Marjorie Ann Boren and L. M. Curry Married In Abilene Sunday

In an impressive double ring ceremony, Marjorie Ann Boren and Leslie Milburn Curry recited their marriage vows Sunday evening at eight o'clock in the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boren, Abilene, where the colonial fireplace served as background for an improvised altar banked with ferns and gladioluses and flanked with tall floor stands filled with pink and blue gladioluses, carrying out the brides chosen colors.

The bride was attended by her sister Ruth Boren of Austin, as maid of honor, Elizabeth Tenney of Austin, her cousin Agnes Boren of Carthage, and her sister, Mrs. J. P. Eaton of Little Rock, Arkansas as bridesmaid. The bridegroom's attendants were Jim Bridgman of Winters as best man, Harry Bivin of Houston, J. P. Eaton of Little Rock, and Morris Chapman of Winters as ushers.

Before the ceremony, which was read by Dr. F. M. Warren, pastor of the First Christian church, Margaret Bone of Austin sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. W. O. Wylie Jr., of Baird, who also gave the wedding music from "Lohengrin".

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father was gowned in Jacob's model of white satin fashioned with draped bodice and long, fitted sleeves with Schiaparelli shoulders, the skirt modeled with a front panel and flowing fan shaped train. The gown's only trim was a group of pearl cabochons on each shoulder. The bride wore as her only ornament a handsome string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. A halo of orange blossoms adorned her allusion veil, and she carried a formal arm bouquet of calla lilies.

For something old she chose the handmade Italian lace handkerchief which her mother carried as a bride.

The bridesmaid's dresses featured harmonizing shades of blue and pink. The maid of honor was gowned in eglantine silk marquisee molded with shirred bodice, heart-shaped neckline, and puffed sleeves flowing into a bouffant skirt showered with tiny satin ribbon bows, held in place by blue forget-me-nots. She wore a matching halo of draped illusion in Vionnet style. Mrs. Eaton wore a like model in Lotus blue, while

Arrest Near Clyde In Radio Thefts

Theft of several radios from Lometa and Burnett has resulted in arrest of one man and another is being sought. The car contained the concealed loot gave suspicion to a pipe-line walker west of Clyde who reported to local officers. Deputy Nordyke arrested the two men. One was released but is being sought again. Nordyke took serial numbers of the radios and communicated with dealers at Dallas. Brown county officers took one man to Brown wood where charges were filed. One resides at Roby.

1936 Class Has Reunion Picnic

Second annual reunion of the 1936 graduation class of the Baird high school was held Friday evening at the Abilene State park. Games were played and a picnic supper was served.

Members of the class present were Frances McElroy, Floyd Pretz, of Cisco, Bill Austin, Katherine James, Jack Jarvis, Maxine Williams, Betty Wheeler, Dale Haynes, Cora Mae Payne, Mildred Bryant, Laverne Mitchell Randall Jackson, Ruth Eatherly, Susie Lee Smith, Mrs. M. D. McElroy, class sponsor, and the following guests: Nita Ruth McElroy, D. D. West of Dallas and Boyd Eatherly.

Miss Tenney was gowned in rain-bow peach, and Agnes Boren wore aquatone. The bridesmaids carried identical colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds and gladioluses tied in blue satin.

The house decorations were also feature roses and gladioluses in pink and blue and an elaborate centerpiece of the same flowers adorned the bride's table.

The mother of the bride was gowned in beige lace with aquatone trim, and a matching jacket. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black bolero model with eglantine trim. Others in the house party during the wedding reception included: Loye Korngay, of the chee-ild. Enough said. Thursdays; Mrs. Ed F. William ofday and Friday however, means Eastland, Mrs. Carol McGowen of Baird, Mrs. C. B. Bivin of Sanon the local screen, and it will Engelo, and Mrs. G. Fisk, Mrs. John R. Drensen, Mrs. J. I. Moorenumber down on the gotta' see Mrs. H. S. FATHEREE, Mrs. F. M. list. Warren, and Mrs. Ada Owens, all Here are the luck numbers for this week. I mean here are two

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boren of Abilene, both of whom have long been prominent in the field of education in Texas. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. James of Baird, early settlers and a pioneer ranch family in West Texas. She received her bachelors degree from the University of Texas, and has taught home economics at Taylor during the past year. As a student at the University of Texas she was active in campus affairs and was thrice a "Bluebonnet Belle."

