sentence instead of life in prison for Hill. It took just 20 minutes Wednesday to convict him of murder. Hill showed no emotion as the recommendation was read. Circuit Judge Frank Bell is not bound by it and could give Hill a life sentence. A sentencing date was not immediately set. Death sentences are automatically appealed in Florida.

defenders of Life in Bowie, Md. Another Hill supporter, the Rev. David Trosch, said an execution could lead to more anti-abortion violence. "In time it will motivate people," said Trosch, a Roman Catholic priest from Mobile, Ala., who has been removed from the priesthood for advocating murder. "Particularly when Paul has actually been executed, it will motivate people to become very active, to take action, violent action if necessary."

Hill, who represented himself, offered no defense after the judge barred him from arguing that the slayings were justifiable to save fetuses. He called no witnesses and asked no questions of those who testified against him. Wielding a 12-gauge shotgun, Hill ambushed Dr. John Bayard Britton, 69, retired Air Force Lt. Col. James H. Barrett, 74, and Barrett's wife, June, 68, as the three arrived at the Ladies Center clinic July 29. Hill was convicted of attempted murder for wounding Mrs. Barrett.

ness. Dozens of people outside the county courthouse gasped and sobbed when the charges were announced.

"If you could see the way she acted that night, that's the main thing that gets me," said Rick McCloud Jr., who was at home with his parents on Oct. 25 when Mrs. Smith pounded on their door, crying for help. "Just to think, for a solid week I was defending her. It gets me sick to my stomach."

"Is there ever an explanation for murder?" David Smith's grandmother, Sara Singleton of Los Angeles, told KNBC-TV. "Two little innocent children? There is no explanation for murder."

Solicitor Thomas Pope said Mrs. Smith's confession led investigators to her car Thursday afternoon. It had been driven off a boat ramp. Divers had searched the lake several times, but the water was too murky to see the car, authorities said.

Authorities said they had not completed their investigation but were not inclined to think that Mrs. Smith's estranged husband, David, or others would be implicated. "I would say it does not fit the scenario for anyone else to be involved," Robert Stewart, chief of the State Law Enforcement Division, told NBC today.

Smith's mother, Barbara Benson of Garden City, said her son is devastated. "He's locked in a room and he won't even talk to his father," she said. She said she had no idea what could be behind the deaths.

It's often easier with only 26

By Phillip Alder

Bridge is difficult — some would say impossible — to show live on television, primarily because the play is too slow. However, at some major bridge events, there is a Vu-Graph presentation. An audience sits in a theater, watching the play at one table, usually with closed-circuit television cameras showing the players' beads of perspiration. Simultaneously, commentators analyze the bidding and play. Sometimes, though, it is harder for the commentators to find the winning play, when looking at all 52 cards, than it is for the declarer, who can see only 26.

Today's deal was played during the final of a Vanderbilt teams by Lou Bluhm, who died in 1990.

Two clubs was Drury, showing a maximum pass with spade support.

The defenders began with two rounds of trumps. At this point, the commentators decided the contract had to finish one down. But Bluhm found the way home. After winning the second trick in the dummy, declarer cashed dummy's heart ace and ruffed a heart in hand. Entering the dummy twice in diamonds, Bluhm ruffed two more hearts in his hand. Then South cashed the diamond ace, his eighth trick, and continued with the diamond king. How could West defend?

If he discarded, declarer would claim his contract with dummy's top trump. So West ruffed. But now he had to open up the club suit, giving a trick to South's king.

Bluhm had gained one trump trick from the dummy reversal, ruffing those hearts in his hand, and one club trick from the endplay.

Officers have quiet period

No arrests were made Thursday by local law enforcement agencies but several complaints were investigated.

A gas drive-off for $1.05 from Skinny's on East Coliseum Drive was noted at 11:40 a.m. The subject was notified of the complaint and returned to the store and paid for the gas.

Officers investigated a complaint at 2:52 p.m. in the 2100 block of Avenue T in reference to someone entering a vacant residence and damaging the walls.

A complaint was made at 4:58 p.m. in the 2600 block of Avenue F in reference to juveniles throwing rocks at dogs in that neighborhood.

An offense report for assault/family violence was filed at 5:43 p.m. for an incident in the 2600 block of 37th Street.

