New library breaks ground in Floydada

County Library broke ground for a new County Library in Floydada.

Because of illness, Amy Hollums, the chief motivator and worker for the new library, was unable to attend the ground breaking. However, dignitaries and supporters from the area did take their turns with the golden shovels, and praised Hollums vision and dedication.

Julianne Cornelius was the Mistress of Ceremonies for the ground breaking, and recognized special guests. Over 100 people attended the cer-

Mrs. Pete (Nelda) Laney was the honored speaker for the event and praised the hard work and tenacity of the Library Board and the citizens who made the dream possible.

"This is a legacy from the past, and a stepping stone to the future," said Laney.

Jay Dycus, the Vice President of the Business and Economic Action Division of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, was on hand for the ground breaking and supplied golden shovels for the occasion.

"Dycus, and the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, are very interested in being a part of the activities of the area communities and working with all the area Chambers of Commerce," said Cornelius. "He also went to school in Floydada and graduated from FHS."

Dycus joined in the ground breaking with board members, librarians,

LaBaume named first manager of Unity Center

Jon LaBaume, of Floydada, has been named by the Floyd County Friends Directors as the first manager of the Unity Center.

He will be a paid employee and will resign as a Director of the Floyd County Friends.

LaBaume is a charter member of the "Friends", and has also been very active in overseeing the construction of the new Unity Center.

"Jon has been with us from the beginning," said Floyd County Friends President Nick Long. "His heart and commitment is there. We think he will be a great person for the first few years to help us run a facility like this."

According to Long, LaBaume will be handling all the bookings for the Center and will be available during activities at the Center.

"It is a good package for us and a dream come true for him," said Long. LaBaume is known throughout Floyd County as the Soil Conservation Officer. He worked for the Soil Conservation Service for 37 years before retiring in 1998.

Born in Dublin, LaBaume graduated Dublin High School in 1958. He attended Tarelton State College for 2 years then graduated in 1962 from Sam Houston State in Huntsville with a major in Technical Agriculture and Still, hope springs eternal. This may just be the year. Along about March or April, despite the long range forecasts, we could get some real, lasting rains. Then, a little later, we might possibly see another "peace agreement" in the Middle East, depending largely on how much the Americans current talks, the price to American taxpayers has jumped from one billion dollars to 17 billion, one million dollars for every Jewish "settler" who has taken up residence on the Golan Heights since 1967.)

It will be exceedingly difficult for voters to turn their back on a man who invented the internet, one who discovered the deadly radiation at Love Canal before anyone else, one who was the role model for a movie, one who more sympathetic to their cause is Al describes the perjurer Bill Clinton as "the greatest President in history", one who has discovered a warming trend on the planet Earth that has obviously been going on since the last Ice Age.

But somehow we think they will make that decision. In other words, we expect to see the last of the Clinton-Gore era.

Whether we see a great deal of change, otherwise, remains to be seen. One change we will see, we believe, is in the cultural tone surrounding the White House. No matter who wins, he will be less skillful in the lying department than the present incumbent. Face it. Bill Clinton is the best, or at least one of the best, we've ever had in that respect. Not even Franklin Roosevelt, who faithfully promised the American electorate, during his run for a third term, that he would never, ever, send American boys to fight in foreign lands, even as he jockeyed to increase the odds that war was inevitable, was a piker compared to Bill Clinton. After all, Roosevelt may (and please note the word "may") have thought, at the time, he was telling the truth. Bill Clinton knew, nearly always, he wasn't telling the truth. Still, despite everything, in a perverted sort of way Mr. Clinton may go down in textbook history as one who was responsible for peace in the Mideast. In our own opinion, part of the possible change we are now seeing in the Mideast is related to Clinton leaving the White House and the probability that George W. Bush may be the new President. The Israelis love Bill Clinton. He's not only loose with the truth, he's loose with American money. The only person they could get in the White House who might be Gore, and his chances are slim indeed. The Israelis did not love George Bush. They do not relish the idea of his son being President. There would always be the possibility that the son might remember the way they treated his dad. If they ever hope to get a sweetheart deal in the "peace process" they better do it now, before young George becomes President.

oping love affair between the national media and Senator John McCain of Arizona is a result of fear that Bush could become President. Why else, pray tell, would a national media now peopled so heavily by anti-Vietnam protesters find themselves a hero in John McCain? They sure didn't feel that way about him while that war was going on.)

Speaking of McCain and Bush, we note Elizabeth Dole's endorsement of the Texas Governor. No real surprise there either. She is a consummate politician, and a consummate self-promoter. She may very well be an asset to the Bush campaign, among those who do not know her well.

