Spring Days Bring On Yearning For Baseball

Local Amateurs Work Out and Plan Game Between Sunday School Classes Friday.

Intermittent spring weather, sandwiched in between the cool nights of the past two weeks have brought on the old yearning for sandlot and other varieties of baseball with the result that numerous local amateurs have been out at Floydada Baseball Park warming up and getting the kinks out of their muscles, hoping that they'll get to play in some match games soon.

One game was played last week, a six-inning affair, with amateurs from McCoy, the local boys besting the visitors 3 to 2. Efforts to match other games with neighboring teams have been unavailing to date. T. W. Whigham, one of the local enthusiasts, said Tuesday.

Among those who have been out for the practices during the past few days have been J. R. Yearwood, Jim Curry, Lindsey Graham, T. W. Whigham, Jess Lanier, Burrell Holt, Boone Hall, O. K. Davis, A. N. Ward, Jim Young, Gene Collins, Darwin Callihan, Jack Deakins.

Final figures on the scholastic census of the county should be available sometime in May, Price Scott, county superintendent, thinks. ## South Plains Farmer Killed In Accident

Body of J. H. Myers Badly Broken As Car Fails To Take Sharp Turn In Road

They were about seven miles northeast of South Plains in the Linguish Falls pasture when the accident occurred, it was stated. Marks of the car made in the road indicated that the wheels of the automobile had skidded several yards as the driver attempted to slow down for the turn.

Mr. Myers was manager of the Three D Oil Company's station for a year or more. He moved to South Plains in 1928.

LITTLE POLLYANNA

What with bad news scattering like the windblown seed of the dandelion a bit of Pollyanna talk surely will be lost in a strange and topsy turvy world.

Howbeit, it would take only a few changes to bring about a much different tone of voice, and that full of conviction, among the ordinary people of this county and of this world. While those in places of prominence and responsibility talk of hard times such as we have never known, the average fellow at the grass roots knows that for the purpose of good living now all that would be necessary for most everybody in Floyd County would be twenty-cent butterfat and twelve- or fifteen-cent eggs.

Another thing which the average fellow must bear in mind is that the man who appears to you to be "big" is only talking after someone else who appears to him to be "big" and the sure-enough big man has in mind the tremendous shrinkage that has taken place in stocks and bonds and the other riches which are accumulated in the vaults of the world marts.

TAXES ONLY A PART

While the big property holders are crying out against high taxes, and none but realizes they are high, it is not unseemly for the average man to be doing more thinking than talking. While the big property holder is crying out against the heavy taxes, he does not tell you that the interest bill paid in the county is, perhaps, ten times as great and that other debts, which have little or no relation to taxes, are also on us and must have attention.

It should be remembered the heavy taxpayer, because of his peculiar ability to amass lands and other evidences of fortune, is thinking primarily of himself. He has trained himself to think that way.

In Floyd County, for instance, some money is being wasted, doubtless, but not more in the conduct of the county's affairs than in the conduct of numerous average farms or other businesses. It is human to err. And we could err as far one way as the other. Many average farmers and many average business men know this. There is also this thought:

The average family gains many advantages from the collective spending of money in municipality or in county that are taken for granted. The wealthy and the landed man pays a part in the carrying out of these things that he would not otherwise pay. We can slice too much off the taxpayers' bill. Taxes are only a part of the bill we pay for living, and a minor part at that for the average man in Floyd County.

THE CITY'S BUSINESS

That the city has done well to continue its operations during the past year on a basis in keeping with its income, is a source of gratification for the citizenship of the community. In a report last week, it was shown that not only had the citizenship obtained some twelve thousand dollars worth of police duty and very efficient fire protection, street upkeep, et cetera but in addition something over $2,000 in profit from the operation of the ordinary services of the municipality rendered to the public.

And this figure will be reduced somewhat in the next twelve months, by reason of two or three economies effected and by reason of the fact that the street lighting bill, for the first few months of the year at least, is cut by half, a contribution of nearly $200 per month on the part of the company furnishing the city with street lights under a long term contract.

It is particularly pleasing to many of the citizens that the city is taking the attitude that a debt is a debt and should be met if at all possible, instead of that other attitude that everything else has gone down and debts should go down, too. The public conscience is helped mightily by a good example set by its men in authority. While the time has not yet arrived that the city cannot meet its just obligations, should that time arrive, it will have done so only after the most strenuous efforts have been made to meet all obligations fairly. Meanwhile, Pollyanna-like, we shall hope that we'll have a "break" and that all will be well with us, and with those who bought bonds on the faith and credit of the people of Floydada.

EAT FOOD SLOWLY

David Copperfield, as a boy had to wear a placard, "He bites," in public, because he bit his cruel stepfather. But David, might he have worn a placard, "He bites and bites well," referring to the chewing of his food slowly and amply long, might have lived longer than he did. Along about the time one is doing much worrying, as we are advised many are doing now who cannot handle their businesses as has been their wont it is well to curb an inclination to eat too fast.

Eat food slowly is good advice. It would be doubly good for the man who is thinking of business and business troubles, who eats hastily in tune with his racing thoughts. If for nothing else, the eat food slowly habit would be good for reducing blood pressure. The kidneys, stomach, the heart and the pancreas, too often mistreated causing Bright's Disease, have all they can do normally, without attempting to help the master of the house solve his problems to the tune of fast-moving jaws and hastily swallowed and poorly masticated food.

So sayeth the physician, too.

Contemporary Thought

GOOD ADVICE

South Plains Farmer—"Place your fertilizer on fewer acres, plant a better seed, cultivate well and produce quality cotton which will command a premium," advises U. Benton Blalock, president of the American Cotton Co-Operative association.

To cotton farmers of the South Plains, his advice means much although he mentions fertilizer and cultivating well. Plant better seed and produce quality cotton which will command a premium—that's excellent advice and should be followed to the letter.

For a number of years, the South Plains area has been increasing in importance as a producing territory of cotton in quantity. It must now be known as a producer of quality cotton as well. Quality cotton demands a premium and premiums mean higher prices.

During the past season, a large amount of foreign buyers were in this section hunting quality cotton. They bought some and paid good prices. Next season, they'll be back so it's high time the cotton farmers were preparing to meet them.

SPRING IS HERE AGAIN

Tulia Herald.—Every year about this time we begin to feel that life is worth living after all. There is something about the return of Spring that fills the human spirit with new courage, that compels the human soul to a new realization of the wonders of this wonderful world we live in.

It is no wonder that humankind, from the earliest times, has celebrated the return of Spring as its greatest religious festival. The dead world has come to life. The sun has come back to us. That which was buried in the ground has arisen from the grave. The bare branches are clothing themselves with green. The birds have returned from their Winter retreats and are building their nests among us. The beasts of the field and the forests are bringing forth their young. A new life cycle is beginning, after a cycle of darkness and death.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

FROM ISSUE APRIL 11, 1918

Mrs. Jno. A. Hollums left this week for Marlin, Texas, at which place she will spend some weeks resting and taking the baths.

Floyd County will likely be called on for 8 or 10 more men for the National Army in the three-day period beginning April 26.

A rain covering much of the plains territory and extending to many parts of the state fell here Monday morning. It was very light at Floydada, amounting to only three-tenths of an inch.

Byron Clark, who is home for a short vacation from business college in Dallas, will return after a few days to that place.

R. E. Fry and family and G. A. Linder and family were Sunday visitors in Lockney.

Gathering Fodder For The Stew

Thou Sluggard

(Editorial by Jay A. Routh)

An article was published recently in one of our nation's leading magazines entitled, "Oh, How I Hate To Get Up Early In The Mornings." It dealt at length upon the attitude of the average American toward early rising. The alarm clock was branded by this writer as a reminder that the early morning nap was about to begin. This was meant as a humorous essay on this subject, but how truthful it really was!

It is strangely embarrassing how sluggish one can become. All this Winter there have been plans running through our mind about work which really needed to be done in our office. It was no more than a weeks consistent work, we suppose. We have contemplated this task with somewhat of mental agony. However, we have recently begun the job and it is surprising how easy it is, and with what pleasure the work is really carried on—now that the task is once begun.

In our acquaintance is an insurance and real-estate agent who in previous years has experienced a high degree of success. We have observed that for the last few years his business has constantly dwindled away, and that now he is hardly producing a profitable trade. We have also noticed that this man spends much of his time in recent years playing golf with sportsmen who have never been successful business men. Often we see him visiting on street corners, or exchanging jokes around the cigar and news stand. He is not consistent and earnest in his profession as he once was, and yet, just yesterday he remarked, "Seems like I'm not the business man I once was."

