Plans being completed for Exes homecoming Saturday, August 7

A full day of homecoming activities is being planned for Newcastle, Saturday, August 7, 1965. The plans call for the homecoming to be centered in the downtown area of the city. Several air-conditioned buildings have been designated as meeting places for the large crowd that is expected to attend the all day affair.

Air conditioned buildings available: 1. City Hall; 2. Community Center; 3. Farmers National Bank; and the Newcastle Register (we will open the front and back doors) will serve as gathering places for visitors. Persons in charge of the above mentioned buildings are planning for the comfort of the crowd the best they can, as it will be "typical Texas weather on that day."

REGISTRATION

Registration will start at 10 o'clock p. m. in the downtown area and will continue throughout the day, President John R. Bullock said.

Committees are at work getting things in order for the affair that is expected to attract some 600 or more visitors and exes. Enthusiasm is high and a good time is expected by all. The towns people are anxious to have the visitors come back to the ol' stomping grounds.

LUNCH

The business establishments in the town will have for sale the necessary foods for the crowd during the day. The cafe and community center have facilities for food, or you can picnic lunch under the arbor at Fort Belknap.

Old Fashioned Drawing

The executive committee has decided to have an old time drawing during the afternoon, around 4 o'clock. Money and gifts will be given at the drawing. This a feature of the homecoming which is expected to bring back memories of early day crowds in the town. More details about the drawing will be forthcoming. Tickets for the drawing will be given free to every person who registers and to every person purchasing a ticket for the evening barbecue. There will be entertainment throughout the day.

BARBECUE

The barbecue will be served by Underwood's barbecue of Wichita Falls and will be served at the Newcastle Football stadium. Tickets for the barbecue will be $1.50 per person and reservations may be mailed to Box 133, Farmers National Bank, Newcastle, Texas. The barbecue will be held at 6:30 p. m. After the evening meal, a meeting will continue in the stadium and there will be a recognition of classes of NHS. A short business session will follow, with entertainment to conclude the days activities. An adequate public address system will be used and all will be able to hear the proceedings at the football field.

AWARDS

A gift will be presented to the oldest person in attendance and to the person coming the longest distance.

Exes voted to have the homecoming once every three years. This is the third such homecoming planned and you will not be disappointed. The last two have drawn over 600 visitors to Newcastle.

Picnic and Camping and Meeting Place Reserved

The Cox Grape Arbor at Fort Belknap has been reserved for anyone wishing to use the area during the day or night while they are here in Newcastle. Wiley Whiteley said that any and all folk were welcome to use the arbor facilities at the fort. Water, lights and electrical outlets, tables and seats are available at the Cox arbor.

Homecoming time is here and you are all expected to find a cordial welcome in your old home town once more. Come and bring the whole family.—Barbara Ledbetter, Secretary, and Pub. Chm.

Masonic Lodge installs new officers

Newcastle Lodge No. 1057 AF&AM met Tuesday night, July 13, for the purpose of installing officers for the ensuing year.

C. J. Wooldridge was installed as Worshipful Master; A. S. Wilson, Senior Warden, J. M. Camp, Junior Warden, J. L. Loftis, Treasurer, Gaspard Neal, Secy.; Hubert Strother, Chaplain; Don Strother, S. D.; T. M. Blanton, J. D.; Gene Lowe, S. S.; Travis Thresher, J. S.; Bryant Wilson, Tiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and family of Texas City visited with the J. C. Routon's on their way to Yellowstone Park.

WHY DON'T YOU CARE?

Towns are like people: they need someone to love them, someone who cares.

Mostly we use our towns, abuse them impose on them, crowd them, stretch them, tear at them and worst of all, ignore them.

Take from them and seldom put anything back. Seldom care.

Every town needs that little knot of people who are concerned about the way it looks, how it works; who care for its history and who respect its fabric; who respect its foundation; who understand its nature and character.

Every town needs the architects and artists, the historians and teachers, the bankers and businessmen who will put into their towns the care that will make their community vital and beautiful.

Why don't you care?

—The Texas Architect.

FORT BELKNAP NEWS OF THE WEEK

A large crowd visited the Fort with three family reunions.

