Cop/Comm clash contributes cash

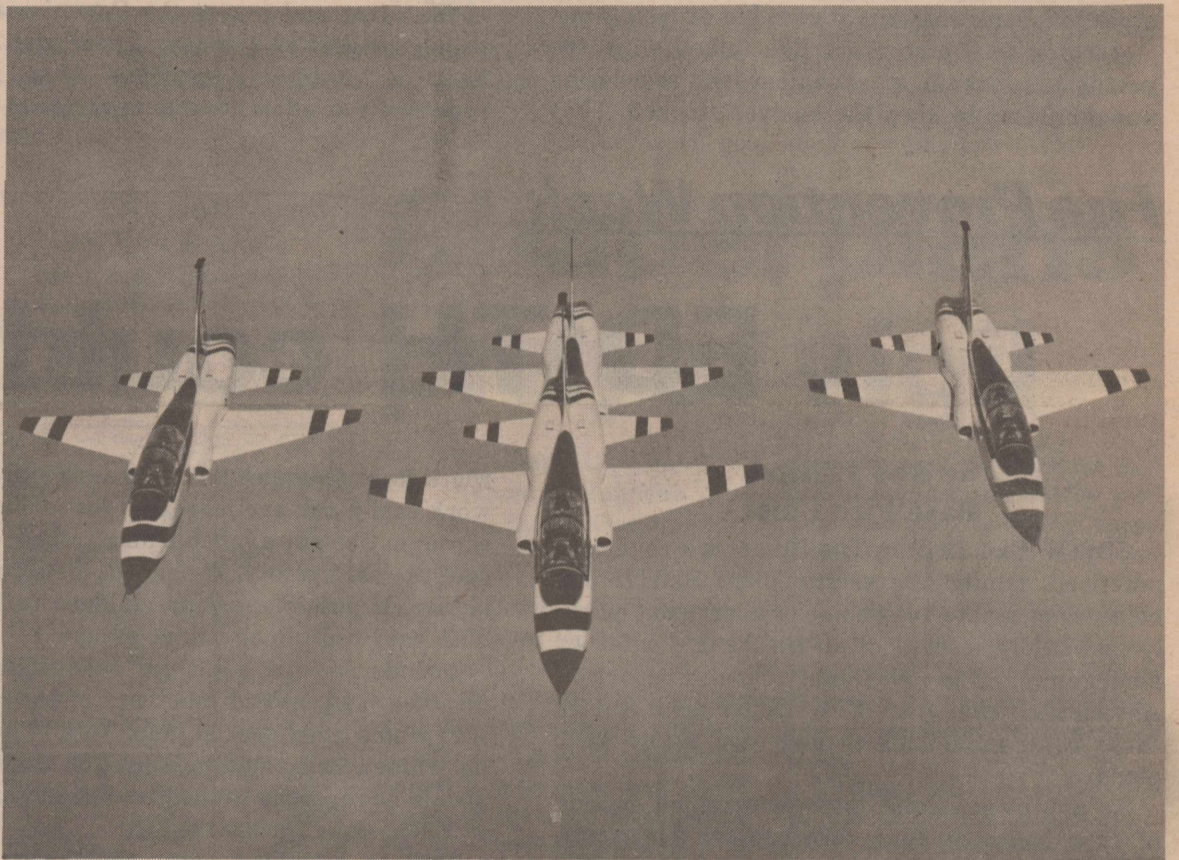

With the Combined Federal Campaign only three days old, there is very little to report as to progress at this point.

One interesting money raising scheme has been reported to the Roundup by members of the 1958th Communications Squadron and the Security Police. The two groups will sponsor an open roll-off at the Bowling Center this afternoon from 3-5.

During the bowling, if any bowler rolls a strike all other bowlers will put a dime into the CFC kitty. A spare will cost all bowlers a nickel. All proceeds will be contributed to CFC.

