ing, aged 71, had the distinction of having served the community and county for more than twenty years

Eight Amendments To Constitution Given Majority In County

Only Amendment Permitting Appropriation for Centennial Fails.

Eight of the nine amendments proposed to the Texas Constitution carried in Floydada, unofficial reports from eighteen out of twenty-two precincts indicated this week, the only amendment failing to get approval of voters of this county being the one permitting appropriations from the state treasury for the Centennial celebration in 1936.

Tabulations of the vote in the county shows the following vote:

- For University bonds, 542, against 304;
- For Redemption, 775, against 187;
- For Delinquent Tax, 590, against 312;
- For Army vote, 481, against 345;
- For coast bonds, 478, against 311;
- For taxpayers bond vote, 701, against 206;
- For exemption homestead, 937, against 169;

Tax Collections Pick Up Some Last Week

State and county tax collections last week showed a slight spurt over the weeks of the previous month of October, the total receipts from taxes at the office of Tax Collector
C. M. Meredith running $1,515.41.

Of this amount $1,178.26 is represented by tax payments on the current roll, $17.50 voting polls, $7 on supplemental tax list, and $312.65 on delinquent taxes.

That the split tax payment plan either is not generally understood or not generally popular is indicated by the fact that of forty-five receipts issued during the week forty-three were for payment of taxes in full and two for the first half of the split payment.

Attend Funeral For Auto Crash Victim

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Minor, with C.
L. Minor, Jr., and Miss Gertrude Davis, attended the funeral held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Ellis White, 23, auto crash victim, at Plainview.

White, a son of C. E. White, pioneer seed dealer of Plainview, was fatally injured Friday afternoon on the Dimmitt-Plainview road when he crashed into a wagon and team.
The occupant of the wagon was not injured seriously and a companion of the fatally injured man escaped also.

Besides a wife and baby the deceased is survived by his parents, three sisters and two brothers.

New License Plates For Autos Received

License plates for automobiles and trucks of Floyd County for the year of 1933 were received Sunday by Tax Collector C. M. Meredith. These will be issued beginning December 1.

The plates for automobiles are orange figures on a white background, for next year, while the plates for the trucks have white figures on a maroon background.

Democratic Party Nominees Win In Landslide Tuesday

New Governor

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Democratic nominee and Texas' first woman governor, today was holding a commanding lead over her Republican opponent, Orville Bullington, of Wichita Falls, for the governorship. She took an early lead in the first reports from the general election Tuesday and her total has steadily mounted. She was defeated for re-election six years ago but "came back strong" this year.

Whirlwinds Will Invade Longhorn Corral at Lockney Tomorrow For Annual Armistice Day Grid Fight

Win Will Cinch Title In Quadrant For F.H.S.

Green and White Huskies Are Heavy Favorites to Win By Large Score.

Boasting one of the strongest aggregations in history, the Floydada High School Whirlwinds will roar into the Longhorn corral at Lockney Friday for the annual Armistice Day battle of a gridiron feud of long standing. The game is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock and will draw hundreds of football enthusiasts from this section.

Hope To Cinch Title

A victory for the Whirlwinds will cinch for F. H. S. the championship title of the northeast quadrant of District 2 of the Interscholastic League, Class B.

Coach R. P. Terrell and his huskies will enter the fray heavy favorites with an undefeated record in Class B competition and a victory over Plainview, a Class A aggregation. Floydada has registered confounding victories of 27-0 over Paducah and 15-0 over Matador.

On paper the Whirlwinds look good for almost anything when a comparison is made with the Longhorns' record this year but a traditional scrap always ensues when Floydada and Lockney face each other in any contest and Coach Warner Reed usually always manages to make things mighty interesting for his arch enemies.

Fresh from their victory over the Matador Bullfighters last week, the Green and White lads will be plenty hard to stop in their determined drive for a district title. Tomorrow's game will be only one of a series of hard battles facing them

Schools To Resume Regular Schedules In Classes Monday

Half Day Sessions Will End This Week; Get Three Holidays
This Month.

Short session schedules for the Floydada High School and the Andrews Ward School will end this week and Monday the regular plan will be resumed for operation of the schools, it was announced by Superintendent A. D. Cummings following the action of the School Board Monday night.

Classes will begin at 9 o'clock and school will be dismissed at 3:30 and 4 o'clock.

The half-day schedule went into effect Monday, October 17, to make as many hands as possible available in the cotton fields, where the boys and girls were needed in gathering the crop. Classes started at 8 o'clock and closed at 12 o'clock.

It was voted at the board meeting to allow the schools a holiday Friday, November 11, Armistice Day.
Two holidays will be given Thanksgiving including Thursday, November 24 and Friday, November 25, it was announced.

County Carried 15 To 1 By Demo Natl Ticket

Floyd County, which in 1928 gave Herbert Hoover and the Republican national ticket a majority of its votes and helped put Texas in the Republican column for the first time since Edmund J. Davis days, was safely back in the Democratic fold Tuesday.

Voters of this county registered a majority of fifteen to one for the Democratic national ticket, figures taken from the unofficial returns show. Of seventeen boxes out of twenty-one in the county the vote for the Democratic national ticket was 1,763, for the Republican ticket 142. The two Floydada boxes had forty-five republican votes and the two Lockney boxes fifty-one. The largest Republican vote in a rural box was at Lone Star where Hoover electors received thirteen votes to thirty-seven for the Roosevelt electors. Sand Hill had the second largest number of Republicans with eleven. Fifty-eight voted the Democratic ticket there.

A. V. Haynes, who has been in a serious condition at his home in West Floydada for the past week, was reported unimproved this Thursday morning.

Political Upheaval Sweeps Democratic Ticket Into Power

Roosevelt Gets 472 Electoral Votes,
Hoover 59; Both House Democratic

Tuesday's election was a political upheaval that swept Democrats into power in the national government, not only in the presidency by giving Roosevelt an overwhelming electoral vote of 472 against 59 for Hoover, but also in both houses of congress.

Every electoral vote west of the Alleghenies went into the democratic column for the presidency. Mr.
Hoover received only the votes of Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Delaware,
New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.

On the senate, according to the forecast from returns in last night it appeared that the Democrats would have fifty-nine members against thirty-five Republicans. In the house the figures are equally impressive, although forty seats are still in doubt. One senatorial contest was unsettled.

The upheaval swept out of office some of the leaders in the senate and house for the past twenty or thirty years.

Democratic Nominee Wins Over Bullington

With only one box out of twenty-one not reported last night, Mrs.
Ferguson on the face of unofficial returns had carried Floyd County for the governorship by a majority that will run close to 150 votes, possibly more.

Her vote in the race actually tabulated unofficially is 1038. Bullington has 942. The box not yet reported is Cedar, where the Democratic nominee is expected to get an overwhelming majority and her lead thus is estimated to run around 150.

Bullington carried both Floydada and both Lockney boxes, but the same voters, who scratched out Mrs.
Ferguson's name to vote for the Republican state candidate, gave the national Democratic ticket a tremendous majority. Out of the rural boxes reported Mrs. Ferguson carried twelve and lost four.

The official count of the ballots will not be made until the commissioners' court meets Monday, but the unofficial figures are believed to be reasonably correct.

Following are the returns by precincts on the gubernatorial race,

Ferguson Lead Near 100,000 For Governor

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Democratic nominee for governor of Texas, had a lead approaching 100,000 majority over her opponent Orville Bullington, Republican, in tabulations made by Texas Election Bureau early this morning. 419,121 votes were accounted for in this tabulation. Her vote was 256,298 against 162,823 for Bullington. Reports from 179 counties, twenty of them complete, were included in this tabulation.

All Amendments Carry Apparently every amendment to the state constitution, nine in number, had carried, on the face of reports included in the tabulation.
Figures on these amendments, however, were not so complete.

der the auspices of the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department.

number of free attractions are being offered.

Mystic Predicts Good Times For Texas

Dr. de Zita, Moroccan Astrologist Will Drive Car Through Streets While Blindfolded This Afternoon at 2 O'clock and Tonight at 7 O'clock—On Stage at Palace Theatre to Answer Questions and Also to Hypnotize

You men can let your belts out a notch now and you womenfolk can buy a new spring hat for Christi-mas for good times are in store for Texas.

The "signs" are right! And you have no less an authority for this welcome information than Dr. de Zita, Moroccan astrologist and hypnotist, who is in Floydada this mid-week. He says the stars show prosperity for Texas for the next two and one half years!

And while you are pondering over the ways and means for enjoying the change in conditions, Dr. de Zita will furnish Floydada and Floyd County residents with an unusual type of entertainment.

This afternoon he will drive a new Ford V-8 through the streets while blindfolded. This performance will start in front of the Palace Theatre.

Dr. de Zita's real name is Baron
William Michael Achillus de Orgler.
De Orgler was a member of the Foreign Legion from 1908 to 1912, participating in skirmishes against Riffs and Arabs in Casa Blanca and Tangier, French Morocco, and Tetuan, Spanish Morocco.

He has assisted in making photographs dealing with the Foreign Legion. He aided in the technical direction of Beau Geste, Beau Sabreur, The Desert Song, Morocco, and Renegade. In Renegade, he doubled for Warner Baxter in distant shots.

He says his psycho-analysis was based on both psychology and astrology. He has practiced medicine in Washington, Oregon and Montana.

Casa Blanca he describes as "the hell hole" of North Africa. De Zita is a Frenchman.

ely and fast moving. There are fourteen characters in the main cast.

THE WATCHFUL WAITERS

Although national prohibition has come in for a lot of criticism during the past ten years which has culminated in a practically unanimous pronouncement against it by both major political parties, there is no reason to believe that the number of "at heart" prohibitionists in the country has decreased in large numbers as the casual would think.

Righ now, with economic chaos, with the run-of-mine churchman pretty well spent financially, the prohibition forces are disorganized. The greater per centage of them are mighty busy trying to salvage their own personal business affairs.

On the other hand there is a quite considerable minority of prohibitionists who believe that national prohibition is destined to fail, and that prohibition through the operation of the state laws, each in its own manner, is the nearest approach to the solution of the liquor problem.

So that the prohibitionists may be put in the category of the watchful waiters at this time. Eventually there will be a different story to tell. They are not thinking of themselves, either as beaten or discredited. They still believe that liquor is the essence of hell, and will govern themselves accordingly when they have recovered their poise and have mapped out a program on which to fight.

TOO MUCH SAVING! In a period when it is not only a matter of necessity but a fetish to be "saving" the idea can be carried far in many ways. One of these ways, as is pointed out by State Fire Marshal Raymond S. Mauk, is entrusting electrical installations to amateurs or to make use of cheap electrical appliances.

TAKING UNDUE ADVANTAGE What a score the depression will have to settle for some of these days! What injustices have been and are being done in its name! Women and girls being worked illegal and cruel hours; women, children and men being worked at starvation wages and less. Because a drowning man grabs at any straw many unnecessary hardships and cruelties are being inflicted.

PASSING ONE BY ONE Recent deaths in Floyd County remind us that that colorful generation of men and women produced by the storm and stress of the regenerative days following the Civil War, when depressions twice compounded in recurring waves hit the country—these pioneers passing on to another land remind us that shortly the men who carried on in the nineties and the first and second decades of 1900, taking the leadership and building such a background of community and state life as was never before known in the history of the world, will not be with us any more and that their efforts will be only history, to read about in the books which we shall write and in the lives of their sons and daughters.

