Execution set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, by a 6-3 vote, has cleared the way for the execution Wednesday of a Texas man for a 1986 murder that state prosecutors said was committed by his sister.

Jesse DeWayne Jacobs, 44, confessed, but later recanted, in the 1986 shooting death of Etta Ann Urdiales, 25, a paramedic from Conroe whose estranged husband was the boyfriend of Jacobs' sister.

Jacobs renounced his confession and said his sister, Bobbie Jean Hogan, killed the woman. He said he only helped his sister conceal the body.

Jacobs testified when his sister was tried for the killing, saying that he was outside the abandoned house where the shooting occurred.

Ms. Hogan was convicted of involuntary manslaughter and sentenced to 10 years in prison for Ms. Urdiales' death.

Sheriff Keith Collier is on the agenda to make a request to hire a replacement for former DARE deputy Charlie Reynolds, who took office as justice of the peace for Pct. 1 on the first of the year.

Collier's request is considered a formality. He informed the court last week that Deputy Delwyn Davis will take over as DARE officer, replacing Reynolds. Davis had been in charge of the community work program. Taking over that position will be Bobby Goodwin. Both the DARE and community work program positions are paid through state grants. The court will also consider monthly bills for payment.

Sleet, snow strike North, West Texas

by The Associated Press
While most Scurry County residents found relatively clear windshields when they went out to start up the car this morning, folks around Abilene were bringing out the shovels.

The Key City reported its heaviest snowfall in 10 years Tuesday morning.

The National Weather Service recorded 5 inches of snow on the ground early this morning at its airport office. However, as much as 8 inches fell near Clyde and Baird, about 20 miles east of Abilene.

Forecasters say worse winter weather could lie ahead, and Scurry County may be included. Another cold front approaching from the west is expected to arrive in West Texas on Wednesday and North Texas on Thursday, bringing a greater potential for sleet and snow over the northern half of the state. The National Weather Service indicates a few snow flurries possible for the Snyder area tonight, and a 30 percent chance Wednesday afternoon.

This morning's storm was blamed on a combination of cold Canadian air and an upper-air disturbance.

Snow accumulations of about an inch were reported in scattered areas around North-Central and Northeast Texas.

"The roads are clear now, but it was snowing hard last night," Janie Moreno, who works at an Abilene Dairy Queen, said today.

"We had a couple of inches of snow," said Kit Horne of West Texas Utilities Co. in Abilene. "The streets are clear now. But tonight, if it gets very cold and snows again, that could change." He said residents made snow sculptures, including a 6-foot-tall bear. Ms. Moreno said winter ice cream sales were still brisk.

Winds behind the front were from the north at 15 to 25 mph and gusty over the Panhandle, lowering wind chills to below zero at both Amarillo and Dalhart. Light and variable winds prevailed elsewhere.

Early morning temperatures were mainly in the 30s in North Texas and much of West Texas, but in the 20s in the Panhandle.

Cloudy skies with drizzle and rain were the rule in South Texas and along the coast. Early morning temperatures ranged from the 30s in the Edwards Plateau to the 40s along the coast and in the Valley.

The North Texas outlook calls for mostly cloudy and cold tonight with lows in the mid-20s west to the lower 30s southeast. Wednesday will be mostly cloudy and cold Wednesday with a chance of snow toward Abilene. Highs will be in the mid-30s around Abilene to the mid-40s around Tyler. Wednesday night should be cloudy with a chance of snow or sleet from Abilene to near Interstate 35. Lows will reach the mid-20s west to the lower 30s southeast.

West Texas should be cloudy with a chance of snow tonight through Wednesday from the Panhandle to the Permian Basin and over the mountains.

Araigned today...

Bond denied for shootings suspect

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A student hairdresser accused of opening fire on abortion clinics in two states, killing two people, was ordered held without bond today.

John C. Salvi III, clad in navy blue jail overalls, was ringed by sheriff's deputies as he stood impassively with his court-appointed lawyer, Tazewell Hubbard.

Salvi, 22, is charged with killing two abortion clinic receptionists in Brookline, Mass., on Friday and wounding five other people, and then spraying more than 20 shots the next day into a Norfolk clinic. No one was injured in Norfolk. The arraignment today before Judge Reid M. Spencer was on Virginia charges of firing into an occupied building.

Salvi, of Hampton, N.H., has been held without bond since he was arrested Saturday moments after the shooting in Norfolk. Spencer continued the no-bond condition today.

The judge also ordered a Jan. 24 preliminary hearing, but Commonwealth's Attorney Chuck Griffith said he may request a hearing, possibly as early as Thursday, on a Massachusetts extradition request. No such request was filed as of this morning but one was expected.

At a brief conference before his arraignment, Spencer granted Salvi's request for a court-appointed attorney. When Spencer asked Salvi if he objected to having cameras in the courtroom during his arraignment, Salvi shook his head, indicating he did not.

Salvi has declined to meet with visitors but met with the jail chaplain Monday and talked by telephone with his parents. The Boston Globe said Salvi was under a suicide watch, but George Schaefer, Norfolk city jail spokesman, denied that.

Neither Brookline clinic was open for business today. Susan Newsome, vice president of Planned Parenthood of Massachusetts, said the group's clinic would reopen Wednesday morning, with increased security. Officials at Preterm Health Services have indicated they would reopen later this week.

Local, state and federal authorities met this morning at Brookline police headquarters to discuss what security precautions to take when the clinics reopen.

