

Lockney Bank Depositors Pledging Support; Plan Re-Opening Monday

Holiday Declared For First National There

Baker Family Put Entire Resources Behind Long-Established Institution.

With the entire resources of the Baker family of Lockney behind it, and with all the depositors enthusiastically supporting a plan devised for maintaining the institution as a going concern, plans for the re-opening of The First National Bank at Lockney are being made for Monday morning.

The bank declared a brief holiday Tuesday morning, pending the completion of re-organization plans that will make it one of the very strongest banking concerns in the panhandle, and this week national bank examiners are supervising the work of putting a large amount of new capital into the organization.

Depositors Pledge Aid

Although the strong arm of the Baker financial interests are being thrown around the bank, what is considered the finest contribution to the safeguard of its position is the hearty co-operation being given by depositors, who are signing up rapidly pledges that in effect make their deposits time deposits for a period of one year, until December 1, 1933. This pledge on the part of depositors had been signed by persons representing $55,000 of a total of $70,000 deposits in the bank last night and today representatives of the bank are getting additional signers, with the expectation that practically every cent in the bank will be signed up before the weekend.

Artie Baker, president of the bank, before he left for Dallas last night to confer with representatives of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Federal Reserve Bank, said that the date of opening of the bank would depend largely on the rapidity with which the customers signed up on the deposit plan worked out and presented to them. The report that the bank would be re-opened on Friday morning was not confirmed by Mr. Baker. "I would be unwilling to set a date earlier than Monday morning," he said. "We want to get this thing done right and done thoroughly. We want to be in such strong position when we re-open that there can be no question whatsoever of solidity and a liquid condition."

No Run Made

Asked if there was a run on the bank, the president said that there had been none, that as a matter of fact it had as heavy deposits at the time it closed Tuesday morning as it had had all year. "We simply had to meet technical requirements of the department which we had expected to meet without declaring the holiday," he said. "It developed."

'Washington Merry Go Round' Absorbing Tale

Feature Picture for First of Week Has Created Sensation the Nation Over.

"Washington Merry Go Round" is an absorbing story of the things that go on behind the scenes in official Washington, and while it is cynical it affords much food for thought in addition to being an unusually well-done feature.

This is said because "Washington Merry Go Round" is the screen feature for the Palace Theatre in Floydada this coming week. It is to be presented at the Saturday night owl show, again Sunday afternoon and on Monday.

It is declared to be an exposure of things that go on behind the closed doors in the White House. Whether or not this is true, whether it is really just a calumny on government officials, it has been acclaimed from one end of the country to another, and has been one of the biggest hits released in 1932.

Lee Tracy is starred with Constance Cummings in the play, which is well-filmed and well-directed throughout. Tracy is just fresh from starring in "Blessed Event," a drama shown here.

Penalty and Interest on Delinquent Redemptions Charged After December 31

School District To Accept Split Tax Payments This Week

Taxpayers in Floydada Independent School District may make payment on the first half of their split tax bill up to Saturday night, although the official date for the closing of these payments ended at midnight last night.

Announcement of this decision was made last night by W. Edd Brown, chairman of the board of trustees, who said that the tax receipts issued would be dated back to November 30.

Accept 1932 Warrants

Another important decision, which, however, is subject to change, is that any warrants of the school district bearing a 1932 date will be accepted in payment of 55 per cent of the current tax bill. "While there is a question in the matter and we may have to about face upon a ruling from the attorney general, for the present we will accept the 1932 warrants of any month on tax bills up to the fifty-five per cent," Mr. Brown said.

Payments on the split basis were brisk yesterday and the board is hoping that a large number of taxpayers will take advantage of the added time given.

C. M. Meredith, county tax collector, also announced this morning that split tax payments for county, state and common school taxes would be received up until Saturday night, the receipts to be dated November 30.

Project Highway Engineer Says Ferguson's Injunction Will Halt Letting of Floyd Road Contract

Allred To Attempt To Dissolve Court Order

Legal Step by Husband of Governor-Elect 'Ties Up' State Commission.

Granting of an injunction to Jas. E. Ferguson, husband of the Democratic governor-elect, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, and others by a Travis County Court Friday of last week to prevent the State Highway Commission from expending any more funds for highway construction will "tie up" all Federal as well as state funds so far as letting of contracts is concerned is the opinion of State Project Engineer T. B. Ingram, who has charge of the present survey work on Highway No. 28 through Floyd County.

'Holds All Contracts'

"It just means that no more contracts can be let by the Commission until the injunction is dissolved," Mr. Ingram explained. "Since all funds from the national government are handled through the State Highway Commission it is my opinion that no more contracts can be awarded until something is done about the injunction," he said.

The present survey work is not affected but the injunction will prevent the letting of the contract for grading and paving on the road in Floyd County, Mr. Ingram believes.

More than 400 miles of projected paving work involving expenditure and wages of over $4,000,000 would be lost to the Panhandle in event the injunction becomes permanent, he has been said.

Order Is Modified

Attorney General Allred and members of his staff have been lining up for a legal battle Saturday on the matter. The original restraining order granted in the Travis County district court enjoining the Commission from expending any more highway funds for construction was modified Saturday to permit receipt of bids on projects already advertised. The original order denying the Commission the right to award contracts, however, remained in effect.

In his motion to advance Allred pointed out that of the approximately $4,000,000 worth of work the commission had hoped to contract at once, that amount "to be expended in 50 counties," more than $3,500,000 "is to be paid, and will be paid, by the federal government, and is now available and will be available."

The motion said that "in addition to the regular federal aid given to Taxpayers who have not been able to reach their tax payments and whose property is on the delinquent roll, have until December 31 of this year to make redemptions without the addition of penalty and interest. It was pointed out this week at the office of County Tax Collector C. M. Meredith. After that date penalty and interest will have to be added, according to the provisions of the special law passed by the legislature this year.

At present taxes are coming in at a very satisfactory manner, so far as the state and county are concerned, Mr. Meredith said, the number taking advantage of the split payment plan being considerably greater than last year. Delinquents are also coming in in rather large numbers, he said. The saving to the taxpayer on redemptions made before the beginning of the new year will be a material one. Last-day payers are warned that a rush is likely and that the amount of redemptions that can be handled will be limited by the ability of the clerical help in the office in getting the receipts written.

LOCKNEY ABOVE 100

Wednesday from Lockney Branch Chapter came reports that around 100 memberships had been already reported from that place and from South Plains, with no other communities in the north portion of the county officially reporting. Arthur P. Barker, chapter branch chairman, gave the figures to the local chapter headquarters, and following that report it was estimated that the county total would reach 300 probably.

Caliche Paving Plan For School Streets

City in Search of Good Material; First of Relief Work Under Appropriation.

This week Mayor W. C. Hanna is in search of good caliche in sufficient quantities to use on the first of a possible series of street paving projects in Floydada on which relief work for unemployed will be furnished under the Reconstruction Act of 1932, passed by the last Congress.

Appropriations for such work as is approved by the local executive committee that will actually afford work for unemployed and at the same time get improvements of a public nature done that will be of value to the community, have been made and the first check has been received by the committee.

The work to be undertaken is the result of conference between the committee and members of the city council. The committee several days ago asked councilmen to designate streets which they prefer to have improved with caliche first.

After some consideration the council named two blocks on South Main Street, thence one block west to the High School building and practically two blocks on the street in front of the high school and grounds. If this proves to be a successful effort it will be followed by a similar program leading off of Missouri north of First Street, thence west a block on Virginia, and practically two blocks on White Street in front of Andrews Ward School.

How satisfactorily the arrangement will work out, and how much money will be required for labor are the two problems that are to be solved and will be the governing factors in determining just how far the program will be carried.

Promise of an ample supply of caliche, if it can be found, from the W. M. Massie land has been made by Col. Massie, it was said this week. Samples have been sent to the highway commission's laboratories for inspection from one or two sites. Whether the quantities of the material are sufficient in the location had not been determined Tuesday by Mayor Hanna, who with other members of the council, was continuing the search this mid-week.

McCleskey's Observe Fiftieth Anniversary Of Their Wedding Day

Former Floyd County Sheriff and Wife Homesteaded Near Mickey in 1891.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McCleskey, of this city, were married fifty years ago on November 19, and the event was celebrated by the family here on Thanksgiving Day, when all the children and grandchildren were with them at a dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McCleskey.