Perhaps he is not the worker he once was! Some inspirational writer has told us that there is in every person's life a crucial hour in the day, which must be rightly employed instead of being wasted if the day is to be saved. Many people find the early morning the test of the day's success.—We are told that Columbus planned his voyage to America in the early morning.—Napoleon was often discovered in his quarters planning the tactics of his campaigns before the others of his ranks arose.—Daniel Webster frequently answered his private correspondence at mornings before breakfast.

It may be some one hour of the day when your business begins to fall. Perhaps it is just one day of the week when you are caught off duty. But regardless of the time failure begins and continues to grow, it is usually because of the lack of diligence on our parts.

In order to be successful we must be diligent, considering the slothful and profiting by their mistakes.

Increased advertising appropriations will help to bring back prosperity. Many firms that have been consistent in advertising appropriations have continued to make money or hold their own during the past two years.

A dry goods store in an adjoining city had the courage to believe that women will buy good merchandise. This store has played the hunch that women will buy from a firm that will show late styles of merchandise. As a result this firm reports it had a 40 per cent increase in sales over February a year ago. Because of the lower price levels the firm feels that it has had a remarkable month. Generous advertising has told the people about the new merchandise, and business is very good, you will be told if you visit the store.

An interesting comment on the power of the newspaper to help merchandising was carried in an exchange recently: "Business will recover when the latent buying power of the nation asserts itself. People cannot be put back to work until there is demand for what they produce. The thing which creates this demand is desire. The thing which will create desire is advertising, and the advertising that has made our great enterprise so amazingly successful is that which is laid before them every week in the one medium everyone of them reads and understands—the American weekly newspaper."

The Round-up By The Cowhand Scribe

Dandelions have been blooming forth quite plentiful on Floydada lawns during the past two weeks now. You see the little white downy-like seeds scattering now if you'll look close.

Them things shore do mean things to your grass and will take the whole place if you'll just let them alone long enough.

I reckon the best way to get rid of them is to take a sharp knife, cut the plant off even with the ground and squirt a little creosote dip on them from a little oil can.

And over at the court house they'll have to use a barrel of dip. You never did see such a herd o' lions as they got over there. Regular headquarters seems like the way they have been blooming lately.

Hull & McBrien have one of the keenest vegetable racks you ever saw. They got it all rigged up with a water connection and three sprays keep the green stuff cool and fresh. The boys invented it themselves and its plenty nifty.

Open season has been declared on us folks by the politicians and the smiles are showing up on the horizon and handshakes are quite the vogue. If we could all run for office perhaps most everybody would be on speaking terms which they ain't now.

One feller puts it pretty well when in speaking of a political platform he said: "A political platform is just like the one on the back of a street car—not meant to stand on, just to get in on."

It's allus a good plan to plan to be cheerful about things. The story is told of two neighbors (but it sounds like a rumor) who were most polite.

"My hen scratched up your garden and I'm mighty sorry, neighbor," said Mr. A.

"Oh, that's perfectly all right," returned Mr. B. "My dog just caught and ate your hen."

"Well, well, that's perfectly all right, too," said Mr. A. again. "I just ran over your dog in my car."

Just off-hand it might appear to be a simple matter when it comes to winning silver loving cups for a county championship but you can tell the world that it's no easy job. Miss Ellen V. Pitts out at Almond might be a good authority to see on the matter. With Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams she coached debaters, tennis players, trackmen, and declaimers and what-not and won the Rural division cup. Mighty fine piece of work those teachers did and their pupils loyally did their share.

Birds, birds, birds—just plain old English sparrows. If you've started a garden you know what I mean. The pesky outfits delight in eating up every little green sprig that peeps out of the ground in the gardens. They're mean and brazen. The only thing that will stop them from eating up your garden will be for them to run out of something to eat.

I perpose a sparrer-killing campaign or something to give our prospective vittles a chance.

C. Surginer says he's got a solution for handling the old worm problem in his garden at home. He recommends that a person just catch the worms and pull their teeth out. There you are! Simple as can be.

Yessir and that brings us to the subject of prohibition. I never mention prohibition fer I have long ago learned that it is a good item to fergit but I can't pass up making a few "dry cracks." Heh, heh, so 'tis. "Drink is the greatest curse of the country. It makes you quarrel with your neighbors. It makes you shoot at your landlord. It makes you miss him."

I was trying to figure out what to do the other day and the foreman he sez sez he: "Go after business."

And I started out and then I suddenly remembered where business had gone.

Ancient history has come to light this week from no other source than my friend, J. B. Jenkins. He found an old leather purse of his that he had not used for years stored away among his things and inside a number of clippings from the Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record printed in Fort Worth April 9, 1907.

The most interesting of the group perhaps was the Fort Worth Wholesale Market quotations. Fresh eggs were $4.25 a case, poultry $4.50 per dozen. No. 3 wheat 75c per bushel, oats 51c per bushel, country butter 18 and 20 cents per pound, dry salt meat 10 1/2c per pound, navy beans 3 1/2c per pound, peaberry coffee 16c per hundred pounds, New York cotton 9.52 to 9.93, lard 10c, meal 35c sack 45c.

The interesting thing about the figures is the fact that they are not far from about the same levels as those of today. They're worth comparing anyway and just think while you're doing it how much commodity prices have come down along with everything else. Here's hoping we can get adjusted to this new scheme or prices before our stomachs stick to our backbones and we have to give up this eating habit.

Another clipping of more or less local interest was headed "Epoch in Amarillo," and I'm giving it in part as it was printed April 7, 1907.

"The driving of the first spike for the Amarillo street railway was made the occasion of a public ceremony Friday in which Mayor Will A. Miller, Secretary Shireman and others took part. All the construction on the first lines will be done by July 1 and the company expects to operate the first car over the lines July 4."

Quite a spell of folks can remember the street railways that used wuz in Amarillo. But they come and went just like my big checks that used to wuz, also.

Midnight was striking as the householder crept down the stairs. His eyes fell on a burglar tamper with the wardrobe where he hid his Sunday pants. "Hurray, a burglar! Stop right where you are!" he commanded the house-breaker. "Gonna call a cop, eh?" said the burglar. "Not me!"

"No, wait till I call my plead the householder, "She" you every night for 15 years it'll be a real pleasure to hear you at last."

This wind gets my goat. It gets my goat. An old s us up though with "Tis that blows no good. S the case we have got ab loads of good things co right away now."

Since ye're all in frame of mind now I r out until next week you....

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S TRAVELS

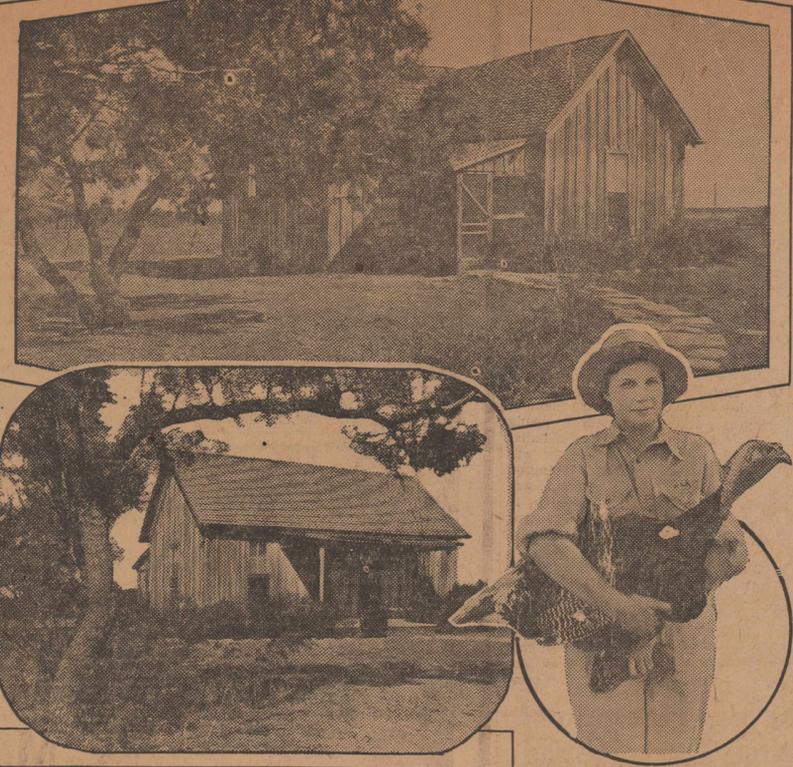

AFTER WASHINGTON HAD MADE PLANS FOR TRAPPING CORNWALLIS AT YORKTOWN, HIS EXECUTION WAS SWIFT. ONE PART OF THE BRITISH ARMY WAS KEPT IN NEW YORK WHILE THE OTHER WAS SKILLFULLY LURED TO YORKTOWN. ONCE THERE THE BRITISH WERE SURPRISED TO FIND THEMSELVES SURROUNDED, AND THE FRENCH FLEET UNDER DEGRASSE ANCHORED IN THE BAY. SEVERAL YEARS PREVIOUS THE ENGLISH HAD WASHINGTON'S ARMY IN PRACTICALLY THE SAME TRAP ON LONG ISLAND, BUT THE REVOLUTIONARY LEADER ESCAPED FROM HIS PREDICAMENT. FATE, PERHAPS ANGRY WITH THE BRITISH FOR NOT IMPROVING THEIR EARLY OPPORTUNITY, PROVIDED NO CHANCE FOR ESCAPE THIS TIME.

