Farm laborers also have been hard hit by the continued rains, particularly the transient workers Haskell's three gins were just getting into seasonal operations before typical slow autumn rains who had just begun to show up in appreciable numbers. Most ginners and farmers believe that sufficient labor will be available to handle the cotton harvest for the first few weeks of the season, at least. A scarcity of workers could develop when the crop reaches full maturity, how-Estimates on this year's production in the county place the yield at 50,000 bales or more, with some estimates as high as 60,000 bales. Much depends on an early or late killing frost, ginners point out.

Recent rains, while beneficial in the iong range viewpoint, have resulted in lowering the grade of cotton which was open in the field, one ginner estimating this loss would amount to $10 or more

Council Revises Charges for Taps On City Mains

A revised schedule of charges for water taps on the city mains will be followed in the future, City Council members decided at their regular meeting Tuesday

Rising costs of material and the varying amount of cast iron pipe or copper line required on some jobs make it impractical to have a set charge which would apply to all new taps, City Water Department Supt. Roy Oliphant explained. In the future the charge for making a tap or main connection, will be based on the labor and material required.

In discussing recurring violations of an ordinance regulating the keeping of hogs inside the city limits, Council members unanimously agreed on strict enforcement of the ordinance.

Schedule for the tour of duty of the city nightwatchman has been changed to conform with requirements of the State Insurance Commission, Police Commissioner Brooks Middleton reported. All members of the City Council with the exception of Alderman W. H. Pitman were present at the Prize-winning posters on Fire Prevention, the work of pupils in Haskell Elementary School, were displayed at the meeting and luncheon of the Rotary Club Thursday at noon, when City Fire District Banquet Marshal R. A. Lane, talked on the importance of fire prevention in the home.

Two guests of the club presented in a musical program were Mrs. Don Davis, vocalist, and Mrs. Novis Qualey, pianist, of Rule. They were introduced by Thos. B. Roberson, and Mrs. Davis sang three numbers, with ulations to local Rotarians, from the Rotary Club of Kingston-onhe-Thames, England. He also announced the program to be pre-sented on United Nations Day, Thursday, Oct. 24. Tom Barfield, vice president of the club, reported briefly on the district Rotary which he and President King attended. Principal Hooper T. Wilkinson of Haskell Elementary School had arranged a display of the winning Fire Prevention posters, and he expressed appreciation to the local Fire Department for sponsoring the contest in the school. Fire Marshal Lane stressed the importance of fire prevention in the home by pointing out that property owners are being charged a 15 per cent penalty on fire insurance premiums as the result of excessive fire losses during the American Legion past three years. Two of the most common causes of home fires, Lane declared, are overloading electrical circuits and the careless use of cleaning fluids.

Due to the fact that the 1956 Homecoming was cancelled, increased interest has been developed in this year's affair, especially among Exes and former teachers who have moved away. This is indicated in the large number of advance reservations which have been received in recent days, Adkins said.

Advance sale of tickets for the Homecoming chuck wagon supper have been heavy during the past week, according to Hill Oates, who is in charge of this phase of the program.

All local Exes - students. teachers, patrons—are urged to register Saturday and attend as much of the program as possible, Homecoming officials said.

Early-day ex-students, patrons and teachers will have a promi-nent part in the two-day Homecoming program, with special recognition being given the oldest ex-student present, pioneer teachers, largest class representation, visitors coming the longest distance, etc.

Judge Grissom to Speak Homecoming speaker will be Hon. Clyde Grissom, Chief Justice of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, Eastland, a native of Hasschools. He will be introduced by Tom Davis, prominent Haskell lawyer and former district attorney, a longtime friend and associate of Judge Grissom. Among the principal Homecoming activities will be the class reunions being planned by various groups and scheduled during the two days Homecoming.