CFC is supported annually by Reese, although Reese people stay involved in local agencies supported by the drive throughout the year. Those agencies include: American Red Cross, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boy Scouts, Boy's Club, Camp Fire Council, Christmas Clearance Bureau, Family Service Association, Girl Scouts, Goodwill Industries, Lubbock Council on Alcoholism, Rape Crisis Center, Reading is Fundamental, Reese Youth Activities, Salvation Army, YMCA and YWCA.

One good way to support CFC is through payroll deduction. See your section key worker to find out how to start the allotment. Reese's goal for 1981 is $82,000. Collected funds will be divided between the United Way, National Health Agencies and International Service Agencies.

STEP Program offers promotions

Washington (AFNS) — Commanders at major commands may now select and promote a limited number of airmen with exceptional potential to grades E-4 to E-7 Under the Stripes for Exceptional Performers program announced by officials here.

The test program, starting Oct. 1 permits promotion when, in the commanders judgement, circumstances clearly warrant advancement.

Commanders of separate operating agencies with a large number of enlisted service members will have similar authority. Additionally, the senior officer in an organization with small enlisted populations may recommend clearly exceptional airmen for promotion to the Air Force

Manpower And Military Personnel Center, Randolph AFB, Texas.

The program will be evaluated based on commanders views and the promotions made during a one-year test period before being recommended for permanent adoption.

With about 94,000 promotions to these grades each year, the STEP program will be very selective. Officials said STEP promotions during the test period and in the future if the program is adopted will be limited to slightly more than 200 a year. Senior commanders will be allocated a specific number of stripes based on assigned E-3 through E-5 strength.

Promotions to E-8 and E-9 are excluded from the program. Senior non-commissioned officer evaluation boards already have performance reports available to document unique circumstances warranting promotion. Inclusion of these grades would also detract from the selection opportunity of others, since the number of E-8s and E-9s is restricted by law to two percent and one percent of the enlisted force respectively.

While the Stripes for Exceptional Performers Program will augment existing airman programs, officials have said that with the exception of promotion to E-4 no one may be promoted more than once during any 12 month period.

When commanders make selection, they may waive normal promotion eligibility criteria except for Air Force Time in Service minimums and certain promotion disqualifying factors.

Get in the ball game: Vote

by Lt. Col. Leslie A. Hobgood
Deputy Commander for Operations

As we come upon the Fall of '80 and we again see the political campaigns intermingled with our football viewing, it can't help but generate some thought process—the developing of a conscious decision on the part of each individual—which ball game to watch and what to do with your vote.

Over the years we have heard every possible answer to that last question with a scope and variety that boggles the mind. If you are already registered and intend to vote, don't stop reading here—spread your enthusiasm—generate interest. For you that have not registered or do not know how—ask.

You have access to a voting representative right there in your unit. For those who are not roused by the standard traditions of patriotism, the Flag, Mom's apple pie, or baseball, consider another option: The next Administration is in and you did not vote. How are you going to have any credibility at all in the inevitable conversations on taxes, politics, and various other bureaucratic plight? In the arena of our democratic process, the public is seldom invited on the playing field except at election time.

Your registration gets you a sideline pass and your vote gets you into the huddle on the most critical play—the selection of elected officials. Don't be left at the hot dog stand when the big plays are made this Fall. Participate—Vote!

Stuck stock

Why can't the Commissary maintain a better stock? It seems they are always out of something. According to the stockers I've talked with, the problem is that the management isn't reordering enough items to keep the shelves stocked. They say they don't want to have to move a lot of items when the new Commissary is completed. I don't think this is the right way to run a Commissary.

We agree and regret the Commissary was so poorly stocked on the day of your visit. This has been a continuing problem that we have repeatedly tried to resolve at the local level, but have not been successful. This problem is now being raised to the South Central Complex, Air Force Commissary Service at Good AFB and will receive our continued attention. The present Commissary facility will continue to be stocked as completely as possible right up to the move to the new facility.

Fire Prevention Week

EDITH could save lives

by Bob J. Hitch
Base Fire Chief

EDITH (Exit Drill In The Home) is a regularly practiced, family fire escape plan. EDITH can help you evacuate your home or apartment quickly and safely in case of an actual fire or other emergency. The National Fire Protection Association and your Fire Department offers these basic guidelines to help you set-up your plans.