To the sons and daughters who are coming on, whose lives have never known the lack of motor vehicles, of modern refrigeration, of modern trans-... these things which the fathers knew in the days of their fathers...

rough corners and making it over for future generations.

These men and women, to whom we make reference as pioneers, had crude utensils with which to work. But with these utensils they also used an imagination and a resourcefulness that spanned the continent, and visualized something bigger and better for their posterity. Their singleness of purpose in building for posterity was the outstanding characteristic of their lives.

And, as their days come to a close, as the closing chapters of their colorful lives are written, what a pleasure to recount their doings and to pay them the tributes of genuine admiration, in addition to the filial love and respect which we hold for them.

BUT YOU REMAIN

No matter whether the tide of political battle has determined that Mr. Hoover will stay in or move out, no matter whether Mr. Roosevelt moves in or stays out—you remain! With the smoke of battle now cleared away, the ballots have been counted, whatever the outcome, this fact, stated before election day, will be true after the election, you are in the same position you were in before the fight started.

The present generation has lived under several Republican administrations and two Democratic. The country has gone to the bow-wows several times before a national election, but as a correspondent writes, you will note that it is still here, the envy of all other nations, and in spite of direful predictions it will continue to move on and move up if the business men, the farmers, the professional men will re-possess themselves of that spirit which actuated their pioneer forefathers.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

ISSUE NOV. 7, 1918

W. N. Brown, of Lockney, has been appointed a member of the Floyd County Exemption Board, succeeding J. B. Downs, of that city, who resigned recently.

The vote in Floyd County in the general election held Tuesday of this week was very light. Yesterday afternoon, ten boxes, including Lockney and Floydada, had made returns, and tabulations from these returns only showed 443 votes.

Reports today are to the effect that Germany had decided to accept the terms of the Allies for an armistice.

Mrs. Lillie Britton moved to Floydada last week and has taken up her residence on West Mississippi Street. Her home has been at Lockney. She is county treasurer-elect and will take the oath of office sometime during the next thirty days.

OLAN WATSON has returned from Ralls where he spent the past month with the A. G. McAdams people as bookkeeper. He returns to take a place in the First National Bank.

Dean E. V. White Texas State College for Women (CIA) In times of depression don't cut up because your wages are cut down. Expect no special reward for not doing what you shouldn't.

Don't try to get even with one who is behind you. No one has a right to a luxury he cannot afford. Some people show their inferiority by the way they let other people treat them.

Clipped Quips

The area of Alaska is nearly equal to that of Texas, California, Montana, Maryland and Delaware. The United States flag is the third oldest of the world's nation standards. The Union Jack of Great Britain is the oldest and the Tri-Colors of France the second. The longest and deepest canyon in the world is the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river which is more than a mile deep in some places. Dishes and glasses that are designed to be spill-proof have been devised for use in serving passengers on airplanes.

HELP THE RED CROSS TO HELP THE NEEDY!

The 1932 poster of the American Red Cross Roll Call for members.

EVERY year, beginning with the World War, the Red Cross has issued a poster calling attention to its roll call for membership, which is held, traditionally, from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Many famous artists have painted these posters. Usually they center about the figure of a Red Cross nurse, which carries sentimental recollections of her service during the war, and of her service in disasters in peace-time, as well as in the paths of public health.

The poster this year is a timely reminder that the Red Cross needs help, if it is to carry on helping others. Every one who joins as a member of the Red Cross chapter in his community will be helping to help the needy.

How They Stand FLOYDADA 2 2 0 1.000 Matador 2 1 1 .500 Paducah 2 1 1 .500 Lockney 2 0 2 .000

Floydada High School's Whirlwinds are on top of the heap with a perfect record in the northeast section of District 2 in the Inter-scholastic League Football race, Class B. The Lockney Longhorns remain as the only obstacle between them and the championship of this fourth of the district. Longhorn meat will be the main bill of fare for Coach R. P. Terrell and his crew at Lockney in the annual Armistice Day tussle Friday.

Things are simmering down now and the prospective champions are looming up. Graham with a 51 to 0 victory over Newcastle last Friday stands out as the winner in District 5 with the only undefeated team in that district. Crowell won over Chillicothe 21-14 and that had the effect of cinching the championship of District 4 for the Olney Cubs. Olney has only Archer City and Seymour to meet and the team is expected to have little difficulty defeating both teams and marching to its fifth straight district championship. Last year, it will be remembered, Lamesa beat Floydada, Clarendon downed Lamesa and lost to Olney who in turn was defeated by Masonic Home in the state regional finals.

McLean, Shamrock, Canyon and Hereford are to fight it out in District 1. In a non-conference game Friday Canyon beat Hereford 13 to 7 and November 18 they play in an official game for the sectional title. McLean won its sixth straight by slamming Wheeler 26 to 0 last Friday.

In the district with the Whirlwinds, Brownfield is looking powerful in the south half with a victory Friday of 6-0 over Slaton. They have defeated Lamesa but have to account for Spur and Post before they enter the district finals. Lockney will give the Whirlwinds little trouble this week, so the title will rest between Post, Spur, Brownfield, Littlefield and Floydada.

Celebration services are in order. A most distinguished title has been selected for the new cat that has come to the ranch. It is none other, lads and gentlemen, than Ahmed Ben Alley! The "Ahmed" is added just to make it fancy. The "Ben" part comes in honor of Ben Turpin, because that cat shore it cross-eyed. And since he is an ordinary alley feline, she is also to have a final name of "Alley" in honor of her point of origin.

Ahmed Ben Alley has got more colors than you ever saw on a West Texas cat. She is a genuine Turkish blend, all right. And fleas! My, but she's got a beautiful collection. You recall last week I predicted that the fleas were hopping south and that we would have a cold snap and shore enough we did have a "norther". This week I observed that the hopping creep has been "digging in" and I predict a real cold blizzard within the next 10 days. If this is wrong blame the fleas but if it's right you can give me credit and send me a check to cover. Speaking of checks, reminds me of a new way to "dun" a feller these days. The collectors have tried words, sweet inducements, telephone calls, threats, baseball bats, and the sheriff but all attempts have failed on me. Now comes along a bird who reads me a line of poetry. Done gone if that ain't the very last straw, I believe I'd blow plumb up if one comes along and sings to me. Here's the poem and you can judge for yourself what it's about: You need your money And I need mine; If we both get ours, It will sure be fine. But, if you get yours And hold mine, too, What in the world Am I going to do? Now think it over With mind and heart And see if I Can get my part.

Purty bum poetry, I calls it. I'm gonna send that guy one of these Chic Sales Christmas cards and that's all he's gonna get.

A freshman at A. & M. couldn't understand why he had to take courses in husbandry in order to get his bachelor's degree. "You should have called me, Johnny, when those bad boys started throwing rocks at you." "What good would that have done, Ma? You can't hit the side of a barn."

"Before we were married, my girl used to tell me I had a profile like a Grecian god." "Yes, and now?" "Oh, now she places a burnt offering before me at every meal."

"What's the matter with the star quarterback?" "The athletic council won't pay the last installment on him, so they're taking him away."

Contemporary Thought

WOMEN DRIVERS SAFER Wellington Leader: For years women have been subject to biges because of their supposed inferiority as automobile drivers. But a recent survey by a national board of casualty underwriters reveals that women drivers figure in far less accidents than men, numbers considered.

Estimates from various sources, including government statistics, indicate that women constitute approximately one-fourth of the total number of drivers in the country. Yet, while women represent 25 per cent of the number of drivers, last year they were involved in only 7.63 per cent of the accidents recorded. In the observance of traffic regulations, women made an even more impressive record. While full statistics are not available, in a dozen large cities only 2.53 per cent of those charged with violations of traffic rules were women. While it may be argued that traffic officers are more lenient toward women violators, an inquiry addressed to a large number of these officers brought responses decidedly favorable to the ladies.

Of the replies received, 78 per cent of the officers considered women more careful drivers than men; 11 per cent thought women equally careful, and only 11 per cent believed women less careful. So, in the face of the record, it appears that women are much safer drivers than men, after all. When they are actually at the wheel, how safe they may be as back seat drivers is an entirely different matter. Dougherty News

(By Mrs. W. D. Newell)

Cotton has been coming in fast the past week and the gin has been running almost steady day and night.

The dry cold weather has caused the cotton to open fast and already some few farmers are beginning to talk about using machines to harvest their crop. It appears that there are several things that should be taken into consideration before such a step is taken: The first and more important is that a machine is not a consumer of any kind of farm product. Next it lowers the grade which lowers the already low price.

Again, every man that is given a job takes a man off the unemployed list and in some instances off of charity. Every man that is given a job in the cotton field becomes a consumer of cotton, first by buying his pick sack, which is made of cotton, then he will buy clothing as soon as he makes anything above his bread.

Voting Unusually Heavy Voting was unusually brisk here Tuesday and more interest was taken this election than is usual for the November election. It was reported that sixty-four votes were cast, which indicates that more people are taking more interest in public affairs.

This may help to help get things balanced again, and get us back to where our "out-go" will not exceed our "in-come." After all this seems to have been the trouble, our incomes have not been large enough, the past year, to meet the demands made of us.

Again, I will mention that now is the time to be at work on getting some of our much needed roads, and we cannot get them unless we ask for them. One improvement that is much needed is a wider roadbed on the road leading north to the old Mayview corner, also for the sharp curves to be taken out, especially where it intersects with the Matador Highway.

We also need a road opened to the North and East connecting the Whiteflat road, also giving a more direct road to Matador and points East.

Dougherty's First Death Our community was made sad last week following the death of little James Harvey Garner, 4 son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Garner who moved here recently from Amarillo. This death marks the first to have occurred from residents of our little town. The town was four years old last March. One infant died south of town and was buried in the cemetery here and with one other infant that was still-born. These mark the deaths so far.

from the ground. If the production is not held down in order to insure a reasonable price for the oil, the state loses a great deal of revenue. Furthermore, unless there is an orderly and restrained development of the oil field, a large percent of the oil stored in the ground is wasted, and never recovered. It is stated that fully one-half of the potential output of the Wink field was lost because of unrestrained drilling and unscientific methods used in the field. With the fall of proration under the case tried in federal court, the state can afford to go to any reasonable expense to cure the defects of the present law in order to save the East Texas field which was going the same way as the Wink field through haphazard drilling and producing methods. The state, and all of the taxpayers of the state, are vitally interested in securing all of the oil possible, as the tax on this product amounts to millions of dollars to the state.

Central Committee Of Red Cross Urges Need Of Roll Call Support

The American Red Cross today faces a great emergency. Demands for its services exceed those of any period since the World War.

Millions are without employment. They have seen their resources dwindle in the economic catastrophe, as victims of disaster have their possessions snatched from them by tornadoes, flood, fire and drought. During the last year Red Cross aid has been carried to more than three and a half million of these families. This relief, supplementing valiant efforts of local communities, has reached into every State.

The Red Cross was asked by the Government to distribute, in the form of flour and feed for livestock, forty million bushels of wheat. This vast supply has gone into homes of needy and distressed people in cities and towns of every state. It has filled the gap in depleted local resources in countless communities.

The Red Cross must administer the distribution of flour from an additional forty-five million bushels of Government wheat. It must administer the transformation of 500,000 bales of Government cotton into garments for men, women and children.