A custom in the family for a number of years has been to assemble at the home of a member on Thanksgiving Day and the two events were combined into one, so that all could be present. Besides Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey their four children and their families were present at the dinner and reunion. The children are Sam, Roe and John McCleskey of this city, and Mrs. W. O. Tye of White Deer. All of the fourteen grandchildren were present.

Here Since 1891

Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey have resided in Floyd County since 1891 and reared their family here. All of the children, save Sam, the eldest, were born in this county. Sam is a native of Bosque County. They first homesteaded a place two miles north of Mickey, where they lived until 1896, when they moved to a farm they bought one and a half miles northwest of Floydada. At that time Mr. McCleskey was elected county treasurer. He served in that capacity for six years. In 1904 he was again elected to public office, being chosen as sheriff and tax collector in 1904 and serving until 1908. In 1904 the family moved to Floydada and have resided here since. The family lived here when the first Methodist Church was erected and Mr. McCleskey was made one of the trustees of the church's property.

Mr. McCleskey is a native of Tennessee, where he was born in Lincoln County June 27, 1855. He moved to Texas in 1878 and settled in Bosque County. He met his wife in Somerville County in 1879. They were married in 1882. She is a native of Rusk County, and before her marriage was Miss L. P. Childress. They moved from Bosque County to Floyd County.

No formal anniversary wedding was held when the family gathered here last week, but all joined in the feast. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Tye and their children, the only out-of-town members of the family, left for their home Sunday.

Murder Charge Filed In Death Of W. W. Kimble; Crosby Man Held

Basketball Tournament Is Set For January 20-21 At Floydada, Coach Announces

Rotary Club Honors High Football Team With Feed, Program

A squad of twenty-three football players of the 1932 team, Floydada High School, "went out" for eats and a program purposely arranged to do them honor, when they, with their coaches, were guests of Floydada Rotary Club Wednesday. The club did the job up brown, too, with an imported speaker and everything.

Rev. P. D. O'Brien, football enthusiast, was the guest speaker. He was here for his first visit after moving in July to Colorado City to take the pastorate of the Baptist Church there. He was for four years pastor of the Floydada church, and is personally acquainted with practically all members of the local squad.

In His Talk He Compared the Game of Life with the Game of Football.

R. E. Fry preceded him in a brief outline of the life of Knute Rockne, football's superstar, whose sterling qualities as well as his football prowess have endeared his memory to the hearts of the American people.

Visitors at the club, besides the high school squad, were Coaches R. P. Terrell and E. F. Stovall, H. L. Crow, Chas. Smith of Plainview, Dick Gray of Colorado City.

J. C. Wester presented the program.

Council, Bondholders' Representative Confer

Members of the city council and Charles Smith, a representative of Floydada bondholders, yesterday afternoon conferred in a called meeting of the council over the slightly more than $8,000 worth of indebtedness in bonds and interest which the city failed to meet in October.

Smith told the councilmen it was not his intention for the present to recommend receivership. The municipality owes too much money, he told the council, but declared that this was true of most cities and towns the country over. Indebtedness of this city, he said, is about an average. "Many communities have more to overcome in this respect than does yours," he told the councilmen. At this time the city has outstanding delinquent taxes of about $28,000, which he insisted the city should make every reasonable effort to collect. In instances where the taxpayer has the money and has balked bondholders expect that he will be sued, but in no instance would they go so far as to ask the city to take taxpayers' homes from them. Reasonable valuations that will encourage home-owning and an "all-together" spirit is the desire of the bondholders, Smith said.

He, in particular, praised the condition of the city's records, which, he said, disclosed without search the outstanding indebtedness and other essential information desired by the public. He declared Secretary Duncan to be a highly efficient official.

EPIDEMIC OF LA GRIPE AND COLDS REPORTED IN FLOYD COUNTY COMMUNITIES

While only a few cases diagnosed as "flu" have appeared in Floyd County, local physicians report a widespread epidemic of severe colds and a gripe in practically every community this week.

Reports from near-by towns indicate that an epidemic of influenza of a more serious form than that which has prevailed in recent years is hampering the operation of schools and the regular routine of business.

For treatment of colds and la gripe so prevalent in Floydada and vicinity physicians have suggested small doses of calomel to be followed by salts. Soda taken in water and aspirin were also recommended for colds, a physician said.

Avoid exposure as much as possible and keep the body in good condition with plenty of sleep and rest were some of the suggestions made for combating the diseases.

RESPONSE ENCOURAGING TO CEMETERY ASSN. DRIVE

The response to the first day of canvassing for the Cemetery Association yesterday was gratifying, Mrs. Bob Smith, president of the association said, an amount sufficient to meet immediate pressing demands being obtained.

"What the activities of the organization in the future will be depends upon the further response we obtain from those who, we feel, should be interested and lend their aid."

Among the absentee members of the association who have remitted during the week is J. A. Wyman, of Lyles, Kentucky, from whom Mrs. Smith received check for membership and a nice letter, she said. Others who are interested are urged to volunteer their aid.

County Singing Convention Meets Here December 11

The Floyd County Singing Convention will meet at the High School Auditorium in Floydada on December 11 in an all day meeting. Singers are expected from Hale, Motley, Briscoe and Lubbock counties, including the Stamps quartette from Lubbock and also singers from New Mexico.

Coach R. P. Terrell of the High School Athletic Council yesterday began sending out invitations for a basketball tournament to be staged at the Andrews Ward Gymnasium in Floydada on Friday and Saturday, January 20 and 21. Plans for the tournament were formulated by the athletic council early this week and no time was lost in announcing the plans for it and beginning making preparations for the event.

"We are inviting a large number of teams and want twenty here if we can get them," Coach Terrell said last night.

Plans on which the tournament will be run are much the same as in former years, except that it is being set up considerably earlier in the basketball season. Every effort is going to be made to make it an outstanding event in athletic annals of the season.

18 Candidates Out

As the football season faded out for Floydada High School in the wake of the perfect kicking and blocking of the Brownfield Cubs, the coach and his athletes turned their minds toward the basketball season, and though several of the boys are nursing injuries, the candidates were called out and eighteen responded, fourteen of these Tuesday and the other four Wednesday. This week fundamentals of basketball and light workouts only are the schedule. Practice games with neighboring schools, with the fireboys and others will be the plan for the next week or two, and if it is seen that he can get his men in shape the coach will likely take them to Turkey on December 16 and 17, where a tournament is scheduled.

Five men who lettered last year are on this year's roster. They are Bridges, Jackson, Floyd and Lloyd Murray and Gamblin. Other candidates for the team are deCordova, Jenkins, Henderson, Edwards, Maurice and Stokes Campbell, Smith, Garth and J. C. Powell, Eastridge, Goughly, Green, Beard.

That he has some likely material in the lot, with which a dandy team can be made up, is the idea of the coach as expressed last night after two days of looking the lads over.

Local Resident Buried At Lakeview Wednesday

Injury Sustained Thursday Night, November 17, Near Cone Proves Fatal.

A charge of murder was filed today by Elmer Reed, Sheriff of Crosby County, against Nolan Womble, 40, of Old Emma, in connection with the death of W. W. Kimble of Floydada, who died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock in the Plainview Sanitarium of head injuries sustained on the night of November 17. Womble is a married man with family.

Kimble, a young man 27 was struck over the head with a two by four timber at the home of J. D. Swann, three miles west and one mile south of Cone, witnesses told Sheriff Elmer Reed of Crosbyton at the funeral of Kimble, held yesterday afternoon at Lakeview. Only a word or two was passed between the two men. The officer said he had not collected all the facts in the case last night, but that there were several witnesses. Among these is Grady Moon of Floydada, Jim Baxter, Ray Moreau and J. D. Swann, at whose home the fatal injuries were sustained.

Fought With Moreau

In the party from Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kimble, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Moon, Jim Baxter, Ray Moreau and possibly others. According to the information obtained from Sheriff Reed, Moreau and Womble had a difficulty in which Moreau was cut deep on the lower arm. When he left Moreau, "Womble is declared to have picked up the timber on the way to the house or near the house and to have remarked he had just as well "finish him up" whereupon Kimble remarked that he shouldn't do that or couldn't do that. Womble, the witnesses said, then struck Kimble who was knocked unconscious.

Kimble and Moreau were brought to Floydada, reaching here about 10:30. Moreau was taken to Smith & Smith Sanitarium in Plainview.

