City Auto changes hands

By Alice Gilroy

A Floydada landmark, City Auto, Inc., officially moved into the hands of new ownership on Monday, August 1.

The familiar faces of owners Leroy Burns, Robert O. "Shorty" Turner, and Ricky Burns will step back to be replaced by new owners Brenda Kinast, Ted Noel, and Jimmy Dewbre.

Kinast, of Abernathy, has quit her 23 year job at PlainsCapital Bank in Lubbock and will be taking over the day to day operations of City Auto. Kinast, formerly of Floydada, is the daughter of Doyle and Dorothy Turner, of Floydada, and the niece to Shorty and Louise Turner, and Leroy and Loretta Burns. Brenda and her husband, Bruce, have two daughters: Stacey, 17, and Sandi, 14.

Jimmy Dewbre, of Idalou, has been in the automotive business for 30 years. He owns City Auto in Crosbyton and A-1 Motors in Lubbock. Jimmy and his wife, Debbie, have three children: Lauren, 22, Jeremy, 18, and Jarred, 16.

Ted Noel, of Plainview, is co-owner of Jack Morris Ford-Lincoln Mercury in Plainview, where he has been for 23 years. He and his wife, Patti, have two children: Scott, 24, and Suzanne, 18.

When asked how the three came together in the partnership, Kinast stated, "City Auto is part of my family. I heard about Jim and Ted getting together and I knew Jimmy. I asked him if he wanted another partner and he said, 'Yes'."

"I'm excited to be back home.

This is where I grew up."

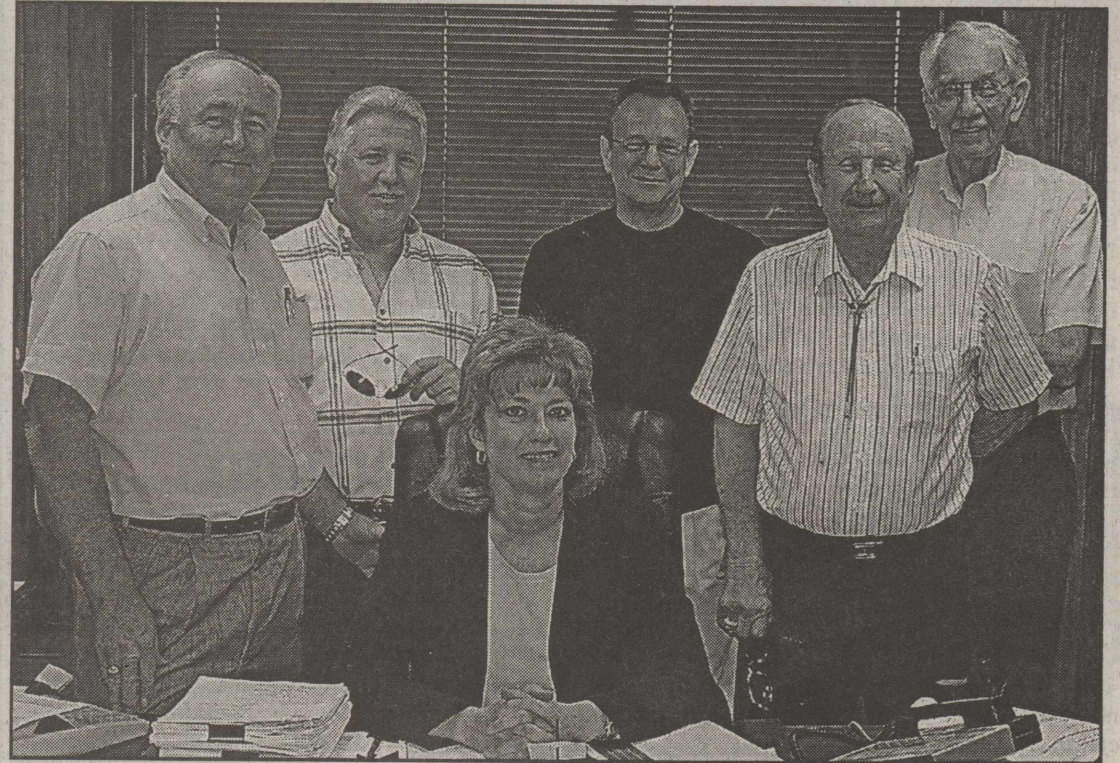

"We've been doing business together for 20 years," said Noel about his relationship with Dewbre.

"We want everyone to know that we will be stocking a larger selection of new and used cars with very competitive pricing."