President Clinton ordered federal prosecutors Monday to mobilize task forces to make abortion clinics more secure.

"I recognize and respect the range of deeply felt beliefs Americans hold on abortion," Clinton said in a statement from Little Rock, Ark., where he is vacationing. "A continued vigorous debate over abortion is proper. Violence against those who hold differing opinions is not."

Three teen-agers killed in accident near Jayton

AUSTIN (AP)—Accidents on Texas roadways claimed the lives of 32 people — including three teen-agers in a Sunday accident northwest of Jayton.

Cory Morris, 17, of Spur; Devin Galloway, 17, of Aspermont; and Sher Lynn Stanaland, 16, of Jayton, died in the accident on Farm-to-Market Road 1228. According to DPS, the three were killed after the vehicle in which they were traveling went out of control on an icy road at about 10 p.m.

The count was up from 27 deaths as of Monday evening. The DPS had predicted that as many as 25 people could die during the 78-hour reporting period, which ended at midnight.

"We're disappointed, of course, that the death count exceeded our estimate," said DPS spokesman Mike Cox.

"We never do those estimates to prove how accurate we are. We always view those as a worst-case scenario. We think one of the reasons the count went over is because of three multiple-fatality accidents we had," he said.

Five people were killed in a head-on collision about 11:30 a.m. Sunday on Texas 359, nine miles west of Laredo, the DPS said.

The victims were identified as Marco Garcia, 19, and Luis Fernando Ramiro, 22, both of Bruni; and Phillip Cervantes, 19, of Laredo.

Two occupants in the second vehicle also were killed. They are Oscar Sanchez and his 13-year-old daughter, Karla Ortiz Sanchez, both of Saltillo, Mexico.

Three teen-agers also were killed Sunday in a one-car accident in the Fort Worth suburb of Haltom City. The DPS said the three died when the car in which they were riding left the road and hit a brick mailbox and then a tree. The 16-year-old driver and another passenger also were injured.

Twenty-eight people died last New Year's weekend in traffic accidents around the state.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Tact is the unsaid part of what you're thinking."

Talked to our friend in Lubbock about his trip to watch Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

Back when we were in journalism school together, he was a member of the Tech spirit organization, the Saddle Tramps. His enthusiasm for the Red Raiders, in good and poor times, has never wavered.

His interest in the news business did wane, however, and he returned to law school and is married to a lawyer. Her interest in football, however, is not mutual.

But when Tech became the Southwest Conference's representative in the Cotton Bowl, our friend used his lawyer-skills of persuasion to convince his doubting wife that being at the game in Dallas would be a good way to start the new year.

Nobody, even the most skeptical, would have guessed such a lopsided USC victory. Even some of the most die-hard Raider fans admitted to frustrated embarrassment.

Our friend, did find an amusing side. As Tech was being battered all over the field by the Trojans from California, Tech fans were becoming blue from things other than the cold weather.

At one point in the massacre, the official blew his whistle. The call was a second "unnecessary roughness" against USC.

Our friend's bored and shivering wife turned for an explanation: "Do you mean to tell me that all the roughness up 'til now has been necessary?"

Another friend of ours was more philosophical: "It's been a long time since Tech played in the Cotton Bowl, and they still haven't."

U.S. forecloses on office of NAACP

BOSTON (AP) — The nation's oldest NAACP chapter is 16 months behind on its mortgage, and the federal government, which holds the loan, has foreclosed.

Heat and water to the office have been turned off for non-payment and the organization is being run from the home of chapter president Jack E. Robinson. Meetings are being held at members' homes and a local community college.

"This is the most serious problem at this point with the Boston chapter," said Robinson, who inherited budget shortfalls and other difficulties following an investigation into the Boston office by the national NAACP.

The chapter is $20,000 behind on its payments to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, which provided a low-interest loan for renovations in the mid-1980s. Robinson said he didn't know the exact amount of the original loan.

"What we're hoping to accomplish is that the minority community and NAACP members will come to the forefront and come up with the necessary funds to take the building out of foreclosure," he said.

HUD officials were not available for comment Monday, a holiday. Robinson said the case had been turned over to an Arlington, Va., collection company.

Which symptoms mark Alzheimer's?

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What is Alzheimer's disease and what are the symptoms?

DEAR READER: Alzheimer's disease, a progressive neurological disorder of unknown cause, affecting primarily the elderly, begins as forgetfulness. As time passes, the affliction causes increasing malfunction of cognitive thought, eventually causing severe dementia that is marked by extreme confusion, loss of judgment and the inability to carry out the simplest everyday chores, such as bathing and dressing.

The diagnosis is suspected by the way a patient acts and thinks. Although CT scanning often shows shrinkage of brain tissue, there is no single test that confirms Alzheimer's disease.

The disorder itself is incurable. However, drugs (such as Mellaril) help control the agitation and emotional outbursts that characterize the disease. Alzheimer patients require assistance at home and often must be institutionalized in appropriate skilled nursing facilities.

For more information, contact the Alzheimer's Association, 919 North Michigan Ave., Suite 1000, Chicago, IL 60611-1676 or telephone their hotline at 1-800-272-3900.

To get you started, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Alzheimer's Disease." Other readers who would like a copy should send $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2433, New York, NY 10163. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My dad believes that vitamin pills will prevent or cure almost anything. He says that taking vitamin B6 will cure carpal tunnel syndrome. What do you think?