An approved smoke detector installed outside of your bedroom door, between the bedrooms, and the rest of the house, offers occupants the earliest possible detection of smoke and fire. Most lethal home fires occur during the hours between midnight and 6 a.m. Also, have some simple signal device (like a police-type whistle) at each person's bedside to help arouse everyone if fire is suspected even before the alarm sounds. As a part of the programmed modernization of the village family quarters, smoke detectors will be installed in each residence by the Air Force.

Before opening a door, feel it with the back of your hand. If it is hot, don't open it. When opening the door, open it only an inch or so at first, if smoke enters the room, close the door and seek an alternate way out. If you sleep with your bedroom door open and you are aroused by the smell of smoke, don't stand up. Roll out of your bed and crawl along the floor. Standing up may put you high enough to be overcome by the superheated air that forms and progresses downward from the ceiling.

Figure at least two routes to the outside from every room in the house. Always allow for the possibility of fire and choking smoke and fumes blocking the halls and stairways.

A window may be the only alternate escape route from an upper-floor. Be sure exit windows work easily and are large and low enough to get through. Use any available porch, shed, or garage roof to reach safety. If needed, install an escape ladder. If possible, assign children to bedrooms with easy rooftop or ladder escape.

Include specific plans for evacuating infants, disabled, and invalid members of the household who would need special help. Totally disabled or bed-ridden household members in Reese Village should be reported to the Fire Prevention Section at Extensions 2868/2311.

Pick an assembly point well away from the house, where all members of the family will meet for "head count." Be sure everyone understands that the house must not be reentered for any reason.

Plan to notify the fire department (885-3458) from a neighbor's phone — not from inside your own burning home. When reporting the fire by phone, be calm, speak clearly and give the complete address of the fire involved house. Tell alarm dispatcher if all family members are accounted for. In duplex homes, notify neighbors of the presence of fire."

VHA becomes reality

Air Force has received approval to implement Variable Housing Allowance as a result of the passage of the Nunn-Warner Act.

All eligible Reese military personnel will be required to complete AF Form 1030. This form will be available at your orderly room between Oct. 6-10.

VHA is an entitlement payable to members receiving Basic Allowance for Quarters (with or without dependents). Those members receiving partial BAQ or residing in inadequate government quarters are not eligible for VHA. The purpose of VHA is to help defray housing costs in designated high cost areas. These areas are established by the Per Diem, Travel and Transportation Allowance Committee.

VHA is payable to eligible members who are stationed in the Continental United States (excludes Alaska and Hawaii).

The rate of VHA for members stationed in the CONUS is based upon their duty station. A determination will be made as to whether Reese AFB is a high cost area.

Accounting and Finance will notify members of any changes in requirements for eligibility to VHA.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

QUESTION: What is Variable Housing Allowance (VHA)?

ANSWER: The Variable Housing Allowance (VHA) is authorized for the purpose of assisting members entitled to a basic allowance for quarters (BAQ) to defray housing costs, if Government quarters (including inadequate Government quarters) are not assigned, when:

- a. the member is assigned to a permanent station located in the United States (CONUS 48 states) within an area where the average cost for housing exceeds the average BAQ by 15% or more, or
- b. the member is assigned to a permanent duty station outside the CONUS and the member's dependents reside in an area within the CONUS where the average cost of housing exceeds the average BAQ by 15% or more.

QUESTION: I am single and living off-base in a high cost area. Can I receive the entitlement?

ANSWER: Yes. The VHA pertains to all personnel receiving single or married BAQ affected by a high cost area.

QUESTION: My wife and I are both in the Air Force and drawing BAQ. How is the VHA paid to us?

ANSWER: Both of you will get the VHA based on whether you are drawing married or single BAQ as long as both of you are in high cost area. Each will receive VHA in your own right. If both of you are receiving married BAQ, each will receive married VHA. If both are drawing single BAQ, then each will receive single VHA. If one is drawing married BAQ and the other single BAQ, then one will receive married VHA and the other single VHA. If you are at different duty locations, each of you will be paid VHA based on each one's duty location.