The new owners also made it clear that the same friendly staff will be serving the public.

Richard Noel, zone manager for General Motors Corporation, was on hand for the transfer of ownership and to welcome the new owners as GM dealers.

"City Auto's customer satisfaction and technician training has been exemplary," said Richard. "We are looking forward to the continuation of those same qualities with the new owners."

advantage of the sales tax holiday.

Most clothing and footwear priced at less than $100 will be exempt from sales tax. Customers will receive the break on individual items, regardless of the total amount they buy. For ex-

City Auto founders retire

By Alice Gilroy

Forty-six years ago, in December of 1959, City Auto came into being with a vision by Leroy Burns. Now, after selling approximately 13,500 vehicles the business will pass into new hands.

City Auto was originally a parts and repair shop located at the northwest corner of Wall and Missouri Streets.

Leroy acquired a partner, his father-in-law, Virgil D. Turner, in late 1960. In August of 1961, City Auto became the Pontiac dealer in Floydada, and in September of that year the Rambler franchise was added.

In 1962, Robert O. (Shorty) Turner bought a part of the business and moved back to Floydada from Pampa to manage the office.

In 1963, the Buick franchise was added. Rambler was dropped in 1967 and GMC light and medium duty trucks were added later. Lyndell Roberts was a partner from 1963 to 1966 and worked as a salesman. In 1965 the business was incorporated, Roberts sold his shares to the three other partners (Leroy, Shorty, and Virgil), and the business moved to its present location; 201 E. Missouri.

In February 1969, Virgil Turner sold his third of the business to Leroy's son, Richard H. (Ricky) Burns.

The family business had been a big community supporter since the beginning, and sometimes that support has created some difficulties in day to day operations.

"We have always supported our local EMS and Fire Department with our sacrifice of personnel," said Ricky Burns. "We are a small dealership and we have 2 employees (the parts manager and a technician) who are members of the Fire Department. When there is a fire they both leave. It can be hard on business operations at times."

"We have two women who are part of EMS. When there is an ambulance call we lose our secretary."

Through the years City Auto has won numerous awards for excellence in sales and service, including: the Pontiac Service Excellence Award, the GMC Customer Satisfaction Excellence Award, and the Buick Seal of Excellence for Customer Satisfaction for being the number two dealer nationwide in competition with dealers of all sizes.

"We've been in the top 5 rating for Customer Service Index for almost 20 years," said Ricky Burns.

Customer Service has gone hand in hand with car sales for many years at City Auto. City Auto stickers can be found on automobiles all over the United States.

One of the reasons City Auto has become so well known is the popular sales pitch of "selling all new cars $100 over invoice".

"We've done that since day one," said Leroy. "A lot of people didn't think we would be able to continue doing that."

"There are people who have told us that other car dealerships would tell them, 'don't buy from City Auto because they won't be there next year'," said Ricky.

"The secret has been that we keep our expenses low. We own everything and we work for the 'hold back' at the end of the year. Every dealer gets the hold back of 3% of every vehicle sold."

"Other dealerships have higher overhead expenses which makes it hard to sell so low," said Ricky.

Ricky says he will be around the dealership for a few months to help in the transfer but his future plans are still unknown at this time.

Leroy may still be a familiar face at City Auto, but plans on spending his time on his ranch listening to the coyotes and enjoying his cattle and the peace and quiet.

