Funeral Service for Mrs. R. E. Burchfield Held Late Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. R. E. Burchfield, the former Miss Lena Pennington, for five years librarian at Floydada High School, succumbed at the local hospital at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning, following an operation Friday night at 9 o'clock. She had been ill for two weeks.

Funeral services were held late Sunday afternoon from the City Park Church of Christ with Elder J. E. Stanchridge, of Plainview, conducting the services. Interment was made in Floydada Cemetery Monday morning, the body having been held over pending the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. H. Z. Pennington, parents of the deceased, from Eldorado. Lee Mayhew, with F. C. Harmon, had charge of the funeral arrangements. Pallbearers were Burl Bedford, Lacey Martin, E. S. Price, Chester deCordova, O. B. Olson, Alva Boothie George Sherrill and Garland Glover and Flower bearers Misses Rea, Miller and Norton of the high school faculty, and Mrs. A. P. Horn and Mrs. J. U. Burum.

A husband and eight weeks old son, Don Jamie, survive, also the parents, Dr. and Mrs. Pennington, six brothers and three sisters. The brothers are J. L. Pennington of Dimmitt, Harve of Lockney, Foy H. of Borger, Roy and Walter of Greeley, Colorado, and Joe of Eldorado, Texas. The surviving sisters are Mrs. L. R. Mickey of Seymour, Texas, and Mrs. W. A. Sprague of Greeley, Colorado and Mrs. Vera Turk of Plainview. Of these, four brothers, J. L., Harve, Foy H., and Joe, and two sisters, Mrs. L. R. Mickey, and Mrs. Turk were here for the funeral service and burial rites.

Mrs. Burchfield was a native of Claude, Armstrong County. The family moved to Lockney in 1912, and eight years ago to Floydada. She would have been 28 years of age on December 12. For five years she was librarian at Floydada High School, resigning to marry on Christmas, 1931. She was married here.

The deceased finished her high school work at Panhandle and later attended college at Colorado State Teachers College for three years, and spent two summer terms at West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon. She majored in home economics and in library work.

Christmas Turkeys Low And Few Are Marketed

With turkeys bringing a record low of six cents per pound for Number One birds this morning, dealers anticipate little further receipts for the Christmas market, which will close locally Friday night according to present indications. The six-cent price this morning is a drop of one cent from yesterday's price.

About 2,000 head of turkeys were bought by dealers here during the week. The market opened Monday but practically all the turkeys sold came in Wednesday.

Turkey raisers who are not selling plan to try the January market or to consume their fowls at home.

FEW TOYS RECEIVED FOR REPAIR BY BOY SCOUTS

Very few toys have been received by the Boy Scouts of Troop 44 for repair and repairing, although a call was given out two weeks ago by Scoutmaster W. A. Gound, who said the boys planned to re-do the playthings for needy children of the community.

Collecting and preparing broken toys for the boys and girls whom Santa might overlook has been an annual program with the boys. "We are afraid those who intend to bring or send us toys are going to wait until the last minute," Mr. Gound said.

Those who plan to lend their aid should do so at once, he said, leaving the toys and plaything at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Lockney Bank Re-Opens As Scheduled Monday

The First National Bank of Lockney, which did not open its doors Tuesday morning of last week, after declaring a brief holiday for re-arranging its financial structure, re-opened on Monday morning on schedule and this week was continuing with its functions as a banking institution, and several thousand dollars in new deposits were reported as being placed in the bank during the three days of business this week to Wednesday night.

Practically all old deposits of the bank were pledged as time deposits for a period ending December 1 of next year, officers of the bank and a committee of depositors co-operating in a whirlwind sign-up campaign closing Saturday of last week. Meanwhile Artie Baker, president of the bank, spent the week-end in Dallas where he perfected arrangements for a re-financing program that gives the institution ample working funds.

The entire financial strength of the Baker family were put behind the bank, property appraised at more than $80,000 being pledged against any liabilities of the institution.

There was no run on the bank, President Baker said.

L. Williams Succumbs At Home Of Son Here

Funeral For Father of N. W. Williams To Be Held Friday Afternoon.

L. Williams, 85, of Park Springs, Texas, a resident of Texas for sixty years, died here at the home of his son, N. W. Williams, 215 West House Street, this morning at 9 o'clock, following a brief attack of pneumonia which he contracted Sunday.

Funeral services will be held from the First Methodist Church tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 and interment will be made in Floydada Cemetery. Rev. I. A. Smith, pastor of the church, will conduct the funeral service, with the F. C. Harmon undertakers in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Williams had been seriously ill of rheumatism for the past two months, and recently his sons took him to Glenrose for treatment. He was still suffering from the rheumatic condition and complications when he and Mrs. Williams came here for a visit with their son. His condition became grave Monday night and relatives were notified. A. L. Williams, only other surviving child of the family, together with his wife and two daughters, arrived at his bedside Tuesday morning and have been here since.

Other surviving relatives include his wife, one brother and one sister. The brother is G. W. Williams of Los Angeles, California and the sister is Mrs. Lizzie Pierson of Rector, Arkansas.

Lycurgus Williams was a native of Wabash County, Indiana, where he was born on September 28, 1847. He emigrated to Tennessee and from that state moved to Wise County, Texas, in 1883, where he has resided since. He has been justice of the peace at Park Springs in Precinct 4 of that county for several years and was re-elected to the office at the general election in November.

He was a member of Masonic orders and had been a member of the Methodist Church for sixty years.

School Holidays Dec. 23 To January First

Public Schools of Floydada will close for the holidays on the afternoon of Friday, December 23 and the school will re-open on Monday, January 2, it was decided at a meeting of the school board Wednesday night. The board meeting was scheduled for Monday night, but illness and absence from the city caused a postponement.

A generally very satisfactory condition in the school system was indicated in a statement by W. Edd Brown, chairman of the board, following the meeting when reports were had on tax collections, the financial status of the district, student body, teaching personnel. A report from Superintendent A. D. Cummings, chairman of the Athletic Council of the school, indicated a gratifying situation in this division of scholastic activities.

Cummings' report showed present enrollment in the schools of 774 students, 502 of which are in Andrews Ward and 272 in high school.

DELINQUENTS HAVE UNTIL DECEMBER 31 TO SAVE PENALTY AND INTEREST

Taxpayers, whose names appear on the delinquent list of Floyd County, will effect a pronounced saving on their tax bills if they can manage to get together enough money to pay not later than December 31. At that time the law remitting penalty and interest automatically expires.

Collector C. M. Meredith says a considerable number of delinquent taxpayers plan to take advantage of the saving offered.

Recovery Of Nearly $100 In Checks From Burglary Effected

Nearly $100 worth of checks taken by a twilight burglar or burglars Sunday evening about 6:30 from the Armstrong Market in the building with the Mallory Grocery on West California Street, is being recovered this week by Edgar Jones, manager, by the simple process of stopping payment on the checks known to be outstanding and getting new ones from the customers.

There will be some loss from this source, but most of the checks are recalled, Mr. Jones said. In the list was a check on the city for upward of $50, duplicate for which has been given.

Something less than $125 in checks was in the loot obtained by the burglars, $194.19, constituting receipts for Saturday's run at the market, were taken when a fireproof register was carried into the back room of the store and opened with a pinch bar or heavy instrument. An overturned table and signs where the heavy register had been dragged on the concrete floor was evidence of how the burglary was effected. The burglars effected an entrance through a back window.

That the burglars must have been fast workers was indicated by the fact that members of the firm, as well as members of the Mallory grocery firm were in the store shortly before six o'clock and the burglary was discovered by Edgar Jones shortly after six thirty, when he went down to get the money and put it away against possible theft. "Whoever did it had to be fast workers," he said.

Sheriff E. S. Randerson said officers had no clues on which to work, and no arrests had been made this mid-week.

Wife of Former Floydada Pastor Succumbs Wednesday Morning After Long Illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Horton of this city, have spent most of the past two weeks at the bedside of his sister-in-law. A number of friends from here will attend the funeral.

6,559 BALES GINNED BY FLOYDADA PLANTS TODAY

The three gin plants operating in Floydada this season had turned out a total of 6,559 bales of cotton last night.

Unusually fine weather for cotton gathering has made one of the fastest ginning seasons in recent years. The cotton crop harvest is estimated at close to completion all over the county.

At the same time the report was completed and turned over, the collector made his remittance covering the fifth week of the month, from which the county received a check for $6,387.58, the state $7,911.06 and

Lights Go Bad And Officers Go Into Ditch

Friday morning about 5:30 Deputy Sheriff G. Scott King and Night Watchman Lee Howard, of this city, "went into the ditch" at the Santa Fe Railway Crossing between Floydada and Lockney when their car lights failed. Their car turned over sideways and ended over landing upright with the front wheels in the bar ditch and their hind wheels across the fence, Mr. King said.