QUESTION: How are the rates determined for VHA?

ANSWER: They are based on a sample statistical survey conducted by the DOD. They are in effect for one year unless the area commander determines during the year that there has been a substantial change in the area. The area commander can then request DOD to do another survey.

QUESTION: I am going PCS and living off-base with my dependents. When does my entitlement to VHA change?

ANSWER: It stops the day prior to your arrival at your new duty assignment. You would then complete a new certification at your new duty location.

Chapel plans prayer vigil

by Chap. (Lt. Col.)
Arnold G. Johnson
 Installation Chaplain

President Carter recently declared Oct. 6 to be a National Day of Prayer for our American hostages in Iran.

The Base Chapel will be open that day from midnight-midnight to offer each person at Reese the opportunity to pause for a time of prayer at the altar. Base personnel are asked to enroll on a 24 hour roster at the Chapel as we make an effort to have people in prayer around the clock for this special occasion. Interested persons may also call the Chapel (885-3237) and we'll add the names to the list.

A chaplain will be available all the time during this vigil to participate in group prayers, to aid in providing devotional materials, and to minister to individual needs.

All Reese personnel are invited to share in this memorable effort as we join in the national effort of prayer for our hostages and their waiting families.

Conservation tips

Being energy conscious can save money. Energy needs change with the seasons—and so do the ways to save energy. In the cold season you can save by:

- Lowering the thermostat to 65F during the day and 55F at night.
- Keeping windows near the thermostat tightly closed.

—Having the furnace serviced at least once a year.

—Not letting cold air seep into the home through the attic access door.

—Dusting or vacuuming radiators frequently.

—Keeping draperies and shades open in sunny windows and closing them at night.

Davis chairs review

Gen. B.L. Davis, commander, Air Training Command, has been selected to chair an independent group conducting an in-depth review of the Titan II Weapon System.

Secretary of the Air Force, Dr. Hans Mark, said the review is being conducted as a result of the recent accident at Damascus, Ark.

Commenting on his assignment, Gen. Davis said, "My role as chairman is to conduct an in-depth review of the Titan mishap investigation. It is a responsibility of great importance to our country and I intend to give it my full attention."

Other members of the group will be from U.S. Air Force headquarters, other Air Force major commands and the Department of Energy. The Air Force Inspector General's office will assist in the review.

The group will explore the present and future safety and supportability of the Titan II and provide possible alternatives if safety is deemed suspect. Team members will focus on policies, plans, procedures and training as they relate to actions during crisis situations.

The group will also address the possible effects of a mishap on the civilian community. Additionally, the recent Titan II Weapon Condition and Safety Report, which was provided to Congress in May, will be re-evaluated.

The Air Force has set no target date for completion of the review. However, the group will conduct the review at an expeditious pace, consistent with the requirements.

Toastmasters needs help

By Fred Flewellen

A friend of Reese is dying, and it's really a shame because this friend is the type who gives and gives and asks so little in return.

The friend is the Sounding Board Toastmasters Club, which is dying from lack of blood, the life-giving blood of membership. This friend can increase communication abilities, improve leadership skills, teach efficient organization techniques, and open up whole new vistas through self-improvement.

Some people say this friend is costly, but you'd pay more for a single college course. Besides you can earn through your speaking abilities. Some folk say this friend only consorts with the "upper class". Look again; the friend opens its door to all military, civilian and dependents.

This friend has one primary goal and that is to help you become better in your communicative skills. So if you want to have fun, improve yourself and share with others help keep this friend from dying, donate your blood. Please call Fred Flewellen, ext. 3801 or visit our meeting at 11:45 each Tuesday in the "O Club".