Fairview Gets Full Quota In Drive For Red Cross Member

Complete Report for County Not Available on Annual Roll Call Canvass.

So far as was known at the local headquarters of the Floyd County Chapter, American Red Cross, Fairview School District with a quota of ten memberships, is the only community in the county reporting with a completely successful drive. While there may be other communities in the county which have reached the figures assigned them, such had not been reported as late as yesterday morning.

Floydada with a total of 145 memberships reported the first of this week, led the county, so far as reported memberships is concerned. McCoy made a partial report last week-end, the Dougherty committee is known to have been at work, as is true also of Center, and probably others. However, an official report had been received from none of these in the territory assigned to local workers.

Mrs. Geo. A. Lider was general roll call chairman appointed by Lon M. Davis, chairman of the county chapter. She was assisted in naming chairmen for fifteen other communities in the south part of the county by Mrs. A. J. Folley, who named chairmen in the respective districts outside of Floydada.

Arthur P. Barker, chairman of the Lockney Branch, acted as roll call chairman in the north portion of county.

SAVING ON INSURANCE

In some portions of the country banks are beginning to practice closing up at noon for an hour, while all employees go to their lunches, reopening at one after locking up at twelve.

READY FOR THE EFFECT

When the better minds told us that taxes would have to be reduced in order to have a return of prosperity, authorities at once began the job of making the reductions, with the result that in town, county, school district, and to some extent the state, tax rates have been materially reduced.

And now it remains for those who are anxiously awaiting the good effect of these big reductions to find out that for the ordinary man, the tax bill was not nearly all of it by any means.

THE FERGUSON INJUNCTION

That the injunction suit of Jas. T. Ferguson and others by which a restraining order was issued last week-end preventing the further setting of highway contracts temporarily, will halt road contract letting for a time may be taken for granted.

Should the contentions of the rove-governor-elect be sustained Floyd County's hopes for a hard surfaced road for the present have one glimmering, and Floyd County people, most of them at least, will gret having consumed as much money as they have in getting their part of the job done.

THEY NEED THE WORK

Over in Cottle County a couple of years ago, many people say they don't know how they would have gotten through the year had there not been a highway under construction, where lots of labor was employed at a reasonable wage.

A FRIENDLY LEGISLATURE?

Political minded persons are counting noses to see if Mr. Ferguson is going to have his way down in the capitol the ensuing two years. His first move in stopping the highway contract letting temporarily indicate that Mr. Ferguson is so, or it may be just that he will to win and nothing to lose.

LAME DUCK CONGRESSES

Those who profess to see in the lame duck sessions of Congress a serious menace to the welfare of the country, give as their arguments that an immediate change gives the incoming administration a chance to put vigorous action behind any proposed changes at an early date.

HELP THE ASSOCIATION

Officials of the Floydada Cemetery Association are engaged in a drive to obtain funds to keep the organization on a going basis. Theirs is a work entirely devoid of any prospect of personal gain or aggrandizement.

WOULD REGAIN POWER

For a good many years the executive committee of the Democratic Party has been more nearly an election board than it has been an executive committee, its powers and prerogatives being set up and defined by statute.

The present committee, headed by Maury Hughes of Dallas, is meeting this week-end, and are said to have in mind submitting to the legislature certain legislation which they desire to have passed that will restore to an executive committee some of the powers which they deem an executive committee should have.

The committee is particularly anxious to deal out some punishment at this time. They would remove some county chairmen, it is said, who did not consider it a matter of irregularity to scratch certain names on the ticket.

The bosses in the old days were almost as much of a hindrance to good government as the present-day primary itself. But there is this important difference. Democrats like to be their own fools, rather than fools or even wise men by proxy.

Little Pen-o-grams

Those who attended the Brownfield-Floydada football game last Thursday saw a grid classic in the first half and everything else in the last two quarters. The game ended in the fourth round, I never hope to see a rougher football game.

The last half of the game here reminded me very much of that fray several years ago before football was "modernized." Just a lotta big high-ups in the game are claiming that football has degenerated to a pink tea affair but all they need to do is to come over here and watch Floydada and Brownfield put on a show.

Lloyd is a demon lineman by training but he suddenly developed into a triple-threat backfield ace last Thursday. He passed, punted and toted the ball and he did a wov of a job of it, too.

Then there was the demonstration at the half by the pep squads of the two schools. They marched on the field and formed the letters "B. H. S." and "F" and gave yells galore. And the bleachers were the "dope," affording comfortable seats on both sides of the field for the pep squads and many of the fans.

I been thinking kinda to myself a long time and I'm getting so full of thoughts that I just gotta let some of them loose or bust wide open. Salaries have been cut half and then half again, prices on groceries have tumbled, dry goods are selling cheaper than in many years, profits are few and far between in any line of business, farm products have next to no market and that's all hard plain facts.

Now I got another thought. How much has your telephone rates been cut? How much cheaper is your electric light rate? How many times have you noticed a reduction in your gas rates? Does the water bill look any slimmer because of conditions? Somebody, somewhere has got to do and say something for the people and I reckon the Cowhand is about as good a martyr as could be found.

The public is not interested in a corporation's welfare. All the folks know is that the shoe is pinching mighty hard and they are going to have relief somewhere, somehow. Those bills every month got so now they look like mountains that it would take a Swiss guide to negotiate.

In particular I have been thinking about the telephone service rates. I got some mighty good friends connected one way or another with the system we got here and anything I got on "my" system is far away from anything personal as the moon is from the earth.

Here we are with the same old equipment we had when I blowed into this section 18 years ago. I betcha I've worn out ten cranks myself but that don't make no difference—they get some more off the old Hickville plant.

And another big feature is that we can begin right now to make plans to take the plant, boxes and wires of our telephone system to the World's Fair in Chicago. Boy, but that will bring our town a lotta publicity—the oldest telephone system in the world today and still in working order.

This week I had two Sunday's. Thanksgiving Day seemed like Sunday to me. One woman remarked that she had to do some washing that day and she had a guilty conscience all day because she felt she was working on the Sabbath.

Three inches or more of snow has fallen this week gladdening the hearts of the wheat men in Floyd County and more especially those who are still in what are known as the "dry streaks."

Fairview and Hillcrest districts both subscribed their quotas and a little more in the War Work Campaign, which closed Wednesday night of last week. Mrs. S. L. Rushing was chairman for Fairview and Miss Jennie Lewis for Hillcrest.

Contemporary Thought

A STEP TOWARD RECOVERY

Industrial Review: In August, 1926 the railroads of the country employed 1,793,067 persons. In August, 1929, they employed 1,681,252 persons. In August, 1932, they employed 996,319—the smallest number since 1899. In addition, reduced purchases by railroads from coal mines and other industries have caused even larger reduction in employment.

jobs, a multitude of other industries will be stimulated—and we will have taken a long step toward recovery.

HOW SOON BEER?

Muleshoe Journal: Beer may not come as soon as many expect—and it may not come at all. Muleshoe folks are discussing its coming about as much as folks elsewhere, are as vitally interested and know about as little as the rest of them.

Huey Long, the Louisiana blablah senator from Louisiana and who can get off more boop-a-doop in Congress than nearly anyone else, says folks will be guzzling beer before Christmas.

Al Smith is of like belief with the Southern saliva slinger. Mayor Cermak, of Chicago, has told the brewers of that city to get ready for beer making, assuring them the police of that city will not bother them.

The New Orleans chief of police has told the speakies of that city to open wide any time they are ready. The governor of Michigan and that of California have both declared their intention of pardoning and releasing all persons held in jails or state prisons for violation of the Volstead act.

Still none of those things bring about national beer. Just 13 states can prevent the modification or total repeal of the 18th amendment. They may hold that fact off for five or six years—and if the tax situation can be arranged on a lower basis—this number of states may hold it off indefinitely.

WAR AT PEACE SHRINE

Wichita Falls Times: It is an odd little argument that has arisen between two government departments in connection with the projected national shrine at Appomattox Court House, Va., the site of General Lee's surrender to General Grant.

That the spot where the bloodiest and most tragic of all our wars ended should get some sort of memorial seems beyond argument. But the war department wants to put up a monument there and let it go at that, while the fine arts commission would prefer to rebuild the McLean house, where the actual surrender took place, and make it the central part of the memorial and so far the two groups have come to no agreement.

It is an innocent bystander, the ideal solution might seem to be a combination of both plans. The McLean house ought to be preserved, by all means; but why shouldn't there be a monument also? Surely the spot is of great enough historical significance to justify something rather elaborate.