Neither was hurt seriously, although Howard was thrown through the top of the car and King was still under the wheel when the automobile stopped rolling. Both were back on duty the next day. They were answering a call to Lockney when the accident occurred.

"The actual wreck didn't scare me," Mr. King said. "I was already too scared, a large oil truck having almost run us down about a half mile up the road. Evidently the driver never did see our lights."

Both officers expressed pleasure at being able to laugh over the accident. The car they were in was a light one and was not badly demolished.

Singing Convention In Floydada Next Sunday

A number of out-of-county singers are expected in Floydada for the County Singing Convention on Sunday next, December 11. C. M. Lyles, president of the convention, said the latter part of last week. Interest indicates there will also be a good attendance from over the county.

The sessions will be held at the High School Auditorium beginning in the forenoon, about 10 o'clock. Hale, Lubbock, Motley and Briscoe Counties are among those from which outside visitors are expected.

Particular attention of Floyd County people is called by the president to the fact that visiting singers will be their guests for lunch Sunday noon and that it will be a thoughtful thing to be sure to have sufficient lunch for the visitors.

WINS OPEN FIELD RACES

Greyhounds belonging to Oliver Allen, local racing dog fancier, won seven out of nine open field races in which they were matched Sunday afternoon in a field twenty miles northwest of Sudan. Mr. Allen had six dogs in the races.

Irvin Allen, W. L. Craft, Emmett Curry and Earl Cowand accompanied him on the trip.

LAGRIPE EPIDEMIC RAGES OVER COUNTY

An epidemic of lagrippe and influenza which became noticeable two weeks ago over the county, had increased this mid-week to the proportions of a real epidemic, and physicians are being overrun with calls.

Less than half a dozen cases in the county had assumed serious aspects, however, a few cases of pneumonia and influenza in aggravated form being reported.

This week is the fourteenth anniversary practically to a week of the most serious plague of lagrippe and influenza that ever swept this county. During this week fourteen years ago literally hundreds of cases of influenza had developed and not enough persons were left well to give proper attention to the sick. Floyd County court house was filled with patients and every available well person was drafted into the work of relieving the distress in all section of the county. Heavily drifted snow and extreme cold made the task a much more difficult one.

Whirlwinds-Green Peppers to Banquet Friday Night

Crew Of Fifteen Put To Work On So. Main

Relief Employment Committee and City Work Together On Improvement Program.

Tuesday at noon a crew of fifteen men were put to work on the first block of a ten block caliche paving program that is the first effort on the part of the local Relief Work Committee to afford employment under the plan inaugurated this fall. Funds from the federal treasury are being expended, through an appropriation provided by Act of Congress, the funds appropriated to the state for distribution.

The paving, of a permanent or semi-permanent nature, is being supervised by Mayor W. C. Hanna of the city, with Geo. A. Linder in charge of the engineering work. Caliche from the southwestern suburbs of the city is being used for a base and a topping of caliche from the W. M. Massie lands on Blanco will probably be given. The shorter distance from which the principal part of the material is being hauled, will give more money for distribution, cutting down the expenses of the operation, it was said by S. W. Ross, secretary of the committee, this week.

Streets on which improvements will be made were designed recently by the city at the request of the Relief Committee of five, and the city is co-operating in every way possible in the plan.

On the streets where the improvement is to be made copper pipes are being installed instead of the galvanized pipes. The copper was bought by the city in 1928 when extensions of paving intended to be made were not contracted and represents a utilization of materials already on hand. The very minimum of expenditures are being made by the city, and the committee is involving no overhead charges of any nature.

Another job is being made for two or three men for a short time this week at Floydada Cemetery, where fences which has been neglected to some extent are being repaired, and drainage ditches put in where needed.

Several other jobs of a civic nature that have been permitted to go by default because of the need to save public funds are in the plans of the committee, working with the officials of the city, county, and other already-established organizations. "We are trying to get action on this money as fast as possible to assure a steady flow of much-needed employment for labor this winter and spring, which we are sure to have," Ross of the committee, said.

The plan of giving work instead of groceries or supplies is expected to be a much more satisfactory means of giving relief to needy, than the former plan, officials and relief workers are agreed, and the benefits prove much more lasting. A policy of giving work only to bona fide residents of the county is being followed, the committee announced recently. W. Edd Brown, Lon M. Davis, O. P. Rutledge and J. M. Willson are other members of the committee besides Ross. Brown was officially designated through the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as the representative of the governor of the state in the application for and distribution of the relief work funds, and is chairman of the committee.

Ferguson Injunction Dissolved; Highway 28 Contract May Be Let

A decision regarded as practically a complete victory for the Highway Department of the State of Texas was rendered by the Third Court of Civil Appeals at Austin Tuesday afternoon, when it dissolved the temporary injunction of Jas. E. Ferguson and two others against the letting of further contracts by the commission in the Ninety-First District Court at Austin.

A mandate to be issued this week it was said, would set the department free to resume its letting of bids for highway construction, and it was presumed that the body would proceed to re-advertise bids for nearly $4,000,000 worth of road construction in the state.

Hope For Local Project
Hope that the first project of highway construction in this county on Highway No. 28 might be included in one of the December lettings was expressed by T. B. Ingram, local project engineer of the department, although he said late yesterday he had had no word officially from his superiors in the matter. "There are two or three pieces of land in the right-of-way that have not as yet actually come into the hands of the state for road purposes and several waivers have not been approved by loan companies," he said, and these things may stand in the way of a December letting. So far as his crew is concerned, they have finished their work on the route eastward from Floydada to the Motley County line, and a very considerable portion of the work on the project west to the Hale County line is also finished. Field notes are being placed in the hands of the right-of-way committees as fast as possible, he said, for work on the line.

SEEKING THE PLUMS

The list of worthy democrats who would get their feet under the pie counter, from the small to the large federal patronage jobs, has grown to an enormous thing since November 8, when the tide turned against the republicans.

GAINING IN FAME

Whether one exactly agrees with John N. Garner, speaker of the house, and vice-president-elect on all the times, it must be admitted that he takes seriously the wishes of the people at the polls.

tax on oleomargarine, are hoping that he will eventually have some luck with such a tax and that he will put Phillipine monkey-gathered coconut oil at least to a disadvantage in this state in competition with cotton seed and butter fat.

PATRONAGE AND EXPENSES

There is no reason to expect that a gigantic struggle will not be made early in the new year over the matter of jobs and patronage, and the tree with the most and the biggest plums is the highway department.

However, it is to be hoped that the legislature and the new governor will take time to attempt the solution of some of the more pressing problems which directly affect the present financial and economic status of the citizenship.

If the patronage problem could be disposed of at an early date, the prohibition question brought to a vote and settled early so far as this legislature is concerned, and then the business of whittling expenses undertaken in a thoroughly businesslike manner it would be a most soothing syrup for the home-folks to take.

This and That

Everybody either is having the influenza this week or sitting on the mourners' bench waiting their turn. Some of the more progressive and forward-looking, so to speak, did their last week and a few of them, too spry for their aching bones, have gone back to bed to wrestle with it all over again.

The occasion for all of this is that the Cowhand Scribe, a workman on the ranch, has the influenza. It hit him Sunday afternoon. He hadn't been working very hard, hadn't got overheat or anything, but just up and went to aching, then coughing, then sneezing, then sick at his stomach, then sick at his back, and the first of the week he was holding his head and "feeling all right," he said. He tried to "tough it out" like a lot of them do.

That's only human nature, however. We try to "tough it out" along lots of lines, because we are hard-headed, or don't like to be quitters or something. In finances, for instance, many a man who thinks he has been mistreated by his creditors, who didn't let him keep going, "toughing it out," hasn't been mistreated at all. Hoplessly involved he strives, hoping against hope, and then gets mad when the creditors mercifully give him a chance to start all over again.

Over at Silvertown E. B. Boyle is the new manager, editor and owner of the Briscoe County News. Boyle once was factotum over at Crosbytown in the pre-Curry era. He's also worked at many other newspaper plants over the plains country, some of which he has owned, and some not. His most recent place of residence was at Vega, where he ran the Vega Sentinel. He used to be a good, conscientious, up-an-at-'em newspaper man and, doubtless, he is still.

The well-known holiday season is at hand. At the newspaper office we have been working on our customers trying to get them to spread the news around over the county about the wonderfully good stocks of merchandise here, innumerable hundreds of items in which will be very, very acceptable and excellent Christmas gifts. Old Santa Claus will be doing his stuff before you know it. We are of the candid belief that his helpers can find everywhere they need right here in Floydada for the Christmas pack.

All the country folks know this one, but there might be some in town who have not heard about the remark somebody made the other day about the depression being over. Somebody asked him, "How do you know?" "Well, I saw a jackrabbit loping across the prairie while ago and nobody after him."