The children of Mrs. W. I. Mahan and the late Mr. Mahan held their reunion in the barracks. Children present were Messrs. and Mmes. J. D. Nicklass and family, Graham E. K. Mahan and family, Graham; Roy Mahan, Grandfalls, A. J. Green and family, Jacksboro. The Roy Mahans came the farthest, 315 miles. Mrs. Mahan is 79 years young. 80 were present.

The children of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Bellomy held their family reunion under the arbor with 80 present. Children present were Messrs and Mmes. W. B. Bellomy, Proffitt, J. C. Keeter, Elbert; Lewis Lenoir, Abilene; John Bellomy, Fort Worth; J. T. Lewis, Newcastle; and Mrs. J. A. Bellomy, Arlington.

35 Texas towns were represented on the register.

From out of State: Wilmington, Delaware; Indianapolis, Tacoma, Wash.; Conway, Ark.; Rochester, N. Y.; Mangum, Okla.; Eldorado, Okla.; Kansas City, Mo.; Vernon, Ala.; Oslo, Norway; Bisbee, Ariz.; St. Louis, Mo.; Denver, Colo.

Visiting the Wiley Whiteley's were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bryson, Crowell; Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Duckworth and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Duckworth and son, Mrs. Beatrice Duckworth, all of Fort Worth; and Pete Gilmore of Proffitt.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Veal in their beautiful ranch home were Mrs. Bobbie Pharris, Mrs. Willie Wainwright, and Mrs. James Britton of Olney; Bud Rushing, Nocona; Mmes. Fannie Routon, Thelma Whiteley, Rufe Helm, Buck Cave, Jessie Clifton, Mabel Anderson, Newcastle; and Mrs. Jack Banks, Wichita Falls.

Attend 4-H workshop and council in Houston

Dolores McCarroll, Young County, chairman of District III 4-H council, and Tommy Green, Motley County, Co-Vice chairman, attended the annual meeting of the Texas 4-H Council and Workshop June 22-26 at the University of Houston.

This year's theme for the meeting was "Understanding and Utilizing the Texas 4-H Council." Each district delegate gave a report on district activities, reviewed responsibilities and Council standing rules and had the yearly election and installation of officers.

The 4-H'ers took a sight-seeing tour and attended a formal banquet at the Warwick Hotel.

Council members will attend the Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime in August, and the State Fair Award of Honor Banquet in October.

LOST—White GE Transistor Radio in case, between Guy Reeves and Charley Bailey's.—Guy Reeves.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Mitt Harrell Thursday of last week were her granddaughters, Mrs. Karen Walker and son, Randy, of Fort Worth; Mrs. Glenda Tomerlin of Midland; and Johnny Onstot of Long Beach, Calif.

Estil Helton underwent surgery in Olney hospital Monday.

PROFFITT NEWS

Mrs. B. C. Wooldridge Phone Orth 2305

Once again the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bellomy gathered July 11 at Fort Belknap under the grape arbor. There were happy greetings as each one arrived, but a note of sadness expressed for the four members who could not attend due to illness. They were Arra and Dave, Mattie Higgins and Eva Keeter.

As five generations of Bellomys gathered around the well laden table for the noon meal with bowed heads in all reverence, Rev. M. F. Richardson offered the invocation.

The afternoon was spent in visiting, comparing grandchildren and great-grandchildren, even great-great-grandchildren who were busy playing and "getting to know" older members of the family. Little curly headed, brown eyed Deadra Duckworth, a great-great-granddaughter, was "having a time" playing in the sand under the arbor.

Those present for this happy occasion were Messrs and Mmes. W. B. Bellomy, Sr. Lewis Lenoir, Abilene; Jabus Keeter, J. T. Lewis; John Bellomy, Fort Worth; E. F. Duckworth, Glen Duckworth, Buddy and Raydell Gothard, Fort Worth; Bobby Bellomy, Robbie and Jerry, Arlington; Eddie Bellomy, Duncanville; Amos Garrett, Phil and Dale, Lubbock; Alex Cox, Morton.

Also Drucilla Griffith, Bledsoe; Mrs. J. A. Bellomy, Arlington; Judy and Melinda Stapp, Peryton; Linda Bellomy.

Friends who visited were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harris, Pete and Ora Gilmore, Mabel Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Strother, B. C. and Merl Wooldridge, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bryson, Crowell; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cagle, Woodson; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cagle and girls, Jacksboro; Bob Wooldridge and son, Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wooldridge of Graham entertained a group of young folks Saturday night with a "cook out" supper and ice cream in honor of their daughter, Jane's 17th birthday.