THOUGHTLESS CRUELTY

Wellington Leader: A news dispatch tells of Teresa Corona, of New York, 14 years old and six feet tall, who ran away from school and home to get away from the ridicule of her fellow pupils. Thoughtlessly her associates have made her the victim of a heartless tragedy.

It was hard enough to bear the self-consciousness and embarrassment which the child's abnormal size made inescapable, but those who made her burden greater by their derision were unspcakably cruel. Many instances like this occur, where some physical defect or peculiarity of sensitive persons is used as a pretext to torture them with unkind remarks, which cut to the quick. We read sometime ago of a young girl who finally committed suicide because she had been driven to desperation by ridicule of her family name, which had a suggestive meaning to evil-minded persons.

Children will seize upon such opportunities to harass their associates sometimes in a spirit of fun, but often with vicious intent. While most parents would disapprove of such conduct, many do not take the trouble to explain to their children how really cruel it is, or to appeal to their better natures to induce them to refrain from it.

Unnecessary infliction of mental suffering is as bad or worse than infliction of physical pain, and children should be earnestly admonished to avoid both forms of cruelty.

MAY WHIP CANCER

Chillicothe Valley News: Recent discoveries in a "chemical attack on cancer" made by the National Institute of Health, Washington, affords encouraging news. Prof. Carl Voegtlin of the institute staff says, "Chemistry has contributed so effectively to the advance of medical knowledge generally that it is reasonable to suppose it will also be of help in the solution of cancer."

Early this year it was found at the institute the supply of oxygen regulates to quite an extent both the breaking down and the building up of albumen proteins alike in cancer and healthy body tissues. Oxygen starvation breaks down the albumen, whereas a plentiful supply builds it up. This observation may possibly have a far reaching influence not only in the study of cancer, but also in the study of other diseased conditions.

It appears that the upkeep of a pretty face is just about as expensive as that of a homely one. Some minds are so open as to be almost vacant. Sing Sing's football team has the advantage of always playing on its home gridiron.

A Farmer's Life

"As He Lives It" BY ED HOLMES (Station C. E. H. Farm)

Boll pulling in this section is over for most people. There is considerable cotton still in the fields but most farmers intend for their own families to finish and have the little extra money at home.

Clifton Rhoades pulled 1515 pounds in one day for R. B. Gary. The four brothers got over 4900 pounds that day. This is probably the best argument I have ever given against the cotton slide.

One of our large non-resident farmers will hire hands and tractor farm 600 acres of cotton next year. He has ruined the wheat market and it will no longer pay, so cotton will have a chance to go the same route. You t-t-tell him cause I st-st-stutter.

An entire section of ground south of here in this county has been planted to wheat, half way worked and looked after and of course has not paid the taxes and the interest on the land notes is so far behind that it is a question as to whom the land belongs. No set of improvements, nobody living there, although four families could make a fine living on the 640 acres, build up rural communities and make this country look like a land of home owners. As it is, every year or about this time you see a big fire over there for the weeds are going up in smoke. What is wrong with us?

Here is just a little tip to you farmers that if you can remember, will save you splitting many a board this winter when you begin fixing up around the place. Call for box nails and see that you get them even though you are forced to go to the lumber yard after them. Box six and eight penny nails are just as long but they are not nearly so large around as common nails. They will not split planks. Besides, as the Scotchman says you get about twice as many for your money. Don't forget.

School started with a bang here last week. This is the latest it ever opened. You can guess the reason. I attended the most unusual celebration of my life last week and probably broke all previous records eating. Uncle Jim and Aunt Susie McLain celebrated being married 60 years. Feature that! Here is the record though. They have had five children, all still living. There has been 20 grand children and they are all still living. There has been only 3 great grand children and seven are still living. One death in the family in three generations. Boys he has been a farmer all his life and a good one.

Oh yes! Don't forget the toddy. I did I would die some of those long summer evenings. Between four and five o'clock when you have been working real hard don't you ever need a good drink that will give you strength? "Be ye prepared," there is no law against it. Have a quart of pure sweet milk in a good cool place, one for every man, woman and child that you expect to be around the place when it is time to drink. Here is what to mix with each quart: 1 egg, 2 table spoons of cocoa, 10 drops vanilla (or your favorite flavor) 2 table spoons of sugar (or enough to suit your taste). Leave the egg out if the price is too high. Beat the sap out of it, I mean beat it into a sap and drink it cold. This kind of a drink will make you want to whip the toddy gives out. You can quit when the toddy gives out. I know for I have quit a thousand times. Excuse me while I go mix a toddy. It makes me thirsty to think of it. Form this habit even if you are forced to buy a milk cow!

Conoco Travel Service

el Red, Green and White Bus
Carries Interesting Scenic

taking it possible for 300 thousand American motor tourists to travel comfortably along 342 million miles of strange highways may sound like a tremendous if not impractical task for an oil corporation to undertake.

Furnishing a personalized scenic service to each of these thousands of people free of charge may sound more unbelievable. Yet that is what the Conoco Travel Bureau, maintained by Continental Oil Company, has accomplished this year, according to L. H. McAlister, in charge of the huge Conoco Travel Bureau bus which reached Floydada Saturday. The red, green and white bus, which is one of the two now touring America in behalf of the Bureau, carries a number of interesting scenic displays and is equipped to broadcast both radio music and speeches to the crowds which gather around to inspect it.

Almost three years ago when the Bureau set up headquarters in Denver in the heart of the Rocky Mountain vacation region, many people took their heads and voiced the opinion that such a large scale undertaking could never be successful. Like the Wright brothers' first airplane and the early day automobile, it was looked upon as a rather dubious experiment.

During the first year the Bureau was in operation, however, it planned more than 26,000 trips for motorists. In 1931 a number of features were added, the service was advertised in newspapers throughout the country and 67,000 motorists called upon the Bureau for assistance. In order to help motorists while they were actually on the road as well as beforehand, Conoco service station salesmen in addition to those of Red Triangle dealers throughout the country were specially trained to render valuable assistance to Conoco Travelers who called upon them.

It was such service as this, Mr. McAlister told a Hesperian reporter, that has caused the Bureau to break all previous records thus far this year. Statistics compiled at the end of September, he said, revealed the fact that nearly 130,000 trips had been planned for applicants since January 1 and that more than 145,000 Conoco Passports had been issued. Assuming that three-fourths or 97,500 of the trips planned were actually taken, and that the distance for each trip averaged 3,500 miles, the total distance traveled approximates 342 million miles. Assuming also that at least three people took each trip, the total number of Bureau patrons would be nearly 300 thousand.

Despite the fact that the summer vacation period has passed, those in charge of the Bureau predict that thousands of Americans will be routed to winter vacation lands and sport events during the coming months.

"The service extended by the Conoco Travel Bureau is of wide general value, aside from the direct benefit to the motorist," Mr. McAlister pointed out, "in that it encourages motorists to stop and shop throughout the country, and because a large staff of workers has been enlisted from the ranks of the unemployed to handle the work. In the beautiful Conoco Travel Bureau headquarters building in Denver a large number of men and women are kept busy constantly marking road maps and supplying innumerable pieces of literature devoted to scenic spots throughout the country."

Anyone who travels by motor car is eligible to call upon the Conoco Travel Bureau for a free trip service, regardless of the distance traveled or the route to be covered.

In addition to Mr. McAlister the members of the bus party included G. W. Brown, assistant division manager, Fort Worth, L. O. Turner, district superintendent, Plainview, Joe Brown, Conoco local representative and John Richards, driver of the bus.

Andrews Ward News

ANDREWS WARD SCHOLASTICS
BACK IN SCHOOL THIS WEEK

Scholastics of Andrews Ward School, a number of whom have been out the past few weeks gathering cotton, have begun returning to school in numbers this week, Principal O. K. Davis said Tuesday, and are taking up their studies in a satisfactory manner.

A few cases of whooping cough have developed, several having been sent home with the disease in the past few days. Otherwise the school has been fortunate to date in having little illness.