Mr. Curry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Curry of Winters. He received his B. S. and M. S. degrees from the University of Texas and was a member of the Tejas club, and Tau Beta Phi, honorary engineering fraternity. He is now employed with the Texas Electric Service company in Fort Worth.

After a honeymoon in the Ozarks the couple will live at 3403 University Drive in Fort Worth.

Guests from Baird attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Wylie M. James, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Wylie, Jr., Claude Flores, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Boydston, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harper of McAllister, Okla., who are guests of Mr. Harper parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Boydston, Miss Viola Boatwright, Homer Boatwright, Misses Helen and Christine Settle, Miss Erma Dell Mitchell, and Mrs. Roberta Warren Mayes.

Olaf Hollingshead, tax assessor and collector of Callahan county, accompanied by his youngest brother Billy and Jim Tom Lawrence, left Sunday for a trip to the Carlsbad Cavern and on to Los Angeles, California.

* * * * * AROUND TOWN * * * * * With Otto B. Grate * * * * *

Heigh ho, and a coupla' whoops, for it is here Around Town time and we are about to be on our merry way back to check the happenings of last week, predict those for next anxt and have an all around good time.

Here is one for believe it or not. Mrs. John Alman has a white Persian cat who, a week or so ago began the process of shedding it's skin. Starting at the neck, Pussys epidermis began to peel back. Under the old coat is a complete new one, hair and all. At the present the kitty has shed everything but the tail and they are expecting that to go at any time. No, I don't expect you to believe it. I saw the old hide the cat pulled out of and I still don't believe it.

A new service station was put in last week. It is located where the old Shell station used to be, directly behind the Baptist church. Now it is an authorized Phillips station with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sikes as the amnager. Mr. and Mrs. Sikes hail from Rowden and are a welcome addition to Baird. Maybe you have wondered, as I have, what the inscription on the court house means. With the invaluable assistance of Mr. B. C. Chrisman, latin student par excellence, we found "Vox populi vox dei—lex loci est justicia omnibus" to mean "The voice of the people is the voice of God—the law of the land is Justice to all."

Have you met Jenny? That engaging little brunette who lives at the Larmer Henry home? She's a bonny wee scotch terrier and belongs to the diminutive Empress of that domain, Dorothy Henry.

The fal season at the Plaza will be opened with the customary bang for slated for September showings are these bell ringers, "Robin Hood", "Three Blind Mice", "The Texans" and "Yellow Jack". Getting back to the near future, "Always Good Bye" is the Sunday.Manday opus. This is one of the old time tear jerkers wherein (stop me if You've heard this one before) the mother sacrifices her happiness, which is usually some handsome hero, for the chee-ild. Enough said. Thursdays; Mrs. Ed F. William ofday and Friday however, means Eastland, Mrs. Carol McGowen of Baird, Mrs. C. B. Bivin of Sanon the local screen, and it will Engelo, and Mrs. G. Fisk, Mrs. John R. Drensen, Mrs. J. I. Moorenumber down on the gotta' see Mrs. H. S. FATHEREE, Mrs. F. M. list. Warren, and Mrs. Ada Owens, all Here are the luck numbers for this week. I mean here are two Old Jim Ned community will have a homecoming Sept. 3-4. Invitations have been mailed out to old-timers who have moved away in years past. A brush-arbor has been erected. A basket picnic will meature each day. Old-time Methodist preachers will supply pulpits under the brush arbor. Provision has been made for visitors to camp out on the night of September 3. Among preachers attending will be Rev. T. C. Willit, Revs. Geo. and L. E. Smallwood, Methodist ministers who were former residents of the community.

Spot light of the week goes to Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, because she is such a very nice person to know and because she enters so whole heartily into anything for the betterment of the town. When ever a project that will in any way improve the living conditions morally or otherwise, you will always find Mrs. Blackburn, ready, willing, and capable.