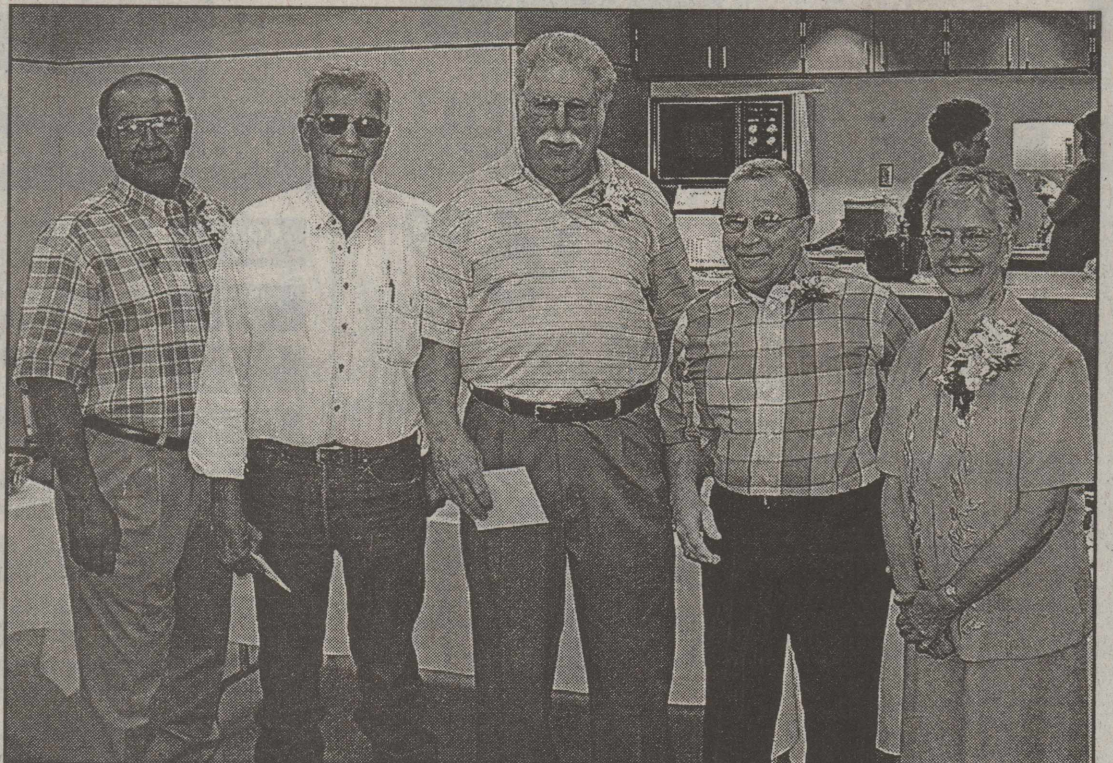

"I'm 83," said Leroy, "I don't really need a job anymore."

Shorty says he will still be in town and available to help the new owners anytime they need it, but he says it is probably time he retired.

"Somebody asked me the other day why I was going to retire," said Shorty. "I told them it was time because in 30 years I would be 103."

THE 77TH FFA STATE CONVENTION was held July 12-15 in Lubbock, The convention is held to elect new state officers, award students for their accomplishments over the past year and the state speaking contests are also held during the week. Britnee Brotherton advanced to the state Soil Stewardship Speaking contest after winning 1st at the Area 1 contest. In this contest students are required to prepare a speech over the provided theme and present it to a panel of judges made up of ag teachers from around the state and business and industry representatives. After giving the speech the judges ask questions to test the contestants' overall knowledge of their subject. The winners were announced at the convention on the 13th at the United Spirit Arena. Britnee Brotherton won 1st and was awarded with a $1,000 scholarship to the college of her choice. She is also invited to present her speech at the annual state soil and water conservation meeting.

BANKERS PETROLEUM ISSUES PERSONAL & PUBLIC APOLOGY AND DISMISSES LAWSUIT FILED AGAINST LA ESPERANZA OIL & GAS, LLC AND NANCY SHOCKEY

July 26, 2005 Bankers Petroleum (US) Inc. today issued a private and public apology and all parties dismissed all claims in the lawsuit filed July 6, 2005, in the 110th District Court, Floyd County, Texas against La Esperanza Oil & Gas and Nancy Shockey. Mr. Ford Nicholson, President of Bankers Petroleum (US) Inc. stated in the apology that, "In the hearing held in Floydada on Monday, July 18, 2005, it became apparent that due to misinformation and miscommunications, some claims were erroneously stated in Bankers' pleadings filed in the lawsuit. It certainly appears to me that the facts revealed at the hearing exonerate La Esperanza and Nancy Shockey from many of the allegations of wrongdoing."

"Bankers hereby congratulates La Esperanza on its monumental efforts in the Palo Duro Basin Shale Play. La Esperanza has successfully acquired 50,000 Net Mineral Acres from a U.S. public company, then leased an additional 150,000 Gross Mineral Acres beginning in the summer of 2004 through March 2005, and then leased an additional 153,000 Gross Mineral Acres in the Shale Play in Briscoe, Motley, and Floyd Counties. These extraordinary results are to the mutual benefit of both La Esperanza and Bankers, and the company has the highest regard for La Esperanza's achievements in the Palo Duro Basin Shale Play."

La Esperanza has accepted the apology and both parties have agreed to settle the lawsuit and resolve any existing disputes they have, and move ahead in their respective future business activities.

Bankers at this time would also like to clarify that the above acreage mentioned equals about 255,000 net acres.

Muse News

By Carolyn Hardy
The summer has flown by with the many visitors keeping the staff and volunteers time occupied. In July there were visitors from all over the State of Texas. The other states represented were North Carolina, California, Virginia, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Utah and Colorado.