Friday Night Attraction Feature attraction Friday night will be the Dist. 2A-4 conference football game between the Haskell Indians and Stamford Bulldogs, which gets under way at 7:30 p. m. in Indian Stadium. Homecoming sessions and the general program will be held in the High School Gym, which will also be registration headquarters for guests and visitors. Visitors and Ex-students have not sent in advance registration, will begin registering at p. m. Friday, at the Gym. Registration will be resumed at 9 a. m. Saturday morning, followed by visiting and reunions until general assembly at 2 p. m. and

Wichita Falls Appreciation Day

In selecting Haskell as site for an "Appreciation Day Free Stag Barbecue", Wichita Fails business leaders have conferred a signal honor on this community which will afford Haskell an invaluable opportunity to become better acquainted with its neighbors.

The "Appreciation Day Barbecue" will be staged in Rice Springs Park at 7 p. m., Tuesday, Oct. 29, with the entire affair s courtesy o f our "Big Brother" city to the north. The barbecue and entertainment program is sponsored by Wichita Falls wholesalers, manufacturers, transportation and service companies who are taking this means to say "Thanks" to businessmen and residents of a wide area for their patronage of Wichita Falls concerns.

Wichita Falls has long enjoyed the reputation of being a city where any project undertaken is carried out whole-heartedly. That fact assures that no effort or expense will be spared in making the barbecue and program in Haskell a genuine expression of appreciation by Wichi-

Haskell will profift by reason of the fact that the event will bring hundreds of people here from our neighboring towns for an evening of fellowship and good will. It would be impossible for Haskell to smdertake and carry out a program of this nature as a purely local endeavor. As our share in the undertaking, every citizen of Haskell should extend fullest cooperation toward making the affair a success.

Poll Tax Important Next Year

Have you paid your poll tax?

This reminder may be considered out of place, since more than three full months remain in which to secure the slip of paper Fair. which entitles you to vote in 1958 elections,

However, the fact remains that year after year a majority of eligible voters pass up the opportunity to qualify for their voting privilege. For those in this group, a week-by-week or day-by-day reminder would be worthwhile if it resulted in a substantial number of additional voters taking part in local, state and national government affairs.

Next year will be an important year politically. Voters will choose state, county and city officials in the regular elections. In addition, it appears almost certain that important local matters will be

Just in order to be on the safe side, we suggest you pay your poll tax today.

Operation of the public schools of the county constitutes one of the largest business operations in the county, as can readily be seen from the financial statements of three school districts published in last week's issue of The Free Press.

Schools Are Big Business

The three schools, Weinert, Paint Creek, and Mattson, spent a total of $214,221.51 for operation and maintenance during the year ending August 31, 1957. This sum-almost a quarter million dollarssomes from taxes paid by property owners and citizens who can be rightly considered as stockholders who have a direct interest in the

Taking that perspective, school officials are to be commended for making public these annual financial reports on income and expenses involved in operating the schools

Similar periodic reports from all other schools in the county, and from city and county governing agencies as well, would go a long ways toward developing a better understanding between the taxpayers and those charged with the duty and responsibility of administering local governmental affairs.

Although the flu bug nipped Haskell's chances for the Dist. 4-AA as a result of the Indians forfeit to Seymour of their first conference game, decision to cancel the contest received unan-imous support of local fans and supporters of the Tribe. With 15 of the 22 players in the A squad on the sick list, as well as Coach Ray Overton Jr., and Assistant Coach Dick Gaines out with the flu, it would have been little short of mayhem to have sent a crippled squad and reserves against the strong Panther opponents.

Despite our apparent efforts to the contrary, Haskell's first United Nation's Day program is being observed today (Thursday) instead of Friday, the date publicized for the event in last week's Free Press. ## Harvesting Grass Seed Can Return Profit to Farmer

Farmers and ranchers of the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation Districts may realize a profit from an otherwise unconsidered source of income this year by harvesting grass seed. The price of grass seed has increased considerably due to the extended drouth which limited production and increased demand by the conservation reserve program of the soil bank.