FOR FOUR DAYS AN HAMMERED AWAY A ON OCTOBER 17, 17 THE ROLLING OF OF A WHITE FLAG THE FEELINGS IN SOLDIERS ON T

Without funds but with a determination to make the old farm home look "more like pretty places in town," Jewel Smith, who is a 4-H club girl at Ingleside in Young county, invested in a hair cut and tackled an Olney banker for a loan of $10 with which to buy shrubs. She got it, and to provide for its re-payment started raising turkeys. That was years ago. The severe freezes of 1930 killed the shrubbery but the loan was paid off because Jewel made $93.47 from 42 turkeys. She re-invested in more shrubbery and after two seasons of drought during which she had to haul water to keep the plants alive she has developed a farm surrounding so attractive that her methods have been copied by neighbors. Unightly fences have been removed, flagstone walks laid, the yard leveled and cleared for a lawn, and foundation plantings of privet developed. To her turkey venture she had added a white Wyandotte flock. Her earnings have not only enabled her to improve the home but last year she helped put a brother through a year in Texas Technological College. At present she is a student in Olney High School where she is making her own way. Her home demonstration agent is Miss Norfleet Grimes.

Floydada Wins Medley Relay At Tech Races

Staging a brilliant victory over the highly favored San Angelo team, the Green and White clad trackmen Coach L. T. Barksdale of Floydada High School captured first place in the medley relay at the second annual Texas Tech Relays Saturday. The winners registered a time of four minutes and four and one-tenth seconds.

Members of the team running the medley were Lowell Gamblin, Malcolm Bridges, Herman Nelson, and Hershel Matthews. A total of 37 teams were entered from schools in Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. F. H. S. placing eighth in number of points, having scored six points in the five events which they entered of the ten listed. Snyder won first place with 25 points.

The San Angelo team won first place last year at the National Meet at Chicago in the medley relay. Gamblin, star distance man of Floydada High, "left cinders in the eyes" of "Smokey" Brothers, the San Angelo satellite. In the medley San Angelo was second and Plainview was third.

Gamblin was fourth in the 220-yard low hurdles. The 440-yard relay team included Bridges, Floyd Murray, Matthews, and Nelson. Bridges ran the 50-yard dash, and Matthews the 100-yard dash. Other members of the team included Gordon Lightfoot and Verne Eastridge. Accompanying Coach Barksdale and his team were Gene Collins and O. E. Murray.

RECRUITING OFFICER VISITS Sergeant M. J. Miner, who has an office at 817 1/2 Broadway, Lubbock, was in Floydada Tuesday on a recruiting trip, which he is making of all the towns in his district.

At the present time Sgt. Miner is not taking new men into the Army but expects to start again soon, he said. He added that he would send any desired literature in his possession if the request is sent to his office at Lubbock.

STRAWBERRIES, FROZEN 15 MONTHS, MAINTAIN QUALITY

Pacific coast strawberries, packed and frozen for more than a year in a laboratory experiment, have maintained excellent quality and from 90 to 99 per cent of the organism in them that cause spoilage have been killed, the United States Department of Agriculture reports. Effective killing of these organisms is one of the chief problems in the frozen-pack method.

Microbiological studies on frozen pack fruits and vegetables were started last year in the recently established frozen-pack laboratory of the Bureau of Plant Industry in Seattle, Wash. The work has been under the direction of James A. Berry, and preliminary results are now available.

Sound fruit, suitably packed and promptly frozen, was excellent in quality after being frozen for 12 months, the report shows. Inferior overripe fruit, however, had a poor appearance when thawed and was not in marketable condition.

In the strawberry studies, microbiological analyses were made of 100 samples of Pacific Northwest strawberries, chiefly of the Marshall variety. The samples were packed season in paper containers and in No. 2 tin cans, without and with vacuum, and in sirups of different strengths. Fifteen months after the fruit had been stored at 15 degrees F. the fruit was thawed and again analyzed microbiologically. This analysis showed that 90 to 99 per cent of the organisms had been killed.

Berries having 10,000 organisms per gram at the time of packing gave counts of 1,000 or less. The chief surviving organisms are species of Penicillium and spore-forming bacteria. In particular, the cold killed most of the yeasts, so that cans defrosted and kept in the laboratory two weeks failed to develop pressure. Other things being equal sealed cans showed a somewhat higher "kill" than paper containers, which are not airtight.

PLANT BREEDERS DEVELOP SORGHUM TO FIT COMBINE

Developing a plant to fit a harvesting machine because it was easier than building a harvesting machine to fit the plant is an accomplishment for plant breeders of the United States Department of Agriculture. The plant is the grain sorghum, milo, which has been transformed by cross breeding from a tall, unwieldy plant having pendant or "goosenecked" heads into a short plant with erect heads which lodge much less frequently. The transformation has made grain sorghum harvesting with combines more feasible and more widely practiced.

Milo usually is headed by hand and the heads thrown into a wagon. A man with a team will harvest about an acre and a half to two acres a day by hand. A 15-foot combine, requiring two men, will harvest and thresh 20 to 25 acres a day.

The effort to get a grain sorghum that was not so tall and rank growing has been going on for a decade or more. Much of the breeding work was done at Woodward, Okla., by J. B. Sieglinger, department agronomist.

Two new varieties have been distributed for planting. Crosses of blackhull Kafir and the Dwarf Yellow Milo gave Wheatland Milo and several similar types. One of these was crossed back to the Dwarf and produced the Beaver Milo. The Beaver Milo is increasing in favor in western Oklahoma, northwestern Texas, and southwestern Kansas. Experiments at Hays, Kans., resulted in the distribution of the Wheatland variety in Kansas.

Despite the development of the new varieties, combine harvesting of grain sorghum still has some difficulties, chiefly those caused by lodging and by moistening in the sorghum at the time of harvesting.

MEASURE SNOWFALL

The United States Weather Bureau measures everything pertaining to the weather, even snow in the high mountains. Irrigation systems in the West and the water supplies of many western small towns and cities depend largely on melting snows from the Rocky Mountain and coast ranges. Weather Bureau men find out how much water the snow contains by a snow sampler, a kind of tube which is pushed down into the snow. The more water there is in the snow, the longer the snow will last. If the snowfall is light and not packed down by wind or sun, it melts quickly. This means a shortage of water in the summer.

Arthur P. Duggan In Race For Texas Senate

Littlefield Man Has Long Record Of Service to West Texas—Wants Tax Cut

Arthur P. Duggan, former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and with a long record of service to this section of the state, is a candidate for state senator from the Thirtieth Senatorial District, of which Floyd County is a part.

- Platform in Brief
1. A square deal for West Texas.
2. Good roads built with gasoline tax.
3. Tax equalization and reduction. Taxes on basis of the price of cotton.
4. Stop seeking new ways to spend the taxpayers' money.
5. Better markets for all Texas products including cotton and livestock.
6. A safe, sane, sensible educational system that will make real citizens of our youth and teach them to live successfully.
7. An agricultural program by the State, consisting of few promises, but definite action that will actually put dollars into the pockets of the farmers.

Mr. Duggan was born on a cotton farm in Hays county; raised largely on a stock farm in San Saba county; moved to Jones county in 1900, and to Lamb county in 1912.

Mr. Duggan took charge of the subdivision and sale of the famous 300,000-acre property known as the Yellowhouse Ranch and owned by the late Major George W. Littlefield of Austin. While in charge of this project he sold thousands of acres of farm lands to real dirt farmers for homes and helped work out their problems.

Mr. Duggan owns, and directs the cropping of some Lamb county farmland, and is therefore personally acquainted with the problems of the farmers at this time.

"Actual personal experience, and a lot of it, makes me know very intimately the farmers' needs, condition, and viewpoint, and I am in thorough sympathy with them," he said.

It was Mr. Duggan's privilege to be graduated from Texas A. & M. and from the law department of the University of Texas. He takes considerable pride in the fact that he earned his own living while attending school and paid all his own school expenses.

In 1918 he enlisted in the Texas National Guard; went to the U. S. officers training school at Camp Stanley and came out with a captain's commission. He became a charter member of the American Legion, and is still a member in good standing.