DEAR READER: With all due respect to your father, I think that he is wrong on both counts. Vitamins do not cure medical diseases, although good health depends on a well-balanced diet that contains the proper amounts of essential vitamins.

Nor do vitamins help carpal tunnel syndrome — periodic numbness, tingling and pain in the fingers — due to swelling of a band of tissue in the heel of the hand, causing pressure on the nerves to the fingers. The affliction may result from repetitive wrist motions (such as in computer keyboard operators).

However, I developed carpal tunnel syndrome from riding my 10-speed bicycle, so direct pressure on the hand probably plays a role as well.

The syndrome is treated with physical therapy and discontinuation of the offending activity. Surgery (to release the swollen wrist-band) may be necessary. Vitamins are of no use whatsoever in the therapy of this common ailment.

Everyone who fired a bullet suspect in woman's death

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Nobody knows who killed Amy Silberman — maybe not even the killer.

But there are plenty of suspects in the death of the Boston tourist killed by a bullet that dropped from the sky and pierced her skull on New Year's eve.

"Everyone that fired a weapon on New Year's Eve is a suspect — everyone that fired a weapon," Superintendent of Police Richard Pennington said Monday.

Silberman, 31, was in the French Quarter's Jackson Square near the Mississippi River at about 11:40 p.m. Saturday, awaiting the New Year's fireworks display.

Suddenly she fell down. She was taken unconscious to a hospital, where an X-ray showed the bullet in her head. She died Sunday morning.

And police were left with the seemingly impossible task of finding somebody, somewhere who was taking potshots at the clouds.

Pennington appealed to the public for help in finding anyone who might have fired a gun around the time Silberman was shot.

Ballistics tests were conducted Monday in the hope of identifying the type of weapon fired and, maybe, how far the unwitting killer was from Silberman.

Police spokesman Lt. Sam Fradella wouldn't speculate Monday when asked whether it was a question of feet, yards or miles.

"We're not going to eliminate any possibilities," Fradella said.

But he said the investigation would be helped by authorities in Jefferson Parish, less than a mile from the Quarter across the Mississippi River, and St. Bernard Parish, less than two miles from where the victim fell.

Every year, there are scattered reports in New Orleans and other areas of gunshots fired into the air to celebrate New Year's Eve, Independence Day and other holidays.

Five injuries last year were attributed to such gunfire and police said three were reported during the New Year's weekend, despite public warnings that a bullet fired at the clouds returns to Earth with lethal velocity.

"I equate shooting in the air on New Year's Eve the same as shooting a gun into a crowd or the same as a drive-by shooting," Pennington said.

He announced last week new efforts to combat the practice, including a strong police presence in areas of the city where reports of gunfire have been most common in past years.

Silberman's death brought another shock of bad publicity to a city with an economy heavily dependent on tourism. New Orleans is among the nation's leaders in murders per capita and the 419 killings in 1994 — 420 if Silberman's death is included — by far surpassed the one-year record of 389 set last year.

Tourists were rarely among the victims. A visitor from Baton Rouge was shot to death in the French Quarter during an argument last fall and a German soldier was killed May 2 in an apparent robbery attempt.

"I knew she was going to New Orleans, but I didn't think anything would happen," said Sam Silberman, Amy's father. "This just comes as such a shock."

Beverly Gianna, director of public relations for the New Orleans Metropolitan Convention and Visitors Bureau, said she is confident police are doing all they can. She added that such problems are widespread.

1 million see Rose Parade

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Golfing astronauts, a band in wooden shoes and a beauty queen bundled in long Johns marched past 1 million cheering spectators Monday as the Tournament of Roses parade made its 106th procession.

Chilly crowds lined 5 1/2 miles of Orange Grove and Colorado boulevards as temperatures rose from 40 degrees at dawn.

"We have a combination of sweats and long Johns, wool socks and heating pads for our hands," said Rose Queen Aliya Haque, a 17-year-old high school student from San Marino.

Fifty-four elaborate, immense floats lumbered down the street, decked out in the parade theme, "Sports: Quest for Excellence."

Twenty-three marching bands — including the wooden-shod group from Holland, Mich. — and 29 equestrian units also participated. The grand marshal was golf legend Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Adrian Cuevas, 20, of West Covina and his brother, Alex, 29, arrived 16 hours before the parade to stake out a prime spot on Orange Grove, passing the time huddled in sleeping bags and playing Pictionary by flashlight.

the critical moment. Afraid that partner has the club ace and declarer the diamond king, many Wests would passively return a major. Yet, as you can see, this defense doesn't defeat the contract. Declarer draws trumps and runs the clubs.

However, if West has confidence in his partner, he will switch to diamonds at trick three. From the dummy, it is obvious to East that diamonds is the logical switch for West to make. If East cannot stand a switch to that suit (for example, he has the club ace and not the diamond king), he should encourage in spades, even if he knows another spade lead will serve no constructive purpose. Later, when East wins with his club ace, he will switch with effect to diamonds.

Always bear in mind this "logical switch" situation when sitting over the dummy.

Short book, much information

If you would like to read a workmanlike analysis of the major signalling methods, buy Kit Woolsey's "Modern Defensive Signalling in Contract Bridge" (Baron Barclay, 800-274-2221, $7.95). In 60 pages, Woolsey discusses standard, upside-down, odd-even and Lavinthal signals. He provides good example deals to highlight the possibilities and he notes the drawbacks of each.