Red Cross Chapters in 2,276 communities have been engaged in unemployment relief. Food, shelter, clothing, garden seed, medical and nursing care have been provided. This relief has been given in industrial centers, coal mining regions and agricultural sections.

During the last year the Red Cross has provided relief and rehabilitation in 90 disasters at home and in our insular possessions.

The emergency is not yet passed. Relief on a tremendous scale must be continued this winter.

For continued support of this program the Red Cross must turn to those millions of Americans devoted to service who are willing to make personal sacrifices. It has made no separate call for an unemployment relief fund to carry its part of the load. It does, however, ask greater support this year through largely increased membership everywhere. It confidently looks to the people, who have always expressed confidence in their Red Cross, for increased support so that it may so far as possible meet its obligations to those in distress.

The Central Committee of the American Red Cross, therefore, urges every Chapter and Branch of the National Organization to take such steps in perfecting its Roll Call organization as will assure the membership increases called for by this emergency.

NAT'L AUXILIARY PRES. URGES RED CROSS SUPPORT

"During the trying days of the World War many thousands of women, who are now members of the American Legion Auxiliary, found through their work for the Red Cross a means of expressing helpfulness across the seas to their sons and husbands who were in the armed forces of the United States," Mrs. S. A. Blackburn, president of the National American Legion Auxiliary, said in a statement this week. Continuing she said:

"Today we face a peace-time emergency which threatens the health and welfare of many of these men, their wives and children, as well as the well-being of untold thousands of our citizens who are unemployed and in distress through no fault of theirs.

"Again we are offered through the Red Cross a means of carrying relief to a great army—an army of unemployed. In cooperation with the Red Cross we can supplement the fine efforts of our own organization in giving practical help in our communities.

"The sewing room of the war days has been revived. The call for volunteer workers to make clothing for men, women and children—an appeal as urgent as in 1917-18 has been issued by the Red Cross. Many auxiliary units have responded.

"The Red Cross is distributing flour and clothing from wheat and cotton voted it by Congress. A great staff of volunteer workers is needed to help. In addition the Red Cross has given direct relief from its own funds to 1,800,000 people. This work must be carried on. I hope the auxiliary will enlist workers in this cause, and also that its members will join the Red Cross in the annual Roll Call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving."

Warning Against Careless Fires Issued by Marshal

'Profit' Fires Also Come in for Vigorous Campaign in All Sections of State.

Austin, Nov. 7.—State Fire Marshal, Raymond S. Mauk, issued a statement today in the form of an appeal to all Texas people to practice care as a means of preventing fires. Mr. Mauk stated that a vigorous campaign was now being waged in every section of Texas against incendiary fires, commonly known as "profit" fires, and that it is highly important that every precaution be taken to prevent careless fires.

The cost of fire-safety, Mr. Mauk said, is a necessary expense for our urban civilization and that it is much better business to prevent a fire than it is to stop a fire, pointing out the fact that fire fighting is expensive and dangerous.

The time of the year is now here, Mr. Mauk said, when every home and place of business will be using fire as some form for heating purposes and that it is important that every precaution be taken to prevent disastrous fires from any of the many heating devices or appliances. He suggests that every home and place of business have their heating apparatus, such as fire places, chimneys, wood stoves, gas heaters, oil heaters and their pipes, carefully cleaned, inspected and put into first class condition before the same are used. He especially warned against the use of kerosene and gasoline as a means of starting or quickening a fire, pointing out that many deaths and injuries have resulted by such carelessness.

Also, he warned against the use of gasoline for cleaning floors and clothes as such practice is likely to cause a fire and sudden death.

In these days, Mr. Mauk further stated, practically every household is seeking ways and means to economize by reason of necessity, but warned that it is false economy to trust an amateur electrician and cheap electrical devices and that it is good common sense to consult with the city electrician or some competent electrician on all matters pertaining to electrical installations, corrections or removal of electrical devices and appliances, pointing out that recent fire records that many fires have occurred as a result of faulty electrical appliances and devices and improper installation.

Mr. Mauk concluded by saying, whenever in doubt about any matter pertaining to fire-safety, to consult with the local Fire Marshal, Fire Chief, Building Inspector, Gas Inspector, Electrical Inspector and others, as it is better to be safe than sorry.

Formulas Given For Curing, Smoking Of Home Supply Of Meat

Colder Days Bring On Problems of Proper Conservation of Meats On Farm.

With cold weather have come big events on many farms in the form of hog killings and good old home-made sausage, fresh pork and spare-ribs furnish the main bill of fare for numerous tables.

O. T. Williams, vocational agriculture teacher in Floydada, High School, has given suggestions for curing and smoking of pork that may prove of interest to those putting up their meat for winter use at home or for sale.

This information was given last fall and is being repeated at this time for the benefit of those who would like to follow the suggestions made but have misplaced the formulas.

Curing Pork on the Farm
The first essential in curing pork is to make sure that the carcass is thoroughly cooled. It is best that the meat not allowed to freeze during the cooling period.

The proper time to begin curing is when the meat is cool, and still fresh, or about 24 to 36 hours after killing.

Vessels for Curing
A clean, hardwood, molasses barrel is a suitable vessel in which to cure pork. The barrel should be clean, and light so as to prevent leakage. A large stone jar is the best container, but the initial cost is high. If either container has been used before, it should be cleaned with boiling water.

Dry-Cure Pork
Formula—for 100 lbs. of meat use
8 lbs. salt
2½ lbs. molasses or syrup made from sugar.
2 oz. salt peter.
3 oz. black pepper,
2 oz. red pepper.

Heat the molasses and add the other ingredients and mix well. Rub the mixture over the meat thoroughly and pack it away in a barrel or box.

About the third day break the pack and repack in to insure thorough contact with the curing mixture, then allow the meat to remain until the cure is completed. This will take two days for each one pound of pork. For example if a ham weighs 20 lbs. it will take 40 days for the ham to cure and then it will be ready to smoke and hang.

Smoking the Meat
If a small amount of meat is to be smoked, a salt barrel may be used. Holes must be cut in the bottom to admit the smoke. Dig a tunnel some five or six feet out from the barrel and cover over with sheet iron. The draft can be regulated by closing up the opening. A good smoke house is much better. Here the meat can be hung and an even color can be obtained. Do not let the temperature go higher than 120 degrees F.

Use for Fuel
Hard wood is best used for smoking, such as oak or mesquite. Do not use hard pine as this will give a bad flavor to the meat.

Time Required
It will take from 36 to 48 hours for the meat to have a good color.

"Central" sends help to a Frantic Mother

Jimmy Ratliff, 12 years old, went fishing with his chum. They took the little .410-gauge shotgun saying... "Gonna kill us a rabbit for bait."

There was a report from the gun at the pond, a quarter of a mile from the house. Jimmy was shot... hurt badly. A frantic mother ran to the telephone...

"Central! A doctor quick!"

Lucy Adams, at the switchboard, called the doctor's office. He wasn't in. She rang the telephone at his home, and he wasn't there. She tried the cafe, and located him. Within five minutes the doctor was speeding toward the Ratliff home.

The little boy was weak when the doctor arrived. He dressed the wound... sent Jimmy to the hospital. The boy is out playing again now.*

Twenty-four hours of each day the telephone is ready for your calls. Whether it be for the doctor, to get the price for eggs or cream, to order a part for a machine, or to visit a neighbor... the telephone pays its way.

You can buy few things which cost so little and are worth so much.

"HIGHEST TEST"
at the price of ordinary gasoline

When an ad yells in fat black type that "Science says the so-and-so gasoline is the best"...

When testing laboratory reports are published which try to prove that the company paying for the tests has the only quality gasoline...

When charts are printed to convince drivers that they are foolish and wasting money unless they buy some one gasoline and no other...

Then there is only one comment which experienced motorists can make: "OH, YEAH?"

In our opinion, there are a number of good gasolines on the market. The products of the reputable refiners will all give good service. If the claims are just a bit strong and laid on rather heavy, remember that these are days of fierce competition in the gasoline industry.

The hard-boiled driver, the man from Missouri, and his wife who won't believe a word in the ads—we understand and appreciate exactly how they feel.

Their way of getting the truth about a motor fuel is to put it up to the motor. They try the gas. And if performance is improved, if special benefits develop—then they know their own minds and stick to the gasoline that delivers most for their money.

More than 7,400,000 experienced drivers have already switched to Phillips 66... the greater gasoline. And as the days grow colder, there will be at least a million more.

They will want that split-second starting in freezing weather, which loyal Phillips users are so proud of. They will demand all the other high test advantages so generously delivered by this amazing new motor fuel: quick warm-up... added power... smoother running... longer mileage.

Because of the marvelous things they have heard about it from their friends, they will expect something unusual and different in Phillips 66. And they will not be disappointed, because Phillips pioneered the principle of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, which adjusts the "test" of the gasoline not merely to the season but to your weather, week by week and day by day.

They will not be disappointed, because Phillips 66 is made by the world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline. That is why its high test costs you nothing extra.

The colder the day on which you try your first tankful, the more impressed you will be by the tremendous winter advantages of "highest test" Phillips 66 gasoline.

But why take our word for it! Put it up to your motor. It plays no favorites. Phill-up with Phillips 66 tomorrow, at the Orange and Black 66 shield.

FIRE IN FOREST CALLS FOR RUSH TO FIGHT IT

Dry weather, hot summer temperatures, even a moderate wind, and a spark of fire combine disastrously in the forests. Experience with forest fires makes men of the Forest Service wish it were easier to "educate" the public to prevent fires by never giving fire a chance to get started. How rapidly forest fires can spread and how rapidly it is necessary to multiply the number of fire fighters is revealed in bare statistical outline by George M. Jemison of the Forest Service, reporting the weather conditions that affected the Freeman Lake fire in Idaho last August.

Within a single day this fire burned over a tract 5 miles wide and 11 1/2 miles long. There were also scattered "spot fires," caused by burning brands carried by the wind outside this area. This fire spread at an average rate of 1,000 acres per hour for a full day. The fire started at 10:30 in the morning on a hot August day, with the duff in the forest unusually dry, and with the wind blowing 12 to 13 miles an hour. The weather remained hot and the wind increased in the early afternoon to 17 or 18 miles an hour.

What these conditions demanded of the fire-fighting force appears in other figures. The fire was discovered 20 minutes after it started. A fire crew of 11 men reached it and began work 1 hour and 10 minutes after it started, but by that time it was a 20-acre fire. By 12:50, less than two hours after the start, 31 more men arrived and 50 more at 5 p. m. By midnight 640 men were working on the fire, and the fire was under control three days later.

SEEKING ORIGIN OF MARATHON DANCING

Research specialists have been trying to find out where the fad of marathon dancing originated. Nobody really knows. The first press mention came from Indiana, but the fad seems to have been already popular at that time.

According to one student of the phenomenon, the marathon dance got its inspiration from the animal world. "If you visit a zoo," says Dr. John B. Kennedy in Collier's Weekly, "you will find many things that resemble a marathon dance, and if you visit a zoo you will find many things that resemble a zoo. The swaying bear, the ambient wolf, the peripatetic lynx, to say nothing of the gibbering chimpanzee, are gluttons for motion, yet even these have sense enough to surrender to nature in replenishing sleep.