All of which is to say that (despite all the hype) we don't look for quick changes in the way the world turns. Those forces that have shaped history will still be operative. People learn slowly, but they do learn. It takes awhile for people to see the advantages of cooperation.

Otherwise we would have no Unity Center, or new library.

LANEY SPEAKS AT GROUND BREAKING-- Nelda ceremony of the new Floyd County Library, Tuesday Laney was the guest speaker at the ground breaking January 11, 2000 in Floydada.

Friends of Library work hard for progress

Under her leadership, the Friends of the Floyd County Library was revitalized, and adopted the construction of a new, modern library as their primary goal.

Because the County tax base was already strained to meet other needs, it was recognized that funds for construction of a new library would have to be raised from private sources. The site and fund the construction of a building for the new library provided the County would continue to fund library operations in the same manzation began fund raising efforts.

In addition, the Massie family had raiser donated three lots just east of the Courthouse for use as a library site, and a fourth tax entity lot had been acquired adjoining the three donated lots.

The organization contacted a professional grant writer for assistance in applying for grants to help fund the construction of a new library. nity support and funds for the project.

The challenge grant was conditioned on the organization raising an additional $150,000 from other private sources. Success soon followed success, as organizations and individuals recognized that what had been a dream could, with their help, become a reality. The Abell-Hanger challenge grant criteria was met a full three months ahead of the deadline. In 1999 the Hillcrest Foundation of

Dallas awarded a grant of $25,000; the CH Foundation of Lubbock granted $10,000; an Anonymous Foundation contributed $25,000; the James and

Smaller contributors are the backbone of any community fund raising effort, for without their participation it is impossible to attract the support of the foundations and other large contributors who look to them to demonstrate

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Just when I think I've seen it all, I'm again amazed at the caring and giving attitude of this community. Last Tuesday we hosted a bone marrow drive for my mother-in-law, Pat Frizzell. 204 people signed up to be screened, and 31 people donated blood to the blood bank. An additional 60 people were screened at the WJ Mangold Health Fair on December 4th. The workers from the National Marrow Donor Program were

Lockney Senior Citizens News

By Gladys Ragle

Well, how do you like this La Nina weather we are having? We are enjoying not having a cold, bad winter, but I am afraid it will have an adverse effect on our farming situations later in the year.

Most of our members seem to be doing pretty well despite the fact that there seems to be a lot of virus and flu around

Gladys Ragle and Elsa Cooper wish to thank everyone who contributed to the making of the scrapbook, whether it was monetary or just pictures and articles. All of this helped very much. Elsa Cooper volunteered to be in charge of the book for the year 2000. Our year 2000 seems to have started sert

The center is open Monday through Friday. If you plan on eating lunch please call the center at 983-2032 by 10:00 a.m. If you are 60 years or older we would like for you to join us.

This is the month to pay our dues. We would like for you to donate $10.00 for 2000 years dues. This helps to pay bills such as salary, utilities, upkeep of building and replacement of items needed in the kitchen. You may make your check out to Floydada Senior Citizen Center, P.O. Box 573, Floydada, 79235 or pay at the center.

Kyle Glover was one of our members who won the drawing for a "free" car wash at Cornelius Conoco Service Station. Erick offers this to one of our members each month. Kyle won the December 1999 drawing.

Sue Lovell's name was drawn for the January 2000 "free" car wash. Thank you Erick Cornelius for this service to our members.

We do appreciate you remembering the center when you want to make a memorial donation.

Girl Scouts kick off annual cookie sale

Girl Scouts from eighteen surrounding counties gathered at J.C. Penny's in the South Plains Mall from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on January 7, 2000 to kick-off the annual cookie sale. Girls participated in a number of activities, learning marketing and selling techniques, goal planning, customer service, money management and financial tracking. January 8th marked the first day that cookies went

This years selection includes the popular Thin Mint, Original Samoa (caramel and toasted coconut), the Tagalong (layered peanut butter and chocolate), the Do-Si-Do (oatmeal peanut butter cremes), Striped Chocolate Chip (chocolate chip and pecan with chocolate stripes and a bottom coating of chocolate), Trefoil shortbread, Apple Cinnamon and Lemon Drops (crispy cookie with cream lemon chips).

"For Girl Scouts, the program provides funds that support troop activities such as field trips, camping and service projects," said Kimberly Karl, Executive Director of Caprock Girl Scout Council. "For councils, the revenue provides funds to recruit and train adult leaders, maintain our facilities, provide council-wide programs as well as financial assistance so all girls can have access to the opportunities that Girl Scouting provides."