Many players would fail to defeat this four-heart contract, for fear of switching from A-Q-4. But Woolsey explains why it is the only play in this deal.

West leads the spade jack. After declarer wins with dummy's ace, East drops a discouraging two. Now comes the losing trump finesse, producing

POP CULTURE™ by Steve McGarry

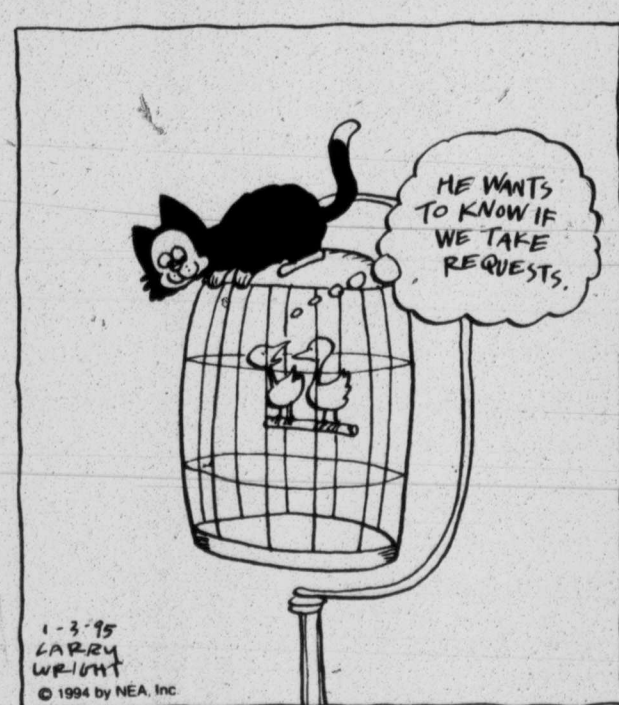

So many women copied Veronica Lake's trademark "peekaboo" hairstyle during World War II that the government had to ask the movie star to pull her long blonde tresses back from over her right eye, in order to cut down on accidents in factories!

- Who was Lake's diminutive co-star in "This Gun for Hire," "The Glass Key," "Duffy's Tavern," "The Blue Dahlia" and "Saloon"?
- Name the Oscar-winning actor who starred opposite Veronica Lake in the 1942 comedy "I Married a Witch."
- How did Lake's nurse character meet her end in the 1943 war movie "So Proudly We Hail"?

Answers: 1) Alan Ladd 2) Fredric March 3) She walked into a group of Japanese soldiers with a live grenade tucked into her blouse!

Floridans fear, resent cougar project

LAKE CITY, Fla. (AP) — State officials suspected barbed wire was responsible for the death of one of Russell Davis' calves. But Davis suspected otherwise. He was convinced an attack by a Texas cougar was to blame.

Only when another of Davis' calves died a month later did officials reluctantly admit that the deaths had been caused by the cougars.

Now Davis and about 250 other residents of North Florida have signed a petition saying the continued attacks on their livestock are making them fear for their personal safety. They want to see the cougars gone.

The state released 19 cougars in North Florida in 1993 as surrogates to the endangered Florida panthers, who officials believe once existed in the region and now live in the Big Cypress National Preserve in South Florida.

Though they are closely linked genetically to panthers, there is no shortage of Texas cougars. Officials want to monitor how the cougars respond to the area before attempting further restoration efforts of panthers in the region. A plan to crossbreed the two animals also was being considered.

Of the original 19 cougars, only nine still roam the area: four have been killed and six have been removed after stalking livestock or interacting with humans.

Residents accuse game and fish officials of covering up problems that raise doubts as to whether the panther protection program can work.

"They're not being honest," said Michael Carter, who lost seven exotic game animals to the cougars. "It's a lack of integrity."

Lt. Col. Larry Martin, regional director for the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, denies any underreporting of trouble.

He said there had been "very few" incidents involving cougar attacks on livestock, and he said each of those would be considered when the program comes under review in June.

However, records and resident reports indicate an increasing number of run-ins.

Davis' brother, Noah Davis, a Columbia County farmer, said he now has dogs on his property north of Lake City to protect his hogs and chickens. But that's not his greatest concern.

"I have grandbabies from 1 to 10 years old," he said. "I'm really afraid over there for my grandchildren."

The state is spending $625,000 annually to save the estimated 30 to 50 remaining Florida panthers, said Tom Logan, the department's bureau chief of wildlife.

The reintroduction project in North Florida first began in 1988.

Listen to Your Heart Is Woman's Lesson for Life

by Abigail Van Buren

© 1994 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I remember the letter signed "Nameless" — the widow who attended the reunion of her late husband's World War II buddies. There, she met a widower who had lost his invalid wife just six weeks earlier. It was love at first sight and they wanted to marry. I'm glad you told them to go for it!

After 23 years of marriage, my husband left me for another woman. I was 44 and heartbroken — and then out of the blue, I met "Pete," a 48-year-old bachelor. The chemistry was unbelievable! We dated for four months. Seven weeks after my divorce was final, Pete and I were married. Abby, I had never known such happiness!

Only nine months after our marriage, Pete died of a massive heart attack.

I will always treasure the short time we had together. If I had listened to my friends and not gone with my heart and feelings, I would never have had those wonderful months of marriage.

You are right, Abby. Life is short, and we never know what's around the corner.