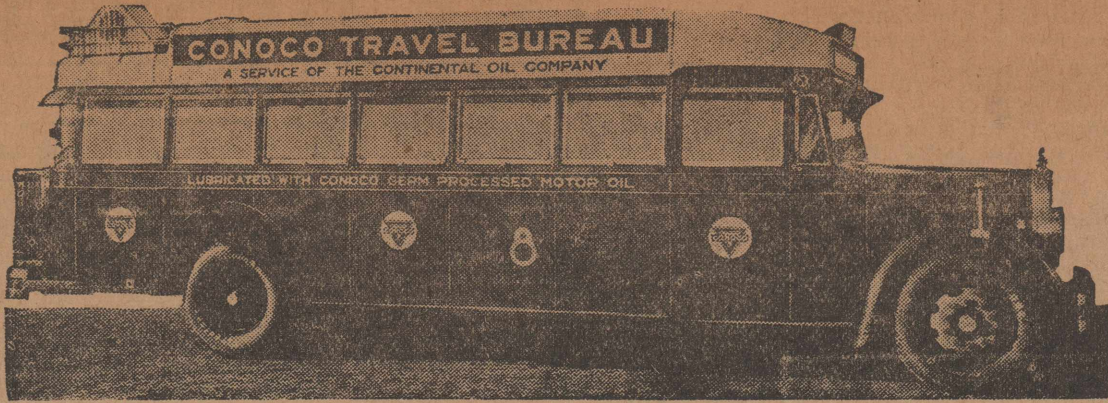

Of the boys and girls who have been out on account of the cotton gathering, Katie Moreau of the seventh grade, holds the banner for her best day of work she pulled 1,017 pounds of cotton. Her brother, Dallas, a fourth grade student, has a record close to his sister, of 1,012

Conoco Travel Bus Visits City

What is more logical than a travel bureau that does some traveling itself? Such is the conviction of Continental Oil Company, which recently sent this completely equipped bus out to tour the highways and byways of America for the purpose of giving first hand assistance to motor vacationists, and to help coordinate the work of the hundreds of branches of the Conoco Travel Bureau. The bus and its personnel visited this city recently.

112 Attend Party In Honor Of 'Aunt Jane'
Carr's 89th Birthday

(Contributed)

Many friends gathered at the home of Aunt Jane "Grandmother" Carr in the Carrs Chapel community on Sunday, November 13, to show their love and appreciation for her life and service to humanity.

Her birth date is November 11 and on that day her children gathered at her home for a birthday celebration but since it was a week day, many friends could not attend so a surprise dinner was arranged for Sunday following.

On Sunday morning Aunt Jane went to church and Sunday School, which she does every Sunday, even at the age of 89 years.

The many friends of the community brought boxes filled with good things to eat and left them in their cars during the Sunday school hour. After the church hour was over and Aunt Jane had gone home, the friends formed the surprise party and drove to "Aunt Jane's".

I will not say that it was exactly a surprise party as these large birthday dinners have been an annual event for several years—but I will say that it was a joy to me to see the happiness in her face as car after car began to arrive with friends and packed with lunch boxes. A large table was arranged in front of the house and the dinner was spread. It certainly did not look like people will ever want for food in that community.

Children present were: Mack Carr and wife; John Carr and wife and Miss Ann Carr; one daughter, Mrs. John Haynes, of McLean, was not present.

Grandchildren present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Erx Williams, Miss Mattie Pearl Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hargis, Miss Ruth Carr, Horace Carr and Miss Almeda Mae Carr.

Great-grandchildren present were: Dellora and Shirley Gail Heard; Delbert, Buddie and Billie Lee Williams; Charlie and Marvin Hargis.

Two nieces were present: Mrs. E. B. Mayhew, of Floydada, and Mrs. I. C. Casey, of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Lee Mayhew, a great-nephew, was also present as were a host of relatives and friends totalling 112 for the event.

Grandmother Carr has resided on the South Plains since 1901, having moved here from Coryell County.

Mrs. W. R. Ivey, of Big Spring, arrived last week for a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Surginer.

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF OLLIE M. CONWAY

At the noontime of life neath the burden he fell
Weary and worn and so tired—
The way had been long and the trials so great
That he manfully struggled to bear.

The Father looked down in mercy and said:
"It is enough—come up higher to dwell."
And his spirit went out of its temple of clay
To a house not builded by hands.

He had not lived long—but lived wonderfully well,
For man's life is not measured by years.

Yet the good that he does, the encouragement he gives
Will require an eternity to tell.

The influence he left was the best man could leave,
For his children and family who are here,
An unselfish life was the kind that he lived.
His reward—the Master surely will give.

'MOST COMPLETE' WRECK RECORD HELD BY WACO MAN

Sleep peacefully on till the morning shall dawn.
The loss is all ours, yours the gain.
Some sweet day we will see you again,
And in happiness with you shall dwell.

—One who loved him.

A record of having come out alive of the "most complete wreck" ever seen by local mechanics, was made recently on the caprock east of Floydada on the Matador highway by Herman Lewallen, about 28, of Waco, Texas, who was enroute home from a trip into New Mexico for pinto beans.

Although the beans were scattered all over the place, and the cab and parts of the machine were twisted, bent and jammed into almost inconceivable shapes and positions, Lewallen was not seriously hurt. He was brought to the Smith & Smith Sanitarium for first aid and spent two days there recovering from the shock. Only minor cuts

4-H PANTRY WINNER IN RANDALL COUNTY CLUBS

Frank J. Boerner and R. C. Henry, two local automobile service men who viewed the wreck of the truck declared that a man could not have worked completely wrecked it had he worked all day with a sledge hammer. Lewallen told persons who helped get him to town that he had lost much sleep, and he was probably asleep when his truck rammed a concrete culvert upright.

Mrs. A. L. Glenn, former Floyd County woman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Pace, northwest of Floydada, was announced Tuesday of last week as the winner of the 4-H Pantry Contest in Randall County.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Williams of Chico, are here for a visit with N. W. Williams and wife, having arrived last week-end. The elder Mr. Williams has been suffering severely with rheumatism, and he recently spent a week at Glenrose. His condition is improved.

THE HESPERETTE

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF FLOYDADA HIGH SCHOOL

The End

The end. Those two small words often give both a feeling of sadness and feeling of joy and satisfaction. When one finishes a task and knows that it has been done well, he is pleased and satisfied. But if one finishes the task and knows that it is poorly done, he is rather ashamed of it.

He says to himself, "Who knows that it has not been done well?" or "Well, I'll do better next time." He does not consider that there may not be a next time and also, that it is his best at all times.

A certain class in our school was given an examination, and many failed. The general cry was, "Well, we made it up in the next test." But when they found out that they would not have another test.

So it is also with lives Dr. Horn, the late president of Texas Technological College led a life which was clean and worthwhile. He will always be remembered for his splendid work and influence. The end of his life brought sadness, of course, but it also brought satisfaction for his family and friends.

The end has come for the Whirlwind team of 1932. They have fought a good fight. Their school, friends and fans are proud of them and their splendid record in everything they do, may they always be as successful as they were this season.

Pep Squad Decides on Banquet
The Pep Squad met Monday afternoon in Mrs. Teague's room to discuss plans for the football banquet. The president, Wanda Teeple, took charge and was assisted by the other leaders, Mozelle Fields and Latane Hale. Various questions were put before the house, discussed, and voted upon by the squad. The time set for the banquet was Friday, December 9. The place has not been decided upon, however it is probable that the gymnasium will be required for the large crowd expected. After much discussion, the majority of the girls voted to wear plain informal dresses. The vote also carried to invite the entire high school faculty. The leaders then appointed the following committees:

Program committee: Irene Kreis, chairman, Maxine Fry, Virginia Stovall, Mattie Ferne Fields; Decoration committee: Virginia Welch, chairman, Bonnie Fyffe, Bert Jones, Joyce King; invitation committee: Mary Louise Thurmon, chairman, Reba Duncan, Gladys Ruth Brown, June Sams; Menu committee: Mary Anne Kimble, chairman, Edelle King, Rhe Cloud and Marilyn Fry.

Mrs. Teague and the leaders will supervise the committees. The pep squad has done unusually well in the management of finances this year and expect to have enough funds to cover all expenses and leave a clean record behind them. The girls made most of their money by the sale of candy, gum, etc., at the games played here and on the Paducah special.

Now that the grand football season is over for 1932, the pep squad intends to show the Whirlwinds how much they appreciate the hard work of the team by giving them a 100 percent banquet.

Get Your Dates Early, Boys

Now that football season is over and pep days are nearly gone we the pep squad as a whole wish to express our appreciation to our leaders, Mozelle, Wanda, and Latane and to our sponsor, Mrs. Teague, for the hard work they have gone through to put it over. We truly thank you. Here are 3 cheers for you. Rah. Rah. Rah.