Plans are being made for the book signing to be held at the Museum on Monday, September 19. Richard Flint and wife Shirley Cushing Flint will be at the Museum signing their latest book, "Documents of the Coronado Expedition, 1539--1542". Richard will give a talk on Coronado beginning at 6:00 p.m.

The "Punkin Day" festival will be on Saturday, October 8. The Museum will be open from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

The Punkin Men will be on the benches out front playing dominoes and volunteers will be assisting children who want to make rope. Last Punkin Day 126 children made ropes that they took home with them.

There have been new books added to the Mary Lou Bollman History and genealogy Center. Gayle Schacht catalogs the new arrivals and Janet Milam places them on the shelves. Mr. John W.

Conner of Amarillo was in last week and donated a book on the Thomas Jefferson Conner family that lived in the Mickey Community of Floyd County in the late 1890's.

Thomas Musser continues to update the Floyd County Oil & Gas Records at the Museum. Several people have come in for photo copies of certain pages from the materials.

Tuesday, August 2, Jim McBride, a reporter, and Michael Schumacher, a photographer, both with the Amarillo Globe News toured the Museum. They came to gather information and photos of the Coronado artifacts.

Mr. McBride is going to do a story on the Jimmy Owens Site in Blanco Canyon in the near future. They were very impressed with the Museum and may return to do a story on the Museum's Mad Stone. Approximately 90% of the visitors have never heard of a Mad Stone.

Recent memorials were given to the Museum in memory of: Ronald Kitchens; Donna Sarchet; Betty Gilbert; George D. Holland, Jr.; Veda Thayer Adams; Charles E. "Chuck" Holmes; Ruby Lee Higginbotham; and Shane Anderson. A donation was received by the Museum in honor of Virginia Taylor.

Floydada Rehab and Care Center Birthday Party

By Joyce Williams
Mrs. Randa Embre and two small sons hosted the July 21 birthday party for City Park Church of Christ at the Floydada Rehab and Care Center.

Cathy's Florist presented beautiful corsages to the birthday honorees: Mrs. Corine Lewis, July 3; Mrs. Doris Houchin, July 6; and Mr. Clyde Ray's birthday was July 31. The church friends gave birthday bags of personal items.

After the Birthday Song was led, individual birthday poems written by our resident poet Mrs. Lorilla Bradley were read aloud. The Hesperian reporter took pictures of all the honorees.

Delicious banana splits were served to the honorees and all residents and caregivers present.

Mrs. Bradley also shared a poem she wrote for the birthday group.

"Clyde Ray is a golfer pro. If you want to find favor with him, just watch him play. He is a hole in one.

"Corine Lewis is a lovely lady who keeps everything going."

"Doris Houchin--roses are red, violets are blue, buttercups are yellow--always true."

Guests are always welcome to the monthly party held at 3:30 p.m. each third Thursday of the month. Come and celebrate with us.

ample, sales tax is not due if a customer buys six shirts each priced at $99.99. But full tax is due on a shirt sold for $100; the first $99.99 cannot be exempted.

Clothing and footwear used primarily for athletic activities or for protective wear are not eligible for the exemption. Customers buying golf cleats or football pads, for instance, must pay sales tax. Athletic wear that is also used for participation in other nonathletic activities can qualify for tax exemption. For example, tennis shoes, baseball caps, and jogging suits are worn during everyday activities and thus may be purchased tax free during the holiday.

Also excluded from the sales tax holiday are accessories such as jewelry and watches; items that are carried rather than worn, including handbags, briefcases and wallets; clothing rentals, such as formal wear and costumes; and repairs and alterations.

More information about the sales tax holiday can be found online at <http://www.window.state.tx.us> or call 1-800-252-5555.

CHD Board tables transfer of hospital building

By Darwin Robinson

The Caprock Hospital District Board met Tuesday, July 19, and "tabled indefinitely" the transferring of the hospital building to FISD, according to Board Member Tom Farris.

"We discussed the issue with FISD Superintendent Jerry Vaughn and it just doesn't seem feasible at the this time," Farris told the Hesperian-Beacon.

In a related matter, the FISD Board met Tuesday, July 12, and also "tabled" the possibility to take possession of, and renovate, the Caprock Hospital Building for school use.

In other matters, the CHD Board approved the purchase of a lap top computer for Floydada EMS. EMS reported 64 runs in the month of June.

"The board adjusted the pay scale for extra hours and extra shifts turned in by EMS paramedics," said Farris.