The biggest news to the most people in Floyd County this week is that cream (butterfat) is 18 cents per pound. Believe it or not.

Two Old Men Of The Sea

There may be trouble soon disposing of cotton seed oil on the market, which means that the cotton crop had better not last longer or there'll be no market for the seed at a close enough range to pay for the trouble of marketing. Cheap cocoanut oil is one of the contributing factors. The bad market condition, generally, is the principal cause, of course. But many farmers are not selling their seed, anyhow. Cotton seed cake and hulls are much better for feed, if you can get a good deal, than the raw cotton seed.

The druggists and doctors are hit harder probably by the number of poor people, which includes the most of us, than are any other of the professions, lawyers not excepted. The doctor burns up his automobile bearings going to see them and the druggist rolls up his pills on the doctor's orders. And a lot of times they don't even get thank you for their trouble. Hundreds and thousands of dollars have gone that way the past year or two in this section. The recent diphtheria epidemic cost the druggists a pretty penny in serum alone. Would you refuse the antitoxin if you knew you were not to be paid, when some little fellow's life depends upon it? Druggists, most of them, have hearts as big as a barrel. And they'd better have, if the public keeps on imposing on them, and a pushcart full of shekles.

"There ought to be something done about it," of course. But so far we have done about the same thing about that that Mark Twain said they did about the weather. "Quite a bit has been said about the weather," he remarked, "but very little done about it."

The limerick went ad contest has created quite a bit of interest and has been a lot of fun here in the office. We've enjoyed it so far.

There has been a lot of marrying the last few years in the county that has not gotten into the public prints because the couples go to New Mexico to marry and the newspaper man finds out about the marriages about two weeks after they cease to be news. Preachers and county clerks, justices of the peace, and county judges, who formerly could count on a little coffee money out of weddings every month now practically mark marriage and license fees off their estimate of probable income. Texas' marriage law is a good one if the neighboring states had a similar one. Having no such law in New Mexico, Oklahoma or Louisiana, the youngsters from a distance of 150 miles either way from the borders drive across the line un-wed, return home wed, in an afternoon and that's that. Rev. G. W. Tubbs, who used to be one of the marryingest ministers in this part of the country, marries only an occasional couple now. And the county clerk's force have almost forgotten how to write out a marriage license. However, if anybody wants to marry the clerk's crew can brush up a bit on how to fill out the blanks. So don't stand back.

Of course, Texas is so big that the boys and girls living in the interior of the state have not heard yet that there are any states which do not require the notice of intention to marry, and the physical examination of the prospective bridegroom. Texas is big, sure enough.

And how this state does need cutting up into the states of West, Texas, North Texas, South Texas and East Texas. It would be a wonderful thing for all. And the Alamo would still be there, and Bowie, and David Crockett and all of them still could be taught in the public schools just as now. But no, the folks can't see it. And we lose six senators in congress and a preponderance of representation in that august upper house. Rhode Island has two senators and a representative representing their "county" in the halls of congress. And have they been represented! Half the farmers in Texas are working for the manufacturers in Rhode Island and don't even know it! But they know it when some fool comes along and suggests dividing their glor-ee-i-o-u-s state. The boys in Rhode Island take the profits and spend their vacations in Europe or Canada, as their fancy chooses. In Texas we take the glory and spend our vacations bragging about how big our state is,—and how nice it would be, some day, to get enough money to visit the capitol and the Alamo. Oh, well.

BITS O' PHILOSOPHY

Dean E. V. White Texas State College for Women (CIA) The honor of having money depends on how it was gotten. No one believes fussing is an evidence of affection. Investments in human life are more valuable than good bonds. Genius ignores the law of averages. The greatest misfortune is the loss of a small fortune honestly made. Keeping your mouth closed may conceal either wisdom or ignorance.

Contemporary Thought

Chillicothe Valley News: President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt is quoted as saying we would see eighty cent wheat in 1933. Of course, if the statement should be true, comes as good news to everyone living in the wheat belt especially. Yet, farmers place little credence in a statement until it is proven, and no one can blame them for that. Chillicotheans would certainly appreciate 80 cent wheat once more. Such a price for the farm commodity would tend to improve general conditions in this section to such an extent the people would be able to nearly get back on their feet once more. Eighty cent wheat should be the minimum market price. A dollar would be more like it, but all of us will be well-satisfied to get even 50 cents the way things have been. All we can say to Mr. Roosevelt, however, we hope he knows what he says, and end by suggesting that he bring on his eighty cent price and we will be glad to accept it.

Memphis Democrat: One consoling reflection in these days of stress is that we did a lot of things in the days of prosperity whose benefits we can still enjoy. We may not be buying as many new radio sets as we were a few years ago, but the old ones still work, and programs are coming through. Many a man who couldn't think of buying a new car today is making good use of the automobile he bought when times were good. One of the big companies reported the other day that present sales of cars are running at the rate of 291 used cars to every 100 new cars sold.

In public work we have many enduring things which we wouldn't start out to build now, but which our children and grandchildren will continue to enjoy. Our national program of concrete highways on solid foundations would never have got a fair start if the nation had not been over-prosperous for a few years; even today it is far from having been abandoned. There is nothing of more enduring value than a good road. Only a week or two ago there was uncovered a mile or so of rock highway built by the Romans in the south of England nearly two thousand years ago. Twenty-one feet wide, it led from London to the Channel, a part of the great system of roads which tied the ancient Roman empire together. One of the reasons why our widely-separated settlements and communities have held together in a single nation has been that means of communication, first the railroads, then the great highways, have closely followed the advance of population.

A DANGEROUS AUTHORITY Wichita Daily Times: The authority of the federal radio commission to cancel broadcasting licenses has been tentatively defined by the decision of the District of Columbia court of appeals in the case involving Rev. R. P. Shuler of Los Angeles. The commission refused, about a year ago, to renew the license of the station used by Shuler. Its action was based upon the minister's "sensational" attacks upon the Catholic church, his allegedly defamatory statements about the Los Angeles board of health, his unsupported charges that the Los Angeles labor temple was the scene of bootlegging and gambling operations and upon his slighting allusions to the Jews. The license of the Kansas station used by Dr. J. R. Brinkley was refused renewal because of the nature of the medical advice dispensed in his broadcasts. Public opinion, we believe, approves both rulings. The public feels that when the right to broadcast is abused as it was abused in these two instances, the commission's regulatory powers should be vigorously exercised. There is the danger, however, of setting a precedent that will give trouble in the future. If the commission's authority is fully upheld, there will be established a form of censorship that imperils the right of free speech. To permit any group of men to say what is proper to be broadcast and what is not is to confer power to an extent that runs counter to American principles. It must be borne in mind that those who were attacked by Shuler had remedies other than that of suppression. They had the same remedies that are available when a newspaper labels an individual or an institution.

There is the need of a much more explicit definition of the commission's powers than is provided by the ruling in the Shuler case. Censorship is a weapon with which few men are wise enough to be trusted.

A Farmer's Life "As He Lives It" BY ED HOLMES (Station C. E. H. Farm)

I have never seen so many farmers trying to buy pigs. Just any kind of pigs. Everybody seems to have too much cheap feed that they refuse to sell for the price offered, so they are looking the country over for pigs to eat it up. This will have a tendency to run the market up in the next few months. It can surely stand a little rise. Pigs are selling from $1.00 on up.

Better watch out for these bad colds and flu! The depression will be over for you if you work too hard, get in a run-down condition from not eating good wholesome food, not enough warm clothing, etc. If you don't have good health, what have you left? We are working ourselves to death, piling every kind of a product on the market and trying to live on nothing. A little thought will convince you that this will not balance things. Every farmer is selling something for, one-fourth its value that could be used to his advantage at home.

Last week I pulled cotton for a farmer down in Crosby County. He farmed his cotton with a tractor and told us that he owed more on his tractor now than the sale price amounted to when he bought it. The only reason I doubted it was that I thought the company had better collectors. He was worried to death. Said all he would get out of the cotton was a trip to town to get the money to pay the pickers. All above that would be credited on a note. It will be completely worn out before it is 20 years old and the main trouble with it is, he will never get up at daylight to find a little colt by its side to take its place later on.

Farmers still believe in grinding feed, but here, feed is so cheap, grinding it will cost as much per ton as the feed will sell for, before it is ground. The only argument for grinding is, it is much handier to grind and can be mixed into a balanced ration much easier. The majority of farmers in this section have quit grinding. For sport and profit get this idea but don't tell the Highway Cop. I have a Spot Light on top of my little Whippet with a handle extending through the top so that Alma can control the light. Do we have fun hunting these rabbits at night or not! She turns the spot light on them, blind them and I shoot them with a 22 rifle just as good as in broad open daylight. The other night we killed 15 with 26 shots, only drove the car about six miles. When the wheat fields get in better shape we will try to beat that. We have a Police pup that brings them to the car in a hurry and saves many shells for when I cripple them she can catch them. Hold your foot on their head and grab their hide just behind the ears, pull it off just like a sack. Its easier than telling you. Now you have meat scrap for your chickens, tankage and bone meal for your hogs. The rabbits will not ruin your wheat, besides you had a lot of fun. But don't tell the Highway Cop and don't shine it into other cars that you meet.