STILL GRIEVING

DEAR GRIEVING: My condolences to you, dear lady. Thank you for reaffirming that mature people should listen to their feelings, and pay less attention to what "people" might think or say.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to tell adopted children that they were "chosen" — giving them the assurance that they were "special" — was once in vogue. Today, it seems falsely sentimental. We do not "choose" a child in the way we might choose a dress from a rack, and no child is any more "special" than any other. ("Special" is often used as a euphemism for a child with disabilities.)

An adopted child today is usually told the facts surrounding his or her adoption. Ours have been told that when they were born, their birth parents were unable to properly care for them, and while that may be sad, we are very happy to have become their parents — and cannot imagine our lives without them.

Most of us who have adopted children of another race must arm ourselves with snappy retorts.

You wouldn't believe some of the questions we get from strangers. For example: "Where did they come from?" "What happened to their real parents?" "Do you have any of your own?" "What language will they speak when they start talking?"

CHERI REGISTER, MINNEAPOLIS

DEAR CHERI: Thanks for writing and telling it like it is. The question, "What language will they speak when they start talking?" sets a new high (or low) for stupid questions.

DEAR ABBY: Our 21-year-old daughter still lives at home. We have a major problem. Prior to her 21st birthday, we never charged her anything for living at home. She has worked full time since she graduated from high school, and now she clears $250 a week.

When she turned 21, my husband insisted she start paying rent. I thought she should give us $25 a week. My husband says $50 a week would be more like it. We are not poor; it's the principle of the thing. She needs to learn responsibility.

Abby, what do you think would be a fair amount?

MOM AND POP

DEAR MOM AND POP: Split the difference, and make it $37.50.

What teens need to know about sex, drugs, AIDS, and getting along with peers and parents is "What Every Teen Should Know." To order, send a business-sized, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054-0447. Ford unveils 1996 Taurus in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — An all-new version of America's best-selling car goes on display Tuesday, when Ford unveils the 1996 Taurus at the North American International Auto Show.

The '96 version is the first all-new Taurus since the midsize car appeared in 1985 and captivated buyers with its rounded, aerodynamic shape.

The new Taurus and its Mercury sister, the Sable, build on the originals' elliptical theme: Wheels are positioned far toward the vehicle corners, maximizing interior space and producing a long, sloping windshield.

Ford's changeover may cost Taurus the top-seller crown it won in 1992, as the automaker's factories slow in the coming months to retool and production of Taurus declines.

Taurus won the top sales notch from Honda's Accord in 1992, and Accord has ranked a close second ever since.

Chrysler Corp. may face a similar situation with its market-leading minivans when it phases in production of all-new 1996 versions of its Dodge Caravan, Plymouth Voyager and Chrysler Town & Country vans. Ford is poised to take the lead with its Windstar, Aerostar and Mercury Villager.

The new family of Chrysler vans go on display Wednesday.

Also at the show, General Motors Corp. will unveil its new sport-utility vehicles, the four-door Chevrolet Tahoe and GMC Yukon.

Fire destroys clothing collected for children

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Lewis Trujillo stood shivering in the snow and watched the tiny shoes and coats smolder.

After spending a year collecting clothing and school materials for needy children on Indian reservations around the nation, Trujillo had planned to leave Monday to begin distributing the 30,000 pounds of donations.

Instead, flames swept through three trailers filled with the donations. Smoke from Friday's suspicious blazes and water from efforts to fight them damaged the warehouse of his Nightwalker Enterprises.

"We're just going to be dead in the water now," Trujillo said Saturday. "We'll have to start all over again."

Trujillo said none of the lost goods is covered by insurance. He put a sign out at the warehouse: "No donations please."

"We have no place to put them now," he said.

Fire investigators suspect someone forced open the doors of the trailers, parked behind the warehouse, and set the fires. Authorities had no suspects.

Since 1986, with the help of hundreds of volunteers, Nightwalker Enterprises has delivered more than 4 million pounds of clothing, 400,000 pounds of teaching manuals and textbooks, and truckloads of desks, chairs and computers to reservations.

Trujillo delivered toys, candy and clothing to more than 18,000 needy children this Christmas. This year, he had hoped to deliver one shipment of donated clothing per week to reservations.

Trujillo, 65, a Ute Indian, founded Nightwalker Enterprises after he was forced to abandon his refrigerator repair business because of heart problems.

Astrograph
By Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday
Wednesday, Jan. 4, 1995

Your probabilities for fulfillment and success look good in the coming year. If you keep your projects down to a manageable number, it can only help.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Pay strict attention to what you say today or you might find yourself on a collision course with another strongly opinionated individual. Capricorn, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $1.25 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 4465, New York, NY 10163. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Monitor your resources carefully today and try to keep your budget balanced. Clear up old obligations before assuming any new ones.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Today you might be judged by the company you keep, so select your companions carefully. Do not let someone else's bad behavior tarnish your image.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Keep track of time today and try to maintain your schedule. Leaving critical tasks until the last minute could cause the quality of your performance to suffer.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Resist the impulse to take risks today. If the odds are stacked against you, it might be difficult to maintain control, but you must do it.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your temperament will set the tone in your dealings with others today. If there's a chip on your shoulder, it won't be hard finding someone to knock it off.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Giving someone a piece of your mind today will only momentarily appease your frustrations. The damage you incur, however, could be lasting.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Exercise caution today when handling your prized possessions. If you leave something valuable laying out in the open, someone might be tempted to take it.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Independence is an admirable quality, provided it isn't carried to extremes. Insisting on having your own way will invite a hostile response today.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) There are two conditions which could negatively affect your work today. One is watching the clock. The other is having people peer over your shoulder.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Try to avoid becoming financially involved with friends today. Money might trigger a serious misunderstanding.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It will be up to you to end the disruptive influences in your household today. Bar the door to troublemakers.