Texas should be, must be, reduced and equalized. During twenty-five years our national population has increased some 55 per cent while our tax burdens have increased about 700 per cent. Any sane man knows that must stop now," he said. This cannot be accomplished by seeking for something new to tax, but by stopping the spending of so much money, and the making of unnecessary appropriations. There is a total of 1,023,375 persons on the pay roll of our national government with an annual salary account of $1,500,000,000. Our State and City governments are about in the same proportion. Too many departments, boards, bureaus, commissions, etc., etc.

"As a State Senator I would not expect to make many speeches, nor to introduce a lot of bills. We have entirely too many laws already. Fewer and better laws is a mighty good slogan to which I subscribe most heartily."

HELEN RAMMING SUFFERS BROKEN NOSE LAST WEEK

Mrs. Fred Zimmerman returned home Sunday from Dallas where she was called last week when her daughter, Miss Helen Ramming, a student at Hockaday School for Girls, suffered a broken nose while engaged in a game of soccer. The accident occurred when Helen collided with one of the players.

Her condition has improved this week and she expected to return to school yesterday, she wrote her mother.

Mrs. Zimmerman was accompanied by Mrs. Jack Henry.

HIGH SEVENTH ORGANIZES

The 7A1 and 7A2 classes of the high seventh grade met April 7 to organize their class. Mr. Davis and Mrs. Green took charge till the following officers were elected: Malcolm Linder, president; Minnie Anon Stanley, vice-president; Tommie Rawdon, secretary and treasurer.

The president took charge of the meeting when class colors, flower and motto was selected. Orchid and green were chosen for the color and the sweet pea for the flower. A committee composed of Willie Ritter, Louise Condra and George Quirk were appointed to select a motto. Each pupil was asked to bring a note from home suggesting clothes to be worn for graduation night.

Rev. Claude Wingo made a talk to the class. The next meeting will be held April 12 to discuss further business.

Mrs. A. B. Keim and daughter, Frances, left Wednesday morning for Waco where they will visit for several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Laughlin. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. D. Zimmerman of Thulia who are making a business trip to Austin. Mrs. Zimmerman is a sister of Mr. Keim.

Aspires To Senate

Arthur P. Duggan, of Littlefield, above, is a candidate for senatorial honors from the Thirtieth District, he told Floyd County citizens on the occasion of a visit to Floydada Wednesday. Mr. Duggan came west in 1912 and opened up the famous Yellow House Ranch to colonization.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson accompanied by Mrs. Lorraine Nelson and Weldon and Francis Standifer, of Lubbock, spent Wednesday in Plainview at the Dairy Show. Weldon and Francis, grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, have been spending the week here. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Standifer.

Leo Cothorn left Tuesday to return to Wellington after spending a few days here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cothorn.

FREEZE TREE LIMBS IN STUDY OF DISEASE

Freezing apple trees is one of the most recent developments of the United States Department of Agriculture in its study of plant behavior.

Apple-disease specialists of the department studying the connection between low temperatures and perennial canker in the Hood River Valley in Oregon have frozen limbs of trees to very low temperatures, using a device made especially for that purpose.

The freezing apparatus consisted of an insulated box which was fitted around a limb. Freezing was brought about by using snow and salt in a mixture in the box and also by using solid carbon dioxide. Temperatures as low as 40 degrees below zero were reached. The freezings were made at the beginning, middle, and end of the winter.

These studies provide a unique method of studying the effect of cold on fruit trees. It is very significant that low temperatures in November or March are killing than in January. Significant discovery in experiment was that fresh fruit are very susceptible to canker follows cold injury important, therefore, in canker control that pruned until the danger of peratures is past.

Stock everything we can produce or manufactured in Texas, and sell it. That is the message to Texas retail grocers from president of their association, He Law of Fort Worth, written on return from a thirty-day trip to the West Coast. The letter, published in the Retail Grocers Journal, official organ of the association, carries the heading supplied by its editor, Roger Q. Flournoy, "President of Association Has Message for Retailers."

SELL TEXAS PRODUCTS RETAIL GROCERS' CLUB URGES UPON MEMBERS

"I only wish that every Texas grocer could have been with me and made the same observations that I did," Mr. Law goes on to say. "Texas business would have been better already. I saw many wonderful things, but I learned my greatest lesson from the progressive State of California. Their large, open markets are wonderful, and they have me, they know what the word means. Their stocks are composed of merchandise that California produces or manufactures. Ask them for an item, and I was sure to get one produced in California. As them about the quality and the would say it was the best money could buy. They believe everything they have is the best and are by selling that belief to the rest of the world.

ek in ent It als- 105- 105- of e a 1932 he h the have been settled by the government of the United States of an agreement or contract made with 1931 borrowers." Mr. Brown in a pointed statement, referred to this as "nothing less than a repudiation on the part of the government of the United States of an agreement or contract made with 1931 borrowers." Up-todate about forty loans have been approved in this county and about fifteen checks received. "Had the restrictions not been so discriminatory and the government carried out its promise to the farmers, and if the Big Committee in Washington had carried out the wishes of Congress, we would have been able to assist 300 or more farmers in the county," Mr. Brown said. "There are two or three hundred farmers in Floyd County today who badly need a few dollars to make the 1932 crop and are not going to be able to borrow the money just because of the requirements exacted of them by the ones who have this R. F. C. in charge." Severe arraignment of Mr. Warburton, Washington head of the farm loan committee, for his attitude in the matter of loans to farmers and especially of the land-waiver demand, has been made by Mr. Brown in public statements and in letters and telegrams to Washington. Efforts to get pressure from Congress today have been unavailing, he said. He and others who have been criticizing the actions of the R. F. C., charge specifically that reconstruction funds are going in large amounts and on easy terms to big corporations and big interests while every possible restriction is being laid around the small proportion of the total fund to the farmer. The farming interests of the country, Mr. Brown says, are permitted to share at the most in only one dollar out of every twenty-eight dollars. Senators Capper, Borah, Capper and Wheeler and Congressman Jones, Blanton and others have been appealing to the R. F. C. to get action in the matter to no avail today. Meeting Due Soon County committee is holding its meeting in its power to recommend aid to where required by those of our farmers who are badly in need of money. Mr. Brown says, and adds, "chance that someone before it is too late to do anything." A meeting will be held soon and representatives of sixty-two counties will be held soon and there is something about one way or the other that the local loan committee is planning to do. This week SPELLING CONTEST was issued this week by the John J. N. Johnston George Washington Bicentennial celebration spelling contest held April 23 at Floydada High School. Those planning to enter should notify County Superintendent Price Scott. Rules are as follows: "Only one contestant from each county will be admitted. Each county may enter one pupil only to enter one pupil only." A school pupil shall write an essay on the Declaration of Independence. The Declaration of Independence may contain quotations from the first part and from the last part of the Declaration, and the body of the composition shall contain the historical proof of at least four charges against George III. "Each grammar school pupil may use the first and last parts of the Texas Declaration of Independence, and prove by history at least four charges against the government of Mexico. "The pronouncer will select 50 words from the Texas Declaration of Independence. "A medal will be given to each group of county contestant winners. The successful contestant must write an essay containing not more than 700 and not less than 500 words, and spell all the words given in the contest. "Each school in the county should send two contestants." G. for Three Main Sources; school funds of Floyd face a heavy deficit from sources for the coming year. The crisis it was declared by county Superintendent Price Scott at a meeting of trustees and school directors from all the common consolidated districts in the county court room Friday afternoon. Members of the Commissioners' Court were also in attendance.
After Declared Serious

State To Set Scale

Reduction of the school terms to six and seven months is the only way that the trustees can take to meet the situation, it was maintained by the speaker.

Recommendations that contracts with teachers be made provisional and subject to the state scale to be set by the State Board of Education April 21 were outlined by Mr. Scott. "I consider the school situation in Floyd County is a much more serious matter for next year than it is now," Mr. Scott said in opening a two-hour talk that was informative, timely, clear and well delivered.

"I am not a grumbler and I am not a pessimist. I have not lost faith and we are all going right ahead but the facts are facts. We are facing a heavy loss for our schools from three sources."

He then listed the 15 per cent reduction in valuations made by the Commissioners' Court this year, loss in scholastics, and reduction of state aid from a lowered classification of the schools as the three revenue sources which will affect the system in a vital manner and create problems for the next year.

Local Solution Necessary

"The individual boards of trustees will have to work out their own problems as best they can. We think it would be unwise to reduce teachers' salaries below the scale set by the state board. Incidental expenses can only be reduced slightly and the only thing to do will be to make the terms shorter," Mr. Scott maintained.

He pointed out that he was not criticizing the Commissioners' Court for their reduction of valuations and complimented the Court on their faithful efforts "to protect the institution of the schools it has been years to build up."