A POLITICAL ERROR

Amarillo Daily News: It was obvious around Austin early this week that Mr. Ferguson had made a political mistake in filing the suit. Protests against his suit came to him, by telephone, letter and in person, from all sections of the state and from many of his warmest supporters. There are many Ferguson friends affected by the highway building injunction. They are persons who were looking for road jobs this winter, others who wanted contracts and others who wanted badly needed roads paved. Mr. Ferguson said he had no ill will toward the Panhandle. He said he realized this section had been neglected until in recent months in the matter of road building and promised to carry out the construction program in the spring when he gets into office—provided there is money. Assuming that there is an ample road fund and that Mr. Ferguson will see to it that the gaps in the Panhandle main highways are paved, his suit is disastrous so far as work this winter is concerned and also inasmuch as it beats Texas out of much federal aid. His argument that he isn't interfering with road work to be financed out of federal funds won't hold water. The federal funds are available to be spent on roads which the state must build by June 30. The state awards the contracts. It is the agency through which the federal funds are expended. So long as his injunction prevents the state from awarding contracts it is impossible for the state to use the federal aid, therefore he is denying Texas this aid. The worst thing about the whole proposition is that he is keeping men from work this winter. It seems to be his position that the contracts will be delayed only a short while, or until he goes into office. There will be more delay than it might appear on first glance.

Clipped Paragraphs

While journeying from Ottawa, Ill., to Chicago for his wedding to Miss Berdine Heinrichs, Fredrick Damman was held up and robbed of his wedding clothes and $100. After Policeman Salvatore Franciosa vanished from a hospital in Rochester, N. Y., he was found at his home devouring a meal consisting of roast chicken and a big platter of spaghetti. Miss Margaret Geogan of St. Paul thinks the cold she caught because an apartment house she lived in was too cold, is worth $56,000 so she sued the owner for that amount. E. C. Parks of Seattle, Wash., didn't know a bale of hay on the rear bumper of his car was on fire, but firemen did and extinguished the blaze on the run, after a three-block chase. A burglar in Indianapolis, Ind., stole Ray Taylor's radio, thereby solving Taylor's problem of whether to keep the radio or his dog, which howled when the radio was being used in the home. Mrs. Helen Goins of Indianapolis, Ind., obtained a divorce from her husband on a charge of cruelty when she told the court that after her husband purchased a new automobile he refused to let her ride in the front seat.

Congressional Responsibility

The defects of our Congress, whatever they may be, are our own fault. Congress is what we make it.—Woman's Home Companion. Maureen Orcutt Says—Women are so accustomed in all the contests and conflicts of life to getting a little better of the argument through the age-old superstition that they're the weaker sex, that when they go into sport with rigid rules they are obliged to play the game squarely or find themselves ostracized, regarded as poor sports and unable to get anybody to play with.—Collier's Weekly.

ECONOMY THE REAL ISSUE

But whatever may be said about national politics henceforth for a time, there is no doubt that the big issue with the people is going to be economy program. The taxpayers are going to be insistent on a program of economy to make the budget balance rather than a program of taxation. Ordinary, run-of-mine citizens need to make his budget balance. He has had no chance of getting the job done. The government to do the job and will be hard to get on new revenue-producing after all, the government can't do it, and the folks are all ag and thinking governmental economy.

THE WHEAT ACREAGE

Acres to be planted in wheat this fall in the principal wheat-growing section of the country is still problematical. According to a report from the agricultural department of the Santa Fe Railway Company the government is now assembling figures for a final report on the probable winter acreage. The government's report on the farmers' intentions to plant at the beginning of the season was slightly less than forty million acres against slightly more than forty million acres last year and a five-year average of forty three and a half million acres. To this should be added a probable reduction of several million acres unless it rains or comes a good snow soon. Wheat conditions are said to be good in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, New Mexico, Arizona and California, and in the eastern two-thirds of Kansas, central Oklahoma and the southern portion of the panhandle of Texas. Practically the same area that is expected to show a wheat shortage this fall had the poor production of last year.

All in all it appears that the trek back toward a supply of wheat that the market demands and will consume is being brought about by economics assisted by the weather conditions and that within a year or two or three the price of wheat will start in the other direction.

SOCIETY

Miss Pattye Looper Becomes Bride of L. Floyd Simpson.

One of the prettiest home weddings to be witnessed recently in Floydada was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Looper, 603 South Wall Street, Saturday evening, December 3 when the Rev. S. R. McClung, pastor of the Baptist Church united in marriage the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Looper, Miss Pattye, to Mr. L. Floyd Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Simpson of Lubbock.

The home was made beautiful with fern and palm arranged by Mrs. Maud Hollums, florist. An altar of greenery with lighted tapers in holders added charm to the colorful ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Clinton Walters of Plainview sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Helen Looper of Plainview, who also played the wedding march. Preceding the maid of honor, Miss Winona Felton, dressed in blue organdie over pink satin and carrying an arm bouquet of sweet peas and fern, came the two bridesmaids, Misses Mildred Strickland and Hazel Probasco. Miss Strickland was dressed in green organdie over yellow satin and Miss Probasco orchid organdie over white satin each carrying bouquets of sweet peas. As the attendants neared the altar the lovely bride gowned in a gorgeous white satin evening dress carrying an arm bouquet of pink sweetheart rose buds and fern, descended the stairway and was met at the altar by his best man his brother, Wallace Simpson, of Crosbyton.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Looper and has grown to young womanhood in Floydada, where she has a host of friends who love her for her disposition and charming personality. Mr. Simpson is with the State Highway Department with headquarters at present in Floydada. He is a young man of sterling qualities and well deserves the lovely girl he has chosen for his bride.

Following the benediction the bridal party proceeded to the dining room where a bride's cake, on a table massed with ferns on a lace cloth presided over by Mrs. Homer Looper of Plainview, was cut by the bride and groom, who received the congratulations of the following guests:

Could Your Car Pass a "Cold Test" like this?

Through deep snow drifts that blanketed Wolf Creek Pass, 10,800 feet above sea level in Colorado's Rockies, a great V-type snow plow doggedly pushed its way. A whirling rotary plow spouted clouds of snow, clearing the roadway. And soon, despite temperatures daily below zero, workers of Liberty Truck & Parts Co., of Denver, had opened the 15-mile road.

"We used Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and Conoco Gasoline exclusively in our Cletrac Tractors with wonderful results," wrote a Liberty official. "We had no difficulty starting our motors in the mornings."

There's a "cold test" to guide you in buying motor oil!

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is thoroughly dewaxed and circulates freely below zero. It makes Winter-starting easier. More important still, it saves your motor from terrific punishment during the starting period, when half of all motor wear occurs! Other oils drain away overnight. A "Hidden Quart" of Conoco Germ Processed Oil stays up in your motor and lubricates before your motor starts.

Only Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil can offer you this vital protection, for it is the only oil that penetrates and combines with metal surfaces. Let it protect your motor this Winter. . .

Time and Place.—Revival of Feast of Tabernacles under Ezra and Nehemiah, Oct. 15-20, B. C. 444. Christ seeks rest with his apostles, near Bethsaida, Apr. A. D. 29.

The Lesson Comment

Work is one of the great essentials to our health and happiness. The Bible commands us to work. But it also commands recreation. Many of the institutions of the Hebrews provided for the rest of man, beast, and even the land. Thus God has put his approval on a wise use of leisure time. But it should be observed that periods of rest were not to be spent in idleness but in direct activities, through which the body not only finds rest from daily toil, but the spirit is renewed and inspired to seek a happier fellowship with God and his people. Wise leaders of the church will diligently prepare programs that will enable it to help the people to make a Christian use of leisure hours.

In the very beginning, God set aside one day out of seven for a day of rest. Later he had his people observe, not only days, but weeks of rest and pleasure, and once every fifty years, the entire year was a year of rest for man and beast and for the ground, which was not cultivated in that year. But after the Israelites were carried away from their own country, it seems that both those in captivity and those who were left in the homeland, forgot to observe these holy days. But while they were denied the observance of days of worship and, days of rest many of the Jewish captives still thought of them and longed for their old worship and their old home.