Dining in

Capt. Anthony A. Aldwell stands to address the chair during the recent dining in held at the Officers' Club. Infractions of rules of the mess, such as Captain Aldwell is pointing out, can include such minor items as a fork or knife left off the plate or a uniform violation. These infractions lead to a trip to the grog bowl, a suspicious mixture of whatever happens to get dumped in. The offender must drain a cup of grog and turn the cup up on his head to prove it. Fish: Food for thought

Editor's note: The following article was submitted by the Health Evaluation and Risk Tabulation Program at Reese.

There is no better protein food for a healthy heart than fish. It is so easy to prepare, and comes in so many different varieties, that it is surprising that so few Americans use it. A lot of people overcook fish, and the result is dry and tasteless. One extra minute can make all the difference, so watch it carefully. Fish is done when it feels firm to the touch, or when it flakes when poked with a fork.

Here are two easy recipes, which you can have on the table in less than a half hour from start to finish.

Baked Scrod with Breadcrumb Topping
(Serves four to five)
2 lbs. scrod, boned
1 cup fresh white breadcrumbs (see recipe)
¼ cup melted margarine

1 tsp. tabasco sauce
1 tsp. powdered bouillon
TO PREPARE: To make breadcrumb crumbs, force fresh white bread through the holes in a collander. Do this by rubbing with your hand and pressing forcefully. Mix the crumbs with the margarine, tabasco, and bouillon. Place fish on a baking sheet, and pat crumbs over each portion. Bake at 350°F. until done, about 15 minutes. The margarine from the breadcrumb topping will baste the fish. If desired, finish under the broiler to brown the crumbs.

Haddock a la Belle Meuniere (Serves four)
1½ lbs. haddock, cut into steaks
4 slices tomato
4 mushroom caps, sauteed
2 tbsps. margarine
flour
TO PREPARE: Flour and saute haddock in hot margarine until brown on one side. Then turn, cover each with a tomato slice and the mushroom cap, cover with pan, and finish in a 350°F. oven until fish is cooked.

Top airman

AIC Michael Bell of 64th Organizational Maintenance has been selected as the Reese Airman of the Month. The nominating letter listed Airman Bell's achievements in education (currently enrolled with nine hours at Wayland Baptist College), public service (headed the Reese No Smoking Clinic and does volunteer work with the American Cancer Society) and job performance (accepted for six month temporary duty with the Accelerated Co-pilot Enrichment Program). Added to this, he was cited for his personal appearance and ability to communicate and cooperate with his co-workers. Here he replaces the linkage on a T-38 throttle. (U.S. Air Force Photo)

Set up a Dependent Account!

The credit union movement was founded on the twin ideals of thrift and service to families, so one of our most important services for our members is the dependent share account. Open an account for your little ones today (there's no minimum age!) and they can be members for life if they choose. They'll get into the savings habit early and by watching their savings grow they'll learn thrift and independence. Help your children prepare for the future by opening a dependent share account; they'll thank you for it one day!

Riding a bicycle without lights or reflectors is not only dangerous it is direct violation of base regulations. The Security Police will issue tickets to people caught riding bikes at night without the required safety gear. Bicycles on base must have headlights and rear reflectors that are visible from 500 feet. The Security Police can help people comply with the regulation. Reflective tape is available at no cost at the main gate. In the inset photo, AIC Orville Crumpton helps Kevin Wilson put some of the reflective tape on his bicycle.

SPs stress safety

Many misconceptions apparently exist when it comes to the operation of bicycles on Reese.

Usually, problems associated with improper bicycle operation result from sponsors not insuring their children are familiar with the base rules. However, on Reese these problems extend to most bicycle riders throughout the base.

In an effort to clear up the misconceptions and eliminate the confusion, Security Police are this week stressing the base rules governing bicycle operation. The same traffic rules that apply to motor vehicles apply to bicycle operation.

For example, bicycle riders are required to stop at stop signs, ride with the flow of traffic, use hand signals when making turns, and so on. Bicycles operated during the hours of darkness must have a head light emitting a white light visible from a distance of 500 feet. Carrying a flashlight does not meet the requirement. Bicycles must also have a red tail light or rear reflector visible from a distance of 500 feet from the rear.