Tigers go for four

Snyder looks to continue winning streak against arch-rival Sweetwater

By TODD STANLEY
SDN Sports Editor

Since the infamous Sweetwater-Snyder game of 1989, when the Tigers fell 18-13 on the last play, the Mustangs have fallen victim to Snyder each of their last three meetings.

The two teams did not play in 1991.

Despite being possibly out-matched in each of the last three wins, the Tigers have always found a way to win against Sweetwater.

"I think it will be a great game," Snyder head coach David Baugh said. "Even though this game won't be for the district championship this year, it will still be a knockdown, dragout affair."

"This is a pride game for Snyder High School. The players always play their best against Sweetwater, regardless of the situation."

Even though the Mustangs have cruised through their first campaign in District 5-4A, the district champs will get all they can handle from the Snyder seniors playing tonight in their last game at Tiger Stadium.

"You never know how your team will play in a game like this," Baugh said. "There is a different atmosphere for the seniors' last game.

The seniors who played on varsity during their sophomore year will pull their black helmets over their heads tonight in their last game, just like they did in their first game; against the Sweetwater Mustangs.

The Mustangs come into tonight's game with an impressive 8-1 overall record with their only loss coming in the second week of the season against a pumped up Big Spring team that edged them 10-8.

Leading the way offensively for the Mustangs are cousins Shaun and Kerry Carr, as well as brothers Lamar and Jason Blueford.

"Their offensive strategy is to spread you out and let the tailback (Shaun Carr) get to the outside and run," Baugh said. "Defensively, they run the same base fifty as we do, but they do more slanting, pinching and stunting on the line."

"That allows their linebackers more freedom to roam the field."

According to Baugh, the Mustangs could be the best team in the district. However, he said that you never know what will happen when these two teams get together.

Westerners flatten Fort Hood

LEVELLAND — Western Texas College advanced into the winners bracket of the South Plains tournament Thursday night with a 80-70 win over Fort Hood.

The win gave new Lady Westerners head coach Brenda Welch-Nichols her first victory as a head coach and set up a rematch against conference rival Howard College.

"It's great to get the first win," she said. "Now I know I can do it."

After a disappointing loss to Howard Tuesday, WTC has a unique chance to face the Lady Hawks for the second time in one week. The two teams were scheduled to meet in the Texan Dome on the campus of South Plains College at 4 today.

The Lady Westerners put themselves into the winners bracket with an impressive second half performance against Fort Hood.

According to Coach Nichols, her team wasn't mentally prepared to play in the first half.

"We came out flat," she said. "I think there was a little bit of a let-down after playing Howard on Tuesday."

"It was also hard for the girls to play at two in the afternoon."

Freshman Donna Carrell led the team with 19 points and sophomore Christy Cates hauled in seven of the team's 51 rebounds.

"If everyone rebounds like we did against Fort Hood," Nichols said. "We will win a lot of ballgames."

UT, A&M set for war

AUSTIN (AP) — As if there wasn't enough to play for between arch rivals Texas and 11th-ranked Texas A&M.

On Saturday, one of college football's most intense rivalries will take on the added dimension of a coach trying to win back his school's fans.

Third-year Texas coach John Mackovic is being roundly criticized by devoted orange bloods. Many want him fired after watching a season filled with Cotton Bowl promise degenerate into a nightmare of player suspensions and upset losses to Rice and Texas Tech.

A victory by Texas (5-3, 2-2 Southwest Conference) over the Aggies (7-0-1, 4-0-1), who are coming off a somewhat shocking 21-21 tie with lowly Southern Methodist, might help head off a potential stampede by Longhorns faithful.

"Football is a tough game, and I'll take the knocks," said Mackovic, a former quarterback at Wake Forest.

The season hit a low last Saturday when Texas was totally out-manned by Tech, 33-9, giving the Longhorns their worst conference defeat since a 50-7 drubbing by Baylor in 1989. The Tech loss came just two weeks after losing to Rice for the first time in 29 years.

The Aggies have won nine of the last 10 meetings against Texas, including an 18-9 decision in College Station last year. They will use a bulldozing running game led by Rodney Thomas against a Longhorns defense that is giving up 366 yards per game.

Thomas, who is averaging 5.2 yards per carry, rushed for 134 yards and two touchdowns against SMU.

On defense, A&M's "Wrecking Crew" is led by Butkus Award semifinalist Antonio Armstrong, who has five sacks.

Texas features towering wide receiver Lovell Pinkney and rotating quarterbacks Shea Morenz and James Brown.