With the 15 per cent cut in tax revenue and a possible additional 5 per cent loss on lower personal returns the anticipated income from the schools will be 20 per cent one-fifth less for next year. The majority of the districts have a 15 cent tax rate and some schools may lower this figure but Superintendent Scott called attention to the fact that lower than a 75-cent rate bars the district from state aid. In case a few of the districts lower the rate this will take an additional slice from the revenue.

Loss of 347 scholastics from last year to this is shown from the enumeration practically complete. The Lockney district shows 62 less, Floydada 120, and the rural schools 165 less.

Loss 600 Scholastics

Considering it in round figures a loss of 350, the schools show a total loss of 600 pupils in the past two years, representing about $11,100 in state available funds.

Schools are classified by the state on the basis of scholastics and when the total number of pupils in a school falls below a certain minimum the number of teachers employed is reduced and thus lowering automatically the salary scale.

Mr. Scott illustrated the point on classification by use of a small blackboard on which he had compiled figures on the different schools for examples. He showed that no school with less than 20 or more than 300 scholastics is entitled to state aid.

A one-teacher school is one having 20 to 35 pupils and the salary is set at $85.

Schools may employ more teachers or pay a higher salary but the additional money must come from local funds.

A two-teacher school has 36 to 65 pupils with the principal's salary at $105 and the other teachers at $85.

A three-teacher school has 66 to 95 pupils and the salary rate $120 for the principal, and $85 each for the other two.

The four-teacher school has 96 to 125 pupils, $130 for principal, $85 for two grades, $90 for primary.

The five-teacher school has 126 to 155 pupils and a salary schedule of $140 for principal, $100 for primary and $90 each for the three other teachers per month.

Explains Classification

With the classification chart before him, Mr. Scott showed how the various schools of the county in rate on and they would only cover the incidentals and leave nothing for the teachers' salaries, provided that all the taxes were paid," Mr. Scott said in pointing out the danger of any further reductions in valuations.

All the schools in the county have bonded indebtedness with the exception of Hillcrest and Ramsey, which have been retired, he said.

Commissioner T. Z. Reed asked if the schools could continue to operate if more than a 15 per cent cut should be made in valuations and Mr. Scott answered that it was easy to see how difficult things are going to be on a 15 per cent cut and showed by figures that a further cut would only increase the difficulties. Several others raised questions on "serious problems which Mr. Scott answered.

"I do not want to be misunderstood in this matter and I think the Court has done a fine job and I think we should commend the commissioners for their conservative stand in protecting the schools. We do not want any controversy to arise but we must all work together for the interest of our schools," Superintendent Scott continued.

Mr. Scott then outlined a new system being planned for payment of vouchers that will shift the responsibility from the bank to the County Superintendent's office in keeping the records and payments.

"Our old system would have worked fine if this depression had not hit us but we must work out a plan to register the warrants and a file number for the vouchers so that they may be paid according to number and relieve confusion and avoid further misunderstandings that this year have arisen and thrown our school system into further disrepute.

E. C. Nelson, president of the county school board and president of the First National Bank, and Audice Norman, bookkeeper of the bank, were present at the meeting and endorsed Mr. Scott's plan which they and other officials had assisted in working out.

Members of the Commissioners' Court present included T. Z. Reed, M. H. Taylor, and W. H. Henderson. About 65 trustees were present. Two women were in the group, Mrs. Chas. Merrick, Lone Star trustee, and Mrs. Chas. Fulkerson, of Sand Hill.

The trustees voted just before adjournment that an interest rate of 8 per cent instead of 10 per cent be allowed on school warrants. The interest is to begin at the date of the voucher and no interest is to be charged if paid within 30 days, the interest to start at the end of 30 days.

Following the general meeting of trustees, a session was held by the County School Board to discuss matters of import in connection with the coming school year.

Members present were: E. C. Nelson, chairman; G. L. Snodgrass, Precinct 1; J. F. Dollar, Precinct 2; J. H. Upton, Precinct 3; and Olin S. Miller, Precinct 4.

Seth Parker and Friends Coming to Palace Screen

'Way Back Home' Brings Lovable
Character to Screen In Palace Feature.

Seth Parker and his Jonesport neighbors, NBC radio entertainers, who have been heard in their Sunday evening "gatherings" by millions, have been put on the screen in a drama, "Way Back Home," that is declared by critics to be a sure success. It is coming to the Palace Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Seth Parker, who in real life is Phillips Lord, has a glorious role in the simple, human philosopher and the settings are declared to be excellent. His wife also has an important part in the picture.

The show is not only just a Sunday evening "gathering." Seth and his neighbors are put in a picture that permit them to do some really good dramatic parts, five of his own radio family being in the cast of film players. Seth is permitted to do all his stuff and brings about some thrilling and heart touching episodes.

There are all the familiar "folks" from the radio and to the cast have been added the villains, the hero and heroine, and everything to make it an absorbing story.

One critic who saw the picture, declares that Lord, although only twenty-eight years of age and only two years from obscurity, does his interpretations in a truly masterful fashion.

How Some Farmers Are Solving The Depression

By O. T. Williams

I was out the other afternoon doing some terracing for J. H. Poore of Lakeview community. After we were through, I asked him how this depression was effecting him. He replied that the depression had caused him to give some real thought to his farm business.

He has his living in his storm house and smoke house. He sells enough cream and eggs to pay his expenses. If he makes anything on his crops above expenses, he will not have to pay it out for growing the crop.

He showed me eighteen shoats, which he is feeding for the market next month. I saw what the hogs weighed fifteen days ago and we weighed them again. They had averaged 30 pounds, or two pounds a day. This was not new to me, for I have seen hogs gain that much daily, but when he told me what it was costing him to put on 100 pounds of pork, I was like the little boy, who saw the giraffe at the circus and said, "There ain't no such animal."

He then produced the records showing what he was feeding daily. I calculated his cost. Mr. Poore is putting on 100 pounds of pork at a cost of $1 for the feed.

He is feeding milo head chops in a self-feeder and giving them plenty of skim milk. I did not count the cost of the milk, as it would be wasted if not fed to some livestock.

Mr. Poore will make a profit of 2 1/2 cents per pound on those eighteen hogs or $90 for his labor.

It is not so important what we get per pound for our pork as it is what did it cost me to produce it. Where one man makes by playing the market 100 lose.

Cut the production cost and the market will take care of itself.

STANSELL & COLLINS TO OFFER JOHN DEERE PLAN ON HIGHER FARM PRICES

Stansell & Collins, local John Deere dealer, advises that they have received authorization from John Deere Plow Company to put into effect immediately an offer that guarantees a higher scale of prices on varying quantities of corn, wheat, and cotton, in the purchase of John Deere tractors, combines, windrowers and threshers.

Many farmers, according to Stansell & Collins, are in need of new machines in order to produce their crops economically. They are hesitating about buying new equipment because of the fear that prevailing low prices of farm products will continue.

To meet this situation, John Deere, through its local dealers, offers guaranteed prices. If the price of corn, wheat or cotton does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes given and maturing this fall, farmers buying machines included in the offer, will receive a credit to make up the difference.

Stansell & Collins are in position to explain in detail the workings of this offer and invites farmers interested to see them at their ear-

OIL Gone...

He Drove from Banner to Sheridan

on the GERM PROCESSED "Hidden Quart"

The driver for the Sheridan Motor Bus Company was ready to leave Banner, Wyoming, for Sheridan with his big Reo bus loaded with passengers.

Then he made a discovery. The oil line had been accidentally broken, allowing the Conoco Germ Processed Oil to drain out; and the crankcase was empty. With all Banner closed for Thanksgiving, he could not get oil and had to drive the 16 miles to Sheridan without oil. At Sheridan, inspection showed that the "Hidden Quart" of Conoco Germ Processed Oil had saved the motor from damage!

If Conoco Germ Processed Oil can protect a heavy bus with the crankcase empty, it will certainly give you sure, safe lubrication in everyday driving. It is the only oil that actually penetrates and combines with metal surfaces. That's why a "Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. It cuts down wear in the starting period, when other oils drain away and leave parts unprotected. It gives your motor longer life, with fewer repair bills.

Have this extra protection. Change to Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil at the sign of the Conoco Red Triangle.

We neither encourage "dry crankcase" experiments nor guarantee success under all conditions. But unsolicited letters from motorists, now in our files, tell of this and hundreds of other runs with empty crankcases but without damage.

WATCH RETURNED TO OWNER

J. W. Jones is carrying his watch once more.

He lost it one night early in February along with some $200 when "visitors" at his tourist camp in northwest Floydada took both watch and money while Mr. Jones was reaching for the ceiling. Taking the watch seemed to be a sort of afterthought with one of the hijackers, Mr. Jones said. He snatched it out of his victim's watch pocket and broke the chain as he did so.