Over 4000 Girl Scouts for the Caprock Council's eighteen county area will sell cookies from January 8th through March 5th. All cookies are priced at $3 per package with all proceeds benefiting local Girl Scouts.

Cookies may be ordered via fax (806-748-0769) or phone (806-745-

South Plains agriculture conferences set in January

By Tim W. McAlavy

Texas cotton farmers on the South Plains farmers can update their production knowledge, and learn more about marketing and alternative crops at several regional January ag conferences hosted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Every year these conferences provide farmers a wealth of information on ways to improve their crop and livestock enterprises," said Jett Major, Texas Agricultural Extension Service district director for agriculture, in Lubbock. "The information presented at each conference is specifically designed to help producers in that region or county.

Producers can also earn continuing education units (CEUs) for their private applicator licenses at these regional conferences.

All of the one-day conferences will

This year's conference dates and locations are:

*January 17th-The Southern Mesa Ag Conference at the Dawson County Annex Building (609 North 1st) in Lamesa. Registration costs $15 through January 13, and $20 thereafter. ### High Plains producers named to Cotton Board

By Shawn Wade

Ronnie Hopper of Petersburg and David C. (Compton) Cornelius of Crosbyton have been named to serve as Producer Member and Alternate, respectively, on the Cotton Board.

The appointments, announced by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman, are for a three-year term that expires December 31, 2002. Also appointed from Texas as an Alternate Rodger C. Glaspey, Fresno, CA, and Angelo.

The Cotton Board consists of 30 members and alternates representing both cotton producers and importers of cotton products.

Other new appointments to the Cotton Board were as follows.

Members: Producer - W.L. Carter, Jr., Scotland Neck, NC; Importers-was Kenneth W. Dierschke of San Darcy A. Davidson, Walnut Creek,

Alternates: Producers - Kenneth P. Bunch, Jones, LA; Harley Metcalf, III, Greenville, MS; and Henry A. McLaurin, Laurinburg, NC. Importers - George R. Harmon, Taylors, SC; and Ronald L. Floor, Herndon, VA.

Consumer Advisor, Michael P. Londrigan, Mount Kisco, NY.

CRP sign-up requirements

for a 4-week period beginning January 18 and ending February 11, 2000. This is the fourth general CRP signup since enactment of the Federal Agriculture Improvement and Reform Act of 1996.

Eligible land to be placed in CRP must be cropland that has been planted or considered planted to an agricultural commodity 2 of the 5 crop years from 1995 to 1999 that is also physically and legally capable of being planted in a normal manner to an agricultural commodity; or certain marginal pasture land enrolled in the Water Bank Program. In addition to basic cropland eligibility requirements, at least one of the following conditions must be met.

Land must:

1) Be considered highly erodible land according to the conservation compliance provision or, if a portion of a field, have a weighted average Erosion Index of 8 or higher;

2) Be considered a cropped wet-

3) Be subject to scour erosion; 4) Be located in a national or State CRP conservation priority acres; 5) Be cropland associated with non-cropped wetlands.

Under Sign-Up 20, all eligible offers will continue to be evaluated and ranked using an Environment Benefits Index (EBI) based on the environmental benefits expected to accrue if the land is enrolled in the CRP. The Sign-Up 20 EBI is very similar to the EBI for Sign-Up 18, except that the Federal or state-listed threatened and endangered species subfactor of the wildlife habitat component has been strengthened and clarified. The 5point category was eliminated. Data is collected for each of the EBI factors based upon the relative environmental benefits for the land offered. Offers are then ranked in comparison to all other offers, and selections made from that ranking.

A producer must have owned or

Sign-up 20 of the CRP will be help operated the land for at least 12 months prior to close of the sign-up

period, unless; *The new owner acquired the land as a result of death of the previous *The only owner ship change occurred due to foreclosure where the owner exercised a timely right or redemption in accordance with Sate

*The circumstances of the acquisition provide adequate assurance to the Farm Service Agency that the new owner did not acquire the land for the purpose of placing it in the CRP.

The demand to enroll land in the CRP is much greater than the amount that can be accepted (CRP enrollment authority is 36.4 million acres and there are over 350 million acres of U.S. Cropland).

To be more competitive, consider only offering the most environmentally sensitive land, enhancing covers for the benefit of wildlife, and accepting a lower payment rate than the maximum amount FSA is willing to

We would like to thank the ladies at the Floyd County Mu-

We were in Floydada attending my granddad's funeral in September, 1999 and stopped by the museum right at closing time. These kind ladies stayed late and insisted we come in and look

They shared a great deal of history with us. Carolyn Jackson and Nancy Marble and other involved gave us a warm welcome that will not be forgotten.