The Longhorns' defense has been ravaged by injury, with only two players, end Tony Brackens and safety Tre Thomas, starting all seven games.

Stanley's super selections

By TODD STANLEY
SDN Sports Editor

As much as I would like to ramble on about the ins and outs of each team on this week's football contest, there just isn't enough room. So, instead of skipping out completely, here are this week's condensed picks.

Snyder finishes off Sweetwater 28-26; Hermleigh flattens Loraine 38-18; Borden County eliminates Ira 34-28; Abilene Cooper plows Permian 21-10; PESH pounces on Plano 28-27; Munday knocks Knox City 34-14; Texas upsets Texas A&M 21-20; Rice blasts SMU 21-7; Syracuse owns Miami 17-14; Ohio State arrests Wisconsin 31-21; Colorado State staves off Wyoming 47-35; Alabama rolls on LSU 17-14; Air Force flies over Army 34-6; Dartmouth darts past Columbia 24-7; Pittsburgh pins the Oilers 17-9; Philly bullies Arizona 24-17; Kansas City punishes the Raiders 35-14; San Diego distracts Atlanta 24-21; Minnesota marches on the Saints; San Francisco wipes out Washington 38-17.

Stanley's super selections for last week 12-8, .600; overall 110-70, .611.

Robinson signs with Bucks

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Glenn Robinson agreed to terms with the Milwaukee Bucks Thursday after relinquishing his goal of becoming the first $100 million athlete in professional sports.

Robinson, the top pick in the NBA draft, agreed to a 10-year, fully guaranteed deal worth approximately $68 million. The pact contains no incentive or "out" clauses or performance goals.

It is the biggest guaranteed deal ever signed by an NBA rookie. Jason Kidd, the second pick in the draft, signed a nine-year, $54 million contract with all but a portion of the final year guaranteed.

"Both sides won," said team owner Herb Kohl, a U.S. senator up for re-election Tuesday. "Glenn Robinson has now got a pro career underway in a city that he wanted to play in with a very nice 10-year contract fully guaranteed. And for the Milwaukee Bucks, it's wonderful to sign the No. 1 pick."

"The season starts tomorrow. Glenn Robinson's a basketball player. He wants to play basketball."

Justice O'Connor discusses breast cancer experience

WASHINGTON (AP) — body tingled," she said. "It Speaking in an unusually personal way for a Supreme Court member, Justice Sandra Day O'Connor says she shed some tears after her mastectomy six years ago but managed to "shape up and make a go of this" with help from family, friends and her work.

"I'm a survivor," O'Connor said, speaking publicly for the first time about her cancer Thursday to the National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship.

She said she initially felt weak and emotional after the operation, but that the disease "fostered a desire in me to make each and every day a good day."

It was an extraordinarily personal speech for a member of the Supreme Court. The justices zealously guard their privacy, particularly regarding their health. After O'Connor's operation on Oct. 21, 1988, court officials would only say she underwent surgery for breast cancer but would not confirm that it was a mastectomy.

"The best thing about all of this is that I had a job to go to," said O'Connor, 64, who became the first female Supreme Court justice in 1981. "I didn't miss anything and it was hard, but I'm so grateful that I had my work to do."

There were bad days, she said, describing her disbelief when she was diagnosed with breast cancer. "I can remember ... all of a sudden my face and hands, my whole body tingled," she said. "It couldn't be true. I'm too busy; I feel fine."

O'Connor said her story "is going to sound hauntingly familiar" to anyone who has had breast cancer.

After her mastectomy, O'Connor said, "It was really a tough time ... Yes, I think there were a few tears shed along the way."

Advice and sympathy from friends who were cancer survivors was a big help, she said, as was the hairdresser who "found a wig or two for me" when she suffered hair loss as a result of chemotherapy.

"And on the chemotherapy — ough," the justice said. "You do feel lousy and look lousy," but improving one's appearance during that time can be an attitude-booster, she added.

O'Connor drew a laugh when she described how, as part of her recovery, she was told to visualize "all the little good cells running in and stabbing the bad ones."

She also returned to her daily exercise class more quickly than her doctors expected her to.

"I lost strength in my arm and it hurt," she said. But she added: "My legs were OK so I used those. ... I could chip and putt on the golf course."

The worst part, she said, was the attention from the news media.

"There was constant media coverage," she said. "How does she look? When is she going to step down and give the president another vacancy on the court? She looks pale to me, I don't give her six months."