Operators must sit astride the bicycle and cannot carry another person on the bike unless additional seats are provided. Bicycle operators may not attach themselves to any other moving vehicle. The carrying of a package, bundle, or object which prevents a bicycle operator from keeping at least one hand on the handle bars is prohibited.

Within the business district of the base, bicycles will not be ridden on the sidewalks. When using the roadways, bicycles will travel with the flow of traffic, single file, and as near the right side of the lane as practical. Bicycles ridden off the street will yield to all pedestrians.

Each adult bicycle rider is responsible for knowing these rules and complying with them. Parents are responsible for insuring their children know and comply with the rules. Bicycle operators who violate these rules can be given a traffic ticket by Security Police.

Stolen property

TSgt. Steven Ruff, left, and SSgt. Rudolfo Perez, Security Police Investigations, list some stereo equipment that was recovered on the basis of a tip from an anonymous informant. The investigators stressed that the reason it was easily recovered was because the owner had marked it for identification with his Social Security number. (U.S. Air Force Photo)

House passes benefits bill

WASHINGTON (AFNS) — Thirty days of free time off for a one year overseas extension for those in certain career fields and giving E-7s, without dependents, the option of taking base quarters or an allowance for off-base quarters are two of the provisions of a bill passed by the House.

In the Military Pay and Allowances Benefits Act of 1980 are portions of the President's Fair Benefits Package not included in the recently signed authorization bill and three House Armed Services Committee programs.

The bill provides for:

*Optional residency—This would give members in the grade E-7 and above, without dependents, the option to elect Basic Allowance for Quarters instead of government quarters. The current entitlement exists for O-4 and above.

*Special incentives for extending overseas—A special $50 per month payment or choice of one of three rest-and-recuperation options would be offered.

One choice is a 30-day rest-and-recuperation absence from duties not chargeable as leave. Another is a non-chargeable 15-day rest and recuperation, and transportation at government expense to and from the United States for the service member.

Round trip transportation to the United States at government expense is the third option. The service member would be charged leave. In this case, the incentives only apply to enlisted service members in "CONUS Overseas Imbalanced" skills (those skills used primarily overseas) who agree to extend at least one year overseas.

*Fair-Market-Rental trailer pads—This will continue the current rental practice for on-base trailer spaces. It clarifies Congressional intent to set rental rates for mobile-home spaces on military installations at an amount sufficient to pay for the construction cost over a 15-year period.

Included in the rent will be a charge to cover maintenance costs and services and a charge for utilities based on prevailing rates or cost to government, whichever is higher.

Next step for the bill is the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Tidbits

Oops!
Last week's Roundup incorrectly reported a rise in dues for the NCO and Officers' Clubs. The price hike actually applies to meal prices.

Suggestor
Amn. Samuel S. Scherer was recently awarded $25 for his suggestion to use pre-printed information on commissary accounts forms. The pre-printed forms will not only save time, but eliminate the possibility of error on the pay voucher.

M*A*S*H Night
On Oct. 18 the Junior Officers' Council is sponsoring a M*A*S*H Night at the Officers' Club. Surgery will open at 7 p.m. and the menu will feature Korean pheasant, M*A*S*H taters, Klinger salad w/dressing and Hot Lips Jubilee.

Highlight of the evening will be a Klinger Look-Alike Contest. All club members are invited.

Speeders
Those who tend to get a little heavy-footed while traveling down the ramp area would be well-advised to slow down a little. Security Police have been instructed to start running radar and citing violators. This policy has already taken effect so don't be surprised if somebody, somewhere comes up to you and says, "Smile, you're on Candid Camera."

Bus drivers
Volunteers are urgently needed to support the weekend shuttle bus to South Plains Mall program. Only one driver has signed up for the entire month of October. Volunteers need only have a military driver's license. Call Ext. 3787.

JOC meeting
The Junior Officers' Council has scheduled a business meeting for Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Officers' Club.

Blood drive
Here is a rare opportunity for members of flying squadrons to participate in a blood drive. On Oct. 10, the day before the beginning of a three-day weekend, South Plains Blood Services will be conducting a drive in the briefing room of the 35th Flying Training Squadron from 2-6 p.m. Crew members are required to have 72 hours off after donating blood and are usually unable to participate.