Chechen defenders continue fighting

GROZNY, Russia (AP) — Iron-willed Chechen defenders kept their grip on the heart of Grozny today after driving Russian troops out of the center of the secessionist capital. Hundreds of Chechen rebel fighters were packed inside the presidential palace in this besieged city 1,000 miles south of Moscow. On the streets outside were bodies and burned Russian tanks.

The Chechens have fought the Russians street by street, hanging on to the presidential palace despite a pounding by Russian tanks. Four days after it began, the Russian assault on the capital was in trouble. Artillery and small arms fire echoed throughout the night. The Russian government press center called things "very tense" and said Russian commanders had made "corrections in tactics." The ITAR-Tass news agency said more than a dozen children were pulled from the basement of a bombed-out building in Grozny. The children were flown to the city of Mozdok for medical treatment. Mozdok, about 80 miles away, is headquarters for the Russian invasion of Chechnya. The dispatch did not elaborate further on injuries or details. Charred tanks littered central Freedom Square today near the palace, along with the bodies of Russian soldiers. A group of anti-war Russian lawmakers returned from Grozny and pronounced the Russian offensive a failure. They said the Chechens had destroyed more than 100 Russian armored vehicles. The Russian government insisted its troops had the upper hand, but acknowledged "several dozen" Russian armored vehicles were lost in the offensive. The Russians said the city's defenders were putting up stiff resistance at "more than 50 points." "They'll never take Grozny!"

The salesman then advised the patrolman that they would be leaving town. Helen McLeod, 2800 Ave. Y, notified officers at 1:01 p.m. that her son had been bitten by a dog. Officers submitted an offense report for dog bite as a result of the incident. At 3:56 p.m., a woman came to the sheriff's office and stated she had been assaulted. An offense report for Class C assault was submitted. Another case of assault was filed at 4:30 p.m. as a woman came to the police department and reported the incident. Former veep will have surgery soon

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Former vice president Dan Quayle, treated last month for blood clots in his lungs, is back in Indiana University Hospital for removal of an enlarged appendix. He will undergo surgery later this week, Quayle's office said today. He was hospitalized Monday afternoon and is expected to remain in the hospital about seven days because he is still being treated with anti-coagulant medication. Quayle said he "just wants the thing out ... I don't need it anyway," spokeswoman Anne Hathaway said. Doctors said Quayle was in excellent spirits and is almost fully recovered from the pulmonary blood clots. He was hospitalized through the first week of December after clots were found in both lungs.

Abilene youth injured Monday

Ten-year-old Terrel Culp of Abilene was treated and released from Sweetwater's Rolling Plains Hospital following treatment of accidental gunshot wounds suffered Monday afternoon at a residence southwest of Hermleigh. Scurry County Deputy Sheriff Kerry Fritz said Culp and some other youngsters had been shooting a lever-action .22 when they apparently tried to climb to the top of a cotton trailer with the rifle. The rifle accidentally discharged and struck some angle iron on the trailer and the fragments struck Culp on the face and thumb. The accident occurred at the Julius Romeisch residence. Culp is the son of Allan and Julie Culp of Abilene.

Israeli minister says...

Chechen forces seeking independence for their oil-rich republic appeared to hold most of the southern part of Grozny today, but there was heavy fighting north of the city center. Russian forces have been trying to take Grozny since Moscow ordered troops into the mostly Muslim republic on Dec. 11. But today, Russian forces were pushed out of the city center by outnumbered, lightly armed Chechens who have fought them every agonizing step of the way.

Man admits he killed 5 during party

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — A house painter described by neighbors as a sullen man who collected animal carcasses admitted to shooting five people to death during a New Year's party, authorities said Monday. Robert Michael May, 27, was arrested Sunday and charged with one count of murder. He was expected to be charged with four additional counts later, said police Maj. J.L. Viar. After his arrest, Viar said, May confessed to shooting the two women and three men in a neighboring apartment in this city's historic district. Police declined to discuss a motive other than to say an argument preceded the shootings at a New Year's Eve party. Neighbors heard the shots about 3:45 a.m. New Year's Day and called police. May was jailed without bond pending an arraignment Tuesday. All five victims were shot in the head. Two of the men also were shot in the back, police said. May's neighbors described him as sullen. Some said he collected the carcasses of cats and other animals, skinned them and made jewelry and ornaments from their bones, the Roanoke Times & World-News reported Monday.

Slain Palestinian policemen shouldn't block peace talks

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Shimon Peres said today the killing of three Palestinian policemen by Israeli troops was "very unfortunate" but it should not block peace talks with the PLO. Peres met with President Hosni Mubarak and addressed a business group today before his scheduled talks with the chief PLO negotiator, Nabil Shaath. The meeting with Shaath follows a string of difficulties for the peace process: Israel's hesitation about withdrawing troops from the West Bank, confrontations between Palestinians and settlers over enlarging Jewish enclaves on the West Bank, and the slayings during a confused incident Monday night in the Gaza Strip. "It was a very unfortunate incident. I am sure that the intention of our army was purely to fulfill its mission," Peres said of the shootings. "I regret the loss of life. I hope it will not be repeated." But the talks must go on, he said. "The talks may be accompanied by misunderstandings, even including the loss of life," Peres told reporters. "I do not see any reason why we should stop."