Nehemiah held a high and trusted position, being cupbearer to Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, but when he learned, through inquiry, the condition of the holy city, Jerusalem, he obtained permission of his king, to go back to his homeland and repair the walls of his loved city, and renew the worship of his God. When the work was finished and the people were gathered together for hearing the word of God, they wept because they had gone so far astray, and had sinned against their God. Then it was, we find Nehemiah confronting them, and sending them out for a great rejoicing and a great feast. They had repented of sin. God had forgiven, and now it was time to rejoice. Moreover, they found it written in their law that at this season, the middle of October, was the time of one of their great feasts, called the Feast of Tabernacles, at which time the people made themselves booths and lived for a time in them, something like a great camp meeting. In this way they rested and visited together and worshipped the Lord and had a good time generally.

Some one has said: "The groves were God's first temples," and, somehow, we feel just a little nearer to God out in the wood, under the trees "that look at God all day, and lift their leafy arms to pray," than anywhere else on earth. No doubt Israel enjoyed the same feeling of nearness to God, for we read that there was very great gladness.

In the days of Jesus, the people were still enjoying feast days, and meeting together for some really good times. When Jesus was a boy of twelve years, we find him going up to Jerusalem for one of the great feasts, and we imagine he kept them strictly, according to the law, which he did not break or fail to observe. And then when he went into public service, when his body and mind had grown weary from toil and care, he often went away for rest.

In our present lesson, the apostles had been out preaching and healing, and now when they returned to the Master to report, he bade them, "Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

THE CHRISTIAN'S USE OF LEISURE

International Sunday School Lesson for Sunday, December 11. Subject: "The Christian's Use of Leisure."

Golden Text.—Whether therefore eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. I Cor. 10:31.

Lesson Text.—Leviticus 23:39-43; Nehemiah 8:9-13; Zechariah 8:5; Matthew 11:16-19; Mark 6:30-32; I Corinthians 10:23-33. Neh. 8:10-17; Mark 6: 30-32 are here printed.

Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the wine, and send portions unto them from nothing is prepared: for my day is holy unto our Lord: obey ye his voice: for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for today is holy: neither be ye grievous, And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great joy, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

14 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe even to understand the words of the law.

15 And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

16 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

17 And the people went forth, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and the courts of the house of God, the street of the water gate, the street of the gate of the wall.

18 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of captivity made booths, and sat in the booths: for since the days

Trip To Deer Haunts By Plane Nets Buck

Airplane Trip of Less Than Five Hours to Border Country For Lee Wilkinson.

Lee Wilkinson, his brother W. R., and trusty plane made a jaunt into the country below San Antonio several days ago and upon their return the Wilkinson's and several of their friends were enjoying venison, for they bagged a six-point buck and brought him home for proof and provender.

The pair left Floydada Thanksgiving morning and landed at San Antonio for re-fueling at 1:45, four hours and forty-five minutes later, thence south another 135 miles to the vicinity of Cotulla, (a real deer country, Mr. Wilkinson explained) where they found their deer and brought him down.

Deer are very plentiful in that section, Mr. Wilkinson said. However, a large part of the area is posted and hunting is not done in many of the pastures. As a result many of the larger and more wily deer are not found, retiring to the protected pastures. Sailing around over the country in his plane, Lee said he found the animals plentiful from the air. He gave it as a tip not to hunt from a plane, however, the fine being $500.

Going down country, he also saw a number of flocks of wild turkeys and forecast the day not many years hence when they will also be plentiful, as the deer have begun to be after a few years of protection.

During their absence of five days the Wilkinson boys visited Laredo and across the border once or twice. On their return trip they left San Antonio Monday morning at 10:45 and were at home at 3:45 in the afternoon. Mr. Wilkinson travels by way of Big Spring when he makes his southward trips, taking "round-nance" on a considerable stretch of rocky country where landing places are few and far between in case of emergency.

Sister Of Lon Davis Dies Of Heart Ailment

Mrs. Lucian Knox, of Cold Springs Oklahoma, a sister of Lon M. Davis, of this city, died at her home there Friday morning of last week and the remains were interred in Cold Springs Cemetery following funeral services Saturday afternoon.

She was 65 years of age. Her death was caused by a heart ailment. Mr. Davis, himself ill from influenza, left Friday for Cold Springs, to attend the funeral of his sister. Three other brothers and a sister, also surviving, were present. Two of these brothers and the sister reside in Cold Springs, the other brother being a resident of Covington, Texas.

A large family of sons and daughters also attended their mother's funeral. Mrs. Knox was a native Texan, the family originally living in Johnson County. Mr. Davis became ill again following his return from the funeral of his sister and was confined to his bed several days this week.

ANTELOPE SCHOOL NEWS

Antelope, December 5.—This week is beginning with a record of illness which we hope will soon be cleared.

Helen Ring is ill and unable to be in school today. She has high fever and flu.

Claude Ring is worse. He took much worse Sunday afternoon and Dr. Smith from Floydada was called to his bedside. Dr. Smith pronounced Mr. Ring's case as bordering on pneumonia.

Weldon Cumble is almost sick with flu. Lloyd Cumble is also confined to bed with flu symptoms.

This seems to be an epidemic in the community as many others are just barely able to be up.

Many of the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Claude Ring gave her a surprise dinner Sunday honoring her birthday which was Saturday December 3.

C. A. Cumble and family visited in McAadoo Sunday.

M. D. Thornton and family spent Sunday with relatives in Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nickel and son Charles visited relatives in McAadoo Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bunch and family left Friday for their home in Salina.

The cotton harvest is coming so near to a close in this community that the night crew is being layed off and one crew being given the hours running mostly days now.

The school is progressing nicely with some new pupils this week which is an incense in spirit to both teacher and pupils.

Mrs. J. A. Jones and daughters, Ima Nell and Pernie visited at the teacherage Sunday afternoon.

WITH TRUSTY PIPE WRENCH INSURANCE MAN LOCATES DIAMOND IN GOOSE NECK

W. H. Henderson is the champion treasure hunter of local explorers. And the story of it may have a moral or it may not.

One day recently Mrs. Henderson lost a valued diamond set from a ring. And as is usual in such cases the family began the hunt for it about the place. By process of elimination and deduction it was determined the ring must be somewhere in or about the household. And then began the search which included every nook and corner of the place with the man of the house leading the search. After every corner of the house and every drawer had been turned upside down and around, then replaced and then gone over again, the search was practically abandoned,—the diamond was one of the lost treasures and that's that—until a bright thought struck the insurance man, a tribe credited with necessity for many and very bright thoughts. The diamond had to be somewhere and there was only one place left. They had not searched the kitchen sink, so in the kitchen sink it must be. And there was only one place in the kitchen sink where anything could be hidden and that was in the gooseneck of the drain pipe.

So trusty pipe wrench in hand, Mr. Henderson proceeded to remove the gooseneck, and there was the diamond,—the last place it could possibly be and just in time to save the peace and tranquillity of his homestead.

The moral of the little story might be, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," or it might be "Always keep a pipe wrench handy," or it might be that there are some fellows who are just naturally born lucky.

Resident Of Canyon 32 Years, Died Friday

Dr. D. M. Stewart, Father of Mrs. A. D. Cummings of Floydada, Dies Suddenly.

Funeral services for Dr. D. M. Stewart, for thirty-two years a resident of Canyon and widely known as a civic leader in that community, were held Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church there at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. C. W. Foote, pastor of the Canyon church officiating, assisted by Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, presiding elder. He was 64 years of age.

Dr. Stewart is the father of Mrs. A. D. Cummings of this city, who with Mr. Cummings and their little daughter, Rose Anne, left for Canyon Friday night upon receipt of advices of the physician's sudden demise. He was attending an entertainment at Randall Hall of West Texas State Teachers' College when he suffered an apoplectic stroke and lived for only a few minutes.

The Cummings family returned home Tuesday.

Dr. Stewart was active in the practice of medicine at the time of his death, being president of the Randall County Medical Society. He had practiced there since 1902. He was a member of Masonic orders, was a charter member of the Canyon Rotary Club and served through the war and until recently as chairman of the Randall County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Three other daughters, Mrs. Rose Lindley of Tulsa, Mrs. Catholine Bishers and Miss Dannie Mack Stewart of Canyon, also survive the veteran physician, also one son, Dr. Paul Stewart of Starford, all children of his first marriage. His widow, a brother and three sisters, also survive.

Interment was made in Dreamland Cemetery at Canyon.

Irene Cates Winner In This Week's Limerick Want Ad Contest

Out of several good "pomes" about Hesperian Want Ads this week in the Limerick Contest, Miss Irene Cates is judged to have written the best and is awarded the two guest tickets for the Palace feature, "The Cabin in the Cotton," Richard Barthelme's feature. Richard Barthelme's pictures are always good. "The Cabin in the Cotton" shows Saturday midnight, Sunday afternoon and Monday.

Miss Cates' limerick about the bungalow, this week's contest subject, reads:

"B is for bungalow
To make your wife glad
You'll find the one you want
In a Hesperian Want Ad."

Miss Irene lives on Route 4, near Blanco. The tickets will be presented her at The Hesperian office with the compliments of the Limerick Editor and Jack Deakins, manager of the Palace Theatre.