Mrs. Mabel Wells and her brother, Morris Crane, attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Frank Cole, in Sterling City, July 8.

Miss Mabel Wells and friend, Miss Jo Darden of Fort Worth, spent the week end with her mother, Mabel Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cagle and girls of Jacksboro spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cagle in Woodson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bru-

Major points and minor too

It's about time: To relax and get the most out of summer.

This is a wonderful time to have dinner outdoors, with fresh corn on the cob as the main attraction—lots of butter and a dash of salt, and to heck with the calories.

It's a wonderful time, too, with so many reruns on TV, to read some of those books you've been meaning to open—and to write some of those letters you've been putting off for months.

If this is vacation time, I hope you enjoy it—and must remind you that part of the enjoyment will result from safety—be careful in boats and while swimming—and particularly while driving.

Purely Personal: Why do all the girly ads feature slim young gals instead of the type of women who actually need them the most?—why do 180 lb. women have the goofiest deserts when dining out?—why do men buy those cigars with an aroma right out of the garbage dumps?—why is there such a shortage of skilled auto mechanics when we're famed as a nation that has grown up on wheels?—why do restaurants advertise strawberry shortcake and then serve an ersatz dish, with sponge cake instead of shortcake and with frothy imitation cream instead of the real stuff?

Hazards in the Streets: Skate-boat riding may be fun, but it's dangerous, too—especially if one rides on steep hills or into the streets, warns the Allstate Motor Club. Accidents have multiplied in recent weeks, due to carelessness and recklessness.

Jack Sharkey, whose wit has appeared a number of times in this column, is an Allstate writer and editor who also may turn into a well known playwright.

Speaking of Sharkey, here are some definitions from his Insurance Glossary a Go Go:

Accidental Death Benefit: your rich Aunt Lucretia, who hates you, names you heir to her fortune by mistake when her quavery old hand wobbles the pen.

A fellow in San Francisco has invented the Teletusi—you just call your girl on the phone and dance.

On the Beam—My wife is a perfect 36: 12-12-12.

A censor is a guy who makes sure he sees what he wants the rest of us to miss.—Bob Boehm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Banks of Wichita Falls visited Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Helm and friends.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

It is a violation of the law to either carelessly or deliberately set on fire the lands of another. In 1951 the Legislature made it a felony for a person to deliberately set fire to grass or forest land owned by another. They also enacted a law making it a misdemeanor to negligently set, or cause to be set on fire, the lands of another. The Texas Forest Service is primarily responsible for enforcing these statutes.

Harlingen, Texas
July 12, 1965.

Pa Paw: A little "Action!" News item for your paper!

Your grandson, Quin Neal made the "all stars" in little league. Their team beat the opposing "all star" team 2-1! Big News Follows—

The "minor league mothers" played the "major league mothers" in a game of baseball and the minor team smeared the majors 15-0

Playing for the minors among others were Carole Neal left field and Thelma Stewart (Ray Stewart's wife) third base! Carole Neal led the attack with a Grand Slam Home Run! Stewart also picked up two base hits!

Blake (the printer) Neal did a fine job the past year, both pitching and catching for his team. Sorry to say, your son Chic, and grandson Scott, did nothing to mention in baseball's hall of fame!

I expect to see this in next issue, with an extra edition for my baseball pal, Thelma Stewart. See you all 23rd. "Slugger" Carole Neal.

Junior historians hold Sunday meeting at the Fort

The Fort Belknap Junior Historians, with President Mack Cook of Caddo presiding, met at Fort Belknap Sunday, July 11, 1965. The meeting was held to further organize their efforts in behalf of Fort Belknap and to plan the next year's work, membership and activities.

After their business meeting, Mrs. H. R. Ledbetter made a short talk to the group, after which refreshments were served. The junior historian's senior advisers are Ted Clark, Graham, and Mrs. Ledbetter.

The next meeting will be in October in conjunction with the annual Fort Belknap Historical Society meeting.

Mack Cook, president of the junior historians is a junior at John Tarleton College in Stephenville; and secretary pro tem, Miss Joyce Pounds, is a senior in NHS.