Penn State remains perfect Texas Tech's Cotton Bowl dream turns into nightmare

By The Associated Press
While Nebraska returned home to a salute befitting a national champion, Penn State tried to keep its mind on a game that couldn't lift it to No. 1.

Top-ranked Nebraska returned to Lincoln on Monday for its coronation, even as the second-ranked Nittany Lions struggled through a 38-20 victory over Oregon in the Rose Bowl.

Even before their official designation as national champions, the Cornhuskers, led by coach Tom Osborne, were hailed by the governor and saluted by some 15,000 screaming fans. The celebration was at the Bob Devaney Sports Center, named for the man who coached the Cornhuskers to their only other national titles, in 1971 and 1972.

Penn State also has won two national championships, but a 12-0 record wasn't enough this time. The Nittany Lions knew they had little chance after Nebraska (13-0) beat Miami 24-17 in the Orange Bowl.

Joe Paterno's team was ahead only 14-7 at halftime before getting untracked. Ki-Jana Carter ran for 156 yards and three touchdowns, while Kerry Collins was 19-for-30 for 200 yards passing.

"It's really a shame that Penn State couldn't play Nebraska this year," Collins said. "The NCAA has to take a long look at this. This season more than anything shows that the system must change."

For Paterno, it was his fifth perfect record in 19 years at Penn State. The Nittany Lions didn't win the crown in four of those seasons — 1968, '69, '73 and '95. "We did everything we could do within our power to win the national title," wide receiver Freddie Scott said.

In other games Sunday, it was No. 3 Colorado 41, Notre Dame 24 in the Fiesta; No. 4 Florida State 23, No. 7 Florida 17 in the Sugar; No. 13 Southern Cal 55, Texas Tech 14 in the Cotton; No. 5 Alabama 24, No. 14 Ohio State 17 in the Citrus; Wisconsin 34, Duke 20 in the Hall of Fame; and South Carolina 24, West Virginia 21 in the Carquest.

ROSE BOWL

At Pasadena, Calif., Paterno became the first coach to win each of the four traditional major New Year's games — the Cotton, Sugar, Orange and Rose Bowls. His 16th bowl triumph overall also broke the record he shared with the late Paul "Bear" Bryant.

But it was the national title he spoke about.

"All you can do is win all your football games," Paterno said. "We've gotten criticized for our schedule by some people who don't know what they're talking about. We shouldn't get a rap that we didn't play a tough schedule. We deserve (the national championship) just as much as (the Cornhuskers) do."

It didn't come easily, despite Penn State being a heavy favorite. Oregon (9-4), coming off a six-game winning streak and in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 37 years, gave the Nittany Lions fits with their passing game.

Danny O'Neil set Rose Bowl records for attempts, completions and yards with his 41-for-61 performance and 456 yards. He also threw two interceptions and was sacked six times as Oregon ran up 501 yards. Penn State, the best-offensive team in the nation, managed 430.

"We came very close to beating them," O'Neil said. "We just didn't make the big plays. Our defense did shut them down for the most part. I think they only had one drive. But we gave them turnovers. We gave them a lot of opportunities."

FIESTA BOWL

At Tempe, Ariz., the final college games for coach Bill McCartney and Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam wasn't close. The Buffaloes (12-1 this season, 93-55-5 overall under McCartney) had too much of everything for Notre Dame (6-5-1), which failed to give coach Lou Holtz his 200th career victory.

McCartney is retiring and Salaam announced after the game he is bypassing his senior season for the NFL.

McCartney was given the obligatory ice bath by his players and then was hoisted on their shoulders. "I feel very humble," he said, "very appreciative in my heart that I — a really average guy — can have this extraordinary opportunity."

Salaam rushed for only 83 yards on 27 carries — more than 100 yards below his average — but scored three times. Quarterback Kordell Stewart ran seven times for 143 yard, completed 11 of 20 passes for 205 more and accounted for two scores.

Then Salaam said he was turning pro.

"There are a lot of things going on at CU," he said. "A lot of coaches are bouncing around, and there's not a lot of stability going on. That was the basis why I decided to come to CU, and I signed a four-year deal. But ... I'm leaving with coach Mac."

SUGAR BOWL

At New Orleans, the Seminoles won an NCAA-record 10th consecutive bowl game, riding the wave of confidence built by their stunning comeback against the Gators in a regular-season tie.

When they met on Nov. 26, the Gators blew a 31-3 lead in the fourth quarter. This time, FSU (10-1-1) controlled most of the action, holding Florida (10-2-1) to a season-low point total.

"It seemed like we dominated a little more than I thought we would," Florida State coach Bobby Bowden said. "It was closer than it should have been — if we had capitalized on all our opportunities."

Danny Kanell threw for 252 yards and one touchdown, and halfback Warrick Dunn connected on a 73-yard scoring pass to Omar Ellison. Kanell was 23-for-40 for Florida State as the teams combined for 774 yards passing. Dunn had 182 all-purpose yards, rushing for 58 on 14 carries and catching nine passes for 51, in addition to his TD pass to Ellison.

Danny Wuerffel was 28-for-39 for a Sugar Bowl-record 394 yards and one TD for Florida.