Farmers or ranchers who have native grass sites that are producing seed should consider the possibility of harvesting the seed. The sites should be located and examined to see if yields will be enough to justify harvest. This can be done by sampling the grass site according to an established sampling procedure to estimate seed yields per acre. When the seed are fully ripe or hard, or in the hard dough stage, the moisture content is low enough for storage, and the seed are usually highest in germination. Seed harvested in the milk or soft dough stage are improperly developed, often shrivelled, poor in color and low in germination.

A variety of equipment can be used in harvesting grass seed depending upon the particular seed crop to be harvested. Combines are usually satisfactory in harvesting most seed when they are in the hard dough stage, although some grasses have a tendency to shatter and other methods are more effective. Minor changes are often necessary on combines to handle various seed. Strippers of various types are used with great success. One type using reel bats with flappers to strip the seed from the stems. This method tends to leave the unripened seed only removing the ripe seed. This type of harvest yields excellent clean mature Binders are useful for harvesting seed since cutting can be done several days before combining. Bundles should be handled easy to keep shattering to a minimum. Hauling and handling should be done during early part of the morning.

To some extent hand harvesting is done. This is expensive and used only when the area is small, or the seed are in various stages was home last weekend from of ripening, and their value warrants such treatment.

Straight run grass seed usually are too trashy for planting and recleaning is necessary. This may be done with a hammer mill with some seed or by using cleaners and separators that are available at large seed stores that do custom cleaning.

After allowing a few months of curing or dormancy a sample analysis should be taken for testing to determine the per cent of give a scale in selling the seed or in setting planting rates if the farmer intends to use them him-

Mrs. A. C. Foster Hosts Dinner for Harmony Club

The Haskell Harmony Club was honored with a six o'clock dinner at the Texas Cafe, Oct. 10 with the president, Mrs. A. C. Foster, as hostess. The dining room had the air of fall festivity. The tables were attractive with Hallowe'en pumpkins, colorful autumn leaves, tinted grain and beautiful white mums. Hallowe'en candies were part of the service as favors. A copy of the president's message was placed at each guest's plate.

The menu consisted of: tomato cocktail, turkey and dressing, vertical pack green beans, yams with marshmallows, lossed green salad, cranberry sauce, rolls, coffee and pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

In presenting the president's message, Mrs. Foster, said, "Let us again have 'service in music' and keep in tune, that with the spirit of harmony within our minds, that we may be able to open the doors of our hearts for the advancement of music through others and for others."

Mrs. Foster introduced Mrs. Helber who presented a gift of milk glass to Mrs. Dan Collier for her untiring work in the club. Mrs. Collier is leaving Haskell.

Mrs. J. U. Fields and Bill Mays of Stamford were guests of honor for the dinner. After the social hour, the club convened at the Homemaking Cottage for the first rehearsal of the Christmas Cantata, Mr. Mays conducted the rehearsal and will be the director of the cantata this year.

Attending the dinner and rehearsal were: Mrs. J. U. Fields, Bill Mays and members, Mmes. Arthur Foster, J. F. Cadenhead, Sr., M. E. Helber, V. W. Meadors, Hill Oates, Dan Collier, Mart Clifton, C. J. ### Mrs. Wallace Cox Directs Program of Magazine Club

The Magazine Club met in a regular meeting Oct. 18, at 3:30 p. m. at the club house. Arrangements of roses, zinnias and a gioxinia plant made the club room very attractive.

The president, Mrs. J. Vaughter, conducted the business session. M.ss Beryle Boone was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs.C. O. Holt from that office. The constitution and by-laws of the club were read by various members.