$103.95 of Indigent Health Care claims were approved to be paid by the board.

The board agreed to the City's buy-back of two lots purchased by Jane Garza, with Garza paying the re-filing fees of $141, according to Farris.

The board approved a PNS Cogdell Clinic report that showed the clinic making a net profit of $22,255.46 for June, and $115,767.76 for the year-to-date.

Farris said, "We discussed the proposed tax rate and the proposed budget for the 2005-2006 year. The tax rate and the new budget will both be approved at our next board meeting scheduled for Tuesday, August 23rd, 7:00 a.m. The date change is because some of our board members will be out of town that week."

Hayes family enjoys reunion

By Betty Hayes

Mamie Hayes, of Lockney, was the center of attention at the recent Eaves Reunion.

Mamie, the only survivor from a family of 11 brothers and sisters, made the trip to Farmersville, since her health as failed several years ago.

Mamie is a diabetic and has had both legs amputated and is a resident of the Lockney Nursing Home. Her daughter Shirley Hayes, and niece Lozell Keeter, put her in the van and headed out on the trip.

Following from Lockney were her children and spouses: Cleatis and Betty Hayes, Lesca and Danny Durham, Roland Hayes, and A.G. Hayes;

June Hayes and Marilyn Hayes (wife of Royce Hayes, deceased) came from Plainview and Rita Brown, of Lorenzo, also attended.

Mamie, "McMaw" to 21 grandchildren, was blessed to have all but 3 grandchildren to attend. They included Johnny Arjona, Mikel and Cooter Durham, of Lockney; Haley Hayes, Chad Hayes, and Colby Hayes, of Plainview.

Great great grandchildren attending included, Ty Arjona, of Lockney; Great nephews, H.G. Graham, of Lockney, and Lozell Keeter of Lockney.

A host of neices, nephews, great neices and nephews from various locations all came to the reunion to help bring the total attendance to 180.

A special treat for Mamie was her son, Ronnie, of Farmersville, being able to attend after a recent heart transplant. She had not seen her son in over a year due to her health and his heart condition which require him to stay within 2 hours of the hospital. He was able to visit with his mom and family for a short visit. This was his first outing with his family.

Lockney Senior Citizens News

By Vera Jo Bybee

How about them Horns!!! They started their two a day practice Monday. I drove by there but I couldn't tell which was J.W. my grandson. He's gonna have to wear different colored socks or something so I can pick him out. Ha!!!

And to my grandson in San Angelo I hope you are feeling better. He has a bad summer cold. Tell all your buddies there "Hello" from your MawMaw.

Edith Cooper's recent visitors were her daughter in law, Sheryl Cooper of Tyler and Tracy Graham of Toronto, Canada. Also her granddaughter Robin Daniels and her son Matthew both of Prairie Grove, Ark. Then Eddie Wayne Hanna of South Carolina and Gladys Hanna of Turkey, Tx., Barbara Blackwell of Amarillo and her daughter Pam Robinson and Joni both of Olton.

Visiting Edith and having lunch with Violet Cooper Monday was Bob and Wilma Van Meter of Hobbs, New Mexico.

Merle Mooney recently honored her husband Mike and son David Brotherton with a birthday dinner. Guest's were Mike's daughters Debbie Goodrich of Poolville and Diane Phillips of Childress. Also present were Kay and Macee Brotherton of Floydada and Betty Veal of Lockney.

It was so good to see Joe and Dean Givens eating lunch at the Center Monday. They have just returned from staying in Ruidoso during the months of June and July.

Also Sunny and Larry Hammit were eating at the Center Monday. Sunny has been in Colorado attending her classmates get together. Gayle Hamilton was the hostess.

Cheryl and Van Bradley have recently had their daughter Lisa and her husband Kevin Gordon and boys Bradley, 9 and Blake 6 of Nashville, TN., here for a visit.

Mel Holcomb had a 3 hour carpal tunnel surgery on his right hand in Lubbock Monday. Also Charlotte Rhoderick, Marjorie's daughter of Silverton had a wreck in a pickup and broke her right arm. I told Marjorie when it rains it pours on her family.

It was announced in Church Sunday that W.L. Thomas was in the BSA Hospital in Amarillo and Byron Ford in Lubbock's UMC. I hope by the time this paper comes out they both are home doing well. Please keep them both in you prayers.

In May I had the sweetest letter from Callie May Holmes

Jackson. She sent an article from her paper about our former classmate Hardy Clemons.