For further information contact 1st Lt. Frank Pineiro at Ext. 3873 or 2nd Lt. Jean Huggins at Ext. 3870.

OWC luncheon
Thursday at noon marks the beginning of the Officers' Wives' Club luncheon slated to be held in the Officers' Club. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. after social hour.

A program on interior decorating will be presented. Cost of the luncheon, which features baked chicken, is $3.85. Call Edie Snider for reservations at 793-2042.

Check ride
An outstanding check ride during instrument check was logged last week by 2nd Lt. Steven C. Ewers of the 35th Flying Training Squadron, E Flight.

BAQ recertification
Members receiving Basic Allowance for Quarters for a spouse, legitimate children or both must complete recertification biennially on the reverse of AF Form 594.

One month before recertification is due, member's Leave and Earning Statement will show remark, "Report to AFO to recertify BAQ." By the 20th of the month, recertification is due. Failure to complete the form by the 15th of the following month is the basis for stopping BAQ.

Leave program
An upsurge has been noted in the number of inquiries from members who are unaware of the limitation on the sale of military leave. Members may be reimbursed for only 60 days of leave per military career. Leave sold prior to Feb. 10, 1976 is excluded from the limitation.

In addition, accrued leave may exceed 60 days during a fiscal year, however, unused accrued leave in excess of 60 days is dropped and lost at fiscal year-end balancing.

Award winners
Ten civilians were recently recognized with length of service awards. Ten-year winners were Richard M. Bratton, Stephen J. Breunig, Alberty R. Deforrest, Gary W. Liles and Clifford R. McClendon. Twenty-year winners were Maxine R. Brow, Loretta E. Downey and Leta M. Vannoy. Garnering thirty-year awards were Frank M. Llanas and William T. Turner.

Six On-The-Job-Trainees recently received outstanding results on their End-of-Course exams. They were A1C Jeffrey S. Plesser, Amn. Jose Lares Jr., Sgt. Richard A. Bartley, Amn. Brian D. Wilkerson, Amn. Emilio Estrada and A1C Jimmie R. Smith.

Street Talk

It's happening all over Reese. People are talking about "Street Talk." This is a place where your opinions count, regardless of policy.

The Roundup doesn't want a good thing to die, so we need your help. If you have a question or subject that you think would be interesting to a broad cross section of Reese, let us know. Also give us your opinion of the subject you suggest so we can feature you in the column you instigated.

Call Ext. 3169 or drop us a line to 64th FTW/PA, Stop 9. Better yet, stop by building 800, room 307 and let's talk about it. We won't always be able to use your suggestions, but we want to hear them.

This week's subject is the proposed dental plan announced in the most recent issue of Air Force Times. The plan basically calls for dependent dental care to be provided through Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services on a percentage payment based on the rank of the beneficiary's sponsor.

For instance, whereas a sergeant will not have to pay any deductible, a captain will have to pay an annual deductible rate of $150. Also, the percentage paid by CHAMPUS for the captain would be less than for the sergeant.

The question: "Is the proposed dependent dental care program sufficient to provide for the needs of military families."

Carolyn Foster

I'd like to see the deductible a little lower, because that would be a lot of visits to the dentist and I don't go that often.

TSgt. Ronald Hodge
 Comm Squadron

I feel the program is inadequate because of the administration of it. Most likely the individuals involved would end up paying too much for it. I think a better plan should be come up with, because the administration of the CHAMPUS program seems to be lacking.

SSgt. Chuck Delahoussaye
 Tech ROTC instructor

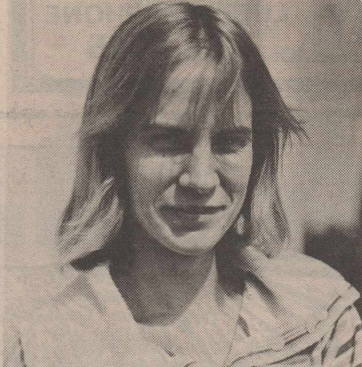

Considering that we didn't have anything to begin with, it's better than what we had.