Monster Turnip Grown By Harris Big Meal For

"When bigger turnips are raised, S. T. Harris will raise them. That's a slogan he might want to adopt for he brought proof of a turnip-growing sagacity down town last week and parked it the show window at The Hesperian office."

His "proof" is in the form of a monster purple top and it is enough for a whole meal for family of five any day in the year. The vegetable was grown on the Robert Garrett place northwest of the town section. It weighed four pounds and two ounces. It measures 23 inches around the top and 18 inches around the other way or vice versa. (If in doubt about which direction is referred to in the terms "the other way," you are cordially invited to come down and figure it out personally for yourself individual.)

"We raised lots of those turnips this year that weighed three pounds," Mr. Harris said without batting an eye. "None of them have been pithy and they have been mighty fine eating." This has been a good year for growing turnips," he stated.

Gov. Sterling Urges Observance Universal Bible Sunday Dec. 4

Austin, Nov. 30—Governor R. S. Sterling urges the observance of Universal Bible Sunday on next Sunday, December 4, by the churches of Texas.

The American Bible Society, an international and interdenominational agency engaged in the circulating of the Scriptures, and which last year put into distribution nearly ten million volumes of Scriptures in fifty different countries and in upwards of 200 languages, has promoted Universal Bible Sunday for over a decade. Many churches in America and in foreign lands will unite in the observance of Universal Bible Sunday in order to emphasize the important place the Bible holds in the development of Christian life and character.

In commending Universal Bible Sunday Governor Sterling says: "Every Sunday should be Bible Sunday. When all is said and done our faith, based upon the Bible, is our foundation, personally and as a nation. It is most impressive that one day of each year should be set aside by our churches as Universal Bible Sunday, and I am pleased to know that I shall have a small part in suggesting to the people of Texas that each of them make the reading of the Bible a part of their daily living, and feed the soul as well as the physical body."

Diamond Wedding Anniversary Eventful Occasion for Many

Mr. and Mrs. McLain Hosts To Eighty-three

Pioneer Couple Joined by Children and Friends Saturday in Observing Event.

(By Miss Olin S. Miller)

It was a happy occasion when last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLain, better known as "Uncle Jim" and "Aunt Susie," celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding at their home in the Sand Hill community, where they have lived for over forty years.

During this time they have made a host of friends, eighty-three of whom came to do them honor on the rare occasion, celebrating sixty years of married life.

Mrs. McLain is 78 years old, born October 28, 1854, in Randolph County, Arkansas. Mr. McLain is 79 and was born in the same county May 23, 1843. Both grew up and were married there November 28, 1872. To this union were born four girls and one boy. They are Mrs. Della Fullingim of Nara Visa, New Mexico; Mrs. Montez Wiggins of Lubbock; Mrs. Myrtle Williams of Dimmitt; Miss Winnie McLain of Dallas; and J. T. McLain of the Sand Hill community. All were present for the occasion. There are twenty grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Call of the West

In 1883 Mr. and Mrs. McLain loaded their children and possessions into two wagons and started west, landing in Johnson County, Texas, where they lived one year. From there they moved to Baylor County, Texas, living there three years. The country "further west" kept calling and in 1887 Uncle Jim made a two weeks trip to the plains to select a home. (This being one of only two occasions when this couple have been away from each other as long as two weeks in the sixty years of their married life.) He selected a place near the site of old Della Plain, (named for their eldest child, Della, then 14 years old) in Floyd County, and reached there with his family November 1, 1887. There "as only one building at that time. This was a long house of boxing boards, dirt floor, and with a roof on only a part of it. It was built by T. J. Braidfoot, who had driven a herd of cattle to that section from drought-stricken counties further east. This building was occupied by the McLain family and later by others until "dug out" homes could be made. "We lived in the building one month until our dug out was done," said Mrs. McLain the other day. "No one could have been prouder of a mansion than I was of our new 'dug out,'" she continued. "We didn't have a church, but Bro. Anson Cox, a Quaker preacher, and Bro. Stegall, a Methodist circuit rider, came and held services in our dug out. Ours was the first dug out there. Those preachers were grand old men" she recalled.

When asked what she thought of the present depression, Mrs. McLain said, "Folks today don't have anything to fuss about, neither did we. We did our best because we had to. We had less money and no conveniences then. Our mail was carried thirty miles by wagon from Estacado. We didn't get it often. We went to the 'breaks' and cut trees for fence posts and hauled them to Estacado to trade for supplies. Posts were our 'money.' We raised good gardens, after we had time to drill a well, and shared the vegetables with settlers who passed through going still further west. We had no neighbors for a while then they were twelve miles away."

Mr. McLain, too, is an interesting story teller. "I've never been in jail but once," he said with a smile. "That was when I was one of the county commissioners and the first jail was just built in Floydada. We were to inspect the building, before it was to be turned over to us. I was looking it over and one of the men pushed me into the cell and locked me up. He told me how he would let me out if I would go over to the saloon and get him a drink of whiskey. I didn't get him the whiskey, but one of the men came and let me out after awhile," he recalled. He served only two years as commissioner, moving away from his job when he homesteaded the land in the spring of 1892, immediately west a half mile of his present residence, in another precinct. He was elected tax assessor of the county in 1896 and served four years in this capacity.

The forenoon was spent in friendly greetings and in recalling old days and friends. At the noon hour a bountiful feast was spread on the long table, having as a center piece a pink and white wedding cake, on which stood a tiny bride and bridegroom. After an hour of feasting and pleasant conversation, Bro. Charlie Smith, a neighbor to the aged couple for forty years, made an interesting talk. "We didn't have much in the early days here," he said, "but we had health, love and friendly neighbors, so we were rich after all."

Rev. N. E. Tyler, pastor of Mr. and Mrs. McLain, offered a prayer of thanksgiving for the inspiration and christian influence of this beloved couple over a period of more than three-quarters of a century. Mrs. N. E. Tyler sang beautifully in her native tongue, the Norwegian, "O, That will be Glory." The remainder of the afternoon was spent in recalling old times and when parting time came, there were many kindly expressions of love and appreciation to the host and hostess. Theirs, indeed, has been a wonderful life record. Only one death (that of a great grandchild) has occurred in the family in sixty years. Wonderful, too, is the fact that their long life has been so well lived that all who know them "rise up and call them blessed."

H. D. Club Members Enjoy '42' Party Saturday Night.

Novel ideas on progression were introduced at the "42" party Saturday night given for members of the Floyd County Home Demonstration Clubs, members of the families, and friends and the evening passed quickly, so thoroughly did the guests enjoy the evening. Seven tables were at play.

Scores at the conclusion of play were unusually large due to the fact that the multiplication table was used frequently during the process of counting points. The players were divided into two groups, the Pilgrims and the Indians, carrying out an idea in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. Both sides claimed the victory with the Indians finally having to do the entertaining for the Pilgrims.

Allen Suggests General Benefit In Weed Burning

Suggestion was made this week by Oliver Allen, mail carrier out of Floydada, that the farmers and those residing along the highways in the county co-operate in a general "weed burning" program within the next week.

"I noticed many are already burning the weeds that have piled up along the fences on the roads," Mr. Allen said. "This is a fine idea for when the weeds are heavy along the fences heavy winter snows drift much more badly and make the highways impassable. We are equipped to deliver the mail to the folks under ordinary conditions and if the people will just burn the weeds now it will benefit everybody concerned, especially when heavy snows come this winter.

"To burn the weeds now will also get rid of a lot of seed and help keep them from scattering in the fields. It will mean better roads and better mail service, too," he said.

Green and White Goes Down Fighting Before Brownfield Attack, 19 to 0 Thanksgiving

Beautiful Battle Staged in First Half; Cubs Grab Title With Second-Half Rally.

By Buster Smalley
Quick kicking and perfect blocking paved the way for the Brownfield Cubs and they defeated the Whirlwinds Thursday afternoon, November 24. Playing a waiting game and with a wonderful team they swept through the Whirlwinds to win an earned game 19 to 0. The Cubs presented a dazzling offense in the second quarter that left the Whirlwinds wondering what had happened. "Little" Murray and Marion Heald were carried off the field injured during the last half after they both had played a wonderful game. The Whirlwinds outplayed the cubs during the first half but the cubs put on full steam during the second half and ran roughshod over the Whirlwinds.