"We've had rocking-chair marathons, talking marathons, roller-skating marathons and pie-eating marathons. All are equally silly, all are equally sad; but the dance marathon, more than any other, reveals human nature at its worst. It's a bug that bites participants and spectators alike.

"Without the fillip of publicity, this newest and nuttiest of the arts might have been aborted and thousands of uncultivated lunatics deprived of an opportunity for self-expression. Alert showmen have turned the fad into a well-organized business."

It takes about 1500 nuts to hold an automobile together but it takes only one nut to scatter it over the landscape.

Frederic March, Leslie Howard Also Have Roles in World-Famed Romance

Norma Shearer in "Smilin' Through," directed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by Sidney Franklin, with a supporting cast headed by Frederic March, Leslie Howard, O. P. Heggie and Ralph Forbes, will open Saturday mid-night at the Palace Theatre. In this lavish production Norma Shearer for the first time in her career plays a dual role.

In this she duplicates the feat of Jane Cowl, who starred in the original New York stage production. Miss Shearer portrays both the tragic Moonyene in the hoopskirted Victorian sequences and Kathleen Sheridan in the modern scenes around which the happier romance of the tale centers.

Second Unusual Venture It is Miss Shearer's second venture into the unusual in drama. Her previous departure was in "Strange Interlude," in which she had the singular experience of both speaking and hearing her silent thoughts expressed audibly.

In the speaking screen version of "Smilin' Through," Miss Shearer has an advantage which Jane Cowl was not permitted in the stage production. First as the intended bride and then as the ward of Sir John Carteret, the role which Leslie Howard plays, Miss Shearer is able to return in fantasy to the mind of her brooding lover—in which moments of reverie she appears twice in a single scene.

Thus, although the story covers a fifty years' elapse of time, during which Leslie Howard grows from youth to white-haired old age, Miss Shearer remains youthful throughout. It is, the star concedes, her severest dramatic test to date, not excepting her difficult role in "Strange Interlude."

Also Play Dual Roles

Frederic March and Leslie Howard, as heads of her dramatic cast, also have unusual trials in characterization. March, like Miss Shearer, has two roles in the story. In the beginning he is Jeremy Wayne, rival of Leslie Howard for the hand of Moonyene. Later he portrays the son of Jeremy Wayne, returning to England at the time the country is preparing to enter the World War.

Of the three principals Leslie Howard alone retains a single identity. But his role is no less intricate, for it requires a transition covering three distinct ages.

As director of Miss Shearer's production of "Smilin' Through," Sidney Franklin is repeating the service he performed in Norma Talmadge's silent production.

EROSION THREATENS CUT IN ACRE YIELDS

Lower crop yields per acre with resulting higher production costs are among the chief dangers of land erosion, says the United States Department of Agriculture. This process is already under way, the department says.

Despite the fact that this country is letting its soil waste away faster than any other nation, there is little threat of an immediate land shortage. There is danger, however, in land reaching the point where farmers can not gain a respectable living from it, the department says.

In the face of improved methods and machinery, improved varieties and increased use of fertilizers, average yields of some crops have dropped. The average yield of cotton for the 10-year period 1871-1880 was 186.4 pounds per acre, compared with 152.9 pounds for the period 1921-1930, a reduction that can not be charged entirely to insects or to use of marginal land. The average yield of corn for the 10-year period 1871-1880 was 27.04 bushels per acre, while from 1921 to 1930 the yield was 26.13 bushels per acre. That the yield of corn has declined in spite of all the improvement in growing the crop must have some relation to eroded land, since the crop has not spread out extensively into dry regions and has not been devastated by insects or disease.

Erosion is being checked in many parts of the United States through terracing, sodding and similar practices. Work of the United States Department of Agriculture proves that excessive erosion can be controlled.

Rubber Stamps, stamp pads, all kinds. Hesperian.

PECAN PRODUCTION

Texas produces from a fourth to a half of our total pecan crop, says the United States Department of Agriculture. Pecan trees are native to the South Central States, but plantings of improved varieties have been made on a large scale throughout the east Gulf and South Atlantic coastal plains. Nuts from improved varieties come mostly from the Southeastern States and nuts from seedling and wild trees come chiefly from States west of the Mississippi. Georgia frequently produces about two-fifths of the improved varieties and Texas and Oklahoma together usually produce from two-thirds to four-fifths of the seedling nuts. Total pecan production in the United States from 1927 to 1931 ranged from 35,000,000 to 77,000,000 pounds.

Farm mortgage loans were smaller in both volume and average size in 1931 than in the year before, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture from mortgage bankers in 17 Western and Southern States.

Corneil Case Against County Is On Trial

First Witness on Stand in Suit for Contract Performance and Damages.

Although the case of A. N. Corneil, Amarillo accountant against Floyd County and the members of the Commissioners Court officially and as individuals, has been under way, except for the election day holiday, since Monday morning when a jury was selected, the first witness did not go on the stand until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was A. N. Corneil, the plaintiff, who resumed testimony this morning.

The day and a half's time was taken up in law points and pleadings. Both plaintiff and defendant amended their pleadings during the period. Corneil seeks enforcement of two contracts with a former court for the collection of delinquent taxes and for damages, alleged to have been done him when the court in February of last year cancelled contracts which he held. The court contends that the cancellation was made when advised by the comptroller's department that the contracts had not been approved.

Two Plead Guilty

Election day, a legal holiday for most all courts and officers of the land, was a busy one for the 110th District Court in session here. In the day two men pled guilty and were sentenced to a total of twenty years in the penitentiary and foreclosure judgments were entered against three homes in Briscoe, Hall and Motley Counties.

The two men pleading guilty were Jodie Edwards and Clarence Stinson. Each was charged by indictment of a Floyd County grand jury with assault to murder and possessing concealing stolen property. A thirteen-year-old boy, Vernon Martin, was the state's witness, identifying the men as the ones whom he saw and talked within a hiding place near the Geo. R. Tibbets place in the northeast part of the county a short time before they staged a gun battle with Sheriff N. R. Honea of Silverton. Stinson had a leg shot off in the battle. The sheriff and Ernest Tunnell, of Quitaque, who was with him, were injured in the fight which occurred on September 3. Both defendants waived juries.

The foreclosures were on three pieces of Howard land, a $4,920.64 judgment being given on the east one-fourth of Survey 57, Block 3, in Briscoe County against W. V. Chandler foreclosing a vendor's lien. Similar judgment was taken against W. W. Ferguson and others for $2,194.46 on 120 acres out of survey 67, Block 3, Hall County, the north three-eighths of the east half of the survey; and for $1,815.06 against J. H. Tiffin on 80 acres in Briscoe and Motley Counties, Survey 37 in Block 3. Judgment by default was given in each case.

Paying Suits Tried

An agreed judgment was entered in the case of Owen M. Murray, receiver for the North Texas Trust Company, against J. G. and C. M. Martin, a paving suit. Testimony introduced by the defendants indicated that they had stood ready since the date of the completion of the contract to make payment, and the judgment of the court permitted them to settle on cash basis as of 1928, with the cash discount.

Five judgments by default were given the receiver in the paving cases. They were against George F. Fore, the estate of B. W. Ainsworth, Mrs. Samantha Morris, the J. E. Lancaster estate and Mrs. M. F. Stephens. All paving cases not tried were continued to the January term of court.

In a recent trial Mrs. Mary Alice White and others were given a judgment for $3,300 confirming a settlement reached out of court with Perry Bros. on a suit for specific performance of contract. The latter were lessees of a south side building which was vacated by them last year. The judgment released the lessors from the contract.

A suit on a lease contract covering a section of land in the north-east part of the county—Section 129, Block D2—was also adjudicated last week. David From, the owner was given possession and title to the land, a lease contract with Matt A. Gram, and a sub-lease contract with H. H. Sammann, Jr., were cancelled and a general settlement obtained, including settlement of a cross action by Sammann against Gram and From's action against C. B. Harder and Herbert Dysart, as well as Harder, Dysart and Crato's action against H. H. Sammann, Jr. The agreement was reached out of court.

J. B. Leach walked out of court one day last week with his name cleared on the docket, when a judgment was set aside and dismissed in which Leach was charged with false swearing. The case was tried in 1928 and he was given a two-year suspended sentence by a jury. It was proven that he had not been convicted of a crime in the interim.

Kane Bond $5,000 Mrs. Ruth Kane's bond in the J. A. Cunningham murder case was set at $5,000 by Judge Bain and she was freed on recognizance of C. C. McDonald, Fred T. Arnold, H. H. Stephens and Hope Newman. The first two named are her attorneys and Stephens is her father. The bond was made following the formalities of motion for a new trial and an appeal taken when the court over-ruled the motion. The jury found her guilty of murder with malice and set the penalty at five years penal servitude.

One day last week disabilities of a minor were removed for Doyle Pool, son of J. B. Pool, of north Floyd County.

In exparte Charmaine Merrell, seven year old daughter of Mary

A. Merrell and I. D. Merrell, the mother was given the care and custody of the child. The mother is a resident of the east part of Floyd County and the father lives in Parmer County.

Several cases are being continued to the next term of court which it will not be possible to reach this term. Among these is that of Claude Davis, charged with assault to murder and possessing and concealing stolen property. Davis is in the Floyd County jail in default of bond at this time. He expects to establish an alibi when the case is called for trial.

Commissioners Urged To Aid Sheriff All Possible Financially

Grand Jury Takes Final Adjournment Wednesday, Say Laws Well Enforced.

The grand jury for Floyd County in their final report to Judge Kenneth Bain of the 110th Judicial District late yesterday afternoon asking that they be dismissed, praised the work of the officers of the county, and particularly commended the work of the new sheriff and his deputies for their untiring efforts to enforce the law, called upon all good citizens of the county to co-operate with the sheriff and entered a plea with the Commissioners' Court that they give this officer all possible assistance financially "so far as the court can do so wisely and without harm to the county's finances."

The grand jury, their report indicated, had been in session seven days during the five-week term of the court. During their deliberations they had returned eight felony and five misdemeanor indictments.

Laws Well Enforced

"We wish to report (the statement to the presiding judge said) that the laws of the county are being well enforced in Floyd County and we commend the law enforcement officers for this fact. We believe that if the people of the county will support our officers in this matter we will have a better county in which to live and rear our families."

That portion of the report of the grand jury, dealing with the financial and moral support asked for the sheriff's department is as follows:

"We respectfully urge all good citizens of the county to co-operate with your sheriff and assist him in every way in order that he may discharge the duties of his office to the best interests of the people. Due to the fact that Mr. Randerson is new on the job and seems to be very eager to serve the best interest of his county we are sure that every good and law-abiding citizen will stand by him in every way possible and encourage him in his every effort to fulfill the obligations of his important office. We also urge the Floyd County Commissioners' Court to assist Mr. Randerson financially in the affairs of his office so far as this court can do so wisely and without harm to the county's finances. We feel that it is very important that our laws be enforced and even though this service may be expensive we think it is necessary for the welfare of our people and we urge the court to do all within its power to help in this cause so far as the financial ability of the county and your good judgment will permit."

SEED OF BLACK LOCUST FOOD FOR GAME BIRDS

The many-purpose black locust tree, which has been widely planted in this country, is especially valuable as a producer of winter food for game birds. Its seeds are sought in bad weather by the bobwhite, the Hungarian partridge and the pheasants, especially in the Northwest, reports the United States Department of Agriculture. The seeds are rated as one of the more valuable foods for bobwhite, Ruffed grouse, California quail, mourning doves in the West, and several of the larger nongame birds of the East also eat them.