Last Thursday Deputy Sheriff T. T. Hamilton, acting for officers at Lovington, New Mexico, delivered the watch back to Mr. Jones, taking his receipt for the same. It bore case and works numbers and a private number given it by Wilson Kimble, jeweler, and there is no doubt of its identification.

The watch was taken off of the dead body of a man, identified as John Odell, who was killed on February 24 near Lovington in a gun-fight with a deputy. After being shot down the deputy killed Odell and one other. The deputy lived nearly twenty-four hours and gave the details of the fight to fellow officers, while his assailants were killed instantly.

FLOYDADA TENNIS TEAM COMPETES AT AMARILLO

Marion Heald and Truitt Smalley, comprising the doubles tennis team of Floydada High School and champions of Floyd County in the Inter-scholastic League Meet, went to Amarillo Saturday to participate in the invitation tournament.

Only the first round was played, the Floydada team registering a victory of two straight sets over Littlefield. Rain and wind made postponement of the other matches necessary. A few teams remained over Sunday for games, but the Floydada boys returned home.

The boys accompanied by Coach L. T. Barksdale, who made a trip to Canyon and he took them on to Amarillo. They returned with Mrs. Joe Breed and students who participated in the Latin tournament at Amarillo last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Jacobsen and his little daughter, Mary Ann, arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Jacobsen's mother, Mrs. Fannie Montague, and other relatives. Mr. Jacobsen will return in about two weeks and Mrs. Jacobsen will remain here until about mid-summer before returning to her home in Long Beach, California. She was formerly Miss Wanda Montague, of this city.

McPeak Funeral Held Friday; Burial Here

Funeral services for H. C. McPeak, 29, former Floyd County boy, killed in an automobile accident near Raymondville, Texas, Monday night of last week, were held Friday morning at the Church of Christ in Plainview, his late place of residence, and interment was made in Floydada Cemetery shortly after noon of the same day. The funeral had been planned for Thursday afternoon but the body missed train connection.

The funeral and burial rites were attended by a number of friends and relatives from Floydada, including S. N. McPeak, E. E. Brown, and Geo. W. McPeak and family.

Deceased was riding on the side of a car a short distance out of Raymondville when a truck brushed him off and caused injuries from which he died in a short time, according to press dispatches last week.

Surviving relatives include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McPeak, his wife and 16-month old daughter, all of whom reside in Plainview, and three sisters and four brothers. The brothers are Clinton of Battle Creek, Michigan; Clifford and Joe Bailey, who live at Plainview; and Chester, who resides in the Rio Grande Valley; the sisters are Mrs. Ona Holcomb, of Plainview, Mrs. George Dodd, of Colorado, and Miss Noma of Plainview. All were present for the funeral except the brother in the Rio Grande Valley and the sister in Colorado.

Hesperian Cross-Word Puzzle Number 39

Now the Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in these shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land.

7 And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the Lord, and called upon the name of the Lord.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

Time.—Abram lived about 2000 B. C.

Place.—Ur of Chaldees, on west bank of the Euphrates, 140 miles from the site of old Babylon. Haran was a city of Mesopotamia, on a branch of the Euphrates, and on the road from Nineveh to Syria, 350 miles northeast of Shechem in Palestine.

Introduction

The city of Ur, situated some 150 miles northeast of Babylon on the Euphrates river, was a large wealthy and important commercial center. It was discovered and identified in 1853. Recent excavations in its ruins revealed some interesting facts about the ancient city, among them being the temple of the moon god, and many articles which suggested a remarkable civilization in the day of that city which is thought to date back at least 3000 B. C. The customs of that day, especially those of worship, show that Abram was called to go out from an idolatrous people.

The Lesson Applied

About 2,000 years after our last lesson—years in which the earth had been continued to bring forth its food and beauty—years in which man had multiplied and increased, and years in which sin also had multiplied and increased, Abram, father of the Israelitish nation, was born. His birthplace was Ur of the Chaldees, in the richest country of Asia, with a high civilization, with written language and many books of clay.

Idolatry flourished, and here and there was a temple to the moon-god Sin, under the corner of which was discovered, in the year A. D. 1854, cylinders on which were recorded the history of the temple. But God did not mean for Abraham to spend his life in such surroundings. His faith and strength of character in the midst of idolatry had given him a special place in the heart of God, who determined to make of him a great nation, and he did.

It was after Abraham was married to Sarah that his father, Terah, took his family from Ur to Haran to live. Some five years later Terah died and Abraham became the head of the family—the tribal leader. Then God spoke to him and told him to leave that country and his relatives and go into a country of which he would tell him.

This was no small thing to ask of Abraham, who was seventy-five years of age and had never lived anywhere but in that country. But leaving one's home-town or state is often the best thing possible. Get out from old influences and surroundings; old idolatries, and go into a place of which God tells one or leads one. He has many ways of leading us out, sometimes it may appear as a calamity, but in the end proves a blessing. Dr. F. B. Meyer says, "Nothing strengthens us so much as isolation and transplantation. As long as a bird lingers by the nest it will not know the luxury of flight."

When Abraham found the Canaanite in the land, he probably wondered, and may have felt a sting of discouragement. But God appeared to him again and strengthened him with renewed promise, and Abraham made an altar and worship-

God promised Abraham that he would make of him a great nation; that his name should be great; that through him should all the nations of the earth be blessed; he told Abraham to be a blessing which was doubtless both a command and a promise, and he gave to Abraham and to his seed after him a clear deed to the land of Canaan. Think these promises over.

Thirty-seven of our folks attended at the association B. T. S. meeting at Starkey last Sunday afternoon, and quite a number attended the Worker's meeting at Silverton last week. In fact we won the attendance banner at this meeting.

A very lively social was held at the church Monday night by the members of the down town Bible class. Mrs. Lon V. Smith's class and their wives.

The pastor expects to be in the pulpit at both hours next Sunday. Strangers and visitors always welcome at our services.

Cannon-Ball Pudding of Old Gives Way to Dainty Creation

Use of gelatin in fruit pudding makes a light and dainty dessert which aids digestion, while still preserving the old tradition.

Gone are the days when the dinner of turkey and dressing with rich giblet gravy, mashed potatoes, candied sweets, pot to mention other vegetables, salad, cranberry sauce, oysters, olives, celery and nutmeats, was followed with a massive, heavy fruit pudding. For now the modern hostess is also the family dietitian.

But since there are festive occasions which would not be complete without the ceremonial pudding, it still makes its entrance, but in a different guise-light, shimmering and dainty with its fruits and shredded almonds embedded in colorful sparkling gelatin. Served with an ice cream sauce, flavored with grated orange rind, it is a worthy descendant of the cannon-ball pudding of old, wreathed with holly and sprituous fumes.

And lest any think the beauty of gelatin is merely skin deep-it is well to recall that it is rich in protein, not only easily digested itself but an efficient aid in the digestion of other foods.

FLOYDADA PARENTS WAKE UP

Every where we hear the cry "out the taxes," you read announcements reading "Mass Meeting Called of Taxpayers." They say close the schools if necessary for two years. We must save "our homes," "our land," "our cattle," but how many times have you heard of a mass meeting being called to "save our boys and girls?" I ask which is the more important, our land and cattle or our boys and girls?

You hear everywhere, people saying our young people are going to the bow wows. Who is to blame? What are we doing to help them? We turn them loose to go as they please. Sometimes we think we know where they are, when they leave to go some place. We parents go to bed for a good night's rest. Maybe some of us kneel by our beds and ask God to protect "Willie and Jane" from all harm and bad company. Do you think God is going to do so when we sit very complacently at home and don't try to make conditions better for them? How many of us are trying to plan the right kind of entertainment for our children and our neighbors' children? We turn them loose with an automobile to hunt their own entertainment. How many of us throw open our homes to them? Christ meant for us to have the right kind of social life and young people love the right kind of entertainment. If you don't believe they do, try it and see for yourself. Oh! We have some who will give a "bridge party" for young people and then wonder where they learn to gamble, etc. I can tell you it all starts in such homes.

PHONE 40

It is with us like it was with the Israelites when they forgot God. Hard times came, when they got right things changed and will with us.

Why not establish a community center, all working together for the good of all young people. Parents, it can be done if we'll first wake up and realize how much our co-operation with our young people is needed. Get busy, fight the devil to the last. Don't wait until your heart is torn and bleeding over your child or children. A high school student of Floydada in answer to the question, "Do the boys gamble?" said "No, they just match nickels for cold drinks and such as that." What do you call that?
A Parent.

SPRING FEVER

Spring is a time of perfect days. The warm sunshine, the birds, the flowers and every living creature or plant helps to make each day perfect.