Perfect Football Weather
It was a perfect day for football and there was a crowd estimated at 1,500 fans to witness the battle. The crowds started in the gates an hour before the game was scheduled to begin. Captain Jackson of the Whirlwinds won the toss and chose to receive.

Huckabee kicked to Murray who returned it to his 31. Heald picked up 5 at right tackle. He made 4 more at left tackle. He then made a first down on the Floydada 44. The cubs were then penalized five yards for offside. A 4-yard gain and another penalty on the cubs made it a first down on the Brownfield 44. Floydada failed to gain and Murray kicked to Huckabee on his 20 where he fumbled and Jenkins recovered for Floydada. On two tries at the line Heald made it a first down on the Cubs' 9-yard line. The Whirlwinds failed to gain and Murray passed over the goal line to deCordova but it was incomplete. It was Brownfield's ball on their twenty. Neil kicked to Murray who returned it to his 46. Murray kicked after failing to gain at the line and Neil returned it to the Floydada 40.

Henry was injured and Smith replaced him in the Whirlwind line. Neil fumbled and Glover recovered for Floydada. On line plays the Whirlwinds carried the ball to the cubs 28 yard line where they lost the ball on downs. On exchange of punts it was Brownfield's ball on their 20. Time out Brownfield. Neil kicked to Murray on his 21. Murray then kicked to Neil who returned it to the Floydada 45. On three line plays Neil carried the ball to the Floydada 22 as the first quarter ended.

Whirlwind Line Holds
On the first play of the second quarter Neil carried the ball to the Floydada 4. On line plays the Cubs failed to gain and it was Floydada's ball on their 3-yard line. Murray punted out of bounds on the Floydada 47. Hoffman replaced Johnson in the Floydada line. The Cubs failed to gain and Neil punted over the Floydada goal line. After three line plays, Murray kicked 70 yards over the cubs goal line. Huckabee then kicked to Murray who returned it to his 41. After failing to gain Murray kicked out of bounds on the Brownfield 25. Neil then punted to Murray who returned it to his 46. Murray and Heald made it a first down on the Cubs 37. After failing to gain, Murray kicked out of bounds on the Cubs' 20. Neil kicked to Murray on the Cubs' 49 and on line plays Floydada marched to the Cubs' 34. Murray kicked to Neil who returned it to his 24. Neil fumbled and Jenkins recovered for Floydada. Murray's pass to Jenkins was incomplete over the goal line. Neil failed to gain as the half ended.

Both pep squads gave some beautiful demonstrations during the half and they were given a big hand by the sidelines.
To start the second half Huckabee kicked to Heald who returned to his 28. After failing to gain, Murray kicked out of bounds on the Cubs' 27. Huckabee then quick-kicked to the Floydada 1-yard line where it was killed by Moore. Murray kicked to the Floydada 31. Eastridge replaced Glover in the Whirlwind backfield. After failing to gain, Neil attempted to pass but it was intercepted by deCordova on the Floydada 25. Murray punted to Neil who returned it to the Floydada 49. On spinners and line plays Brownfield advanced the ball to the Floydada 4-yard line. On two line plays Neil plunged over for the tally. Neil's try for the extra point was no good.

Score Floydada 0, Brownfield 6.
Huckabee kicked to Heald who returned it to the Floydada 32. On the next play Heald was injured and he was replaced by Henderson. Heald had been a serious threat all during the game and he was missed very much in the Floydada line-up.
Murray's pass to deCordova was intercepted by Neil on Floydada's 30. Neil carried it to the Floydada 10. On the next play Johnston threw Huckabee for a 10-yard loss. Tankersley carried it to the Floydada 7 and on the next play he carried it over from the 7-yard line. Neil's place-kick was no good.

Score Floydada 0, Brownfield 12.
Huckabee kicked to Murray who returned it to his 26. Murray's pass to deCordova was intercepted by Neil on the Floydada 43. Time out Brownfield. Huckabee punted out of bounds on the Floydada 34. Murray picked up a yard as the third quarter ended.

F. Murray Is Hurt
Murray was hurt on the first play but he remained in the game. Bridges fumbled and Neil recovered on the Floydada 45. On an exchange of punts it was Brownfield's ball on the Floydada 23. Glover replaced "Little" Murray in the Floydada backfield. Neil carried it to the Floydada 6 before he was stopped. On the fourth down Huckabee carried it over from the 1-yard line. Huckabee made the extra point from placement.
Score, Floydada 0, Brownfield 19.
There was no more scoring done and at the end of the game the crippled Floydada boys were holding the Cubs deep in the Brownfield territory. For Floydada Jenkins was the most outstanding man. His great defensive work earned him a place L. Murray, F. Murray and Jackson on the all-district team. Johnston, were also outstanding. For the Cubs Neil, Moore and Owens were the outstanding players.

It is estimated by several farmers and local ginners in the Dougherty shipping territory that there is fully one-third of the cotton crop yet to be harvested.

Our local gin here has ginned to date November 28, 1530 bales; Joe Bailey gin about 1450 bales, McAdoo gins, two in number a little more than 4000. McAdoo and Wake communities do not bring much of their cotton here but several bales have been shipped from here from that territory. In time, we think more will make Dougherty their shipping point as we have better roads and a closer haul.

To date 2150 bales have already been shipped from here. Our local weigher John Burgett has weighed 1450 in the yard. 555 remains now in the yard. 75 private owned bales also are in the yard here.

The Value Of Cooperation

Time was when every community had its own small, isolated electric power plant—if it had any electric service at all.
That was before it was technically possible to link up groups of towns and provide them with power through widespread systems of electric transmission lines.
Today many communities share each power plant. Thus they utilize the facilities more efficiently and receive a higher grade of service at a much smaller cost. The small town's new industrial importance is a direct outgrowth of this improvement in power supply.

 "The Baker family owns practically the entire capital stock of this bank, and you can say that we are behind it with all our resources. Every depositor is going to be protected and when this thing is over every depositor is going to be my friend," Mr. Baker said.
R. F. C. Mortgage Recorded
 That a very large slice of Reconstruction Finance Corporation money, as well as funds from other sources, is going to be put into the bank to make its position thoroughly impregnable, was indicated the first of this week by the filing of a deed of trust here covering ten brick buildings and other unencumbered property in and around Lockney, which the Baker's are putting up to afford additional security for the protection of depositors in the bank. The mortgage went on record Sunday. The mortgage which was created covers property of an appraised value in excess of $80,000, it was said unofficially, an amount greater than the deposits themselves.
 "We appreciate the wonderful spirit shown by the people who have their funds in our bank," Mr. Baker said before his departure last night for Dallas. "It means that the people have confidence in the country, confidence in themselves and their institution and that all of us are going to work out of our difficulties together. It means, moreover, that we are going to continue to have a banking institution in Lockney."
 The First National Bank at Lockney was established as a private bank in 1903. It was nationalized about 1906 and has been identified with the development of the county throughout the years. The present ownership of the bank's major stock was put in the hands of the Baker family in 1928 and their strong position has carried the bank successfully through the trying period of the last two years.  his wound dressed. Twenty-eight stitches were required to close the wound. Kimble was taken to his home in southwest Floydada, where medical attention was given him. He did not regain consciousness until 8 o'clock the next morning. The infection which set up from a break of the brain lining became alarming to the family the first of this week and he was taken to Plainview for treatment Tuesday morning reaching there at 2 o'clock. He died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, and his body was brought to Floydada the same day by the F. C. Harmon undertakers of this city.
Funeral Held Wednesday
 Funeral services for the deceased man were held Wednesday afternoon from the Lakeview Baptist Church at 3 o'clock with Rev. J. Matt Harder, pastor of the church, conducting, and interment was made in Lakeview Cemetery.
 He is survived by his wife and two small children, of this city, and by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kimble of Pleasant Hill, two brothers and two sisters. The brothers, Joe and Mayland, live at Pleasant Hill, as does the younger sister, Mary Francis. The other sister is Mrs. Grady Moon, of this city.
 W. W. Kimble was a native of La Fayette County, Mississippi, where he was born September 3, 1905. In his early childhood the family moved to Floyd County and he was reared in this county. He moved to Floydada about two years ago.
Moreau's Arm Infected
 Reports that Moreau's wound had become badly infected and that the member had been removed were found to be incorrect. The Associated Press Bureau in Amarillo said he was in the Northwest Texas Hospital there from November 22 until yesterday morning when he was dismissed. He was suffering from an infection in the wound. He had been trying to work at his profession of auto mechanic before he left Floydada, it was said here, although warned that he should not do so. The officers were not seeking him in connection with the Crosby County affair, it was said, although he will be called as a witness in all probability.
 Nothing had been said by witnesses of the two fights at the Swann home, they told Sheriff Reed, because they hoped that nothing serious would come of the injuries sustained by the men, and that the trouble would blow over.
 Lee Mayhew, of the F. C. Harmon undertaking firm, said the skin was not broken on the skull wound and that the outer skull was not fractured. The laceration on the left side of the forehead from the top of the forehead to the center of the head.
 Ray Moreau yesterday afternoon in Amarillo told a reporter for the Amarillo News he did not know who his assailant was at the dance. He and Jimmie Baxter were in the latter's car ready to leave for home "to avoid trouble," when two men pulled Baxter out of the car. They had Baxter down, Moreau said, and he tried to pull one of them off when he got the knife slash. He went inside to try to stop the bleeding. While he was inside someone came in and told Kimble's wife someone had knocked her husband in the head. He said he did not know the cause of the trouble.
 Rev. Harder was assisted in the funeral service by Rev. F. O. Garner of this city. Pallbearers were Lloyd Bedford, Jimmie Baxter, Lawrence Adams, Rev. F. O. Garner, Austin Freeman, and L. G. McPeak. The surviving children are a daughter, Gloria Dean, and a son, Kenneth.
 The deceased was married in 1924 to Miss Lula Mae Kinsey. He came to this county from De Leon County with his parents.