LITTLE MARSHALL NEWCOMB JR. MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

James A. Howell Succumbs To Long Illness

James A. Howell, 59 stock farmer, living in Iona settlement about six miles south-west of Baird, died at his home Tuesday morning at 3:30 o'clock following an illness of two months with typhoid fever resulting in a cerebral hemorrhage some ten days ago.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Baird Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the rites being conducted by W. M. Murrell of Abilene assisted by Revs. Lloyd Mayhew of Clyde, Methodist church and Hamilton Wright of Baird Methodist church.

Mr. Howell was a member of the Bethlehem Methodist church in the Iona community. Interment was made in Ross cemetery near his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Howell who died some years ago. He is survived by his wife, the former Othel Vines and four small children, Geneva, Nannie Mae, Ozel and Carlton Howell. Also two sisters, Mrs. Virgil Jones and Mrs. Ernest Hill of Baird and two brothers, Paul Howell, of Waco and Fleet G. Howell of Fort Worth and a number of nieces and nephews.

Mr. Howell was born Aug. 2, 1879 near Corsicana and came to Callahan county when a child with his parents and he has since made his home here. Mr. Howell was loved and respected by his friends and neighbors for his many noble traits of character and neighborly kindness as was shown by the faithfulness of them in his long illness; nothing being left undone that friends and loved ones could do for him. Mr. Howell was a good christian man devoted to his loved ones who will miss him so sadly.

Wylie Funeral home had charge of the funeral.

Lawn Prepares For 2-Day Homecoming

Old-time Methodist preachers will supply pulpits under the brush arbor. Provision has been made for visitors to camp out on the night of September 3. Among preachers attending will be Rev. T. C. Willit, Revs. Geo. and L. E. Smallwood, Methodist ministers who were former residents of the community.

Spot light of the week goes to Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, because she is such a very nice person to know and because she enters so whole heartily into anything for the betterment of the town. Richardson and children, Cecil and Doris Nell, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Rutledge and children, Carol, Sue and LaDrew of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Caldwell of Denton; Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gatlin and daughter, LaVaughn, of Chickasha, Okla.; Charlotte and Helen Starr of Grand Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bryson and little daughter Flora are visiting in Pittsburg, Texas.

Little Marshall Brightwell Newcomb Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Newcomb of Dallas, met a tragic death at the ranch home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brightwell on the Bayou Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock, when he fell from a hay wagon and the wheel striking the little boys head, killing him instantly.

Betty June Morgan, 16 years old cousin of the baby suffered a fractured left leg in the fall which was caused by the front standard of the hay frame breaking.

The baby and injured girl were brought to Baird where the girls injuries were dressed at the Griggs hospital. Wylie funeral home prepared the body of the baby for burial and at 7 o'clock the body was carried in a Wylie funeral coach to the Newcomb home, 4444 Southern Ave, Dallas, where burial was made.

The funeral cortiage was accompanied by Mrs. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brightwell, Mrs. J. R. McFarlane and J. W. McFarlane and Betty June, who was made comfortable in the back seat of the Newcomb automobile.

Mr. Newcomb, father of the baby boy, who is attorney for the Lone Star Gas Co., was in Washington, D. C. on business for his company was notified of the tragedy and left for Dallas by plain and arrived at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Newcomb and the baby, accompanied by Betty June, a niece of Mr. Newcomb came out Thursday of last week to visit with her parents at the ranch during Mr. Newcomb's absence.

Marshall Brightwell, who was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb also the only grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Brightwell was born in Dallas Jan. 7, 1936. He was a bright winsome little fellow, the idol of his parents and grand parents who have the sympathy of all in the tragic death of their baby boy.

Betty June is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Morgan of Dallas, sister of Mr. Newcomb.

Nobody's Business
By Julian Capers Jr.

AUSTIN—Striving desperately to gauge the effect of W. Lee O'Daniel's precedent-shattering action in endorsing a slate of six candidates for State offices in the August runoff primary, political headquarters and political managers here this week-end presented a scene of indescribable confusion.