Besides furnishing food for game birds, the black locust tree yields timber for the farmer and nectar for the honey bee. It grows rapidly to post, pole, and timber size. Its intricate root system is well adapted for holding soil and checking erosion. As a member of the legume family, the locust tree fixes nitrogen, enriching the soil.

With these several points in its favor black locust is one of the favorites for planting woodlands.

groves, eroded areas and odd pieces of waste land about the farm. On account of the presence of harmful insects in certain localities, it is advisable to consult with State forestry agencies before planting on a large scale.

serve a definite and useful purpose, according to W. G. Campbell, Chief of the Federal Food and Drug Administration. In 26 years of food and drug law enforcement, the administration has taken action against innumerable products falsely and fraudulently labeled with curative claims for ailments for which there is no known drug treatment.

In determining whether curative claims are true or false, the administration is guided by the consensus of current medical and dental opinion as to the therapeutic effectiveness of the ingredients in the product. Drugs and medicines labeled with false and fraudulent claims for the cure or prevention of disease are misbranded under the national pure food and drug law. Disease for which unwarranted label claims have been made include tuberculosis, cancer, syphilis, diabetes, rheumatism, heart disease, epilepsy, pneumonia, gallstones, anemia, acidosis, and pyorrhea.

"While misbranded products, which require constant activity on the part of the Food and Drug Administration, still appear in interstate trade, seriously mislabeled articles are far less frequently found today than they were some years ago," says Campbell. "Some patent medicines while being truthfully labeled, and advertised with extravagant therapeutic claims which they could not make good.

"Officials of the administration have no control over advertising of foods and drugs in newspapers, magazines by radio or other media. The prospective buyer will profit by comparing the wording of such conservative and accurate statements upon the labels of the medicines themselves."

CHRISTMAS TREES

Christmas trees cut in the national forests this year will carry red tags certifying that they were cut without detriment to the timber stands, and in line with careful thinning practice and good forest management.

Sales and cutting are under supervision of the United States Forest Service, and the trees come from thick stands for which some thinning is desirable.

By far the larger portion of the annual supply of Christmas trees, however, is cut from privately owned lands. Farmers in some States have formed local organizations to standardize their product, to obtain orders before cutting the trees, and to promote care in cutting, so as to get annual crops.

FARM TAXES

A survey of 4,000 farms shows that farm real-estate taxes in the New England States increased 150 per cent between 1913 and 1930, or from 41 cents an acre in 1913 to $1.03 an acre in 1930, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Taxes in the West North Central States increased 151 per cent in the same period, and in the East North Central States 140 per cent.

Lesson Comment

It is doubtful at any time in our history the problem of making a living has been more acute than now. Many are unemployed, and many more find poor markets for their products. Business failures are numerous. The way seems dark for employers and employees. The application of the truths of this lesson are greatly needed for our present situation. The black spot found in the study of this lesson is due to unfaithfulness on the part of one who had an opportunity but failed to wisely use it. And we are of the opinion that our troubles today may be located in our unfaithfulness to the principles that make possible a safe and happy people.

We are now to study a few lessons on Christian Stewardship, the first of which is called, Making a Living. Most of us are vitally interested in this subject, for in these times which we are pleased, or displeased, to term "depression," we find it difficult to make a living. Men who are capable and willing, find themselves strangely out of work. Often, whether we like it or not, we are forced to accept assistance from our more fortunate friends.

Our first Scripture for this lesson is taken from the prophet Amos. Amos was a farmer-prophet who cared for sheep and dressed sycamore trees to improve their fruit. He knew the life of the working man; knew how he was oppressed by the rich, and his sympathy was with him. Because he knew these things and because he was a willing servant of the Lord, God sent him from his home in the Southern Kingdom to preach to the people in the Northern Kingdom who were so guilty of oppressing the poor. His task was a thankless one; the people to whom he preached told him to go back to his own people and talk to them. He was a rude commander, and they were the aristocrats of all Israel; they would have none of his advice or prophecies. But his message was God-given and he delivered it, and because that same message is still a living message—because every message from God to sinning men recorded in his Word is for you and me—we are studying a portion of it just now.

Men who oppress the poor, often find themselves one of the poor. They who have dealt dishonestly in weights and measures, those who have taken money from the poor unjustly and have built for themselves houses of hewn stone, have not always been able to live in them. Wealth is the most unstable thing in all the world. Men have fallen asleep at night with a huge bank account, only to awaken on the morrow to find themselves paupers. One cannot depend on wealth; one cannot depend on anything but God, and we are so slow to take him at his word and place our lives, our wealth, our all in his care.

The banks of heaven insure your soul and the streets of glory far exceed Wall Street in wealth and safety; bank your happiness and your wealth there.

A Farmer's Life

"As He Lives It" BY ED HOLMES (Station C. E. H. Farm)

The day before election there was a lot of Republican blue smoke came blowing from the north. It got so bad that almost all of the boll pullers in this section quit their respective patches and got in the house for protection. It continued worse and worse until early on election morning, their cold air (their hot air has lost its strength) even made the water get stiff! Old Sol warmed things up pretty soon and the people turned out later in the day and for this or some other reason gave most of the Republican candidates a good scratching.

All green crops that cannot stand a real frost gave up the ghost on November 8. Just one month and three days after the first light frost.

Sand Hill box went 37 votes for Bullington and 25 for Ma. Of course the entire state reversed this decision but we will have just as good a governor as anybody. After all we had just as soon have Ma for governor as a Ton-a-bull. I men Bull-ing-ton (what is the difference? There is nothing in a name).

It is always open season for Black leg. Better watch out! I didn't vaccinate this year and thought I was getting by cheaper. Two of my calves failed to come up with the bunch the other day so I went down in the field and found them about ten feet apart. Very dead. They were about 7 months old and in fine shape. One was a heifer, subject to register and the other was a steer calf about ready to kill for tender steak etc. I vaccinated the others at a cost of 10c per head and they all seem to be Ok. It is fine to cut expenses but don't cut your throat as I did. Gule Snodgrass lost four calves, then vaccinated the other five and saved them. Others have reported their calves are dying. One of our drug store owns eight needles for that work but they were all loaned out when I was ready to vaccinate. Can you take a chance on missing that fat calf this winter for a dime? Better watch out.

I want to say a word right here for the Extension Loan Library, Austin, Texas. If you will pay the postage both ways on sample play books, just write them what kind of a character you wish to give, how many characters, etc., and they will send you four or five sample play books, you can look them over for about a week and send them back to the Library. If you like any of the plays, you can order the books direct from the company that publishes them. If you don't like any of the sample play books, order another set. This is the best way to get a good play for your club at the least expense. This is the way we got hold of "Sound Your Horn" last year and this year we have read two sets of books from the Extension Loan Library and I think we have decided on, "The Attorney for the Defense" as our first play to present this year. They will be glad to accommodate you and it will be worth a lot to your club.

We had a good singing at Sand Hill last Sunday evening. Some seemed to think that almost all of the quartettes arranged were "Family" quartettes, much to the embarrassment of two that I could name.

WONDERS BELOW NEW YORK STREETS

Like the veins, arteries, nerves, and tubes of the human body, the underground pipes, wires, tunnels, conduits, and ducts that keep New York functioning spread in a bewildering maze below the pavements. Here is New York's real underworld, a problem not for the police, but for an army of engineers upon whose ingenuity and vigilance depend the comfort and safety of 7,000,000 people.

As an example of this ingenuity, consider the safeguards surrounding the flow of electric current for light and power, without which it would be impossible to have illumination, run elevators, subways, street cars, telephone circuits, and the machines in the city's thousands of factories, writes John Chapman Hilder in Popular Science Monthly.

Precautions taken to protect Manhattan against a lack of electricity include four great generation stations, located in different parts of the city, that send high-voltage current, via underground feeder cables, to thirty-odd substations, which distribute it, in reduced voltage, to street mains in their district.

Practically every inch of cable and wire in this huge transmission and distributing system is carried underground through ducts owned by a private corporation and rented to the utility companies. Access to these ducts is obtained through manholes at the street corners, new cable being drawn in at one end of the block as old cable is drawn out at the other end.

On take the telephone service. In the late nineties, telephone wires were still carried on poles. Today, all but a small percentage of them in Manhattan are underground. There is plenty of it, as you can imagine on realizing that New York City uses 1,800,000 telephones, exclusive of 25,000 private line telephones. This is more than one and one-half times the total used in France, more than three times the total in South America, and more than nine-tenths of the number in the British Isles.

The average daily traffic originating in the city's telephones in 1930 was 8,181,117 calls an average of ninety-five each second. To handle this huge volume of talk there are in New York City 9,400,000 miles of exchange and toll wire, which would stretch about 375 times around the world, enough to string thirty-nine wires from the earth to the moon.

That is a lot of wire, and only ceaseless research in the field of cable development has made it possible to compress it into the scant space available beneath the New York streets. One cable now in use, developed only four years ago, contains within a sheath only two and five-eighths inches in diameter, 3,636 individual wires. To support the contents of just one such cable overhead, as in the old days, would require thirteen poles, each with twenty-eight cross arms, each cross arm carrying ten wires.

As for the subways, when the mileage now under construction is completed, the city will have approximately 1,075 running track miles—exclusive of yard and side tracks—more than the distance between New York and Chicago.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends and neighbors and to each one who contributed in any way to help us in the illness and death of our dear husband and father, we extend our sincere thanks. Mrs. W. L. Boerner and family.

Benton Moreman, of South Plains spent Sunday here with his brother, Leck Moreman, and Mrs. Moreman. Mr. and Mrs. Moreman and son, Norris Lee, moved here recently from Corpus Christi. He is a ginner at the Lon Davis Gin.

Whirlwinds Register Second Conference Victory Friday; Flog Bullfighters 15 to 0

Bridges of F. H. S. Is Outstanding Star; Backfield Ace Runs 85 Yards for Touchdown.

Unleashing a superior power driving attack that never once diminished in its intensity, the Green and White Whirlwinds of Floydada High School hoisted a 15-0 victory sign over the Purple and Gold Bullfighters of Matador High School on Burleson Field at Matador Friday afternoon.

It was a day for big Malcolm Bridges. He played the best game of his gridiron career and his teammates cooperated to make possible a sensational 85-yard run that resulted in a touchdown from an intercepted pass. Snipers on the field of battle could not have taken the opposition out of his way more effectively than did the Whirlwind warriors with their perfect blocking when the "Gallop-in Cyclone" tucked the pigskin under his arm and tore out for Dickens City in the prettiest broken field run of the season. He scored both Whirlwind touchdowns, the first on a line play.

Down-right, good, old-fashioned football was dished out in plentiful helpings for over 1,000 fans who saw the game Friday. It was a heart-breaking defeat for the loyal Matador boosters who were backing to the limit the best team their high school has ever produced. The Purple and Gold played a game of which their school and town can justly feel proud but the Whirlwinds were just not to be denied, that was all.

The victory Friday was the second in as many conference starts this season for the Whirlwinds and it sent their signal high on the horizon of all class B teams in District 2 that Floydada is going to call for a lot of consideration when it comes to placing the district crown again this year.