"Well, I didn't like that," she said.

O'Connor said she realized her illness created enormous stress for her family too, and that she told herself, "You'd better shape up and make a go of this because you're causing a lot of distress for other people."

Woman's Warning for Others: Cancer Can Strike the Young

DEAR ABBY: I am 24, married and have four daughters. Two months ago, I discovered a lump in my breast, so I made an appointment with my doctor. He examined me and sent me to see a surgeon, who did a needle biopsy.

A week later, I learned it was a malignant tumor (cancer), so I'm scheduled to have my breast removed in two weeks.

Abby, I am so sick of hearing doctors say that women under the age of 35 are not at risk for breast cancer. Although there is no history of breast cancer in my family, I am living proof that cancer can strike anyone at any age.

If it weren't for doing monthly breast exams on myself, I never would have discovered the lump. Please tell your readers to feel for "lumps" in their breasts regularly. (Men, too. Although breast cancer is rare in men — it does occur.)

TEENA

DEAR TEENA: There are going to be a lot of prayers for you — mine included. Thank you for writing to warn my readers. Early detection has saved many a life.

Readers: For more information on breast cancer, call the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are having a disagreement, which I hope you can settle. He says I'm overreacting, but I think I have every right to be upset.

Ever since I married "Norm" three years ago, I have supported him and his children from a previous marriage on a teacher's salary. Needless to say, we live from paycheck to paycheck. Our credit cards are maxed out, and we have had to borrow money from our parents to live.

Nine months ago, Norm's sister "Emily" asked him to install heating and air conditioning in her new home. He did, but she hasn't paid Norm one dime! I estimated the total amount to be somewhere between $7,000 and $10,000. With this, we could have paid off almost all we owe on our credit cards, and also for the repairs to our house and car.

I feel used. It's one thing for Norm to expect me to support our family, but for Emily to take advantage of me too is a bit much! I know she has no intention of paying him, and he has no intention of asking her for the money.

Emily's income is three times greater than ours, and she just came into a substantial inheritance, so she can well afford to pay Norm for his work.

The financial strain has taken a toll on our marriage. Am I wrong to be upset?

FED UP IN ILLINOIS

DEAR FED UP: You are well

within your rights to be upset. I suggest that you speak candidly with your sister-in-law and explain that you desperately need the money Norm earned for working on her home. Taking this situation into your own hands may create some friction between you and your husband, but, as I see it, it's the most sensible solution.

Few donors make big impact on campaigns

DALLAS (AP) — A handful of contributors have formed the financial foundation for the campaigns of Democratic Gov. Ann Richards and her Republican challenger, George W. Bush.

A computer analysis conducted by The Dallas Morning News found that Richards' top 14 individual contributors accounted for $1.3 million of the $13.6 million she has raised to date.

The top contributors to Bush were responsible for $1.1 million of his $12.6 million reported thus far, according to the analysis published Thursday.

"It's crucial to have these big-money givers," said Anthony Champagne, a political scientist and expert on campaign finance at the University of Texas at Dallas. "Raising money is hard. It's just so much easier to raise $100,000 from one person than to raise $1,000 from 100 people."

Texas has no limits on the amount of money anyone can contribute to a campaign.

The News reviewed campaign donations and in-kind contributions of $500 or more made between July 15, 1993, and Oct. 29, 1994, the last report available at the Texas Ethics Commission. The results were reported in Thursday's editions.

Houston lawyer Arthur Schechter tops Richards' list of contributors with $138,000 in donations. He is followed by Sugar Land software designer John Moores, $135,000; Fort Worth oilman Robert Bass, $125,000; and another Houston lawyer, John O'Quinn, $110,000.

Businessman and Dallas Mavericks owner Donald Carter is the biggest donor to Bush's campaign, with $115,000. Dallas businessman Dennis Berman has given $108,092; Fort Worth investor Richard Rainwater, $100,000; and Nathan E. Crain, a Dallas software designer, $97,092.

Earlier this week, Bush addressed the "alarming" number of trial lawyers who are among Richards' key financial backers.

"The plaintiff's trial lawyers are trying to keep Ann Richards in office to prevent reform to end frivolous and junk lawsuits," Bush said.

November 1, 1994

To the Independent Voters of Texas:

NEXT TUESDAY I URGE YOU TO VOTE FOR ANN RICHARDS FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

Governor Richards is clearly the most qualified candidate.

