"AND THERE WERE IN THE SAME COUNTRY shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." (Luke 2:8-10)

"FOR UNTO YOU is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be sign unto you: ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger." (Luke 2:11-12)

All Through the Town, Spirit of Joy Reigns As Time to Celebrate Christmas Arrives

Nell's Notes

"You better watch out, you better not cry,
You better not pout, I'm telling you why,
Santa Claus is coming to town."

The big night is almost here, when Santa Claus will be creeping in to leave that special something you have been wishing for so long. The magic of Christmas come to life with Santa Claus. He's not just the jolly man in the red suit with a long white beard, he's the gift of believing in something good and worthwhile. The magic in tomorrow, the smile on your mother's face and the glow of love in your father's eye, the feeling of being wanted and loved and most of all having faith to believe in Santa Claus and the gift of life given to each of us.

"Drive Carefully" . . . Two accidents within three weeks is too much for any town.

The Country and Western show was a real success, a large crowd attended and everyone enjoyed the show. The high light of the show was when little Jane Phillips was called upon the stage and was serenaded by one of the singers. She's a real little lady

Festive Day Brings Glad Surprises. In Exchange of Gifts, Greetings

By ANNA MANG

It's the day before Christmas, and all through the town, the spirit of joy and festivity is stirring, as the time of celebration approaches. The whirlwind of pre-Christmas preparations nears an end, as the last gifts are bought and wrapped the final decorations are hung on the tree and the last-minute plans are made for Christmas feasts and parties.

Because Christmas is first of all a day of worship, the day celebrated as Christ's birthday, it will be observed with reverence and thanksgiving. In churches, tonight and tomorrow special Christmas services will tell, in song and story, of the Babe who was born in Bethlehem.

Youngsters Prepare for Christmas

Right this very minute, probably, more than one young performer in a Christmas play or pageant is rehearsing his or her part with Mother, and young carolers are practicing the beloved Christmas songs. In churches and in homes, manger scenes large and small depict the inspiring sight of the Babe with Mary and Joseph, with adoring shepherds and

Wise Men.

And because Christmas is a day of rejoicing, it will be celebrated with happiness and warmth. The hearts of children and their elders, too, will be gladdened as gifts and greetings are exchanged.

It's Day for Sharing

Surprises are waiting under the tree, and tomorrow morning, after Santa's visit, there will be still more, along with many little gifts tucked into stockings, and gaily wrapped packages waiting to be delivered to relatives and friends.

Christmas is a day to share, because Christmas means kindness and generosity. The opportunity it brings to make the lives of less fortunate neighbors happier is a gift in itself. For the ill, the lonely, the aged and the needy, to-

Army Is 22 Years Late With Award

The U. S. Army works at times in strange mysterious ways.

Take for instance the situation of Olen Bearden of Olney. Late last week he received a very official document from the U. S. Army notifying him that he had been awarded the Bronze Star and that the medal would be sent to him shortly. Wednesday he received the medal through the mail.

Now this isn't so strange unless you consider the certificate which accompanied the medal. In part it reads, "authorized by executive order February 4, 1944", for meritorious service in ground operations against the enemy in the European Theater of Operations during the Rhineland Campaign."

The certificate was dated November 25, 1966, more than 22 years after the award was supposed to have been presented. Staff Sgt. Olen Bearden was discharged from active duty in March 1946.

Bearden said he was not aware that he had received the award until last week.

Twenty-two years of army red tape has left several questions as to where the award was in Bearden's mind

Employment In County Increases During Past Year

Employment in Young County, rose 5 per cent between March 1964 and March 1965 according to one of the Nation's Economic Indicators "County Business Patterns, 1965-Texas" issued recently by the U. S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census.

County business patterns, now published annually, uses payroll information gathered for the first quarter of each calendar year by the social security administration covering employment in most kinds of business and industry but excluding notably agricultural and government workers and the self-employed.

Number of employees in the county, in businesses covered by the report, for March 1965 totaled 2869 as against 2734 for the same month a year earlier. First quarter payrolls for the two years were $2.8 million and $2.6 million respectively.

The largest group of employers in the county, reported a March 1965 total of 875 employees and 3-month payrolls of $962,000. Retail trade, the county's second largest group of employers, had a total of 633 employees and $448,000 in quarterly payrolls.

The county ranked 81st among the 254 counties in the state in March 1965 in number of employees in businesses covered in the report. The leading counties in the state in this respect were—

County	Employees
Harris	451935
Dallas	414551
Tarrant	165420
Bexar	140801
Jefferson	66857

Comparable figures for Texas as a whole show the state's employment rose some 5 per cent from 2197331 to 2313891 between March 1964 and March 1965. Total January-through-March 1965 payrolls amounted to $2,607.2 million as against $2,461.2 million for the previous year's first quarter. For the state, manufacturing led with 565436 employees and a quarterly payroll of $795.6 million.