The laws of nature get in time and then the beautiful work is begun. The sweet fragrance of flowers and odors from vegetation prevails everywhere.

All these things are kindly afforded by mother nature; however they tend to make one drowsy, resulting in spring fever for pupils.

This disease is contagious and will do much damage to a person if not remedied soon enough. If you are not careful, this fever will ruin your course of study.

Come on students of F. H. S., let's carry our work on through the entire term without slacking. Don't get drowsy and sleepy these beautiful spring days and be inattentive in your classes.

Of course it's hard to resist the temptation, but if your will power is strong, enough, you can go to your classes with the intention of learning something instead of sleeping and dreaming.

You have heard the statement "sleeping on the job." You know that you would hate to be guilty of doing such a thing. Whether you know it or not, you are doing this very thing when you slack up on your school studies.

Be thoughtful, be determined; be wise and don't let the spring fever bother your work or studies.

Entries to Lubbock

Among the entrants from Floydada High School in the District Meet at Lubbock Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16, are Margaret Sims and Selma Lider in typing, with Jean Bain, substitute.

In the evening a banquet, sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce was held at the Herring Hotel. The Roman idea was carried out in the program, after which the awards were given.

Big Spring won the first and second year cups; Amarillo, the third year cup; and Lubbock the fourth year.

The schools represented were: Floydada, Big Spring, Lubbock, Slotted, Memphis, Pampa, Borger, White Deer, Canyon, and Amarillo.

"We have not received a report of the grades yet, but we feel sure that our contestants ran a close race with the winners. After having looked over some of papers from Amarillo and Lubbock we feel that our work is on a par with theirs," said Mrs. Breed.

Jokes

The lights in the subway train had suddenly gone out. "Can I help you find a strap?" Waldo asked of the sweet young thing standing next to him.

"Thank you," said she, "but I have just found one." "Good—that's great. Then perhaps you wouldn't mind letting go of my necktie?"

Some one remarked that in the old days each meal was opened with a prayer, but to day mother dashes from the club just in time to do it with a can-opener.

Deacon: (to small ruffan in Sunday School) But I saw you taking pennies from the collection plate, how can you prove you didn't.

Teacher "Johnny, what is the difference between sight and vision?" Johnny—"When my sister Ethel goes out in the evening she's a vision but when she gets down to breakfast next morning she's a sight."

You cannot get eggs without hens, said the speaker stressing the point. My dad can, piped a small voice from the rear.

Please explain yourself, little boy, said the speaker. He keeps ducks, yelled the boy's voice from the rear.

Sign of the Sock

For some months past we have been noticing a fad of wearing the stockings wrong side out. The writer had wondered quite a bit about the advantages of this but received some information this week from the Ohio State Journal as follows: "For an ensignia to be worn by those who are co-operating in the anti-hoarding campaign, we suggest a sock turned inside out."

Miss "Spring" is having quite a time with her decorations this year as no sooner than a bright new sprig or leaf of green appears than "old man winter" lays his icy fingers on it and mars the perfection of it.

The trees are getting all dressed up in only half leaves but we are hoping that spring will soon win out and continue her decorations.

The question was asked "where do the trees go when they leaf out?" Who knows?

LT. DAN JENKINS SAYS WINDSTORM SUNDAY WAS 'WORST IN EXPERIENCE'

Lt. Dan Jenkins, who spent an hour here Sunday morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, before returning to his Army aviation post at Fort Crockett at Galveston reported that the windstorm Sunday morning was the worst he had ever encountered.

Cross currents of air formed small whirlwinds or "eddies" and they made flying dangerous, Lt. Jenkins told his father. At an altitude of about 4500 feet the wind was blowing from the west, while the ground current was from the north and west.

Lt. Jenkins had been on a trip to Abilene and came up to tell his folks, "hello." With the strong tail wind he made fast time going to Galveston, arriving there, according to a telegram, at 3:30 o'clock after spending over an hour on a stop-over at Dallas. He left here about 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

A Farmer's Life

"As He Lives It"

BY ED HOLMES

(Station C. E. H. Farm)

Did I enjoy those plays last week or not? Yes. Sand Hill had three plays last week and one community party. We didn't miss any of them.

The leading lady of both the Muncy play and Dougherty's play were certainly good looking and had personality plus. I mean just this. Miss Ferguson of Muncy and Miss Irene Kreis of Dougherty sure made a hit with the Sand Hill folks.

Any person in this county that is not sold on the idea of presenting community plays and exchanging them with the other communities should have been at Sand Hill three nights last week. This year Sand Hill has exchanged plays with seven other communities. We have seen about seventy persons of other communities acting on our stage. I believe this is a record for any community in Texas! If the other communities enjoyed our plays as well as we did theirs, this record will not hold next year.

When our communities get acquainted with each other by playing together and sending our best talent to entertain each other, we will learn more about what the word co-operation means, then we will begin to work together, then watch our smoke!

I am just a little bit worried. If any of my calves happen to have pyorrhea, I am afraid the whole bunch will lose their teeth before they are twenty years old! I have four sucking the same cow and it is a shame the way they knock those teeth out of each other's mouth. They slobber and smack each other going and coming! They seem to be growing fine and I don't believe they are bothered with "pink tooth brush." What would you do about it?

Mostly for exercise and to keep the cows from suffering, I milk about 25,000 streams per day. Yes I mean twenty-five thousand streams of milk each day! For this trouble I would make about $30.00 per month from the cream, if some one would furnish the cows and the feed and the separator! If you are not in the dairy business, now is a good time to get started. You sure can buy the cows cheap and believe me you can get plenty milk for your trouble if you will haul the feed from Mexico.

We wouldn't know what a "Today" was if we didn't have plenty of milk. Every evening about 4 o'clock we mix about two table spoons of cocoa, two of sugar, one raw egg and a little cinnamon or nutmeg in to a quart of cold, whole sweet milk and beat the sap out of it, then drink it. Boy what I mean it has got a kick to it! No danger of the Gov'n't bothering you for mixing this kind of a drink unless you drink so much you fail to pay your taxes.

Lately my telephone has been giving me trouble. The connections seemed to be bad and when I would try to talk it would chatter, chop it up, off and on, etc. I worked the box over, looked the line over for loose connections and still it was no good. Then I happened to remember that it hadn't rained since I could remember so I poured a bucket of water around my ground wire post. The telephone works fine. Since that time I have been trying to get my money's worth ringing central.

The other day one of my sows was about to starve for a drink. I set a bucket of milk on the tank and forgot it. She found the milk on top of the concrete wall and instead of setting it on the ground and drinking the milk out of the bucket, she turned it over into the tank, then reared up on the tank and began to drink the thin solution. When I found her she was very busy drinking and the tank was down to about half full. The tank when full holds exactly eleven hundred gallons! Do you have a sow large enough to drink 550 gallons? This is the exact truth if I ever told it! I don't dare to set a bucket of milk on the tank any more.

New TEXACO FIRE-CHIEF GASOLINE

Developed for Fire Engines
Yours at no extra price

The U. S. Government specifies for its emergency use
"... a grade of motor fuel which is suitable for ambulances, fire-engines, emergency vehicles,—" (Excerpt from Federal pamphlet VV-M-571, July 21, 1931)

The Texas Company produced it for your every-day use

— a vastly superior motor fuel with every quality which makes for finer carburetion and instant power. Authorities said that the gasoline specified by the Government could not be produced for general consumption at any reasonable price until—

An advanced process, developed and perfected by The Texas Company, made possible the production of this "ideal" gasoline on a commercial scale and made it practical to offer it to you at no extra price.

That gasoline is the new Texaco Fire-Chief. It surpasses the highest U. S. Government specifications for "emergency" fuel. It is an anti-knock gasoline with an Octane Rating that is outstanding—it's alive with snap, dash, action—brimming over with eager power.

Confirm this good news for yourself—today! One tankful of this sensational new gasoline will demonstrate power that is power. At all Texaco stations in this vicinity.

Immediate Bonus Payment Is Fair, Just Obligation, Legion Speakers Maintain

State Commander Earp Addresses Joint Meet

Seven Posts Represented at Lockney Tuesday Night; H. M. Mason Presides.

Declaring that legionnaires consider the full payment of adjusted service certificates a just obligation and defending the American Legion against undue criticism, Earl Earp, state commander of the American Legion, discussed the principles and aims of the organization before a joint meeting of 200 members representing the posts at Floydada, Lockney, Silverton-Quitaque, Petersburg, Plainview and Turkey and Tulla Tuesday night at the municipal auditorium in Lockney.

Passage of the bill for payment of the bonus will not increase taxes, it was brought out by the speakers.