She is one of the greatest governors in the history of Texas.

She is smart, tough, and principled.

Ann Richards is NOT FOR SALE AT ANY PRICE.

Ann Richards is a true independent. She listens to the people of Texas, and does not hesitate to disagree with the Democratic Party, or the President of the United States when the interests of the people of Texas are involved. Washington understands that you DON'T MESS WITH TEXAS with Ann Richards as Governor.

When Governor Richards took office, the Texas economy was in a slump.

- Texas was facing a six billion dollar budget shortfall.
- Today, three and one-half years later, Texas has a 2.2 billion dollar surplus.

Governor Richards works night and day to build and improve Texas.

- She has traveled all over the United States, urging companies to move to Texas.
- The jobs are pouring in.
- For the past three years, Texas has created more private sector jobs than any other state.
- Here's one for the Guinness Book of Records — Last year Texas created more new jobs than California, Florida and New York combined.

Page Two

Governor Richards is a former school teacher. She is focused on improving the Texas education system. The result is that SAT scores are the highest they have been in fourteen years, and the drop-out rate is at an all time low.

HOW'S THAT FOR RESULTS!

Governor Ann Richards obviously knows how to run this thirty-five billion dollar a year business we call Texas. She knows how to get people from all different walks of life to work together as a team to prepare Texas for the 21st Century.

NEVER FORGET, THE STATE OF TEXAS IS BIG BUSINESS — NOT A SPORT.

POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS ARE A LOT TALK — BUT THE WINNER MUST KNOW HOW TO GET RESULTS!

When you go to the polling booth next Tuesday, it is your turn at bat. Drive one out of the park for Texas — vote for a proven, all-star player who has been knocking the ball out of the park for the people of Texas.

Ann Richards has earned our vote. We need more people like her in public office.

Texas has a great future. Why put it at risk?

As you think about who to vote for next Tuesday, remember that you own this thirty-five billion dollar a year business. You are getting ready to hire somebody to run Texas. The choice is clear.

Hire the person with a proven record of performance in running this massive operation — ANN RICHARDS.

Sincerely,
Ross

VALUE KING Snyder

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

IN THE KING'S NAME
THE ANCIENT KINGS, AS SUCH, WERE VARIOUS. NEBUCHADNEZZAR OF BABYLON AND ARTAXERXES THE PERSIAN WERE EACH "KINGS OVER KINGS" (EZRA 7:12; DAN. 2:37; II KINGS 24:17). HOWEVER, THE USUAL MONARCH OFTEN RULED ONLY ONE CITY. SOME OF THEM BEING LESS THAN THE SIZE OF A SMALL VILLAGE BY TODAY'S STANDARDS. A MAN BECAME KING OF A NATION OR CITY EITHER BY APPOINTMENT, BY ONE WHO WAS HIGHER IN AUTHORITY (I SAM. 9:16, 16:1, 19; II KINGS 23:30), OR BY THE POPULAR DEMAND OF THE PEOPLE (I SAM. 18:8; II SAM. 5:1-3; I KINGS 12:20; II KINGS 23:30) OR BY USURPING A THRONES, OR BY INHERITANCE. THE RESTRAINTS UPON A KING WERE THE FEAR OF GOD AND MAN. THE POPULAR WILL COULD NOT BE IGNORED! HOWEVER, THE KINGS DID LEAD A SHELTERED AND LUXURIOUS LIFE. IN VIEW OF THE ROYAL DUTIES REQUIRED OF THEM, BOTH PHYSICAL AND MENTAL, THE MORAL REQUIREMENTS DEMANDED A HIGH MEASURE OF INTEGRITY TO RULE WELL. MANY OF THE ATTRIBUTES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO NUMEROUS RULERS WERE REALLY CARRIED OUT BY A DESIGNATED SURROGATE, WHO DID THE ACTUAL STORMING OF THE BATTLEMENT WALL, OR CHARGED FEARLESSLY INTO AN ENEMY'S CAMP... "ALL IN THE KING'S NAME!" WHILE A KING REMAINED IN THE LUXURIOUS TRAPPINGS OF HIS PALACE... HIS APPOINTED SURROGATE, MANY MILES AWAY, MIGHT BE WEARILY APPROACHING A BATTLE WHERE HE IS DESTINED TO BRING... "HONOR TO THE KING'S NAME!"