The article said Hardy was going to be the guest speaker at Inman First Baptist Church. It also said Hardy retired in 2000 as senior pastor of the Greenville Church. Before moving to Greenville in 1989 he served churches in Texas for 27 years.

In her May letter she said her husband Tony had been in a deep sleep for four months and the doctors thought he was brain dead. On Sunday July 31 Tony passed away and his funeral service was held Tuesday August 2 at Green Creek, North Carolina. Callie, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your five children.

Gilroy awarded scholarship

Brandon Gilroy, a senior at Lockney High School, has been awarded an MJC (Military Junior College Scholarship) from New Mexico Military Institute, in Roswell.

The 2 year scholarship, valued at $24,000, will pay for Gilroy's room and board, $900 a year for books, a uniform allowance of approximately $2,655, and a monthly stipend of $350.

As part of the scholarship requirement Gilroy will participate in the National Guard program while attending NMMI. He will drill with the guard one week-end every month and the State of New Mexico will in turn pay for Gilroy's tuition and also give him a drill check of $230.00 a month.

Gilroy was also the recipient of a $500 (divided between two semesters) A.D. Regent Incentive Scholarship from NMMI.

Known as the "West Point of the West", NMMI offers a rich

112 year history and tradition of educating tomorrow's leaders through a program of strong, challenging academics, leadership preparation, and character development.

NMMI remains the only state-supported co-educational college preparatory high school and junior college in the United States. NMMI grants high school diplomas, and Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees in 22 concentrations. The Institute emphasizes qualities of honor, integrity, and responsibility.

Leadership training is provided to all cadets at the college level, through the Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) programs, and at the high school level through the Junior ROTC.

The ROTC program offers college cadets the opportunity to receive a commission in the U.S. Army through the 2-Year Early Commissioning Program. Cadets may pursue commissions in the U.S. Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Merchant Marines through the Service Academy Preparatory Program.

Gilroy also recently graduated from a 28 day Army ROTC Leader's Training Course in Fort Knox, Kentucky. Training during the course educates, challenges, motivates and demonstrates to each cadet the demands and rewards of being an Army officer.

Each cadet received adventure training designed to build both cadet self-confidence and unit esprit-de-corps. Emphasis was hands on, outdoors training with rapid, constructive feedback to the cadet. The LTC trains students to lead and develops their officer leadership potential.

Brandon is the son of Leonard and Alice Gilroy, of Lockney.

Local Conditions

Buy USA Grown and Made

Cotton maturity in Crosby and Floyd Counties ranges from pre-bloom to peak bloom. Overall, most cotton is in good condition and should improve greatly with the area-wide showers of the 26th/27th.

Square and boll set percentages in later-planted irrigated Program fields range from 79% to 92%. Older, irrigated and blooming cotton ranges from 6 to 9 nodes above white flower (NAWF), on average, exhibiting excellent potential. Dryland field square and boll sets range from 82% to 91%, which has been largely dependant upon moisture accumulated from early June rain events and CEweathering, since those events.

Latest heat unit accumulations are 1,346 HU's through July 25, 2005, (since January 1) with the average for the same time frame for the past 5 years yielding approximately 1,654 HU's accumulated for that same period. From May 1 through July 25, 2005, there have been 1,287 HU's accumulated. Growth stage from emergence from previous stage: First true leaf, 16, 16; Pinhead square, 455, 439; Match-head square, 560, 105; 1/3 grown square, 770, 210; First bloom, 1064, 294; First open boll, 1641, 577; 95% mature bolls, 2271, 630. We are on-track in heat unit accumulations necessary to reach bloom stage cotton, using May 1 as the average planting date.

Grasshopper damage to young, replant cotton has been reported from the extreme north and eastern corner of Crosby County adjacent to rangeland habitat. One field out of several in this area has been targeted by this pest, with tender tissue growth in terminals and small squares being eliminated in spots over the entire field. This isolated occurrence is not uncharacteristic as these rangeland areas have dried out with recent weather conditions forcing hoppers to move to new hosts. Growers would be well advised to continue scouting fields adjacent to rangeland, CRP fields and other weedy areas as grasshoppers can cause extensive damage in a relatively short time when moving in large numbers. This potential is extremely high in later-planted fields, or those that contain weed escapes, or possibly those fields with inconsistent stands left after hail events. The following table shows adult grasshopper infestation ratings based on numbers per square yard that may be used as a guideline when sampling for this pest.