To start the game Captain Crowell of the Bullfighters won the toss and chose the north goal. Captain Murray selected to receive at the south goal. Big Murray took the kick-off on his own 10-yard line and returned to the 30-yard stripe before he was brought down. Heald ran it out of bounds and then failed to gain in a try at the line on the next play.

Big Murray hit left tackle and piked up two yards. F. Murray punted 30 yards on the next play and then a see-saw started between the two teams with neither making much headway.

In an exchange of punts Floydada took the ball on the 50 yard line and with F. Murray, Heald and Bridges carrying the ball, marched to the Matador 35-yard line. On the fourth down a perfect pass from F. Murray to Jenkins was incomplete. Jenkins having been blocked out as he went down for the pass and looked up too late to see the ball that fell almost in his arms.

First Quarter Scoreless
The first quarter ended with the ball in Floydada's possession on their own 31-yard stripe after Matador had punted out of danger. On the first play in the second frame, F. Murray slipped his toe under the oval and sent it 70 yards over the goal line in one of the smartest plays of the game and what eventually resulted in Floydada's first touchdown.

The Bullfighters made 5 yards on a line play and an end run and then punted 30 yards to F. Murray who returned 4 yards. On the next play he punted over the goal line again and it was Matador's ball on their own 20-yard line.

Matador penalized 5 yards for off-side and after Fullback Hutto made back the 5 yards at the center of the line, he punted to F. Murray on his own 40-yard line. Murray brought it back to the 30 with a beautiful 30-yard return. He then added 5 yards at the center of the line on a fake. Bridges failed to gain on a lateral pass, and Heald tore loose through left tackle for 13 yards and a first down on Matador's 12-yard line.

Too many time-outs cost the Bullfighters five precious yards and then Heald piked up a yard at left tackle, making it a first down on the next play with a yard to go for a touchdown.

Bridges Makes Counter
Bridges was called back and hit right tackle for the score. A perfect kick from placement added the extra point, making it 7-0 for the Whirlwinds late in the second quarter.

Following the touchdown, Matador had to kick off twice, each time the ball going out of bounds and on the last attempt Floydada was off-side and Matador took the penalty and it was Floydada's ball on their own 30-yard line. Murray punted out and after a series of line plays; Hutto punted back. On a second punt exchange Hutto was able to get only 16 yards and it was Floydada's ball on Matador's 43. Murray punted to Campbell who was downed on his own 10-yard line.

Then came an unusual play. Patton at center for Matador misunderstood the signals and his pass was good but not a Bullfighter was near to receive the ball and it rolled over the Matador goal line to be covered promptly by Johnston and Heald for a safety of two points for the Whirlwinds. Score, Floydada 9, Matador 0.

Hutto kicked to deCordova for Floydada on the play following the safety and he took it from the 50 to the 38-yard line before he was stopped. A lateral pass from Heald to Bridges netted 9 yards as the half ended with the ball in Floydada's possession on the Bullfighter's 35-yard line. Score, Floydada 9, Matador 0.

Green Peppers Perform

Between halves the Green Peppers marched on the field and in a clever little stunt imitated the Whirlwind team in action, making substantial "gains" without opposition.

The Matador high school girls in their attractive gold jerseys and purple skirts formed an "M" and gave a series of yells. Willie Sue George, Jerry Tudor and Winifred Estes were the leaders of the Matador pep squad. Little Norman Pitts, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Pitts, former residents of Floydada, was mascot for the group. Dressed as a matador with his black sailor-type hat, nevertheless, he marched right along with the girls.

Floydada kicked off from the north to open the second half. Murray and Hutto exchanged courtesies via the punt route and H. Burnam got away for a 30-yard run and left it on the Floydada 30-yard line. Then it was that Bridges, standing on his own 15-yard line, grabbed a Matador pass and started on a long journey to the southland. He weaved in and out for his defense and those Whirlwinds certainly were on the line in helping him perform. He raced 85 yards for touchdown Number 2 for the Whirlwinds. F. Murray's placement was no good and the score was Floydada 15, Matador 0.

That ended the scoring and the last quarter found the teams fighting tooth and toenail, mostly in mid-field. F. Murray intercepted another Matador pass early in the frame and ran 25 yards to the Matador 38-yard stripe before he was brought down, but a 15-yard penalty for holding erased the Green and White scoring threat.

The game ended as F. Murray took the ball to his own 30-yard line through right tackle.

It was a great day for the line men, deCordova, Johnston, Jackson, Jenkins, and Smith did some A-1 work on tackling for F. H. S. Bridges, Heald and F. Murray were the stellar performers in the backfield. Little Murray called a heady game and boy! how he did punt. Glover did some good blocking during the quarter that he worked in the backfield. Big Murray showed great improvement and had a great day Friday on the defense. Not a bobbie did Ginn make at center and that boy Henry is turning into a line demon. He threw Bullfighters in more directions than the proverbial farmer can go to town.

Captain Crowell at right tackle was the outstanding line star for the Bullfighters. He played a wonderful game. H. Burnam and J. S. Burnam in the backfield turned out to be as fast and as shifty as advance dope said they would be Friday. They are two nifty ball toters.

Copper Suit

Los Angeles—A strange new use has been found for copper. At a Rotary Club meeting today, Frances Youloff wore a copper bathing suit, waterproof, durable and inexpensive in contrast to the old use for copper metal, in the construction of stills. P. G. Spillbury of Phoenix, Arizona, the representative of the copper mining industry of the state, wore a suit made of copper to prove that the metal has many uses not now taken advantage of. The suit is absolutely waterproof, light, durable, and has proved very practical. Photo shows: Frances Youloff wearing a copper bathing suit, and P. G. Spillbury wearing a copper suit to demonstrate the many uses for the metal.

Breezes And Lubbock Jr., Hi Tie 6 To 6

The Breezes, doughty gridiron warriors of the Andrews Ward School, Floydada, were able to tie the Lubbock Junior High squad at Lubbock last Thursday afternoon in their second scheduled game of the season, but had to be satisfied with this, being unable to push over the extra point that would have given them the game. As it was the score of the game was 6 and 6.

Floydada's touchdown came at the beginning of the second quarter. With the ball on the twenty-five yard line Linder passed to Connelly who ran eighteen yards for a touchdown behind some nice blocking by Rutledge.

Lubbock scored at the beginning of the fourth quarter. A twenty yard pass and a nice run placed the ball on the eight yard line where they bucked it over on the third try.

One of the features of the game came late in the second quarter when Lubbock after a successful pass and reverse play placed the ball on the five yard line, the Breezes tightened and held for four downs. On the last try the ball rested on the edge of the goal line. Some outstanding work was done by Linder whose exceptional punting kept the ball constantly in Lubbock territory.

The game was hard fought and both teams were about evenly matched. First downs and yards gained from scrimmage were about even, however Lubbock had the edge on the number of passes completed.

Starting line-up for the Breezes: le Smith, lt Howard, lg Baker, c Eudy, rg Jones rt Montgomery, re Johnston, q Linder back Rutledge and Hollingsworth, Connelley captain and fullback. Substitutes used were Bishop, Allen and Harmon.

JOHN EDWARDS, BAYLOR BEAR CO-CAPTAIN, WILL PLAY AT LUBBOCK FRIDAY
John Edwards, of Waco, former whirlwind gridiron star, brother of Mrs. G. R. May, of this city and Earl Edwards, of Lakeview community, will be seen in action with the Baylor Bears next Friday when the Southwest Conference eleven meets the Texas Tech Matadors.

Following the 0-0 tie between Baylor University and A. & M. College, John was elected co-captain of the team. Reeves, halfback, is the other captain.

John, who is popularly known to his teammates as "Honest John," is holding down the regular center position and is a three-year man on the squad. His picture has appeared a number of times in The Daily Lariat, student newspaper published at Waco.

Sports scribes have been praising his work this year and he has been mentioned a likely prospect for the All-Southwestern Conference eleven. One of the sports writers had the following to say about Edwards following the A. & M. game. "The veteran center on the Baylor Bear team this year, John Edwards, deserves much credit for his fine game against the A. & M. Farmers. John elected one of the co-captains of the team following the tilt, put up one of the bravest and greatest fights since he has been playing in a Green and Gold uniform. The fact is, he is now being boosted for an all-conference berth."

Red Cross Faces Busy Winter; Seek Support

Approaching Membership Campaign In Floyd County Offers Opportunity to Aid.

With a realization of the increased responsibilities of the American Red Cross in the last year and the knowledge that the organization is facing its busiest winter since World War days, local leaders are taking an unusually active part in the approaching membership campaign. According to Red Cross chapter officials here, the annual Roll Call will be conducted between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11-24.

Mrs. Geo. A. Linder, who will direct the Roll Call this year has issued a statement emphasizing the importance of the community's support to the Red Cross during the enrollment period. The statement follows:

"This year the economic emergency lends special importance to the annual Roll Call, or membership campaign of the American Red Cross.

"The Red Cross is the recognized relief agency throughout the nation. It is chartered by Congress, headed by the President of the United States, and accorded the cooperation of the Federal government. In the unemployment crisis it has borne a great relief responsibility. It has been the authorized medium for distribution of wheat and cotton to those in need of flour and clothing. Its volunteers have been unstinting in devotion to the task of collecting and distributing supplies, and in production of finished goods from materials. Hundreds of thousands of gardens have been planted from Red Cross seed. In 2,200 communities Red Cross Chapters have participated in unemployment relief work.

"To unemployment have been added 95 Disasters calling for Red Cross assistance in the period of one year. Drought in the Northwest, tornadoes in the Southeast, floods in the central South and a variety of other catastrophes have entailed mighty burdens on the organization.

"Our debt of gratitude is great. Our present and prospective dependence is impressive. Everyone who is able to take out membership, as a good citizen and a patriot, should do so."

Legion Supported Drive

Among the many agencies which are contributing their influence toward a full and effective drive for support for the Red Cross this year is the American Legion. Louis A. Johnson, national commander of the organization, has given out a statement in which he makes appeal that Legionnaires everywhere respond to the call. He says:

"In hundreds of communities the American Legion and the Red Cross have cooperated in the past year in reaching the army of unemployed and needy. This fine cooperation has been a cause of gratification to the American Legion. The annual Roll Call of the Red Cross during the Thanksgiving Day and until Thanksgiving, will be a fine opportunity to contribute funds for continuation of the work of the Red Cross. May we have good Legionnaires everywhere to assist local chapters of the Red Cross in this annual Roll Call. What thereafter Legionnaires do for the Red Cross continues helping the Red Cross in its relief work. The need for mutual helpfulness this year is greater than ever before."

PERSONAL EFFECTS TAKEN WHEN BURGLARS ENTER HOME OF E. E. HINSON

A burglar or burglars sometime between 10:30 Saturday night and 3 o'clock the following morning, took two watches, over $2 in money, clothing and other personal effects of E. E. Hinson and his father, I. N. Hinson in south Floydada.

No clues to indicate whether one or more burglars made the haul, were found in the home or close therabouts, E. E. Hinson said. The most valuable thing of his taken was a leather work coat. "I'm going to have to be in the market mighty soon, if Mr. Burglar doesn't return it," he said.

The burglars had to pass through a hall and through the bedroom of both Mr. Hinson and his father to get their clothing. The elder Hinson is a light sleeper and was awake from 3 o'clock in the morning.