Favor Payment Now
Commander Earp presented figures to support his claims that the veterans were entitled to be paid now for the full amount of their bonus.

He attacked government policies of showing favoritism to "Big Business" and in no uncertain terms he upheld the national program of Americanism being conducted by the Legion.

"We believe in serving in time of peace just as in war and we believe we are being unjustly criticized because our program is misunderstood," he declared.

H. M. Mason, commander of Landrum Post, No. 141, at Lockney presided at the meeting, introducing the other post commanders who were seated on the stage. L. G. Mathews, of Floydada, a long-time friend and acquaintance of Commander Earp, introduced the main speaker of the evening.

Post Commanders Attend
Post commanders attending included Ben O. King, Graves Post, No. 402, of Silverton-Quitaque; Clyde Martin of the Petersburg Post; Jim Jordan, Blakemore Post, No. 260 of Plainview; Robt. A. Garrett, McDermott Post, No. 118, Floydada; Laurence Goff, Swisher County Post No. 214, of Tulla; and H. M. Mason, Landrum Post, No. 141, Lockney.

In introducing Commander Earp, Judge Mathews paid tribute to his friend and presented him as a "loyal citizen, a loyal legionnaire and a patriot." The audience stood and cheered the speaker as he took the platform.

"I knew Mathews here before he learned to eat cabbage leaves," the speaker said in his opening remarks. The audience listened in rapt attention to the state commander as he told of present-day dangers from communists and foreign enemy spy system being combated by the Legion program of education, immunization for children, sports, and patriotic practices.

"Peace at any price" is the slogan which the Legion has adopted. He stated that the aviation corps, the army, and the navy of the United States today are far inferior to those of European nations.

"If Russia should join either side of warring factions in the east today it would plunge the world into another conflict greater than the World War," Commander Earp declared.

"Russia stands ready with two million men, trained by 6,000 of the best German officers," he said.

He denounced all statements of criticism directed at the Legion in connection with the disarmament program, prohibition, child welfare bureau and employment activities.

"The Legion is a cosmopolitan organization of men from every walk of life and the people should keep this fact in mind when they go to criticizing the morals and acts of the group."

He mentioned briefly the service being rendered by the Legion in helping to find work for ex-service men who are without jobs. During the last six weeks jobs have been found for more than 500,000 men through the 11,000 Legion posts and employment bureaus.

Readers Real Service
"We feel that this is the greatest service that has been rendered the people of this country by a club or organization since the World War," he said.

Men in service received $30 per month and then paid it all back to the government for insurance, liberty bonds, etc., with the exception of $5, he pointed out.

For every American who lost his life in the World War one millionaire was made, he stated. Cancellation of interest of two per cent on 23 billion dollars in war debts, payment of bonus to other groups including ship workers and the railroads and refusal to pay the ex-service men were points receiving sharp criticism from the speaker.

He accused Mellon of being the manager of the U. S. for the past 11 years and of making huge profits from his corporations at the cost of the citizens.

All nations of the world have paid their soldiers' bonus but in the United States the ex-service men only received $60, he said.

"We do not believe it is unfair, unjust or unpatriotic to ask that the moral debt of this country be paid. Citizens need to do as the members of the legion who rededicate their lives at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier and serve in peace for the principles that build a united people."

"The United States was the least prepared of all the nations when we entered the World War. Men were drafted, 90 per cent of them against their will, from their homes and jobs and sent to the front line trenches to serve as cannon fodder who did not know, many of them, how to load a rifle. We had 51 airplanes and 48 of them were un-serviceable. The officers who had trained the men had less than one year's experience in service. Ten million men were killed.

"If you don't not know how many that is this illustration should impress you: if the dead filed rapidly by a given point in two ranks it would take them 46 days. The war cost by illustration $20,000 for every minute since the birth of Christ. The war cost the U. S. 100,000 dead and 283,000 disabled. A sum of 78 billion dollars was wasted."

Mr and Mrs. Earp and young son came to Lockney from Houston and left Tuesday night for Amarillo.

Garrett Opens Discussions
In short addresses made before Commander Earp was introduced, the visiting post commanders made short talks. Robt. Garrett, of Floydada, opened the comments by reading a letter he had received from Marvin Jones in which the congressman stated that he favored payment of the compensation.

Mr. King of Silverton drew applause in a spirited talk in which he attacked former Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew Mellon and his practices. "In 1929 we had $56 per person in circulation in the U. S. Today the best statistics show that only $35 per person are in circulation. Mellon and Big Business took $21 out of circulation giving us cheap commodities and high money."

"Payment of the bonus will help the farmers, business men, and everybody," King said in stating that his post favored payment in full of the bonus.

Mr. Goff of Tulla was cheered when he declared, "We will not accept this new money if it is made with Hoover's picture on one side and Mellon's on the other."

He told of a petition signed by all but three business men of Tulla and incorporated in a 484 word telegram and sent to Congressman Marvin Jones in favor of paying the bonus.

Commander Mason is commenting on the bonus said that "It matters not whether we get it now or later. We think we are right here in Texas in asking for it. We would certainly not do it if we did not think it was for the best interests of our country. It seems to us to be the only legislation so far that will distribute a liquid form of assets whether it be in currency or whatnot."

Stresses Need for Members
He urged that the most important thing now is the building of memberships in the legion as brought out in the remarks of Mr. Garrett.

Mr. Mason read several telegrams including one from Congressman Jones, Col. E. O. Thompson of Amarillo, and others. Mayor Thompson of Amarillo was unable to accept the invitation to attend and in wiring his regrets said that the currency issued by the government in payment of the bonus should be as well secured as the Federal reserve notes.

It was brought out by Judge Mathews in his introductory remarks that if the government issues new money to cover the bonus payment the money could be retired in 1945 by the government as a regular bond issue instead of the ex-service men having to hold it until payment in 1945 "if they're alive." He scored the Federal loan plan in which landlords and tenants are made to give binding security.

"This thing that is on our minds is nothing more nor less than the payment of an honest debt. It is a just debt and Congress should pay it and it will not increase taxes," Judge Mathews said.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce came in for sharp censure from officials stating that the members of the organization were opposed to payment of the bonus.

Commander Mason read a resolution adopted by Lockney citizens directed to the W. T. C. of C. He also read the following telegram from Congressman Wright Patman in Washington, author of the bill for payment of the bonus, and who is leading the fight in Congress over the matter this week:

"Please convey my best wishes to those in attendance in your meeting. Hearings on bill have already begun and hard fight anticipated but every possible effort will be made to obtain favorable action at early date. Fact no additional expense or taxation necessary to carry out my proposal causes me to be hopeful. Cooperation of veterans and citizens of Texas behalf this legislation great appeal."

Following the close of the speaking program, the Lockney post served free doughnuts and hot coffee to the entire assembly.
Among those attending from Floydada were the following: Judge and Mrs. L. G. Mathews and daughter, Irene, Robert A. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Covington, Jim Curry, Jim McNeely, Frank Moore, John Reagan, Tom Goslee, Homer

His was one of three talks on Rotary. Dr. W. M. Houghton had the past of Rotary, O. P. Rutledge its present and Medlen the future. Dr. Houghton recounted the development of the organization into an international fellowship and gave interesting sidelights on efforts of various clubs in years past. Mr. Rutledge spoke of the need for maintaining the morale of clubs and communities during the present squall of business and social upheaval.

Several Rotarians and their families are expected to take advantage of an opportunity to see a six-reel film, depicting the home and industrial life of Holland at Ralls Saturday afternoon and night and Sunday afternoon. The picture will be shown under the auspices of the Ralls Rotary Club, and visitors from all over the adjacent section are expected to take advantage of the opportunity for broadening their knowledge and understanding of the Hollander's living conditions and problems. Invitation to visit Ralls and see the picture was extended by Edd McLaughlin of the Ralls club.

Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield declared in the course of a five-minute talk that there is an unsatisfactory distribution of taxation in Texas and that West Texans should inform themselves and combat the situation.

How Often You Hear

"Oh, it's alright for these 'high-hat' birds to have their clothes custom made but I can't sink that much in a suit of clothes."

What nonsense! You don't have to be one of the "ritzy" to wear fine custom made clothes.

Just size up these few patterns of the hundreds we now have on display at prices actually lower than ready mades.

"Exactng about style, are you?" Well, good dressers usually are, but with the forty odd, brand new styles here you'll find the one in harmony with your taste.

There is a joy in wearing custom made clothes—but there is an equal thrill in the knowledge that this personal service is not costly.

Plenty of latitude in prices, too. A full range of Shark-skins, Basket Weaves, Serges and Worsteds for as little as $19.50—and correspondingly unequalled values at $22.50, $25.00 and up to $40.00.

Come over—and satisfy yourself that custom tailoring is a distinct economy.