Adult grasshoppers per sq. yard:

Rating	Margin	Field A
Non-eco.	0 to 2	5 to 10
Light	3 to 7	11 to 20
Threat	8 to 14	21 to 40
Severe	15 to 28	41 to 80
Very severe	28+	80+

A field ratings are to be used for both rangeland and field crop locations. Remember, this table is only used as a guide.

Although there may be only 5 to 10 hoppers per square yard in a particular field (Non-economic according to the table), the type of directed damage to tender terminal growth and young squares would indeed be economic and, therefore, of prime consideration in managing this pest with insecticides. Existing damage from grasshopper feeding must be evaluated, also.

Insecticides labeled and recommended for grasshoppers, in cotton and other field crops, are documented in Texas Cooperative Extension Publication E-209, "Grasshoppers and Their Control", available through your local County Extension office or by linking to <http://tcebookstore.org/pubbrowse.cfm?catid=117>. Growers should use caution when choosing insecticides for managing grasshoppers. For example, should cotton aphids also be present within the field, applicators would be ill advised to use a pyrethroid insecticide for grasshopper control, as these chemicals have been shown to CE flare, aphid populations. Also, re-entry intervals for some of the more toxic compounds should be scrutinized if hoe hands or irrigations hands are currently involved in field work.

Cotton bollworm infestations continue to be reported in non-Program cotton fields. Robert Carter, local crop consultant, has indicated that isolated, late-planted fields in the Wake area and a few locations north of Floydada have required treatment. One and two day-old worms were found under bloom "tags" and on lower portions of the plant, not just in plant terminals. This is sometimes characteristic with heat and lower humidities forcing the moths to deposit eggs in more protected areas of the plant.

Women's Protective Services hold 6th Annual Tractor Raffle

Women's Protective Services of Lubbock, Inc. will host the 6th Annual John Deere Tractor Raffle at 7 p.m. August 20 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. A reverse drawing will determine the winner of the 2005 John Deere Tractor provided by Hurst Farm Supply.

Tickets are priced at $100 which includes: one raffle entry for a 7820 John Deere 155 horse power tractor, admission for two adults, dinner provided by J&M Barbecue, live music from Blue Neon and a silent auction. Only 2000 tickets will be sold.

Tickets will be on sale at various locations. For more information on where to find your ticket check with Hurst Farm Supply or call WPS at 806-748-5292.

All funds raised benefit victims of domestic violence and their children. These funds enable victims to live a life free from violence.

Services are provided by WPS to victims in Lubbock and surrounding communities, such as, shelter, food, clothing, emergency transportation, essential daily needs, a 24 hour hotline, adult and child counseling, social referral, legal advocacy, community outreach and education, and children's programs all of which are free and confidential.

Trapping of bollworm moths continues to be sporadic overall, but numbers remain higher south of Highway 82 in Crosby County. Beet armyworm moth activity from traps has increased on the East Plains in Crosby County but is relatively low for the rest of the area.

Cucurbit Crops: Squash bugs continue to be a presence in certain Program cucurbit fields with late egg masses hatching this week. Several fields have required multiple insecticide applications with others remaining completely void of squash bug problems for the entire season. Continued scouting is necessary as the Cucurbit Yellow Vine Decline, that has been shown to be transmitted by this pest, may completely kill infested plants in as little as seven days. Powdery mildew in cucurbits has not been evidenced yet, but with the advent of this week's rainfall, increased plant tissue surface area in enclosed canopies, and previous irrigation activity, most growers should be applying, or at least planning to apply, a preventative-fungicide treatment. Once conditions become suitable for disease proliferation and symptoms become evident, this disease will generally spread over the entire crop in a short period of time. The July 15th issue of the CERio Blanco Update, has some suggested fungicides and resource links to help in managing this pest.

Keep Secondary Worm Pests Under Control in Cotton

Secondary worm pests such as loopers, armyworms and saltmarsh caterpillars can cause extensive damage to cotton plants at a key stage of production. Although infestations of these pests may be sporadic from year to year, damage from their feeding can be a late-season headache for growers.

Data from studies conducted by Dow AgroSciences and Mississippi State University during an outbreak of saltmarsh caterpillar in seedling cotton indicated that Intrepid® insecticide is highly effective in controlling this pest, as well as beet armyworms, soybean loopers and cabbage loopers.

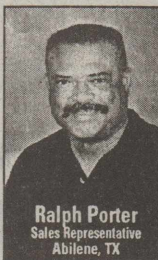

In all studies on loopers and saltmarsh caterpillars, low rates of Intrepid were compared with other commercial standard treatments and untreated checks. Results showed that Intrepid significantly reduced looper and saltmarsh caterpillar populations and percent of defoliation within 2 to 3 days of application.