E. E. Hinson came in home from his work at 10:30 at night, having been on duty at the Radio Electric Company until that time, and they thus limit the time in which the burglary could have been effected.

REAL COTTON PULLERS

While the weather, including especially the damp mornings, have been unfavorable to hanging up any big records in cotton pulling in this section, several instances of good work, especially among the youngsters, are being brought to attention. Among these is that of the four Moreau children of this city, who have been in the cotton fields since work first began. They are Katie 14, Dallas 11, Rachel 9 and Iva Lee 8.

Thursday of last week in the L. A. McKelvey field 5 miles northeast Katie pulled 1016 pounds of cotton, Dallas 945 pounds, Rachel 698 and Iva Lee 413, which is very considerably more than enough bolls to make a bale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scoggin and daughter, Charlotte Ray, of Lubbock were guests last Thursday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dickey.

Mrs. Marvin Gilbert of Tulsa spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stovall. Mrs. Walter Reed of Lockney accompanied her, returning home Monday afternoon.

Citizenry Warned Against Undesirable Element That Has Been Run From Lubbock

Lubbock County Attorney Says "Undesirables" Have Migrated To Neighbor Cities.

A warning to citizens of cities and towns of the south plains that the undesirable and criminal class, against whom public indignation has been so highly aroused at Lubbock as to force them to migrate from that place, are moving to other centers of population in this section, is given in a letter last week to the press in a radius of 75 miles of Lubbock by Vaughn E. Wilson, County Attorney of Lubbock County.

In the letter addressed to The Hesperian, Mr. Wilson gives the reason or the necessity of this warning to the citizens themselves, so they will be aroused to the need for thorough co-operation with their officials. The letter in full says:

"Following the general movement started in Lubbock several days ago against the criminal and undesirable element which has infested Lubbock and its immediate vicinity for some time, we have noticed that the absence in Lubbock of this class of persons is conspicuous to those of us who constantly come in contact with them. This movement was necessary in this locality because of the increase of unconscionable crimes committed in this section. The public has been aroused by this crime wave and the officers are receiving the cooperation of law abiding people in this movement because they realize that citizenship imposes upon them this duty, and such movement is for public protection.

"I have been informed from several sources that this element has migrated to smaller towns on the south plains and I feel it is my duty to call your attention to that fact in order that thru your publication you may make it publicly known that the public itself is behind this movement and that the peace officers are being backed in any reasonable step they may take in order to rid your community of this very undesirable element.

"And, I am writing this letter to every newspaper within a radius of 75 miles of Lubbock in the hope that you will use the means which you have and which the public relies upon, your publication, to assist and give the officers in your section the moral support to which they are entitled. You realize that no group of officers can absolutely prevent the commission of crime but with renewed public backing stimulated thru your paper, I feel that your officers will take added interest in keeping these undesirables on the move and ultimately ride the south plains country of their presence."

Luck

There is such a thing as luck, a thing that we often call chance. It may chance that you take the turning instead of the first, and so meet one who becomes your best friend; or that you forget your first, and so lose a train which is wrecked. But these things do not make up the most of human life. The really lucky thing is to be wise and healthy, and do your duty.

A modern wise man was once asked if he believed in luck. Here is his answer: "Do I believe in luck? I should say I do! It's a wonderful force! I have watched the successful careers of too many lucky men to doubt its existence and efficacy. You see some fellow reach out and grab an opportunity that the other fellows standing around had not realized was there. Having grabbed it, he hangs onto it with a grip that makes the jaws of a bulldog seem a fairly touch. He calls into play his breadth of vision. He sees the possibilities of the situation, and has the ambition to tackle them, and the courage to desire them. He intensifies his strong points, bolsters his weak ones, cultivates those personal qualities that cause other men to trust him and to cooperate with him. He sows the seeds of sunshine, of good cheer, of optimism, of unstinted kindness. He gives freely of what he has, both spiritual and physical things. He thinks a little straighter works a little harder and a little longer; travels on his nerves and his enthusiasm; he gives such service as his best efforts permit. Keeps his head cool, his feet warm, his mind busy. He doesn't worry over trifles.

Plans his work ahead, then sticks to it rain or shine. He sticks and talks and acts like a winner, for he knows in time he will be over and then luck does all the rest.

The man who falls in the world is the man who believes in luck and is always complaining of his own bad luck. He is right if by bad luck he means that he will not work, keep his word, or stop drinking. It is ourselves that our fate depends upon more than any thing else.

She had little time for pleasure. She tied herself up in a knot of household duties—but no one cared.

Today she's tired and lonely. She wishes she had more friends. She realizes she made a martyr of herself—but who cares?

Electrical service applied to the Household duties will save time for things worthwhile at a most economical cost.

AMON G. CARTER, President

Judge Henry Dies—

Old-time friends from various parts of the section were present for the funeral, as well as many residents of the city. District Court, in its last week of the fall term, was dismissed at 2 o'clock for the funeral. Judge Bain and members of the bar formally adjourning out of respect for the former judge of the county.

A resident of Floyd County for thirty years, the deceased had seen many changes in the business and social life of the county, and had served the city and county in various capacities. Moving here with his family in 1902, he was chosen as county judge in 1906 and served in that capacity until 1912. In 1914 he was appointed postmaster of Floydada, serving in this capacity for nine years. He was later honored with the office of mayor of the City of Floydada, in which capacity he served until 1927. His natural bent of being interested in the people about him and his long service as a public official gave him one of the widest acquaintanceships of anyone resident of the community.

For two or more years his health had been declining. In the spring of this year he was ill for several weeks. Win Will Cinch Title in Quadrant For F.H.S.

The Green and White war-can lay claim to the district crown.

Lockney Has Weak Record
Lockney lost this year 59 to 0 to the Matador team which tasted a 15-0 defeat last Friday at the hands of the rampaging Whirlwinds, so on paper that makes Floydada 64 points stronger than the Longhorns. But looking at it another way, the Longhorns held Paducah scoreless until the last quarter and the Dragons won, 18 to 0. F. H. S. downed Paducah 27 to 0, so that would give the Whirlwinds 45 points as a comparison.

The Longhorns will be out to avenge a terrible drubbing of 87 to 0 handed them last year on the local field, and that fact will be an important factor tomorrow.

Bybee and Broyles are the backfield stars on the Longhorn roster and they will paw up dust and match tricks with P. Murray, Head, and Bridges, the backfield aces for the Green and White.

All in all, the holiday crowd tomorrow should see an interesting exhibition of football.

If Floydada wins Friday's game at Lockney the Whirlwinds will meet the winner of the northwest quadrant in District 2 for the right to go into the district finals with the winner of the south half of the district.

Admission to the game will be 25 and 35 cents.

Bullfighter Reserves Beat F. H. S. 'B', 21-0

Glover Is Star for Green and White; Linder's Long Punts Are Feature.

Too much Wedeman—that's a brief resume of how the reserves of the Whirlwinds took a 21 to 0 walloping Wednesday afternoon at the hands of the reserves from Matador High School. The plunging fullback from down under the Caprock actually tore the defenders to shreds on the Whirlwind Field before a fair crowd of fans.

It was quite a mixed up affair insofar as the line-ups were concerned, the main thing of interest to local fans being the fact that several of next year's prospects were in the melee and right good accounts they gave of themselves. Coach Dick Stovall directed the play for the Floydada reserves, three men from his Andrews Ward Little Brecces eleven, Linder, Hollingsworth and Eudy, having participated.

Wedeman, the thorn in the side of the Whirlwind B team, was looming as the prospective comet this year of the first string Bullfighter eleven at Matador but he was ruled ineligible by Interscholastic League authorities. He was permitted to play, however, Wednesday since the game had no league rating and does not affect the standing of either the Floydada or Matador teams. Go-lightly who is ineligible this year for the Whirlwind squad was permitted to play for Floydada.

Outstanding in the play was the stellar work by Glover for Floydada. He was declared the individual star of the game for the locals and proved to the coaches that he could do something on a football field besides block—he did some first-class ball toting. Cothorn at quarter for the Whirlwind B eleven showed up well and was a consistent ground gainer. Eudy's work in the line for the Green and White looked mighty good to the fans. He is one of the prospects for the regular eleven next year and he showed plenty of promise yesterday.

Linder Gets 37 Yards
It was a real battle and every inch of ground was bitterly contested. Floydada's reserves fought valiantly—you can tell the world. Linder's sensational punting was a feature of the game. He averaged 37 yards on 7 punts and he worked like a veteran.

Line plays featured the Matador attack, all three scores being registered via that famous Bullfighter end run. Robinson, Wedeman and Burleson each made a touchdown. Wedeman hit the line for two of the extra points and Robinson made the third by the same route.

Game summaries—First downs, Matador 11, Floydada 8.
Punts—Floydada 7 times, average 37 yards; Matador 5 times, average 23 yards.

Fumbles—Floydada 2, Matador 1.
Passes—Floydada completed 2 for 14 yards; Matador completed 1 for 22 yards.

Penalties—Floydada 4 times for 30 yards; Matador 4 times for 20 yards.
Scrimmage—Floydada gained 110, lost 17; Matador gained 266, lost 26.
Starting line-ups: Floydada. Beard and Gollightly, ends; Hoffman and Bishop, tackles; Salsbury and Powell, guards; Eudy, center; Glover and Henderson, halfbacks; Linder, full; Cothorn, quarter.

Matador. Groves and Edmondson, ends; Parks and Bourland, tackles; Kennedy and Jenkins, guards; Campbell, center; Pipkin and Robinson, halfbacks; Wedeman, full; Burleson, quarter.

Substitutions for Floydada—Johnston for Beard at left end; Henderson for Salsbury at left guard; Olson for Powell at right guard; Hollingsworth for Henderson at half.
Officials: Wester, referee; McDonald, umpire, and Daily, headlinesman.

Floydada is scheduled to go to Matador next week for a return engagement.
In yesterday's game Hollingsworth suffered an injured leg, Salsbury a cracked collar bone and a dislocated collar bone, and Bishop has his hand injured, all three men on the Floydada eleven.

1,500 Head Turkeys Sold On This Market

With only two days left for the Thanksgiving market, about 1,500 head of turkeys had been sold last night here, dealers estimated. Turkey raisers are extremely busy in their fields and have been awaiting developments, apparently.

A top price of 10 cents per pound was being paid here this morning for No. 1 birds.

BLOOD SPOTS IN EGGS

A small blood spot in an egg does not indicate that the egg is stale or bad, says the United States Department of Agriculture, in response to frequent inquiries. Blood spots are found occasionally in fresh eggs although this imperfection seldom occurs in the best grades of eggs that are candled and sold on the markets. Eggs from farm flocks are not so likely to contain blood spots as those from commercial flocks that are fed for maximum production.

The seasons when blood spots are most likely to occur are late spring when the hens are laying heavily and in the fall when the pullets begin to lay. Poultrymen who desire to remove all questionable eggs from those marked should candle their entire production and use such eggs at home. Less forcing for egg production and liberal feeding of green feed will tend to reduce the formation of blood spots in eggs.

Mercury Dips To 30 Degrees; Low Mark On Tuesday

Low ebb on the thermometer this winter was registered from 7:30 to 8 o'clock Tuesday morning of this week following a high wind and stiff "norther" which blew a gale most of the day Monday. The readings taken from the West Texas Gas Company office recordings showed that the mercury dropped to 30 degrees, the lowest of the winter.