Mrs. Wallace Cox, director, very aptly introduced the program of the afternoon, "Linking the Past with the Present." She then presented Miss Nettie McCollum, who gave the topic "The U. S. Becomes Great Independent Nation." This covered mainly the years from 1870 to 1880 in the U. S. In closing, Miss McCollum stated: "It is said that no other generation in American History witnessed changes as swift or as revolutionary as those which transformed the rural republic of Lincoln and Lee into the urban industrial empire of McKinley and Roosevelt A guest, Mrs. Ernestine Ehloe of Charm Inc., was presented by Mrs. E. M. Frierson. Others present were Mmes. J. U. Fields, J. G. Vaughter, C. V. Payne, C. J. Robinson, Hill Oates, H. M. Smith, Jack Merchant, John Rike, Waljoying being together, and taking lace Cox, W. R. Johnson, Ada Rike, Earl Atchison, C. L. Lewis, during the day were N. I. McCollum, Fred Monke, W. Wilkinson, Misses Nettie Mc-Collum and Beryle Boone.

B&PW Sponsored Charm School Is Well Attended

The Charm School sponsored by the Business & Professional Women's Club and instructed by Mrs. Ernestine Ehlo of Charm Incorporated, San Antonio, was well attended.

The course of instruction was the first of this type to be offered in this immediate vicinity to club members, housewives, business women and high school girls. Each day was a different phase of self-improvement, covering good posture, relaxation, introduction, poise, mental attitude, wardrobe pointers, accessories, color coordination, fashion and high styling, and make-up.

Classes were held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening each day at the Maghouse. This Charm course was made possible through the efforts of the Projects Committee with Ramia Lee Frazier chairman.

On Friday morning at 7:30 in the Frazier home Mrs. Ehlo was complimented with a coffee. The table was laid in pastel green and centered with an arrangement of roses. Co-hostesses for this affair were Leone Pearsey, Edna Mae Lyles, Ozelle Frierson and Ramia Lee Frazier.

At the conclusion of the Charm School all participants in the course were guests of Frances Lane and Mattre Merie Felker for coffee at the Texas Cafe.

Friends Gather for 85th Birthday of A. J. Sego

On Thursday afternoon Oct. 17 from 3 until 5 o'clock, several friends cailed at the home of A. J. Sego to wish him a "happy b.rthday" on his 85th anniversary. The time was spent in visiting and making pictures.

Mrs. C. G. Burson Sr., Mrs. Norris G.bson, Mrs. Bob Sego and Mrs. C. V. Oates served cake, coffee, mints and mixed nuts to the following

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Kendrick. Iron Pearsey, Mrs. Lillie Bynum. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Survey takers, out gathering igures on hunting and fishing. have come up with some rather amazing statistics.

For example: More people hunt and fish than take part in all spectator sports combined. And anglers and hunters outnumber golfers nine to one.

Texans spend twice as much do for admission to all football, baseball and basketball games, plus all other spectator sports, plus all movies and all other theatrical attractions combined.

The hunting and fishing bill of Texas is greater than that spent on medical care, dental work and hospitalization insurance.

pursuits is rapidly increasing. That's because the population is growing and folks nowadays have more leisure time.

These are cold facts, based on accurate surveys, conducted for the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Plenty for All

fisherman Belligerent Blacks The best black bass fishing I know is in one or two South Texas lakes. I was down there the other day when the blacks were hitting surface lures like mad. In this particular lake there's a wooded area, with plenty of weeds and brush. The bass abound there. They are infuriated by the noise of topwater lures. I had spectacular success with one lure that had a spinner aft. The sound it made was like a school of minnows in flight. One thing we noticed was that a hooked fish was nearly always followed to the boat by one or two of his fellows. When I hooked one, my partner cast to the same spot to try for the other fish. I did this the same when he had a fish on. Sometimes the strategy paid off. It was a great day and a great

Stocker Cattle, Calves Higher At Ft. Worth

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth-Strong demand for replacement cattle and calves of all kinds developed Monday at Fort Worth, Prices on all kinds of stocker and feeder cattle and calves ranged from strong to 50c higher, and some of the lighter weight calves and yearlings were 50c to $1 above last week's close. Slaughter classes of cattle and calves were slow and steady to easier following the sharp advances of the previous week. Fed steers and yearlings and bulls sold steady. Cows were steady to 50c lower and slaughter calves sold on a steady to weak basis. Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $19 to $22, high choice and prime lacking in the run; common and medium sorts $13 to $18.50. Bulls $11 to $16. Fat cows $13 to $15 and canners and cutters $8.50 to $13. Good and choice fat calves $19 to $21, and common and medium soris $13 to $18.50. Culls $11 to $13. Stocker steer calves $20 to $25, and heifer calves $22 down; stocker steer yearlings $22 down; and stocker heifers $18.50 down; feeder yearling steers $20.25 down; older feeders $19.50 down. Stocker cows $10 to $16.