For second place, the Limerick Editor, had difficulty in deciding between a limerick submitted by Mrs. M. J. Marler of Route 5, and Mrs. Marvin Williamson, 313 West Missouri Street, and accordingly is declaring it a tie with one ticket going to each of these, who are asked to call for their tickets this week-end.

Louise Brown, Route 3; Samuel Rutledge, city; Bruce Blackford, Mickey Route, Lockney; Mrs. Vaughan Murff, Route 3; are among the others who deserve honorable mention for their efforts.

Interest in the weekly contest has been very gratifying to date.

Some of the "Pomes" were a little late this week reaching the office. Don't forget that the Limerick Editor has to make his decision early in the week. So turn to the want ad page this issue, sharpen your pencil and note that it is a "D" limerick this week. Two or three contestants forgot to note the date of their papers and sent in "A" limericks this week.

You don't have to be a real poet to make up two additional good rhyming lines to complete the limerick. Big, little, old or young can get in on the fun,—and you never can tell who will win. You might be the most skilful next. Try it. It's all in fun and costs you nothing.

'Cabin In The Cotton' Background In South

The South, grown-up and modernized, but still adhering to its old romantic color and living with its gallant traditions, is the background for the epic story of "The Cabin In The Cotton," Richard Barthelme's latest First National film which comes to the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday afternoon and Monday night.

Local people who have seen the picture say it is one of those you do not want to miss.

In the South, of today, in the planter, the share-cropper, the poor white and the negro, Harry Harrison Kroll, who wrote the novel, and Paul Green—Pulitzer prize winner—who made the screen adaptation, have found a source of new and vital story material. Typically American, the lives of these people are filled with incidents little known and still less understood by their Eastern, Northern and Western brothers.

The class distinction, which is still such a vital part of Southern tradition, is shown in the love of the young "poor white" played by Barthelme for the two girls, one a poor white like himself, and the other a planter's daughter. His position in being placed between the two conflicting classes provides not only a novel romantic interest, but also the basis for a surge of events which makes the picture an innovation in film story material.

As novel and successful as most Barthelme pictures have been to date, "The Cabin In The Cotton" is acclaimed as the greatest portrayal he has given in years.

The supporting cast contains a number of front rank names, and it is evident that the studio has found the story of great importance in its program, for the casting of the characters was done with especial care. Bette Davis and Dorothy Jordan share honors as leading ladies. Henry B. Walthall, the famed "Little Colonel" of "Birth Of A Nation" fame, is once more transplanted to a Southern setting in this picture. Other capable players contribute largely.

Choosing a Vocation

Choosing a vocation is an exciting and interesting enterprise for every ambitious boy. I remember that at the age of twelve I decided to be a doctor, and proceeded at once to purchase a small medicine case con- taining twenty empty bottles. These were filled with various types of "home remedies" including pepper- mint, arnica, and the like. These medicines were administered to dogs and cats as well as to neigh- borhood children.

The novelty of "doctoring" pass- ed away, and was supplanted by the desire to be a banker, chiefly be- cause a banker's hours of labor are falsely thought of as beginning at nine and ending at four. This short day was especially attractive to a rural youth who was rising at four-thirty or five o'clock in the morning in order to bring the cows from the night pasture, and who's work ended driving them back to the same night pasture at seven-thirty or eight o'clock in the evening.

No position in a bank opened, so my attention shifted to journalism as a vocation, and I gave up the farm for the position of newspaper reporter at the age of sixteen. My youthful enthusiasm was damped the first day when the assignment was given me of "covering" all the undertaking establishments in town twice a day in order to see who had died in the last twelve hours; and the doctor's offices to see who was about to die. If there was a death then I visited the bereaved relatives as promptly as possible, not to offer sympathy but as a news-collector. If there were no deaths, then my store of news was ill and the day had been lost.

When the farm again called I was glad to return. Without reminis- cencing farther, I must say that I had difficulty in choosing a vocation because of lack of occupational standards and lack of knowledge concerning such a problem.

Emory and Bogardus of the Uni- versity of California said: "... In my fitness for a given occupation.

Every student should be consider- ing a vocation so that he may choose one by the time he is gradu- ated. Every one should seek voca- tions in which he may be inventive, express his personality and develop himself. The best vocation furnish- es pleasure in the work itself, so that all enjoyments do not have to come after the day's work is done. After all the main function of a vocation is not to be able merely to make money but to enable the persons to find a life work in which he can develop his personality to its fullest extent.

Malcolm: "Have you ever been abroad?"
Ocho: "Say do I look feminine?"

He named his son Montgomery Ward because it was of the male ward.

James: Who killed Cock Robin?
Sparrow: I did it. I did it with my little gat. An that's not all, I'll do the same to any other high hat boird what comes snoopin' around South Chicago.

Notice: We will not accept letters to Santa Claus after the last Tues- day before Xmas.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me an interlinear translator of "Caesar's Commentar- ies," also a new boy friend. I need an invitation to a couple of parties too, please attend to this immedi- ately.

Love, Rhe Cloud.

P. S. Santa you might send me the boy friend now; maybe I could work him for a Xmas present.

We believe that it is possible to uncover more scandals on Sam Teague than any other five pupils in F. H. S. We'd like to interview some of his pals from Lubbock.

We just happened to notice somebody else is holding Virgil's breath quite a bit now. Can you guess? I think he is the new preacher's son. (Don't tell anyone).

Virgil Crawford requests that everyone stop talking about his breath. He makes this request on the ground that he no longer has halitosis.

We Wonder Why

Irene is reading that book on "How to Remedy Crippled Fingers." Edelle doesn't like Kinder. Buster insists on coming to visit school lately.

Rhe prefers "Shurbets" lately. Ocho thinks girls should have "steadies."

Waldo is "lonely and blue."

Why Reba is so happy.

Why Sam and F. C. make "nigger- shooters" and why Emma Louise Smith likes Chico?

Big Banquet Planned

Plans for the Whirlwind-Green Pepper banquet are being carried out by the various committees, ap- pointed last week, to make a real success of it. The banquet will be at the R. C. A. gymnasium at 7:30 Friday evening, December 9. The gym will be decorated in the famous Whirlwind colors of green and white and this color scheme will also be carried out in the place cards, programs and in the menu. The Baptist ladies are preparing and serving the banquet; however the Pep girls are making all decorations. About 105 guests are expected to attend this annual affair, and every- one is really enthused over it.

Reverend Smith Main Speaker

A very interesting program has been planned for the banquet, at which Reverend I. A. Smith will make the main address to the guests. Latane Hale, one of the pep leaders of the past year, has been selected by the program com- mittee as toastmistress, and Floyd Murray, backfield captain of the Whirlwinds, will give the response to the toast. Miss Wanda Teeple, president of the Green Peppers, will give a reading, and several other pep girls will sing. Another feature of the program is a tribute, "Triangles" given by Coach R. P. Terrell.

The banquet, which will probably be the main social event of the season, is given by the Green Peppers in honor of the Whirlwind team and in appreciation of the good work done by them.

Jokes

Running true to form:
Mrs. Stovall: Well, Verne, what did you find out about the salivary glands?

Verne: I couldn't find out a thing. They're too darn secretive.

Mr. Teague: What did they teach you at school today, Sam?

Sam: Our teacher told us all about Columbus, who went 2,000 miles on a gallon.

Mr. Teague: She did, did she? Well, don't believe all she tells you about those American cars, my boy.

Friend: What is your son taking up in school this year?
The elder "Gus": Space, nothing but space.

What are you taking up this year?
Time, nothing but time.

Verne: What's up?
Pat: The wind my lad, the wind.

Mrs. Smith: Give me another col- lective noun.
Stokes: A bill collector.

Mr. Stephen: Floyd, what would you do if you bought a lot and went out to look at it and found it under water?
Floyd: I'd start a duck farm.

Irene: My grandfather fought in the Battle of Gettysburg in his B. V. D's.
Latane: No really.

Irene: Yes, he wore his Union Suit.

Miss Rea: There'll be no outside reading today.

Freshman: Why?

Senior: It's raining.

J. B.: I just saw a comedy by Shakespeare.

Leo: Who's he?

J. R.: Don't be dumb, he's the guy who endorses Coca Cola.

Mrs. Stovall: I want you Fresh- men to get an "Introduction to Gen- eral Science" before the next class

Holt-Graves Team In 'War Correspondent'

The reunion of Jack Holt and Ralph Graves, those two-fisted men whose bitter rivalry was featured in the spectacular films, "Flight," "Dirigible" and "Submarine," brings together in a new Columbia release, "War Correspondent," one of the most popular teams in the history of the movies. Lila Lee also is fea- tured in "War Correspondent," which has civil war in modern China as a background for the dare-devil exploits of the Holt-Graves team. The picture is being shown at a matinee this afternoon and will also be shown tonight and tomorrow night, under the sponsorship of high school students, who share in the receipts.