The first flush of joyful enthusiasm which pervaded the camps of the O'Daniel-blessed candidates cooled rapidly, as hasty surveys in every section of the State brought in a wide variety of reports on the situation. The first axiom in the lexicon of the political is "Don't mess with the other guy's race."

ALLRED'S HAND SEEN
O'Daniel spent a week in Galveston as the guest of Maco Stewart, insurance executive and political power on the island. Stewart is closely allied with Tom Holbrook, lame-duck State senator from Galveston. Then the governor-elect visited in Austin with Gov. Allred. Holbrook is reported here to have drafted the endorsements which O'Daniel made in his now famous radio talk.

CANDIDATES STILL WONDER
Both the endorsed candidates and those left on the doorstep were wondering what the effect will be. Consensus of belief was that O'Daniel would recruit some votes for the blessed slate, but there was much doubt expressed here as to whether he would be able to carry the whole ticket.

political development in the wake of the lower Colorado river flood this week. Stone was non-committal, and two years is a long time for the voters to stay mad, even if they were washed out by floods.

The Senate investigating committee, which is delving into charges that improper operation of Buchanan Lake aggravated the June flood, halted its inquiry after two days of testimony, in which a direct conflict of engineering opinion developed—the Colorado River authority engineers contending there was no improper operation, and Dean Taylor of Texas University engineering school taking the opposite view.

AUSTIN NOTES
The University of Texas will open its long session next month without a permanent president, members of the Board of Regents said after a meeting here this week.

Should O'Daniel seek to curtail employment to save expense, many employees feel, the endorsed candidates, if they are elected might have to stand for substantial reduction of personnel in these departments. . . . O'Daniel's announcement that he will seek to speed up court procedure was another demonstration of either courage or ignorance.

Family Reunion

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Robbins (3 and 1-2 miles west of Baird) was the scene of the first family reunion Thursday August 4th. Friends and relatives were invited and all had an enjoyable day.

The morning was spent in meeting and renewing old acquaintances. Games were played. Lunch was served at 12:00 o'clock. The afternoon was an enjoyable one, conversations, games and watermelon feasting. Dinner was served at 7:00 o'clock.

The Robbins family came to Callahan county in 1891. The mother and father passed away many years ago. The five daughters and two of their sons were unable to attend the reunion.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins, of Lubbock Colley and sons of Texarcana; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins of Roby; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robbins and daughters, Florence and Helen of Galveston; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robbins and children Jack, Jim, Roy and J. N. of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Robbins and children; R. D. Robbins and family; M. A. Robbins and wife Mrs. L. E. Shackelford, Virgil, Lee, Sindy, Leatha, Annie Louise and Thelma; Mr. and Mrs. Dock Isenhower of Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. McCollum of Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. Alphin of Baird; Miss Lillie Belle Hurt of Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Hatley and grandson of Baird; Mr. and Mrs. Parisher and their two boys of Midway; Mrs. Parisher's aged mother Mrs. Hartley; Mr. and Mrs. Eheppard of Abilene.

Obituary

On July 28, 1938, God in his wisdom visited our community and took from us our beloved member and neighbor, Sister Julia

Sanders. Julia Montgomery was born in Harris county, Texas March 8, 1857. She was married to T. H. Sanders in that county in 1878.

To this union was born five girls. The family came to Callahan county in 1898, where they have continued to live.

Her husband and two daughters had preceded her in death. Three daughters and a step-son with several grand children, with a host of friends are left to mourn her death.

"Grannie" as she was lovingly called by her friends and neighbors, was a devoted christian. She was converted and joined the church at an early age where she has been a true and faithful member through the years, always wanting to do something worth while for her blessed Savior, who she loved so well.

She had not been well enough to go to church for several months but when her friends visited her she would want to know, how things were in the church, expressing a desire to be there and help carry on for her Master.

She was a good christian mother friend and neighbor and has left an example that would be well for us all to follow. We would say to her children and grand children, friends and neighbors, "weep not for 'Grannie' for she is in a far better place than this—a place not made with hands, "God has said in his word: "In my home are many mansions and I go to prepare a place for you, that where-soever I dwell ye may dwell also," and we know she is safe in the arms of Jesus.