The previous low mark was in the early part of October, when the temperature dropped to 33 degrees.

Wednesday morning from 6 to 7 o'clock the thermometer registered 32 degrees.

This morning the low was 35.5 degrees between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

High mark for the week was reached Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock when the reading was 78 degrees.

Fair weather has prevailed during the past week, and the skies have been clear.

Burial Services Held For J. D. Wilkinson

Burial rites for Jefferson Davis Wilkinson, 71, Floyd County farmer, who died at 1:10 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home and one half miles southeast of Floydada from double pneumonia, were held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Services were held from the Wall Street Church of Christ with Elder J. J. Day officiating.

Mr. Wilkinson had been ill only eight days. Interment was made in the Floydada cemetery with Lee Mayhew of the F. C. Harmon Undertaking Company in charge.

Deceased was born in Washington County, Texas, May 25, 1861. He was reared in Lee County and from there moved to Coleman County where he resided 28 years. He was engaged in the mercantile business at Coleman for 7 years. He took an active lead in community building, helping with the elections and was always a faithful church worker. His wife died in 1912 and was buried at Coleman.

He moved with his children to Bosque County and resided there 7 years, moving to Floyd County in 1926 with his son, W. M. Wilkinson, and family, where he had since resided.

Surviving are five daughters and three sons all of whom were present at the time of death: Mrs. Bert Smith, of Amarillo; Mrs. J. W. Boyle, of Plainview, and Myrtle, Alta and Brady Lee, residing at the home place; T. B. Wilkinson, who lives four miles east of town; W. W. Wilkinson, four miles south of Floydada, and S. H. Wilkinson, of Amarillo.

There are two surviving brothers, Sam Wilkinson and John Wilkinson, of Cameron, Texas, and one sister, Mrs. B. E. Hinsley, of Corpus Christi. One brother, Port Wilkinson, is buried at Cameron.

Bert Smith, of Amarillo, a son-in-law of the deceased, was also here for the services.

Flower bearers for the funeral were as follows: Mrs. Roy Curry, Mrs. K. A. Osburn, Mrs. Ed Moore, and Mrs. Ed Dunavant.
Active pallbearers were as follows: H. D. Shipley, W. A. Cates, John Huey, Floyd Fuqua, Wilbur Nelson, and Charlie Battey.

TESTS MEASURE EFFECT OF WEATHER ON COTTON

Exposure of cotton in the field after the boll first open rapidly lowers its grade, the United States Department of Agriculture has found after a series of color tests.

Although every cotton farmer knows that exposure lowers the grade of unpicked cotton, these tests indicate just how rapidly this lowering of grade takes place.

Newly opened bolls were tagged in a South Carolina cotton field. Cotton was picked from some each day for a long period and tested for change in color. During the first two weeks all samples picked graded strict good or good middling white or spotted. The last sample to grade in the white grades was picked on the eighteenth day after tagging. From that time on the samples graded progressively through good middling spotted, good middling gray, strict middling spotted, strict middling blue, strict low, and low middling spotted, and finally became so low in color that they could not be graded at all by the official color standards.

NEW NAIL

A new kind of nail, which holds boxes together at the joints much better than ordinary nails, has been invented by the Forest Products Laboratory of the United States Forest Service. Chemical treatment causes minute pitting of the nails, resulting in high frictional contact of its surfaces with the wood fibres. Nails treated in this way are two to three times stronger in holding power than untreated nails, and the pitted surfaces do not rub off as does a cement coating.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arwine and sons, Joe and Gene, Mrs. A. S. Hollingsworth and Mrs. W. A. Shaw left Wednesday at noon for Fort Worth where they will visit and attend to business. They expect to return home Sunday.

Mrs. F. O. Garner and Mrs. Minnie Smart and daughter, Baby Doll, left Monday for a visit at Sweetwater and Colorado. They were accompanied by her brother, Willie Pogue, and her brother-in-law, D. Garner.

Two Former Mayors Of Floydada Die Within Week; Respects Paid

Two former mayors of Floydada died almost within a week of each other, the death of Judge F. P. Henry, fourth mayor, on Sunday morning early following only eight days after the demise of W. L. Boerner, second mayor.

During the funerals of each of these the executive offices of the city were closed out of respect, only the fire department and other needed public services being maintained.

Only one former mayor of the city now survives. This is R. E. Fry, who served in that capacity from 1920 to 1923. W. D. Smith, who was mayor from 1927 to 1929, died within a short time after his term expired. He was ill for several weeks during the closing days of his administration and J. M. Willson as mayor pro tem at a few sessions of the council. However, Mr. Smith's death did not occur until after his successor, W. C. Hanna, the present incumbent, was elected and qualified.

The first mayor of the city was Judge W. T. Montgomery who served from the city's incorporation in 1909 until he was succeeded by Mr. Boerner in 1917. He died during the epidemic of influenza in 1918.

INDIANS WERE FIRST TO MAKE USE OF CHOCOLATE

When stout Cortez led his little army into the valley of Mexico 400 years ago, he discovered a new empire—and a new food, chocolate. His historian reports that the Aztecs used the cacao bean from which chocolate is made very generally. They made a delicious beverage from chocolate, and it is reported that the Montezumas would drink no other.

The Spaniards tried to keep their chocolate recipes from the rest of the world, but without success. Soon the wealthy in France, England, and other European countries were having chocolate every day. Four hundred years' usage has not decreased the popularity of this excellent food, and we now import great quantities of cacao beans into this country every year.

The Federal Food and Drug Administration maintains rigid port inspection of all cacao beans imported, to see that the beans are not wormy, moldy, or otherwise unfit for entry under the food and drugs act. Inspection does not stop at the ports, however. Government officials see that the various chocolate products made from the beans are honestly labeled when entering into interstate commerce.

Cacao fat is an expensive product, and occasionally manufacturers will substitute for it a quantity of some cheaper oil or fat, such as coconut oil. Coconut oil, although much cheaper than cacao fat, is wholesome, and there is no objection to a manufacturer mixing coconut oil with chocolate fat—if the fact is declared upon the label of the product which enters into interstate trade. It is illegal, however under the act, for a manufacturer to label such a mixture as "chocolate" or as "pure chocolate."

Candy, in which chocolate is an important ingredient, is a relatively expensive food. A box may look as if it contains a pound—it may be the usual 1-pound size—but it may contain only 14 ounces. The true weight may be readily ascertained if the buyer takes the precaution to note the quantity-of-contents statements on each package.

YOU, TOO!

What's the answer for the man who has followed the golden rules for getting ahead in life and who now finds himself back where he was ten or twenty years ago? His business, which showed so much promise a few years ago, seems to be right back at the starting point. All that he has accumulated has shrunk in value so that he wonders if it was all worth while after all.

His home has decreased so much that his equity, representing years of patient and painful saving, has almost vanished. If he owns his business he wonders just what is going to happen to it; and if he still has a job, its security is doubtful. He often goes home at night with the feeling that all he has slaved for is slipping thru his fingers and he has no power to stop it.

There doesn't seem to be much consolation in that condition.

Some many say that our individual difficulties are the problems of each one of us. Others say that values will come back and that the worst is probably behind us. But after all is said and done, there is little satisfaction in the condition.

My answer is that the world respects those who have done the very best they could down thru the ages. Regardless of what happens today or next month, much appreciation is due the man who has provided as well as he could for his family, who put aside some of his earnings for the protection of himself and those dependent upon him, who made life a little more pleasant for his fellowmen as he went along, and the today he may find himself near penniless he will find satisfaction in the thought that he did the best he could.

Providence has a way of equalizing life, and in the long days of prosperity to come the man who today sees his life work at a low ebb will be the beneficiary of the habits of industry and thrift that he acquired by patient effort.

Let those of us who are temporarily baffled and discouraged renew our faith in ourselves. Let's keep on plugging along. The rules for success haven't changed.—The Meteor.

TRANSPORT PERMIT IS REQUIRE FOR LIVESTOCK, AND FOWLS ON HIGHWAYS

The law requiring permits to transport livestock in trucks is not clearly understood by many in the county as evidenced by the numerous questions asked concerning it. For those interested, the law is an act requiring drivers of trucks, automobiles and other vehicles to have and exhibit to peace officers upon demand written permit covering the movements of livestock and domestic fowls contained therein, and providing penalties for failing to exhibit the same or to make said statement or for making false statement or having false or forged permit; and declaring an emergency.

Copy of Law
A copy of the law as enacted by the Legislature of Texas is as follows: Section 1. Any person who is the driver of any truck, automobile or other vehicle containing any livestock or domestic fowl which is upon or being driven upon any land of which said driver is not owner, lessee, renter or tenant, or which is upon or being driven upon any highway, public street or thoroughfare, who fails to have in his possession and exhibit to any person or peace officer upon demand a written permit authorizing said movement, signed by the owner or caretaker of said livestock or domestic fowl or from the owner or person in control of the land from which said driver began said movement shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200 for each head of livestock and each domestic fowl in said movement, unless said driver upon demand of said person or peace officer makes, signs and delivers to said person or peace officer a written statement containing all the information herein required to be included in permits. Said driver shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200 for each head of livestock and each domestic fowl in said movement which is not covered by all the following information: Name or place of origin, including name of ranch or other place; point of destination including name of ranch or other place; number of livestock or fowl with the description thereof, including kind, breed, color, and also marks and brands if there be any. Failure or refusal of such drivers to exhibit to a person or peace officer said permit or to make said statement, shall constitute probable cause for any person or peace officer to search said truck or vehicle to ascertain if it contains any stolen livestock or stolen domestic fowls and to detain said movement a reasonable length of time to ascertain whether any stolen livestock or stolen fowls are contained therein. Any driver who has in his possession any false or forged permit or who makes any false written statement shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $500 or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than 60 days nor more than six months, or he shall be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. It is provided that the provisions of this Act shall also apply to slaughtered livestock and fowls and butchered portions thereof.

Section 2. The facts that there are numerous thefts of livestock and domestic fowls and that the said stolen livestock and fowls are being hauled in trucks, automobiles and other vehicles from ranches, pastures and premises along public roads, thoroughfares and highways and that there is no adequate law regulating movements of livestock by truck, automobiles and other vehicles whereby such thefts may be prevented and detected create an emergency and an imperative public necessity exists that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force as set out in its provisions from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snodgrass and son, Tom Roy, and Miss Kathleen Snodgrass went to Lubbock Wednesday on business.

Rev. A. L. Jordan, pastor of the Baptist Church at Matador, was in Floydada en route home Wednesday afternoon from the Baptist Workers' meeting held at South Plains.

THE LITTLE TOE WILL GO NEXT

Chiropodists now tell us that the fifth toe (better known as the little toe) is a useless appendage, and since it does nothing more than give trouble, its removal is advised. This is a statement of interest since nearly every fifth toe in the country is covered with corns, and the removal thereof would do away with a great deal of human suffering. Man is gradually learning to simplify the human frame. He has done away with the vermiform appendix, adenoids, tonsils and fifth toes, and doubtless he will soon find other useless parts of the human body. Wouldn't it be fine if some scientist could find that the nose is a useless thing, and order its removal? There would be no more bloody noses, no more blowing of noses, no dripping noses, and the ladies would not have to powder their noses every few minutes. The saving in nose powder would soon pay the public debt.—J. H. Lowery.