"We couldn't get the ball in the end zone. That's what ultimately hurt us," Wuerffel said. "Normally, we actually are better scoring than moving the ball."

COTTON BOWL

At Dallas, in the mismatch of the day, Southern Cal made its first trip to the Cotton Bowl a memorable one, building a 48-0 lead.

Rob Johnson threw three touchdown passes and Keyshawn Johnson caught three, including an 86-yarder from backup Brad Otton. Rob Johnson completed 16 of 21 passes for 289 yards and left after the first series of the second half — 3 yards short of the bowl record.

"It was a lot easier than I thought it would be after seeing them on film," Rob Johnson said. "We confused 'em and we man-handled 'em. I was surprised."

The Trojans (8-3-1) upped their bowl record to 24-13, while the Red Raiders (6-6), lost in their first trip to the Cotton Bowl in 55 years. The loss was the seventh straight for the SWC champ.

CITRUS BOWL

At Orlando, Fla., Sherman Williams was the one standout in a sloppy game.

Williams caught a short pass from Jay Barker and turned it into a 50-yard touchdown with 42 seconds remaining, giving Alabama (12-1) the victory. The senior tailback was everywhere: running 27 times for 166 yards, catching eight passes for 155 yards, returning two kicks for 38 yards.

Williams' class ended up with a 45-4-1 record and one national championship, the best 4-year mark in Crimson Tide history.

"They weren't always the most talented," coach Gene Stallings said. "But they were willing to do what it takes to be champions."

Ohio State (9-4) is 1-5 in bowls under coach John Cooper.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Terrell Fletcher must wish his season and college career wasn't ending. He's as hot as any runner in the nation.

Fletcher rushed 39 times for 241 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records, and touchdowns of 1 and 49 yards. In his previous game, Fletcher set a career-high rushing total with 192 yards to lead the Badgers past Illinois to earn the trip to Tampa.

The Badgers (7-4-1) won four of their last five games one year after winning the Big Ten championship. Duke (8-4) lost four of five after a school-record 7-0 start under first-year coach Fred Goldsmith.

CARQUEST BOWL

At Miami, South Carolina won its first bowl game, getting touchdowns runs from Steve Taneyhill and Stanley Pritchett. Taneyhill also completed 26 of 36 passes for 227 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Boomer Foster.

South Carolina (7-5) was winless in eight previous bowl appearances. West Virginia, which won six of its previous seven games, gave up two fumbles and an interception, and two of the turnovers led to scores. The Mountaineers (7-6) also turned the ball over on downs twice in the final six minutes.

Salaam headed to NFL

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam confirmed that he will leave Colorado a year early to enter the NFL draft.

Salaam, who had said he would wait until Friday to make an announcement, broke the news minutes after Colorado's 41-24 victory over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl.

Salaam, the fourth Division I player ever to rush for 2,000 yards, led the nation in rushing with 2,055 yards and scoring with 24 touchdowns. He had 83 yards on 27 carries and three touchdowns against Notre Dame.

Meanwhile, the Buffaloes' defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz said he accepted a similar position with another program, believed to be Kansas, although he wouldn't confirm his destination.

Packers looking for redemption in Dallas

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Face your fears enough and they'll begin to fade.

That's how the Dallas Cowboys were whittled to polite admiration.

So, when the Cowboys take the next step Sunday on the road to an unprecedented third straight Super Bowl title, they won't find the same wild-eyed Packers they routed 36-14 just 15 months ago.

Thanks to a 16-12 victory over the Lions in which NFL rushing champion Barry Sanders was held to minus-1 yard on 13 carries, and Chicago's 35-18 upset of Minnesota, the Packers will make their fourth trip to Texas Stadium in the last 12 months.

"We know them about as well as any team outside our division because we've played them a number of times," Packers coach Mike Holmgren said. "Whether that's enough, we'll see. They're a fine football team."

Although the Packers haven't beaten Dallas under Holmgren, each time they have put up more of a fight than they did in that first meeting, on Oct. 3, 1993.

"That first time, I sensed, you know, the hole in the roof ... Here we are with the Dallas Cowboys ... And the cheerleaders over behind your bench," Holmgren recalled. "I don't know if we were as focused as we could have been."

Freshmen split with Cooper

The Snyder freshman boy's "A" team used 24 points in the fourth quarter Monday to upset Abilene Cooper 49-45.

Kelly Gentry scored 10 points to lead the Tigers, as they rallied from a 30-25 third quarter deficit to overtake the Cougars in the final period.

Also scoring for Snyder were Alvin Fabre, who finished with nine points, and Chad Carter who ended with seven. In "B" team action, the Tigers fell to Cooper 57-36.

Scott Carr led Snyder with 10 points and Clay Berryman contributed nine. Matt Preston chipped in eight points for the Tigers.

The "B" team is scheduled to take on Greenwood here Friday. Meanwhile, the "A" team will play in the Big Spring tournament Thursday through Saturday.

Expansion team gets Capers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The expansion Carolina Panthers are taking several risks by hiring Pittsburgh Steelers defensive coordinator Dom Capers as their first head coach.

Just by talking to Capers before the Steelers' season is over, they're risking a big fine and possible sanctions by the NFL, including the loss of draft choices.

What the Panthers wouldn't risk was losing Capers to another NFL team. With the Philadelphia Eagles also interested in Capers, the Panthers apparently decided they couldn't wait any longer to go after the man they wanted.