She was loved by all who knew her, even the little children loved her. Again we say dear children weep not for "Grannie" but let us all live that we may meet her in that great beyond where partings are no more.

The Baird School Band

Many parents wonder why they should have their boys and their girls enroll in the band. In this article I will tell some of the values of the Band and why it would be beneficial to Baird and to the Students of Baird Public Schools.

Music education is limitless in its scope and attains a value that can not be measured in dollars and cents. It is a learning process through which an individual undergoes a change and a growth, thereby introducing him to a life enriched by music education. We are not concerned with what our children can do with music, but what an intelligent understanding of music does for them. Music develops, as no other activity can, appreciation of good music that is overlasting; training in group cooperation; loyalty; self-control; concentration and ability to study ability of child to meet public and make public appearances; ability of child to overcome bashfulness; a quickened mental response; poise; self confidence; character, true talent; and in some cases, has proved to be an excellent cure for stuttering.

The public school in progressive communities today is recognized as a democratic institution, maintained for the purpose of teaching youthful citizens how to live as responsible members of their community, not only during the school years, but after they have finished school. To attain this end, the National Educational Association has set up seven major objectives for the modern public schools which today have become the foundation on which the work of the public school system is based. These are: 1. Health; 2. Command of the fundamental processes; 3. Attainment of worthy home membership; 4. Preparation for a vocation; 5. Worthy use of leisure time; 6. Civic Education; and 7. Ethical Character. Therefore, the value of any phase of activity in any school system can be tested from these seven standards.

Let us consider Band as an education factor on the above points:

1. Answer this by observing the chest development and erect posture of the members of any school band. The training in breath control and lung development alone is worth all the effort involved. Drills and marches are also beneficial to health.
2. Dr. Charles Elliott, famous educator, has said, "The sight reading of music is the best mind trainer of them all." Sight reading and development of the senses of tune, tempo, and rhythm coordinate eyes, ears, nerves and muscles as no other subject can. There can be no mental sluggishness in the band.
3. The primary social problem of today is to preserve the greatest of all American institutions—the home. Instrumental music furnishes entertainment and develops the spirit of cooperation, unselfishness, and obedience.
4. Radio has opened a new field to musicians. The universities have recognized the importance of a good college band as an advertising medium and are now offering part and full tuition for their band members. Many students receive a college education by playing in the musical organization for the school.
5. Let us remember the old adage—"Idle Minds breed evil thoughts". William J. Burns, nationally known criminologist, states that when he finds a city with a maximum of good music, he finds a city with minimum crime. George Bernard Shaw says, "If young men had music and pictures to interest them, to engage them and satisfy many of their impulses, they would not go to the low pleasures of the street." It was a warden of Leavenworth Federal Prison who said: "Teach a boy to blow a horn and he will never blow a safe." Employment of leisure time is one of the major problems of our day. That problem is solved when one knows how to play an instrument. Music breaks down social barriers because "Music is the Universal Language."
6. Cooperation in action are the basis of both band training and civic training. To develop the band, every member must cooperate fully and cheerfully with every other member. In no other activity must such complete group cooperation prevail to achieve results.
7. Character and responsibility go hand in hand. Every boy and girl has a definite, essential responsibility in the band, in every musical part written. Upon the

BETTER LIVING

"If you remember when the electric refrigerator first came into general usage, then you know how utterly happy women were over the way it preserved food and provided ice cubes. It simplified kitchen labor. The health problem was greatly solved. But it was only the beginning of the great service Electricity was destined to render. Today every other home served by your West Texas Utilities Company has an electric refrigerator. Every seventh home has an electric range. Over 30,000 have electric irons. Nearly 40,000 have good light, many in isolated communities where power lines were built without hope that they might ever become profitable. This is a service rendered by Your Electric Servant so that you might have BETTER LIVING!"

"And it doesn't cost you much, honest, does it?"