In "War Correspondent" Holt plays the role of a recklessly adven- turesome American aviator, who fights as a soldier of fortune in a Chinese army while Graves has the characterization of an up-to-date radio-newspaper war correspondent. The girl over whom they battle is charming Lila Lee. This is not the first time that these two he-men have struggled for her favor—she was with them in that phenomenal success, "Flight."

The bringing together of Holt and Graves, focuses the spotlight on the large number of memorable teams of actors which have proved such ideal foil for each other—either in a hard-boiled way, such as Holt and Graves, or in a roman- tic way, such as Greta Garbo and Jack Gilbert or, in comedy, Bobby Woolsey and Bert Wheeler. These teams have proved very popular with movie-goers. Sometimes, when producers have split them up and let them go it alone, the plan has worked, but more often the movie fans have resented the breaking up of what they regarded as a perfect combination. The Holt-Graves com- bination has always proved a great attraction for the plaudits of movie audiences.

SCOUTS GET COMPLIMENT ON FIRST AID KNOWLEDGE

Members of Troop No. 44, Boys Scouts, of Floydada, were so pro- ficient in tests taken in first aid before Dr. W. M. Houghton, a member of the local medical profession, they were warmly complimented when the tests were completed. The tests were held in the basement of the Methodist Church Tuesday night, and followed a lecture by the doctor on first aid methods.

meeting.
Fish: Where's he live.

We heard that Latane had been writing her thoughts down in a little book for years. She should have a page full now.

It was the first of the month and Leroy had been out collecting for Mr. Boothe. He came back with a black eye and Mr. Boothe asked him, "Did you collect Jones's bill?"
"No," replied Leroy. "He hit me with the waste basket and kicked me out."
"Well go back and collect that bill, I'll show him, he can't scare me."

Employer: I hope you save 50% of what you earn, Wanda.
Wanda: I'm sorry sir, but I can't. You see I don't get that much.

Mrs. Cummings: Papa, Papa baby has swallowed the kodak films.
Mr. Cummings: Gracious I hope nothing will develop.

Lockney Club Women Hosts In Spring For Federation

Flower Exchange Plan Will Be One Feature

Program in Floydada Friday Includes Music, Readings and Addresses.

Lockney Club women will be hostesses to the County Federation of Women's Clubs at the regular Spring meeting which will be held sometime in April, the day to be decided later by the hostess clubs. A flower exchange is to be a feature of the meeting, and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, president, of the County Federation, requested that all women of the County co-operate in making the exchange a success.

Mrs. O. E. Stevenson, Mrs. Frank Perkins, and Mrs. G. D. Tate; of Lockney, were appointed as a committee to arrange the program for the Spring meeting.

The Fall meeting which was to have been held in September at Antelope was postponed to Friday, December 2, on account of bad roads, and was held at the Baptist Church with the Floydada club women as hostesses. Mrs. J. B. Jenkins presided.

"Onward Christian Soldiers" was sung by the audience as the opening number of the program, led by Miss Blanche Ramsey, of Harmony. Mrs. M. D. Ramsey was at the piano.

Mrs. A. D. Cummings, of Blanco community, gave the invocation.

Mrs. O. P. Rutledge gave the welcome address. Mrs. W. E. Miller, of Sand Hill gave the response.

Miss Blanche Ramsey sang, "Little Brown Bird," accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. M. D. Ramsey.

Miss Martha Meriwether, of Lockney, gave a reading, "Ashes of Roses" and responded with an encore, "Eveline's Wedding."

The principal address of the morning session was given by Mrs. T. W. Whigham on the subject, "Does Education Pay?" She said in part, education pays if it is made practical. Children should be taught to do things. They should be taught the basic principals of business, and the rudiments of good health so that they may know best how to care for themselves in childhood and in later life. They should be given aesthetic training. One of the most important things that should be given more attention in schools and colleges is the art of being happy.

Miss Wilma Cooper, of Lockney, played a piano solo, "Hungarian Dance No. 7."

Mrs. Carl McAdams, of Lockney, Mrs. M. D. Ramsey and Mrs. Will Snell responded to short talks.

The meeting adjourned for luncheon which was served in the basement of the church. Each lady brought a dish and dinner was served together.

During the afternoon session Mrs. Frank Bass gave an illustrated talk on, "The Cost of War" exhibiting some hand-made posters which she had made, and some computations that were very impressive. "Despite the fact that peace advocates and economists declare that war must die because it cannot pay its way, the nations go heedlessly forward, mortgaging the future for bigger wars. Dr. E. L. Bogart of the University of Chicago, has estimated direct cost of the World War at $186,000,000,000 and the indirect monetary cost at $151,000,000,000. Our construction work in France alone cost more than the Panama Canal.

"But if the monetary cost of war were all, we might be able to pay our taxes and endure it; however the most tragic and permanent costs of war are intangible and impendable. It is not possible to express in any caravan of ciphers the loss to the nation in race deterioration and in physical vitality, resulting from privation, anxiety, and strain. We may compute the death toll but we can never measure the load of poverty, misery, and crime which society must bear as a consequence of the war.

"It would take one Lusitania a day for 70 years, or one a week, beginning nearly a century before the discovery of America and continuing to the present to carry down all the dead and missing soldiers and the dead civilians of the great World War."

Mrs. J. M. Willson then addressed the meeting on the subject, "The Ideal Club Woman." Mrs. Willson said "We would be more ideal women if we would first look to see whether we would fit the pattern that we lay to measure our sister club women by.

"We can not all be leaders but we are all a part of God's great plan so we can all do our part wherever we are. We should know the things that go on about us today. Know the famous painters, sculptors, writers and poets. Be of service to humanity.

"We should know more about our government, the big men, and officers and what they stand for; know where our taxes come from and what they are spent for, so we may be able to cast more intelligent votes.

"No woman is ideal unless she is interested in the future generation. She should read good literature and study more, for as we cultivate our minds it is easier for us to grasp the things we read and study.

"You should in all cases be willing for the majority to rule. Women are prone to find fault with each other. Before we say something about someone, see if they could not say the same thing about you." Mrs. Willson concluded with a line from the club collect, "Make us grow calm, serene and gentle."

Mrs. A. D. Cummings gave "Estrellita" as a violin solo accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. V. Daniel. She responded with an encore, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling."

Mrs. L. C. Wheeler, of Blanco, concluded the program with an address on "Living the Spirit of Beauty in the Home." "More than a hundred years ago John Howard Payne wrote these words, Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home, and down through the ages this expression can be sung, from a sincere heart, by almost every individual. Home rule is the taproot of our government. In homes, character is moulded, habits are formed, the choice of good or evil is determined, and often our eternal destiny is shaped. The family in its origin is divine and God has instituted laws for its regulation and perpetuity which must be scrupulously observed and obeyed else the home will cease to be the great training school of the world.

"Order and correct morals should be stamped upon the minds of the children first in the home. The home that is well ordered, lovely and pure is made like unto heaven, and is made beautiful through a woman's touch. A good woman is the queen in such a home. Alexander Pope said, 'Order is Heaven's first Law' and if this be true every effort should be made to impress this thought upon the masses, and help them to make homes more pleasant and attractive.

"The home ought to be the most charming and delightful of all places—the center of the purest affections and desirable associations—as well as the most attractive and the most exalted place in the world. Nothing can exceed in beauty and sublimity the quietude, peace, harmony and happiness of a well ordered family."

Mrs. George A. Linder suggested that cards be sent to all of the clubs in the county just before the Spring meeting reminding them of the Flower exchange and to send as many representatives as possible. This later was made in the form of a motion and adopted. Mrs. G. D. Tate, of Lockney, was made assistant secretary.

The following committees served in their respective places: Reception, Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, Mrs. Glad Snodgrass, Mrs. Leroy McDonald and Mrs. A. D. Cummings; Table service Mrs. W. I. Cannaday, Mrs. I. W. Hicks, Mrs. George A. Linder, Mrs. K. A. Osburn, Mrs. Jeff Weiborn and Mrs. Robert McGuire; Coffee, Mrs. J. H. Myers and Mrs. Lorin Leibfried; and bread, Mrs. Wilson Kimble and Mrs. Claude M. Martin.

Bond For Nolan Womble $2000 In Kimble Death

Bond for Nolan Womble, Crosby County farmer living near Old Emma, was set at $2,000 Thursday afternoon of last week and he was released, following his arrest on a charge of murder by Elmer Reed, Crosby County sheriff.

Womble is alleged to have been the assailant who struck Wilburn K. Kimble, Floydada man, with a timber on the night of November 17 at a dance at the home of J. D. Swann, southwest of Cone, Kimble died in a Plainview sanitarium on Tuesday morning, November 29, and was buried at the Lakeview Cemetery southeast of Floydada on Wednesday afternoon.