L. T. Barksdale Seriously Cut in Fight; Had Expelled Football Men

Former Mentor of F. H. S. Squad Called from Bed to 'Settle Matter.'

L. T. Barksdale, coach of Canyon High School Athletics, is in bed this week suffering from deep wounds inflicted by a razor in the hands of an assailant at a cafe in Canyon Sunday morning about 1 o'clock. His alleged assailant is being held pending the outcome of Barksdale's condition.
 The fight occurred following Barksdale's action in discharging from his squad three stellar backfield men on Wednesday prior to the Thanksgiving bi-district game with McLean, according to reports from Canyon. The three young men had broken training, the coach alleged, by going to a dance following the Canyon-Herford game a week previous. The man being held is charged with the responsibility of their breaking training. The coach is said to have warned the man that he would be held to an accounting for causing the infraction of the rules by the boys.
 Canyon played McLean on Thanksgiving Day and was beaten 52 to 0. On the Saturday afternoon before Barksdale and the man with whom he had the difficulty are said to have met on a downtown street. When the other man is said to have reached for his pocket, Barksdale is reported to have said, "Put up your gun or your knife and I'll whip you." They parted at that time, however, without further trouble.
 On the Saturday night of the difficulty Barksdale was called from his bed by telephone at about 12:30 by a voice which said, "Meet me at the cafe and we'll settle the matter." When he reached the cafe the fight began. The coach had the man down when he began cutting with the razor. Barksdale's wounds included cuts on the arm and legs. Onlookers are said to have stood by, disregarding the coach's request that someone take the razor away from his opponent. When officers were summoned they took the razor and placed the man in jail.
 A statement by the county attorney of Randall County this week said that the youth, a country boy who was intensely loyal to the high school team, was "aged on" to fight the coach, and that in reality neither he nor the coach should be blamed. The matter will be carried over for the grand jury to take action.
 Coach Barksdale is in his first year as Coach at Canyon High. He was formerly mentor of the Floydada athletic teams in high school, serving two years here.
 Reports from Canyon the first of week said he was improving.
 Dutch Oberst pled guilty Tuesday to a charge of fighting Coach Barksdale and was fined $15 and court costs. He insisted that the coach was the aggressor both in their meeting Saturday and in the cafe fight Sunday morning. He denied calling Barksdale from his home and inviting him to meet him at the cafe.

which could not otherwise be undertaken at the time or in the immediate future.
 "From these funds, materials and supplies cannot be purchased, neither can overhead expenses be charged to the funds. The recipient must be one who needs relief and one who is destitute and unemployed. Single persons without dependents will not be employed unless it can be shown that they are needy. The records of the various charitable institutions who have carried on relief for the past two years will be used as a basis to determine the eligibility of those applying for work, each applicant will be required to present his case to the committee which will determine from the records and the evidence submitted those who are eligible to receive work relief. It is hoped that the work contemplated can be spread out over a period of time and to such persons as will relieve those families who are dependent on work for a living through the winter months, or until such time as the funds in hand will permit; Unemployed persons who are not bonified residents of Floyd County will not be employed. Each county is expected to take care of its own unemployed and due to the fact that the funds are limited it will be impossible to give employment to all of those persons who may apply for work and in no case will employment be given to any but residents.
 It is pointed out that the funds to be expended are strictly for charitable purposes and that the scale of wages will not be such that a person will be able to make money but will be enough to enable the laborer to make a living from the wages paid. The committee will appreciate the cooperation of the citizenship in this movement so that the most good can be secured for the community."

Brisk Tax Payments As 'Split' Date Nears

Last week saw a brisk increase in the payment of county and state taxes, according to the figures of County Collector C. M. Meredith, who took in a total of $6,246.12 in the period from Monday to Saturday night. The approach of the close of the "split tax" payment period saw a very considerable increase in the per centage of split payments. The figures include a considerable number of non-resident receipts written for half of total tax bills.
 Of the total payments $4,673.38 was for taxes on the current rolls, $150.50 for current poll tax payments, $45.73 on insolvents, $1,354.01 on delinquent redemptions and $22.50 for occupation taxes.
 Ninety per cent of the amount collected, under a recent law, is remitted weekly to the respective funds for which the county collector makes collections, including the state, county and common schools.

Pat Collins And Mrs. Dalley Get Limerick Prizes

Pat Collins is winner of first place in this week's awarding of prizes in The Hesperian Limerick Contest being conducted on the Classified Ad page. He gets two free guest tickets to see "The Washington Merry Go-round" at the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday. Lee Tracy is the star of the picture which is heralded as the greatest expose of the "inside" workings of government ever filmed.
 Pat's winning limerick reads as follows:
 "C is for cattle
 Bought and sold every day
 Try Hesperian Want Ads
 For results right away."
 And Mrs. L. F. Dalley is winner of second place and gets one free guest ticket to see "The lid blown off" the scenes at Washington in "The Washington Merry Go-round."
 Honorable mention goes to Mrs. Marvin Williamson, Mrs. Deen H. Hill, city, Mrs. M. J. Marler, Route 5, Sam Rutledge and Miss Noryne Spence, city. Others who have submitted entries recently include Mrs. Will J. Lester, Mrs. Walter Armes, Leeman Norman, Mrs. Dora Hicks, and Ray Ramsey, Route 4.
 Keep up the good work, folks. It's lots of fun isn't it!
 Have you tried writing a limerick? It's simple to do and you may be the winner. It's all purely a matter of skill but you do not have to be an Edgar A. Guest or an Edna St. Vincent Mallay to win. Even the youngest can do it.
 Just turn to the Want Ads and you'll find a suggestion on what you need to do. Get your "pomes" in early so they will read the Limerick Editor at The Hesperian not later than Monday.

CITY MARSHAL CALLS HALT TO CENTER STREET PARKING

Tom Mix Coming In His Second Feature

"The Rider of Death Valley" was filmed in the famous desert which is the lowest spot in the United States and the hottest. Thousands and thousands of moving picture fans are delighted at the return of Tom Mix to the screen. They are delighted to find that in talking pictures he is even a greater star than he was three years ago when he was the reigning western star of all time. His second feature, "The Rider of Death Valley," is scheduled to play the Palace Theatre Saturday. It is a typical Tom Mix hard-riding, hard-fighting picture, with beautiful Lois Wilson, onery Fred Kohler and Silky-villain Forrest Stanley in featured roles. It also introduces little Edith Fellowes the charming scholar at Universal's "little red schoolhouse," in a delightful role.
 In addition, there are a number of the stars and featured players of yesterday mixed up in this desert adventure in which a sand storm and a gigantic explosion play dominant parts. And then there is Tony the most famous horse in the world, who in this picture plays the role of the gallant rescuer.
 All in all, "The Rider of Death Valley" is one of the pictures which no one who likes excitement and something going on every minute can afford to miss.