More detailed data for the state, counties, and metropolitan areas by type of industry and employment-size are shown in "County Business Patterns, 1965-Texas" for sale at U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402 or at any U. S. Department of Commerce field office.

State reports will be reassembled into a set of five volumes and will also be available on tapes and punch cards. Address questions to Business Division, U. S. Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C. 20233.

Evergreen Still Tops As Tree

Nowadays Christmas trees are made out of almost everything, from aluminum to plastic — but the world's favorite Christmas tree is still the evergreen.

Many legends explain how the evergreen became associated with Christianity and Christmas. One is the story of St. Wilfred, according to The Book of Knowledge.

Speaking to a group of converts, the saint sought to illustrate how they had broken away from the heathen worship of the Druids.

He chopped down a giant tree — an oak, since this kind of tree was one of the chief objects of Druid worship. As it fell with a crash, it split into four pieces. From the center a young fir tree sprouted.

St. Wilfred told the converts that the fir should from then on serve as their "holy tree."

"It is the sign of an endless life," he said, "for all its leaves are evergreen, and it points toward heaven."

rangements and decorations carrying out the true spirit of the holidays. The door prize went to Janelle Moody and gifts were exchanged by everyone. Refreshments were served and afterwards everyone went caroling. Those attending were Sondra Miller, Catherine Bailey, Alwanda Burch, Glenda Wooldridge, Edwana Fikes, Arvilla Clayborn, and Janelle Moody.

Christmas lights and decorations are so pretty all over town, prettier than they have been in a long time. All of you have kept in the true holiday spirit and if I have missed putting your name in my notes, I apologize. I know they were pretty just the same. Lights are on at these homes, Jack Moody, Mrs. R. H. Helm, Ed Tate, Butch Myers, and Garland Hobbs.

Mike and Tim Kessler were helping their daddy on a lease, when in some freakish way, Tim's pants caught on fire. Mike went to the rescue, but starting running, making the blaze higher. They were both hospitalized with Tim having a badly burned leg and ear. Mike had a blistered face. So glad these little boys weren't hurt any worse and are coming along fine. Mike is home now and Tim will be soon.

New subscriptions this week are - Mrs. Hallie Helton, G. R. Bishop, W. R. Moody, Wynne's Press, Edith Ronco, Elzy Smith, W. T. Tomlinson, Roy Coop, T. M. Blanton, W. P. Burch, Leonard Farbee, Troy Proffitt, Ed Holler, C. B. Hardin, Maude Morgan, and Mrs. S. P. J. Williams.

We would like to congratulate the Newcastle High School Girl basketball team on their fine effort Tuesday night. The girls were defeated by Olney 44 - 43. The game went in to three overtime play offs. Both teams played fine ball.

Happy Birthday to W. L. Pevehouse, Delia Veal, Steve Miller and La Veta Phillips.

"May the meaning of Christmas be deeper, its faith stronger, and its hopes brighter as it comes to you this year. At this time we would like to wish each of you a very Merry Christmas from the Johnny Moody Family.

All Through Town . . .

morrow will bring a merrier Christmas because the people of this community have sought to share with them the good things of the holiday.

In the hearts of those who helped, there is a special peace and joy.

Christmas is a day to treasure many intangible gifts, to rejoice in the smiling faces and wondering eyes of little children, to cherish and strengthen friendships and family ties, to count the blessings of health, happiness and love, to renew faith and hope.

Christmas is a time to remember. For the youngest children, it is a time to store up memories for the future, of Santa and gifts, feasting and fun, caroling and viewing the manger scene.

For those who have left childhood behind, it is a time to recall the memories of Christmas past, and a time to see the wonders of the day with the fresh joy of a child.

Time for Good Wishes

Christmas is a time to give and receive good wishes. "Merry Christmas" and "Happy Holiday" will be said in many ways - as they are said in today's edition of this newspaper, by businessmen of the community who observe the season of friendliness and good will with special greetings and words of appreciation to their customers and friends.

In homes, the greeting cards are opened, often to become part of the decorations and always to be read with pleasure for the messages they bring from near and far. Whether the mail has brought cards from the neighbors next door or a card and a Christmas note from a distant friend, greetings warm the heart.

Christmas is a time to be merry. It's a day for laughter and singing, a day when even strangers are friends, and passersby on the street smile at one another. It's a day when the stresses of life are forgotten, when joy replaces care, and personal worries disappear in thoughtfulness for others.

Old Customs Honored

Christmas is a time to observe old customs. All the lore of the day as it is celebrated in many lands, as it has been celebrated throughout the centuries, comes to make this Christmas richer in happiness and contentment.

Christmas is a time for traditions. Every family has its own, and the special rituals of gift-giving, feasting, parties, stories, meetings with friends and relatives, grow in meaning and grow dearer each year they are observed.

Christmas is a time to say, as did Dickens' Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one."