The trade in hogs was again highly uneven at Fort Worth Monday , with some sales a little higher and some a little lower than the low close of the previous week. Actually the range was up or down less than 25c. Once again sows were selling almost on par with choice butcher hogs. Practical top on butcher hogs was $17.50, and while most sows sold from $17 down, a few choice light weight sows reached $17.50. Medium to good butcher hogs sold at $16 to $17.

New Dollar Bill First New 'Model' Since 1929

The United States got a new dollar bill Oct. 1, notes a writer in The Christian Science Monitor. Continuing, the writer points out that the is the first new "model" since 1929 when those king-size dollar bills (that were really worth a dollar) were replaced by the small "economy size" ones we now use.

The Bureau of Engraving printing presses have been turning out these new dollar bills at the rate of 288,000 a day for stockpile of 25,000,000 of themnational scale.

There are roughly some 1,292,-000,000 dollar bills now in circulation so your immediate chance of getting one of the new ones is for the moment relatively small. But within a year or slightly more it is expected all our dollar bills will be new ones. The life expectancy of a dollar bill is about 13

And their destruction, it might be noted, is attended with as elaborate precautions as is their ter crop will provide other sources printing.

The basic design of the 1957 dollar, showing George Washington's portrait on the face and both sides of the Great Seal of the United States on the back, is the same. There are these changes. though

Finally, the new dollar bill will carry the name of the present Secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, who replaced George M. Humphrey. And on its face will appear the series date 1957-A, a date that represents not the time of printing but the latest change in design. Letters A, B. C. D, and so on that follow the series date stand for successive signatures of United States treasurers or treasury secretaries. Most bills currently in circulation bear a 1935 series date. Rare dollars of this and earlier series are collector's items. A special 1918 issue by United States Registrar Houston N. Teehee, an Oklahoman of part-Indian descent, is worth around $100. And then there are actual freaks bills that rate high in collecting circles: a dollar bill with a George Washington face on both sides, and an "$11 bill' combining one and 10 dollar designs.

Salvaging charred and mutilated currency is a big business and an exacting one in the Treasury Department. Armed with tweezers, needles, blades, and magnifying glasses, these Treasury technicians each year reconstruct millions of dollars worth of bills from bits and lumps of paper that at first glance looks like junk.

The Treasury's rule on torn bills is as follows: less than two-fifths of an original bill is worthless. Between two and three-fifths brings half face value, three-fifths and more, full value.

The Treasury has records of having made payments for bills baked in pies, bills petrified after long burial, bills that have been through dry cleaners, whirled in washing machines — and even swallowed by a goat.

were not as bright as stars. "They glowed with a soft, white light. not near as brilliant as the stars. he said. The objects soon disappeared, but were clearly visible or at least 30 seconds or more.

Winter Cover Crops Highly Beneficial To the Soil

The winds and rains that char acterize winter weather often rol the farmer of valuable top soil some weeks. There now is a through erosion-not to mention the hidden damage from leachenough to begin distribution on a ing. But farmers can prevent this wintertime destruction of their land by planting cover crops.

But it must be remembered tha cover crops do more than just protect the land, says R. J. Hodges extension agronomist. These crops improve the soil itself, leadto increased yields.