2nd Lt. Timothy Krein
 Student Squadron

It's better than it was before. Where I worked before was a better plan. All we paid was $50 deductible and had dental care as a fringe benefit. My fiance's dad is a dentist anyway, though.

FLIP THE SWITCH ON ENERGY WASTE!

Gwen Lewis
 Dependent wife

It's a lot of money, but since we don't have anything right now, it's better than nothing. I think the group insurance alternative would have been better.

Helping hand

SrA George Spade took time out to help at the South Plains Fair recently. Reese personnel have historically been called upon to lend a hand at the annual event. The spirits of Airman Spade's charge were not dampened by the gloomy skies and rain that plagued fair week as he receives a helium balloon. (U.S. Air Force Photo)

54th wins 30 straight

Extending its unbeaten streak to 30 games, the 54th Flying Training Squadron flag football team beat Air Base Group and the 35th FTS last week to recapture the intramural flag lead.

The twin wins broke the 54th out of a three-team pack. Last week, the 54th was tied for the top lead with Supply and Sturon with 2-0 records.

But the defending champs jumped on ABGp, 19-8 and the 35th FTS, 20-7, to go one full game up in the standings at 4-0. The team's 29 and 30 straight wins extended an undefeated streak that dates back to September, 1977 and has included three straight titles.

Organizational Maintenance Squadron moved into fourth place behind Supply and Sturon by blanking the 1958th Communications Squadron, 31-0.

The Hospital, winless entering last week's play, won a pair of games to gain a tie for fifth with Comm., 2-2. The Hospital and Comm. each padded their league records with lopsided wins over Class 81-01. The all-student team is mired in the league cellar with the loop's worst record, 0-4.

Around the league, Resource Management downed 81-02, 19-8; Sturon bested Field Maintenance, 1-0; and the Hospital beat FMS, 19-0.

The standings in the intramural flag football league, as of Monday, were:

| Team | W | L |
|----------|---|---|
| 54th FTS | 4 | 0 |
| Supply | 2 | 0 |
| Sturon | 2 | 0 |
| O M S | 2 | 1 |

| Comm. | 2 | 2 |

Army boxers slate bouts with locals

Some of the best amateur fighters in the U.S. Army will stand toe-to-toe with the best of the Lubbock Warriors when the two teams square off in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Oct. 18.

The fight card will include at least 12 fights.

Among the top name boxers for the Warriors will be Gilbert Castillo—bantamweight, AAU Western States Champion; Mario Martinez—featherweight, New Mexico novice Golden Gloves champ and National AAU runner-up; and Terry Johnson—lightweight, Texas Regional Golden Gloves Champion.

Heading the Army squad are Timothy Brown—lightweight, All Army Champion; Charles Kirkland—middleweight, All Army Champion and Detroit Golden Gloves Champion; and Homer Perez—light-heavyweight, All Army Champion.

The fights are scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Tickets are $6 for reserved seating and $3 for general admission. Children's tickets are $1.

The boxing match is co-sponsored by the Boys Club of America and a local beverage distributor.

Sports in brief

Cage scrimmage

The Reese Rattlers will take part in a four team basketball scrimmage here Saturday.

Starting at 10 a.m., Reese, Cannon AFB, N.M., Lubbock Christian College and Western Texas will run a controlled scrimmage. Last year Western Texas was the top ranked junior college team in the nation.

Dustbowl run

The base Morale Welfare and Recreation Division is sponsoring a Dustbowl Run on Oct. 25.

The five-mile run is open to all base personnel. There is a $4 entry fee. All entrants will receive a special Dust Bowl T-shirt and $1 will be donated to the fight to find a cure for Muscular Dystrophy.

For more information contact a member of the gym staff at Ext. 3875.

Ladies golf

An organizational meeting of the Reese Ladies Golf Association is scheduled for Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at the golf course clubhouse. For further information, contact Bonnie Martin at 885-3819.