Womble has a family. Kimble was at the dance with his wife, his brother-in-law, Grady Moon and wife, and several others from Floydada when he was fatally injured.

Robbery May Be Involved
That the inert body of Wilburn W. Kimble, 27-year-old man of Floydada, may have been robbed of a watch and $22.50 in currency before he was picked up by friends to be brought to Floydada, was indicated in a statement given here last weekend by Mrs. Kimble and her brother-in-law, Grady Moon, who said that a black billfold with a clasp, somewhat worn but in good condition, and a 15-jewel Standard watch of white gold with an old gold chain, were missing when they started home. They were positive he had both the bill fold with the money in it and the watch while at the dance.

"When we loaded up to come home we noticed that the watch and money were missing," Mrs. Kimble said. "And immediately shined our carlights on the spot where he fell. We searched all around but found no trace of either the watch or the bill fold. We were in a hurry on account of the condition of my husband and Mr. Moreau.

"The next day when Mr. Kimble regained consciousness, he insisted that I return to the Swann home and again look for the missing articles. The Swann family had not seen them and they were not around the place that we could find."

The watch was octagon shape and the money in the billfold was in currency, Mrs. Kimble said. The watch belonged to Mr. Kimble's brother, Mayland, who was also in the party from Floydada.

Played For Dances
Grady Moon and Wilburn Kimble, the deceased man, spent much of the time the past summer in the vicinity of the Swann home where they spent the harvest. They made the Swann home their "home" during the harvest and had visited there frequently.

Prior to the Thursday night dance when Kimble was injured the Swann's had sent word they were to have a dance and wanted Moon and Ernest Hollogan, who are musicians, to come and play for them. It was suggested they bring along such friends as they wanted, Moon said.

ATHLETIC SQUAD SPONSORS FEATURE AT PALACE TONIGHT

A feature, "The War Correspondent," at the Palace Theatre tonight and tomorrow night is being sponsored by the Athletic Squad of Floydada High School. The boys are hoping for very good patronage. Especially are they anxious to get heavy advance sales for the show, since on advance sales they get a "cut" of fifty per cent. They also get twenty-five per cent of the door admissions.

When practice was taken up the squad found their basketball equipment sorely depleted, and arrangements were made with the management of the show to sponsor the first good play that came along to help get their finances in good enough shape to get some equipment.

There's "Up-and-At-Em" Action in every drop of Phillips 66

"HIGHEST TEST" at the price of ordinary gasoline

No waiting! No delay! You get the fastest cold-weather starting you have ever had from your motor when you Phill-up with Phillips 66... the greater gasoline.

This super-volatile motor fuel snaps your engine into action the instant your toe touches the starter. That does away with the nuisance and damage of slow, hard starting in Winter. That saves your time, your temper, your battery, and your money.

High test is what does the trick. And Phillips 66 gravity right now ranges from

65.6° to 72.4°

Ask yourself if you have ever seen any other gasoline advertisement, except Phillips', which has definitely and unequivocally printed its gravity figures. Ask any gasoline expert you know if the Phillips figures are not sensational. Ask any friend who uses Phillips 66 if he has not secured amazing improvement in all round performance.

The answer to every one of these questions points to the outstanding superiority of Phillips 66. The obvious fact is that low gravity gasoline is lazy gasoline, and lazy gasoline is especially sluggish on days of freezing cold.

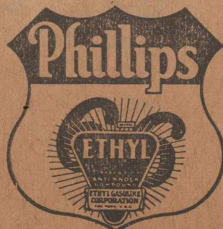

Phillips 66 is not only "highest test." It is the gasoline of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY. Every gallon you buy is always scientifically adjusted to your climate at the time you buy it. At every place, at any time, it is honest high test without a penny of higher price.

Why wait until your motor balks one of those stormy, snow-swept days? Get the truth about the starting speed of gasolines now. Discover for yourself the difference which high test actually makes in your motor.

Make this trial with your mind utterly unprejudiced. Forget all about our claims. Forget all about the claims made for any other gasoline. Then switch, for just one week, from your present motor fuel to Phillips 66.

If you aren't amazed and delighted with the improvement in motor performance, if you aren't astonished at the increase in cold-weather starting speed, if you are not pleased beyond words with this higher test gasoline that costs not a penny of higher price—then you are an out-and-out exception among 7,400,000 satisfied users of Phillips 66 gasoline.

Begin making this test tomorrow. Get your first trial tankful at the nearest Orange and Black 66 shield.

Dougherty News

(By Mrs. W. D. Newell)

Farmers are beginning to be uneasy about the wheat outlook as it is so dry, with the freezes every night it is beginning to look sick. We are needing a good rain or change of weather some way to help check the sickness. Some think a real old-time cold snap would do the trick but we would much prefer a good rain.

As we stated a few weeks ago, many warnings are given us each year not to neglect watering our trees, so let's not be found napping and let our trees die as they are property that cannot be bought back.

P. T. C. Society Selects Officers, Plans For Year

Sand Hill Organization Begins Program for Seventh Consecutive Year.

Sand Hill Parent-Teacher-Community Society Monday night of this week began plans for their seventh consecutive year of community activity, when they selected officers for the year and set the date for their first play, following a brief program of songs and recitations by members of the school student body and an address by Judge L. G. Mathews of Floydada.

Their first play of the series of eight for the season will be given on the night of December 26, it was voted at the meeting, and this will be followed by seven other plays that will be staged before next harvest time. A new feature of the plan adopted is a monthly general program, in which the community in general will join, with pupils of the school and outsiders presented in features of one kind and another. This general program is termed a "free-for-all" because all will be eligible for parts in the entertainments and because it will be a feature for which there will be no charge.

Clarence Strickland was appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements for the monthly free-for-all program.

Officers Are Elected
Officers for the society for the year elected were as follows: Ed Holmes, re-elected president; Walter Travis, vice-president; Miss Ola Hanna, re-elected secretary; G. C. Collins, sergeant at arms.

The first of the general programs will be given on the Friday night before Christmas, and the first of the plays on Monday night following Christmas.

The Christmas play will be different to anything the society players have ever attempted, having a number of "heavy" parts. It is entitled "Attorney for the Defense." It is an excellent play that requires considerable talent and training however, to be most effective.

Little or no other change was made in the plans for the year, except that tickets this season will sell cheaper than they sold in previous years. Season tickets for adults this season will be 75 cents and for students 35 cents.

The organization was formed in 1925 in an effort to make the civic life of the community better-rounded out and more attractive to the people of the community. It has functioned effectively and to the great enjoyment of all every year since. One of the features annually has been the entertainment just before or just after Christmas. This year will be no exception in that respect, either.

Tentative Schedule '33 Football Games F. H. S. Prepared

Proposals for a schedule of conference and non-conference games for Floydada High School football squad has been prepared by the Athletic Council of the school, and contracts are being mailed out this week in the hope that they will be returned at an early date. The plan of the council is to "sew up" the games for next year at this time, so as to save confusion and expense next fall.

In the proposed schedule the Plainview Bulldogs have been put on the list for the first game of the season on September 29. The past two years this game has been played at Plainview at night on Wayland Field.

Silverton is on for the second game of the season October 6 at Floydada and Paducah for the following weekend, October 13, here. Memphis of District 1 is scheduled for October 20 at Memphis, and Matador for October 27 at Floydada.

It is the hope and belief of the council that all of these games will be scheduled without fail but November dates are more indefinite due to eliminations and the possibility that teams may have to play conference games on the week-ends of that month. However, they have sent contracts to Childress, Lockney, Littlefield and Post for dates as follows:

Childress, November 3, at Childress; Lockney Armistice Day at Floydada; Littlefield November 17 at Floydada, and Post Thanksgiving Day at Floydada.

Every conference game on this schedule, it will be noted is to be played at Floydada, while every non-conference game is away from home. However, the Whirlwinds this year played every conference game away from home and the conference teams will only be repaying the last visit.

The November schedule is being based on the confident hope that Floydada High Whirlwinds will be winners in the northeast quadrant next fall, the Littlefield date for November 17 being based on the assumption that that team will win in their quadrant and that the two teams will fight it out here for the honors of the north half.

Post is predicted in the schedule as winners in the south half, having a young, coming team this year that will have a lot more power and drive next term, whereas Brownfield's juggernaut of 1932 will be shredded by graduations. However, Lamesa and Slaton are important hurdles for Post High before it can enter the finals for district honors.

In this northeast quadrant, Matador High is rated the toughest opponent the Whirlwinds will have, their reserve team administering two defeats to reserves of Floydada High during the month of November this year.

J. E. Wilkins and family returned to Floydada this week after an absence of several months. They have lived during the fall at Prescott in Knox County.

Buster Eubank and little son, James Hardy, of Corpus Christi spent from Thursday afternoon till Sunday visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eubank.