Methodist Church

Hamilton Wright, Pastor

The early-day brush arbor is still a drawing force for large religious crowds. That was demonstrated spectacularly last week at the Methodist revival of three communities—Ovalo, Lawn, Rogers when as high as an estimated 600 attended a single night service.

During the 12-day meeting 50 persons were converted and reclaimed, some 25 or 30 united with the churches, a regional-wide young people's religious league was organized, and numerous churches reported unusual resuscitation spiritually.

The gospel message were delivered by Rev. Hamilton Wright, pastor of the Baird Methodist church. H. S. (Pete) Slatton, formerly of Baird but now of Cisco, led the singing. The pastor is the Rev. H. B. Coggin.

The arbor was under a gigantic liveoak whose wide spreading branches afforded shade with the brush atop the main tabernacle. It was situated half a mile east of the McBee Cemetery, about a half mile west of the Abilene-Coleman highway.

People came from miles about—some from as far as Abilene, Blackwell and Loraine. All parking space reserved was taken nightly and cars lined the lane passing the arbor for hundreds of yards.

Among attendants regularly was "Uncle William" Varnadore, 91 years of age. One popular young man of the community surrendered to preach. Old-time shouting was indulged in also.

Consensus of opinion of church members was to perpetuate the brush-arbor revival annually. The Baird pastor was asked to return another year for the event.

The revival cemented closer friendship between the communities and churches.

"In my opinion the brush-arbor meeting is the solution to summer revivals," the Rev. Wright said. "If appointed pastor in Baird another year I shall urge such a meeting here. Its modern novelty and pulling power should make it a mighty force in our local religious life," he said.

Rev. C. A. Bickley, Abilene district presiding elder, supplied the Methodist pulpit Sunday morning. The popular preacher left his home at Abilene just a few minutes after a man had committed suicide next door. The incident caused him considerable mental unrest.

In the evening the congregation repaired to the Presbyterian church for service.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening Sunday—11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m. He has two special messages for his congregation.

Many are away on vacation. Now that school days are approaching we trust our people will get back to the habit of attending Sunday School and Preaching services regularly—said Brother Wright.

Our Trip To The Rockies

(By Joe R. Mayes)

The second installment of our trip to the Rockies and back

On Wednesday July 13 we left Richmond and went to Pasadena where we rested and visited for four days, the trip down was wonderful. We went the coast route and I tell you now I got all the cliffs and sea I wanted or ever will want I think But it was grand and such a sight; enough to inspire any one to nobler and bigger things. Some of the things around L. A. that we saw were the Rose Bowl. It is an amphitheatre with some 80,000 capacity so arranged that all can have a good vision of what is going on in the Arena, it has for its covering the Blue Sky, but the Acoustics makes it one of the best places for any sort of public gathering. A speaker can easily be heard all over it even if it is filled to capacity. I think I would like to see a good foot ball game there.

Another noted place of extraordinary interest was, Mt. Wilson we could stand in Judith's front yard and see the equipment on top of this old man of the mountains. It is 6000 feet high and on top of it are some wonderful astronomical equipment, two large telescopes. I think the largest in the world. A beautiful camp with hotel with all modern conveniences, just about every thing that will help to really enjoy a trip up to the top of this wonderful high mountain. Some time I think it was before the Gold Rush days, a man by the name of Wilson made his way to the top of this mountain; it was a long and dangerous climb, but today there is an excellent high way going up there and though you have to drive 25 miles to do it you can easily make the top in an hour. We were there after dark and saw the lights of all that great sea of cities, one can behold from the summit of this peak, my what a sight. As you watched those thousands of lights twinkle it made you think of the beautiful sky with millions of stars. This one sight is worth the crossing the Continent to see—wonderful indeed.