Many growers have discovered increases that winter legumes increases their cotton and corn yields, more han paying for the time The wear and tear they get in and money spent in putting lehe normal course of business gumes in, points out the agronomist. These cover plants do not interfere with other crops, coming at a time when farm work slows 1,200,000,000 bills are burned. Thus down. They are turned under to add plant food, especially nitrogen to the soil during the slack period in the spring. Grazing, hay, silage or seed taken from the winof income for the farm, he adds. Annual winter legume crops named by Hodges include vetch. Austrian winter peas, crimson lover, burr clover and sweet clover. Some operators use a combination of annual grass and annual legume while others prefer the annual grass alone.

Nine additional constitutional emendments will be voted on in November, 1958, but these three are to be submitted this year. The League of Women Voters of Texas points out that since the Texas Constitution was adopted in 1876 the voters have approved 226 and defeated 87 amendments to it. On strictly mathematical basis, then, the odds the pending amendments will be adopted are about

The water amendment would create a board with authority to issue state bonds up to $100 million; and the legislature, by a two-thirds vote, could authorize the board to issue another $100 million. They could not bear more than four per cent interest a

The state cannot help any one political subdivision more than $5 million, or one-third of the cost of the project, whichever is less. The money would be loaned to the subdivision by buying its bonds or other securities. The interest rate for the subdivisions would be the one of those two which is the greater amount: the weighted average effective interest rate on all state bonds sold under the act plus one half of one percent, or the effective interest rate of the bonds sold by the subdivision for the purpose of providing the remaining funds required for the project.

Letters to the Editor

The Free Press. Dear Sirs

Because of the information given in connection with a streetwidening program recently proposed in Haskell presumably with endorsement of highway officials, the following letter from Mr. Roberts, State Highway Engineer, will be of interest to the people of Haskell.

Respectfully. Sam P. Herren

Dear Mr. Herren:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 11 in regard to a proposal to revamp the traffic and parking pattern around the Square in Haskell. Receipt is also acknowledged of the newspaper editorial and sketch in this re-

Immediately after receiving your le'ter, I contacted County Judge Turnbow of Haskell and Mayor J. E. Walling in order to find out what the score was. I was informed by Mayor Walling that a joint meeting of the Commissioners Court and the City Commission was held at which this proposal was discussed.

As I remember this proposal it is about as old as the project in Anson and in Stamford. In these cities the local government as well as the citizenship asks the Highway Department for the suggestions and improvements to assist them in handling their traffic problems. If my memory serves me right the same request was made by Haskell and they appointed Mr. E. B. Yeatts as the engineer to develop their plan. The sketch shown in the newspaper was that of Mr. Yeatts.

We did review the plans in Haskell at a Public Hearing in the picture show and explained the position of the Highway Department to the citizenship and explained that many times when a situation is brought to the attention of the Highway Commission, if it has merit and if the people favor it. assistance on the project is au-thorized by the Highway Commission.

To my knowedge there is no plan in the minds of anyone in the Highway Department Lo by-pass the City of Haskell with US Highway 277.

Sincerely yours, J. C. Roberts, District Engineer

Editor. The Free Press,

Better re-figure your production of the Sojourner Field. It sounds like an awful lot of oil produced from those dead wells.

You stated in your October 17 paper, that the Sojourner Field is currently producing 300,000 barrels of oil from 52 wells. If the 300,-000 barrels produced is divided by the number of wells, (52) there will be a total of 5,769.2 barrels of oil produced from each well in a month. Then divide the 5,769.2 barrels of oil produced from each well by 12 (the number of produc-ing days last month), and the re-sult will be over 480 barrels of oil produced from each well daily. Now come, come—we all like Has-kell and Haskell County, but lets keep in reason. The Railroad Commission of Texas will not allow such production, not even from wells that could make it.

Could there have been a mistake? To start with, the reason for water flood, was because the wells were dead, but all of us that have had anything to do with water - flooding know there couldn't be such a tremendous increase from the project. If there was a mistake, we will be looking for the correction in the October 24 Free Press.

Yours very truly, A Weekly Reader. I'll be re-newing my subscript-ion to the Press soon.