Feeding among the pests stopped almost immediately with death following in 2 to 5 days. And, the residual effectiveness of Intrepid on treated foliage was apparent for at least 14 days.

The active ingredient in Intrepid mimics the natural insect molting hormone in targeted pests, causing a premature, lethal molt of the larvae within hours of ingestion. Intrepid, however, is selective, so it allows growers to maintain populations of key beneficial insects such as ladybeetles, parasitic wasps and honeybees, which makes it ideal for use in Integrated Pest Management and resistance management programs.

The extended residual performance and broad spectrum of Intrepid for control of the secondary pest complex in cotton makes it an excellent fit for pest control programs across the Cotton Belt.

New immunization law effective September 1

A new law effective Sept. 1 requires that children attending child-care centers and enrolled in early childhood programs be vaccinated against invasive pneumococcal and hepatitis A diseases, according to the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS).

Pneumococcal disease is caused by a bacteria that often leads to middle ear infections, pneumonia, blood stream infections, sinus infections and meningitis. The vaccine is required for all children age 2 months through 59 months attending child-care facilities and pre-kindergarten programs.

Hepatitis A is a liver disease that is spread from person to person, often by putting objects in the mouth that have been contaminated with the stool of a person with hepatitis A. Children in child-care centers and pre-kindergarten programs who are 2 years old or older will need two doses of hepatitis A vaccine given six to 18 months apart.

To attend child-care facilities and pre-kindergarten programs, a child also must be immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), polio, measles, mumps, rubella, hepatitis B, varicella (chicken pox) and Haemophilus influenzae type b (Hib) at the appropriate age. If children do not have at least the first dose of the required vaccines by Sept. 1, they may be excluded from child-care facilities and pre-kindergarten programs.

New this year for school children are expanded requirements for hepatitis B and varicella immunizations. Students in kindergarten through 11th grade must have received hepatitis B vaccine. Those in kindergarten through fifth and seventh through 11 grades must have received the varicella vaccine before the start of school.

"Parents should be sure their children are in compliance with all school-enrollment vaccination requirements prior to the start of school," said Monica Gamez of the DSHS Immunization Branch. State rules require that school students be vaccinated against nine illnesses: diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis, polio, measles, mumps, rubella, hepatitis B and varicella.

In addition, hepatitis A vaccine is required for students in kindergarten through third grade who attend school in a county with a high incidence rate.

These counties are Bexar, Brewster, Brooks, Cameron, Crockett, Culberson, Dimmit, Duval, Edwards, El Paso, Frio, Gonzales, Grayson, Hidalgo, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Jim Hogg, Kenedy, Kinney, La Salle, Maverick, McMullen, Moore, Nueces, Pecos, Potter, Presidio, Randall, Real, Reeves, Starr, Sutton, Terrell, Terry, Uvalde, Val Verde, Webb, Willacy, Zapata, and Zavala.

Routine vaccination recommendations call for most of the vaccine doses required for school attendance to be given by age 2 with boosters between ages 4 and 6. Catch-up schedules are available for students who did not receive the vaccines when younger.

Military dependents, homeless students and certain students transferring from other Texas schools will be granted temporary enrollment regardless of vaccination status. Some students are exempt from vaccination requirements for medical reasons or for reasons of conscience.

Specific vaccination requirements for school attendance are available from schools, physicians' offices and local public health departments. The information also is available online at www.ImmunizeTexas.com or by calling DSHS toll free at 1-800-252-9152.

Vaccination requirements apply to students in all public and private primary and secondary schools, those in registered child-care facilities and students enrolled in pre-kindergarten programs in Texas.

I AM THANKFUL

For the wife who says it's hot dogs tonight, because she is home with me, and not out with someone else.
For the husband who is on the sofa being a couch potato, because he is home with me and not out at the bars. For the teenager who is complaining about doing dishes because that means she is at home, not on the streets.
For the taxes that I pay because it means that I am employed.
For the mess to clean after a party because it means that I have been surrounded by friends.
For the clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I hav enough to eat.
For my shadow that watches me work because it means I am out in the sunshine.
For a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.
For all the complaining I hear about the government because it means that we have freedom of speech.
For the parking spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking and that I have been blessed with transportation.
For my huge heating bill because it means I am warm.
For the lady behind me in church that sings off key because it means that I can hear.
For the pile of laundry and ironing because it means I have clothes to wear.
For weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been capable of working hard.
For the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours because it means that I am alive.