Well perhaps those who go to the western coast has in mind to see Hollywood for the most extraordinary sights. Well I was in Hollywood but it was another large city as far as I could see. But rather think the things they want to see when they think of going to Hollywood are to be found in Long Beach. We went to Long Beach on Sunday and what we saw is almost unbelievable. Just as the old Babylon was the center of social liberties back in the old days so is Long Beach that today. Every scheme and possible means of amusement is offered. Places to spend your time, places to spend your money; its all there and the people go and they spend their time, money and about everything else they have. Some of them at least. Glory what a mixture gambling, drinking, lecturing to edify, and also lecturing to entertain; and I saw and heard some preaching, all of it right there on that wonderful playground, and all mixed together. Well I guess I am not entirely guiltless, for I was there on Sunday and then I went in bathing when there were lots of others; both sex mixed bathing see; And then in one of those little old joints I went with Vernon and Frank played ball, that is we bathed the ball Sunday baseball. Well that is about the limit.

We started home and we came back a different route to what we went out. I reckon it must be the northern route, and it is better than the one we followed as we went out; though either is just good enough, but if I should ever make the trip again and I hope some time to do so, I shall certainly take the northern route. Frank and Cora did splendid driving and we made it home in less time than we exchange home Wednesday morning the second morning after we left Pasadena and would have been home by 10:30 or 11 o'clock Tuesday night, but for some bit of tire trouble we had with the trailer.

Now there are two brief observations I want to make, or give two impressions I have of the grand taste of California. Frist, I want to say that it is a really grand state; all of our nation should take off our hats to this state, that has gone on and accomplished so much in the way of public improvements, the best roads, most beautiful landscapes, acres and acres of glorious fruit orchards, and so many other kinds of improvements. All of it is artificial, it has been beautified by the hand of man. They have spent more money and have made it count than any of the states in the Union, I think. California is a fine place to go for a visit. A vacation spent right, is really a fine education course; so much to see, and all of it up to the top notch. The other observation I would make is this; The country is over run with people going there trying to find some better or easier place than where they have been until every job has been taken and competition is so keen that it is not easy for any one. California has shown the part of nobleness by trying? to take care of the people there and she has done a fine job; But it has been hard and I think a bit unfair. So I will say to any and all who are thinking of going there for work or to find a better and easier place; Just don't go for the job you are looking for is either taken or there are several others there waiting for it. The business you want to get will be just as good where you are, if you will put the same effort into it as you would have to in California, if you succeed. Just be contented with the place you have only make it better.

I want to say something about the Schools and Churches, but my article is too long again and so I will have to just forget it or give it later. So goodbye to dear old California.

New FSA Loan Policy Includes More Farmers

J. S. McKnight, County Supervisor of the Farm Security Administration, announced today that his organization will extend its loan program and "accept responsibility for the entire load of rural financing," for those farmers who are unable to obtain adequate financing from other agencies. The supervisor said that the extension will be both downward and upward, including larger loans to livestock growers and to farm owners who are in difficulties, and also more adequate provision for farmers of very low income.

The announcement was made following the supervisor's return from the annual conference of FSA employees for Texas at College Station, attended by 206 farm and home supervisors for this state and by the clerical staff of the county offices, as well as by state and regional executives and specialists.

The supervisor warned that there will be no resumption of the wholesale grants, non-repayable which were stopped short a year ago. The larger loans to be made to farm owners or to livestock operators will be of service, the supervisor said, for those who are unable to operate effectively because of inadequate financing or who may be threatened with foreclosure. In the latter case, he said, debts must be adjusted by agreement with creditors and a sound plan worked out to assure that bankruptcy can actually be avoided.

Adequate funds are already on hand in Texas to care for this enlarged loan program. Supervisors will begin taking loan applications immediately and checks will be returned to the county office from the regional office within ten days from the time the regional office receives the application. Improvement has been made in this respect since the early days of the rural rehabilitation program when the pressure of grants and the lack of established procedure often caused delay of checks beyond the time when the farmers could make effective use of them.

Still another line of financing to be opened this year will be for the benefit of FSA farm boys and girls participating in 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America, the supervisor said. Loans will be made through the heads of the families. Increased attention will also be given to loans made for the purchase of machinery and livestock to be used jointly by groups of farmers in the community.

RANCH LOANS

Ranch Loans Made 5-12 per cent annual or semi-annual interest, ten years' time. No application accepted for less than three sections, 640 acres each, and as many more as desired. Prompt service.
